

OUR NEIGHBORS.

ANN ARBOR.

From the Register.

Mr. Wm. Lyburner, an old and highly respected citizen of this city, who has been in feeble health for many months died Monday morning at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Maclean, in this city, at the advanced age of 76 years; he leaves a son and four daughters. His son accompanied his remains to his former home in Jerseyville, Ont., where they will be interred beside his wife who died in 1855.

Christian Wuerth, a workman at the agricultural works, was severely injured last Tuesday while grinding some molding knives on a belt-run grindstone. The knives caught in the belt and cut Mr. Wuerth severely on the head and neck. Drs. Frothingham and Herdman were summoned and succeeded in staunching the flow of blood. The injured man is now lying in a critical condition, but strong hopes are entertained of his ultimate recovery.

A pleasant surprise was that which awaited the Rev. Dr. R. H. Steele of the Presbyterian church at the prayer-meeting last Thursday evening. In a very neat speech Prof. W. H. Payne announced that the officers of the church were anxious that their pastor should have a rest from his labors and they proposed that he should accompany his wife on a trip to San Francisco, to be gone till September. As an aid to that end Prof. Payne handed him an envelope containing $105. Mrs. Steele left this week and will spend the two months with her son, Dr. Chas. H. Steele of the Cooper medical College, San Francisco.

FOWLERVILLE.

From the Register.

Mrs. Ida Brower, Conway, died Thursday, the 26th, of consumption, aged 17 years.

Prof. C. E. Foster, Miss Belle E. Horton and Miss Kate Brown have been re-engaged as teachers in the Union School during the coming year.

Douglas Williams, of the graduate class of '84, will officiate as principal of the Webberville Union School during the coming year. Douglas has been a close student and deserves his success.

Friends to the number of about 75 gave Mr. and Mrs. Amos Barnard a very pleasant surprise on Wednesday evening, it being the 25th anniversary of their wedded life. A very enjoyable evening was spent and the friends left a gold-lined silver tea set as a slight token of their respect and esteem for the worthy couple.

Mr. M. B. Child was taken suddenly ill on Wednesday morning of last week. She did not arise in the morning as was her usual habit and upon Mr. Childs trying to awaken her he found it was impossible to do, and she has continued to lie in an unconscious state ever since. Dr. Austin was immediately summoned and we understand pronounced it apoplexy. He looks for a change for the better very soon.

The commencement exercises of the Fowlerville Union School of the class of '84 was the occasion of a large assemblage at the M. E. Church on Friday evening. The Fowlerville Cornet Band rendered some very fine music in front of the church, and at 8 o'clock the building was littered filled. The graduates consisted of seven, six young ladies—Miss Ida Dodge, Miss Emma Dodge, Miss Della Hyner, Miss Nellie Ruel, Miss Winiferd Bell, Miss Lany Roberts—and one gentleman, Mr. Douglas Williams.

The essays were extremely well rendered, from good subjects, and showed extreme thought and care in their preparation.

SOUTH LYON.

From the Excelsior.

Hon. Wm. Ball, of Hamburg, is to be a prominent candidate for the office of Lieut. Governor on the republican ticket.

Wm. Sticum, of New Hudson, who attempted suicide by shooting himself a short time ago, still lives, and hopes are entertained for speedy recovery.

The barn and out buildings belonging to Mrs. Hoosung, three miles south west of Milford, burned to the ground one night last week. Wm. Coe was living on the farm at the time. Salt and paris green was found sprinkled in the barn yard.

During the severe storm Thursday evening, lightning struck a barn in Salem, badly demoralized one side throwing fragments a number of rods, but fortunately the building did not take fire. A brood sow having quarters in the barn was instantly killed by the shock.

Mrs. Erastus Pratt, of Silver Lake, died at her home Friday night after one week of severe though patient suffering. The funeral rites were attended by a large and mourning concourse of friends and neighbors on the Sabbath. Mrs. Pratt was a very estimable lady, a virtuous wife and affectionate mother. She was a constant member of the M. E. Church, and among the first settlers of Green Oak. The deceased leaves a husband, two children and a multitude of warm friends who will sadly miss her at home and in society.

BRIGHTON.

From the Argus.

A new bridge is being erected over the railroad in Genoa.

Otis Wiley has been very low at Howell with inflammation of the bowels.

Rev. Joel Martin, for several years pastor of the W. M. Church of this place and Pleasant Valley, has accepted a call from Pittsford, Mich., his former home and field of labor, and he will move there Sept. 1st.

John Robins sheared a remarkable ewe for James Boylan yesterday. It is 18 years old, weighs 100 pounds, has raised a fine lamb this year, and delivered 84 lbs. of wool.

A south bound freight train on the D. L. & N. railroad was wrecked near Sheridan, Thursday afternoon, and seventeen cars smashed. No one hurt, but one breakman got a thorough mud bath in jumping from the cars.

