Soldier Letter

Cauteret, France,
Jan. 19, 1919.
My dear Mother and Father:

Today is certainly a fine winter day here. I didn't think that I would see any such weather over here. We left Camp An-court Friday the 17th at 8 o'clock and arrived here at about 5 o'clock. It certainly is a wonderful place and is worth a lot to see, believe me it would cost a person something to make the trip here in peace times. The town of Cauteret is located 3000 feet up in the Pyrenees and has a population of 1,200 but before the war there were nearly 25,000 people here all the time. People come from all over world here. They say it is a second Monte Carlo. There is hardly anything here but big hotels and believe me they are dandies, some of them like the big hotels in the states. A person gets a different idea of France here than around Bordeaux, as Bordeaux is a river port and there seems to be a different class of people there.

The scenery here is certainly wonderful, the nicest I ever saw. You can look out the window and see the big mountain peaks anywhere. Yesterday it was cloudy and snowing and you couldn't see the tops of the peaks but today it is clear and the sun is nice and bright and it is simply beautiful. We tried to climb to the top of one of the mountains yesterday but it was too steep. Some of the peaks have roads winding around them and are used by tainly is great.

The Y. M. C. A. has its location here in one of the big hotels that are not in use. There are big reading, writing and lounging rooms, a dance hall, swell theatre and every thing imaginable. There are about twenty-five Y. W. C. A. girls here.

This morning we were over to St. Martins to church. We went at 10:30 mass as we didn't get up till 9:30. We get great eats here and have our own rooms and O! those beds. You sink half out of sight in them and it makes you think of home. The best part of it, though, is that we have no revealing, and no amount of free men here.

When you get to Cauteret, you will find a very nice hotel, the Hotel de France. You may see it from the train.

OUR BUDDIAN

It is known that Mrs. Butterfly has a fine voice and is a very good pianist. The following is a list of her engagements.

"During the present season, Mrs. Butterfly has been heard by several musical groups in the city. Last Monday evening she quite took her audience by storm when she played on the program of the Kalamazoo Musical Society. The tones which come forth from the instrument when her fingers touch the keys are marvelous. In addition to her ability as a pianist, Mrs. Butterfly is a most talented accompanist. Indeed, she counts the work of an accompanist as her chief forte. She reads the most difficult music at sight and her accompaniments are marked by a sympathy and understanding which add immeasurably to the efforts of a soloist. She is actively allied with the Kalamazoo Musical Society and with the Music Study Club of that organization.

MOTHERS TO BE

Should Read Mrs. Monyhan's Letter Published by Her Permission.

Mitchell, Ind.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me so much during the time I was looking forward to the coming of my little one that I am recommending it to other expectant mothers. Before taking it, sometimes I suffered with neuralgia so badly that I thought I could not live, but after taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was entirely relieved of neuralgia. I had gained in strength and was able to go around and do all my housework. My baby when seven months old weighed 19 pounds and I feel better than I have for a long time. I never had any medicine do me so much good."

MEETING LARGEST EVER HELD IN STATE.—MANY WOMEN WERE AT CONVENTION.

G. O. P. DEMAND AMERICA FIRST

Senator Elect Truman Newberry Receives Round of Applause.—Gov. Sleeper After Good Roads.

Members of state Board of agriculture: L. Whitney Watkins, Jackson and Mrs. Dora H. Stockman, Lansing.

Regents of the University of Michigan: Benjamin S. Haney, of Grand Rapids and Dr. Lucius L. Hubbard, of Houghton.

Justice of the supreme court: Russell C. Ostrander, Lansing and John E. Bird, Adrian.

Superintendent of public instruction: Fred L. Keeler, Mt. Pleasant.

Members state board of Education: Frank Cody, Detroit.

Lansing.—When the future looks back upon the Republican state convention of 1919 it will regard the nomination of candidates for state officers as the least important phases of that gathering.

Convention, the first spring state convention in the United States, was the first held since the closing of the world war and it emphasized above everything else the utter inability of the ruling party of a great Republican state to reconcile its ideas and views of Americanism and patriotism with those expressed by the chief executive of the nation.

In unmistakable, even hot language, the Republicans of Michigan, men and women alike, declared that America came first, that the chief executive of America's Duty is at Home.

This great convention, the largest held by the Republican party in many years, and the first in basis of absolute equality, with equal voice, declared solemnly that the nation's greatest duty lies at home; that the dangers to American liberty and American prosperity are of more importance than the settlement of the distant questions in which America has no direct interest.

The resolutions, extremely comprehensive in scope, recite in frank language the attitude of Republican Michigan toward the administration that is bending every effort to bolster its hold on the national government.

Newberry Defense Applauded.

This justification of the costs of the Newberry campaign committee's efforts to place their candidate on somewhere near a par with his world-wide advertised opponent at the fall election, was greeted with a tremendous outburst of applause.

Charlotte Woman Honored.

To Mrs. Muri H. De Foe, of Charlotte, wife of Senator De Foe, fell the honor of being the first woman in the state to assist in the drafting of a Republican platform.

Governor Urges More Roads.

"Michigan's greatest present need is good roads and then more good roads," Governor Albert E. Sleeper told the convention this afternoon. With good roads, he said, the commonwealth would become the greatest tourist state in the union.

A tribute was paid by the governor to the women of Michigan in welcoming them to their first political convention in the history of the state.

The governor reiterated his belief that the state constabulary should be made permanent.

Of the proposition to bond the state for $50,000,000 for permanent highways, which will be submitted to the voters at the election in April, the governor said:

"This is a big proposition, but $50,000,000 is a small sum compared with the total valuation of our state, and it is not intended that the whole amount shall be spent at once. It will be spread over a generation. In the meantime it will not take long for a lot of it to come back to us, if we build the right kind of roads.

"I am also of the opinion," Governor Sleeper added, "that our prohibitory liquor laws need strengthening. I hope the legislature will take the necessary action."

GIVEN TWENTY-YEAR SENTENCE FOR DISLOYALTY

VICTOR L. BERGER.

Chicago.—Federal Judge Landis imposed a maximum sentence of twenty years in Leavenworth prison on Victor L. Berger, congressman-elect of Milwaukee and four other socialist leaders for conspiracy to obstruct the draft in violation of the espionage act.

AMERICAN TROOPS IN BERLIN

Their Duty Will Protect Transports of Food Which is Needed Badly.

London.—American troops have arrived in Berlin and been quartered in different hotels, says a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Copenhagen quoting the Extrablatt's Berlin correspondent. The troops are said to belong to the "113th New York regiment" and their duty will be the protection of the expected transports of food.

The need for revictualing Germany official investigation of the situation. The officers declare that the country is living on its capital as regards food supplies, and that either famine or bolshevism—probably both—will ensue before the next harvest, if outside help be not forthcoming. The need for fats is especially urgent.

