NOT OUR FAULT

Considerable dissatisfaction has reached this office on account of the notice of the Putnam Democratic Caucus not having been published in the Dispatch, while the notice of the Republican Caucus was given space. Some farmers of the township complain that they did not know of a Democratic Caucus and for this reason were absent. We wish to state at this time that the blame does not rest with this office. The reason why the Democratic Caucus notice was not published in this paper is simply that the committee appointed for that purpose did not send in the notice for publication.

The columns of this paper are open at all times for notices of all parties and creeds, and in fact for any legitimate purpose. When readers fail to find what they wish to read in our paper—ask why before censuring and if we are to blame will do all that is possible to rectify the error.

In this instance the Republican committee set its notice for publication while the Democratic committee failed to do so. And this paper declines to accept the blame or responsibility for any neglect whatsoever in the matter.

OBITUARY

Susie Harris was born July 3, 1856 in New York State and passed away March 9, 1920. She was the daughter of Thomas and Margaret Harris and was married Nov. 22, 1882 to Patrick Leavy.

Nine children were born to this union seven of whom survive. Grover Leonard died in infancy and Emmett at the age of two years.

The family lived as farmers up to three years ago when they moved to Pinckney on account of the mother's failing health.

The surviving children are Mrs. Mae White of Howell, Mrs. Grace Nile and Leo Leavey of Jackson, Harry and Raymond of Detroit, George of St. Petersburg, Fla., and Lee, who lives in Pinckney at the family home.

The relatives from out of town who attended the funeral were Mrs. R. W. Bentley and Miss Bernice Murphy of Grand Rapids, Mrs. Will Murray of Jackson, W. R. Todd of Detroit, Henry Harr's of Denver, Hannah Harris and Mr. and Miss Frank Sharpey of Dexter, and Mrs. Frank O'Toole of Ann Arbor.

The funeral was held from St. Mary's church, Rev. J. A. Crowe officiating.

Marcellus Maier was born in Baden, Germany, Jan 25, 1892. At the age of 21 he came to New York and later to Cleveland, O. On Oct. 1, 1899 he was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth Klein, residing at Dover, O., until April 1, 1879 when they moved to Livingston County near Pinckney where they lived until after the death of his wife, Nov. 3, 1901. Since that time he has been living with his three children, John F. Maier of Pontiac, Mrs. E. L. Snyder of Rochester, Mich., and Mrs. C. K. Cobb of Portage Lake, where he passed away on March 9, 1920 at the age of 28 years, one month, thirteen days.

Placeway cemetery in West Hamburg, Rev. Cook officiating.

The death of Mrs. Chas. Sweitzer occurred suddenly at her home in North Hamburg, Monday, March 15, 1920, as the result of a fall on the ice the week previous.

Prudence W. Rollison was a life long reside nt of Hamburg Michigan, having been born there on Nov. 24, 1852. On Nov. 20, 1872, she was married to Chas. G. Sweitzer and to this union were born seven children. The five now living are Mrs. E. M. Shankland of Ann Arbor, Edwin M. and Mrs. Clara Benham of Detroit, Mrs. E. G. Lambertson of Pinckney, and Max G., of Detroit, the others being Wirt D., recently deceased and one son who died in infancy.

The funeral was held from the residence, Rev. J. E. Cook officiating. The burial was at the North Hamburg cemetery.

CARDS OF THANKS

To all who assisted us in the death and burial of our dearly beloved mother also the donors of flowers and the owners of autos, Father Crowe for his comforting words, we extend our heartfelt thanks.
 Patrick Leavy and Children.

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to the friends and neighbors for their sympathy and kindness during the illness and death of our wife and mother.

We also wish to thank the neighbors for the beautiful flowers.
 Mr. John Docking and Children.

I wish to take this opportunity to thank my many friends who so kindly remembered me with a birthday card shower during my recent illness.
 Sarah J. Burchiel.

I wish to thank all the friends who have so kindly remembered me in so many ways since the misfortune of breaking my ankle. "A word to the wise is sufficient". So be careful how and where you walk.
 Mrs. Grace H. Crofoot.

COMING AUCTIONS

Besides the Evers-Swarthout auction advertised in this week's issue two others are mentioned and full particulars will be in next week's paper.

John Herby will have a sale on the Dunning farm south of town Tuesday, March 30, commencing at noon. Besides the usual amount of stock, tools, etc. 90 Shropshire ewes are advertised. Mrs. James M. Harris will sell all the personal property on the Harris farm one mile south of town Monday, March 29. This will be the largest sale held in this vicinity for some time. The leading feature of the sale will be the large herd of fullblood and grade Shorthorns. Look these sales up next and be sure to attend. Nothing reserved.

DOCTOR ADVISED CHANGE OF CLIMATE

Run Down and Lungs Hurt—Stayed Home and Gained 22 Pounds.

"In November, 1911, I had a severe cold and la grippe, which left me with a bad cough. My lungs and shoulder blades hurt so I couldn't sleep and I finally had to give up my job and was ordered to change climate. In April, 1912, I began taking Milk's Emulsion. On the second bottle I could see a change. My appetite was better and I commenced to gain strength and weight. Now (August 23, 1912) I have used 23 bottles, have increased 22 pounds in weight and believe I am permanently cured."

Mr. Bourland was fortunate in commencing to use Milk's Emulsion when he did. A run-down system invites disease. Milk's Emulsion costs nothing to try. Milk's Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physica. It promotes appetite, and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength Milk's Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whose sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. Truly wonderful for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milk's Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions, and if not satisfied with the results your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milk's Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.—Adv.

