Vol. XXXVI

Pinckney, Livingston County, Michigan, Thursday October 9, 1919

No. 40

THE LYCEUM COURSE

The committee in charge of the sale of seasons tickets is now busily at work selling the seasons tickets for one of the best series of entertainments ever produced in Pinckney.

Last year on account of the war, flu, and a general disinclination to attend entertainments the Lyceum course was abandoned. This season much inquiry has been received by the management and there seems no doubt of the success of the course.

The prices for the entire course are as follows:

Seasons tickets $1.00 each.
Tickets for single numbers 50cents each.

Children under 10 years of age when accompanied by parents will be admitted free.

Children over 10 years half price.
The first number will be given Tuesday evening October 21st.

THE SCHUBERT SEXTETTE

A concert-entertainment orchestra. Wherever Chautauquas and Lyceums are held the name of Louis J. Runner is known as an organizer of musical companies that are highly entertaining. Especially is this true of the companies he organizes of young women.

The organization known as the Schubert Sextette is headed by Miss Ann Condit who has headed similar companies as well as this one for some years (she won't let us say how many years). She knows just how to present a program to the greatest delight of an audience. The violin is the king of instruments and stringed instruments were chosen for the orchestral combination—a combination that is quite unusual but very pleasing.

In addition to the orchestral number this company will present other unusual

An Educational Meeting

The annual Livingston County Teachers Institute will be held in the Court Room Monday and Tuesday of next week. Prof. D. H. Roberts of Michigan State Normal College, Maude Brown Curtis, Flint, and Honorable O. T. Corson, Columbus, O., are the instructors. This meeting is held at a great expense, therefore every school is expected to be closed and the teachers are expected to attend every session. Sessions will begin at 9 o'clock. School officers are invited to attend.

Hugh G. Aldrich
Commissioner of Schools.

COUNTY SCHOOL OFFICERS' MEETING

At Howell, Wednesday, October 16. The new law provides that the district shall pay the expenses of a school board to this meeting. What more important gathering could be held than this one which deals with the education of three thousand boys and girls? It is hoped that every school officer will feel it his duty and privilege to attend. Morning session will begin at 10 o'clock. Assistant Superintendent of Public Instruction Willford L. Coffey will be there.

Hugh G. Aldrich
Commissioner of Schools.

A Variety Concert That Entertains
The second number will be given February 1st.

THE PIERCE PLAYERS

Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Pierce—both stars. They successfully blend humor and pathos with undercurrent of the moral uplift needed in the tragedies and comedies of daily life. You will go home with the satisfaction of having received something more than mere entertainment. And the entertainment is there all the time.

MISCELLANEOUS PROGRAM

Programs consisting of two or three short sketches interspersed with humorous and dramatic impersonations are arranged from an extensive repertoire, in which most of the selections used have been written or dramatized especially for The Pierces.

Also Famous Plays and Playlets, in which a resume of the play precedes some of its short scenes given with impersonations of the leading characters. The Grand Army Man, Warfield's well known production. The Little Minister should be made artistic, sanitary and livable.

These walls should be Alabastined in the latest, up-to-the-minute nature color tints. Each room should reflect your own individuality and the treatment throughout be a complete perfect harmony in colors.

The walls of the old home, whether mansion or cottage, can be made just as attractive, just as sanitary, through the intelligent use of

Alabastine

Instead of kalsomine or wallpaper

How much better, when you have a new home, to start right than to have to correct errors afterward from former treatment with other materials, when you come to the use of Alabastine, as does nearly every one sooner or later.

Once your walls are Alabastined you can use any material over it should you desire, but having used Alabastine you will have no desire for any other treatment.

Alabastine is so easy to mix and apply — so lasting in its results — so absolutely sanitary — and so generally recognized as the proper decorative material in a class by itself that it is becoming difficult to manufacture fast enough to supply the demand.

Alabastine is a dry powder, put up in five-pound packages, white and beautiful tints, ready to mix and use by the addition of cold water, and with full directions on each package. Every package of genuine Alabastine has cross and circle printed in red.

Better write us for hand-made color designs and special suggestions. Give us your decorative problems and let us help you work them out.

