DIED.

At the home of his son, Dr. C. W. Haze, in Pinckney, Tuesday evening, April 29th, 1884, John Haze, in the 72d year of his age.

Mr. Haze was born in New York, Sept. 30, 1792, was a resident of Canada during the war of 1812, and being drafted for service in the British army, fled before the conscription papers were served on him, escaping to the States by crossing the lake in an open boat, and enlisted in the United States army. He came to Michigan in 1837, and his five children, two sons and three daughters, are now residents of the state. Mr. Haze has resided at Lansing most of the time for the past 20 years. He came to Pinckney a few days ago in a very feeble condition, and soon passed to that rest for which he has long been so well prepared. Funeral services will be held at the residence of Dr. Haze, this afternoon, and the remains will be taken to Farmington and laid by the side of his companion who "passed to the other shore" many years ago.

At her home, in Marion, on the 24th inst., of dropsy of the heart, Mrs. Sarah A. Abbott, aged 59 years 7 months 1 day.

She has been a great sufferer for 29 years, but now is at rest with God. She leaves behind her a husband and nine children to mourn her loss, also many relatives and friends. Was born at Dansville, N. Y.

IN MEMORY OF OUR MOTHER.

As droops the flower at winter's breath,
So hast thou faded from our sight;
While we in sadness mourn thy death,
And earth seems steeped in darkest night.

Where once thy face and form were seen,
There now is left an empty void;
Where thy loved footsteps once have been,
Is dearer than the world beside.

Though thy loved voice no more we hear,
We close our eyes, and fondly think
Thy gentle spirit hovers near
To guide us safe from danger's brink.

We weep for thee, Oh spirit blest!
But would not call thee back again;
For life is sad and drear at best,
And thou a brighter home hast gained.

O ransomed spirit safe above,
Within the heavenly paradise;
Look on us with an angel's love,
From thy fair home beyond the skies.

LOCAL JOTTINGS.

Get out your last year's straw hat, and put on some style.

Supervisor Marble has nearly finished his assessment of the township.

Ans. Campbell returned Saturday last, from a three months visit in New York State.

Mr. Roberts, of Chubb's Corners, cut his hand very badly, Monday, while cutting brush with an ax.

It is said that Brighton will have five saloons this year—in anticipation of the encampment "harvest."

Jennings, the fruit tree man, received a large shipment of trees, shrubs, etc., for delivery Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Brokaw, started, a few days since, for New York State, where they will spend a few weeks visiting among friends and acquaintances of former days.

All the lakes in this vicinity are becoming tolerably well stocked with eels. "Bobbing for eels" will soon be as popular a pastime in Michigan as it has been "down east" for generations past.

Why couldn't some enterprising citizen make a good thing out of a roller skating rink? The building could also be leased for political meetings during the approaching campaign.

Another change in the running of trains on the Air Line took place Monday, as will be seen by the corrected time card. The arrangement does not suit our citizens nearly so well as the preceding one.

Rev. G. F. Waters, who was advertised to exchange with Rev. K. H. Crane, of the Congregational Church, Sunday last, was prevented, by illness, from filling his appointment here. He will come next Sunday, however, preaching at Pinckney morning and evening, and also at the Union church in North Hamburg, Sunday afternoon.

Fine spring shower to-day.

Moses Fuller visited friends in Macomb county, last week.

Mrs. Barnard, of Howell, is the guest of H. O. Barnard, and family.

Michigan butchers are having to send to Chicago for meat.

Rosa Bland of North Putnam is seriously ill with scarlet fever.

There is to be a May party at the residence of Jas. R. Hall this afternoon, for the children of the school district.

Miss Mary Sprout has a small cactus which recently "opened out" with nearly fifty luxuriant pink blossoms.

Rev. F. E. Pearce visited friends at Fentonville last week.

Wm. Yancy has moved his barber shop to the corner room of the Monitor House basement.

Dr. Day and family, of Grand Rapids, were the guests of Pinckney friends this week.

Mrs. Bridget Eagan has returned from Iowa, after an absence of about 18 months.

St. John's is jubilant over the prospect of a north and south railroad—for which it is to pay a bonus of $60,000.

W. P. Van Winkle, Esq., will take the township census. The work is to be done during the month of June.

A social at R. S. Elli's, Chubb's Corners, last week, for the benefit of Rev. Henry Marshall, realized a net receipt of $16.00.

DeW. Walker, of Detroit, who has lain "at the point of death" for many weeks is recovering, and hopes to be able to take a trip to Dansville next week.

Mrs. Geo. Miller, of Iosco, is stopping in town for a short time, being under treatment by Dr. Sigler for an affection of the eyes.

Ira Reeves and J. C. Dunn will sit with Supervisor Marble, as a Board of Review, on Monday following the third Tuesday in May.

Dr. Isaac Coleman, of Grand Rapids, son of I. N. Coleman, Esq., of this village, was married on Monday of last week, to a Miss Russell, of Cadillac.

By request, we publish this week an extract from the decision of Judge Newton, in the "public square" case, showing upon what grounds the Judge based his decision.

Perry Blunt has removed his shoe shop from the room over Richards' store to his own building on Marion street, opposite C. N. Plimpton's residence.

Why don't our local sports ask the fish commissioner for brook trout with which to stock Honey Creek? It is fed principally by springs and is very suitable for the growth of trout, we think.

A large whitewood tree near the residence of John Docking, was struck by lightning, Sunday morning, last, and completely demolished. Mr. Docking's son had just driven a flock of sheep from under the tree when it was struck, throwing fragments for rods in every direction.

The "Hinchey" store building, recently vacated by Geo. Day, has been purchased by Gilbert Brown, and is being thoroughly refitted and repaired for the reception of Tompkins & Ismon's Star Clothing House, which will be moved thereto as soon as the improvements are completed.

Four young men fishing on Bass Lake Monday night, met with a mishap which came near being fatal. The kerosene oil tank which supplied the light became so heated by the blaze as to come unsoldered and allow the oil in the can to run out and take fire. In a moment the boat was on fire, and the boys were obliged to take to the water, which luckily chanced to be shallow where they were. And they were not out of the way any too soon, as the surface of the water was immediately covered with a sheet of flame.

Mrs. J. T. Eaman is visiting friends in Ann Arbor.

Mrs. S. L. Ismon, of Albion, and Mrs. Horace Ismon, of Jackson, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Geo. R. Ismon this week.

There is an ordinance prohibiting stock running at large on the streets. Owners will save trouble and expense by complying with it—is the warning of our village marshal.

The final settlement of the Pinckney public square matter is at last within reach of the people of the township. The title to the property has been conveyed by warranty deed from the Kirkland heirs through another party to a syndicate of eight persons, who furnished means to contest the title in the courts. This deed is now on record in the Register's office. There is, however, in the hands of James Marble, supervisor of the township, a contract by which it is agreed that the township of Putnam may regain possession of the property in question on payment of the expenses incurred in the litigation incident to its recovery. If the township votes to purchase from these parties it will effect an immediate and final settlement. Should it fail to do so, the property must remain in its present condition for at least two years to come, with possible if not probable litigation to follow even that period. Nothing that has ever occurred has been so great an injury to the village as the unfortunate litigation which has put the title of the square in question during the past year. The township at large is responsible in a measure for this misfortune occasioned by its neglect to improve and make good the title to property which was set apart for its use. And we feel that the people of the township are under some obligation to remove this obstruction which endangers the future prosperity of the village. While the expense may seem large to some, it will be trifling when spread over a valuation of nearly a million dollars taxable property. The building now on the ground is worth the amount involved. Its use by the village, (for which it would pay rent to the township) together with its proper use for township purposes, would pay interest on the investment. What is for the interest of the village is equally for the interest of every farmer in the township. You have paid thousands of dollars to secure a railroad so as to build up a market town. Will you throw away all the advantages you thus hoped to secure by crushing out the life of the village through means of this public square matter, which stands as "a dog in the manger" to prevent any substantial improvement, by the doubt it casts upon the availability of other locations which might be used for business purposes. If the square could be appropriated to private use and sold off for building lots, that would change the condition of affairs somewhat, but however desirable such disposition of the matter might seem it is impossible. The only immediate settlement of the matter that can be made is for the township to purchase it. A petition has been presented to the Township Board asking them to call a special election for the purpose of accepting or rejecting the contract mentioned. We have no doubt the board will order such election, and we hope every voter in the township will carefully consider the matter in all its bearings. There are many features of the question we have not space to notice this week, but will call attention to in future issues.

The following transfers are reported for the Pinckney Dispatch by Register Dudley, for the week ending April 26th, 1884.

THE NEWS

MICHIGAN MATTERS.

SWIFT JUSTICE.

Luke Phipps to be Hanged June 17.

The public are familiar with the details of the shooting of Edie Phipps by her husband, Luke Phipps, on a ferry boat between Detroit and Windsor in the summer of 1883. It will be remembered that Phipps was arrested and lodged in the jail in Sandwich from which institution he escaped in November last, together with one Greenwood, and that after some weeks Phipps was recaptured in Pullman, Ill. He made a determined effort to have his case tried on the American side, and the matter was finally decided by the authorities in Washington, and Phipps turned over to the Canadian authorities.