Constipation, Headache, Colds, Biliousness, driven out with "Cascarets"

Drive away those persistent enemies of happiness—biliousness and constipation. Don't stay headachy, sick, tongue coated, sallow and miserable! Never have colds, indigestion, upset stomach or that misery-making gas. Feel splendid always by taking Cascarets occasionally. Cascarets never grip, sicken or inconvenience you like Calomel, Salts, Oil or nasty, harsh Pills. They cost so little and work while you sleep.—Adv.

WHY DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND SWAMP-ROOT

For many years druggists have watched with much interest the remarkable record maintained by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine.

It is a physician's prescription. Swamp-Root is a strengthening medicine. It helps the kidneys, liver and bladder do the work nature intended they should do.

Swamp-Root has stood the test of years. It is sold by all druggists on its merit and it should help you. No other kidney medicine has so many friends.

Be sure to get Swamp-Root and start treatment at once.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Adv.

RECIPE FOR GRAY HAIR.

To half pint of water add 1 oz. Bay Rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and 1/4 oz. of glycerine. Apply to the hair twice a week until it becomes the desired shade. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. It will gradually darken streaked, faded gray hair, and will make harsh hair soft and glossy. It will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy, and does not rub off.—Adv.

U. S. JURY INDICTS 125 IN COAL PLOT

OPERATORS AND WORKERS ARE CHARGED WITH CONSPIRACY TO BOOST PRICES.

IS AFTERMATH OF LATE STRIKE

Investigation Ordered Dec. 4 Following Information Against Mine Owners and Unions.

Indianapolis.—Indictments charging conspiracy were returned against 125 mine operators and coal miners by a special federal grand jury in United States district court here last week. The charge as reported is conspiracy under the Lever act to enhance the price of necessities by restricting distribution, limiting manufacture and by other means and conspiracy to commit offenses against the United States as defined in the criminal code.

No names of those indicted have been made public and their identities will not be known until capias are served on them. However, it is known that more than half are operators and that many of the alleged violations antedate the strike of soft coal miners which brought about the investigation.

The jury was in session since Dec. 17, 1919, and examined more than 300 witnesses.

Bond for those indicted was fixed by Judge A. B. Anderson at $10,000 in some cases and $5,000 in others. Penalty on conviction of the charges, either of violation of the Lever Law or that part of the Criminal Code under which the indictment was brought—conspiracy to commit an offense against the United States—provides for a fine of not more than $10,000, imprisonment for not more than two years, or both.

United Mine Workers of America alleged to have been instrumental in bringing about the strike.

This information charged gross violation of the Lever Law, and Judge Anderson, in instructing the jury later, said it had been reported that there was collusion between miners and operators to bring about interruptions of coal production, to increase prices.

Federal officials said that capias would be served on those indicted as soon as they could be prepared.

RAISE IN MINE PAY SUGGESTED

Committee Named By President Recommends 25% Increase.

Washington.—A 25 per cent increase for bituminous coal miners is recommended in a majority report of the commission appointed by President Wilson to settle the coal strike.

No change in working hours or conditions was recommended. John P. White, representing the miners, held out for a higher wage increase and submitted a minority report.

The wage increase proposed will absorb the 14 per cent granted when the miners returned to work last November, so that the actual increase is 11 per cent over present wages.

Increased prices in coal to the public are approved. The increases in selling prices, however, should not be more than enough to absorb the difference between a 25 cent wage advance and the 14 per cent increase in wages allowed by Dr. Garfield, according to the report.

Mr. White insisted on a seven-hour day and a wage increase of 31.61 per cent.

STATE FOOD PRICES PROBED

Fair Price Committee Also to Run Down Other Profiteers.

Detroit.—The work of investigating food prices in wholesale and retail stores in Detroit and Michigan was started last week by members of the U. S. fair price committee, appointed recently by District Attorney John E. Kinnane.

The first steps in the investigation are to probe food prices. Later the investigation will be extended to cover prices of clothing, fuel, rents and all other necessities.

Where violations of the Lever food control act or other federal laws are noted, violators will be arrested and taken before the federal grand jury for indictment.

Costs of production and transportation of all necessities, overhead expenses, wholesalers' prices and the costs to consumers will be studied by members of the committee. Complaints filed with the district attorney by consumers will also be investigated and recommendations for prosecution, when warranted, made.

"Save Money On Meat" Week Sponsored By Government

Detroit—"Save Money on Meat" week, sponsored by the U. S. department of justice, will be held in Michigan and eight other states of the central group from March 22 to 27 inclusive.

During this week consumers and particularly housewives are urged to turn from the more expensive cuts of meat to those equally nutritious but less costly.

Detroit retail meat dealers and packing firms have promised extra cuts of meat to those equally nutritious but less costly. Detroit retail meat dealers and packing firms have promised extra cuts of meat to those equally nutritious but less costly.

NEW DEAL OFFERED BY D. U. R.

Would Let Detroit Operate Street Cars On Cost-plus Basis.

Detroit.—The D. U. R. has offered the city an alternative for Mayor Couzens' proposed $15,000,000 competitive street railway plan. They ask a special election agreeing to the following terms:

Immediate construction of necessary extensions, to be built at the rate of 50 miles a year for the next four years, 200 miles in all.

Addition of 350 motors and trailers to its rolling stock within a year, and 100 additional cars for the following three years. The retirement of all obsolete type cars by modern replacements.

