

PINCKNEY DISPATCH

Vol. XXXVI

Pinckney, Livingston County, Michigan, Thursday April 10, 1919.

No. 15

ELECTION RETURNS

A typical April morning with the sun shining warm and bright after a night of rain. The women voters showed their appreciation of the fine spring weather by forsaking their usual Monday morning household work and coming to the voting places to cast their first ballots.

Considering the number of inexperienced voters surprisingly few mistakes were made in marking the ballots. The wet amendment was lost in Pinckney by 151. The other amendments, including the adoption of the state and county road systems were carried by substantial majorities.

The entire Democratic ticket was elected with their majorities as follows:

- Supervisor, Marion J. Reason, 71.
- Clerk, D. W. Murta, 96.
- Treasurer, Norman Reason, 10.
- Highway Com., James Smith.
- Overseer, Caspar Vollmer, 59.
- Justice, William Cooper, 42.
- Ed. of Review, Frank Tiplady, 54.
- Constable, Irvin Kennedy, 54.
- Constable, Sylvester Harris, 54.
- Constable, William Fisk, 54.
- Constable, Claude McKinder.

The total number of votes cast was 419.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank the many friends who have been so kind as to "shower" me with post cards during the past few days. With so many friends, life is very much worth living.

Soldier Letter

January 24, 1919
Russia.

My dear Parents:

How are you all? I am well and feeling fine. I hope this will find you all the same. As I have been expecting some mail every day for the last couple of weeks, but haven't received any yet, so I haven't much news to write.

Well, I presume by this time you folks are having real winter weather in the states. We are having fine weather here the last few days. Everything is pretty good over here at present. The weeks are flying fast. I have been overseas six months the 21st of this month. I'll also be in the army nine months the 28th. How the time does fly! I hope to be back home by the time the one year is finished, which I think I will. Gee, dear ones, you can not imagine how some of the people here are living, everything is very scarce. They take a few grains of barley with a basket of straw cut up eral from Mae, Lee, Harry and George but none from Grace. But I think there is more mail in Archangel for us which we will get in a few days. I surely was glad to hear all the good news. In one of Lee's letters he said you sent me a package Nov. 23 which I haven't received yet but I think we will get more mail in a few days. Dear mother, you can't imagine how much we appreciate anything from home. Some of the other fellows received a couple of packages so I helped them get away with quite a bit.

Mary Greiner and Clare Ledwidge wrote me a dandy letter each. Well, mother, I guess you had some excitement over there Nov. 11 didn't you? There was nothing extra doing here. We have a little excitement over here every day. Dear ones, I hope these few reach you all feeling as well as it leaves me. Take good care of yourselves. I hope to be back soon. Write soon.

Your loving son,
Cpl. Leo Leavey
Co. F, 339th Infantry,

OBITUARY

Frank E. Wright was born in Arcanaut, Ontario County, New York, on Dec. 15, 1874. He was a member of the Methodist church, being 45 years, six months and one day of age. He came to Michigan at the age nineteen years. On March 21, 1874 he was united in marriage to Eva E. Beam of Washtenaw county. To this union were born five children, Frank J. of Owosso, Lee E. Burch and Wm. B. of Pontiac, Reuben F. of Flint and Charlie, who died at the age of three years.

He leaves his wife, three, one daughter, one brother, one sister and fifteen grandchildren and a host of friends and relatives to mourn their loss.

Mr. Wright was for several years a successful merchant in Pinckney and he and his family made many friends who will regret to hear of his death.

BAKERY FOR PINCKNEY

Mr. H. J. Norton of Detroit has rented the Barton Building and is preparing to conduct a first-class bakery in Pinckney, with a restaurant and lunch room in connection.

Mr. Norton is an experienced baker, a very pleasing young man to meet, and if appearances count for anything, he is a hustler. He intends to supply the neighboring towns of Gregory, Lakeland and Hamburg with bread and pastry of his own make.

