ALVIN THOMAS READ

Allen Thomas Read, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Read died on the early morning of February 24th, 1928, aged 3 years, 4 months and 22 days. He is survived by his parents and two brothers, Russel and Howard. He was a victim of the deadly scourge scarlet fever, which has stricken so many of the children in and about Pinckney.

Always a lovable child, his short span of life was sufficient to entwine his precious memory about the heart strings of his stricken family and friends, and his passing is mourned by the entire community. It only serves to remind us of the innumerable dangers which accompany childhood on every hand and of the slender thread by which we hold our children to us.

From the Divine plan of the ages we learn that the Lord who gives also takes away and we are told as our little ones are removed from us that they go to a world where there is no more disease sorrow or pain and our consolation is to be found in these things.

The sincere sympathy of the entire community goes out to the members of the bereaved family in this hour of sorrow.

Private burial services were conducted at 10:00 a. m. February 25th at the home by Rev. B. F. Esic and the interment was in Pinckney cemetery.

ROLLIN LOGAN DUNNING

Rollin Logan Dunning, son of Margaret Agnes Clark Dunning and Clyde Dunning, was born in Hamburg township, Livingston county, Michigan on January 2, 1904. He was the eldest son and the third of a family of five children. He is survived by his father and mother, two sisters, Mrs. Earle Crawford of Detroit, and Marguerite of East Lansing, and two brothers, Thomas of Lansing and Richard at home. He had been living in Detroit where he was taken ill on Friday, February 17. On that day he was brought to the home of his parents where he passed away on Tuesday, February 21, at 11:30 a. m. He was always a boy of good habits, a loving son and brother, generous and kind to all, and will be missed by all who were associated with him.

The funeral was held from the home Friday at 2:00 p. m., Rev. B. F. Esic officiating. Burial was in the North Hamburg cemetery.

MRS. JESSIE DAY

Mrs. Jessie Day, aged 65, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Glen Doyle, Kansas City, Mo., on the 21 day of February, 1928. She was formerly Jessie Burnett and went to school in the old red school under Prof. Wm. Sprout and also taught school in Pinckney. Her last wish was to be buried beside her daughter Alice in Kansas City. Besides a daughter, she leaves a nephew, Leslie E. Mann of Grand Rapids, Mich.

NEW 5c and $1.00 STORE

This issue of the Dispatch carries a page add announcing the opening of C. S. Line's New 5c and $1.00 Store at 122 West Grand River, Howell, Mich. Mr. Line is too well known to the people of this section to need any eulogy from us, having been in business in Howell for the past 18 years. Now he has associated his two equally well known sons, Francis and Winfield, with him who returned from a record breaking trip around the world about a year ago. They have opened up a new modern and up-to-date store in the west end of Howell's business section modeled after the big syndicate stores of the large cities. Here two whole floors have been stocked with merchandise of the best quality obtainable from the eastern and central markets. Saturday, March 3 will be a day of Real Letter Bargains. Souvenirs of value will be given away free to all at both store. The new one and the one at 203 East Grand River, opposite courthouse. If you want to see a new modern store filled with values never before seen in this community you should attend this opening.

NOTICE
On account of so much sickness the March meeting of the Pinckney Parent-Teacher Assoc. will be postponed until further notice.

REGULAR COMMUNICATION

Regular communication of Livingston Lodge No. 76 F. & A. M. Tuesday evening, March 6. All brothers should attend as matters of importance will be decided upon. Refreshments will be served after the business meeting.

HURT WHEN TEAM RUNS AWAY

George Richmond, Unadilla farmer living west of Anderson on M. 49, was badly hurt last Friday when the team he was driving became frightened and ran away, throwing him out. He had an arm broken in two places, his leg broken and other injuries. He was taken to an Ann Arbor hospital where he is doing as well as could be expected.