News reached us that Mrs. McDevitt, who but recently moved from her home in Green Oak to reside with her son John at Jackson, died last week. Deceased has been long and favorably known in this vicinity and her many friends will be pained to learn of her death.

Two weeks ago George, 3-year-old son of Mr G. B. Ratz, got an iron scale into one of his eyes. He has suffered no pain to speak of since the accident, but on taking the little fellow before the medical class at Ann Arbor last week, it was advised that the injured eye be removed in order to save the sight of the other. The operation will be performed some time this week.

DEXTER.

From the Leader.

The Baptist congregation will now worship under a 16-light chandelier.

Miss Grace Campbell, of Pinckney, was the guest of Mrs. L. D. Alley last Sabbath.

Mrs. Rev. C. A. Clark has so far recovered from her recent illness as to be able to walk about some. She walked out to the front gate last Tuesday for the first time in five or six weeks. We trust she will suffer no more relapse.

Prof. Waller has been engaged as principal of the Dexter school for another year. The Professor has given excellent satisfaction since he assumed the position, last January, and the board could not have done a better thing for the school than they have in his re-engagement.

After repeated continuance Helen waived examination last Friday and was held for trial by Justice Crane. It is a strange fact, and one that demands explanation, that the Prosecuting Attorney has never put in an appearance in this case, although it has been continued from time to time at his suggestion. Not a word, either directly or indirectly, was heard by the examining magistrate last Friday from him, the day fixed by the Prosecuting Attorney himself for the examination, and the magistrate had to act on his own judgement in the case. Considerable indignation is felt by the people over the course pursued in this case by Mr. Whitman.

A campaign portrait of Ben. Butler represents the old gentleman with his eyes shut—going it blind, as it were,

W. H. LAWRENCE, Proprietor.

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, LANSING, APRIL 19, 1884.

To M. B. Church, Manager:
Dear Sir: The Alabastine put on the walls of the chemical Laboratory more than four years ago is in as good condition and bright in appearance as when first applied, save where water from a leaky roof has injured it. The Alabastine seems to grow harder with age, making a firm and resistant covering, and has no tendency to soil the clothing by contact, as whitewash and kalsomine will. I am well satisfied with Alabastine. Yours faithfully,
R. C. KEDZIE,
Professor of Chemistry.

Do not be imposed upon with cheap imitations. See that you get only the genuine Alabastine as the inferiority of a cheap article sold as a substitute may not be seen when first put on. Common calcimine appears to be a very fair finish when first put on, but no one claims that it is durable. ALABASTINE COMPANY.

CURRENT TOPICS:

MISS MAUD C. MAJOR, a young woman not yet out of her "teens," has started a paper out in Norfolk, Dakota.

MR. D. L. MOODY, the renowned evangelist, closed his mission labors in England June 23 and in a few days will start for the United States.

PERHAPS those who want to go to Europe without crossing the ocean may some day have their wishes gratified.

KATE FIELD, although not a woman suffragist, would not have the suffrage taken away from the women of Utah.

THE Utah bill as passed by the Senate is a very strong and searching measure, prescribing energetic and sweeping measures so clearly and sharply that if once put into effect the Mormon monstrosity would soon become a thing of the past.

A PROPOSER of the attack made upon the study of Latin and Greek by Prof. Charles Francis Adams, an Exchange says: The influence of Mr. Charles Francis Adams' assault upon Latin and Greek is already beginning to be felt even by the most conservative of colleges. Yale, under lead of President Porter, has defended the classics and resented the recent criticisms upon them; but the corporation of that college has just ordered that next year candidates for admission to the freshman class shall be required to translate at sight easy selections in prose from French or German, at the individual's option; the requirements in Latin and Greek are to be reduced, and more attention given to French and German during the freshman and sophomore years.

For Actual Settlers.

A Washington correspondent writes: It is possible, even probable, that before congress adjourns a number, perhaps nearly all of the land grant forfeiture bills will pass both houses.

It has been noticed by those who have given the subject attention that of the immigrants who come to this country the Swedes and Norwegians generally go west, form colonies and prosper; the Poles and some other Europeans hang around the cities, trusting for their support to their chances to get work.

A Noble Answer.

AROUND THE FARM.

Item of Value.

Sprinkle onion buds with hot water to destroy maggots. The frequent use of the cultivator is a secret in corn culture.

Osage orange should be pruned three times during the summer. If you have any buckwheat feed it to your laying hens.

Where a field is overrun with weeds frequent summer plowing is the only remedy. Everything on a farm is valuable.

A Kentucky farmer is putting in 100 acres of hemp, and paid $400 for the seed he used.

It is estimated that seventy-five per cent of the cattle in America are scrubs or natives. Cottonseed meal is excellent for cows and sheep, but should never be given to pigs or horses.

