Vol. XXXIV Pinckney, Livingston County, Michigan, Thursday, April 12th, 1917 No 15

AN APPRECIATION

From the Pinckney O. E. S
Read Before the Chapter
Friday, April 6th

In the presence of these sisters and brothers we wish to give tribute to our love and appreciation of our dear sister, Georgia VanWinkle.

Though from our presence she has gone yet she is cherished in our memory and will not be forgotten as the silent wheels of time move swiftly through the coming years.

The remembrance of her unselfish, faithful and loyal service will bring to us a greater love, a deeper sense of our own responsibility to our order, symbolized by the Star of Bethlehem.

We realize that we should not be altogether sorrowful although we will look in vain for the pleasant smile and the genial clasp of the hand of our beloved sister.

Faith breathes the prayer that in the great Beyond, that spirit world of sunshine and life eternal, that she rests in peace, happy in the knowledge that her life was of much avail; and that her life so woven in and out with ours has added luster to the fraternity she loved and served so well, of which she became a Charter member in 1895.

In her passing, our loss is keenly felt not only by this order, by whom she was greatly loved, but by a large circle of devoted friends.

Georgia Reeves, daughter of George and Martha Allison Reeves was born in Pinckney, May 2, 1855 and passed to her Heavenly Home March 18, 1917. She was united in marriage to Carey V. Van Winkle Nov. 22, 1890. Shortly after her birth, her father moved his family to the farm now known as the Van Winkle farm where she lived the greater share of her life, moving to their present home in 1902. She leaves to mourn, her husband, three sisters, Mrs. Edna Maxwell of Bay City, Mrs. Louise Brokaw and Mrs. Theresa Mann, a nephew, Geo. Mann, and a niece, Mrs. Kitsey Clark of Detroit; a step-son, Kirk VanWinkle and family and a brother's family of Lansing. The burial was held March 20th, under the auspices of the Order of the Eastern Star with interment in Pinckney Cemetery.

Seed Potatoes

As there is bound to be a scarcity of good Seed Potatoes we wish to announce our willingness to help secure them for you. At present we are in communication with several potato jobbers in the north and have been informed that the most of the potatoes will be taken from the pits during the coming week at which time they will be prepared to quote prices.

Let us know how many you will need as we will buy only enough to fill orders. Yours, MONKS BROS.

First American Peasage

It is recorded in a history of the United States that an Indian chief named Maute after baptism was made a peer, receiving the rank of baron and assuming the title of Lord of Roanoke so far back as the year 1587. Somewhat later, in 1609, the title of Lord Delaware was granted by James I. to the new governor of Virginia. Later still, in 1633, Charles I. among his coronation honors, conferred the title of Viscount Canada upon Sir William Alexander.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank the many friends who were so kind and helpful during the illness and death of our husband and father, Jacob Bowers, who passed away April 5, 1917.

Margaret Bowers and family.

Take Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets for constipation. They will help you.

JACOB BOWERS

Fifty-three Years a Resident of Pinckney, Dies
April 5th, '17.

Jacob Bowers, age 67, died April 5th, 1917, at 8 a. m. The funeral took place at St. Mary's Church at 9 a. m., April 9th, 1917. Interment at St. Mary's Cemetery.

The surviving members of the family are his widow, Margaret Bowers, his two sons, Edward J. of New York City, Frank E. of Detroit, Mich., and one daughter, Mrs. Geo. Leoffler of Flist, Mich.

Jacob Bowers was born in New York City, Jan. 25th, 1849 and came to Michigan when a boy at the age of fourteen. Was married Nov. 22, 1875 to Margaret Moran, and has lived in Pinckney, township of Putnam, Livingston County, fifty-three years.

He was well liked by all who knew him and leaves a host of friends to mourn his death which occurred after a long period of sickness.

13 Reasons Why The Days Of Liquor Traffic Are Numbered

By Clinton Wonder, Ex-Worker for Wholesale Liquor Dealers Association.

(1) There are five great divisions of the business each division warring upon some other branch. These are: the wholesale liquor dealers and distillers, the brewers, the importers, the mail order liquor dealers and the retailers.