WINS FROM ST. MARY'S TEAM

In a game of basket ball full of thrills and in which their opponents had the advantage up to the last quarter Pinckney High School defeated St. Mary's High School of Chelsea at the Pinckney Community Hall on Monday evening by a score of 18 to 9. St. Marys, Class "D" champions two years ago have a good team and led at the end of the first quarter 2 to 0. Pinckney broke through their defence repeatedly but their goal shooting was erratic. Chelsea got four more points in the second and Lefty Reason sunk two field goals for Pinckney tying the score. In the third the local boys got four more points but Chelsea got 5 and went in to the final period with the score 9 to 8 in their favor. With Lefty near at hand the home team got busy and scored ten points, Reason making four goals and C. Miller one.

BASKET BALL THURSDAY NIGHT

There will be two games of basket ball at the Pinckney Community Hall this evening, March 1. In the first game the Pinckney grade team will play the Dexter Boy Scout team. The Pinckney Independents will play the C. O. team of Chelsea in the final game. This team has two victories over Pinckney, the last one by margin of one point. With Frank Thompson in their line-up this team is expected to turn the tables on them. The first game is scheduled to start at 7:30 p. m. and the second at 8:30 p. m. Admission 25c.

2 GAMES PLAYED LAST WEEK

Both Pinckney teams played basketball last week. The Independents played New Hudson at the Island Grove state park last Wednesday evening and lost by score of 24 to 12, owing to a scarcity of players on the local team. Pinckney's were on the local team, Bowman and Reason, the other three players being recruited from Howell. Pinckney aggregation lost the first game by a score of 4 to 4 at the end of the first quarter and 8 to 10 at the end of the second quarter and the last half New Hudson led through the Pinckney defense and scored 15 points to Pinckney's 11. While getting 4 baskets for Pinckney and Bowman 2.

St. Mary's, Chelsea, St. Thomas, Ann Arbor, Dexter and Pinckney. Last year Pinckney lost to University high school. However this year this team has been raised up to Class "C" and as a result Pinckney expects to place. The winners of first and second place play each other and the final winner competes in the tournament at Detroit. The Pinckney list of eligible players include: Wayne Carr, Roy Reason, Norman Miller, Clarence Miller, Harlan Hall, George Hornshaw, Peter Gerycz, Stanley McCluskey. They'll Dishrag You Every Time

Trying to buy a tire for less money than it's worth is just one example of the triumph of hope over experience.

Sure, some tire dealers will dicker with you—give you all sorts of trick discounts and long trades. Why not? It's a cinch to pad up the old price list to allow just such deals.

But don't forget you're playing the other fellow's game and the odds are nine to one that he'll dishrag you every time.

My customers buy Goodyear Tires because they have learned that Goodyears give them the least trouble and the lowest cost per mile. These—after all is said and done—are all the things to look for in any tire. Let me show you a Goodyear next time.

Must Be Somewhat Stale

The Panhandle Plains Historical society of Canyon, Texas, has received what is believed to be the oldest loaf of bread in the state. It was made by Gussie Gough when he returned from the Civil war in 1865. Ashes were used in place of soda and the bread still looks substantial.—Indianapolis News.

Making It Short

In a heated Hollywood controversy between picture men, one of the producers present said:

"I can cut 'his short in two words—Im Possible."

Hard to Get Around Ignorance Like This

Dr. Van Fardineh of the American medical commission, recently assigned to work in the Near East, remarked that medical effectiveness in the Orient would never be established until the masses were better educated.

"A peasant woman," he said, "had several children and when one of them was taken ill, we insisted that the others be vaccinated. Much against her will, she finally consented. Two days afterward she stormed into the relief hospital and upbraided us because one of the recently vaccinated children was dead.

"Dead?" I exclaimed, "but how could he be dead? He was all right when we vaccinated him."

"He fell down and broke his neck," scoffed the woman. "A lot of good vaccination does."

