DADDY'S EVENING FAIRY TALE

By Mary Graham Donner

THE TABLEAUX.

"The other evening," said Daddy, "some children gave tableaux which, as I've told you, are like pictures. The children get in positions to make them look like the pictures and then they stand quite still while the curtain is drawn up and the people see the tableau.

"At these tableaux the other evening were the mothers and fathers and older sisters and brothers of the children and many other people came too.

"The children gave these tableaux and with the help of their mothers got up their own costumes and did all the work assisted by a few grown-ups. They charged admission for they worked hard over them and had very fine ones, and the money they made went straight to a fresh air fund so that children in the city whose daddies and mothers were not well off at all could get a little of the country and the fresh air in the summer away from the city.

"I thought that it might be nice for Nick and Nancy and their friends to get up some tableaux and give them for the benefit of some good charity. For you will get so much fun out of them yourselves and you will be giving others fun, too, which they otherwise would not have.

"It's always fun to dress up and to act—even if one acts without saying a word and looking just like a statue.

"What do you think about it, Nick and Nancy? Do you think you would like to give some tableaux? And wouldn't you like to give the money you make to some nice charity so that others could get some pleasure out of your fun too?"

"We'd love it," said Nancy.

"And we'll work hard so folks will so they will all be known to be ushers

Big Paper Hats.

they can all wear big paper hats of different colors as I once saw ushers wear.

"Some of the tableaux which are easy to give are of fancy dress balls, and of boys and girls dressed to look like the Fairyland people.

"And tableaux are nice of scenes on the farm, and at the beach and on the tennis court and fishing. A nice one to end up with is to have all the youngest boys and girls in their little night clothes carrying candles and candle sticks—all ready for bed.

"Then there are nice tableaux taken from famous pictures, many of that kind.

"Don't you think it would be fun, children?"

"Oh, great fun, Daddy. Thank you so much for suggesting it to us. We'll get all the children interested in it tomorrow. And we'll get it ready in two weeks. Would that give us long enough?"

"Just about right," said Daddy. "For you'll have time enough with a good deal of hard work to get everything ready by that time and it won't be so long as to make you feel you have all the time in the world.

"And you can fix very simple costumes and they're just as pretty. They're easier to get into and they won't make your mothers all wish I had never suggested such a thing!"

Nick and Nancy laughed. "We promise to dress up in simple things," they said.

"And when one boy has something in the way of a costume which will make him do for a certain part give that part to him. That is also a good idea.

"And one more thing, when you give your tableaux, have the children who're to act in the next tableaux ready while one is being given, as they there will be no time and will make audiences very, very weary."

And off went Nick and Nancy to get their series of tableaux which they decided they would give for the benefit of a fund they knew of which was being raised to help city children get to the country.

NO MERCY FOR THE FLIRT SOMETHING NEW TO MOTHER

According to Dream, Modern Girl Met With Deserved Condemnation at St. Peter's Hands.

Dear Old Lady Had a Good Deal to Learn About the Latest Idea in Silk Stockings.

Cortlandt Bleeker was talking at Piping Rock about the modern girl. "I had a dream last night," he said. "I dreamed that a modern girl died and appeared before St. Peter. "She wore a gown of filmy, almost transparent tissue. She was very beautiful, and she had a conquering air.

"Let me in, please," she said. "My sweethearts were numberless, but my virtue remained unspotted. Though I skated over miles of thin ice, I never once fell through. I am a modern girl."

"But St. Peter frowned and said,

Styles may come and styles may go, but an old-fashioned mother like Bab's can't be expected to keep abreast with the latest creations. She is always looking after the welfare of the family, whether it is preparing father's choice dish or skipping her own needs so that Johnny or Bab may keep up appearances with the twentieth century younger set.

Mother recently was going over the week's washing, putting a patch here, catching a button there and seeing to it that the stockings were carefully mended. She came across a pair of stockings that Bab had pur-flames to which you condemned your foolish lovers."

Boys and Dog Dig Up $2,000.

Four schoolboys, while spending the Whitsuntide holidays in Mulhuddert, a village outside Dublin, rattling with a terrier, discovered a hoard of more than 400 in sovereigns (normally $2,000) in a rat hole. The news quickly spread, and a local postman claimed the money as his. He says about 400 was left to him by his father, a blacksmith, who had inherited it from his father, and to keep it safely in these troublous times the postman buried it in a field where it would still have remained but for the inquisitive terrier. The postman's claim was admitted unanimously, and the parents of the boys returned him sums amounting to about £150. Local volunteers are making inquiries with a view to having the balance of the money restored. —Edinburgh Scotsman.

Waste.

Samson pulled down the temple. "Heavens, man," we cried, "don't you know how scarce buildings are?"

the sides, which very much resembles the lowly "run."