An Indiana farmer says he keeps bells on several of the sheep of his flock, and though his neighbors all about him have had sheep killed by dogs, his flock has never been troubled.

Professor Henry urges farmers to feed more oats to young stock, colts as well as calves. There is no food so easily attainable that will cure acidity of the stomach and keeps the system in order.

A box 10x10 inches will hold just half a bushel. Such a box may easily be made, and is very convenient to have on the farm.

An infusion of tomato leaves has been found an antidote for many noxious insects. Aphides, or plant lice, and melon bugs are driven away by it.

When the animals are turned out to grass provide them with salt freely and regularly. Many good farmers prefer placing rock salt where stock can get to it at all times.

It is slovenly practice to take a reaper in a harvest field without first cutting around the field with a cradle. It is done, however, more and more every year, one reason being that few farmers have cradles in good condition for using, and few men nowadays know how to use them.

Where apple trees are trimmed in spring on grass land, it is a too common practice to leave the trimmings on the ground as they fall.

The codling moth may be trapped by suspending wide-mouthed bottles in bearing apple trees. The bottles should be partially filled with vinegar and water, sweetened by one quarter its bulk in molasses.

The farmer who gets in a corner with his work should see to it that his best land is most thoroughly cultivated. If anything must be neglected, let it be the poorest.

Level cultivation is undoubtedly best for corn, and might also be for potatoes so far as yield is concerned.

The old practice of putting a small handful of manure in the hill with corn or potatoes has mostly given way to the better plan of spreading it over the entire surface.

The cultivation of flowers is now urged from a purely scientific basis especially in low or unsavory localities. The perfumes of many or most flowers convert the oxygen of the air into ozone, which has a powerfully oxidizing effect upon decaying matter, and is, therefore, of great economy in matters of health.

In transplanting cabbage and other plants it is no disadvantage to have them out of the seed bed two or three days, provided the roots are kept in a moist place and the leaves shaded.

The value of potash for grapes has been recognized by cultivators. A curious proof is reported to one of the French journals. A variety of the Black Muscat has been found defective in color where potash is deficient in the soil, and the writer recommends that one vine of this grape be placed in every grape house, to show by its full or by its deficient color whether the border of the roots has a sufficient supply of potash.

Years ago guano was the one fertilizer that was thought profitable to use in concentrated form. But its results were generally disappointing. After a few years' use the guano ceased to exhibit its early effect, the large crop which it produced at first having exhausted the soil more than would have been the case without the fertilizer.

Odd Titles of Some Ancient Religious Works.

Cleveland Leader. A prominent gentleman of this city, who has an eye to the curious, has in his possession a list of odd titles of odd books which were mostly published in the time of Oliver Cromwell.

"A Fan to Drive Away Flies; a theological treatise on purgatory." "A Most Delectable Sweet Perfumed Nosegay for God's Saints to Smell at."

"A Pair of Bellows to Blow off the Dust Cast upon John Fry." "A Proper Project to Startle Fools, printed in a land where self's cry'd up and zeal's cry'd down."

"A Reaping Hook, well tempered, for the stubborn ears of the coming crop; or, biscuit-baking in the oven of charity, carefully conserved for the chickens of the church, the sparrow of spirit and the sweet swallows of salvation."

"A Sigh of Sorrow for the Summer of Zion, breathed out of a Hole in the Wall of an Earthly Vessel, known among Men by the name of Samuel Fish." (A Quaker who had been imprisoned.)

"A Shot aimed at the Devil's Headquarters through the Tube of the Cannon of Covenant."

"Crunches of Comfort for the Chickens of the Covenant."

"Eggs of Charity, Layed by the Chickens of the Covenant, and boiled with the Water of Divine Love. Take Ye and Eat."

"High-heeled shoes for Dwarfs and Holiness."

"Hooks and Eyes for Believers' Breecings."

"Matches lighted by the Divine Fire."

"Seven Sobs for a Sorrowful Soul of Sin; or the Seven Penitential Psalms of the Princely Prophet David: Whereunto are also added William Hermans' Handful of Honeysuckles and Divers Godly and Pithy Ditties, now newly augmented."

"Spiritual Milk for Babies, drawn out of the Breasts of both Testaments for their souls' nourishment; a catechism." "The Bank of Faith."

"The Christiana Sodality; or, Catholic Hive of Bees, Sucking the Honey of the Churches, Prayer from the Blossoms of the Word of God, blown out of the epistles and gospels of the divine service throughout the year, collected by the puny bee of all the hive, not worthy to be named otherwise than by these elements of his name, F. P."

"The Gum of Patience."

"The Innocent Love; or, the Holy Knight; a description of the odors of a saint for the Virgin."

"The Shop of the Spiritual Apothecary; or, a Collection of Passages from the Fathers."