A Girl Story

Charlie Chaplin told a New York reporter the other day a girl story. "Girls are more beautiful and more—practical than ever," he began. "A girl named Montmorency sat in a moonlit California rose garden with a young man named Fetherstonhaugh. Fetherstonhaugh bent over her and said in a passionate voice:

"Miss Montmorency—Augusta, if I may call you so—I am not rich in this world's goods, but —"

"With a slight wave of her cigarette she silenced him.

"That will do, Mr. Fetherstonhaugh," she said. "No!"

True American Spirit

With a $5 loan from her family, Lita Halladay of Estancia, N. M., has acquired four years of education at the Illinois Women's college. She has been washerwoman, waitress, maid, librarian and cook at summer resorts to earn her way. When she ends her course she will owe only the $5 which enabled her to reach college.

5,800 AMERICANS STUDY IN FRANCE

Most of Them Working in Arts or Liberal Arts.

Paris.—Though college yells are missing and university grid teams unknown, American students are flocking to France by the thousands to round out their education, statistics revealed by the American University union in Paris show.

Exactly 5,870 Yankee students are enrolled in French universities, and the vast majority are working in the arts or the liberal arts, the report divulges.

The University of Paris, of course, leads all other institutions, with 1,000 Americans enrolled. Of this number 1,621 are in the school of letters, 742 taking the special course of civilisation, which was specially designed by the rector of the university to give the American student a general and broad view of European and especially French culture.

Forty-eight are in the Sorbonne preparatory school and the other 241 are scattered through the other departments of the Sorbonne. Sixteen Americans are law students in France's greatest law school, sixteen in the medical college, and six in the science-medical college, and six in the sciences.

The charm of Grenoble, lying in the snow-capped Alps, attracts 80 Americans to the University of Grenoble, with 263 more attending the summer school there. Several hundred other students are scattered about such provincial cities as Poitiers, Tour, Dijon, Toulouse, Nancy, Bordeaux, Rennes and Lyons, this number preferring student life in the provinces, where they have greater opportunity to come directly in touch with French people and where their progress in the language is accordingly more rapid.

The Alliance Francaise, a school devoted exclusively to instruction of foreigners in the French language, has more Americans than all other nationalities put together. Seven hundred and fifty-six are enrolled there.

Rat Killing Profession of Two College Girls

New York.—Overcoming the feminine aversion to rodents, two college girls, Miss Helen Caldwell, graduate of the University of West Virginia and Miss Evelyn Wagar, graduate of the University of Minnesota, have adopted rat killing as a profession.

"We have already exterminated rats in important cities in 39 of the United States, two provinces in Canada, Hawaii, Alaska and many Mexican border cities," Miss Caldwell said. "As we travel in our own automobile we have had much sightseeing and pleasure as well as profit out of our profession, and we can recommend it to other college girls."

Miss Caldwell got her original idea from a community rat drive in Virginia, during which she learned the use of barium carbonate, the most effective rat poison known, from her study of chemistry in college.

Job of Headman Is Attraction to Many

Paris.—A deaf and dumb hairdresser is among many candidates for the job of executioner of France. The job, to their disappointment, isn't open, for Anatole Diebler, who inherited it, doesn't intend to resign. Besides the coffin, a box, a lawyer, three engineers, and a bridge builder have asked for the appointment as headman, a mechanical trade now, since the guillotine does the work.

Diebler, believing in heredity in office, but having no son, is meantime training his nephew to set up the "widow," as the machine is called, and to press the button that drops the triangular blade. He hopes thus to offer a well-trained man as his successor when the time comes for him to retire to the country and "plant his cabbagees," the ambition of the French bourgeoisie.

Toss Away Your Hammer and Read of This Old Boy

Yosemite National Park, Calif.—"Old Horn," the freak Yosemite deer, has again sprouted the extra horn growing out from his snout which caused his being named the rhino buck or unicorn deer.

When he first grew this extra spike, and shed it with his regular antlers there was much speculation as to whether it would come back when the new antlers grew out. It has—this time a two-pointed one in place of the spike of last year.

Old Horn is a well-developed specimen of the mule deer, apparently normal except for his twisted, irregularly branched antlers and the rhinoceroslike spiked snout.