"The social and political condition of Germany is sufficiently stable," says the report, "to guarantee orderly distribution of food, but, so long as Germany has not signed peace, it would be inadvisable to remove the menace of starvation by a too sudden abundant supply of food."

Unemployment and the cost of living are on the increase. The number of unemployed in Berlin is reported to be more than 200,000, and is increasing by 5,000 a day. In Hamburg the number of unemployed is 72,000; Munich, 32,000; Leipzig, 22,000.

was passed by the House without a record vote and with but one inconsequential amendment. It now goes to the senate.

Repeals of previous appropriations aggregating $1,819,000 are provided for in the bill which leaves a net charge against the treasury of $9,380,291.

Proposed appropriations in addition to fortifications are for other works of defense, and for armament thereof and for procurement of heavy ordnance for trial and service for the fiscal year 1920.

The subject matter embraces the sea coast defense of continental United States, insular possessions and the Panama canal, and also the field artillery and field artillery ammunition for the army.

The bill carries an appropriation of $417,000 for further tests of one unit of the John Hays Hammond radio dynamic torpedo.

CLEMENCEAU FATALLY SHOT

One of the Bullets Penetrated Lungs and Physicians Fear to Operate.

Paris.—There is no escaping the fact that Georges Clemenceau is in serious condition. The bullet that was supposed to have sped clear through the flesh of his back from shoulder to shoulder was found to have taken no such harmless course. It penetrated his lungs. X-rays taken early traced it and "disclosed its precise location," according to a bulletin issued by the four doctors who are the premier's mortal allies in his battle with death.

FIVE SOCIALISTS GIVEN 20 YEARS

FEDERAL JUDGE LANDIS IMPOSED STIFF SENTENCE ON SOCIALIST LEADERS.

BAIL FOR FIVE SET AT $500,000

Convicted Men Likened Themselves to History's Greatest Martyrs. Berger Cries in Court.

Chicago.—A maximum sentence of 20 years in Leavenworth prison was imposed by Federal Judge Landis on Congressman-elect Victor L. Berger, of Milwaukee, and four other socialist leaders, who in final pleas likened themselves to history's greatest martyrs. The five men, convicted of conspiracy to obstruct the draft in violation of the espionage act, succeeded in obtaining release on $25,000 bail from Federal Judge Alschuler and declared they would carry their legal fight to the United States supreme court.

Besides Berger, publisher of the Milwaukee Leader, the other convicted men are:

Rev. Irwin St. John Tucker, lecturer and writer.

Adolph Germer, national secretary of the Socialist party.

J. Louis Engdahl, editor of the American Socialist.

William F. Kruse, head of the Young People's Socialist League.

New Trial is Denied.

Judge Landis overruled motions for a new trial, for a stay of execution and for bail, but granted the filing of a petition for a writ of error. Counsel for the convicted men then went before Judge Samuel P. Alschuler, of the United States circuit court of appeals, and asked for bail.

Judge Alschuler granted them bail, increased from $10,000 to $25,000, on case.

William Bross Lloyd, Chicago millionaire, who was the socialist candidate for United States senator at the last election, appeared and offered to provide surety for the five, but scheduled only a fourth of the $500,000 required. The men were technically placed in the custody of the federal marshal.

The new bonds had been fixed at $25,000 on each count, and each of the five was found guilty on two counts. The surety, too, was required to be double the sum fixed, or $500,000 for all.

Berger and his four associates took full advantage of the customary inquiry of the judge whether they had anything to say before sentence was passed.

Berger Cries in Court.

The Milwaukee congressman-elect finished reading his 2,000 word typewritten statement with tears streaming down his face. He professed no surprise at the verdict, declaring his conviction was in violation of the constitution and asserted he would regret nothing he had said or written.

Commercial use, Berger declared, would cover half the white race in a chaotic state of revolution, out of which must develop an orderly socialist reign within five years."

"The so-called League of Nations is simply a thin screen behind which the capitalistic classes of the winning side are dividing the spoils," said Berger, who also declared that "Americanism is now synonymous with capitalism."

Irwin St. John Tucker in his plea compared himself and the other defendants to Jesus Christ before Pontius Pilate.

JANUARY EXPORTS SETS RECORD

$623,000,000 Worth of Goods Sent; Imports, $213,000,000.

Washington.—January exports from the United States, valued at $623,000,000, were announced by the department of commerce as exceeding any previous month in history. They compare with $595,000,000 for January, 1918, and $566,000,000 for December, 1918.

During the seven months ended January 1, exports from the United States totaled $3,798,000,000 as compared with $3,450,000,000 for the corresponding period one year ago.

Imports during January were valued at $213,000,000, the report said, leaving a net trade balance in favor of the United States for the month of $410,000,000. Imports during January, 1918, were valued at $234,000,000 and during December, 1918, at $211,000,000.

SWAMP ROOT FOR KIDNEY AILMENTS

There is only one medicine that really stands out pre-eminent as a medicine for curable ailments of the kidneys, liver and bladder.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root stands the highest for the reason that it has proven to be just the remedy needed in thousands upon thousands of distressing cases. Swamp-Root makes friends quickly because its mild and immediate effect is soon realized in most cases. It is a gentle, healing vegetable compound.

Start treatment at once. Sold at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large.

However, if you wish to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Adv.

No Curlers Needed.

Betty's hair was naturally curly, but the new neighbor wasn't sure.

"Does your mother put your hair up in curlers, Betty?" she asked.

"Oh, no," Betty answered. "Mine came already-curled."

RECIPE FOR GRAY HAIR.

To half pint of water add 1 oz. Bay Rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and 1/4 oz. of glycerine. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. Full directions for making and use come in each box of Barbo Compound. It will gradually darken streaked, faded gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. It will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy, and does not rub off.—Adv.

THE LIGHT IN THE CLEARING

A TALE OF THE NORTH COUNTRY
IN THE TIME OF SILAS WRIGHT
By
IRVING BACHELLER

AUTHOR OF
"HEN HOLDEN, DICK AND I, BARRELL OF THE BLESSED ISLES, KEEPING UP WITH LIZZIE, ETC., ETC."

BART HEARS SOME STARTLING NEWS ABOUT THE SON OF THE MONEY LENDER.