The trial was set for the 25th of April, and at 9:30 o'clock on that day court opened. A little later on the clerk of the court called out the names of the jurors and finally got the required number in their positions with Emory Todd as foreman. The prisoner seemed well satisfied with the men chosen. The crown was represented by Mr. Lister, Q. C., and C. J. W. Lomeny of Detroit and Solomon White, M. P., for the prisoner.

The case was opened by Mr. Lister. Witnesses were at once called and testified to the domestic troubles of the prisoner and his wife, and gave a recital of a long series of difficulties which finally culminated in the fearful tragedy. Other witnesses were sworn as to the scene on the boat, and the distance of the vessel from the shore when the fatal shot was fired.

Solomon White made an eloquent appeal for mercy for the prisoner, and marshaled together all the arguments that could be brought forward in his favor. Q. C. Lister grimly clinched the last link in the chain. The judge, in a calm, even voice, with marked English accent, gave a most impartial charge that was the more crushing for the prisoner on account of its evident fairness, and the jury stood out. They were out about half an hour, and that time must have been the most terrible in Phipps' life, and when the jury filed slowly to their places the faces of many of them were as pale as that of the prisoner. As he eagerly scanned the one by one which Phipps must pay the penalty for his crime.

At last the judge spoke: "Luke Phipps, having you anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced against you?" Phipps at first shook his head, but finally rose and holding the rail with both hands, said huskily: "Nothing, except that it was not without murder."

The judge then, without assuming the customary black cap, passed sentence, ending with the terrible words: "You shall be taken to the place from whence you came, and from thence, at 10 o'clock on the 17th of June, to the place of execution and there hanged by the neck until you are dead, and may God have mercy on your soul."

Supported on the arms of two stalwart constables, the wretched man passed through the door to the jail, disappearing forever from the sight of the hushed crowd in the court room.

A Crouch Murderer.

Joseph Allen, 25 years of age, a teacher, was arrested in Hamilton, Ont., a few nights ago by Detective Murray, of Jackson, Mich., and Detective McKenzie, of the Hamilton police force, charged with complicity in the murder of Jacob Crouch, his daughter and her husband, Henry White, and Moses Polley on November 23 last.

Allen, who is of a roving disposition, left Hamilton for the states a couple of years ago. He returned a short time ago and resided with the old folks. A private detective hired by the relatives of Crouch wormed himself into Allen's confidence and traveled around with him from Jackson, where Allen had been living, to other towns. But finally Allen became suspicious and gave Jones the slip. The detective, satisfied from what Allen told him that he was mixed up in the Crouch affair, traced him to his home in Hamilton. For several days Allen eluded the officers but they finally succeeded in arresting him. He went quietly with the officers, refusing to acknowledge or deny his guilt, and as he waited extradition proceedings, Detective Murray sat at once for Jackson via Detroit. The detectives are reticent, but say Allen was a leader in the ragged and knows the whereabouts of all concerned in it. He bore a good reputation in Hamilton and his people are respectable. Matters are now in such a shape that if they are followed up to a successful issue, will materially affect the Crouch-Holcomb case, and may even render the prospective trial altogether unnecessary. It is understood that the much talked about tin box and the papers that were taken on the night of the murder are now in the possession of the detectives and the attorney for the defense.

Winney's Opinion.

The Jackson Citizen of April 25th, publishes the following interview with Sheriff Winney: "Sheriff Winney returned from Hamilton, Ont., on the 23rd express to-day. He went there to examine and obtain any effects of the prisoner Allen, that might bear upon the matter of what he knows about the Crouch murders. Mr. Winney found some papers which had been put into the hands of a lawyer by Allen's mother for safe keeping, and which the lawyer took from his safe and delivered to Winney at his request. They consist solely of original government deeds of the Crouch lands in this county issued to Jacob D. Crouch, and of no value to anyone now. When or how Allen gained possession of them, Mr. Winney cannot tell, nor can he obtain any further information of interest to the public from Allen, but the Sheriff says he has no use for the man, and the detectives and prosecuting Attorney may have him and welcome; and he hopes that his statement which will be made on his examination may divulge something that we don't already know, but he doubts it. He could find no lawyer in Hamilton that was willing to come over here and attend to his case, and therefore thinks that he will be arraigned speedily; when an effort will be made to get him to talk. The Sheriff says that the statement of the eastern papers that he said he had a clear case against Holcomb, is entirely false."

STATE PRISON.

Judge Smith of the Barrien circuit court sent John Bolton to jail to get sobered up. John managed to get the money for a fine and for a time business at the sheriff's hotel was lively.

Chas. F. Mather, book keeper, and assistant secretary of the Muskegon Booming Company, was found lying dead on the floor of the office near the vault about 8 o'clock the other morning. He had opened the office as usual about 7:30 and while trying to open the vault was stricken down with apoplexy. His body was warm and he still faintly breathed when found half an hour afterwards. Deceased was about 45 years old and went there from Chicago a year ago to take his late position. A week ago his brother, a leading hardware merchant of Muskegon, was taken to the asylum for insane in a bad condition. Both families have been sadly afflicted in a few weeks. The verdict from the coroner's jury was death from apoplexy.

John Fedewa a farmer living a few miles north of Portland was suffocated in a well in which he was at work. Efforts were made to draw him up, but the hook broke, letting the bucket back in the well. No one dared to go down after him, and it was not until the next day that the unfortunate man was hooked out. He had undoubtedly died at once after falling back.

Work on the street railway in Kalamazoo is being pushed vigorously. The other night two men were seen in a grocery store of John Verbocks, on the corner of the city, with a revolver in their hands, and a woman in their power. One of the men, a stranger, with a revolver in his hand, had a woman in his power. One of the men, a stranger, with a revolver in his hand, had a woman in his power.

A fish pedler named Devries, who has lived in St. Johns several years, was arrested recently for a brutal assault upon his wife and stepdaughter. On being arrested he gave bonds to appear for trial, but at noon on the 21st inst., he was found hanging by the neck in his own house, dead.

Geo. Allen and Lou Solomon of Sturgis sought to evade the officers who were looking for them, and burrowed into a straw stack and remained there a night and day. The straw took fire in some unaccountable way, and Allen and the woman were frightfully burned. It is not probable that the girl will recover, but if she does she will always be disfigured. Allen's injury is not so serious, but he is disfigured.

Manicure shops are being established regularly despite the strike. Victor Merrill of Ovid was accidentally shot through the heart by a bullet from a gun which he was using to clean up a gun. He was taken to the hospital, but died in five minutes he was dead. Four years ago, when only 19 years old, he married Ella, a daughter of William McCarty, of Ovid. His widow is all the family he leaves.

There is trouble in Albion, a college between the President and students, in regard to a society matter. Grand Traverse greenbacks have declared in favor of Butler.

The temperance people of Dundas, Monroe county, won a pronounced victory at the election on the 21st inst.

A Houghton paper says that a miner named John Gretek fell 200 feet and broke his leg. It doesn't state how far the man would have to fall to break his neck.

The Port Austin News says of the stone quarry near that place recently purchased by Port Huron capitalists: "The company which recently purchased the Cole farm, above this village, have set men at stripping the rock, to know certainly just how good a quality of stone they have. So far the development is very satisfactory, showing stone which splits evenly and in any desirable size for grindstone patterns, for which it is well adapted, while it is also excellent for building purposes. The refuse is being used to improve the road between the quarry and village. Some 200 cords of building stone are needed to fill orders already received by the company, and will be loaded on cars as quickly as it can be got ready."

A serious accident occurred at Douglas' dam, on the east side of Tittabawassee, where Thomas Merrill has a crew breaking in and driving logs. They had cartridges filled with powder which were exploded by means of caps. Some of these cartridges and a box of caps had been placed in a drawer at the Douglas camp and the caps had been scattered among the contents at the time Patrick Walsh was looking in the drawer for a letter. He was smoking and supposed fire must have fallen from his pipe into the caps, thus producing an explosion which scattered the contents of the drawer in all directions. His face and neck were burned and his eyes seriously injured. His right hand was lacerated and it was found necessary to amputate the middle finger. The first joint. The left hand also was hurt. A man named Dunning was also injured and his hands and sustained flesh wounds. His wounds are probably fatal. Had all the cartridges in the drawer exploded it is thought that 40 men would have been killed.

Will H. Montgomery, formerly of Pontiac, Gazette office, has bought Rocky Mountain Herald, Denver.

Hon. Chas. P. Dibble of M. all, died since 1883, and the first mayor (1890) died at Aiken, S. C., where he was visiting a son.

John Wynn of Adrian, who was one of the earliest soldiers in the war between and who was taken prisoner and marched 300 miles back to Liberty, his feet bleeding every morning from the previous day's travel, has just received $1,400 back pension.

Allen's stories in regard to the Crouch murder "pan" out about as "Scotty's" did, and officials regard in about the same light.

Mat Kennedy, the robber who escaped from the jail at Sandwich, Ont., where he was confined for the robbery of the Harrow postoffice some months ago, was convicted of that crime and also of assaulting with intent to kill, the turnkey of the jail at the time Callaghan and Kennedy made their escape.