Gosh!

New York.—Love is so blind it can't see traffic lights. This was Lucille Leno's explanation in court for failing to stop her car. "The most wonderful man in the world had just asked me to marry him and I was in clouds of dreams," Lucille was fined $3.

Wants to Know

Atlanta, Ga.—A two-year courtship has not satisfied a Kansas City bride-to-be that she knows enough about her avian, so she has written the mayor here a request to check up on whether he has a "past."

VET'S NAME ON LIST OF DEAD; HE'S ALIVE

Southern Boy Surprised at Finding Mistake.

Charlotte, N. C.—James W. Pegram, young Guilford county man, has proved to the satisfaction of the World War veterans and the Red Cross that he did not die while enlisted for that memorable conflict.

Pegram has been on the list of Guilford county's war dead since shortly after the armistice. His name is third from the top of one of the two bronze plates flanking the entrance of the stadium which has been erected at Greensboro in honor of the slain soldiers.

Could Apply Himself.

These facts didn't prevent Pegram from walking into the office of the Red Cross and explaining that the reason his parents had not applied for adjusted compensation was because he was not a dead man and could apply for himself.

December 31 was the final date on which applications for adjusted compensation could be made, and as a part of the government's aid to the ex-soldier and his family, the Red Cross and the American Legion had been trying for a year to get Pegram's father and mother to apply for the benefit to which they would have been entitled if their son had been dead.

Pegram said his father and mother had been receiving letters from Miss Marion Crawford of the Red Cross, but that they considered it either a joke or a mistake, and had not taken the trouble to correct it.

Pegram has been employed for some years at a factory in Greensboro. He said a fellow workman told him last spring that his name was on the tablet, but Pegram thought the man was joking.

Helped Work on Stadium.

He himself helped to haul the steel reinforcement for the stadium, but he did not chance to attend the dedication exercises when the names of the World War dead were read, and did not notice the appearance of his name in the newspapers carrying the story of the dedication.

Pegram's name was placed on the war dead roll as the result of information furnished by some person whose identity is not now remembered. McDarlet Lewis compiled the list for the stadium tablets on information compiled by the Greensboro public library.

Pegram's will be taken from the tablet, and the name of another Guilford soldier who died in the war, and news of whose death did not reach the veterans' organization until after the stadium was built, will be inserted in its place.

British Company After $60,000,000 Treasure

London.—A romantic story of £12,000,000 (about $60,000,000) in supposedly buried treasure consisting of gold, silver and diamonds is behind the Sacambaya Exploration company which has been floated in London to operate in Inquisivil province, Bolivia.

The treasure is said to have been buried in 1778 by Jesuits, who were not permitted by the Spanish to take it from the country. It is supposed to be guarded by a threat of "a dolorous death" for those who disturb it. Its reputed location is based on a parchment map.

Edgar Sanders, a mining engineer, explains to leave Liverpool in March with an expedition of engineers to hunt for the treasure, 75 per cent of which goes to the expedition and 25 per cent to the owners of the land.

Flesh Pink Rules for Spring Lingerie

New York.—Spring styles in lingerie have been displayed at the Hotel Astor under the auspices of the United Women's Wear League of America. Most of the models featured a waistline, a close-fitting bodice and a full flaring silhouette.

Flesh pink was the outstanding hue, while there was also a noticeable array of printed silks in underwear and pajamas. The bridal lingerie set comprised four pieces, with ivory satin for the negligee and nightgown and cream satin for the slip and combination.

Novelties in the pajama line included vagabond trousers and an affair consisting of a seven-eighths length coat of gold lace with shimmering pearly-colored satin sleeves, a surplice, satin bodice and satin trousers.

Big Organizations Seen Controlling U. S. Trade

London.—Presiding at the annual meeting of Barclays bank, one of the largest in England, Frederick C. Goodenough said that trade returns of the United States showed that although the total exports were increasing, yet over the period there had been a gradual decline in proportion in agricultural produce and raw material exported except in certain commodities, including oil, which continued to increase.