DEWS OF EVE

No More Gentle Than "Cascarets" for the Liver, Bowels

It is just as needless as it is dangerous to take violent or nasty cathartics. Nature provides no shock absorbers for your liver and bowels against calomel, harsh pills, sickening oil and salts. Cascarets give quick relief without injury from Constipation, Biliousness, Indigestion, Gases and Sick Headache. Cascarets work while you sleep, removing the toxins, poisons and sour, indigestible waste without griping or inconvenience. Cascarets regulate by strengthening the bowel muscles. They cost so little too.—Adv.

Was Laid Up In Bed

Doan's, However, Restored Mrs. Vogt to Health and Strength. Hadn't Suffered Since.

"I had one of the worst cases of kidney complaint imaginable," says Mrs. Wm. Vogt, 6215 Audrey Ave., Wallingford, Mo., "and I was laid up in bed for days at a time."

"My bladder was inflamed and the kidney secretions caused terrible pain. My back was in such bad shape that when I moved the pains were like a knife-thrust. I got so dizzy I couldn't stoop and my head just throbed with pain. Bands of perspiration would stand on my temples, then I would become cold and numb. My heart action was affected and I felt as if I couldn't take another breath. I got so nervous and run down, I felt life wasn't worth living and often wished that I might die so my suffering would be ended. Medicine failed to help me and I was discouraged."

"Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended to me and I could tell I was being helped after the first few doses. I kept getting better every day and continued use cured me. My health improved in every way and best of all, the cure has been permanent. I feel that Doan's saved my life."—Doan to before me. HENRY B. BURKAMP, Notary Public.

Encouraging Bolshevism

Thousands of women have kidney and bladder trouble and never suspect it. Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease. If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased. Pain in the back, headache, loss of ambition, nervousness, are often times symptoms of kidney trouble. Don't delay starting treatment. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a physician's prescription, obtained at any drug store, may be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions. Get a medium or large size bottle immediately from any drug store. However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Adv.

GOODBY, WOMEN'S TROUBLES

Weak, lame and aching back, swollen ankles, nervousness, loss of ambition, kidney trouble, not "female complaints." These general symptoms of kidney and bladder disease are well known—so is the remedy. Next time you feel a twinge of pain in the back or are troubled with headache, indigestion, insomnia, irritation in the bladder or pain in the joints and lower abdomen, you will find quick and sure relief in GOLD MEDAL Haariem Oil Capsules. This old and tried remedy for kidney trouble and allied derangements has stood the test for hundreds of years. It does the work. Pains and troubles vanish and new life and health will come as you continue their use. When completely restored to your usual vigor, continue taking a capsule or two each day. GOLD MEDAL Haariem Oil Capsules are imported from the laboratories at Haarlem, Holland. Do not accept a substitute. In sealed boxes, three sizes.—Adv.

Potatoes, tobacco and corn are native to America.

A SUMMER COLD

A cold in the summer time, as everybody knows, is the hardest kind of a cold to get rid of. The best and quickest way is to go to bed and stay there if you can, with a bottle of "Boschee's Syrup" handy to insure a good night's rest, free from coughing, with easy expectoration in the morning. But if you can't stay in bed you must keep out of draughts, avoid sudden changes, eat sparingly of simple food and take occasional doses of Boschee's Syrup, which you can buy at any store where medicine is sold, a safe and efficient remedy, made in America for more than fifty years. Keep it handy.—Adv.

courages unrest also encourages bolshevism.

Misunderstanding of American industrial organization, and of its benefits to mankind, leads to unrest, dissatisfaction, and radicalism.

For example, the Federal Trade Commission tells the public that the large packers had an agreed price for lard substitute (made of cotton-seed oil.)

It reproduces letters taken from the files of one of the packers, showing that such agreed price existed.

But it failed to mention that the agreed price was determined co-operation with the Food Administration!

Even the Department of Justice, in its unjust attempt to create prejudice against the packers, has made public these same letters, with no explanation.

How long must this kind of misrepresentation continue? In so far as it is believed, it not only breeds discontent, but results in injustice to our industry.

