HENRY COMES AGAIN

Henry Ford and a party of Ford officials visited Pinckney last Thursday. In the party were engineers and also officers who came to attend to the formal transfer of properties in the village owned by P. H. Swarthout and G. W. Teeple who deeded land to Henry Ford. There remains of the options given of village property to be taken over, land owned by J. C. Dinkel, H. H. Swarthout, and the Gauss property now owned by Dr. C. L. Sigler and Floyd Reason. As soon as the titles to these properties are perfected so as to be acceptable to the Ford officials, they will be formally deeded over and until then it is not probable that actual work will be started on the Ford plant. It is expected that these titles will be cleared soon.

While here Mr. Ford himself rested under a shade tree in the park while the officials were busy, after which they all waited to see C. V. Van Winkle in regard to the option on his farm given by him to Henry Ford this spring. Mr. Van Winkle did not arrive soon enough however and then Mr. Ford and the engineers inspected the Pinckney and Reeves water power sites before returning to Dearborn.

OBITUARY

Martin Melvin who suddenly answered Death's summons June 3, 1922, was one of the early pioneers of Livingston county, having been born on the place now owned by Professor Bigelow in Hamburg township.

Here he lived until his marriage to Margaret Ellen McCluskey, when they settled upon the farm near Cordley Lake, which has been their home ever since.

He was the son of Martin and Hannah Melvin, and was one of a family of three children, his brother M. H. Melvin, residing in Detroit, and his sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Clinton passing away June 7, 1917.

Always contented and happy in his work, kind and considerate and truly homeloving as to family life, and gaining many friends by his cheerful, quiet ways, he will not be forgotten. He was devoted to the church, being a member of St. Mary's congregation at Pinckney, and he daily lived his profession of faith.

Mrs. Melvin survives, together with six children, Mrs. Edward Stapish of Chelsea, Mrs. Louis Coyle of Pinckney, Mark of Cleveland, Ohio, and John, Rose and Eva at home, also one grandson, Clarence Stapish of Chelsea, who all mourn his loss.

The funeral services were held Tuesday, June 6th, 1922, when Solemn High Mass was offered by Rev. Father Coyle of Albion and Rev. Father J. A. Crowe of Pinckney. He was laid to rest in St. Mary's cemetery in this place.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks to our relatives, neighbors and friends for their kindness and words of tender sympathy in our recent deep sorrow. We also appreciate the beautiful floral offerings.

Mrs. Martin Melvin
And Family.

THOMPSON—CONNER

Miss Annabel Conner and Mr. Wm. E. Thompson were married at Northville, Wednesday, June 7, 1922.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. J. H. Conner of Pinckney. Mr. Thompson is from Howell.

FOWLerville TAKES DECISIVE DEFEAT

With a strong wind sweeping across the diamond and the game won by Pinckney in the second inning the Sunday base ball matinee at Monks' Park was rather dull for the large number of spectators present.

The Fowlerville team were unable to connect effectively with the assortment of curves offered by Nichols and the result of the game was 6 to 1 in favor of Pinckney. The home team put two men across the base that really counts in the second inning and after that there was no doubt as to the final result, the only question being how many runs Pinckney would be able to pile up.

Fowlerville was outclassed in every department—fielding, batting and running the bases and as far as this particular game demonstrates Pinckney is the better team. With two defeats of the Howell team and one for Fowlerville out of three games played with Livingston nines Pinckney can rightly claim to have the best team in the county.

Not many hits were made by either side but Pinckney garnered the most, and there were no spectacular plays by any individual, but the quick fielding of two difficult grounders by Kennedy and accurate pegs to third nipped in the bud a Fowlerville rally in the fifth inning.

The batteries were: Pinckney, Nichols and McClear.

Fowlerville, Glover and Sopp.

Umpire, Basset of the Howell team.

FATALLY INJURED

Phyllis Mangum, five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Mangum, 5833 Newberry avenue, Detroit, was struck about noon Sunday by an automobile driven by George Ginger, 26 years old, 1322 Seventeenth street, and was almost instantly killed, suffering a fracture of the skull and other injuries.