This and the large and increasing number of failures in America, he said, suggested that industry in this country was passing into the hands of big organizations. He thought that in the future America would become increasingly dependent on the export of manufactured goods rather than

ANIMAL LIFE SPAN IS 7 TIMES GROWTH

Horse Should Live to 28, Man to 147.

Newark, N. J.—In the animal kingdom, the biological engineers have it the span of life usually is seven times the period of growth. For instance, the life of a horse is 28 years, seven times the period of growth, and the span of the chicken, 49 months, figures out the same way.

Man matures in 21 years, and seven times that is just short of 150. We should live that long, but don't. Why? Disease, explained Dr. Roy Schaffer, a lecturer, before the Woman's club of Glen Ridge.

"If you go back in history, we find that the average life of the Romans was 18 years. This meant some neglect from the time of birth to death. The average life in America in 1900 was 32 years, in 1900, 45 years, and 57 1/2 years in 1926. In a little more than a century we have almost doubled the expectation of life by taking proper care of our children," he said.

"New York doctors have determined to eradicate diphtheria by 1930, and you can help to do this by using the Schick and other tests. Take an interest in the reports from your school medical inspectors; analyze them and do not pass snap judgment on them. In these ways your organization can make great progress in furthering civilization. A stronger spark of life will be passed on to our children and our boys and girls may live 150 happy years."

Italian Marble Now Is Mined in Colorado

Denver, Colo.—Travertine, a rare building stone, found heretofore only in Italian quarries near Tivoli, has been discovered and is now being produced in a marketable quantity from a quarry near Salida, 75 miles southwest of Denver.

J. J. Kerr, former owner of the estate upon which the stone was found, recognized the material after he had made a trip to Italy to inspect the product of the Tivoli quarries. Immediately he began advancing his newly found enterprise. The quarry on his property has been in operation periodically since 1880, but the product has been used only for its lime deposit. A local storage building was the first to be constructed with it shortly after its completion, however, Kerr died.

His estate was bought by Eastern capitalists who began marketing the stone on a nation-wide scale. Several of the leading buildings on both coasts, as well as through the Middle West, have been built with the Colorado product.

According to an official of the producing company, the deposit, composed of crystallized lime or marble coming from hot springs carrying lime solution, is sufficient to last 200 years.

Hot Springs Minerals Are Laid Down Rapidly

Yellowstone Park, Wyo.—The deposits of hot springs limestone, more properly known as "sinter," are laid down very rapidly, according to Margaret Lindsley of the Yellowstone ranger staff, who has been making a study of the phenomena in the park for the geophysical laboratory of the Carnegie Institution of Washington.

She writes of one of her observations:

"A little wooden cylinder made expressly for measuring the rate of deposition was wired in place near the foot of Jupiter terrace. This point is easily 300 feet from the hot spring at the top and only about five feet above the main highway. The water in tumbling down over the terrace is well aerated and cooled to a little above body temperature. The block and the wire which held it in place were removed 21 days later, covered with a deposit of chalklike travertine to a thickness of from one-half to three-fourths of an inch.

"One might think that the water would lose most of its burden of mineral by the time it was at so great a distance from the point of emergence, but the experiment proves that such is not the case."

Marines on Guard Under Soviet Flag

Peking.—American marines in Peking are the only ones stationed in an important capital of the world to serve under the scarlet and gold banner of Soviet Russia.

Following the raid on the Russian legation last April by armed forces of Marshal Chang Tso-lin, North China's dictator, and subsequent departure of the Russian diplomatic staff and guards, the United States marines were chosen to police the Russian legation quarter.

Every morning a subordinate soviet official goes to a corner of the Russian quarter and raises the soviet flag. Shortly afterward an American marine, wearing his post, passes underneath the Russian emblem.

All members of the legation quarter are guarded by the military police of the soviet.