The voters of Douglas township, Montclair, have voted to have the town reserved and corners established anew. The job will cost $300.

A Marshall school teacher received the following excuse recently: "Tom's state home cuz had no close and that's excus cuz zold nos."

Ned Lyons, the husband of the notorious Sophie Lyons, was discharged from prison in Connecticut the other day, and at once re-arrested for a crime committed in New York.

While his family were absent Benedict Bourne's farm house, three miles from Dowagiac was burned to the ground with all its contents. Cause unknown. Loss $2,000, insurance $1,200.

The perpetrators of the Scholtz robbery and murder at East Tawas were arraigned a few days ago. They admit the robbery (although claiming to have obtained no money) but deny the shooting. Their trial is set for May 13.

Kennedy, who escaped with Callaghan from the Sandwich jail a short time ago, has been tried and convicted of the crime of robbing the Harrow postoffice, (for which crime he was waiting trial) and also for assaulting with intent to kill the turnkey at the time of the escape.

Greenbackers in Hillsdale, Barry, and Eaton counties, endorse Butler for the Presidency. The large mill in Menominee, belonging to the Ludington mills and Vanshank lumber company, was burned to the ground the other night. Loss $100,000; insured for $4,000.

The man Allen who was arrested in Hamilton, Ont., recently, charged with the Crouch murder, was arraigned April 25. He pleaded "not guilty."

Fire broke out in the livery stable of Moses Barney on Twenty-third street, near Water street, in Bay City, a few nights ago. Barney's boarding house on the corner, Dr. Garbley's drug store, Leroux's shoe shop, Ashley's grocery, Barney's residence and two ice houses belonging to the Bay City Brewing Company, all frame structures, were reduced to ashes. With difficulty the fire department saved the brewery adjoining on the north, and Hamilton, McGregor & Corye's mill property on the west. The total loss is from $9,000 to $12,000. The loss on buildings, all of which, except the ice houses, were owned by Barney, is about $5,000. The contents were mostly destroyed. It is understood that the "owned" property is insured. Barney is absent from the city. Ashley loses $2,000 in stock, Garbley $1,000, Leroux $150, Barney $2,200. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Monroe will celebrate its centennial next July 4th, and the 11th Guard and Grand Army post will be among the leaders in the matter. Something unusually fine and worthy is contemplated.

When the vote was taken in the House the other day on the shipping bill, Congressman Hatch, of Michigan, announced himself in favor of free ships. Though a protectionist in other things, he was willing to let vessels bought in Canada by American citizens be registered free of charge. He voted for Mr. Corder's amendment to admit free vessels of 4,000 tons and over. Mr. Cutcheon, the only other Michigan Republican member present, voted no.

Dr. G. W. Underwood, a pioneer of Hillsdale, and the first mayor of the city, died on the 27th inst.

CAPITAL NEWS.

THE GOVERNMENT WILL CONTROL IT. Senator Conger's bill "For the government and control of St. Mary's Falls canal," as passed by the Senate directs the secretary of war to assume full control over the canal and lands appertaining thereto, piers, etc., and to the extent of the jurisdiction of any United States court in whose district the vessel violating may be found.

NEWS NOTES.

A MOTHER'S CRIME. Mrs. Amelia Barner of Eaton, Pa., locked the door of her house, bore her two children, one age 12 years and the other 5 months, on the bed, and cut their throats with a razor, then gave an alarm, and as the neighbors rushed in drew the razor across her own throat and threw herself beside her children. All three are mortally wounded.

NEW YORK AND VIRGINIA.

Republican Conventions Held in Each of these States.

The approaching national conventions at Chicago, and the numerous state and district meetings to nominate delegates to the same, given lively air to the politics of this country. Conventions were held by Republicans in New York and by Readjusters and Republicans in Virginia on the 23d of April. Both of these bodies endeavored the political prospect by taking steps that were not entirely looked for, while they were alike possible.

THE NEW YORK CONVENTION.

was called to order at 12:30. The roll call showed the only contest to be the delegates from Montgomery county. Mr. Roosevelt then nominated Nathaniel C. Boynton (Edmunds-Arthur candidate) for temporary chairman. Warner Miller moved to substitute the name of Edward L. Pitts (Blaine candidate) for temporary chairman. A roll call was ordered. There was tremendous applause mingled with hisses when Thomas C. Platt voted for Pitts.

The Secretary announced 391 votes east, of which Boynton had 251 and Pitts 240. Declaring cheers greeted the announcement of the result. The Chairman declared Boynton appointed.

Boynton took the chair and loud applause. The tariff plank in the platform is as follows: "Its approval of that policy of protecting home industry from foreign competition which has through a century of the nation's being encouraged immigration, retarded labor, fostered enterprise, and assured unparalleled progress and prosperity, all variations from which policy have been the cause of business confusion and disaster, and which, therefore, is alike justified in intelligence and by experience."

The party also declares "its wish for the removal of all unjust restrictions upon American shipping interests, the development of our maritine industries, and as incidental thereto the establishment of our navy upon a footing in keeping with the modern necessities and our dignity as a nation."

At the conclusion of the reading of the platform the tellers announced the result of the ballot for delegates at large as follows: Theodore Roosevelt.....472 Andrew D. White.....407 John L. Gilbert.....342 Edwin Packard.....298 Warner Miller.....249 Alonzo B. Cornell.....228 adopted a resolution whereby the Readjuster party becomes merged into the Republican organization. Senator Mahone, the father of the Readjuster element, was chosen chairman of the delegation to the Chicago national convention of Republicans.

The New York Tribune says that of New York's 73 votes at Chicago Blaine will get 24, Arthur 25, Edmunds 14, and 4 against Arthur, but with no avowed preferences.

THE VIRGINIA READJUSTERS.

FROM A FOREIGN SHORE.

Representative Davidson of Florida, whose district embraces Key West, says that the newspaper accounts of the filibustering expedition are padded out and exaggerated to a wonderful degree. "But he says there is an extreme tension on the part of the Cubans of lower Florida, and a well organized expedition for the relief of Cuba would undoubtedly receive thousands of recruits from the gulf states if such an expedition could be successfully gotten away. "Cuba must beripe for insurrection," said Mr. Davidson, "if the handful of men which formed Aguirre's expedition have succeeded in stirring up the country to the extent claimed by the press dispatches; and I do not doubt that operations of an extended character are now going on within the United States for the purpose of freeing the island from Spanish oppression. But, like all previous efforts, it is likely that these attempts will prove as futile and abortive as any of them."

SLAUGHTERED INSCENTS.

The Paris Figaro's Cairo correspondent sends details of the recent Shendi massacre. Three hundred Egyptian troops and 600 non-combatants, preferring to make a hazardous attempt to march to Berber's starving inside Shendi, set out for the latter place on the 15th inst. Part of the number went slowly by steamer down the river, while others marched along the river bank. When two hours distance from Shendi they were attacked by Arabs, and after a short fight all the troops, excepting a few were massacred. The Arabs afterward captured Shendi. Egyptian troops have all discarded arms and uniforms in the hope of being spared. Few, however, escaped the general massacre. The thousand men, women and children, were slaughtered. Many of them were refugees from Khartoum.

"AND THE EARTH DID SHAKE." A severe shock of earthquake was felt in and around Colchester, Essex Co., England, on April 22. In Colchester, alone, the damage to buildings will reach $50,000. The earthquake seems to have been more severe in Essex county than elsewhere, as the dispatches report the destruction of property there as very great. Many farm houses being wrecked and Lazenby, which had stood the storm of many years, destroyed. Colchester is a city of 27,000 inhabitants, a parliamentary and municipal borough and river port, on the Colne, which is there crossed by several bridges. It is on the Eastern Union railway, 51 miles north-west of London. Lazenby is situated five miles south of Colchester, near the sea. A number of deaths are reported, the victims in each case being killed by falling buildings.

FOR GORDON'S RELIEF. A council was held in Cairo the other day, at which it was decided to advise the British government to send a mixed expedition of British and Egyptian forces to the relief of Berber. Such an expedition could reach there in two months. The Pall Mall Gazette continues to denounce the ministry for their abandonment of Gordon. It says: "Although Berber is the key to Khartoum, the ministry can not resolve that Berber must be saved. Speculations are auring the ministry to their doom." Sir Edward Walker, member of parliament, offered $1,000 toward the rescue of Gen. Gordon. He asks the London papers to open a fund for this purpose, "when," he says, "£200,000 would be collected in a few hours." The Times announces that it has received many offers of money in response to Gen. Gordon's appeal to Sir Samuel Baker for aid in his defence of Khartoum. The Times has returned the contributions, however, hoping the government will take what action is suitable for Gordon's relief. The Standard says it is expected 8,000 troops will be sent from Cairo to the Soudan, including some English.

CONGRESS.

APRIL 21.