Mr. Norton is entitled to the liberal patronage that a Pinckney producer should have. Spend your money at home when possible.

nearly out of straw. I am out scouting every day so I see quite a few homes in the same shape. My squad and another one wanted a mess of fried potatoes for supper so we went out and found about a peck of small ones. We paid 75 cents for them (187.00). But believe me they were well worth the cost. One of the fellows French-fried them. They were fine. You won't need to be so particular with me any more home-made feed will be "dribbled" (good) now.

I was out taking this morning for a while in the snow. We call them snow-shoes in the states. It is fun and much easier to get along in the deep snow. I wish you could see us riding in the small ones. We don't stop for anything; we have some pretty good times after all. Say, I would give anything to know all the news around home. I presume I will get a carload of mail when it comes. The more the merrier I look at those pictures Lee sent me every little while. Tell him to send some more when he has any more taken for I enjoy looking at home pictures. How is George and when is he going to

Well mother, the witch keeps me up at night. I don't know what she is doing but she is sure to be the reason why I haven't written you.

How is Mae and all the folks? Does she get down home very often? I am going to write to her and Grace tomorrow. If you folks don't get my mail oftener than I do yours you will get a bunch of it for I have written you every week.

Have any of the home boys come back from overseas yet?

I'd have some time when I get home. I surely do miss my chocolate bars and gum. We bought a mess of small fish this morning for dinner. We enjoy cooking a little extra, you know. It makes me think of home. I often think how handy Lee would be over here with me. Our company is split up in several bunches, a few here and there. The bunch I am with consists of two Lewis machine gun squads and a few squads of riflemen. I have the first, which is a machine gun squad. I have had two weeks of school on the machine gun so I like it fine.

Jan. 27—Dear folks, as I haven't had time to bring this letter to a close until tonight so I have a little good news to squeeze in with the rest. Our captain came up tonight to make us a little visit. We sure made him welcome for he brought some mail with him. We were all in bed when it came. But before we soon got up. The reason why we got it was because we were all packed up to move the next morning. I read letters until tea and took in the morning. I received sev-

PREMIER LLOYD GEORGE ANSWERS PARIS EDITOR'S REMARK ABOUT SECRECY.

NO DIVERGENCE AMONG NATIONS

Germany Must Pay Up to the Last Farthing of Her Power—Lloyd George of Britain.

Paris.—The preliminary peace will be ready by Easter and the Germans will be asked to come and sign it at the end of April or the beginning of May, Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain declared in an interview with Stephen Lauzanne, editor of the Matin. In answer to a remark by M. Lauzanne that what troubled public opinion was not so much the delay, as the secrecy in which the peace negotiation were wrapped and the fear that there was some divergence of opinion, the British premier said:

"I affirm absolutely that there is no divergence among the negotiators. They often are confronted with technical difficulties which can only be settled after close study. Take the question of reparations. In substance the Allies have one common principle, which I once set forth thus:

"Germany must pay up to the last farthing of her power."

"But is it sufficient to draw up a bill and hand it to the enemy? Must we not require guarantees and must we not study the terms, methods and forms of delayed payments? Must we not be able to say to our adversary when he pleads inadequacy of resources: 'Yes, you can go as far as that and you must do this and you must do that.' In a word, shall we simply present a bill or collect the

BOSCHEE'S SYRUP

Why use ordinary cough remedies when Boschee's Syrup has been used so successfully for fifty-one years in all parts of the United States for coughs, bronchitis, colds settled in the throat, especially lung troubles? It gives the patient a good night's rest, free from coughing, with easy expectoration in the morning, gives nature a chance to soothe the inflamed parts, throw off the disease, helping the patient to regain his health. Made in America and sold for more than half a century.—Adv.

His Ice Cream Bucket.

They were on the back platform of an outbound Irvington street car. One was carrying a small paper bucket, which was labeled all over with the words, "Ice Cream."

From the way the other passengers eyed the bucket it was evident they either thought the ice cream season was past or wondered why the carrier hadn't bought it in Irvington instead of carrying it such a distance.

"I guess people think I'm dippy, carrying a bucket of ice cream from downtown when it can be bought out here," said the man with the bucket. "But it's not ice cream. It's chille."

"Well, they say ice cream is chilly, so you should worry," said the other.—Indianapolis News.

Paradoxical Action.

"Why do those two speak so coolly to each other?"