Synopsis.—Barton Baynes, an orphan, goes to live with his uncle, Peabody Baynes, and his Aunt Deel on a farm on Rattleroad, in a neighborhood called Lickitysplit, about the year 1826. He meets Sally Dunkelberg, about his own age, but socially of a class above the Bayneses, and is fascinated by her pretty face and fine clothes. Barton also meets Roving Kate, known in the neighborhood as the "Silent Woman." Amos Grimshaw, a young son of the richest man in the township, is a visitor at the Baynes home and Roving Kate tells the boys' fortunes, predicting a bright future for Barton and death on the gallows for Amos. Barton meets Silas Wright, Jr., a man prominent in public affairs, who evinces much interest in the boy. Barton learns of the power of money when Mr. Grimshaw threatens to take the Baynes farm unless a note which he holds is paid. Now in his sixteenth year, Barton, on his way to the post office at Canton, meets a stranger and they ride together. They encounter a highwayman, who shoots and kills the stranger. Barton's horse throws him and runs away. As the murderer bends over the stranger Barton throws a stone, which he observes wounds the thief, who makes off at once. A few weeks later Bart leaves home to enter Michael Hackett's school at Canton.

"There comes Colonel Hand," said Mrs. Hackett as she looked out of the window. "The poor lonely Whig! He has nothing to do these days but sit around the tavern."

Colonel Hand was a surly-looking man beyond middle age, with large eyes that showed signs of dissipation. He had a small, dark tuft beneath his

He recognized me and seized my two hands and shook them as he said: "Upon my word, here is my friend Bart. I was not looking for you here." He put his hand on my head, now higher than his shoulder, and said: "I was not looking for you here."

ne asked me to look down upon him with a majestic movement of his hand. "The son of that old Bucktail, Ben Grimshaw, has been arrested and brought to jail for murder."

"For murder?" asked Mr. and Mrs. Hackett in one breath.

"For bloody murder, sir," the colonel went on. "It was the shooting of that man in the town of Ballybeen a few weeks ago. Things have come to a pretty pass in this country, I should say. Talk about law and order; we don't know what it means here and why should we? The party in power is avowedly opposed to it—yes, sir. It has fattened upon bribery and corruption. Do you think that the son of Ben Grimshaw will receive punishment even if he is proved guilty? Not at all. He will be protected—you mark my words."

He bowed and left us. When the door had closed behind him Mr. Hackett said:

"Another victim horned by the Snappdragon! If a man were to be slain by a bear back in the woods Colonel Hand would look for guilt in the opposition party. Michael Henry, whatever the truth may be regarding the poor boy in jail, we are in no way responsible. Know your business! What is that?"

He added: "Michael Henry says that he may be innocent and that we had better go and see if we can help him. Now I hadn't thought of that. Had you, Mary?"

"No," the girl answered.

"We must be letting Mike go ahead of us always," said her father. "You saw the crime, I believe," turning to me.

I told them all I knew of it.

"Upon my word, I like you, my brave lad," said the schoolmaster. "I heard of all this and decided that you would be a help to Michael Henry and a creditable student. Come, let us go and pay our compliments to the senator."

The schoolmaster and I went over to Mr. Wright's house—a white, frame building which had often been pointed out to me.

Mrs. Wright, a fine-looking lady who met us at the door, said that the senator had gone over to the mill with his wheelbarrow.

"We've plenty of time and we'll wait for him," said the schoolmaster. "I see him!" said little John as he and Ruth ran to the gate and down the rough plank walk to meet him.

We saw him coming a little way down the street in his shirt-sleeves with his barrow in front of him. He stopped and lifted little John in his arms, and after a moment put him down and embraced Ruth.

"Well, I see ye still love the tender embrace o' the wheelbarrow," said Mr. Hackett as we approached the senator. "My embrace is the tenderer of the two," the latter laughed with a look at his hands.

We bade him good morning and he went on with his wheelbarrow, which was loaded, I remember, with stout sacks of meal and flour.

We went to the school at half past eight. What a thrilling place it was with its 78 children and its three rooms. How noisy they were as they waited in the schoolyard for the bell to ring! I stood by the doorside looking very foolish. I dare say, for I knew not what to do with myself. My legs encased in the tow breeches felt as if they were on fire. I saw that most of the village boys wore boughten clothes and fine boots. I looked down at my own leather and was a tower of shame on a foundation of greased cowhide. Sally Dunkelberg came in with some other girls and pretended not to see me. That was the hardest blow I suffered.

Among the handsome, well-dressed boys of the village was Henry Willis—the boy who had stolen my water-melon. I had never forgiven him for that or for the killing of my little hen. The bell rang and we marched into the big room, while a fat girl with crinkly hair played on a melodeon. Henry and another boy tried to shove at the side of my head as we were marching in and after we were seated

It was, on the whole, the unhappiest day of my life. During recess I slapped a boy's face for calling me a rabbit and the two others who came to help him went away full of fear and astonishment, for I had the strength of a young moose in me those days. After that they began to make friends with me.

In the noon hour a man came to me in the schoolyard with a subpoena for the examination of Amos Grimshaw and explained its meaning.

While I was talking with this man Sally passed me walking with another girl and said:

"Hello, Bart!"

I observed that Henry Willis joined them and walked down the street at the side of Sally. I got my first pang of jealousy then.

When school was out that afternoon Mr. Hackett said I could have an hour to see the sights of the village, so I set out, feeling much depressed. I walked toward the house of Mr. Wright and saw him digging potatoes in the garden and went in. I knew that he was my friend.

"Well, Bart, how do you like school?" he asked.

"Not very well," I answered.

"Of course not! It's new to you now, and you miss your aunt and uncle. Stick to it. You'll make friends and get interested before long."

"I want to go home," I declared.

"Now let's look at the compass," he suggested. "You're lost for a minute, and like all lost people you're heading the wrong way. Don't be misled by selfishness. Forget what you want to do and think of what we want you to do. We want you to make a man of yourself. You must do it for the sake of those dear people who have done so much for you. The needle points toward the schoolhouse yonder."

He went on with his work, and as I walked away I understood that the needle he referred to was my conscience.

I went about my chores. There was to be no more wavering in my conduct. At the supper table Mr. Hackett kept us laughing with songs and jests and stories. The boy John, having been reproved for rapid eating, hurried his spoon upon the floor.

"Those in favor of his punishment will please say aye!" said the schoolmaster.

I remember that we had a divided house on that important question. The schoolmaster said: "Michael Henry wishes him to be forgiven on promise of better conduct, but for the next offense he shall ride the badger."

This meant lying for a painful moment across his father's knee.

The promise was given and our merrymaking resumed. The district attorney, whom I had met before, came to see me after supper and asked more questions and advised me to talk with no one about the shooting without his consent. Soon he went away, and after I had learned my lessons Mr. Hackett said:

"Let us walk up to the jail and spend a few minutes with Amos."

We hurried to the jail. The sheriff, a stout-built, stern-faced man, admitted us.

"Can we see the Grimshaw boy?" Mr. Hackett inquired.

"I guess so," he answered as he lazily rose from his chair and took down a bunch of large keys which had been hanging on the wall. "His father has just left."