Holland—Fire which was started by spontaneous combustion destroyed the main factory building of the Holland Aniline Dye Works. Firemen saved the offices, ice and engine buildings, but the loss is estimated at $150,000. The heads of the company announce that they will rebuild at once.

Ann Arbor—Ground has been broken for the new $1,000,000 University of Michigan hospital. It is estimated that from 25,000 to 30,000 yards of earth will have to be excavated from the site, and that it will take three months to complete the excavation alone. The area of the building is roughly estimated at two city blocks.

Muskegon—Howard F. Managan, returned soldier, used his uniform to take liquor away from bootleggers at the Crosby boat dock by saying he was a member of the state constabulary, the police declare. He had gone no farther than the end of the dock, however, when he was met and searched by two local police officers, who arrested him. He was sent to jail in default of $500 bail.

Holland—Officials of Holland Aniline Dye works, which was partially destroyed by fire here at an estimated loss of $150,000, announced that the plant will be rebuilt at once. The plant was built here shortly after the European war started and the supply of chemicals from Germany to the United States was cut off by the English blockade of the North sea. It was doing a profitable business.

Too Ill to Work

in homes, stores, offices and factories are not fit to be at work. They toil on day after day and year after year suffering with distressing weaknesses and derangements, hoping against hope that they will soon feel better, but how can they hope to do good work or escape permanent invalidism?

Such women are in danger of derangement of women's functions. They owe it to themselves to try that good old fashioned root and herb remedy Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for more than forty years has been restoring American Women to health and strength.

Here is a Notable Example

Joplin, Missouri.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to see if it really would do as it was advertised and it sure did, and more. I was weak and could not do much work, had bearing down pains and had to go to bed. I learned about the Vegetable Compound from my mother and my husband told me to get it. After taking one bottle I was able to be on my feet most of the time and do my work again. I have a baby ironing since she was three weeks old. I certainly recommend your great medicine to everyone who complains of female trouble and I am more than willing for you to use my testimonial."

—Mrs. TIMOTHY GRANEY, 426 Connor Ave., Joplin, Mo.

And Another

Chicago, Illinois.—"I suffered for four years with pains in my sides, hips and legs and a terrible backache. I could not do any work at all. I was treated by many physicians but they did not help me. I read in one of your books where other women have been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, so I tried it and it helped me very much so that now I can do everything in the house. I have told my friends about Vegetable Compound and you have my permission to use this letter."—Mrs. I. OVENSTEIN, 902 S. Marshfield Avenue, Chicago, Ill.

Two negroes were carrying a heavy piece of timber. Both wanted to "boss the job."

"Lay it down here," ordered one. "Who you-all a-talkin' to man?" the other demanded. "Does you-all think you kin boss me around like dat?"

"Sure I kin," said the first darky. "Mah name is Leu Tenant."

"Huh! dat's nothin'," responded the second son of the sunny south. "Mah name is Sam Browne."—Yank Talk, Trench and Billet.

"The one best thing to set you right—When you start to cough at night."

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR

COUGHING during the day is bad enough. The racking and straining weakens and debilitates the system. When you add the loss of sleep, the nervous drain, the irritation and annoyance of wakeful nights, a cold quickly "wears out" the sufferer, and he or she is in no condition to ward off attacks of more serious sickness. Prompt steps should be taken to check coughing at night—not only for the sake of the afflicted one, but for the comfort and health of the other members of the family.

How to Check Coughs and Colds

Foley's Honey and Tar Compound brings relief from day or night coughs, whether the result of cold or influenza, bronchial affection, spasmodic cough or whooping cough. It is a boon to young and old—prompt, efficient, safe. Contains no opiates.

Foley's Honey and Tar clears the throat of phlegm and mucus, stops the tickling in the throat, soothes the hoarseness, opens the air passages for easier breathing, soothes the raw, irritated surface with a healing, soothing medicine. One or two doses in the early evening usually fends the sufferer from attacks of coughing and enables him to enjoy a refreshing night's sleep. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar Compound comes in three sizes.

CATARRHAL DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All druggists, etc.

PACT AMENDMENTS
KILLED BY SENATE

FIRST DEFINITE ACTION ON TREATY RESULTS IN VOTE AGAINST CHANGES.