"Because they've had warm words."

"The thing that makes a bulldog famous is that he hangs on like grim death to the end."

For Colds, Catarrh or Influenza

Do you feel weak and unequal to the work ahead of you? Do you still cough a little, or does your nose bother you? Are you pale? Is your blood thin and watery? Better put your body into shape. Build strong!

An old, reliable blood-maker and herbal tonic made from wild roots and barks, is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This "nature remedy" comes in tablet or liquid form. It will build up your body, cure your cold, and protect you from disease germs which lurk everywhere. One of the active ingredients of this temperance alternative and tonic is wild cherry bark with stillingia, which is so good for the lungs and for coughs; also Oregon grape root, blood root, stone root, Queen's root, — all skillfully combined in the Medical Discovery. These roots have a direct action on the stomach, improving digestion and assimilation. These herbal extracts in the "Discovery" aid in blood-making, and are best for scrofula. By improving the blood they aid in throwing off an attack of influenza.

Catarrh should be treated, first, as a blood disease, with this alternative. Then, in addition, the nose should be washed daily with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. Send 10c for trial pkg. of Medical Discovery Tablets or Catarrh Tablets to Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

'Peared like he had bit onto a tack in his fritters, and when he chided Sybilie, the hefty waitress, she busted the condiment over him. Also he wanted to know what I was going to do about it.

"Well, Mr. Hollan," says I, when you found a tack in your stands it was an accident, but when you talked so that she smashed the ketchup on your head to a young lady who served her apprenticeship as a waitress on a boarding car for a railroad construction gang that was contributory negligence, and I can't do anything for you except to hand your bill to you and wish you well on your journey."—Kansas City Star.

"Wrong, you haven't listened to my directions."
"Socks," answered another heedless one. "Wrong again; worse than ever," protested Shads in exasperation.

comes in, slow and difficult work complicated by the fact that technical experts of the highest capabilities and great experience are not in agreement among themselves either as to the method of liquidation or as to the assets to be realized.

"No, there is no divergence among the negotiators, but, alas, there are inevitable ones among the experts, often among those from the same country. Who is to decide between them if not the negotiators and do you think it can always be done quickly?"

M. Lauzanne remarked that what public opinion could not understand was why, before everything, Germany was not handed a full bill no matter what amount and forced to admit full liability.

"And who says we shall not do so?" cried Premier Lloyd George. "Who says we have not decided that?"

"No one," the interviewer interrupted, "has said that you have decided it."

The British premier resumed:
"Cannot the people wait until we have had a full report of all the assets wanting to judge our intentions. This conference had to meet and discedented in history. All eyes are turned toward it and, what is more grave, all ears are glued at its keyhole. Enemy ears tremble with joy when they detect some hesitation. Friendly ears half hear confused rumors which are peddled far and quickly.

"The day does not pass but what some false news here and there takes its flight. Nevertheless, no day passes but that we in silent deliberation feel approaching nearer the great aim and experience for each other more esteem confidence and affection. Let public opinion wait a few days. It then will be able to pronounce on facts, not rumors."

TRAIN HITS AUTO; ONE DEAD

One Victim of Mishap Has 100 Stitches in Head.

Albion.—Paul Sedowichik, Russian molder, aged 32, was instantly killed and Vikent Lewchuk, also a Russian molder, working in an Albion factory, lies seriously injured at the Albion city hospital, as the result of running into a fast Michigan Central train.

The men were driving in an auto and ran headlong into the train which was going 40 miles an hour. The car was smashed to bits, parts of it being thrown 100 feet.

Lewschuk's body was wrapped around a telephone pole and in spite of stitches taken in his scalp, is said to have a chance to live.

Health Was Shattered

Mrs. Hayes Was Discouraged Until Doan's Made Her Well.

"I was in awful shape from kidney trouble," says Mrs. Frank Hayes, 42 Dover St., Boston, Mass. "When I got up out of a chair, I felt as though someone had stuck a knife into the small of my back and it fairly took my breath away."

"The kidney secretions passed often and only a little at a time. They were so scalding I would scream so I believe I could be heard a block away. They deposited brick dust-like sediment and their odor was something awful. My complexion became sallow and I had large puffs under my eyes."