"And bless you, mother sewed up every one of them," giggled Bab to a friend, a few days later, "and they cost me $8 a pair, too."

A Good Trader.

"Of course I realize from all you have said that you are the smoothest business man who ever hit this town," the quiet chap observed when the salesman slowed down for want of breath, "but there are some others. Now, for instance, I'll sell you an article for a dollar that I paid five for, and still make a profit on the deal."

"Can't be done. I'll take you!" the salesman responded briskly, and handed over a dollar.

Whereupon the quiet chap gave him a $5 meal ticket that had been punched for all but ten cents of its value.

Very Much So.

"Hungary seems inclined to go back to the monarchy."

"She would find that her crowning mistake."

END OF EIGHT YEARS MISERY

Used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Recovered.

Newark, N. J. — "The doctor said I had an organic trouble and treated me for several weeks. At times I could not walk at all and I suffered with my back and limbs so I often had to stay in bed. I suffered off and on for eight years. Finally I heard that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was a good medicine and tried it with splendid effect. I can now do my household and my washing. I have recommended your Vegetable Compound and your Blood Medicine and three of my friends are taking them to advantage. You can use my name for a testimonial."

PESKY BED BUGS

(Pesky Devils Quietus) P. D. Q. is a new chemical that puts the everlasting to the Pesky bedbugs, roaches, fleas, ants and cockroaches—impossible for the pesky devils to exist where P. D. Q. is used.

Recommendations of Hotels, Hospitals, Railroad Companies and other public institutions are a guarantee to the public that the safest, quickest and most economical way of ridding the pesky insects is by the use of P. D. Q. as this chemical kills the eggs as well as the live ones, and will not injure the clothing.

A 3c package makes a full quart, enough to kill a million bedbugs, roaches, fleas, ants, etc.

Write for a sample and get a price list. Our agents are everywhere. Four ounces net or 16 can get it for you, or send payment and receive it at price by the Owl Chemical Works, Terre Haute, Indiana.

BIG CROPS ASSURED IN WESTERN CANADA

Need of Farm Labor Urgently Required for Harvest.

Rains of the past week which have been general throughout all portions of Western Canada, covering MANITOBA, SASKATCHEWAN, and ALBERTA, have placed beyond all manner of doubt the certainty of vast grain crops throughout the entire district.

Reports from all points indicate marvelous and rapid growth. The conditions of a week or so back, which were decidedly less promising and led many to think that there might be a partial failure, have disappeared altogether and now there is a wave of optimism circulating throughout the entire country.

In 1915 there were enormous yields reported from all parts, and it would appear now as if in many places the yields of 1915 would be equalled if not beaten.

What might appear to be a drawback, is the apparent shortage of farm help. The Province of Manitoba through its Employment Bureau in Winnipeg, is asking for 10,000 harvest hands and over, offering from $5 to $6 per day. The Province of Saskatchewan is asking for 15,000 extra hands to take care of the immense harvest that is certain to be reaped in that Province. In Alberta the crop area is somewhat less, the labor conditions somewhat better, and is making a request for 5,000 extra farm hands.

Interviewing the officials of the different Governments, they are inclined to the opinion that as the crops in Kansas, Nebraska, South Dakota, Illinois and other Central States are harvested there will be a movement northward that will materially help to take care of the labor situation. With the low railroad rates that may be secured on application to the Employment Offices at Winnipeg and at boundary through the Canadian Government, the following cities are being mentioned: Milwaukee, Wis.; Kansas City, Mo.; Omaha, Neb.; Des Moines, Ia.; Watertown, S. D.; St. Paul, Minn., and Grand Forks, N. D., will give to those seeking employment the opportunity to reach the harvest fields at a low cost.—Advertisement.

SEASONABLE FOODS.

This is the season of the year when mushrooms may be found in abundance. This delicious fungus may be served as a main dish or as a flavor to various combinations.

Cream of Mushroom Soup.—Chop one-fourth of a pound of mushrooms and cook them in a quart of chicken stock twenty minutes, then rub them through a sieve. Reheat and bind with one-fourth of a cupful each of butter and flour cooked together until smooth, then add a slice of onion and cook with the stock, seasoning with salt and pepper. Remove the onion and add one cupful of cream and two tablespoonfuls of orange juice just before serving.

Eggs Waldorf Style.—Arrange poached eggs on circular pieces of toast and surround with brown mushroom sauce, placing a small broiled mushroom cap on each egg.