(2) There are no volunteers in a wet camp, and all who work for that cause must be well paid.

(3) There is a general lack of enthusiasm on the part of many in the business.

(4) The evidence to be found of the evil results of the use of alcoholic beverages is becoming greater every day.

(5) The argument of efficiency, which has been so rapidly developed in late years by industry.

(6) The moving picture and its constant portrayal of scenes showing drunkenness and its results.

(7) The press of the United States.

(8) The action of a number of European countries that have adopted dry measures.

(9) The organized church sentiment against the traffic.

(10) The fact that the best type of men in the liquor business are withdrawing and investing their capital in other enterprises. This is especially true of the second generation of the families whose financial interests are largely in the brewing and distilling business.

(11) The increased taxation, cost of operation and cost of campaigns. The latter consisting of large contributions, usually in proportion to the amount of business done, has been an increasingly heavy drain on the resources of the liquor men for many years.

(12) The general insecurity of the traffic due to constant attacks and an ever increasing number of victories on the part of the dry forces.

(13) The knowledge on the part of the trade that strict obedience to regulatory laws, including sales to minors, closing hours, sales to drunkards, would practically mean the elimination of profit.

Mrs. Wm. S. Kennedy

Mrs. Wm. S. Kennedy of Detroit died at her home at that place Monday morning, April 9th, after an illness of about two years, at the age of 56 years. The remains were brought to Pinckney for burial Tuesday, funeral services being held from the St. Mary's Church at 9:30 Wednesday morning. Mrs. Kennedy leaves a husband and five sons besides numerous other relatives to mourn her loss. She was formerly Miss Elizabeth Doyle of Pinckney.

Blessed Smiles.

The good-natured man is not only a blessing to himself, but to all with whom he comes in contact. He makes life seem possible when the surroundings are thick with gloom and disappointments. He causes sunshine and cheer to enter into the dreary drudgery of everyday trials and difficulties. If he is the head of the firm he gets more from his men with a smile than he would with a frown. He knows that keeping good-natured keeps him on the high pedestal.

Considered Inevitable Bad Omen.

"Yesterday," remarked the Old Scout, "I had luncheon with my fresh young nephew. At the close of the meal he ordered a package of what I, being an old-fashioned man, call 'coffin nails,' and just as he did so a bellboy went through the dining room paging, 'Mister Spikes, Mister Spikes.' I looked upon it as an omen of bad luck."

Contented and Discontented.

The man who is discontented merely finds fault with things as they are. The man who is not contented is cheerfully determined to make things better than they are.—Youth's Companion.

Recharge Your Batteries.

If you don't feel enthusiastic get up and rub up against some fellow who does. Recharge your batteries, and do the hard thing first; it will stimulate your nerve.—Jed Scarboro

His Evident Purpose.

Out in Connecticut they claim to have discovered a four-eyed frog. Must have been built for the purpose of navigating a road held in favor by motorists.

Lucky.

First Scribe—"So the editor took one of your poems and then asked you out to lunch?" Second Scribe—"Yes—and the lunch only cost $1 more than I got for the poem!"—Life.

Fond Hope.

Father—"You have been running ahead of your allowance, Robert." Son—"I know it, dad. I've been hoping for a long time that the allowance would strengthen up enough to overtake me."

To Stop a Toothache.

A small portion of alum boiled with milk and used to rinse the mouth will effectually put a stop to an aching tooth, but do not swallow the liquid.

Refining Influence.

To be thoroughly imbued with the liberal arts refines the manners and makes men to be mild and gentle in their conduct.—Ovid.

The Iris.

The iris is supposed to be the fleur-de-lis, or flower-de-luce of the French coat of arms, but really has nothing to do with the design, this being of recent application. The origin of the design is not known, but it is generally believed to represent the head of a spear; by others the flower of a lily, the floral emblem of France.

Are Real Neighbors.

There are people who simply entwine their hearts with our lives. They assume our burdens, share our cares, lighten our gloom, or carry our messages, so that, depending on them as on a rod or a staff, we get to require them, we think, as spiritual if not physical support.—Zion's Herald.