"I was troubled with spells of gasping for breath and had such dizzy attacks I often fell right over. Spots floated before my eyes and I got so nervous I couldn't stand any noise. I cried over nothing at all, became irritable and imagined all sorts of things. My health was shattered and I became discouraged."

"I continued to grow worse in spite of any treatment and came pretty near dying several times. After several months of this horror, I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills. I used a dozen boxes of Doan's and was cured. I was entirely well and my health was restored."

All smoking tobaccos employ some flavoring "to improve the flavour and burning qualities of the leaves", to quote the Encyclopædia Britannica. Naturally, there is considerable difference in the kind of flavorings used, and the nose quickly detects this difference. TUXEDO Tobacco uses the purest, most wholesome, and delicious of all flavorings—chocolate. And the almost universal liking for chocolate in a great measure explains the widespread popularity of TUXEDO Tobacco.

Carefully aged, old Bureley tobacco, plus a dash of pure chocolate, gives TUXEDO Tobacco a pure fragrance your nose can quickly distinguish from any other tobacco. Try it and see.

NOTHING NEW IN WARFARE

Methods Employed During Great Conflict Merely Copies of Those in Use Long Ago.

By the use of trenches in the great war the opposing forces adopted means of offense and defense that long antedate the invention of firearms. The steel helmet reappeared after more than 200 years of disuse, and many a soldier owes his life to the fact that the curved surface of his head-covering deflected a bullet. The trench periscope is an adaptation of a device that was invented nearly three centuries ago. If You Need a Medicine
You Should Have the Best

Have you ever stopped to reason why it is that so many products that are extensively advertised, all at once drop out of sight and are soon forgotten? The reason is plain—the article did not fulfill the promises of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicinal preparation that has real curative value almost sells itself, as like an endless chain system the remedy is recommended by those who have been benefited, to those who are in need of it. A prominent druggist says: "Take for example Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a preparation I have sold for many years and never hesitate to recommend, for in almost every case it shows excellent results, as many of my customers testify. No other kidney remedy has so large a sale."

According to sworn statements and verified testimony of thousands who have used the preparation, the success of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is due to the fact, so many people claim, that it builds almost every wish in overcoming kidney, liver and bladder ailments; corrects urinary troubles and neutralizes the uric acid which causes rheumatism. You may receive a sample bottle of Swamp-Root by Parcel Post. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and enclose ten cents; also mention this paper. Large and medium size bottles for sale at all drug stores.—Adv.

Airplanes to Subdue Head Hunters.

The next Japanese budget of the governor general of Formosa will contain an item of $20,500 for a flying corps to subdue the head-hunting aborigines of that island. Mr. Shimomura, chief of civil administration of Formosa, says: "Probably four airplanes will be used in the first year, and operations will be started as soon as the formal sanction of the diet is obtained. If it is difficult to secure the necessary aviators we shall ask the army to send their airmen. We may also ask the army to train new airmen specially to meet our requirements. There is nothing like airplanes for awing Formosa natives; experience shows that this weapon is one of the best for subjugating them. No economic exploitation of Art. POULTRY FOR BREEDING STOCK

Health and Vigor Must Be First Points to Keep in Mind When Making Selection.

Eggs may be produced fertile and yet incubated and hatch and the first consideration must be the production of large, strong eggs with strong vitality, well formed germ. This can be done only by a careful selection, mating and management of the breeding stock, and handling the eggs the proper care after they are laid. Health and vigor must be the first points to keep in mind when selecting the breeders. The rule that good stock must be used if one expects a successful crop includes the chicken crop as well as those of geese and turkeys. The breeding flock should include only sound, healthy, well-fed stock, and all fowl that show any signs of disease or defects, such as crooked back or flat feet, should be discarded. Any growth upon any part of the body, leg weakness or spring halt should be promptly discarded.