Brown Mushroom Sauce.—Melt three tablespoonfuls of butter, add a few drops of onion juice and cook until slightly browned. Add three and one-half tablespoonfuls of flour and continue browning. Pour on gradually one cupful of cream. Clean one-half pound of mushrooms and cut the caps in slices; saute in butter five minutes. Break the stems in pieces, cover with cold water and cook slowly until the liquor is reduced to one-third cupful. Dissolve one teaspoonful of beef extract in the mushroom liquor. Add to the sauce and season with salt and paprika. Just before boiling water. Have ready the juice and peelings of three lemons and one orange in a pitcher. When the tea has steeped five minutes strain into the pitcher. Add a cupful of sugar and cool. Serve with plenty of ice.

Duty on earth, restitution on earth, action on earth; these first, are the first steps upward.—Dickens.

SEASONABLE DISHES.

This is the season when liquid refreshment, prepared from various fruit juices, is most acceptable. Iced tea may be prepared early in the day, then, when cool, placed on ice and served with ice. If made fresh for the meal it takes so much ice to cool it and make it palatable.

Vegetable Soup.—Cut into dice two carrots, a quarter of a small cabbage, half a turnip, half an onion, a potato and three stalks of celery. Fry all the vegetables in butter; add six cupfuls of water or stock, and salt and pepper to season. Simmer for half an hour and serve very hot with croutons.

Apple Soup.—Cook eight apples in as little water as possible until soft. Add sugar to taste and press through a sieve. Flavor with lemon juice and lemon rind; thicken with a tablespoonful of cornstarch, rubbed smooth with a little cold water. When cool add two cupfuls of cider.

Ginger Ale Salad.—Soften one-quarter of a package of gelatin in one-quarter of a cupful of cold water and let stand to dissolve in a dish of hot water; add a grating of lemon rind and one and three-quarters cupfuls of ginger ale. Turn into molds to set and chill. Serve very cold on heart leaves of lettuce, with mayonnaise dressing, to which three tablespoonfuls or more of cocktail sauce has been added.

Creamed Sweetbreads.—Parboil sweetbreads in a little acidulated water, drain and cut in small pieces. Make a cream sauce of half chicken broth and half cream thickened with flour and butter cooked together. Add the sweetbreads. A few cooked mushrooms and bits of chicken may be added if at hand, as they improve the dish in flavor.

Hamburg Sponge.—Soak a tablespoonful of gelatin in two tablespoonfuls of water, then add the juice of an orange. Beat the yolks of three eggs with half a cupful of sugar until very light, then add the dissolved gelatin and a little of the grated rind of the orange. Beat until it thickens then add the whites of the eggs beaten stiff. Mold and chill. Serve with strawberries crushed with sugar, or strawberry jam.

Some More Truths.

WOULD you use a steam shovel to move a pebble? Certainly not. Implements are built according to the work they have to do.

Would you use a grown-up's remedy for your baby's ills? Certainly not. Remedies are prepared according to the work THEY have to do.

All this is preliminary to reminding you that Fletcher's Castoria was sought out, found and is prepared solely as a remedy for Infants and Children. And let this be a warning against Substitutes, Counterfeits and the Just-as-good stuff that may be all right for you in all your strength, but dangerous for the little babe.

All the mother-love that lies within your heart cries out to you: Be true to Baby. And being true to Baby you will keep in the house remedies specially prepared for babies as you would a baby's food, hairbrush, toothbrush or sponge.

CASTORIA

Are You Prepared?

A doctor in the house all the time would be a good idea. Yet you can't afford to keep a doctor in the family to keep baby well or prevent sickness. But you can do almost the same thing by having at hand a bottle of Fletcher's Castoria, because it is a wonderful remedy for indigestion, colic, feverishness, fretfulness and all the other disorders that result from common ailments that babies have.

Fletcher's Castoria is perfectly safe to use. It is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. Children cry for Fletcher's Castoria, and mothers recommend it because they have found it a comfort to children and a mother's friend.

If you love your baby, you know how sweet it is to be able to take care of him when trouble comes. You cannot always call upon a doctor.

POLITICAL ADVERTISING TO THE REPUBLICAN VOTERS, LIVINGSTON

For some time past my friends have been urging me to become a candidate for the Republican nomination for the office of Prosecuting Attorney, and after careful consideration I have decided to enter the race and have filed my petition for that office.

At the November 1918 election I was elected Circuit Court Commissioner of the county, which office is considered a stepping stone to that of Prosecuting Attorney. I think that I can safely point with some degree of pride to the manner in which the many duties of Circuit Court Commissioner during my term have been discharged.

I have practiced law for eleven years. I began at the foot of the ladder and through untiring efforts have risen to the office I now hold. I believe that my long experience as a practicing attorney and the excellent experience gained while I have been serving as Circuit Court Commissioner has fitted me to occupy that high and important office of Prosecuting Attorney of this county. I feel that I am entitled to the nomination of the Republican ticket this year. I pledge myself that if nominated and elected I will ably and faithfully discharge the duties of Prosecuting Attorney and will aim to keep down the expense to the county.