BOTH SIDES CLAIM VICTORY

Several Senators Who Voted Against Amendments Favor Reservations
Without Endangering Treaty.

Washington.—At last reaching the stage of action in its consideration of the peace treaty the senate on October 2 swept aside in quick succession 36 of the 45 amendments which had been written into the document by the foreign relations committee.

The smallest majority recorded against any of the committee proposals was 15, and the largest was 28. All of the amendments considered had been introduced by Senator Fall, Republican, of New Mexico, and were designed to curtail American participation in European settlements resulting from the war.

Throughout the voting the Democrats presented a solid front against the amendments, except for Senators Gore, of Oklahoma, and Thomas, of Colorado. Seventeen Republicans, on the other hand, lined up against the first committee proposal to be considered, and most of them stood with the Democrats on all succeeding roll calls.

Many of them announced they were for reservations which they believed would cover the same ground without endangering the treaty.

Under a special agreement, speeches on the amendments were limited to five minutes and nearly half the senate membership got into the running

THE "BLUES"
Caused by Acid-Stomach

Millions of people who worry, are despondent, have spells of mental depression, feel blue and are often melancholy, believe that these conditions are due to outside influences over which they have little or no control. Nearly always, however, they can be traced to an internal source—acid-stomach. Nor is it to be wondered at. Acid-stomach, beginning with such well defined symptoms as indigestion, belching, heartburn, bloating, etc., will, if not checked, in time affect to some degree or other all the vital organs. The nervous system becomes deranged. Digestion suffers. The blood is impoverished. Health and strength are undermined. The victim of acid-stomach, although he may not know the cause of his ailments, feels his hope, courage, ambition and energy slipping. And truly life is dark—no worth much to the man or woman who has acid-stomach! Get rid of it! Don't let acid-stomach hold you back, wreck your health, make your days miserable, make you a victim of the "blues" and gloomy thoughts! There is a marvelous modern remedy called EATONIC that brings, oh! such quick relief from your stomach misery—sets your stomach to rights—makes it strong, cool, sweet and comfortable. Helps you get back your strength, vigor, vitality, enthusiasm and good cheer. So many thousands upon thousands of sufferers have used EATONIC with such marvellously helpful results that we are sure you will feel the same way if you will just give it a trial. Get a big 6 cent box of EATONIC—the good tasting tablets that you eat like a bit of candy—from your druggist today. He will return your money if results are not even more than you expect.

NOTED GANGSTER MEETS FATE

Giannola, Detroit Feudist Leader Killed—28 Bullets Pierce Body.

Detroit.—Sam Giannola, Detroit's most noted gangster, was shot and killed at 2:30 p. m. Thursday, Oct. 2, at Monroe avenue and Russell street, by three feudists, 28 shots entering his body.

The slayers escaped and no trace of them was found.

Giannola had just left the branch

Sam Giannola had a long police record and had been arrested many times on charges ranging from murder to bootlegging. In each case, however, he escaped through lack of evidence.

He was believed to be the head of a gang that numbered murder, motor car thefts and liquor running among its accomplishments. He is said to have been in constant fear that he would be killed by a rival faction of gangsters.

His brother, Tony, was killed Jan. 3, this year, while walking through the East Side Sicilian district.

REST ORDERED FOR PRESIDENT

Wilson's Illness More Serious Than At First Reported.

Washington.—President Wilson, said to be "a very sick man" by his physician, Dr. Cary T. Grayson, last Friday entered on a period of absolute rest which it is said will be necessary for some time for his recovery from the attack of nervous exhaustion which interrupted his speaking tour.

This course of treatment was announced by Dr. Grayson after consultation with Dr. F. X. Dercum, a Philadelphia neurologist, and two Washington physicians.

The physician called in for consultation, it was said at the White House, agreed thoroughly with the diagnosis and the method of treatment outlined by Dr. Grayson.

The decision to call in a nerve specialist, Dr. Grayson said, was made as a precautionary measure.

Promise Negroes Big Price For Cotton—Federal Troops Called.

Helena, Ark.—With federal troops patrolling the village of Elaine, detachments on duty at Melwood and other centers of population in the southern part of Phillips county, and a company of soldiers stationed in Helena as a precautionary measure, the situation due to race rioting in the vicinity of Elaine seems to be well in hand.