SENATE—A number of petitions were presented and referred asking that no discrimination be made between different schools of medicine in appointments are made. A bill was passed authorizing the Secretary of War to cancel any indebtedness the trustees of the Southern Illinois University at Carbondale may owe the United States for destruction of arms and accoutrements property of the United States by a fire which consumed the University buildings. Mr. Josias Louislaus introduced a bill providing for an industrial and cotton exposition to be held at New Orleans. A bill was introduced by Mr. Ingalls of Kansas to amend the statute so as to prohibit collectors of internal revenue from charging or receiving any special tax license or fee for the sale of intoxicants in states where local laws prohibit the sale or manufacture of such liquors. The Senate took up the bankruptcy bill, which measure was discussed by Senators Van Wever, Hoar, Ingalls et al, and finally passed by a vote of 32 to 16.

House—The Senate bill to provide for presidential succession was reported back to the House. Mr. Rosecrans of California introduced a bill to create a silk culture bureau and to establish silk culture stations; Mr. Henley of California, one to promote and encourage education in the states and territories; to reduce the internal revenue tax on brandy distilled from grapes, peaches and grapes; providing that officers and employees of national soldiers' homes be selected from volunteer officers, soldiers and sailors; to permit publishers of newspapers to send marked copies of their publications at second class rates; prohibiting the attorney-general from entering into any contract with any person to set aside a patent on condition the person shall pay the cost of litigation. A bill was passed creating a bureau of navigation in the treasury department. A bill was also passed to regulate granting pensions in certain cases. As passed the bill provides that persons specified in the pension laws of the United States, who served in the field in military or naval service in any war in which the United States has been engaged, for a period of three months or more, who has been honorably discharged, and is now disabled from a greater or less degree by that service, and who, by reason of service is disabled from manual labor be entitled to receive a pension during the continuance of such disability at a rate proportionate to the degree thereof.

APRIL 22.

SENATE—Mr. Blair of New Hampshire from the committee on education and labor, reported favorably a bill to create a commission to inquire into and report upon the material, industrial and intellectual progress made by colored people of the United States since 1865. Mr. Conger of Michigan introduced a resolution directing an inquiry into the Portage Lake and Lake Superior ship canal as a condition of the amount and value of all aids and grants from the United States to the state of Michigan. The resolution was agreed to. On motion of Mr. Cameron of Wisconsin the Senate took up the bill to accept and ratify certain agreements made with Sioux Indians, and to grant right of way to the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway company through the Sioux reservation, Dakota. Mr. Cameron asked a group right of way through land that had been recently passed by the Senate, would be thrown open for settlement. The bill passed without debate. On motion of Mr. Cameron the Senate took up a similar bill to accept and ratify certain agreements made with Sioux Indians and to grant right of way to the Dakota Central railway company through the Sioux reservation. The bill passed without debate. The chair laid before the Senate the pending appropriation bill, so it may continue as an unfinished business to-morrow.

House—The House ordered that until further notice, recess be taken from 5 to 6 o'clock daily, and till otherwise ordered the evening sessions, except Fridays, for tariff debate only. The House then went into committee of the whole on the tariff bill. Discussing the bill, Mr. McKerzie said it bore, apparently, the mark of the crowned head of the British empire, and that it would be a disgrace to the American people with an amendment showing that a protective tariff was in the interest of the American laborer. Herbert of Alabama made an elaborate argument in favor of the bill. He cited as an example of the style and argument to which protectionists resorted, the action of Mr. McKinley in producing the advertisement of the Curlye shape, and sarcastically referred to that advertisement as a reason for maintaining the high duty on the cheap class of crockery used by the people of this country. If Mr. Curlye should be instrumental in bringing down the iniquitous tariff, he would deserve to live in bronze and marble, and would receive a vote of thanks from the people for his efforts in their behalf. The committee rose and the House went into committee of the whole (Mr. Springer in the chair) on the pension appropriation bill, the pending amendment being that offered by Mr. Rosecrans of California, transferring the duties of pension agents to the pay department of the army. The amendment was lost. On motion of Mr. Rogers of Arkansas, an amendment was adopted providing that no agent, attorney or other person shall demand or receive a fee for his services in cases of pension or bounty or land claim until the allowance of the claim; that all fees in pension cases shall be paid out of the first installment of the pension to the claimant; that no fee shall exceed $10, except in the case of a special written contract on file in the pension office and approved by the commissioner of pensions, where $25 may be charged; and prescribing the power which the secretary of the interior may exercise over pension attorneys. The committee then rose and reported the bill to the House and it passed. A recess was taken till 8 o'clock when the House again convened for debate on the tariff bill.

APRIL 23.

SENATE—The chair laid before the Senate a message from the President transmitting the report of the secretary of state giving information concerning the average production, consumption, exportation and importation of wheat, rice, corn and cotton in foreign countries. Mr. Conger of Michigan, from the committee on commerce, reported favorably and asked unanimous consent to be put at once upon its passage a bill providing for government control of the Salt St. Marie Falls canal, Michigan. Mr. Ingalls of Kansas said the bill was too important to be considered without debate and he would object. The bill was therefore placed on the calendar. Immediately on disposal of the morning business, however, Mr. Conger called the bill up again and it passed. The Senate proceeded to the consideration of a bill on the calendar. The bill amending the revised statutes in relation to timber depredations was passed. It protects Indian reservations from unlawful cutting of timber. A bill denying the title and duties of certain officers of the medical department of the army was passed. It prescribes that six officers of that department having the rank of colonel be styled assistant surgeon general, and officers with the rank of lieutenant-colonel be styled deputy surgeons general, the rank and pay of all to remain as at present. Mr. Brown of Georgia, representing the minority of the committee on woman's suffrage, submitted the views of that minority in opposition to the measure recently reported by the majority of the committee, which proposed a constitutional amendment granting the right of suffrage to women. The pleuro-pneumonia bill was taken up as a special order and discussed at great length.

House—The naval and post office appropriation bills were reported by Senate amendments, and a recommendation of non-concurrence. The naval bill was afterward debated, the debate becoming very personal. The House adjourned till evening session, when the tariff bill was discussed.

APRIL 24.

SENATE—A communication was received from the attorney general asking for the immediate appropriation of $40,000 for the payment of jurors and witnesses for United States courts. A bill was passed providing for the disposal of abandoned military reservations. It authorizes the President whenever in his opinion any portion of a military reservation becomes useless to place it in charge of the secretary of the interior, who shall have it surveyed, subdivided, appraised and sold. The bill amending the revised statutes relating to trespassers on Indian lands was passed. It adds imprisonment to fine as already provided for. Favorable reports were made on the bills for the admission of Tacoma into the Union, to amend the pension act relating to attorney fees, to constitute a bureau of navigation in the treasury department, and for downward in the treasury receipts of the money order system and payment of its expenses out of appropriations. The pleuro-pneumonia bill came up as unfinished business.

House—The Senate bill was passed for the relief of F. G. Schwab of Oregon. A joint resolution was passed authorizing the secretary of war to lease to the board of fish commissioners of Michigan a certain strip of land adjacent to Salt St. Marie canal. Reports were submitted as follows: By Mr. Maybury an adverse report on the woman suffrage constitutional amendment; by Mr. Alexander, from the committee on territories, to recognize the legislature of Utah territory. The House then went into committee of the whole on the Senate amendments of the naval appropriation bill. Mr. Kasson withdrew the point of order which had sent the postoffice appropriation bill and Senate amendments to the committee of the whole, and the House proceeded to their consideration. The amendments were not concurred in. The House then took a recess until 5 o'clock when the debate on the tariff bill was commenced.

APRIL 25.

SENATE—Mr. Blair of New Hampshire, from the Committee on Education and Labor, reported favorably the House bill to establish and maintain a Bureau of Labor statistics. Also a bill introduced in the Senate to provide for the study of physiology and effects of intoxicating narcotic and poisonous substances on life, health and welfare among the people of Territories and District of Columbia. Placed on the calendar. A message was received from the House non-concurring in the Senate amendment to the naval appropriation bill. Mr. Hale of Maine moved that the Senate insist on its amendments, and appoint a committee of conference. The rest of the session was devoted to the consideration of the bill to regulate inter-state commerce.

House—The entire session was devoted to the consideration of private bills, and the evening session to the consideration of pension bills, 15 of which was passed.

APRIL 26.

House—The Speaker announced the appointment of the following conference committee: On the Naval appropriation bill—Messrs. Hutchings, Randall and Callahan; on the Postoffice Appropriation bill—Messrs. Townsend, Holman and Horr. The House proceeded to the consideration of the bill to remove certain burdens of the American merchant marine, and encourage the American foreign carrying trade. A long and animated discussion ensued, and the bill was put to vote and passed.

STRAY STRAWS.

A large part of the Congo country is now under the protection of the French. Gen. Gordon will remain at his post in Sudan. During the performance in the Sidol circus, Buenos Aires, the other evening the roof of the structure fell in. The lights were extinguished and a terrible panic ensued, which was increased by the outbreak of fire. Five dead bodies and 100 wounded having been carried from the ruins. A large number of persons are missing. Blaine, with becoming modesty, says Gen. Sherman is his candidate. Prince Victor of Wales will be made a duke upon attaining his majority. Again reported that the Pope will seek an asylum in France. Germany will station men of war permanently on the west coast of Africa. Notwithstanding the fact that the charges against Judge Advocate General Swan were withdrawn Secretary Lincoln thinks they should be investigated. President Arthur concurs in Mr. Lincoln's opinion, and Monday May 5 has been appointed as the day for the examination.