Your support at the polls on August 31 will be highly appreciated.

Husking cost saved!

—that's what this Appleton husker and shredder would really mean to you. While husking the ears, it cuts or shreds the leaves and stalks—farm tests proving that this prepared fodder has twice the feed value of standing stalks or shocks. This increased feed value pays the whole cost of husking, besides giving far greater manure value. The Appleton was the first successful machine husker made

For 20 years, wherever huskers have been used, the superiority of the Appleton has been recognized. Its perfect husking device, which made this machine nationally famous, was an Appleton and the use of power

Soft simple construction makes it practically trouble-free and durable. Most make years ago still use good service. Automatic safety, no gears and no loose fitting parts make it the safe machine. Control of shredder head adjustable. Control belt requires less power and can be arranged for 4, 2, or 1 hp.

Don't delay, see us now

This Appleton is an essential machine. Now when feed is scarce and labor is scarce, it is a better investment than ever. You will take only a part of the crop. Chinese Towns Thrown Together.
One can never speak correctly of a Chinese village or town or even of a city as having been "laid out." It is a mere jumble of habitations. It has streets, so-called, usually a network of them. But no two of the streets run parallel, except this occurs by accident; and no one of them is straight. Sometimes in a village a quarter to a third of a mile long there will not be a single cross-road or street whereby a vehicle can get from the front to the rear of the village. Outside the treaty ports and a few of the larger towns, the paths—they are little more—are too narrow for even the passage of the ricksha.

Stanton understands that his father is a traveling man, and tries to count the days until the two or three weeks' trip has been made, and a few hours romp begins. At the end of two weeks recently he received a card from father explaining it would be a few days longer before he came home. Shortly after receipt of the card he was heard talking to his baby brother and quiet peeping enabled us to observe him holding the card over the baby's crib while he kept repeating, "This card is from father; don't you remember father?"

Sea Otter's Fur Valuable.
A coat or cloak of genuine sea otter is worth more than its weight in gold. While the skins of the ordinary freshwater otter have no particular value in the fur market, the pelt of the true sea otter is today the most valuable of all furs. The sea otter was formerly found in considerable abundance on the coast of Alaska, but it is now nearly if not quite extinct.

GRASS LAKE BANK BANDITS CAUGHT

ONE DEPUTY KILLED IN FIGHT, TWO ROBBERS AND ONE OTHER
DEPUTY WOUNDED.

ALL LOOT, $37,000, RECOVERED

Daring Daylight Hold-up of Bank Ends in Capture—One of Gang Is Paroled Prisoner.

Jackson—One deputy was shot and killed and another deputy and two bandits were wounded in a fight between a sheriff's posse and six bandits in a marsh at Wolf Lake, Thursday afternoon of last week, following the robbery of the Farmers' State Bank at Grass Lake, 11 miles east of Jackson. All the bandits were captured and the loot, $12,000 in currency and $25,000 in Liberty Bonds, recovered.

The slain deputy was Harry Worden, of Grass Lake. Veri Kutt, a Jackson deputy, was wounded in the head. Tom Brown, alias "Doc" Stole, 62 years old and a paroled Jackson prison inmate, was wounded in one leg and fractured the other in jumping from the roof of a cottage. Walter Wilson, another of the bandits, also was wounded in the leg. The other bandits were W. E. Harris and William Rosenberg, of Detroit, and Lester Bacon and George Comfort, of Jackson.

The robbery occurred shortly before noon. Four bandits drove up to the bank on the main street of Grass Lake. One remained outside in the car while three entered the bank. With revolvers in hand, the three required the cashier, Floyd Mollenkamp, the assistant cashier, Harry Knight and two customers, the Rev. W. A. Cutler and W. Rowe, Jackson County supervisor, to stand facing the wall. The hands of the four were tied behind their backs; they were marched into a small ante room and locked in.

the cashier's cage and in the vault they gathered all the currency in sight. Safety deposit boxes also were looted. Most of the Liberty Bonds came from the boxes. It was the work of only a few minutes. Then they fled, leaving the two cashiers and the two customers still locked up.

The bandits had a start of almost a half an hour before the robbery was discovered. E. J. Foster, president of the bank, returning from lunch, found the bank in disorder and the four men locked in the ante room. A sheriff's posse was immediately organized. Every man in Grass Lake and scores from Jackson, all armed, joined in the pursuit.

Makes Possible Shipment By Water From Detroit to Sea.

Detroit—A new, all-water freight line from Detroit to the Atlantic Ocean will be available in a few days when a barge route is placed in operation between Buffalo and Newark, N. J., by the Trans-Marine Corp., a subsidiary of the Submarine Boat Corp.