Brunettes Score First

New York.—The love of blonds and brunettes is under scientific comparison. Preliminary tests have indicated to Dr. William M. Marston, professor of psychology at Columbia, that brunettes are more responsive.

Shakespeare Ball Novel

So successful was the first Shakespeare ball given by the English Speaking Union in Sydney, New Zealand, last year, that it has been established as an annual event. All dancers represented characters from plays of the famous bard. Features at this year's ball were theancers, danced by sets drawn from "The Merry Wives of Windsor," "Twelfth Night," "Anthony and Cleopatra," and "Hamlet."

The BABY

Why do so many, many babies of today escape all the little fretful spells and infantile ailments that worry mothers through the day? If you don't know the answer, you haven't discovered pure, vegetable Castoria. It is sweet to the taste, and sweet in the little stomach. And its gentle influence seems felt all through the tiny system. Not even a distasteful dose of castor oil does so much good.

Fletcher's Castoria is purely vegetable, so you may give it freely, at first sign of colic, or constipation, or diarrhea. Or those many times when you just don't know what is the matter. For real sickness, call the doctor, always. At other times, a few drops of Fletcher's Castoria.

The doctor often tells you to do just that; and often says Fletcher's. Other preparations may be just as pure, just as free from dangerous drugs, but why experiment? Besides, the book on care and feeding of babies that comes with Fletcher's Castoria is worth its weight in gold!

Film Speeds 3 Miles Minute

Camera Slows Down Machinery to One Two-Hundredth of Speed.

Detroit. — Feeling movie film through a camera at the rate of three miles a minute to slow down rapidly moving machinery to about one two-hundredth of its normal speed is the feat accomplished by C. Francis Jenkins of Washington. At the meeting of the Society of Automotive Engineers here Mr. Jenkins told of the "chronotone camera," one of his latest inventions, and how it may be applied to the study of automobile engines.

Instead of the 16 pictures a second, taken by the ordinary movie camera, or the 128 taken by the "ultra-rapid" camera, now frequently used in filming athletic events, the chronotone takes 3,200 pictures a second at its normal rate. If desired, it can be speeded up even further, and take as many as 10,000 a second. When these are projected in the ordinary machine at the speed of 16 a second, the apparent speed of the motion is correspondingly reduced. When taken at 3,200 per second, the reduction of speed is 200 times, and at the higher speeds it is of course greater.

Uses New System. In the usual type of motion picture camera, the film is stopped for each exposure, so that it stops and starts 16 times a second. At such high speeds as these employed in the chronotone camera this is impossible, for the film would be torn to pieces.

A further difficulty is introduced, because with a single lens extremely short exposures would have to be made. Otherwise the picture would be blurred, just as if the object itself were close to the camera and moving at such a high speed. Mr. Jenkins has avoided this difficulty by providing 48 lenses, set in the periphery of a 13-inch disk, which turns at a speed of 4,000 revolutions per minute. The film moves back of this disk, so that the image formed by the lenses moves right along with the film. In fact, the exposures overlap, as the exposure is begun through one lens before that through the preceding lens is completed. At 3,200 exposures a second, each one is about one twenty-five hundredth of a second in length. With the rapid lenses used, and sensitive film, this is easily sufficient for a full negative in bright sunlight.

When the movie camera, at 16 a second, the exposure is about one thirty-second of a second in duration. Mr. Jenkins calls attention to the good photographic quality in the pictures, which is unusual in such high-speed studies. "The pictures are true photographic pictures having half-tone values like other motion pictures, not mere shadowy outlines of grayish silhouettes," he says. "They are made out of doors as well as in the laboratory, of large subjects or small subjects, and from a moving vehicle as readily as from a fixed platform."