In hundreds of instances where Hot Springs and other treatment failed to cure scrofula and syphilitic disorders, the sufferer has yielded and found a cure in Dr. Guyssot's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla. It enriches the blood, strengthens the urinary and digestive organs, and quickly removes all indications, of ill health and blood disease, from a pimple to a running sore, from a headache to a rheumatic pain. Its superiority over all other blood purifiers and strengthening medicines is admitted by all who test its curative effect and influence.

THE COLONEL'S REPLY.

"My Fred! I can't understand it. And his voice quivered with pain. While tears kept slowly dropping. On his trembling hands like rain; For Fred was so brave and loyal, so true; but my eyes are dim. And I can not read the letter. The last I shall get from him: I leave read it, sir, while I listen. In fancy I see him dead. My boy snout down like a traitor! My noble, my brave boy Fred!"

THE WIFE'S SECRET.

CHAPTER I. "I have quite decided upon one thing," said Captain Ruthven to his friend Doctor Brent, as they walked slowly down Castle Street. "I will take a wife back with me to India, if it be possible."

fortunate in having such a hero as Captain Ruthven to introduce. I shall shine in the light reflected from you, Charley." "Don't be so absurd, Frank. Do you suppose the Upton people have never seen a soldier before?" "Many a score; but it is not often that an officer renowned for his bravery, et cetera, wounded, and consequently interesting, finds his way hither. I have lived ten years in Upton, and you are the first I have seen. Make up your mind to accept an ovation; you will be the conquering hero. Fall in love with any one you like, excepting always May Brooke. I am half in love with her myself."

The Mormon Doctrine of Polygamy Mrs. Helen Jackson (H. H.) writes in the May Century of "The Women of the Bee-Hive," and says in part: "The doctrine, to be completely studied, must be considered both from man's point of view and the woman's, the two being, for many reasons, not identical. But it is the woman's view of it, in her belief and position in regard to it, which are most misrepresented and misunderstood by the world. If the truth were known, there would be few persons in whose minds would be any sentiment except profound pity for the Mormon woman—pity, moreover, intensified by admiration. There has never been a class or sect of women since the world began who have endured for religion's sake a title of what has been, and is, and forever must be, endured by women of the Mormon Church. It has become customary to hold them as disreputable women, light and loose, unfit to association with the virtuous, undeserving of any esteem. Never was a greater injustice committed."

turn from Cannes so that his death might happen in England. From a state of acute suffering he passed off Sunday evening to a comatose condition from which he never recovered. During the early part of his illness he was in the fullest enjoyment of his faculties, and he had recently undertaken to contribute a series of tales to a magazine which were to be followed by studies of biblical personages. These last were unique in conception, as is shown by the preliminary sketch of some of them which he had prepared. The last words from his pen will first appear in America.

"Spots on the Brain." Dr. Foot's Health Monthly. One of our wide-awake New York weeklies (The Hour) presents an article under the above heading which is timely and which cautions the active and over-energetic brain-workers of the present time. The article begins by referring to the fact that the postmortem examination held upon the remains of the late Herr Lasker revealed the fact that the brain was really clouded with spots which, in the course of time, would have impaired his mind had he not died before the culmination of this incipient brain disease.

And they will not bleed or blind me—I shall meet death like a man. Kiss little Blossom; but, father, need you tell her how I feel? A sob from the shadowed corner—Yes—Blossom had heard it all. As she kissed the precious letter, she said with faltering breath: "Our Fred was never a traitor. Though he dies a traitor's death."

It was lonely now, but with his regiment he had not felt lonely; he had been in it some years, and no officer was more loved than the brave young Captain. Here in England life was different. He called on some of his old college friends. A few asked him to dinner, others seemed to have almost forgotten him.

He said Grace. Jim Brown, who died the other day in Detroit, was an original character in his way. It is related of him that one time he was stopping at a farm-house out in Michigan when one day at dinner the lady of the house placed on the table a portion of the carcass of a sheep which had been killed by lightning previously, at the same time requesting Jim to "ask a blessing."

Decision Affirmed. The Supreme Court on April 8, affirmed the validity of the liquor law requiring non-residents who come into our state to sell wholesale intoxicants to pay a tax of $300. The decision was rendered in the case of The People of the State of Michigan v. Samuel A. Walling, brought from the Kalamazoo circuit. In the opinion, written by Judge Sherwood: "The use of intoxicating liquor from the earliest ages has ever been regarded as a thing not to be encouraged. The ancients used wine in its simplest form, but since the discovery of alcohol it has required all the power the government can exert to regulate and control its demoralizing effects. The train of evils which mark the progress of intemperance through the later years is too obvious to require comment. It brings with it degradation of character, impairs the moral and physical energies, increases the number of orphans, paupers, insane, and criminals, undermines and sinks its victims to the lowest depths of vice and profligacy."

FOWLerville.

From the Review.
Mr. H. Hartman has removed to North Lansing, Mich.

Mr. Henry Snyder, of Conway, left home rather suddenly on Monday morning without informing his family or friends of his intended departure. He came to town and borrowed money of different parties—a taining which he could easily do, always having been a man of strict business integrity whose word was as good as his note—and took the morning train east. The first his family knew of his departure was a letter to them from him at Toledo, stating that he was going to Florida. It has been known by the more intimate friends of the family for some time that Mr. Snyder was not exactly right in his mind at all times, and they have guarded against such a move as much as possible by keeping as much money away from him as possible, but they did not anticipate his borrowing it. As soon as his whereabouts can be learned he will be brought home. We make the matter public in order to guard against another such a move by Mr. Snyder in the future.

White Oak is waiting and watching for the new railroad.

One Joseph Allen was arrested on Tuesday at Hamilton, Ont., as being implicated in the Crouch murder. According to the account in the daily papers it appears that Henry Holcomb, brother of Dau. Holcomb, had his suspicions aroused that Allen had something to do with the murder and under disguise he gained his confidence by representing himself to be a "crook" and gradually drew confession of the murder from him. It is claimed he has revealed the whereabouts of the missing papers and that they have been found buried in a glass jar within about two miles of the Crouch farm. Allen is a very desperate character and a noted thief, but the story is thought to be trumped up by the defence and but little credence is put upon it by the public.

EIGHT THOUSAND DOLLARS CASH.
STATEMENT OF S. L. GIBBART.
I have been affected with Rheumatism for the past twenty-five years; I have been so bad for the last three years that I have been obliged to use crutches all this time. I have tried every Rheumatic Remedy I could hear of, and have paid out in cash over eight thousand dollars, and I can solemnly say that I have never taken a medicine that has given me as much relief as Wilson's Lightning Remedy. And I consider it the best remedy for Inflammatory or Acute Rheumatism that exists, and will give relief quicker than any other known remedy. My son was afflicted with the disease, and after taking the first dose he experienced a relief, and was perfectly cured of the disease after taking eight doses. S. L. GIBBART.

CURRENT TOPICS.

The English sloop-of-war Alert, presented to the United States by the British government, is not very fast, but she is the strongest vessel ever built for the English navy, and was for a long time attached to the surveying service. She is bark-rigged and has a large spread of canvas, and is built of wood, 179 feet long over all, with 32 feet six inches beam. The Alert is considerably larger than the Thetis or the Bear, the other vessels of the expedition, and will be used as a supply ship.

The naval appropriation bill as it passed the Senate contains amendments to provide for constructing additional cruisers; requiring the secretaries of war and the navy to report to Congress next December a plan and estimate of cost for works to construct heavy steel guns, and whether such guns had better be made by the government or by private contract; and requiring the secretary of the navy to report to Congress next session plans and estimates for one first-class iron-clad not exceeding 8,500 tons displacement.

The Rev. J. V. Hickmott of St. Joseph, Mich., has imported a number of nut trees and scattered them among the fruit growers of the vicinity. They consist of the English walnut, red filbert, and Kent cob nut. Nut growing in some parts of England is a profitable industry. Mr. Hickmott did something in importing nutmists last spring. This season he is making efforts to please the next generation of boys in furnishing them with "nuts to crack." Free traders may be glad to know that ministers and nut trees are on the free list.

Sylvanus Merrick, who died at Syracuse, N. Y., recently, aged 98 years, was one of the rescuers of Jerry, a fugitive slave captured in that city in 1851, while on his way to Canada. A posse of citizens charged on the court, seized the slave and carried him over the heads of the crowd. It was Merrick who slammed the door in the sheriff's face and the delay allowed Jerry to escape. Merrick was indicted but by a wrong name, and before the error could be repaired he had gone to Illinois, where he remained until the excitement had passed away.

Dr. Sargent, medical director of Harvard college gymnasium, in a lecture at Boston a few nights ago, said that to reduce the weight of a man in training, lean meats may do, but when he is down in weight he must go back to food containing more carbon, such as ham and sausages, which should be eaten cold. Three years ago, said the doctor, this would have been considered ridiculous by trainers, but for a diet for running, walking and rowing it has been found that such saccharine food, with beef or mutton, is the best; tea, coffee and alcohol, as well as condiments, are objectionable.