Before the arrival of the troops 11 negroes and 5 white men were known to have been killed.

According to information for some time past, Negroes of the county have been organizing secretly, providing themselves with rifles and holding semi-weekly meetings to drill and prepare for the day when, according to the promises made by the organizers, they were to be called upon by the government to join in demanding 50 cents a pound for their cotton.

Under the mystic plan, according to information obtained by local officials, the Negroes were promised that the government was to pay them for

WON'T DROP ANARCHIST CASES

Immigration Commissioner Says Postponement Just Matter of Procedure.

Washington.—The government has no intention of side-tracking the cases against Emma Goldman and Alexander Berkman, anarchists, held under $15,000 bond each pending decision regarding their deportation as undesirable aliens. A. E. Caminetti, commissioner of immigration has declared definitely that the postponement of Emma Goldman's hearing at Ellis Island was ordered by the government as a matter of procedure, and does not mean abandonment of the action against the woman.

It was suggested that if deportation of the two radicals is obtained by the secretary of labor, it may be found difficult to carry out the order. Both are Russians and it may not prove an easy task to return them to Russia.

NO COMPROMISE, SAYS GARY

Refuses to Consider Arbitration of Steel Strike.

Washington.—"No compromise and no arbitration" of the steel strike will have his consent, Elbert H. Gary, chief executive officer of the United States Steel Corporation, declared before the Senate committee investigating the steel strike.

He refuses to meet or confer with the A. F. of L. leaders on any phase of the strike or any proposal for its settlement, Mr. Gary announced, because they represent a minority of the steel workers.

Monument Laid For Yanks.

St. Mihiel.—The cornerstone of the Franco-American monument commemorating the victory of the American Expeditionary Force in capturing the St. Mihiel salient a year ago, has been laid. President Poincare eulogized the achievement of the American soldiers and officers and of their commander-in-chief.

Mexico Will Fire On U. S. Aviators.

El Paso, Tex.—American aviators flying into Mexico will be fired upon by Mexican troops, according to a message received from Mexico City by El Nacional, a Mexican newspaper here, which stated that Ignacio Bonillas, Mexican ambassador at Washington, had been instructed to convey this information to the State Department.

Emma Goldman Leaves Prison.

Jefferson City.—Emma Goldman has been discharged from federal prison. She charged that women prisoners in the penitentiary are being starved, that one prisoner died from starvation last November and that the task system is slavery. Her discharge was ordered after she had made affidavit she was unable to pay the $10,000 fine assessed against her along with the two-year term.

Colleges Receive Munificent Gift.

Newark, N. J.—Yale and Colgate Universities each receive $100,000 by the will of Richard Colgate, soap manufacturer, of West Orange, N. J., which was filed for probate here. The income of the gift to Yale is to be used to establish professorships for freshmen. Colgate is to use its $100,000 for erecting a dormitory. The will leaves to Henry A. Colgate, a son, stock in Colgate & Co.

Count Goes Back to Sing Sing.

New York.—"Count" Max Lynar Loudon, a former German agent, who included among his exploits a plot to kidnap President Wilson and invade Canada with 150,000 German reservists, was sentenced to three years in Sing Sing prison for attempted forgery. The "count" recently was released from the same prison, where he has spent his time since April, 1918, serving an indeterminate sentence for bigamy.

CHAPTER IX—Continued.

"Senor Stanway." It was Torre speaking coolly, his voice steady and indifferent. "I should like a word with you."

"Have I time to bandy words with you?" cried the rancher angrily. "This last thing you have done is insanity, Torre. You have gone too far."

"Or not far enough! Which is it?" His voice was stern now, and rang with defiance and triumph. He was sure of himself, of his position.

"I told you," he ran on, his cheeks flushed now, his voice ringing out still more clearly in the hush of the room. "I warned you what I should do. I asked twenty thousand dollars last night and you refused to make terms. You were a fool!"

"Now I ask fifty thousand! And I shall get it. I don't hide behind words; I am not afraid of the open! I play my game of dice where all men can see the ivory cubes roll out of the box!"