CHILLING OF MUCH BENEFIT

Wet-Packed Poultry Arrives at Destination in Poor Condition—Slow Railroads Blamed.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture)

The chill room developed by the United States department of agriculture for the preservation of poultry and eggs and to prepare them for transportation to market has proved of great advantage to small poultry packers. Packers who have had to ship in less than carload quantities have found that wet-packed poultry has spoiled in enormous quantities because of slow transportation resulting from congestion on the railroads. Packers equipped with the small chill room recommended by the department have found that poultry dry-chilled and properly packed arrived at its destination in good condition, while wet-packed fowls in the same car were in bad order. It has been found also that the method recommended by the government requires less ice than the ice-packing process.

of pagan origin antedating recorded history. For example, the fashion parade which marks the day in large cities undoubtedly had its beginning in the superstition that bad luck for the coming year was the lot of the person falling to put on some single new item of dress. It was many years before the Christian world gave a Christian significance to pagan rites of celebration that it could not root out.

Easter probably derives its Teutonic name from the festival of the goddess Ostara, in Anglo-Saxon Eastre, which the Saxons of old were wont to celebrate about the same season. The Anglo-Saxon name of April was Estromonath, and it is still known in Ger-

EASTER SUNDAY, which in 1919 falls of April 20—it may fall as early as March 22 and as late as April 25—will be celebrated over a large part of the civilized world this year with peculiar significance. In general it may be said that to the Christian nations it is the principal festival of the Christian year, inasmuch as it commemorates the resurrection of Jesus Christ. In the words of Paul: "If Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain." "But," he says, "now is Christ risen from the dead and become the first fruits of them that sleep."

History shows that the celebration of a religious festival at or about the time of the vernal equinox is older than history. In pagan times it marked the dawn of a new year, the end of winter and the approach of spring. The first thought man to celebrate the Easter season. She is full in spring of emblems of the resurrection.

to which were added garlands and laurel. The shrubs, the grasses, the flowers sleep in a cold sepulcher of snow. But in the spring comes the dawn of a new life. The snowdrifts melt. The rivers burst their ice bonds. The trees put forth buds. The grasses awake from their slumber and show green. The crocus and the pasque flower break forth into bloom. It is the resurrection time of the visible creation. It is the Easter time of the world. It is nature's answer to the inquiring soul of man.

In consequence Easter is a time of rejoicing, apart from its religious significance. What a gift is life at this time! What joy it is to live! The joy of the visions of the eye; of the beautiful and sublime in nature; of activity and work and overcoming difficulties; of high and noble aims and of elevated thoughts; of friendship and love; of doing good; of harmonies of music; of worship and prayer—these are some of the joys of life that loom largest in the spring of the year, when death in the natural world is swallowed up in life.

Easter shows the original unity of European nations. It is a word common to all western tongues, but the name stands for the East and comes out of the East. In Sanskrit, Greek and Latin we find the same root that we do in the tongues of the North of Europe—east, ost, and aust—meaning brightness, light or dawn, the spot from which light first comes, the East.

Many things have been combined to make the present-day Easter. Some of the odd ceremonies of the day are rites as could not be rooted out, and in this case the conversion was particularly easy. Joy at the rising of the natural sun and at the awakening of nature from the death of winter became joy at the rising of the sun of righteousness, at the resurrection of Christ from the grave.

The proper time for the celebration of Easter has occasioned no little controversy. In the second century a dispute arose on this point between the eastern and western churches. The great mass of eastern Christians celebrated Easter on the fourteenth day of the first Jewish month, considering it to be equivalent to the Jewish Passover. The western churches celebrated it on the Sunday after the fourteenth day, holding that it was the commemoration of the resurrection of Jesus. The council of Nice (325 A. D.) decided it in favor of the western usage. This, however, only settled the point that Easter ought to be held not upon a certain day of the month or upon a Sunday. It was debated, at the time of the introduction of the Gregorian calendar, whether Easter should continue to be movable or fixed.

The rule now is that Easter day is always the first Sunday after the full moon which happens upon or next after March 21; if the full moon happens upon a Sunday, Easter day is the Sunday after.