The Egg Argument.

"You see," said Columbus, "I have proved by this egg that the world is round." "But it works both ways," replied the king doubtfully. "A boiled egg shows that the world is round. But if it were made into omelet it would demonstrate with no less clearness that the world is flat."

CONGRESS DECLARES STATE OF WAR BETWEEN U. S. AND GERMANY

Adopts Joint Resolution That Places This Country in the Ranks of the Belligerents—Six Senators Vote Against Measure After Hot Debate—Great Majority in the House Favors the Action.

Text of the joint resolution adopted by congress, declaring a state of war between the United States and Germany:

"Whereas, The imperial German government has committed repeated acts of war against the government and the people of the United States of America; therefore, be it

"Resolved, by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, That the state of war between the United States and the imperial German government which has thus been thrust upon the United States is hereby formally declared; and that the president be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to employ the entire naval and military forces of the United States and the resources of the government to carry on war against the imperial German government; and to bring the conflict to a successful termination, all of the resources of the country are hereby pledged by the congress of the United States."

Washington, April 6.—The United States is now formally enlisted among the belligerents in the great war, for congress has adopted the resolution declaring a state of war between this country and Germany, brought on by the imperial government's repeated hostile acts.

The senate was the first to act on the war resolution and adopted it by a vote of 82 to 6. The six senators who voted against the resolution for war were:

ASLE J. GRONNA, Republican, North Dakota.

HARRY LANE, Democrat, Oregon.

R. M. LA FOLLETTE, Republican, Wisconsin.

G. W. NORRIS, Republican, Nebraska.

WILLIAM J. STONE, Democrat, Missouri.

J. K. VARDAMAN, Democrat, Mississippi.

There were eight senators absent or paired. They were: Bankhead, Goff, Gore, Hollis, Newlands, Smith of Maryland, Thomas, and Tillman. Of those absent it was announced that all except Senator Gore of Oklahoma against the resolution were members who would have voted for the resolution if present.

All six of the senators who voted against the resolution were members of the group of twelve which defeated the armed neutrality bill at the last session. There was no attempt to filibuster this time, however.

Thirteen Hour Debate.

Thirteen hours of heated debate preceded the vote. Party lines disappeared in this discussion and Republicans joined with Democrats in sounding the call to the nation to support the president unflinchingly.

The little group opposed to the resolution drew fire from every side. Senator La Follette, defending Germany and heaping blame upon England, was informed by Senator Williams that Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, the German chancellor, would have made the same speech in the reichstag had he been imbued with sufficient effrontery.

Senator Norris, charging that the United States is going to war at the behest of the munition barons of Wall street, drew from Senator Reed the retort that such an accusation is "almost treason."

The assertion that the nation was going to war on the demand of gold, he said, was "an indictment of the president of the United States, an indictment of congress, of the American people, and of the truth."

"The president is not calling America to arms for the sake of a few paltry dollars," Senator Reed continued, "but for the life, honor, and integrity of this country."

Introduced by Hitchcock.

In introducing the resolution into the senate, Senator Hitchcock made a brief statement in which he said that the present time was one "for action, not discussion."

"The time for discussion has passed," he said. "The president has stated clearly, effectively, more conclusively the reasons which make this grave step necessary. The resolution provides for war against the imperial German government. It places responsibility for the war squarely upon the shoulders of the German government, charged with repeated acts of war against the United States.

"We want no more territory. We will demand no indemnity. We have no grudge to settle, nor racial antipathy. We will spend our treasure and our blood and sacrifice our lives without the thought of gain. We are going to war to vindicate our honor and independence as a great nation and in defense of humanity.

"Such quarrel as we have with Germany is not of our choosing. It was forced upon us and we did much to avoid it. For nearly three years the president, congress, and the American people have hoped to avoid it. But one desperate act by the imperial German government has followed another."

German Pledges Broken.

Senator Hitchcock was followed by Senator Swanson of Virginia, who said the German government "has repeatedly and grossly violated its treaty obligations to us, and wantonly broken solemn assurances."