Submission of all questions involving valuation and finance to a board of arbitration to be selected by the city and the company.

Control of service to be placed in the hands of the common council. To accept a six per cent return on its investment in city lines and facilities used in their operation.

STATE FUEL SUPPLY IS SHORT

Industry Reported to Face Shut Down Unless More Coal Is Received.

Detroit.—Appointment of a "fighting" committee of representative Michigan men to demand of Washington authorities that alleged discrimination against this state in coal shipments be ended, was decided upon last week at a meeting of about 200 business men in the Board of Commerce.

Resolutions were adopted urging adoption by congress of the bill now pending to abolish government control of fuel distribution.

The present fuel situation in Michigan was declared to be one of the most serious the state has ever faced. Complete shut down of industry during the next two months was predicted by Arthur T. Waterfall, vice-president of the board, if relief is not granted.

Appointment of a committee composed of men that "even Washington cannot afford to ignore," was made by the directors of the Board of Commerce.

SYRIA BREAKS FROM TURKS

Declares Independence, Makes Effort to Force Recognition.

Beirut, Syria.—The Syrian congress at Damascus has declared Syria to be an independent state.

It is reported that Prince Faisal, son of the King of the Hedjaz, has been crowned king of Syria. Palestine, Lebanon and Northern Mesopotamia are included in the districts where the Arabs are voting freely, apparently with the purpose of forcing the peace conference to recognize Syria under a threat of co-operation with the Turkish nationalists if independence is refused them.

The Arabs claim to have 100,000 troops ready to co-operate with the Turks in Cilicia and Anatolia.

TORNADO SWEEPS MISSOURI

Seven Children in One Family Killed By Windstorm.

Brouson, Missouri.—A tornado sweeping southwest Missouri, killed 13 people and did property damage estimated at several hundred thousand dollars.

The victims in Turkey Creek Valley included the seven children of "Ran" and William Box.

The district over which the tornado spread was in the picturesque Ozark Hills section, visited annually by hundreds of tourists.

Flooded streams following the tornado added to the damage and suffering.

planes, providing adequate room for low speed planes to land.

Chicago Wants "Light Beer" Vote. Chicago.—The Chicago city council has voted 51 to 10 to petition the Illinois legislature to withdraw its approval of the constitutional prohibition amendment, that the question may be submitted to a referendum.

Aldermen who drafted the petition said their purpose was "to restore the sales of light wines and beers."

Portable Houses for Chicagoans. Chicago.—A plan to house long suffering apartment tenants in portable houses, to be abandoned after a sufficient number of flat buildings are erected to meet the demand and after rents go back to normal figures, has been launched by the Chicago real estate board. It is believed that thousands of families can be housed in this way.

Hog Island Shipyard to Be Sold. Washington.—The shipping board is ready to sell Hog Island, the great fabricating ship yard built during the war. Chairman Payne announced that title to the yard site had been perfected by payment of $1,757,000 to the American International Shipbuilding company, which owned the land, and that he was ready to receive tenders for the property.

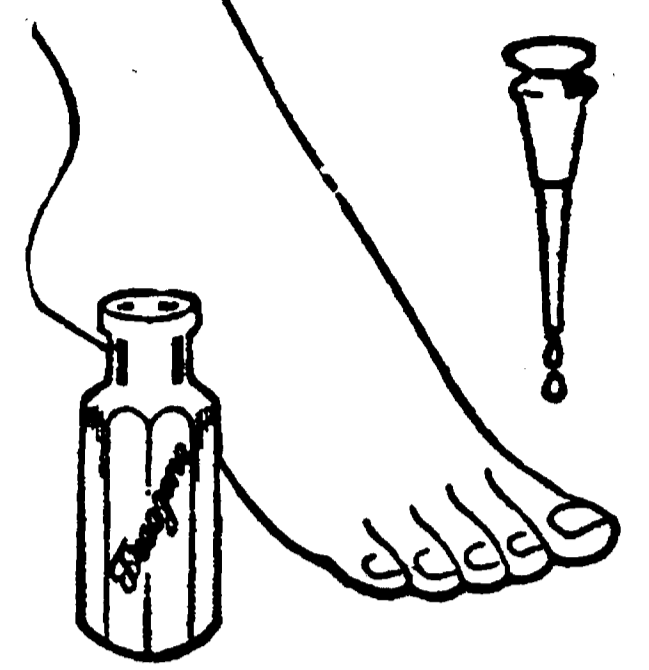

France Taxes Bachelors 10% Extra. Paris.—Proposals that a supplementary tax of 10 per cent be levied upon the income of bachelors has been approved by the finance committee of the chamber of deputies, which is engaged in framing the new tax legislation. Under the provisions of the bill a maximum of 40 per cent may be levied against incomes of over 1,000,000 francs, this rate being decreased for lower incomes.

Trade Winds Blow 300 Miles An Hour. New York.—Trade winds, sweeping from west to east at 100 to 300 miles an hour, were discovered at 30,000 feet by Maj. Rudolph W. Schroeder, Army test pilot at Dayton, Ohio, before he fell approximately five miles and landed without crashing after establishing an altitude record of 33,020 feet in a recent flight. He reported this discovery on his arrival here to attend the national aircraft show.

Says War With Mexico Is Planned. Chicago.—The United States will undertake the conquest of Mexico soon after the next presidential election, in accordance with plans perfected at the Paris peace conference, it was declared by Professor Frederick Starr, noted anthropologist and authority on Mexican affairs, in an address given at the University of Chicago. "A war with Mexico was planned at the Paris peace conference, I am positive," said Professor Starr.