Units of four barges, each 100 feet long and of 400-ton capacity, in tow of a tug, will make the journey over the Hudson River and the New York Ship Canal in about seven days. West-bound freight will be picked up at Newark, New York, Brooklyn and Jersey City.

The corporation has taken over the old shipyard of the Ferguson Steel & Iron Co. at Buffalo, which has been converted into a freight terminal.

U. S. AFTER COAL PROFITEERS

Department of Justice Announces
New Series of Prosecutions.

Washington.—New prosecutions of coal operators and brokers have been announced by the department of justice. The latest cases involve operators and brokers in eastern Tennessee who are accused of selling bituminous coal at from $7 to $9.50 a ton.

The cases were brought by United States District Attorney Kennerly, at Knoxville, Tenn., in accordance with recent instructions of the department to seek indictments in coal profiteering cases. The proceedings have been instituted before United States commissioners in eastern Tennessee.

This is the second series of cases brought by the department against coal operators, the first having been instituted in West Virginia.

U. S. DESTROYERS GO TO TURKEY

Sent As Protection to Americans if Trouble There Becomes Serious.

Washington.—American naval forces in the Near East will be augmented by six destroyers which have been ordered by the navy department to proceed from Philadelphia as soon as personnel can be raised to the required complement.

It was explained at the department that the additional destroyers were being sent to Turkish waters purely as a precautionary measure so American lives and property could be given immediate protection in event necessity for such action arose.

The six destroyers will increase the naval forces in Turkish waters under Rear Admiral Mark L. Bristol to 10 destroyers in addition to the cruiser Chattanooga, the admiral's flagship.

France Pays 4% Duty On Autos.

Paris.—By the order revoking the decree of April 23 forbidding the importation of certain articles, the chief American products affected by the original decree—automobiles, dental supplies, silk goods, cameras and films—now will be permitted entry under former conditions. The customs duties will remain the same. Automobiles are taxed 45 per cent.

Force Up Price of Hops On Vine.

Interlaken, N. Y.—The price of hops is due to hop this fall, so the hop growers say. All summer long auto tourists have been riding through the hop country looking at the growing crop with longing eyes. It's going to be a bumper crop, too, but the autoists are ready to buy the hops right off the vine, to be taken home for their concoctions of "home brew."

Draft Evader, Hermit, Surrenders.

Portland, Ore.—Albert Fattig, 27 years old, farmer, who during the war, fled to the mountains of Southern Oregon to escape military service, and who lived the life of a hermit for three years, has been sentenced here to serve nine months in jail on a charge of evading the draft. Fattig came down out of the mountains last week, because "the loneliness was unbearable."

Theft Mania Makes Man Ill.

Ann Arbor.—An interesting case that will be studied by doctors at the psychopathic ward here is of a prisoner at Jackson, who is to be sent here for observation. This man is possessed with a desire to steal, and so intense is this desire, that he is fairly ill till he commits the theft and not till he has stolen does he get relief from the desire or from the sickness which seems a part of the desire.

Phone Rate Boost Inevitable.

Lansing.—The Michigan State Telephone company is preparing to ask the public utilities commission for increased telephone rates in the 186 municipalities outside Detroit where it has exchanges. The net annual deficiency resulting from operation under present rates is $1,311,000 according to the figures presented by the company. To make this up subscribers would have to pay a general increase of 28 per cent.

Slacker Free After 2 Years in Jail.

Washington.—War department officials have issued an order for the release of Brent Dow Allenson, Chicago conscientious objector, from Leavenworth where he has served 2 years of a 15-year sentence. It was explained that in accordance with the general policy of leniency toward the draft objectors, Allenson had been thought to have served long enough. The disposition of the war department is to drop all slacker cases.

FERNANDEZ SOUGHT IN MEXICO

Suspect in Trunk Murder Mystery Believed Across Border.

Detroit.—Request for the arrest of O. J. Fernandez, reported to be in Saltillo, Mex., and believed to be the Eugene Le Roy suspected in the Detroit-New York trunk death mystery, was telegraphed to the chief of police at Saltillo, last week by the police department.

First moves were made immediately to bring him back to answer for the crime, if investigation reveals him to be Le Roy.

The warrant for the extradition of Fernandez was first sent to Lansing, from where it had to go to the state department at Washington.

Difficulty is expected in securing recognition of the extradition request. It was pointed out at Washington that this Government has no relations with the present government of Mexico, and is not in a position to demand the extradition of Fernandez.

COAL STRIKES GROW SERIOUS

More than 50 Per Cent of Miners in Indiana Idle.

Indianapolis.—With more than 50 per cent of the coal mines in the Indiana fields idle last week as a result of the strike of day men, the situation assumed a seriousness not hitherto expected. Reports from the Terre Haute, district said 195 mines were closed and more than 95,000 men were out.