"The issue is not peace or war," Senator Swanson continued. "War has already been declared upon us. The issue is whether we shall accept war or abject and cowardly submission."

Reciting the sinking of American ships, German plots, and outrages in this country, Senator Swanson said the Zimmermann plot to incite Mexico against this country "reaches the lowest depths of national turpitude."

Many other senators took part in the debate, Gronna, Stone, Vardaman, Norris and LaFollette, all opposing the resolution.

Senator Smoot made the last speech—a short prayer that God would "hasten the day when liberty will be enjoyed by all the peoples of the earth."

The roll call was taken while the senators and spectators sat solemn. A few cheers greeted the result and then all filed quietly out of the chamber.

House Vote, 373 to 50.

The house, after a debate lasting about seventeen hours, adopted the joint resolution by a vote of 373 to 50. Nearly a hundred representatives made speeches.

In offering the senate resolution as a substitute for its own, the house foreign affairs committee submitted a long report reviewing the history of submarine warfare and America's futile protests against it, German intrigues and bomb plots in this country, the effort to ally Japan and Mexico against the United States and the mistreatment of American officials and citizens in Germany.

"It is with the deepest sense of responsibility for the momentous results which will follow the passage of this resolution," said the report, "that your committee reports it to the house, with the recommendation that it be passed.

"The conduct of the imperial German government toward this government, its citizens and its interests, has been so discourteous, unjust, cruel, barbarous, and so lacking in honesty and practice that it has constituted a violation of the course of conduct which should obtain between friendly nations.

"In addition to this the German government is actually making war upon the people and commerce of this country, and leaves no course open to this government but to accept its guage of battle and declare that a state of war exists."

Flood Opens the Debate.

Under the unanimous consent rule by which the resolution was considered Representative Flood could move the previous question at any time after one hour and, if sustained, bring the measure to a vote. He was disposed, however, to give members every opportunity to speak throughout the day. The debate began without any limitation.

"War is being made upon our country and its people," Representative Flood said in opening. "Our ships are being sunk. Our noncombatant citizens, including men, women and children, are being murdered, our merchantmen are denied the freedom of the seas. There is no choice as to our course. We are compelled by the acts of the German government to enter into this most colossal war.

"We should take our stand by the side of the allied nations who have been fighting humanity's battles for two and one-half years, determined that our power shall be so employed that complete victory shall crown their efforts and that Prussian militarism shall be crushed and the world shall be delivered from the threat and danger of the Hohenzollern dynasty."

SEIZE INTERNED GERMAN VESSELS

Authorities Take Over Ships That Have Long Been Held in American Ports.

TOTAL VALUE IS ENORMOUS

Some of the Finest Ships Afloat Are Among Those Taken—Ellis Island Receives Officers and Crews of Those in New York Waters.

New York, April 6.—Germany's $51,300,000 mercantile fleet, which had been interned here since the outbreak of the war, was seized by the United States only a few hours after congress passed the resolution declaring a state of war. There were 27 passenger liners, freighters and sailing ships in the fleet, among them the Vaterland, one of the largest and finest passenger liners in the world.

The German officers and crews, numbering more than 3,000 men, were taken to Ellis island for internment.

It was learned that the machinery on some of the ships was smashed. United States naval men will make a thorough examination of the vessels to determine the exact extent of the damage.

The ships seized in this port aggregated 304,000 tons. Eleven of them displaced more than 10,000 tons. The mighty Vaterland is a leviathan of 51,284 tons and cost $7,500,000.

The German officers and sailors on the ships made no resistance when the United States officials went on board. Nor did they murmur when told to prepare to go to the immigration station at Ellis island. A whole fleet of customs boats swarmed in the Hudson collecting the Germans.

Here is the official list of the seized ships in all ports as given out by the customs officials:

Table listing ship names, tonnages, and values across various ports including New York, Boston, Philadelphia, New Orleans, and San Juan.