IF BACK HURTS USE SALTS FOR KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if kidneys feel like lead or bladder bothers.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulates them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.—Adv.

CHAPTER XIII.—Continued.

"I guess I'm all right," he managed to answer, "but I got a job on—an important job on. I must get it done. There is not time—"

But her woman's intuition had gone far below his idle words. "There is something wrong, Dave," she said. "You never looked like this before. Tell me what it is. Tell me, Dave. Perhaps I—can help."

Dave was silent for a moment, watching her. Suddenly it occurred to him that Edith Duncan was beautiful.

If she had not quite the fine features of Irene she had a certain softness of expression, a certain mellowness, even tenderness, of lip and eye; a certain womanly delicacy—

"Edith," he said, "you're white. Why is it that the woman a man loves will fall him, and the woman he only likes—stays true?"

"Oh!" she cried, and he could not guess the depths from which her cry was wrung. "I should not have asked you, Dave," she said. "I'm sorry."

They stood a moment, neither wishing to move away. "You said you had something that must be done at once," she reminded him at length.

"Yes," he answered. "I have to kill a man. Then I'm going to join up with the army."

Her hands were again upon him. "But you mustn't, Dave," she pleaded. "You can't fight for your country then. You will only increase its troubles in these troubled times. Don't think I'm pleading for him, Dave, but for you, for the sake of us—for the sake of That's why I didn't kill him at once. It wasn't his word, it was the insult that cut. But she tried to save him. She threw herself upon me. She would have taken the bullet herself rather than let it find him. That was what—that was what—"

"I know, Dave." She had to hold herself in check lest the tenderness that welled within her, and would shape words of endearing sympathy in her mind, should find utterance in speech. "I know, Dave," she said. "The next thing, then, is to make sure in your own mind whether you ever really loved Irene Hardy. Because if you loved Irene a week ago you love her tonight."

"Edith," he said, "there is no way of explaining this. You can't understand. I know you have given yourself up to a life of service, and I honor you very much, and all that, but there are some things you won't be able to understand. You can't understand just how much I loved Irene. Have you never known of love being turned to hate?"

"No. Other impulses may be, but not love. Love can no more turn to hate than sunlight can turn to darkness. Believe me, Dave, if you hate Irene now you never loved her. Listen: 'Love beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things!'"

"Not all things, Edith; not all things."

"It says all things." Dave was silent for some time. When he spoke again she caught a different sound in his voice—a tone as though his soul in those few moments had gone through a lifetime of experience.

ours, and elements in our civilization which are better than theirs, and that the good elements will survive and form the basis of a new civilization better than either."

"If that is so," Dave replied, "if this war is but the working of immutable law which proposes to put all the elements of civilization to the supreme test and retain only those which are justifiable by that test, why should I—or anyone else—fight? And," he added, as an afterthought, "what about that principle of forgiveness?"

"We must fight," she answered, "because it is the law that we must fight; because it is only by fighting that we can justify the principles for which we fight. If we hold our principles as being not worth fighting for the new civilization will throw those principles in the discard. And that, too, covers the question of forgiveness. Forgiveness, in fact, does not enter into the consideration at all."

"We must fight, not because we hate Germany but because we love certain principles which Germany is endeavoring to overthrow. The impulse must be love, not hate."

She had turned and faced him while she spoke, and he felt himself strangely carried away by the earnestness of her argument. What a wonderful woman she was! And as he looked at her he again thought of Irene, and suddenly he felt himself engulfed in a great tenderness, and he knew that even yet—

"What am I to do?" he said. "What am I to do?"

In the darkness of her own shadow she set her teeth for that answer. It was to be the crowning act of self-renunciation and it strained every fiber of her resolution.

"You had better go overseas and enlist in England," she told him calmly, although her nails were biting her palms. "You will get quicker action that way. And when you come back you must see Irene, and you must learn from your own heart whether you really loved her or not. And if you find you did not, then—then you will be free to—to think of some other woman."

"I am afraid I shall never care to think of any other woman," he answered, "except you. But some way you're different. I don't think of you as a woman, you know; not really, in a way. I can't explain it, Edith, but you're something more—something better than all that."

He had sprung to his feet. "Edith,

I can never thank you enough for what you have said to me tonight. You have put some spirit back into my body. I am going to follow your advice. There's a train east in two hours and I'm going on it. Fortunately my property, or most of it, has dissolved the way it came."

She moved toward him with extended hand. "Goodby, Dave," she said.

He held her hand fast in his. "Goodby, Edith. I can never forget—I can never repay—all you have been. It may sound foolish to you after all I have said, but I sometimes wonder if—if I had not met Irene—if—" He paused and went hot with embarrassment. What would she think of him? An hour ago he had been ready to kill or be killed in grief over his frustrated love, and already he was practically making love to her. Had he brought her to his room for this? What a hypocrite he was!

"Forgive me, Edith," he said, as he released her. "I am not quite myself. . . . I hold you in very high respect as one of God's good women. Goodby!"

CHAPTER XIV.

When Irene Hardy pursued Dave from the house the roar of his motor-car was already drowned in the hum of the city streets. Hatless, she ran the length of a full block; then, realizing the futility of such a chase, returned with almost equal haste to her home.

"What is the meaning of this?" she demanded of Conward. "Why did he threaten to shoot and why did he leave as he did? You know. Tell me."