The result of this origin, adaptation and regulation of Easter is that pretty much all the world may celebrate the day, and from a wide variety of motives. Whether it happens early or late, Easter always has a relation to spring which time has sanctioned in a curious diversity of ways. In the social sense, Easter unlocks spring. It opens the door to a new season. Fashion has taken the liberty of making it a dividing line over which it likewise takes the liberty of stepping whenever it chooses. In a church sense the day holds the high poetry and profound religious significance which the day derives from the resurrection. Thus from many sides the day acquires a color of new hopes and expectations. The period of Lent culminates in a fervid aspirational celebration. As the church turns from the historic tragedy of death to the hope of new life, so humanity turns from meditation to meet the splendid symbolism of spring. Jerusalem's egg ceremonies today are duplicated in a picturesque variation by children's sports like those that have been held every year on the White House grounds. The opening door means many different things to many different peoples, just as the Great War affected differently the scattered races of the world.

Different From Any Other.
Easter of 1919 in one respect is different from any of its predecessors. It comes at the end of the greatest and what Addison calls "this pleasing hope, this fond desire, this longing after immortality." And now men who have stood ready to make the greatest of all sacrifices for home, country, and right in the very heart of this writhing vortex of war have had the question brought home to them. The hearts of countless thousands, reaching across the seven seas to those near and dear who have paid the price of victory and sleep "in Flanders fields where poppies grow" and the far-flung battle front, demand an answer.

Philosophy has not been against the immortality of the soul. Science has brought affirmative testimony. Yet but one life has solved this darkest of all mysteries; but one life has ever won the victory over death. And the message of this one victory is: "I am he that liveth and was dead, and behold I am alive for evermore." Will the peoples of the earth believe?

The Easter message is the message of the empty tomb, of the new life, higher and more purposeful. Apparently the world lifts its face toward the morning. Apparently a league of nations if not the league of nations is to usher in a new day.

In one other respect at least Easter of 1919 will be unlike any other in modern times—it will be celebrated in a Jerusalem permanently freed from Turkish misrule after centuries of Moslem occupation. Easter in 1918 saw Jerusalem in possession of the British. General Allenby having made formal entry in December of 1917, but fighting was in progress in all the region round about as well as in Europe, and the fate of the city still hung in the balance.

In a sense the Holy City is the religious capital of the world. It is a holy city for Christian, Jew and Moslem. All three there observe the spring festival in different ways with different ritual, but all with elaborate religious ceremonial. In Easter week under normal conditions business practically ceases and religious ceremonial becomes the dominant interest. To the Moslem Jerusalem is sacred because of the tomb of Moses. To the Jew Jerusalem is the seat of his nation's ancient glory, with a history covering more than 4,000 years. To the Christian Jerusalem is the scene of the world's greatest tragedy—the passion, crucifixion and resurrection of Jesus Christ of Nazareth. Thus Jerusalem has been the meeting place of devout pilgrims from the utmost corners of the world who at Easter time have filled its streets to overflowing.

From the year 385 the Christians of Jerusalem have observed the events of Christ's passion, death and resurrection in complete and dramatic fashion, commemorating each as far as possible on the spot of its occurrence.

Starving in the Midst of Plenty

Acid-Stomach Steals Strength and Good Feelings From Millions.

One of the worst features of acid-stomach is that very often it literally steals the strength from the body. And the strange thing about it is that the people with acid-stomachs seldom know what their trouble really is.

No matter how good or wholesome the food may be, or how much they eat, they do not gain in strength. This is clearly explained by the fact that an acid-stomach cannot properly digest food. Instead of healthy, normal digestion, the excess acid causes the food to sour and ferment. Then when this mass of sour, fermented food, charged with excess acid, passes into the intestines, it becomes the breeding place for all kinds of germs and toxic poisons, which in turn are absorbed into the blood and in this way distributed throughout the entire body. And that is exactly why it is that so many thousands of people eat and eat and keep on eating and yet are literally starving in the midst of plenty. Their acid-stomachs make it absolutely impossible for them to get the full measure of nourishment out of their food. And it doesn't take long for this poor nourishment to show its ill effects in a weakened, emaciated body.

You may say: "My stomach doesn't hurt me." That may be true because many victims of acid-stomach do not actually suffer stomach pains. Then again, there are millions who do suffer all kinds of aches and pains—head-aches, rheumatic twinges, gout, lumbago, pains around the heart and in the chest—who never dream that an acid-stomach is the real cause of their trouble.