CRISIS OF WOMAN'S LIFE

Change Safely Passed by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Wagoner, Okla.—"I never got tired of praising Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because during Change of Life I was in bed two years and had two operations, but all the doctors and operations did me no good, and I would have been in my grave today had it not been for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which brought me out of it all right, so I am now well and do all my housework, besides working in my garden. Several of my neighbors have got well by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. VIOLA FINICAL, Wagoner, Okla.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, back-aches, dread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and dizziness should be heeded by middle-aged women. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has carried many women safely through the crisis.

Fates of Queens. Why do we think enviously of those who are "born to the purple," and consider them happy and fortunate when their lives are shadowed by sorrows and perils that those of humbler stations never know? Eugenie, once queen of fashion and empress of France; Carlotta, hopelessly mad; Elizabeth of Belgium, an exile in England; Natalie, one-time queen of Serbia, discovered last summer doing menial tasks in a French hospital; Alexandra of Russia, at the mercy of an unfriendly people—surely these are not women to be envied. Upon the leaves of the ages we find countless other tragedies that have been associated with queenship—Mary Stuart and Marie Antoinette come at once into mind.—Detroit Free Press.

Turn About. "Young Blithers took up law and dropped it." "Yes?" "He then took up medicine and dropped that." "What's he doing now?" "He's in the hospital with a broken leg and several fractured ribs. He took up aviation and that dropped him."

Wood That is Wanted.

There are more than 48,000 sawmills in the United States, and their output of waste in the form of sawdust, shavings, slabs and other wood refuse is estimated at 36,000,000 cords a year.
This is equal to 4,500,000,000 cubic feet of waste, which is the capacity of a bin one-half mile high with a base covering a forty acre lot.

Air in a Tunnel.

When a train goes through a tunnel
the resistance of the air is an important factor, experiments having demonstrated that it measures 13.86 pounds per ton of train weight in the Simpton tunnel, as against only 8.8 pounds in the open air, a difference of over 50 per cent. This is when the train is running at thirty-seven miles an hour in the direction of the ventilating air current; when running in the opposite direction the resistance increases to 20.48 pounds.

GOOD BREEDING.

Good sense must in many cases determine good breeding, because the same thing that would be civil at one time and to one person may be quite otherwise at another time and to another person, but there are some general rules of good breeding that hold always true and in all cases.
—Chesterfield.

Why They Are Cleaner.

"Women's minds are much cleaner than men's," said a woman to her husband.
"They ought to be," replied her husband. "They change them so much oftener."

In Peru the woman who has to earn her living is looked down upon.

Bridges.

The only mention of a bridge in the canonical Scriptures is indirectly in the principality of Geshur, a district to the northeast of the sea of Galilee.
At this place a bridge is said to exist still which is called by the Arabs "the bridge of the sons of Jacob." The Romans are credited with being the first constructors of arched bridges over streams.

OBITUARY

Theresa Gilliam was born in Orleans County, N. Y., April 27th, 1846 and passed away March 25th, 1917. When very young, she with her parents moved to Michigan and settled in White Oak, Ingham County. In 1878 she was united in marriage to Augustus Jarsdorfer, who preceded her in death eighteen years ago. She leaves three children and several brothers and sisters. Short funeral services were held at Williams-ville, Rev. John J. Schuler of Gregory officiating. She was laid to rest in the Williams-ville cemetery.

Unrelated Potatoes.

Sweet potatoes have not much in common botanically with their more familiar namesakes. They have long been cultivated as food in tropical and subtropical countries and were actually introduced into England at an earlier date than the common potato. The two tubers were often confounded by writers of the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, but the sweet potato was more popularly than its rival. Made into a sweetmeat it was regarded as an excellent invigorator. Sweetish and agreeable to the taste, its flesh forming qualities are considered equal at least to those of the common potato. —London Chronicle.

Worms Make Children Fretful

Children suffering from worms are dull and irritable, punny and weak, often grind their teeth and cry out in sleep, being a constant source of worry to their parents. Klekapou Worm Killer is mild laxative remedy in candy tablet form that children like to take. Promptly effective, it kills and removes the worms from the system. Irregular appetite and bowel movement, lack of interest in play are sure signs of worms. Relieve your child of this burden. At all druggists, 25c.