Referring to the rumor that Germany, in case Pope Leo would leave Rome, would see to it that Jerusalem be ceded to him in entire sovereignty, to there definitely establish the holy seat, a Rome correspondent of the Paris Gaulois says: "The question of Jerusalem as the new capital has already been raised several times, and the cradle of Christianity would certainly be more worthy of receiving the holy seat than any other city. Should the Pope be induced to fix his permanent residence there several questions would arise. Would, for example, Russia allow the center of Catholicity to be transferred so near to her borders?"

The United States supreme court has recently decided a murder case from California involving a question in which Michigan is interested. One Joseph Hurtado was tried in a state court for murder upon an information filed by the county attorney; and an appeal was carried to the United States supreme court on the ground that the 14th amendment to the national constitution provides that "no state shall deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law," and that as the constitution prescribes that "no person shall be held to answer for a capital or otherwise infamous crime unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury," which rule prevails in the United States courts, and is also the practice under the common law, trial for a capital crime upon information is not due process of law. The supreme court decided against the appeal, Justice Harlan alone dissenting. The decision of the court is that the 14th amendment does not interfere with the right of any state to abolish the grand jury system, as Michigan has substantially done.

ORGANIZED FOR WORK.

Michigan Republicans in Convention at Grand Rapids.

The Republican state convention met in Grand Rapids on the 24th inst., and in all respects was a large, harmonious and enthusiastic gathering. The convention assembled with the memory of reverses behind, but with a firm determination to recover the lost ground, and a hopeful feeling that it could be done. Aside from the delegates chosen at the many district conventions, there were present many of the most prominent leaders and zealous workers in the party.

The convention was called to order by Wm. Livingston, Jr., and an impressive prayer offered by the Rev. J. E. Gilbert, pastor of the Division street M. E. church, Grand Rapids. The call for the convention was then read by Gen. Pierce of Grand Rapids, after which Mr. Livingston read a letter from Mr. Lacey, the chairman of the Republican state central committee, whose duties in Washington prevented his attendance upon the convention.

The Hon. Rowell G. Horr of East Saginaw was then called as temporary chairman, and his appearance was greeted with enthusiastic applause. He was in good mood for making a speech, and there was an inspiration in the intelligent, representative body of men who were anxious to hear him. He fittingly expressed his gratitude for being called upon to preside over such a convention as few states and only the Republican party could produce. He would have it known that he would be glad to meet in Greenland. He spoke further of the objects for which the convention had been called, and of his confidence that whoever should be named at the Chicago convention would receive the support of the party, and be ratified by the people at the polls in November next. The speech of Mr. Horr was an able one, and the sentiments expressed met the hearty approval of the convention. At the conclusion of his address, the districts were then called and the work of designating the secretaries and committees of the convention was at once taken up and disposed of.

The convention adjourned until 3 p. m., and when it again assembled Perry Hannah of Grand Traverse at once made a motion that a delegate from each district be appointed, and that they report as early as possible to the convention the name of some man as chairman of the state central committee. He urged the measure as calculated to insure a good man in what at this time is a very important position.

Jay A. Hubbell of Houghton did not understand the motion and there was considerable discussion which was ended by H. M. Duffield of Wayne, announcing that they were not yet in a position to transact business of this character. Let the committee on credentials report that they might know they had a convention and who were entitled to take part in its deliberations.

C. F. Gibson of Bay then gave the report of the committee on credentials, prefacing it with comment upon the remarkable attendance and the fact that the delegates were all well. The list of properly accredited delegates numbered 650. The report was accepted and adopted. H. M. Duffield, chairman of the committee on permanent organization and order of business, reported Marston C. Burch of Grand Rapids as permanent chairman and Edwin T. Bennett of Bay City as permanent secretary.

The committee on the following order of business, and assistant secretaries by the district delegations; the report of the committee on resolutions; the selection of four delegates at large to the Republican national convention at Chicago; the selection of four alternate delegates at large; the election of district delegates not yet elected; and the announcement of those which had been elected, the selection of a chairman of the state central committee.

After remarks by M. C. Burch, the permanent chairman, the list of counties was called and vice presidents and assistant secretaries were announced.

Robt. L. Warren of Van Buren chairman of the committee on resolutions, submitted the following:

The Republicans of Michigan, in convention, assembled to elect delegates to the national convention to be held in Chicago on the 3d day of June next, hereby reaffirm the principles of the party as enumerated in its platform through a history of a quarter of a century. It reaffirms its faith in the ability of the party to secure in the future, as it alone has in the past, such modifications and reforms as time and experience shall prove to be for the growth of the nation and the general welfare of her citizens.

2. They have confidence that the wisdom and patriotism of the Chicago convention will formulate a platform and nominate candidates that the people will approve, and that will, next November, call out from the state of Michigan the old-time Republican majority. The selection of delegates at large was next in the order of business and L. C. Fyfe of Berrien first secured recognition of the chair. He desired to present the name of a man who is one of Michigan's sons, a man who has grown up in the state, imbued with Michigan Republicanism. His candidate was that of his entire convention, was the Hon. Julius C. Burrows of Kalamazoo.

W. M. Kilpatrick of Shiawassee rose to nominate a man who was already the choice of the delegates. His cause cannot be advanced by anything that I might say. He is known all over the land. He is a man of the people and a Republican in the best sense of the term. Mr. Kilpatrick made a ringing speech, and as he concluded with the name of Rowell G. Horr of Saginaw spontaneous cheer, in which all participated, filled the opera house, in which W. H. Brown of Cass county, probably the first colored man who had ever risen in a state Republican convention to present the name of a colored man for political recognition. He did not come as a colored man, but as a Republican. He said: "I present to you a man who is worthy of your support. He is a learned physician. He is honored as a Congressman in the metropolis of the state. He can represent the Republicans of Michigan and draw to it all the colored voters of the state. He requested one of his own people to present him. I am not here with any grievance. We have no threats to make; nothing to demand. We know the Republican party to be our friend, and to us we owe our allegiance. I nominate Dr. Samuel C. Watson of Detroit.

The upper peninsula wanted recognition, and C. E. Holland representing that locality, presented the name of Wm. F. Swift, Marquette. Harry Conant of Monroe was presented as the choice of his district.

Albert W. Hill of Detroit presented the name of William Q. Atwood, colored, of East Saginaw.

Again Mr. Horr's name was brought before the convention, A. J. Sawyer of Washtenaw moving a suspension of the rules and Horr's nomination by acclamation. This was carried by a yell. There was an attempt by several to present a motion to present the name of the Hon. Thos. D. Gilbert to the state convention for delegate at large. It also elected G. W. McBride of Ottawa and C. W. Watkins of Kent members of the state committee.

Sentiment in this district is pretty evenly divided between Edmunds and Blaine, and the delegates to Chicago are not yet ready to express a very decided preference between the two.

SIXTH DISTRICT.

The Hon. William Ball acted as chairman. There were three gentlemen whose friends desired to send them to the Chicago convention, and as but two could go, several ballots were necessitated in determining who should remain at home. M. D. Chatterton of Mason and J. E. Sanger of Pontiac, were elected, and H. B. Blackman, of Howell, who could not get a first place, was first chosen as an alternate by acclamation, and J. B. Atwood of Genesee was chosen as the second alternate. The delegates are Blaine men with a very kindly feeling towards Edmunds. E. C. White of Clinton and C. D. Long of Genesee were elected members of the state central committee.

SEVENTH DISTRICT.

The convention of this district met at Port Huron April 17 and chose John P. Benson of St. Clair and R. B. Noble of Lexington delegates to Chicago, with Alexander Grant of Macomb and George W. Jenks of Huron as alternates. The delegates have decided to remain at home.

EIGHTH DISTRICT.

The eighth district convention was held at East Saginaw on the 22d. W. S. Turck of Gratiot and W. E. Watson of Shiawassee were chosen delegates and S. H. Stevens of Montcalm and W. Hopkins of Isabella alternates.

NINTH DISTRICT.

The Hon. T. J. Ramsdell of Manistee was chairman of this convention and it chose delegates M. P. Gale of Muskegon and Abel Anderson of Muskegon. The alternates are W. M. Sisson of Benzie and F. K. Williams of Antrim. The convention was held at East Saginaw. F. O. Shaw of Newargo and G. W. Stech of Charlevoix are the members of the state central committee.

TENTH DISTRICT.

B. W. Huston of Tuscola acted as chairman and C. F. Sweeney of Bay City as secretary. The delegates are H. H. Aikin of West Branch and George W. Bell of Cheboygan; the alternates, Charles Montague of Tuscola and A. H. Swartout of Crawford. Mr. Aikin is an Arthur man to the extent that will not prevent his earnestly supporting either Edmunds or Blaine. Mr. Bell continues to be a Blaine man. The state central committee are Green Pack of Iocoo and J. C. Rockefeller of Clare.

ELEVENTH DISTRICT.

In this district the delegates chosen are Seth Moffatt of Grand Traverse and S. M. Stephenson of Menominee. The alternates are Thos. B. Duster of Keweenaw and J. H. Steere of Chippewa. The district decided to present the name of ex-senator W. F. Swift for delegate at large. Of the district delegates Mr. Stephenson is strong for Blaine and Mr. Moffatt is said to be inclined the same way though less pronounced. C. E. Holland of Houghton and J. G. Ramsdell of Grand Traverse are members of the state central committee. S. W. LaDu was chairman of the convention and C. G. Grifley secretary.