"It is I—I who have caused the disappearance of the Senor de la Guerra. It is I who have caused the senorita Teresa to be taken away from under your very eyes. And I do not deny it. For the game is mine!"

"You wouldn't dare—" began Stan-

Stanway did not stop to eat or to rest. He drank thirstily at the leaping fountain in the patio, and went immediately to the house and to the room which was now an improvised hospital ward for the accommodation of Pedro and Celestino.

He found Pedro conscious, very white and weak from the blood which he had lost. A doctor had come from La Panza and had gone, leaving his simple directions and simpler medicines.

Pedro would live.

Here a knife had bit deep and had cost Pedro much blood, but by fortune and a fraction of an inch no vital point had been reached.

Celestino, as white and more weak than Pedro, lay very still, not having once regained consciousness. He might live, for Celestino had a wonderful store of health and vitality in that great frame of his. The doctor would come again, tonight or early tomorrow.

"Pedro," asked Stanway, with a quick glance at the other bed and then coming to Pedro's side, "how are things with you?"

"Not so bad, senor," Pedro answered faintly. "The senorita?"

"We have not found her yet," Stanway admitted regretfully. "But we shall find her soon, Pedro. Did you called back from the door. And he was gone, walking swiftly through the house, asking for the old serving woman.

CHAPTER X.

A Bold Game.

"You will know, Josefa, if there is anything missing from the master's room?"

"Si, senor. I know each little thing. There has been no change for many years."

The small, wrinkled, almost black face of the little old Indian woman looked up curiously into Stanway's.

"Then come. Let us hurry."

He led the way. They went through the drawing room, where one of the house servants was lighting the candles, where Torre was racing back and forth, his restlessness showing for the first time.

Teresa de la Guerra's scream had sounded through the house early that morning—at three o'clock. The long day had dragged, and now it was growing dark.

Still Torre and Juarez were prisoners; still Dempton fretted and fumed and sulked in the great library.

Torre looked up quickly, his eyes eager, expectant. Stanway glanced at him, giving no satisfaction in the swift turning of his eyes. Torre frowned and bit at his lip. Juarez looked to his leader with both question and criticism in his gaze.

Josefa followed the rancher, and they passed on through the drawing room. The door closed behind them.

"Now, Josefa."

Stanway threw open the door of the Senor de la Guerra's bedroom.

Stared at the Cumbersome Key.

Josefa, lifting a very white handkerchief to her very black eyes, crossed herself and stepped over the threshold.

"Look, Josefa! Is there anything missing?"

He had the key in his pocket; she had not seen it. He looked at her in a moment tense with expectant waiting, not sure why he was so eager for the word she should say. Josefa's eyes, showing again as she folded and smoothed her handkerchief, roved about the room.

She shook her head slowly, and still her eyes went upon their quest.

"There is nothing missing," she said, speaking thoughtfully. "Everything is here. She broke off suddenly. Her old face grew growing rigid, her eyes brightening. Then she ran across the room

SHOWS SAGACITY OF THE RAT

Method by Which Rodents Steal Eggs Is Admirable in the Ingenuity Displayed.

A careful student of the rodent tribe writes: "No single point better illustrates the sagacity of the rat than the way in which it eats an egg. It bites through the shell and chips off small fragments as neatly as a squirrel opens a nut, consumes the entire contents without spilling a drop and then sits up and licks itself clean like a cat. Rats will steal the eggs from under a setting hen. Their method of handling eggs is also characteristic. An egg is as large for a rat as a barrel is for a man, and much more fragile. Yet there is evidence of the fact that they pass eggs along from one to another, although not probably, as has often been reported, by forming long lines, like a bucket brigade. The operation is naturally a difficult one to observe, but apparently it takes two rats to each egg. One holds the egg in its paws, passes it on to the other, and then runs ahead to take it once more in its turn. The same device seems to be employed to carry an egg downstairs, the one that has the egg passing it to a companion standing on the step below."

Estimated it will take at least six months under most favorable conditions to restore trans-Siberian railway to fair working conditions.

to a far corner which was a bit in shadow as Stanway held his candle above his head.

"It is gone!" she cried, amazement in her voice. "See where it has been for twenty years—for more than twenty years! And it is gone!"