Rubber a Tree Gives.
 A rubber tree in full maturity produces from three to five pounds of rubber a year. Usually about 100 trees are planted to the acre. Time was when Brazil was the crude rubber center of the world, but today the plantations of the far east are producing four times as much rubber as the forests of the Amazon.

Vegetation.
 By far the greater portion of the earth's land surface is covered with growing vegetation.

Already Trained.
 "I suppose you always prefer to enlist men who are not married?" I remarked to the sergeant who has charge of the recruiting station.
 "No; you're mistaken there," he hastened to reply. "I prefer married men every time. You see, we don't have to go to the trouble of teaching married men to obey."—Chicago News.

So Sensitive!
 An attorney was consulted by a woman desirous of bringing action against her husband for a divorce. She related a harrowing tale of the ill treatment she had received at his hands. So impressive was her recital that the lawyer, for a moment, was startled out of his usual professional composure.
 "From what you say this man must be a brute of the worst type," he exclaimed.
 The applicant for divorce arose and with severe dignity announced:
 "Sir, I shall consult another lawyer. I came here to get advice as to a divorce, not to hear my husband abused!"—New York Times.

CHICKEN A LA MERINGUE.—Cut up the chicken as for fricassee, slice a quarter of a pound of salt pork and fry in the frying pan until all the fat is tried out. Roll each piece of chicken in flour, fry on all sides until a nice brown and remove to the stew pan. Put an onion cut fine into the fat after the chicken has been browned, stir constantly until it is browned, then add four tablespoonfuls of flour; then add one quart of boiling water and boil five minutes. Season with salt and pepper and a coffee cupful of canned tomatoes; then strain over the chicken, cover and simmer fifteen minutes. Add a can of mushrooms and let simmer ten minutes longer. This can be served with mashed potatoes or a crust made and baked like a chicken pie.

Boiled Dinner Cooked In Fireless Cooker.—Take three or four pounds of corned beef, cover with cold water and let boil slowly for twenty minutes; then skin and add a small cabbage, a few carrots, potatoes and turnips and boil ten minutes. Place in fireless cooker for four hours. It is best to place a small heated radiator under the vessel.

Mixed Veal In Crust Cases.—Pass the veal through the meat grinder and mix to a thick paste with tomato gravy. Prepare a rich baking powder biscuit dough, roll out on the pastry board into a very thin sheet and cut into neat rounds. Place a generous tablespoonful of the mince in the center of each, turn the crust over and, after moistening the edges of the paste, crimp them together with the tines of a silver fork. Brush the cases over with a little melted butter and bake in a hot oven until crisp and brown. Garnish with parsley.

Cush.—An antebellum dish made from the leftovers of boiled or baked veal. To one teaspoonful of lard, ground or finely chopped, add one beaten egg stirred into one cupful of sweet milk, one cupful of cold breadcrumbs (breadcrumbs preferred), one small onion, minced, and pepper to taste. Mix and bake for about half an hour.

 A Friend.

There are two elements that go to the composition of friendship, each so sovereign that I detect no superiority in either, no reason why either should be the first named. One is truth. A friend is a person with whom I can be sincere. The other element of friendship is tenderness. When a man becomes dear to me I have touched the goal of fortune.—Emerson.

DO YOU KNOW THAT OIL has made more than one thousand millionaires during the past year? It has produced more of the fabulously rich multimillionaires than all the other industries. It is the one business alone that has produced the billionaire. The greatest bank in the world has an oil institution—the National City Bank of New York. The great insurance, mining, smelting and railway companies are controlled by oil interests. The Steel Trust is a child of the Standard Oil billions. There is room for several thousand more millionaires, and oil will make them. Do you want to be one of them? Don't say, I will not invest a dollar. Don't say, a dollar will not make me anything. Don't say, I cannot afford to try. Don't say $10 invested will never make me rich. Don't give up but listen to my offer. Call or write American Securities Co., 3518 N. Louis, Missouri.