"I am sure I wish I could tell you," said Conward with all his accustomed naivety. In truth Conward, having somewhat recovered from his fright, was in rather good spirits. Things had gone better than he had dared to hope. Elden was eliminated, for the present, at any rate, and now was the time to win Irene.

She stood before him, flushed and vibrating and with flashing eyes. "You're lying, Conward," she said deliberately. "First you lied to him, and now you lie to me. There can be no other explanation. Where is that gun? He said I would know what to

A WELL-KNOWN INSTITUTION.

Probably no institution in America is more widely known than Doctor Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y. Although established many years ago it is today a modern sanitarium, having all the latest facilities for the correct diagnosis of diseases and their successful treatment through medicine or surgery.

It was Dr. Pierce, its founder, who over 50 years ago gave to the world that wonderful stomach tonic and blood purifier, "Golden Medical Discovery," and that famous non-alcoholic medicine for women, "Favorite Prescription."

In his early professional career, Dr. Pierce realized that every family, but especially those who live remote from a physician, should have at hand an instructive book that would teach them something about First Aid, Physiology, Anatomy, Hygiene, etc., so he published that great book, the "Medical Adviser," an up-to-date edition of which can be procured by sending 50 cents to Doctor Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y.

Later, Dr. Pierce added another link to his chain of good works by establishing a bureau of correspondence to which any one can write for medical advice, without any expense whatever, and if necessary, medicines especially prepared in Doctor Pierce's Laboratory will be sent by parcel post or express for use at home, at a reasonable cost. Thus those who have symptoms of disease need not suffer mental agony fearing that they have some serious ailment, but can have a diagnosis made free by a physician of high professional standing. Write to Dr. Pierce relating your symptoms if you need medicine for any chronic disease.

face close to his. Ined, speaking very slowly, and with each word by itself. "Do you really care?" he said.

"Oh, Dave!" "Then come to my room and talk to me. Talk to me! Talk to me! For God's sake talk to me! I must talk to someone."

She followed him. Inside the room he had himself under control again. He told her the story, all he knew.

When he had finished she arose and walked to one of the windows and stood looking with unseeing eyes upon the street. For the second time in his life Dave Elden had laid his heart bare to her, and again after all these years he still talked as friend to friend. That was it. She was under no delusion. Dave's eyes were as blind to her love as they had been that night when he had first told her of Irene Hardy. And she could not tell him. Most of all she could not tell him now. . . . She had waited all these years, and still she must wait.

Dave's eyes were upon her form, silhouetted against the window. It occurred to him that in form Edith was very much like Irene. He recalled that in those dead past days when they used to ride together Edith had reminded him of Irene.

"Yes," He Answered, "I Have to Kill a Man."

When she stood silent so long he spoke again.

"I'm afraid I haven't played a very heroic part," he said, somewhat shamefacedly. "I should have buried my secret in my heart; buried it even from you; perhaps most of all from you. But—you can advise me, Edith. I will value whatever you say."

She trembled until she thought he must see her, and she feared to trust her voice, but she could delay a reply no longer.

"Dave," she said at length, "why should you take Conward's word in such a matter as this?"

"I didn't take Conward's word, by words but by the way you saw them. You made me know that in your own life, if you loved, you would be ready to endure all things. Tell me, Edith, how may this thing be done?"

She trembled with delight at the new tone in his voice, for she knew that for him life would never again be the empty, flippant, selfish, irresponsible thing which in the past he had called life.

"In your case," she said, "the course is simple. It is just a case of forgiving."

He gazed for a time into the street, while thoughts of bitterness and revenge fought for domination of his mind. "Edith," he said, at length, "must I—forgive?"

"I do not say you must," she answered. "I merely say if you are wise you will. Nothing, it seems to me, is so much misunderstood as forgiveness. The one who is forgiven may merely escape punishment, but the one who forgives experiences a positive spiritual expansion."

"Is that Christianity?" he ventured. "It is one side of Christianity. The other side is service. If you are willing to forgive and ready to serve I don't think you need worry much over the details of your creed. Creeds, after all, are not expressed in words but in lives. When you know how a man lives you know what he believes—always."

"Suppose I forgive—what then?" "Service. You are needed right now, Dave—forgive my frankness—your country needs you right now. You must dismiss this grievance from your mind, at least dismiss your resentment over it, and then place yourself at the disposal of your country."

"That is what I had been thinking of," he said. "At least that part about serving my country, although I don't think my motives were as high as you would make them. But the war can't last. It is unbelievable."

"I'm not so sure," she answered gravely. "Of course I know nothing about Germany. But I do know something about our own people. I know how selfish and individualistic and sordid and money-grabbing we have been; how slothful and incompetent and self-satisfied we have been; and I fear it will take a long war and sacrifices and tragedies altogether beyond our present imagination to make us unselfish and public-spirited and clean and generous. I am not worrying about the defeat of Germany. If our civilization is better than that of Germany we shall win, ultimately, and if our civilization is worse than that of Germany we shall be defeated ultimately—and we shall deserve to be defeated."

"But I rather think that neither of the alternatives will be the result. I rather think that the test of war will show that there are elements in German civilization which are better than

TO AROUSE HEAVY SLEEPER

Writer Recommends That It Be Done With an Odor, Preferably Not Too Powerful.

"What is the best method of waking a soundly sleeping person?" is a question quite a few millions of persons would like to have answered, there being few who have not or do not continue to exhaust every scheme and method known to them to rouse some heavy-headed members of their families in time to eat breakfast and get to the office or school on time.