He spoke in a low, solemn tone which impressed me deeply as he put a lighted candle in the hand of the schoolmaster. He led us through a door into a narrow corridor. He thrust a big key into the lock of a heavy iron grating and threw it open and bade us step in. We entered an ill-smelling stone-floored room with a number of cells against its rear wall. He locked the door behind us. I saw a face and was the expression of that figure the sheriff went to the door and unlocked it.

"Hello, Grimshaw," he said sternly. "Step out here."

It all went to my heart—the manners of the sheriff so like the cold iron of his keys and doors—the dim candle light, the pale, frightened youth who walked toward us. We shook his hand and he said that he was glad to see us. I saw the scar under his left ear and reaching out upon his cheek, which my stone had made, and knew that he bore the mark of Cain.

He asked if he could see me alone and the sheriff shook his head and said sternly:

"Against the rules."

"Amos, I've a boy o' my own an' I feel for ye," said the schoolmaster. "I'm going to come here, now and then, to cheer ye up and bring ye some books to read. If there's any word of advice I can give ye—let me know. Have ye a lawyer?"

"There's one coming tomorrow."

"Don't say a word about the case, boy, to anyone but your lawyer—mind that."

We left him and went to our home and I went to my room and half the night thinking of my discovery, since which, for some reason, I had no doubt of the guilt of Amos, but a suspicion of it to anyone and the secret worried me.

Next morning on my way to school I passed a scene more strange and memorable than any in my long experience. I saw the shabby figure of old Benjamin Grimshaw walking in the side path. His hands were in his pockets, his eyes bent upon the ground, his lips moving as if he were in deep thought. Roving Kate, the ragged, silent woman who, for the fortune of Amos, had drawn a gibbet, the shadow of which was now upon him, walked slowly behind the money lender pointing at him with her bony forefinger. Her stern eyes watched him as the cat watches when its prey is near it. She did not notice me. Silently, her feet wrapped in rags, she walked behind the man, always pointing at him. When he stopped she stopped. When he resumed his slow progress she followed. It thrilled me, partly because I had begun to believe in the weird, mysterious power of the Silent Woman. I had twenty minutes to spare and so I turned into the main street behind and close by them. I saw him stop and buy some crackers and an apple and a piece of cheese. Meanwhile she stood pointing at him. He saw, but gave no heed to her. He walked along the street in front of the stores, she following as before. How patiently she followed!

I started for the big schoolhouse and a number of boys joined me with pleasant words.

Sally ran past us with that low-lived Willis boy, who carried her books for her. His father had gone into the grocery business and Henry wore boughten clothes. I couldn't tell Sally how mean he was. I was angry and decided not to speak to her until she spoke to me. I got along better in school, although there was some tittering when I recited, probably because I had a broader dialect and bigger boots than the boys in the village.

CHAPTER IX.

I met President Van Buren and Amos Cross-Examined by Mr. Grimshaw. The days went easier after that. The boys took me into their play and some of them were most friendly. I had a swift foot and a good eye as well as a strong arm, and could hold my own at three old cat—a kind of baseball which we played in the schoolyard. Saturday came. As we were sitting down at the table that morning the younger children clung to the knees of Mr. Hackett and begged him to take them up the river in a boat.

"Good Lord! What wilt thou give me when I grow childless?" he exclaimed with his arms around them. "That was the question of Abraham, and it often comes to me. Of course we shall go. But hark! Let us hear what the green chair has to say."

There was a moment of silence and then he went on with a merry laugh. "Right ye are, Michael Henry! You are always right, my boy—God bless your soul! We shall take Bart with us an' doughnuts an' cheese an' cookies an' dried meat for all."

From that moment I date the beginning of my love for the occupant of the green chair in the home of Michael Hackett. Those good people were Catholics and I a Protestant and yet this Michael Henry always insisted upon the most delicate consideration for my faith and feelings.

"I promised to spend the morning in the field with Mr. Wright, if I may have your consent, sir," I said.

"Then we shall console ourselves, knowing that you are in better company," said Mr. Hackett.

Mr. Dunkelberg called at the house in Ashery lane to see me after breakfast.

"Bart, if you will come with me I should like to order some store clothes and boots for you," he said in his answer him. He had a look at my feet and wanted to buy the same new clothes and boots," I said.

He looked at me with his hands upon his hips.

"I wouldn't let him do it if I were you," he said thoughtfully.

Just then I saw a young man come running toward us in the distant field. Mr. Wright took out his compass.

"Look here," he said, "you see the needle points due north."

He took a lodestone out of his pocket, and holding it near the compass moved it back and forth. The needle followed it.

The young man came up to us breathing deeply. Perspiration was rolling off his face. He was much excited and spoke with some difficulty.

"Senator Wright," he gasped. "Mrs. Wright sent me down to tell you that President Van Buren is at the house."

I remember vividly the look of mild amusement in the senator's face and the serene calmness with which he looked at the young man and said to him:

"Tell Mrs. Wright to make him comfortable in our easiest chair and to say to the president that I shall be up directly."

Grimshaw seeks by an offer of a bribe to Uncle Peabody to prevent Bart from telling what he knows about the guilt of Amos. How Uncle Peabody and Bart received this offer is told in the next installment.

URIC ACID IN THE SYSTEM

BY LEE H. SMITH, M. D.

Uric acid is now generally recognized as the cause of more diseases than was heretofore believed. When the kidneys are out of order uric acid accumulates within the body in superabundance. The disordered kidneys do not filter the poisons out of the blood, as they ought to do, and so the poisons remain in the blood and float around until they find a place to lodge, in form of urate salts. The thing to remember is that you may have rheumatism in any part of the body—you may have pains anywhere—your back may ache and your head may be dizzy—but the trouble is not where the pain appears.

The trouble is in the kidneys, and what is the first thing to do? You must get that excess uric acid out of your system, which can be done by taking Anuric Tablets, the splendid remedy which Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., has put on sale in the drug stores at a low price. Anuric Tablets (made double strength), when taken into the system as medicine, have the peculiar power of dissolving the uric acid deposited there. Drop a bit of sugar or salt into hot water, and it will disappear. In precisely the same way do these Anuric Tablets dissolve uric acid. Of course, after ridding the system of uric acid, it may return again unless you eat the right foods and live the right kind of life, but Dr. Pierce will advise you fully on proper food and correct living if you write and ask him. He makes no charge for such advice. Take Anuric Tablets today, but all means, and get that uric acid out of your system. Don't, don't, don't, put the matter off.

A Boy Never Loses It.

"That so, Willie? Why?"
"He's lost something I'll never lose."
"What has he lost?"
"His appetite."