Of the 40 coal mines in the Evansville district, only six were working, and it was not known how long they would remain active.

Failure of the coal supply has crippled industry throughout the state and is threatening interruption of railway traffic.

Manufacturing concerns throughout the state report they have only a few weeks' coal supply on hand.

The Double Squeeze

By HENRY BEACH NEEDHAM

Illustrated by IRWIN MYERS

Copyright, by Doubleday, Page & Co.

"HE'S DISAPPEARED."

Synopsis.—His star pitcher definitely out of the game, through illness, Tris Ford, manager of the famous baseball team, the Giant-Killers, secures Barney Larkin, brilliant twirler, but eccentric and dissipated, and after a nerve-shattering season the Giant-Killers win the pennant in the American league. Win Shute, king of second-sackers, is Tris Ford's right hand man. The Giant-Killers prepare for their national championship contest with the Phillies.

After reading this letter to Win Shute, Tris Ford observed: "There's something behind those long odds—I've thought so right along."

"You don't think they could bribe Barney? With all his vices he wouldn't sell out, would he?" asked Win rather anxiously.

"Not for one minute," said Tris positively. "Money means nothing to him—leastwise, a great deal of money. I keep his coin for him—deal it out in small bits. I find he's as pleased over a two-dollar bill as he is over a five. And a tenner looks to him like Rockefeller's dividends for a whole day!"

"The money end of it don't worry me," Tris repeated.

"Then what is bothering you?"

The manager of the Giant-killers hesitated, his expression becoming abnormally serious. "I don't know that I ought to speak of it even—it might get the idea started, if it hasn't already."

"It's something unaccountable, but I plan to beat it. Tell me!"

Tris showed his anxiety in his face. "Kidnaping—that's what I'm afraid of," he whispered to Win Shute.

"Kidnaping Barney Larkin? They'd have to blind and gag his giant keeper first."

"Oh, they'd manage that if they set out to try," said Tris gloomily.

James Winton Shute fell back on his gray matter. Then came the beam of dawning solution.

"We'll put some one to watch the keeper that watches the victim," he said.

"Who?"

"The best detective we can get in the city, with two strong-arm boys for a bodyguard."

which had gone up on the appearance of the Phillies. There were the usual preliminaries—all before cameras. There was snappy practice by the Nationals. Then the Giant-killers took the field, to limber up and get their grip on the ball and sure fire into their throws.

"Hit 'er out!"

An acute-sighted fan jumped up in his place back of first, and ignoring the shouts of "Down in front!" scanned the playing field from a point near second base to the Giant-killers' bench much as an anxious mother would look for her lost child. Then in agonized accents he demanded of space:

"Where's Win Shute?"

Eyes by the thousand traveled to the edge of the clay-base path in right. There an uneasy substitute was trying his hardest to accomplish the impossible—all the spiked shoes of the king of second basemen.

What on the terrestrial ball did it mean? Was Tris Ford crazy?

Tardily, fifteen minutes after the hour set for the game to begin, the official announcer raised his megaphone and sing-songed the opposing batteries. The fans howled with delight when they heard that Barney Larkin was to pitch for the Giant-killers, although they knew it, of course. But when the announcer added that Pervis was to "play second base in place of Shute," the fans gave loud vent to their disapproval. "What's the matter—Win Shute hurt?" they shrieked.

Around the vast assemblage, starting in the press box, flying through the dressed down to his shoes, turned over on the bed, opened his sticky eyes, then closed and dug his fists into them to dissipate the heaviness of the lids. He tried vainly to moisten his parched lips with his swollen tongue.

His nose itched tormentingly and he rubbed it vigorously with the back of his hand.

As consciousness returned, haltingly and with brief lapses into stupor, his brain and the senses of taste, smell and sight began to correlate, slowly but accurately—due to the native resilience of an unabused constitution.

A peculiar taste in his mouth he couldn't label. To one whose lips had never "known the taste of liquor" it was indescribable—indescribably bad, nauseating.

But the smell that rose from some part of his clothing he recognized. It was the repellent odor that exuded from a saloon when the rubber-tired doors swung open. It was stale liquor! And it had been spilled on his clothes. Following this loathsome discovery, he raised his hand toward his nose and again he was started to get another whiff of stale liquor. A shudder of disgust passed through him. He now took a second invoice of the taste in his mouth and classified it as "dark brown." But not yet could he bring his logy mentality to take up the trail from effect back to cause.