"With an odor, undoubtedly," a well-known physician replied to the question. "The sense of smell is the most easily aroused of any of the five. We have trained ourselves to disregard noises—or else we would get no sleep at all in a city. In the country the same sounds which we utterly disregard in town would awaken us instantly," says the Kansas City Star.

"To shake a person is more or less successful, as a rule, but often it serves to only half rouse the sleeper, and he turns over and goes to sleep again, or, if he does wake, he is apt to be in a bad humor. Any really unusual noise

"I will keep it until you are a little more reasonable, and perhaps a little more respectful."

FIRST POST SERVICE CRUDE

That Between New York and Boston, However, Was the Beginning of Great System.

The first regular postal service between two American cities was established December 10, 1872, when the government of New York inaugurated a regular monthly post to Boston.

Some thirty-three years before that a post office had been opened in Boston at the house of Richard Fairbanks, "for letters which are brought from beyond the seas, or are to be sent thither."

In 1857 the Virginia assembly provided for the "rapid transmission" of official communications from plantation to plantation on penalty of one hoghead of tobacco for each default. Four years after the establishment of the New York-Boston monthly mail, the colonial court of Massachusetts founded an official postoffice in Boston, with John Heyward as postmaster.

The first parliamentary act for the establishment of a postal system in the English-American colonies was passed in 1692, and a royal patent was granted Thomas Neale, who was authorized to transport "letters at such rates" as the planters should agree to give. Neale began operations in Virginia, and the other colonies soon joined in the movement, although the system was very imperfect.

is effective, but one can't think of a new noise-making method every morning.

"When an odor is used, however, the sleeper wakes at once—is wide awake. Almost any odor will answer, if not too faint. Perfume of any kind is especially good. Ammonia, camphor—in fact anything with a decided odor, will do, but it should not be too powerful, or the awakening will be violent."

Birds Enjoy Much Sunlight. The Arctic tern enjoys more hours of sunlight than any other creature of the globe. The sun never sets during its stay at the northern nesting grounds, and during the stay in the south it has two months of continuous sunlight, and practical daylight for between six and eight months of the year.

Height of Concert. Experience is a good teacher, but some men are conceited enough to think that they can give Experience a few pointers.

Natural Alliance. Poetry has a natural alliance with our best affections.—W. E. Channing Extravagant. "She's extravagant." "She served her husband beefsteak for dinner last night." "What of that? The poor man has to eat, doesn't he?" "Of course, but think of serving beefsteak and no company in the house."

School Notes

The record of attendance for last week was as follows: Gertrude Van-Blaricum 60, Beatrice Martin 50, Dayle Kettler 60, Helen Mercer 80, Bessie Swarthout 50, Gilbert Campbell 80, Lorenzo Lavey 90, Ambrose Fitzsimmons 80. All others 100.

On account of the numerous school notes previously written by the Sophomores the new committee will try to reduce the number.

The Tenth grade will be ready to study "The Tragedy of Hamlet" when the books arrive.

Margaret Driver is still absent from school.

Irene Warner and Lillian Wassen are in school again after a long vacation.

The members of the Tenth grade English class have been wearing out the dictionary trying to increase their vocabularies.

The drawing class is doing some excellent work in painting.

The class in plane geometry has completed the study of proportion.

Out of three hundred sixty words spelled in the eighth grade during the past month, three members, Dean Reason, Drusilla Murphy and Blanche Hendee each missed one.

Due to the crowded condition it has been decided not to start a beginners' class the coming spring.

Emmett Roche and Louis Torro entered school the first of the week.

Freda and Susie Brita were absent last week because of sickness.

The A class is getting ready to play "The Goats in the Turnip Field".

Wayne Carr, Fred Cain and Velma Hinchey are absent because of illness.

The fourth grade has begun its review in geography.

The fourth, fifth and sixth grades are displaying much enthusiasm in their reading classes since beginning the study of their classics.

The sixth grade is now studying the higher book in language.

There were twenty whose attendance was 100 per cent last week.

Better than Pills

YOU WILL NEVER wish to take another dose of pills after having once used Chamberlain's Tablets. They are easier and more pleasant to take, more gentle and mild in their action and more reliable. They leave the bowels in a natural condition, while the use of pills is often followed by severe constipation, requiring a constant increase in the dose. Every bottle guaranteed by your druggist.

Chamberlain's Tablets

February 1920

We wish every farmer in our territory could realize how necessary it is at this particular time to check up and see what Farm Implements they will need before May 1st, 1920.

Every item will be hard to get, as dealers are not able to carry the usual large stocks, and later when the RUSH is on, the question is where can we get our orders filled without long delays.

The usual 30 dull days are low on, so we have plenty of time to talk and converse with all.

"Puts a healing coat on the lining of the throat."

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR

A COUGH that threatens to rip and tear out the lining of the throat, that seems to jolt and jerk the chest beyond endurance, and causes an echoing thump at the back of the head as if you were hit with a sledge hammer—such a cough needs a cooling, soothing medicine like Foley's Honey and Tar Compound to coat the raw, inflamed surfaces with a healing balm.

Foley's Honey and Tar Compound has been used in many instances of severe bronchial, la grippe and other racking coughs that debilitate.

What Foley's Did For One Man

J. D. Enterkin, Winston, Ga., writes: "Several years ago I had a terrible attack, both lungs being inflamed. After recovering somewhat my lungs never 'cleared up' and I suffered severe pains, which I had for three months and couldn't get well. I got one 50c bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and it alone entirely cured me. It took all the soreness away and cleared my lungs. It is the most valuable medicine I ever used. I cheerfully recommend it."