FOLK NOTES.

Col. Ingersoll is called "the great round fat, old man of Satan" by a western paper.

Dr. Tanner the great faster, is about 50, robust and of fine physique, showing no signs of injury from his long fast.

Tennysen's sister, the wife of Justice Allen K. of the supreme court of Jamaica, died a few weeks ago at the age of 73.

Mrs. Greeley, wife of the Arctic explorer, has taken up her abode in Washington, awaiting the result of the relief expedition.

Kate Field goes to church twice a day every day in the week at Salt Lake. But she admits it is not for spiritual consolation she goes.

Bronson Alcott, who has been dying for more than a year, is marvelously recovered just now, and is able to converse freely with his friends.

The Empress of Austria has learned to set type, and she glories in the fact she can keep up with the smartest Viennese compositors of the other sex.

Mary Anderson's equipage attracts much attention in the streets of London. The coachman and footman wear silver buttons almost as large as soup plates.

Henry Ward Beecher is said to have illustrated a point in his sermon recently by whistling a bar from an opera as he once heard a caged bullfinch do.

President Arthur favors building a new mansion on Lafayette Square, opposite the White house, for the strictly private home of the Chief Magistrate.

Victor Hugo, at eighty, writes with his own hand all the important parts of MS. "Those of my thoughts that are immortal," he says, "I would not trust to amanuensis."

Queen Victoria has developed a passion for letter writing. Her latest efforts have been in the direction of condolence with the Egyptian khedive on the loss of his mother.

Gen. G. W. Curtis Lee, the eldest son of the late Robert E. Lee, has the reputation of being the handsomest man of his time. He becomes more like his father in bearing as he increases in years.

Quida scolds visitors to Florence for tearing Tuscan wild flowers up by the roots, and the Italian Times retorts by accusing Quida of tearing reputations to shreds and "ruining social flowers in the garden of life."

Miss Gabrielle Greeley will occupy the Greeley homestead at Chappaqua during the coming season. She is still a lovely girl, exceedingly retired, and has, it is said, refused many ambitious suitors for her hand.

Miss Arta Cody, daughter of Buffalo Bill, is a student in the female seminary at Morgan Park, N. Y. She is a handsome young lady of seventeen, and among her other accomplishments is a skilled shot with the rifle and is an expert horsewoman.

Mr. Atwood of Saginaw then withdrew his name in favor of Samuel C. Watson, when another ballot was taken with the following result:

Pending the count, after it had become evident to all that Watson had a good majority he was called to the platform and briefly thanked the convention for the honor. It was not so much a compliment to him as to the loyal and devoted men of the race of which he was a member. It was not only an accomplishment to the colored people of Michigan, but would be an encouragement to the colored men in the south where there are 1,000,000 of them who would vote the Republican ticket if they were properly protected.

The vote was then announced as above and Mr. Watson declared elected.

Pending the next ballot Mr. Parker of Monroe withdrew the name of Harry A. Conant a number of counties added their support to Mr. Burrows.—The ballot resulted as follows:

Whole number of votes.....600
Necessary to a choice.....301
Julius C. Burrows.....290
Thos. D. Gilbert.....210

There were loud calls for Mr. Burrows, who spoke very briefly, assuring the convention of his ability to succeed, and also expressing belief that Michigan would come to the front in support of the Republican nominee for President, whether it be Arthur or Logan or Edmunds or Blaine.

THE ALTERNATES.

The following alternates for the delegates at large were then speedily put through by acclamation:

Joseph E. Moore of Lapeer, Ezra L. Koon of Hillsdale, Aaron B. Turner of Kent, Geo. W. Robie of Mason.

The next business was the choice of chairman of the state central committee, and the name of Judge Van Zile of Charlotte was presented. After some discussion upon the matter, a motion to elect Van Zile by acclamation was carried.

Resolutions thanking E. S. Lacey and S. S. Olds for efficient services as chairman and secretary of the committee, also the local committee of arrangements and Chairman Burch were adopted, and the convention adjourned with cheers.

DISTRICT CONVENTIONS.

The various congressional districts held caucuses or caucuses preceding the state convention. So far as their action concerned the selection of secretaries, members of committees, etc., the results appear in their proper place in the reports of the state convention.

THE FIRST DISTRICT.

A. M. Henry was chosen chairman of the Wayne delegation, and T. C. Sherwood, secretary. After the order of business had been agreed upon, Col. Henry M. Duffield presented the name of Gen. R. A. Alger as delegate to the National Republican convention, who was unanimously elected by acclamation.

Samuel Harris of Wayne presented the name of Willis S. Morey of Flat Rock. He, too, was a representative man, one in all respects qualified for the important trust reposed in delegates to the national convention. His election was also by acclamation and without a dissenting voice.

Walter H. Coote was chosen as the first alternate, and John Greusel, Sr., as the second.

D. M. Richardson nominated William Livingston, Jr., as his own successor upon the state central committee and the choice was confirmed.

Neither of the two delegates to Chicago was present, and was authorized to speak with reference to their presidential preferences. Mr. Henry, however, said that Gen. Alger was not, as had been stated, in favor of the nomination of Gen. Grant.

SECOND DISTRICT.

Of the second district convention A. G. Sawyer of Washtenaw was chairman and J. V. Barry of Lenawee was secretary. It had been pretty generally agreed that one of the delegates to Chicago should be from Lenawee and one from Washtenaw. W. A. Underwood of the former county and Joe T. Jacobs of the latter were elected, with W. A. French of Monroe and Edwin J. March of Hillsdale as alternates. The convention also decided to support Harry A. Conant for delegate at large. H. B. Rowison of Hillsdale and Barton Parker of Monroe were elected members of the state central committee.

In reference to the presidential nomination the convention took the view that no preferences should be expressed on account of the long interval before the Chicago convention. The delegates to Chicago are non-committal at present, though an intimate friend of one of them says the delegate is not naturally for Blaine.

THIRD DISTRICT.

Of the third district convention Peter B. Loomis of Jackson was chairman and A. J. Aldrich of Branch was secretary. The delegates chosen to Chicago were Edw. C. Nichols of Calhoun and Wm. H. Powers of Barry with John C. Sharp of Jackson and W. H. Coombs of Barry as alternates.

C. R. Bond of Branch and D. B. Anger of Eaton were chosen members of the state central committee.

It was generally reported that both the delegates to Chicago were decided Blaine men. Mr. Nichols, however, states his position as follows: "I have a strong liking for Mr. Blaine. I have also a strong conviction that Edmunds and Lincoln would be a desirable and successful ticket. Future events will determine my course in Chicago."

FOURTH DISTRICT.

The fourth district convention was held in Kalamazoo the day before the state convention. S. T. Keed of Cass and Dr. Josiah Andrews of Van Buren were chosen delegates, with Gen. Wm. L. Stoughton of St. Joseph and W. Irving Babcock of Berrien as alternates. They are for Blaine for President.

FIFTH DISTRICT.

The delegates of the fifth district met and organized by electing G. W. McBride of Ottawa, chairman, and S. V. B. Trowbridge of

PENSIONS TO ALL

SOLDIERS & SAILORS who were disabled by wounds, diseases, accidents or otherwise, the loss of a toe, pines, varicose veins, chronic diarrhoea, rupture, loss of sight or (usually) loss of hearing, falling back of the middle ear, rheumatism, any disability no matter how slight gives you a pension. New and Honorable Discharges Obtained. Widows, children, mothers, and fathers of soldiers dying in the service, or afterwards, from disease contracted or wounds received while in the service, are entitled to pension. HOUSEKEEPER'S DEPARTMENT.

A nice way to prepare potatoes for supper is to take cold mashed potatoes...

White Mountain Cake—One pound of granulated sugar, 1/2 pound of butter...

Canned Peach Pudding—Soak 1 cup of dry bread crumbs in 1 pint of boiling milk...

Cocunut Cakes—One cup of grated cocconut, 1 cup of sifted sugar, a little grated nutmeg...

Lemon Sauce for Puddings—Take the juice of a large lemon, together with the rind, and pour over them a wine-glassful of sherry...

A cheap pudding.—Take one small square loaf of baked bread, peel off the crust, cut in pieces, and pour upon it one pint of boiling water...

Miss Parloa, who has been conducting a cooking school in Detroit for several weeks, among other good recipes, gives the following for coffee...

The lady also gave some valuable suggestions on tea-making, from which we quote: In making tea, the pot should be earthen, rinsed with boiling water...

Sweedish Bread, the recipe for which we find in Miss Parloa's class-recipes, is made as follows: A pint of dough rolled very thin. Mix together 1 tablespoonful cinnamon and 1/2 cupful sugar...

Sticks is the name of another very delicious article of food, the recipe of which is as follows: Four cupfuls of flour, 1 tablespoonful sugar, 1 cupful butter, 1 cupful milk...

A TRAGIC EVENT.

A Father's Despair and Self-Inflicted Death. His Son's Final Rescue, too Late to Save His Parent.