CARUSO IN ANN ARBOR
 This engagement which was brought about after ten years of persistent effort on the part of the Ann Arbor management has been fraught with many difficulties. In competition with nearly every large city in the United States, Ann Arbor succeeded nearly a year ago in engaging the distinguished tenor for one of the four concert appearances which he was scheduled to make outside New York City. This engagement necessitated a vast amount of correspondence by mail and telegraph and several trips to New York and involved a sum of money staggering in proportion. At the last moment on account of the state-wide ban against public gatherings because of the epidemic it was necessary to twice postpone the concert although in both cases Mr. Caruso was practically on the ground ready to do his part, and it was only within the last few days that the final date was definitely determined. Since that time music lovers throughout the state have been aroused and the office at Ann Arbor has been besieged with requests for tickets and information.

Bronchial Coughs—
 For quick relief from wearing bronchial coughs that "hang on" and weaken, for thick wheezy breathing, irritated throat and air passages, for sleep-disturbing night coughs, take Foley's Honey and Tar.
 In it, you quickly get the curative influence of the pine tar and other healing ingredients, together with the mollifying and laxative effect of honey.
Foley's Honey and Tar is also good for croup, whooping cough, tickling throat and hoarseness. It does not contain morphine, chloroform or any other injurious drug. Do not accept a substitute.
 "My wife contracted a severe cold which finally developed into bronchial trouble. She coughed almost continually. The remedies we tried gave only temporary relief. I happened to pick up one of Foley's Family Almanacs and as a result, purchased a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar. She had not used half the bottle when her cough began to slack up, and she could rest so much better at night. She continued using it until she used 7 bottles, which effected a permanent cure. Yours respectfully, W. S. Bailey, Lancaster, Ky."

INCOME TAX IS TRULY POPULAR.

 "The payment of Income taxes takes on a new significance which should be understood by every citizen. The taxation system of this country is truly popular, of the people, by the people and for the people. Every citizen is liable to tax, and the amount of the tax is graduated according to the success and fortune attained by each individual in availing himself of the opportunities created and preserved by our free institutions. The method and degree of the tax is determined by no favored class, but by the representatives of the people. The proceeds of the tax should be regarded as a national investment."—Daniel C. COMB SAGE TEA IN
FADED OR GRAY HAIR

If Mixed with Sulphur it Darkens
so Naturally Nobody can Tell.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.—Adv.

The bishop smiled grimly. "And the third time you go," he said, "they'll throw dirt on you."

LAND IN DEMAND

Opportunities of Western Canada
Becoming Known.

Fertile Soil on Which Can Be Produced Record Crops Offered to Settlers at Prices Attractive to Farm Seekers.

In the early months of 1919 there was a demand for farm lands in Western Canada, the greatest that has ever been in the history of the country. This despite the fact that farm lands have increased in price, as the value of the farm product has increased and the virility and productive value of Western Canada farm lands have come more and more into evidence. Farming is no longer an experiment. Good crops can be grown in all localities, some probably a little more favorable than others, but on the whole a good—more than good—general average. Land elsewhere on the continent is used for the developing of one hundred and twenty dollar steers, thirty-five dollar hogs, two dollar and twenty cent wheat and eighty-five cent oats, and its price is anywhere from one hundred and fifty to three hundred dollars an acre. Western Canada land sells at from twenty to forty dollars an acre, and the farmer cultivating it gets one hundred and twenty-five dollars for his steer, thirty-five dollars for his hog, two dollars and twenty cents for his wheat, and eighty-five cents for his oats. And he can grow corn, too, but Western Canada is saying no more about it than North Dakota did fifteen years ago, when it was an experiment there, and see what North Dakota is doing today. The prediction is that in less than a decade corn will be grown successfully in all parts of Western Canada. It is, therefore, easy to account for the increased demand for Western Canada lands. The war is ended, and the food that the American and Canadian farmer sent across to the soldier, holding up his strength and protecting his vitality, won the war.

France, or Belgium, or Great Britain, of Canada and of the United States. An important factor, nevertheless. People generally, have begun to realize what food means, means to everybody—and it is grown on the farm. So people today want farm lands, and they want those that are good. The great, wide, open stretches of wonderfully productive soil of Western Canada are the chief attraction of the land seekers of today, and it will be so tomorrow, and of all days, until these vacant inviting acres are brought into fruition by the hand of man and the multiplied effort of steam and gasoline power, to the influence and operation of which these lands present such a splendid opportunity.

The pulse of today's desire to secure farm lands may be seen to beat in the columns of the local newspaper, recording sales of many tracts of lands, ranging from 160 to 1,200 acres. A Regina (Sask.) paper says, "In farm lands there is so brisk a business being done that it might be considered a boom." Another paper reports the sale of a section of raw prairie seven miles east of Regina for $35 an acre, and 200 acres at $50 an acre. One section of land near Regina, in the Moosejaw district, has been sold for $100 an acre, when J. S. Cameron of Victoria, B. C., sold half a section, known as the Lett farm, to John Logan. The farm was bought a year ago for $85 an acre and is located three miles from the city. It is highly improved and has fine buildings.

An extract from a local paper says: "The movement of farm lands is opening up well this season and there is every indication that a large area of prairie property will be turned over during the months intervening before seedtime."

"The price received for farm lands in each instance is considered as good, particularly for unimproved raw prairie, and shows a considerable improvement on prices for similar properties sold during the years of the war."—Advertisement.

Jimmy had been very naughty, and father was correcting him rather violently. Whack! Whack! Whack! went the strap, and Jimmy's walls rent the air.

This brought Jimmy's little sister and stanch ally on the scene. She stared at her father in consternation for a while; then, as the whacking continued, she spoke firmly: "Step on his corn, Jimmy," she said. "That'll stop him!"

Dr. T. G. Farnsworth, 76 S. Kanawha St., Buckhannon, W. Va., retired physician of over forty years' experience, ex-State Congressman, ex-City Mayor and ex-County Health Officer, praises Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is Dr. Farnsworth's experience as he tells it: "It was just a few years after my retiring from practicing medicine that I found I was afflicted with severe disorder of the kidneys and bladder. I grew steadily worse, and sometimes I was unable to get around at all. The kidney secretions were retarded and so painful in passing I would cry out in misery. I was in a frightful condition. After I had lost hope in other remedies, Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention and I tried them. I soon noticed a change for the better. I used several boxes and they cured me completely. Never in my practice did I know a remedy that would accomplish what Doan's Kidney Pills did, and I give them my heartiest endorsement."

POLICE RAID HOUSE IN WHICH NINE MEN WERE HELD, LITERATURE SEIZED.

EDITOR AMONG THE PRISONERS

Every Man Under Arrest is Alleged—Plan to Use Bombs As President Lands in Boston.

New York—Plans for bomb outrages in Boston and attempts on the life of President Wilson are alleged by the police to have been discovered following two raids here by members of the bomb squad of police headquarters and agents of the United States government in which 14 men were arrested.

According to the police, all men arrested and members of the Spanish I. W. W., or anarchist groups, are aliens. None has been in this country more than three years and a majority only a few months.