"The Sixpennyworth of Divine Spirit."

"The Snuffers of Divine Love."

"The Sound of the Trumpet; a work on the day of judgment."

"The Spiritual Mustard Pot, to Make the soul Sneeze with Devotion."

"The Three Daughters of Job; a treatise on patience, fortitude and pain."

"Tobacco Battered, and the pipes shattered about their ears that idly idolize so loutsomely a vanity, by a volley of shot thundered from Mount Helicon; a poem against the use of tobacco, by Joshua Sylvester."

One great grievance of the striking lumbermen at Oseoda will have the sympathy of all who comprehend the demoralizing and unsatisfactory system of payments by "store orders" instead of in cash. Not only is a man forced to take an article he does not want, but to lose a large percentage of its value because he has an order. Cash is cash, and the merchant who sells knows that as well as the employe who prefers it to "store orders," or the employer who prefers to give orders in place of it. Knowing this the merchant adds to the price or reduces the quality of the goods which he gives in exchange for the orders, so as to make the orders equivalent to cash. This comes out of the pockets of the working men. If he is getting orders instead of cash, he is giving his labor to his employer for less money than his employer nominally pays him. So that in striking against "store orders" he is striking against lower wages than he seems to be getting. If his employers own the store also they profit by his orders and by a monopoly of his trade. It is a wrong system and should be abolished.—Free Press.

Within the past few days several of the physicians of the city have been called upon to treat cases of apparent irritant poison, which upon investigation has been proven to be due to eating cheese.

Some ten days since a picnic party to Belle Isle carried with them in their lunch several pounds of cheese, from which the excursionists ate freely. The younger members of the party on their return to the city were seized with colic pains, accompanied with vomiting and other symptoms of acute irritant poisoning.

Dr. J. E. Clark attended the families of Mr. Thompson, 308 Clifton St., Mr. McCabe, 390 Croghan St., and a family on Jefferson ave., below the Michigan Stove Works, all of whom had been at the picnic. Their symptoms being alike, Dr. Clark, learning of their having eaten the cheese, attributed the trouble to it. This theory was substantiated by similar cases reported later by Dr. H. C. Wyman, among them that of A. Wanless, the book-binder on Woodward ave. An analysis of the cheese by Dr. Clark was made upon a sample furnished by Meat Inspector Lane, who had been investigating the matter, owing to a number of cases of poisoning which had come to his notice. Nothing of the nature of an organic irritant poison was discovered.

It was concluded that the cause of the trouble originated from fermentative changes of developing fungi.

The direct cause of the growth of this poisonous fungus can not be explained by scientists. It is supposed to affect cheese coming from some particular locality, or the fungus may be the result of improper storage. Care should be exercised in the indiscriminate use of cheese during the warm weather.—Detroit Evening Journal.

The state troops will go into camp at Island Park, Thursday, August 7th. Adjutant General Robertson has issued his general order for the encampment. In order that companies may enter their encampments in good condition, as regards drill, new members will not be admitted for 30 days prior to going into camp, and only those who have been 30 days or over in service will be deemed eligible for camp duty.

Thirty-six hundred bushels of strawberries in one day were shipped from St. Joseph recently. The soil in that vicinity is no better for growth of small fruits than it is in the neighborhood of Pinckney, yet the revenue derived from their growth is enormous. Why would it not be well for some of our people to turn their attention to fruit growing instead of depending to so great an extent upon wheat?

SWORN TO.
Crawford County, Pa., City of Titusville
Personally appeared before me Royald Harrington, who being duly sworn according to law, deposes and says: That he is a resident of Hiller Farm Station, Youngstown Co., Pa. That last spring he had a severe attack of Rheumatism in the limbs, and that he was entirely relieved by taking four doses of Wilson's Lightning Remedy for Rheumatism, and that he has not experienced any trouble from the disease since. He also states that he gave the remedy to a friend in the country who was very much disabled with the same disease, so much so that he was totally unable to work, and was bed fast for a number of weeks, and that in his friend's case the medicine made a perfect cure in three days.

A fragrant Breath and pure, "TEABERRY" will secure; And by its kindly aid The Teeth are now white made.

"HUB" COUGH CURE, 25 CENTS.
Prescription of a Boston physician, dispensed years by a Boston druggist. ONE DOSE will cure any ordinary cough. It acts almost magically. Ask any dealer to get you a 25 cent bottle of "HUB" COUGH CURE, and don't be put off with any other.

A FARMER SPEAKS.
Mr. Austin Day, Cornhusker, Ont., says he was so afflicted with Liver complaint that he was obliged to give up work. The druggist at Aylmer induced him to try Zophera, with such good results that after using two bottles he was able to resume work as usual. Says he got relief from the first dose, and is satisfied that there is no better Liver remedy in existence. He gladly allows us to use his name.