His bed next attracted his attention. It was narrow—much like a shelf with a wooden side to prevent one's falling out. Looking up, he saw above him what, judging from the woven-wire springs, was another narrow bed. The furnishings of the apartment or cell, whatever it was, all tethered to some the room and its location. This round opening to the outside world was a bull's-eye of thick glass. And as he stared through the circular window on to grayness—nothing more—there came a loud thump, instantly followed by a stinging sound, as if minute pebbles had been thrown against the glass fiercely. Then water ran off, leaving the bull's-eye flecked with drops.

His mind bridged the gap between present predicament and past experience. He recalled the Giant-killers' trip to Cuba after they had worsted the Cubs—the days on the high and low seas. He knew now. He was aboard ship!

Secure in this conclusion, he brought himself to a sitting posture on the edge of the berth. In an upright position he found that he was inclined to dizziness. But he fought it off, got to his feet and, letting down the wash-basin, soused his head in cold water—all the water the tank contained. This revived him wonderfully.

He looked about the stateroom more carefully. There was a suitcase of real leather on the bunk under the port-hole. He was positive he had never seen it before. Turning it round, he found on the end, in black lettering, the inscription:

S. W. JAMES
New York.

"S. W. J. a-m-e-s?" he questioned. He recalled all the Jameses he had ever heard of—they weren't many—from "Cyclone," the Yankee pitcher, who had struck him out twice in one game, to Jesse and Henry—train robber and author respectively. There was no "S. W." in the list.

Mechanically he tried the bag to see if it was locked. It opened, displaying a complete assortment of linen and underclothing. There were shirts, handkerchiefs, stockings, brush and comb—everything necessary, with the suit he had on, to enable him to make a respectable appearance. The things had been carefully selected and they were all new. But there wasn't a scrap of writing to identify their owner.

FARMERS DO WELL

Record Prices Paid Wheat Growers of Western Canada.

Will Get Above 40 Cents Over the Fixed Scale Set—World Looking to the Dominion for its Grain.

It will be of interest to many readers to learn that their farmer friends in Canada will do so well out of the wheat they grew on western Canada's prairies last year.

There was a fixed price of $2.15 per bushel paid for their wheat last season.

Not knowing the price at which it would be possible to market the crop, the Canadian grain board, which organization handled the whole of the crop last summer, fixed $2.15 as a minimum price for No. 1 wheat, and arranged that each farmer should be given certificates for the quantity of wheat he delivered. The amount received over and above the fixed price which was paid to the farmers when selling their wheat was to be divided pro rata at the end of the season, and the holders of these certificates will, therefore, participate in the extra price received according to the quantity of wheat sold.

The latest advices are that the wheat board will pay at least 40 cents a bushel over the fixed rate of $2.15 a bushel for their wheat of last season. This means that about $40,000,000 will be distributed among the farmers of Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba. This sum represents the difference in the price at which the wheat crop was sold and the price that was fixed for last season's crop.

Canadian Wheat in Demand.

A declaration that Canadian wheat would in all probability sell this year at between $3 and $5 per bushel, was made recently before a conference of western supporters of the government by Dr. Robert Magill, who was one of a deputation from the Winnipeg grain exchange. Dr. Magill argued in favor of open trading from the aspect of world conditions. He stated that no wheat could be exported from Rus-none to export, India was prohibiting export, while Australia's acreage would fall from 12,000,000 to 7,000,000. The result would be that Australia would scarcely have enough to feed herself, and there would be absolutely no wheat for Europe, except from the Argentine and North America. Dr. Magill, according to formal announcement, though it would be impossible to secure as good a price for the producer by control as by the open market. The United States market was now open, and, according to present prospects, there would be mighty little to spare from that quarter. The net result would be that Canadian wheat would undoubtedly go to a record figure.—Advertisement.

The Handy Airplane.

Just as we have reached the era of national prohibition, a way has been found for reaching Europe in a great hurry. Under the newest development of inventive genius, a thirsty man can hop to the other side, discuss matters of importance with a friend till his words begin to run together and his hat settles permanently over one eye, and then he can get back in ample time to have the headache right in his own home. This is indeed a remarkable age.—Thrift Magazine.

After Ten Years—Eatonic Proves the Best

"I say, God bless eatonic," writes Mrs. Della M. Doyen. "I can truthfully say, after suffering with stomach trouble for ten long years, that I have never had anything do me so much good as this one box of eatonic."

We print these grateful words from this dear lady, so that sufferers everywhere may have hope and a little faith—just enough to give eatonic a trial. Why, folks, last year over half a million people used eatonic and found relief.

This is the secret: Eatonic simply takes up the excess acids, poisons and gases, and carries them right out of the body. Of course, when the cause is removed, the sufferer gets well. Stomach trouble causes about seventy non-organic diseases, so, if you are suffering any kind of misery, not feeling well, go right to your drug-store today and obtain a big box of eatonic; cost is a trifle. Use it and find quick, sure relief.