The occupants of the car were taken to police headquarters where Ginger, after making his statement was held in $5000 bail pending further investigation of the accident. The others were released.

Thomas F. Mangum, father of the child, is a conductor on the Michigan Central, but was at home at the time of the accident. None of the family witnessed the tragedy which occurred around the corner from the Mangum home.

Funeral services for the little girl were held Tuesday from Holy Redeemer church, Detroit.

The Mangum family are well known in Pinckney and often visited here. Mrs. Mangum, the little girl's mother, is the daughter of Mrs. Hackett, who before her marriage was one of the large Monks' family of Pinckney.

NEIGHBORING NEWS

STOCKBRIDGE—John Cain's house southeast of town was destroyed by fire Tuesday afternoon. The family were in Lansing when the fire happened.

At Pleasant Lake Monday, Oliver Barton had a narrow escape from drowning. He was in bathing with a lot of other boys and reaching for the locker to climb upon the dock, missed it and went down. A boy from the St. John's School of Jackson saw him sink, he dove in, brought him to the dock and called for others to bring a boat in which he was taken to shore.—Brief Sun.

CHELSEA—Cavanaugh Lake nearly claimed another victim Sunday when Miss Irene Widmayer came near drowning. Miss Widmayer, of Dexter, was spending the day at Wheeler's cottage and went in swimming with the rest. She is a good swimmer but when out in deep water she evidently became frightened.

At first her screams were thought to be in fun but when she had gone in it was realized that she was in danger. Wilton Wheeler of Chelsea dove in with his clothes on to save her.

Miss Widmayer is none the worse for her experience, except that she was greatly scared. Where she went down there is a considerable drop in the lake bottom making the beach danger-

Business in Chelsea is on the increase. By actual count Saturday evening, June 3, there were 258 automobiles parked on the main business streets. Also the old gray mare was present to the count of eight.—Tribune.

HOWELL—Trifon Pian, Putnam township farmer and his housekeeper, Vilva Milos, were arrested by the local officers late Saturday night for violation of the prohibition laws, evidence being obtained that the pair were selling it to Howell citizens, it is said. Both demanded an examination when arraigned before Justice Tooley, the examination being set for Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock. They are held on bonds of $500 each with two securities.

The others making the arrest were Sheriff Teeple, Deputies Calkins and Kleckiker and George Wimbles federal prohibition agent. Pian was arrested on the same charge last March when a portion of a still was found under a cow stable and later the case was dismissed for lack of evidence and a short time following he was defendant in a breach of promise suit brought by a former housekeeper who was given a judgement of $3,600 by a Livingston county jury.

Arrested by deputy state game wardens, Rohn and Wilkinson, 11 Detroiters appeared in Justice Tooley's court here Monday to answer to the charge of violating the state fish laws. It is alleged the parties took bass and blue gills from the waters of Durfee and Island Lakes, Green Oak township, this county. Four of the men were released, it not being found that they took any fish although in the boats with the other men when arrested.

The others, William Heston, N. Vandootnight, Frank Walburn, John Persin, Gustave Anderson, Theodore Swanson, and Leslie Mitchell, all pleaded guilty and paid fines ranging from $10 to $25 each and the costs of the suit.

MILFORD—Rev. Seth Reed, the venerable Methodist minister whose career dates back to the days of the circuit riders, celebrated his 89th birthday last Friday. The event was marked by a banquet at the Court Street church at Flint. Rev. Reed, neither mentally nor physically shows his nearness to the century mark. He walks briskly, reads without the use of glasses and his interest in the affairs of the day is seemingly as keen as ever.

Morris Bitcher, White Lake farmer, was convicted last week of a charge of failing to properly feed and care for a herd of cows on his farm in that township. The case was brought into court by agents of the Animal Welfare Association. The defendant has appealed his case to a higher court.