Actually, the sensible thing to do is to strike right at the very cause of this trouble and clean the excess acid out of the stomach. There is a quick, easy way to do this. A wonderful new remedy quickly removes the excess acid without the slightest discomfort. It is EATONIC. Made in the form of tablets—they are good to eat—just like a bit of candy. They literally absorb the injurious excess acid and carry it away through the intestines. They also drive the blot out of the body—in fact you can fairly feel it work. Make a test of EATONIC in your own case today. Get a big box of EATONIC from your druggist. See for yourself how surely it brings quick relief in those painful attacks of indigestion, bitter heartburn, belching, disgusting food repeating, that awful bloated, lumpy feeling after eating and other stomach ills. Banish all your stomach troubles so completely that you forget you have a stomach. Then you can eat what you like and digest your food in comfort without fear of distressing after effects.

If EATONIC does not relieve you, it will not cost you one penny. You can return it to your druggist and get your money back. So if you have the slightest question about your health—if you feel you are not getting all the strength out of your food—if you are not feeling tip-top, ready for your work, full of vim and vigor—do give EATONIC a fair trial this very day and see how much better you will feel.

WOUNDED BY SHELL THAT KILLED FOUR MEN

Under shell fire and gas for three weeks, the buildings in which he ran his canteen hit six times, and finally knocked out by a shell which killed four men, wounded thirty and put him in a hospital for two months, Guy A. Willis, a Grand Rapids, Mich., lumberman, has returned on crutches the same courage and spirit that identified Americans throughout the war. These records show that they went over the top with the assaulting waves, that they exposed themselves under machine gun and shell fire to minister to the wounded, that they worked indefatigably as stretcher bearers, and that they drove ambulances into the midst of battle to rescue the wounded.

A New Shock for the British.

London.—The American soldier's capacity for chocolate is a never-ending source of wonder to Britishers, a wonder that has just been given a new stimulus by a contract the Y. M. C. A. has closed to take over a plant and manufacture chocolates—300 tons of chocolates a month.

Where Axles Are Badly Worn on Under Side They May Be Reversed—Put Machines Under Cover to Protect From Weather.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

The high cost of farm machinery undoubtedly has resulted in the carrying over of a large amount of old equipment for use next spring. With the fall work out of the way, attention should be given to the repair of all this equipment.

Inspect Iron Boxes.

Special attention should be given to the iron boxes in the hubs in the iron wheels of plows, planters, cultivators

A. outfit had a canteen near Mont Sen at Beaumont, and one of his pleasant jobs was to drive almost daily around the famous Lord Mans' curve on trips to get supplies for his canteen. Willis entered Denny, in the St. Michel drive three hours after the Germans had been thrown out of it.

French Tribute to "Y"

John R. Moore, general secretary of national war work committee of the Y. M. C. A., has been named commander of the Legion of Honor.

SIXTY-THREE "Y" MEN DECORATED

Chicago.—The Y. M. C. A. carried the Red Trench into the camps and trenches along a stretch of 30 miles, a sacrifice proportionate to the service as great as that in the American front, according to a statement issued by the national war work committee of the Y. M. C. A.

and wounds. Ten of these were wounded, one of whom was killed by a shell. The others were wounded in the front, being employed in the hundreds of pits maintained throughout the trench areas and the "leave areas."

These casualties occurred in a zone which at no time exceeded 5,000 workers, of whom it is reckoned that more than one-half were never sent to the front, being employed in the hundreds of pits maintained throughout the trench areas and the "leave areas."

Sixty-three "Y" workers were decorated, while in all more than 152 received official recognition for distinguished service. Thirteen of these were decorated with the Croix de Guerre, while 48 received other decorations. Of these, three received the Distinguished Service Cross, three the Order of St. Stanislaus, five the Italian Cavaliere del Corona, 38 the Italian War Cross, and one the French decoration of the Corps d'Armee. Seven were cited for the Croix de Guerre, and seven for other decorations, six commended for meritorious conduct and twenty-nine received honorable mention in dispatches. Several units were cited in their entirety, those serving with the Third division being cited twice. More than a score more reported decorations have not been confirmed.