This old standard remedy seems to get right at the seat of trouble, almost instantly relieves the nervous tickling in the throat, clears the passages, banishes that persistent irritation which instigates the paroxysms of coughing. One or two doses produce a desirable and welcome result.

Are You Prepared?

Foley's Honey and Tar Compound should be in every home. No cold should be neglected, however slight. It should be taken in and promptly and checked just as soon as possible. The longer it lingers the worse for the sufferer. So don't experiment. Get the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar today and have it ready for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, la grippe or bronchial coughs.

George Leaver of St Petersburg, Fla. Henry of Detroit and Leo of Jackson returned to their homes Tuesday.

Mr. Henry Harris of Denver returned to his home Monday after visiting a few days with his mother, Mrs. Agnes Harris who has been living at Ypsilanti with her granddaughter, Miss Zita Harris while the mother was attending the Normal course. Mrs. Harris does not expect to return to Ypsilanti again.

George Hill, some what weak and emaciated appeared in town Monday the first time since his recent critical illness with pneumonia. George's appearance proves he has been through a hard siege but the old fire in his eyes is still there.

John Hassencall and son have rented the James M. Harris farm and are moving their stock, tools etc. this week. One of the best farms around here will thus have good service, as Mr. Hassencall is well-known to be a capable farmer, having been on the Sigler farm about eleven years, and always gave good satisfaction.

Henry Evers, who has been on the Silas Swarthout farm for several years has decided to work the farm owned by his daughter, Mrs. John Wylie. Mr. Evers and Mr. Swarthout will sell the stock now jointly owned by them at auction Thursday, March 23. This sale, besides the usual amount of tools, horses hogs, etc., will consist of 25 head of Holstein cattle and will attention of cattlemen throughout the county.

OUCH! LUMBAGO PAIN!
RUB BACKACHE AWAY

Instant Relief With a Small Trial
Bottle of Old "St.
Jacobs Oil."

Kidneys cause Backache? No!
They have no nerves, therefore can not cause pain. Listen! Your backache is caused by lumbago, sciatica or a strain, and the quickest relief is soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil."
Rub it right on your painful back, and instantly the soreness, stiffness and lameness disappears. Don't stay crippled! Get a small trial bottle of "St. Jacobs Oil" from your druggist and limber up. A moment after it is applied you'll wonder what became of the backache or lumbago pain.

Rub old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" whenever you have sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism or sprains, as it is absolutely harmless and doesn't burn the skin.—Adv.

the greatest war the world has ever known. For the last fifty-three years Boschee's Syrup has been used for coughs, bronchitis, colds, throat irritation and especially lung troubles.
It gives the patient a good night's rest, free from coughing, with easy expectoration in the morning. Made in America and used in the homes of thousands of families all over the civilized world. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

MILITARY PARTY
RULES GERMANY

PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT OF
NEW REPUBLIC OVERTHROWN
IN REVOLUTION.

MONARCHISTS ARE IN CONTROL

Old Prussian Clique Reported to Be At Head of Revolt—Noske, Minister of Defense Arrested.

London.—Germany is in the throes of a counter-revolutionary movement which was successful last Saturday in turning the Ebert government out of Berlin and setting up a new administration in the capital. President Ebert and his cabinet, offering no armed resistance to the revolutionary troops which invaded Berlin from the suburbs.

The new government, which has been provisionally proclaimed here with Dr. Wolfgang Kapp as chancellor, has declared the National Assembly dissolved and announced that new elections would be held.

Dispatches reporting the arrest of Gustav Noske, President Ebert's minister of defense, and from a military standpoint the strong man in the Ebert group, were considered most significant. Observers here believed that the one chance of successful military opposition to the revolutionists rested with Noske.

Berlin reports said that Dr. Von Kapp, who assumed the chancellorship when the revolutionists seized Berlin has relinquished that post in favor of Dr. Karl von Helfferich and has taken the position of dictator, with supreme control of Germany.

Despite denials sent out by the revolutionary government there was every indication that it is led and controlled exclusively by known monarchists of the old Prussian militarist clique. Every name mentioned in the dispatches is that of a known reactionary, officials here said.

Berlin.—Bavaria, Wurttemberg and Saxony have refused to acknowledge the new Berlin government. The troops of Bavaria and Wurttemberg have declared their allegiance to their respective governments.

The democratic party at Leipzig has declared itself in favor of the old government and the national assembly. A general strike has been proclaimed at Osnabrueck, Hanover.

SESSIONS RULES OUT 4 COUNTS

Conspiracy and Fraud Are Only Issues
Left in Newberry Case.

Grand Rapids, Mich.—Only two of the original six counts on which Senator Truman H. Newberry and 84 other leading Republicans of Michigan are being tried, were to be submitted to the jury this week. At the close of the testimony in the United States district court last Saturday Judge Clarence W. Sessions first combined counts one and four, then held that counts two and three were repetitions and ruled them out. The fifth count was ruled out at the close of the government's direct case. Two issues thus remain for the jury to determine:

Was there a criminal conspiracy to violate the state and federal election laws in procuring the nomination and election of Newberry?

Were the United States mails used to further such a scheme to defraud as is set forth in what is now the consolidated first count?

EXPRESS RATE RAISE SOUGHT

Increase of 10 to 75 Per Cent Asked—Claim $22,000,000 Deficit.