Has Photographic Quality. The chronotone camera is an instrument for the study of many problems in science and engineering, some of which are not possible of accurate determination in any other way. Some additional applications of this instrument which immediately suggest themselves are a study of gun recoil, shell trajectories and plate impacts, air plane propellers and landing-gear action, bursting of balloons and air hose, tire action over obstructions, water streams, propagation of flame, engine valve rebound at high speed, cam-roller jumping, crankshaft whip, transformer explosions and circuit-breaker

Stone Age Principle Survives in New Saw

Washington.—A modern refinement of a Stone Age method of fashioning rock has come into use in the United States this year as the result of an experiment conducted under the supervision of the bureau of mines.

The device, known as a wire saw, proved its utility in Pennsylvania slate quarries by cutting large masses of the rock without the necessity of drilling, blasting and cutting, which by old methods have resulted in considerable waste.

Dr. Oliver Bowles, one of the bureau's experts, arranged for the experiments in co-operation with quarrymen after government engineers had studied operation of the wire saw in Belgium. The saw is merely a long steel cable, drawn at high speed across a rock surface and fed continuously with wet sand. The sand acts as an abrasive and enables the cable to sink into the rock at a rate of about two inches an hour. Operation cost, the bureau asserts, is half that of methods now generally in use, the speed of cutting is much greater, and the waste of material is much less.

Notwithstanding the thoroughly modern aspects of the machine, the bureau engineers find its efficiency depending upon the same phenomenon which prehistoric man utilized to make his arrow heads and tools of stone—the effect of abrasion or grinding.

Lion Is Trainer for Endurance Swim

Berlin.—With a sea lion as a training partner and pacemaker, Otto Kemmerich, of Husum, German professional swimming champion, hopes to establish a new world endurance record of 48 hours about Easter.

Kemmerich, who ranks next to Ernest Virkkoetter in Germany's list of long-distance swimmers, recently purchased a two-year-old sea lion from a Hamburg circus. The beast quickly became attached to his new master and learned to accompany him on practice swims. He now acts as a pacemaker, keeping a short distance ahead of his master.

Whether the sea lion will remain at his master's side throughout his world championship attempts is a question interesting not only swimming fans, but zoologists.

Kemmerich expects to make another attempt to swim the English channel with the sea lion as a possible strong-arm bodyguard. His previous attempt to swim the channel in 1926 failed when a large fish attacked him.

area; shuttle thread knots and hold-in action; brakeshoe and draft gear application; in fact, anything that moves too fast for the eye to follow can be shown slowed down and can be examined in detail at leisure and repeatedly."

VAST REGION IN TEXAS STILL LACKS RAILWAYS

Area of About 50,000 Square Miles as Yet Unpenetrated by the Iron Horse.

Kerrville, Texas.—Although once wild regions of America now are bound under a network of railroads, a vast domain of 50,000 square miles in Texas is still as free from iron rails as when it was first traversed by early Spanish explorers. And this in spite of the fact that Texas led the nation in railroad building in 1927. Into the railroadless region of Texas could be crammed the states of Maryland, Vermont, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Connecticut, Delaware and Rhode Island. The territory, spreading west from Kerrville to Alpine, embraces a fifth of the area of Texas.

Yet the sparsely settled region is not unproductive. It is known as the leading wool and mohair-producing territory of the world. Its mineral resources have been pronounced rich by government authorities, who name it as one of the chief deposits. Discovery of oil in the Pecos and San Angelo regions has resulted in laying of pipelines across this hilly country to inland shipping points and to ports on the Gulf of Mexico.

Railroads penetrate no farther than San Angelo, Alpine, Del Rio, Kerrville, Llano and Menard. In the thinly settled interior, inhabitants without benefit of railway travel rely upon motor car and radio to relieve the monotony of their isolation.

All Lima Digging for Lost Gold of Incas

Lima, Peru.—The government has received a large number of applications from residents of Lima asking permission to excavate under various old buildings in the city where, legend has it, ancient Inca and Spanish colonial treasure is buried.

One spot in particular, situated on the "Calle Huérfanos" (Street of the Orphans) where the Marquis Negreiros is said to have died, a bachelor, three centuries ago after burying beneath his home huge quantities of heavy gold plate, Spanish doubloons, and other coin of the realm, is being sought after as a site for "diggings."