The graphic occurrence that is described below is one of the most remarkable episodes in the domestic history of America. It is absolute truth which can readily be verified.

The inhabitants of the pleasant town of Cortland, N. Y., were shocked one morning by the announcement that Mr. Clinton Rindge, one of their most prominent citizens, had committed suicide.

Mr. Rindge was domestic in his tastes and took the greatest enjoyment in the society of his children and pride in their development. And indeed he had good reason to be proud for they gave promise of long lives of success and usefulness. But an evil day came. His youngest son, William, began to show signs of an early decay. He felt unusually tired each day, and would sometimes sleep the entire afternoon if permitted to do so.

Anyone who reflects upon the facts above described must have a feeling of sadness. The father, dead by his own hand, supposing his son's recovery to be impossible; the son restored to health to mourn the loss of his father, and the agonized relatives with a memory of sadness to forever darken their lives.

The blessings of life are many. Live long and be happy. Don't neglect a cough or cold. Keep yourself well clothed in changeable weather, and always keep a bottle of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry in your household.

MAKE A BEGINNING.—Remember in all things that if you do not begin you will never come to an end. The first weed pulled up in the garden, the first seed in the ground, the first dollar put in the savings bank, and first mile traveled on a journey are all important things.

Nervous debility, indicated by loss of memory, universal lassitude, constant fatigue, vivid dreaming, unnatural excitements, fits of dizziness, etc., is quickly cured by using Dr. Guyssott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla.

According to the United States census of 1880, the total number of improved acres of land under cultivation was 284,771,042. This embraced 4,008,907 farms. The value of these farms—including fences and buildings—was $10,197,996,776.

The short hacking cough, which leads to consumption, is cured by Pias's Cure.

Something that will quiet the nerves, give strength to the body, induce refreshing sleep, improve the quality of the blood, and purify and brighten the complexion, is what many persons would be very glad to obtain.

FOR 25 YEARS I have been afflicted with Catarrh so that I have been confined to my room for two months at a time. I have tried all the humbugs in hopes of relief but to no success.

IS FREQUENTLY RECOMMENDED.—Mr. C. Mooney, of Astoria, Ill., writes us that Allen's Lung Balsam, which he has sold for fifteen years, sells better than any other cough remedy, and gives general satisfaction.

Samuel Johnson, the great nerve conqueror, is guaranteed to give satisfaction, or money refunded. Get at Druggists, $1.20.

VALUABLE AND CONVENIENT.—BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES are a safe and sure remedy for Bronchitis, Coughs, and other troubles of the Throat and Lungs.

"Samuel Johnson cured our daughter's St. Louis epilepsy." Rev. P. P. Shirley, Chicago, Ill.

Dr. Pengelly. Dear Sir:—I have recently moved here from Mason, Mich. I had been taking your Zou-Paora, or "Woman's Friend," and when I got here, much to my disappointment, I was unable to find it here.

I have for four years been a sufferer from female diseases, brought on by ten years of hard work on a farm. Much of the time I have not been able to be on my feet, but I am satisfied that with a few more bottles of your medicine I shall be a well woman.

CURRENT TOPICS.

The English sloop-of-war Alert, presented to the United States by the British government, is not very fast, but she is the strongest vessel ever built for the English navy, and was for a long time attached to the surveying service. She is bark-rigged and has a large spread of canvas, and is built of wood, 179 feet long over all, with 32 feet six inches beam. The Alert is considerably larger than the Thetis or the Bear, the other vessels of the expedition, and will be used as a supply ship.

The naval appropriation bill as it passed the Senate contains amendments to provide for constructing additional cruisers; requiring the secretaries of war and the navy to report to Congress next December a plan and estimate of cost for works to construct heavy steel guns, and whether such guns had better be made by the government or by private contract; and requiring the secretary of the navy to report to Congress next session plans and estimates for one first-class iron-clad not exceeding 3,500 tons displacement.

The Rev. J. V. Hickmott of St. Joseph, Mich., has imported a number of nut trees and scattered them among the fruit growers of the vicinity. They consist of the English walnut, red filbert, and Kent cob nut. Nut growing in some parts of England is a profitable industry. Mr. Hickmott did something in importing ministers last spring. This season he is making efforts to please the next generation of boys in furnishing them with "nuts to crack." Free traders may be glad to know that ministers and nut trees are on the free list.

Sylvanus Merrick, who died at Syracuse, N. Y., recently, aged 98 years, was one of the rescuers of Jerry, a fugitive slave captured in that city in 1851, while on his way to Canada. A posse of citizens charged on the court, seized the slave and carried him over the heads of the crowd. It was Merrick who slammed the door in the sheriff's face and the delay allowed Jerry to escape. Merrick was indicted but by a wrong name, and before the error could be repaired he had gone to Illinois, where he remained until the excitement had passed away.

Dr. Sargent, medical director of Harvard college gymnasium, in a lecture at Boston a few nights ago, said that to reduce the weight of a man in training, lean meats may do, but when he is down in weight he must go back to food containing more carbon, such as ham and sausages, which should be eaten cold. Three years ago, said the doctor, this would have been considered ridiculous by trainers, but for a diet for running, walking and rowing it has been found that such saccharine food, with beef or mutton, is the best; tea, coffee and alcohol, as well as condiments, are objectionable.

UNADILLA. On Monday last we took advantage of a pleasant day to visit the cozy little village of Unadilla, at which place we found more extensive business interests than we had supposed to exist there.

The extensive general merchandise stock of W. S. Livermore deservedly attracts many buyers, and it is not surprising that his business thrift during many years past has earned for him a reasonable competency.

Occupying the other half of the large double brick block is the store of F. C. Livermore, who has recently embarked in a new line of trade. His shelves show an excellent stock of Crockery, China, and Glassware, a full assortment of manufactured tinwares, and a line of Notions and Sundries which go toward making the supply for his peddling wagons. One of these wagons arrived while we were chatting with the proprietor, and it was found to have brought in over a thousand pounds of paper rags, a quantity of furs and other "truck" too numerous to mention. The large basement is arranged for storing rags, old copper and zinc, hides, furs, etc. Under Mr. Livermore's pushing management, this industry is bound to grow.

John Dunning, the pioneer merchant of Unadilla, has spent twenty of a grand jury," which rule prevails in the United States courts, and is also the practice under the common law, trial for a capital crime upon information is not due process of law. The supreme court decided against the appeal, Justice Harlan alone dissenting. The decision of the court is that the 14th amendment does not interfere with the right of any state to abolish the grand jury system, as Michigan has substantially done.

ORGANIZED FOR WORK.

Michigan Republicans in Convention at Grand Rapids.

The Republican state convention met in Grand Rapids on the 24th inst., and in all respects was a large, harmonious and enthusiastic gathering. The convention assembled with the memory of reverses behind, but with a firm determination to recover the lost ground, and a hopeful feeling that it could be done. Aside from the delegates chosen at the many district conventions, there were present many of the most prominent leaders and zealous workers in the party.

The convention was called to order by Wm. Livingstone, Jr., and an impressive prayer offered by the Rev. J. E. Gilbert, pastor of the Division street M. E. church, Grand Rapids. The call for the convention was then read by Gen. Pierce of Grand Rapids, after which Mr. Livingstone read a letter from Mr. Lacey, the chairman of the Republican state central committee, whose duties in Washington prevented his attendance upon the convention.

The Hon. Roswell G. Horr of East Saginaw was then called as temporary chairman, and his appearance was greeted with enthusiastic applause. He was in good mood for making a speech, and there was an inspiration in the intelligent, representative body of men who were anxious to hear him. He ably presided over such a convention as few states and only the Republican party could produce. He would know it was a Republican convention should be met in Greenland. He spoke further of the objects for which the convention had been called, and of his confidence that a better should be named at the Chicago convention would receive the support of the party, and be ratified by the people at the polls in November next. The speech of Mr. Horr was an able one, and the sentiments expressed met the hearty approval of the convention. At the conclusion of his address, the districts were then called and the work of designating the secretaries and committees of the convention was at once taken up and disposed of.

The convention adjourned until 2 p. m., and when it again assembled Perry Hannah of Grand Traverse at once made a motion that a delegate from each district be appointed and that they report as early as possible to the convention the name of some man as chairman of the state central committee. He urged the measure as calculated to insure a good man in what at this time is a very important position.

Jay A. Hubbard of Howell did not understand the motion and there was considerable discussion which was ended by H. M. Duffield of Wayne, announcing that they were not yet in a position to transact business of this character. Let the committee on credentials report and when they report they had a convention and who were entitled to take part in its deliberations.

C. F. Gibson of Ber then gave the report of the committee on credentials, prefacing it with comment upon the remarkable attendance and the fact that the delegations were all well filled. The list of properly accredited delegates numbered 100. The report was accepted and adopted. H. M. Duffield, chairman of the committee on permanent organization and order of business, reported that C. C. Burch of Grand Rapids as permanent chairman and Edwin T. Bennett of Bay City as permanent secretary. The committee also recommended the following order of business. The announcement of vice-presidents and assistant secretaries by the district delegations; the report of the committee on resolutions; the selection of four delegates at large to the Republican national convention at Chicago; the selection of four delegates at large; the election of a