Washington.—Increased express charges, ranging from 10 to 75 per cent, and estimated to yield $25,000, 000 additional revenue annually, are asked by the American Railway Express Company in a petition filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Increased cost of conducting its business, as well as the urgent need for more complete facilities and equipment, was given by the company as grounds for asking additional revenue.
Expenditure of "many millions of dollars" was necessary. Funds could not be obtained under the present rates.

The company estimated its deficit for 1919 at $22,036,000.

While explaining that previous rate increases added approximately $12, 000,000 to the annual revenue, the company said this money was given immediately to employes in increased wages.

BACK ACHING?

That "bad back" is probably due to weak kidneys, a trouble that often follows grip, cold, or overwork. It shows in constant, dull, throbbing backache, or sharp twinges when stooping or lifting. You have headaches, too, dizzy spells, a tired, nervous feeling and irregular kidney action. Don't neglect it.
Use Doan's Kidney Pills. Thousands have saved themselves serious kidney ills by timely use of Doan's. Ask your neighbor!

backache, due to a cold settling in my kidneys. I can say
I was grateful when I found something to rid me of it. A dull, heavy ache across the small of my back was constant and was bothersome and annoying. Some nights I was very restless and felt tired when I got up mornings. Doan's Kidney Pills soon removed the trouble and there has been no return of it."

NOT SO HARD TO UNDERSTAND

After Experience With Truthful Parent, Teacher Got Great Light on Johnny's Case.

A teacher who believed in co-operating with the parents of her pupils called at the house of a small boy whom she had caught in a number of falsehoods in order to take counsel with his mother.
"I can't see how you can say that,"

she said to the small sister, "you go out and tell him to come right in this minute!"
Annie went, but in a few minutes
she returned without the small prevari-cator. "He won't come," she announced proudly. "He says he won't."
"Did you tell him who was here?"
Inquired his mother.
Annie shook her head.
"All right," said the truthful parent.
"Go back and tell him his grandmother is here and has some candy for him.
That'll bring him!"—Youth's Companion.

Curiosity.
Bay (to butcher who had put on a hone to make up weight)—Mother said the pork she had this morning was all bone.
Butcher—Run home and tell your mother that the next pig I kill without bones I'll make her a present of it.

Boy (a few minutes after)—Mother says the next pig you kill that has got mutton bones in, she would like to buy the whole carcass as a curiosity.

The Reformation.
Admiral Mark Kerr said at an al-
man's wedding:
"Women often marry men to reform them, and oftener than people think, the women succeed in this.
The reformed husbands, however, are seldom very grateful.
"My wife married me to reform me," a man said bitterly on a sea voyage Cubaward.
"Did she succeed?" asked another man.
"You bet she did," said the first
one. "Why I wouldn't marry again if I lived to be as old as Methuseah!"

If there is to be much brotherly love, one has to make himself deserving of it.

Facts for Sick Women

Reliable Information

All American women know of the great success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in restoring to health women who suffered from ailments peculiar to their sex, yet there are some who are skeptical and do not realize that all that is claimed for it is absolutely true—if they did, our laboratory would not be half large enough to supply the demand, though today it is the largest in the country used for the manufacture of one particular medicine.

The Facts contained in the following two letters should prove of benefit to many women:

Buffalo, N. Y.—“I suffered with organic inflammation and displacement. When lifting I had such pain and bearing down that I was not able to stand up, and it hurt me to walk or go up or down stairs. I was going to a doctor without any results and he said the safest thing would be to have an operation. I met a lady who told me she had three operations and was not well until she took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I felt relief after taking two bottles of Vegetable Compound and I kept on with it until I was cured. I also Sacramento, Calif.—“I had organic trouble and had such terrible pain and swelling in the lower part of my side that I could not stand on my feet or even let the bed clothes touch my side. I gave up my work thinking I would not be able to go back for months. My mother advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as it had saved her life at one time, and it put me in a wonderful condition in a couple of weeks, so I can keep on working. I work in a department store and have to stand on my feet all day and I do not have any more pains. I

THIS IS LEONARD WOOD

The Man Who Won the Unqualified Endorsement of Theodore Roosevelt, Greatest American of His Time.

—and the man who should get your vote in the Primaries, April 5th

A vote for Leonard Wood is a vote for Roosevelt's principles, for the very same things that Roosevelt would be advocating if he were alive today.

A vote for Wood is a vote for a candidate whose backers have pledged themselves to see that the voice of the people of Michigan is heard in the state and national conventions. Wood is fighting for the nomination, not merely to gather up delegates to be transferred to some other candidate when the party leaders decide that the psychological moment has arrived.

General Wood, in his public utterances, has shown a thorough understanding of the farmer's problems and a warm sympathy for the farmer. He says: "Our stability rests largely in the agricultural population. The red flag never flies over the house of a farmer who owns his farm. If the American farmers had not played the game as they did, we would have lost the war, because we would not have been able to feed our Allies in the field as well as ourselves. If the American farmers had struck, the Germans would have won the war. The farmers sent their sons to war, and in spite of the shortage of labor they, by tremendously increasing their efforts, gave the world the biggest crop in history. Agriculture is not only the principal source of our wealth, it is the groundwork of our most stable citizenship.

"We must have a department of agriculture conducted for the farmer by men who really knew farming from the furrow to the crop. It should be the intention of the national government at Washington to make farming conditions such that there would be fewer tenant farms and more owned farms." Theodore Roosevelt said of Leonard Wood: "He has made all good Americans his debtors by what he has done."