Jose Grau, editor of the Spanish paper El Corsario, is the most prominent of the prisoners who is being held for a hearing before United States Commissioner Hitchcock. Police officials say he came to this country from Spain eight months ago and is a member of the Spanish I. W. W. of which he is an organizer, under the name of Arnoldo Sapatena.

All the men are being held on the charge of having seditious literature and pictures in their possession.

Nine men were arrested in a house on Lexington avenue near 108th street. Persons frequenting the house have been suspected of being affiliated with Spanish I. W. W. or anarchist organizations. A large amount of literature was seized.

PRESIDENT HOME FROM FRANCE

Senator Welcomes Wilson Party.

Boston—President Wilson is home again. The George Washington, with the president and his party aboard docked at the outer harbor.

The George Washington was escorted to quarantine at the entrance to the inner harbor by a fleet of submarine chasers which joined several destroyers off the coast.

While there is an undercurrent of great curiosity to see the president on this, his first visit to Boston since he entered the White House, the city does not show outwardly it is either excited or enthusiastic.

Unusual precautions are being taken that the program shall move smoothly and that the president's safety shall be fully preserved. An unusual number of police and other guards will be distributed along the line of march of the parade.

The presidential party and its escort after a brief reception at Commonwealth pier, where he will land, will proceed through streets lined on each side by 3,500 soldiers, sailors, marines and state guardsmen.

The presidential party aboard the George Washington embraces the following:

Mr. Woodrow Wilson, Secretary of State; Admiral Clegg, Assistant Secretary of the Navy; Francis P. Pickens, Congressman; Frederick Young, Norton and White; Assistant Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt and Mrs. Roosevelt.

Paris—Inquiry into ramifications of a possible plot against Premier Clemenceau, according to dispatches from Geneva to French newspapers, shows that during December 24 persons, all anarchists or bolsheviks, arrived in the neighborhood of Vevey.

Among them, it is alleged, were Rossiers, Zahmid and Bunzli.

At the same time a group of anarchists met in Zurich to organize a plot against the French premier and other Allied statesmen in Paris. In this group, it is alleged, was Mislani, director of a radical newspaper, who went often to Geneva to confer with anarchists there. A few days ago Mislani was arrested in the offices of the Red Flag, the Spartacan organ in Berlin. It is said he was especially charged with smuggling revolutionary propaganda into France by way of Switzerland.

SAFE, GENTLE REMEDY CLEANSSES YOUR KIDNEYS

For centuries GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil has been a standard household remedy for kidney, liver, bladder and stomach trouble, and all diseases connected with the urinary organs. The kidneys and bladder are the most important organs of the body. They are the filters, the purifiers of your blood. If the poisons which enter your system through the blood and stomach are not entirely thrown out by the kidneys and bladder, you are doomed. Weariness, sleeplessness, nervousness, despondency, backache, stomach trouble, headache, pain in loins and lower abdomen, gall stones, gravel, difficulty when urinating, cloudy and bloody urine, rheumatism, sciatica and lumbago, all warn you to look after your kidneys and bladder. All these indicate some weakness of the kidneys or other organs or that the enemy microbes which are always present in your system have attacked your weak spots. GOLD MEDAL Haarlem Oil Capsules are what you need. They are not a "patent medicine," nor a "new discovery." For 200 years they have been a standard household remedy. They are the pure, original imported Haarlem Oil your great-grandfather used, and are perfectly harmless. Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.—Adv.

Dr. T. G. Farnsworth, 76 S. Kanawha St., Buckhannon, W. Va., retired physician of over forty years' experience, ex-State Congressman, ex-City Mayor and ex-County Health Officer, praises Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is Dr. Farnsworth's experience as he tells it: "It was just a few years after my retiring from practicing medicine that I found I was afflicted with severe disorder of the kidneys and bladder. I grew steadily worse, and sometimes I was unable to get around at all. The kidney secretions were retarded and so painful in passing, I would cry out in misery. I was in a frightful condition. After I had lost hope in other remedies, Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention and I tried them. I soon noticed a change for the better. I used several boxes and they cured me completely. Never in my practice did I know a remedy that would accomplish what Doan's Kidney Pills did, and I give them my heartiest endorsement.

Acid-Stomach Ruins Health of Millions

Besides those painful attacks of indigestion; that awful bloated, lumpy feeling after eating and downright stomach misery that you who have experienced it know so well; besides disgusting belching, food-repeating, sour stomach and distressing heartburn—besides all this, ACID-STOMACH undermines the health and saps the strength of millions.

If you don't get rid of those stomach miseries there is no telling where your stomach troubles will end, for it is a well known scientific fact that many serious ailments have their start in an acid-stomach.

Start now—this very day—to get rid of your stomach miseries. Take EATONIC—the wonderful remedy that absorbs the excess acid from the stomach and brings INSTANT relief. You simply have no idea how much better, stronger and brighter you feel at once. It drives out all the gas and bloated, puts an immediate stop to belching and heartburn, ends stomach suffering and makes it cool, sweet, comfortable and strong. There can be no further excuse for you to allow acid-stomach to wreck your health—pile up misery upon misery until you get to the point where you feel down and out and that life has lost all its joys. Remember, just as acid-mouth ruins teeth, so acid-stomach ruins health.

Take EATONIC. It's good, just like a bit of candy and makes the stomach feel fine. You can then eat the things you like and, what is more, every mouthful you eat will count in creating power and energy. You'll feel so much better—have punch and pep—the power and will to do things and get results, and your stomach misery will be gone.

Take our advice. Get a big box of EATONIC from your druggist today. It costs so little! If it fails to remove your stomach distress, he will refund your money. That is guaranteed; you are to be satisfied or money refunded.

NAB 14 I. W. W., PLOT TO KILL PRES.

POLICE RAID HOUSE IN WHICH NINE MEN WERE HELD, LITERATURE SEIZED.

EDITOR AMONG THE PRISONERS

Every Man Under Arrest is Alien—Plan to Use Bombs As President Lands in Boston.

New York—Plans for bomb outrages in Boston and attempts on the life of President Wilson are alleged by the police to have been discovered following two raids here by members of the bomb squad of police headquarters and agents of the United States government in which 14 men were arrested.

According to the police, all men arrested and members of the Spanish I. W. W., or anarchist groups, are aliens. None has been in this country more than three years and a majority only a few months.

Jose Grau, editor of the Spanish paper El Corsario, is the most prominent of the prisoners who is being held for a hearing before United States Commissioner Hitchcock. Police officials say he came to this country from Spain eight months ago and is a member of the Spanish I. W. W., of which he is an organizer, under the name of Arnoldo Sapatena.

All the men are being held on the charge of having seditious literature and pictures in their possession.