Make this test—you will see, and then, if you are not satisfied, your money will be returned to you. He who has not one penny unless eatonic pleases you. Adv.

Splendid Achievement.

grand stand, leaping to the pavilions, reaching at last to the bleachers, sped the answer:

"He's disappeared!"

Gloom, impenetrable gloom, settled down upon a majority of the great throng—those who had come to help the Giant-killers win. Their quick minds were recalling what the rival manager, John Marlin, had given out after the Giant-killers downed New York. They remembered every word of it:

"I want to go on record as saying that Shute is the greatest ball player in the world. He wins more games for his club than any other man on the diamond today—and winning games is what counts in baseball. He was directly responsible for two of the games which his team won from us, and was there all the time in the other two victories. In defensive work he was easily the king-pin, breaking up our defense and making sensational plays around second base. The record shows that he led his own team in the attack. I say again—Shute is the greatest ball player in the world. With him no major-league team would be weak—without him the best team would be seriously crippled."

Seriously crippled!

Over in New York a few feet away from the ticker, which was a constant beginning play, Jim Miller and his friends were already celebrating.

DISCREPANCIES

that time complaints have reached this office frequently until the present time, notwithstanding Mr. Clinton's statement that he has given as good service as any company could give.

He said to the Utilities board that at a public meeting of the Pinckney business men it was the sentiment of the meeting that the street lighting be resumed. As a matter of fact he was requested at that meeting to give a written estimate of what he would give street service for with a guarantee. Later the matter was talked over tentatively by Mr. Clinton and Silas Swarthout for the lighting company, and F. E. Weeks and C. H. Kennedy, a committee appointed by the council for that purpose. Mr. Weeks, chairman of the committee states that at this meeting Mr. Clinton flatly refused to submit a proposal in writing and the matter was afterward dropped for that reason.

Going back to 1912 we are informed that W. A. Clinton, village clerk, made an application to the council for a franchise permitting him to establish and maintain an electric lighting system— which was to be an exclusive right for a period of thirty years. This application was laid upon the table and at a later meeting the application was withdrawn. At this meeting R. Clinton, who was then a member of the council, resigned as councilman.

It would seem by the foregoing that the Clinton Light and Power Company has not deemed it advisable to bind itself in black and white to a contract for street lighting, although this is the usual method of doing business.

We have been informed that the council now has the right to order the Clinton Company to remove its poles and wires from the village. We are also informed that fifteen years peaceful possession gives a title to land in some instances. Would it not be good policy on the part of the council to investigate this point and protect the interests of the village in this matter. At the Lansing meeting Mr. Clinton exhibited a paper purporting to give the Clinton Co. the right to use the township roads for the purpose of constructing lines, etc. This paper was signed by W. A. Clinton, then township clerk. R. Clinton stated he had a similar permit from the village authorities but he failed to produce it at the Lansing meeting.

Perhaps it would be a good plan to investigate the council records and verify Mr. Clinton on this point.

Another statement of Mr. Clinton's will bear investigation. He claimed his plant was plenty large enough for Pinckney, as we only have 300 inhabitants now. Postmaster Murphy keeps close watch of this matter and he says that from his figures Pinckney has 390 inhabitants, a loss of 62 in ten years.

We will venture to say that if we had unlimited light and power at reasonable rates that Pinckney would not have lost those 87 inhabitants in the last ten years but would have had enough business right here at home to induce our young people to remain here instead of going away because Pinckney offered them no inducements to remain.

In a nutshell the problem to solve is: Can the Clinton Company furnish all the light and power desired, not only at the present time but in the future as well? If it can will Mr. Clinton agree to do this at the prevailing Edison rates? And will he bind his company in writing, with sufficient guarantee, to do so?

are known, and they are not going to do any more business in Tuscola County if we can help it."

The cooperative bull association was originated and put in operation by the Michigan Agricultural College in 1906, has since been endorsed by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, and is now used in practically every state in the Union. The plan itself is excellent, but the manner in which it is being unscrupulously commercialized for private gain should be severely condemned. The bulls being sold are not even of quality and breeding that will guarantee satisfaction, in spite of the excessive prices paid for the services rendered.

Good pure bred bulls of any breed suitable for use in grade and many pure bred herds can be delivered to any community for from $350 to $400 or less, says J. A. Waldron, Extension Specialist at M. A. C. "These bulls excel in every way those being sold at exorbitant prices by state dealers. The cooperative bull associations as organized by county farm bureaus, cooperating with the college, have proved very inexpensive in operation. Data collected from a number of associations in Michigan shows the actual breeding cost to be only $1.31 per cow per year, including original cost of the bull, depreciation, care, losses and other items met and unmet organizations is being sent out as a warning to those farmers who have not already been approached by salesmen working the scheme, but who may be approached in the future."