"What, Josefa?" Stanway hurried to his side. "What is it that is gone?"

"The key!" she whispered, her voice suddenly dropping. "See where it hung against the wall. See where it hung so long that it left its own shape like a picture. But who could have taken it?"

Stanway, peering above the old woman's head, the candle held close to the wall, saw, dimly enough but plainly, the mark which the key, hanging from a little peg, had left.

"What key was it?" he asked sharply.

"The master's. He would allow no one to touch it. He had it kept there always, where he could see it in the morning, at night when he went to bed. And it is gone!"

"But," cried Stanway impatiently, his hand upon her arm, "what was it for? What did it open?"

Josefa looked at him with wide eyes. "But the master would be angry if he knew. He has had it there for twenty years—much longer, I think."

"But, Josefa," Stanway hurried on, "can't you think what door it opens? Can't you guess? I must know, Josefa. Think. Is it some room in the house here?"

"No, no, senor! Not here." Josefa shook her head. "I should know, then. I think, senor, it must be the key to some room in his beloved Spain. It is for no room upon the rancho. Of that I am sure, senor."

"What is this, Josefa?"

Suddenly he had drawn the great, heavy key from his pocket, holding it before her eyes. She stared at it, then with a little cry put out her shaking hands for it.

"That is it, gracias a Dios!" she muttered. "We shall put it back so that the master will not be angry when he returns. Quick, senor! Let us put it back. Maybe it's being gone brought the bad luck. Maybe when it is on the wall once more good luck will come. He had not until he had again hung the key upon the wall. He succeeded in getting the now delighted Josefa to leave the room. When she had gone he closed the door, came back to the key, and took it again in his hands.

"That opens the door behind which he is a prisoner," he told himself half angrily. "He and perhaps Teresa. I have the key, and I can't tell where the door is. And it is getting dark. Teresa—"

Long and moodily he stared at the cumbersome key. Its dull surface seemed to him to be hiding from him the things he wanted to know.

Pecan Tree Valuable.

Of the nuts which are in general demand on the market the pecan brings the highest price, so that some of these big trees which are good bearers are decidedly valuable possessions. In fact, it is doubtful if there is another kind of individual wild tree which yields so much in dollars and cents as one of these big trees. Large pecan trees are known to frequently yield half a ton of nuts and the value of the crop of a single tree may be easily $100. An account was recently received by the Journal of Heredity of a tree which yields as much as 2,000 pounds of nuts in a single season.

Care of an Umbrella.

Do not open an umbrella to dry it, nor stand it on its furrule. Either method is destructive to the useful article, the former because the ribs will become warped by being bent by the silk, so that neat, tight rolling will be impossible in a short time, and the second because the water resting about the top will rot the covering. Turn the umbrella, closed, but not rolled, with the handle downward, then when the silk is perfectly dry rub it with a woolen cloth or old silk handkerchief to restore the gloss. Do not keep the case drawn over the umbrella when the latter is not in use, as it will wear the covering at the seams. Properly cared for and if of good quality the silk covering of an umbrella should wear for at least two years, when umbrella is in constant use.

Average Vocabulary.

The size of the average person's vocabulary has been estimated at about 5,000 words. Shakespeare's vocabulary has been computed variously as containing from 15,000 to 24,000 words, and it includes the root words and inflections. Milton's vocabulary has been estimated at 13,000; the Bible contains 8,874 Hebrew and Chaldee words and 5,874 Greek words.

BRITISH RAILWAY STRIKE IS ENDED

SETTLEMENT IS COMPROMISE—WAR TIME PAY CONTINUES ANOTHER YEAR.

TIEUP LASTED EIGHT DAYS

Most Important Feature of Strike Was That It Passed Without Rioting Or Loss of Life.

London.—With dramatic suddenness, in the quiet of the London Sunday afternoon, it was announced to a knot of people waiting in Downing street that the great railway strike, which appeared to have brought the country almost to the brink of revolution, was settled, and that the strikers would resume work as quickly as possible.

The terms of the settlement are in the nature of a compromise. The National Union of Railwaymen agrees to call off the strike, and the government consents to a renewal of the negotiations, the continuance of the existing wage scale for another year. Instead of six months, as previously offered, and the establishment of a minimum wage of 51 shillings while the cost of living is 110 per cent above the pre-war level.