Nine men were arrested in a house on Lexington avenue near 108th street. Persons frequenting the house have been suspected of being affiliated with Spanish I. W. W. or anarchist organizations. A large amount of literature was seized.

PRESIDENT HOME FROM FRANCE

Streets Lined With Soldiers.

Boston—President Wilson is home again. The George Washington, with the president and his party aboard docked at the outer harbor.

The George Washington was escorted to quarantine at the entrance to the inner harbor by a fleet of submarine chasers which joined several destroyers off the coast.

While there is an undercurrent of great curiosity to see the president on this, his first visit to Boston since he entered the White House, the city does not show outwardly it is either excited or enthusiastic.

Unusual precautions are being taken that the program shall move smoothly and that the president's safety shall be fully preserved. An unusual number of police and other guards will be distributed along the line of march of the parade.

The presidential party and its escort after a brief reception at Commonwealth pier, where he will land, will proceed through streets lined on each side by 3,500 soldiers, sailors, marines and state guardsmen.

The presidential party aboard the George Washington will be accompanied by the following:

The President, Mrs. Wilson, Miss Gandy, Admiral Grayson, Ambassador Francis, Congressmen Felvering, Young, Norton and White; Assistant Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt and Mrs. Roosevelt.

THREE ANARCHISTS ARRESTED

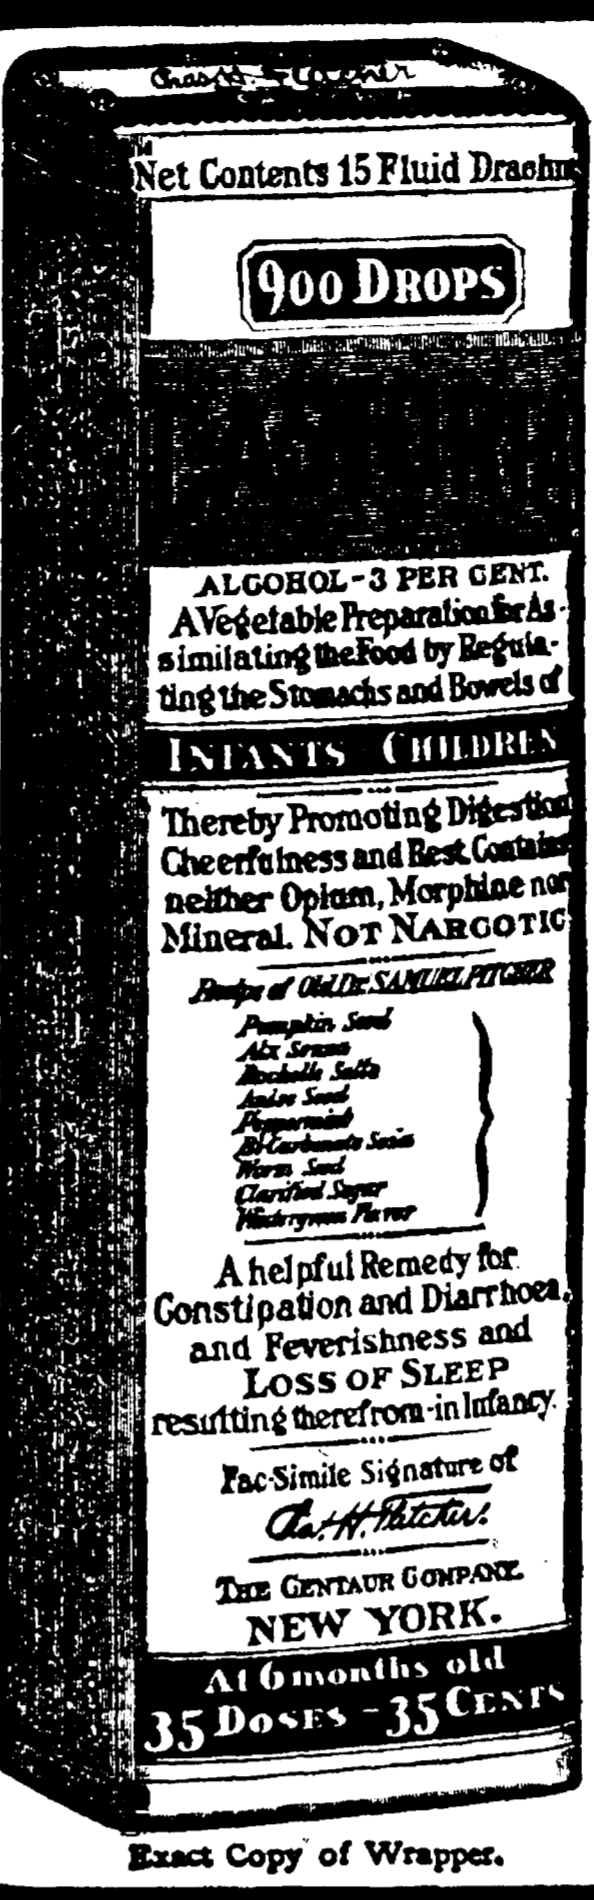

Notorious Red Leaders Organize Plot Against Allied Statesmen.

Paris—Inquiry into ramifications of a possible plot against Premier Clemenceau, according to dispatches from Geneva to French newspapers, shows that during December 24 persons, all anarchists or bolsheviks, arrived in the neighborhood of Vevey.

Among them, it is alleged, were Rossiere, Zahmid and Bunzli.

At the same time a group of anarchists met in Zurich to organize a plot against the French premier and other Allied statesmen in Paris. In this group, it is alleged, was Mislant director of a radical newspaper, who went often to Geneva to confer with anarchists there. A few days ago Mislant was arrested in the offices of the Red Flag, the Spartacan organ in Berlin. It is said he was especially charged with smuggling revolutionary propaganda into France by way of Switzerland.

Raoul Dreyfus, a painter, who was arrested shortly after Emile Cottin shot Premier Clemenceau, after being questioned, was given his temporary liberty by the police.

Grow Wheat in Western Canada One Crop Often Pays for the Land

Western Canada offers the greatest advantages to home seekers. Large profits are assured. You can buy on easy payment terms.

Fertile Land at $15 to $30 per Acre— land similar to that which through many years has averaged from 20 to 45 bushels of wheat to the acre. Hundreds of cases are on record where in Western Canada a single crop has paid the cost of land and production. The Government of the Dominion and Provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta want the farmer to prosper, and extend every possible encouragement and help to Grain Growing and Stock Raising.

Though Western Canada offers land at such low figures, the high prices of grain, cattle, sheep and hogs will remain.

Loans for the purchase of stock may be had at low interest; there are good shipping facilities; best of markets; free schools; churches; splendid climate; low taxation (none on improvements).