More than 300 men under thirty years of age were sent to the front. The Y. M. C. A. reported on with nut on the outside of the wheel that holds these boxes in place. When this nut is removed a few taps of the hammer will usually drive the box out of the hub and a new one can easily be inserted. These boxes are numbered so that it is not a difficult matter to obtain duplicates from the local implement dealer. However, it may be necessary to order these from supply houses in distant cities, and it is advisable to attend to this matter at once, so that the new boxes can be put in the wheel before the tools are needed for next spring's work.

Repairing Axles.

If the axles are badly worn on the under side, sometimes they can be reversed and turned up-side down, as they can be replaced with new axles. Where this is impossible, they can oftentimes be repaired by using Babbit metal.

After the implement has been thoroughly overhauled and repaired, it should be given a good coat of paint. If the old paint is gone or badly worn, it is advisable to apply a coat of linseed oil with a small amount of paint to the first coat, and the woodwork should be painted with a good quality of paint.

Implements Should Not Be Left in Field Where They Were Last Used.

plows, the steel teeth or sweeps of cultivators, should be smeared with cup grease or wagon grease so as to prevent their rusting. Put the implements under cover, where they will be protected from the weather. Oftentimes the implement can be taken apart or the wheels removed to economize space for storage.

UNITE IN THRESHING GRAIN

Splendid Example of Efficient Co-Operation is Reported From Connecticut Community.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

The farm bureau in Columbia county, Connecticut, discovered that the agricultural survey last March had shown that the planting of small grains would be greater than usual, but it was found also that the farmers' regular work to threshing machine. At a meeting of farmers called by the county agent a committee was appointed to induce the machine and do the work. A man was hired to thresh the grain for the farmers. The farmers agreed to let him thresh all their grain at 7 cents a bushel, the farmers furnishing power. The machine followed an itinerary mapped out by the farmers' committee, instead of visiting farms at random, as has been the custom in that state. Grain was threshed much more quickly and at a cost much less than heretofore. This plan is thought to be a good example of efficient co-operation.

REPAIR OF MOWING MACHINES

Many Still Capable of Doing Several Years of Useful Work if Given Overhauling.

(From the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Undoubtedly many mowing machines have been or are about to be scrapped, though still capable of doing several years of useful work if only a small percentage of their original cost were expended upon them for repairs. The proper time for overhauling these machines is during their period of inactivity and before the rush of spring work.

BUREAU OF MARKETS

IS MOST RELIABLE

Chicago Stock Market.

So Accurate Have Estimates Been That Shippers and Farmers in All Sections Place Utmost Confidence in Reports.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Commendation has been voiced by live stock farmers and the trade concerning the work of the United States bureau of markets in issuing all telegraphic information of a public or commercial character relative to the Chicago live stock market. Previous to the last few months such reports were sent out promiscuously by private individuals who, in some cases, were accused of manipulating the reports in favor of one interest or another. At least, this sentiment pervaded the trade to the extent that the live stock industry was injured by the mere existence of such opinion. It was on this account that Uncle Sam was requested to collect facts and figures daily about the market conditions and receipts and to disseminate this authentic information as widely as possible by telegraph. The daily market reports include an estimate of the daily receipts of each class of live stock, this being one of the important features of the service, as trading at Chicago is based to a large degree on the Chicago "rum." Furthermore, the trading on the outside markets is also determined more or less by the vicissitudes of the Chicago trade. Hence it can be seen readily that any serious discrepancy in the estimate of a certain day compared with the normal receipts, whether intentional or accidental, might influence the entire trade in live stock at leading live stock centers.

to base an accurate estimate, the service is showing marked improvement over the previous efforts of private individuals. The bureau of markets bases its estimate on cars reported in and due to arrive by every railroad each day and the result of this plan has been so successful that the shippers and farmers in all sections place confidence in the accuracy and reliability of the government reports. Illustrative of the accuracy of the government reports, many large firms at the Chicago stockyards, which formerly employed special men to collect this information, are now using exclusively the official estimates of the bureau of markets. It is anticipated that the federal figures soon will be the only ones credited at the "yards."