The most important feature of the strike was that it passed without rioting or loss of life, except for the increased number of street accidents, which kept the ambulances busy. There were two or three unsuccessful attempts to wreck trains by displacing signals or by greasing the tracks and a few police court cases resulting from scuffles between strike pickets and paid or volunteer workmen who undertook to keep the railway services going.

In eight days of strike the railwaymen of the United Kingdom lost about gained in extending the present wage schedule six months, from March to September next year, represents about seven million dollars certainly for 100,000 low-pay workers. This they probably would have received without striking.

The leaders are rubbing their eyes and wondering if the end justified the means. Both sides claim to have won, but the curbstone view is that the whole struggle can be chalked up as a heavy debit for the country.

INDUSTRY CONFERENCE OPENS

Labor and Capital Meet in Effort to Reach Working Agreement.

Washington.—The National Industry conference called by President Wilson "for the purpose of reaching some common ground of agreement and action with regard to the future conduct of industry," opened at the Pan-American building Monday afternoon with no delegation, except that representing labor, agreed upon a line of action.

The labor men, American Federation of Labor leaders and railroad brotherhood chiefs alike, demand the eight hour day, collective bargaining and living wage.

OPPOSES SERVICE MEN'S BONUS

Secretary of Treasury Says Another Bond Issue Would Be Necessary.

Washington.—Granting an additional bonus to service men would mean the floating of another large Government bond issue, which the country is in no position to stand at present, Carter H. Glass, secretary of the treasury, told the special House budget committee.

Glass strongly opposed the bonus, claiming that a majority of the service men would consider it an affront to their patriotism at a time when the Government is sorely in need of funds.

swore that no men came from across the border."

Pedro shook his head.

"I was asleep, senor. Then I heard Celestino call out. I thought he was dreaming. I sat up, half asleep, you know, senor. Then I saw. There were three men, I think. Perhaps four. I don't know. One struck poor Celestino as he sat up, and another sprang at him. But then they were upon me too, and I heard the senorita cry out, and they struck me over the head and put a knife into me here."

"And then they rushed into the senorita's room?"

"It is so hard to know what happened, senor. I don't think that they went into the senorita's room. When I woke my eyes went first to her door. It is always the first thing which I see when I wake. It was closed.

"I think that it was locked. I tell you I heard her call out while Celestino was being struck, before they made everything go black for me. There were other men in there.

"I suppose they came through the balcony. But these men—where did they go? How did they come in?"

per. "Senor, can it be that some of the servants are traitors? That they have let these men in and let them go?"

"That is what I have been thinking all day, Pedro. But you mustn't talk too much this time. I'll come to see you again."

"Wait a minute, senor. There is one other thing."

Stanway came back swiftly.

"What is it?" he demanded sharply, seeing a light in Pedro's eyes which had not been in them before.

"It is something which I found. It fell from the hand of one of the men when Celestino struck back at him. I had them bring it to me here. I have not talked about it; I have waited for you."

His hand was fumbling under his blanket, and he brought a key, very heavy and old, made rudely of iron and, like the old keys of the mission days, some eight inches long.

"I am not sure," Pedro whispered, his eyes feverishly bright. "You can tell. Call for Josefa. She cares for the senor's rooms. Have her go there with you. Let her see if anything is missing. She will know; she has cared for his rooms for twenty years. Will you let me know, senor? Here is the key."

A sudden hope leaped up into Stanway's heart as his hand closed about the old key, a hope which in no way could he explain. If this were the key which unlocked the place where the old master—yes, and the young mistress—had been hidden, what then? He was as far as ever from knowing where was the lock which this key fitted. And yet Pedro's words—Josefa—

"I'll let you know, Pedro!" he war with itself, where every man must carry his own hope in his own hand.

He and Gaucho Raced Away.

They rode across drying streams and through sun-baked arroyos, along dry, barren ridges, through little green valleys, across long wastes where the coyote hunted. And at night they came back, worn out by the merciless grind of the day upon spent horses whose legs trembled pitifully under them. And they had found what they found before—nothing.