For particulars as to location of lands for sale, maps, illustrated literature, reduced railway rates, etc., apply to Supt. of Immigration, Ottawa, Can., or M. V. MacInnes, 176 Jefferson Ave., DETROIT, MICH.

This Is Orange Blossom Time in Florida

And it's a good time to leave the Frozen North for a short Winter vacation.

Come on down to Lake Alfred and see one of the most beautiful sights imaginable—thousands of acres of Orange and Grapefruit Trees in full bloom, scenting the air for miles around.

We have a few planted small groves, but fine, not yet taken, but you cannot buy an acre until you have first seen the property. You had better hurry, for these are choice and will be sold soon.

After carefully investigating what others have done in our vicinity, under exactly similar conditions, and you have satisfied yourself that our claim that a Six or Seven-Year-Old Grove, on a conservative estimate, will produce from $200 to $250 per acre Net, you can buy with perfect safety.

If you buy, your trip costs you nothing, as we refund traveling expense to purchasers.

Our groves at Lake Alfred are right on the Main Line of the Atlantic Coast Railroad, in the heart of the Highland-Lake Section, the highest, safest citrus section of Florida, with Ninety Lakes within a Five-Mile radius. Good asphalt and brick roads, schools, etc.

Prices fair, values big, reasonable terms.

Send for our illustrated booklet, read it carefully, and then visit Lake Alfred personally.

Y. W. C. A. OPENS WORK IN ITALY

Tea and Club Rooms Opened for American Women.

Miss Charlotte Niven, Director of Italian Work, Prepares for Influx of American Woman Students.

Italy is now included in the war work of the American Y. W. C. A.

Miss Mabel Warner of Salina, Kan., and Chicago left Paris a few days ago for Rome, where she will be in charge of a Hostess House for American girls employed there by the American Red Cross, the Embassy and the new Tuberculosis Commission. Miss Warner has been director of the Y. W. C. A. Hostess House at Brest, France.

Miss Warner will open a tea room and club rooms where the American women can gather for social times. Rome is harboring a refuge population of about 40,000 and accommodations are difficult to find.

The work in Rome was started as a direct result of the appeal of Miss Charlotte Niven, one of the National Y. W. C. A. secretaries of Italy, who is spending a few months in France as advisor in the French work.

Miss Niven's dreams of Y. W. C. A. work in Italy include the maintenance of a residence for non-Italian women, who, she feels, will come to Italy in great numbers after the war to study music and art.

"I believe at this time such a project is particularly important because women from other countries should be encouraged to come to Italy to replace the great numbers of German women who flooded Italy in the past, many of them paid agents of their government," Miss Niven said in discussing her plans.

Miss Niven has asked the American Y. W. C. A. to aid the Italian Association in establishing a center, perhaps Italian women. In connection with it her plan would include a Hostess House for girls passing through the city or employed there. Such a center would become eventually the center for all Y. W. C. A. work in Italy, both Italian and foreign.

In her formal appeal for help for the Unione Cristiana Delle Giovani (the Italian name for Young Women's Christian Association) Miss Niven has emphasized two facts, the poverty of the Italian Association on the one hand and the need and opportunity on the other for an American program in Italy at the present time.

Miss Niven's favorite way of illustrating the friendliness of the Italian women to America is by telling the story of the Italian mother who safe-kept the picture of the American flag in her home for many years. She said she was coming in from the front line when she saw the flag and she had to go to the front line to see it. She said she had seen the flag in the hands of the Italian women who were fighting for the American cause. She said she had seen the flag in the hands of the Italian women who were fighting for the American cause. Similar courses have also been opened in the New York City Central Branch Y. W. C. A., where a specialty is made of brush-making with a view to training women as teachers for reconstruction hospitals.

EVERYBODY IS NOW FIGURING INCOME TAX

In Order to Be Helpful to Public,
Internal Revenue Bureau
Has Every Available
Officer in Field.

SEVERE PENALTIES IF YOU DELAY BEYOND MARCH 15

With the due date for Income Taxes only a few weeks away, the collection of this far-reaching tax on 1918 incomes has started off with a bang. Everybody is figuring income tax.

Payments and sworn statements of income must reach Internal Revenue offices on or before March 15, and there are severe penalties for delinquency.

Residents of Michigan will make returns and pay their taxes to James J. Brady, Detroit, or to Emmanuel J. Doyle, Grand Rapids, Collectors of Internal Revenue, or to any of the deputy collectors who are doing free advisory work on Income Tax.

"Pay your Income Tax by March 15," is the slogan of the Internal Revenue Bureau, which has sent every available officer into the field to help the public to understand the requirements and to prepare the returns.

Who Must Make Return.

It is estimated that many thousands of single and married persons in this section of the United States who have never before made annual returns are required to do so this year.

Income tax returns must be made between now and March 15 by persons who come under the following classifications:

Any unmarried person whose 1918 net income was $1,000 or over. Widows and widowers, divorcees and married persons who are living apart from their husbands or wives, are for the purposes of the Income Tax classed as unmarried.

Any married person living with wife together with the earnings of minor children, if any.

Revenue Bureau Offers Aid.

Each person in the United States who is in either of these classifications must get busy at once if penalties are to be avoided. He should secure a blank Form 1040 A for reporting net income up to $5,000, or Form 1040 if his net income exceeded that amount. Forms are being distributed by Collectors and their Deputies, also by banks. By following the instructions on the forms a correct return can be prepared at home. If a person needs advice or aid, the Deputy Collectors in the field will furnish this without charge.

The new Revenue law places the Income Tax duty on citizens and residents. The Internal Revenue Bureau is sending its men to work with the public to get the tax and the returns in. With active cooperation every tax due March 15 will be paid and every return required by law will be in the Revenue offices on time.

Exemptions Allowed.

A single person is allowed a personal exemption of $1,000. If the taxpayer is dependent upon him he may claim

A married person who lives with wife or husband is allowed a personal exemption of $2,000. The head of a family is entitled to claim a similar personal exemption.

An additional exemption of $1,000 is allowed for each person under sixteen or incapable of self support who was dependent upon and received his chief support from the taxpayer.

A husband and wife living together are entitled to but one personal exemption of $2,000. If they make separate returns the exemption may be claimed by either or divided.

Absolute Accuracy Required.

Absolute accuracy is necessary in making up income figures. Any person who is working for wages should find out exactly how much he received during the whole year 1918. Fees, bank interest, bond interest, dividends, rents received and all other items must be reported correctly. Mere guesses are not accepted, for they are unjust alike to the taxpayer and the Government and defeat the proper administration of the law.

The Canadian Y. W. C. A. has received permission to place a Y. W. C. A. secretary on every ship leaving England with 200 or more women and children on the passenger list.

The secretary fulfills the same function for the women as the Y. M. C. A. secretary has for men on transports. She plans entertainments and recreation for women and children and is a friend to whom they may come if they are in distress.