BRIGHTON—Wallace Cooley's four months old baby broke its leg Saturday in a fall from a baby jumper. The child was taken to the hospital in Ann Arbor where an X-ray revealed a fracture above the knee.

Little Elmer Ollbricht, 15 months old, climbed on chairs to a shelf and got a bottle of iodine, drank part of it, and spilled the rest on his face. He was forced to throw it all up and is now none the worse for it except for the burns on his face.—Argus.

NOTICE A baby clinic, conducted by Dr. Anderson, of the State Sanatorium, at Howell, will be held in the Ladies Aid room, Wednesday afternoon, June 21, 1922. Hours to be from 1:30 P. M. to 4:00 P. M. Discouraged by lack of patronage at their games this season the Howell base ball team were on the point of disbanding last week and offered their suits for sale but the Howell board of commerce has now become interested in the home club and hopes to stimulate enthusiasm at the county seat so that the Howell nine can keep on. They are good base ball players, having beaten the Detroit Athletic Club ball team last week, and deserve better patronage than has been given them on the home grounds this year. Of the 23,000 criminals examined by the superintendent of New York State reformatories, only four were college graduates. Seven per cent in a group of 1,000 prisoners had high school education, 25 per cent had finished grammar school, and 64 per cent had attended only primary grades. There is scarcely a day when visitors to Howell from the surrounding country and other places do not wander around wishing for a cool place to rest. A plan of operations to utilize the Court yard and Library Park for this use was worked out by the executive board of the Board of Commerce at its last meeting, and will be brought to the Board of Supervisors and Council by the secretary, for their consent. If this is secured the plan will be carried out.—Republican.

FARM BUREAU NOTES

A constructive program for club work is now under way for Livingston county. County Agent C. L. Bolander is getting the best of support from leaders at M. A. C. Earl Cooper of the National Holstein Friesian Association will be in the county June 23rd to meet a number of local clubs, which are under way to organized. Livingston county can consider themselves very fortunate to be able to have Mr. Cooper here for one day.

On June 27th and 28th Miss Van Heulen of M. A. C. will give cold pack demonstrations at different places suggested by anyone interested before that date, for the benefit of the girls who are going to take up that particular work. All ladies whether directly interested or not, should make it a point to be present at one of these demonstrations and take advantage of some of the valuable things Miss Van Heulen has to offer.

Nevels Pearson, Livestock Club leader for the state was in Howell Thursday lining up a program for the County Agent to follow, so as to get all available credits from the College.

The Annual Delegate meeting of the County Farm Bureau, was held at the City Council room at Howell last Thursday and was a very profitable gathering. Nevels Pearson talked on "The Value of Club Work" and C. L. Brody, Secretary Manager of the State Farm Bureau, gave an interesting talk on what has been accomplished during the past year.

1. Through the strong efforts of the Farm Bureau, it was possible to get a 10 per cent cut in rates.

2. Forced the Pere Marquette to discontinue the taking up of branch railroads into some of the small towns and was only proven by showing the shipping receipts, assembled together by this organization.

3. Have made stringent seed requirements to be enforced and by so doing, farmers are learning the value of pedigreed seeds.

These are only a few of the things that have been accomplished by the State Farm Bureau, which has, no doubt, paid the farmers two-fold for their investment.

The program for the Conway-Handy picnic to be held June 24th is not yet completed, but by all indications, every body will have a good time, and all should try and be there at 10:00 o'clock. A fine program is being arranged for the amusement of the children. There are to be two ball games, one between the young men of each township and one game between the older men.

In different parts of the state, considerable interest is being shown among older men, and in some cases, the women teams competing in Barn Yard Golf Contests. It is the intention of the County Agent to line up a number of these teams for the State round-up, and this is a good place to pick the winners.

In order to take care of the large crowd, it may be necessary to hold the picnic on the Fowlerville Fair grounds. Look for a final place in next week's issue.

That Explained Everything.
 Robert was fond of his Sunday school teacher. One Saturday afternoon he met him and Robert asked what he was and his teacher told him he was a bookbinder, to which the child answered: "Oh, no wonder you know everything."