After getting permits the recipients set feverishly to work at the excavating. As far as is known, however, no success has attended the efforts yet.

Thought for Today

The best gift of humanity are the lives of good men.—C. H. Fowler.

Mrs. R. Was Practicing Art of Guest Dodging

One Saturday Mrs. R. was leaving her home to go downtown shopping. Two ladies with suitcases were going up the walk toward the house of her next-door neighbor. Mrs. R. happened to see her neighbor walking quickly toward the street corner where she intended to board a street car. Thinking that she would be disappointed if she missed the guests who at that moment were on her porch, Mrs. R. called to her neighbor several times without making her hear.

Finally, by hurrying, she caught up with her and somewhat breathlessly delivered the news.

"Shut up, you fool! Shut up!" said her neighbor in an angry tone. "I saw them coming, and I was trying to get away before they saw me. I had planned to visit some friends in the country tomorrow, so I would not have to get Sunday dinner myself. You don't think that I intend to stay home and cook for them, do you?"

Fortunately, the street car arrived in time.

SCHICK TEST COMPLETED
With the exception of the Brighton school, all the children of the county have had an opportunity to be Schick tested, or will have that opportunity the next two weeks. Notifications have been mailed to the teachers of Brighton and Howell townships, asking that the children of those districts come to the county nurses office on the morning of Wednesday, March seventh, for the test. At that time, other children who for any reason were unable to take the test in their own districts, will have the privilege of coming to Howell for the purpose, provided that they come not later than 10:30. Children in Brighton will be given the test as soon as possible after the re-opening of school. Even though toxin-antitoxin has been given, there is always a certain proportion of individuals not immunized by the first series of treatment, and unless the Schick test is given, there is no way of determining when an individual belongs to the group of immunes, or to the non-immunes.

Said and Wrote

modest and proudest of this one sentence

When Madame de Stael asked Napoleon whom he considered the greatest woman in the world, his reply was: "Her who has borne the most children." This ought to be satisfying to the American mothers of big families.

There is disagreement as to the last words that Napoleon uttered. According to one authority, his words constituted a broken sentence: "My God! ... and the French nation ... son ... Head of the army ... France!"

According to another authority the last word which he spoke was the name of Josephine.

The most eloquent thing ever said by Napoleon was Robert Ingersoll's description of the tomb of Napoleon under the dome of the Invalides in Paris. In the last paragraph of that magnificent, but brief description, Ingersoll said: "I would rather have been a French peasant with worn wooden shoes; I would rather have lived in a hut with a fire growing over the door, and the apes growing purple in the no-man's-land of the unknown sun; I would rather have been a French peasant than Napoleon the Great."

FARMERS-MERCHANTS BANQUET

The annual Farmers-Merchants banquet will be held at Howell on Wednesday evening, March 5th at 6:45 p. m. in the high school gymnasium.

Dr. W. B. Henderson of the extension department of the University of Michigan is to be the speaker. Dr. Henderson is a very unusual speaker and with other members being added to the program it should prove to be an event well worth the effort of attending. The tickets are being divided up according to townships and the reservations will be handled in this manner. The price per person is $1.00 each but worth many times that amount. This banquet is for both men and women and both are cordially invited. Get your tickets at once.

Harry Parsons of Highland, a very outstanding soloist will be on the program. The Alfalfa Quartette of Fenton and Flint are also scheduled. They are worth the price of the banquet alone.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

In Memory of Ellen Ophelia Drouillard who died February 6th, 1928.

Death has again entered our Chapter Hall and called to the Eternal Home a dear sister, who has completed her faithful labor here in ministering to the cry of the orphan, to the call of want and to the piteous wail of sorrow, and as a recompense well received the welcome plaudit, "well done," from the Great Master.

And whereas, the loving Father has called our beloved and respected Sister home, and she having been a true and faithful member of our Mystic Order, therefore be it

RESOLVED, That Pinckney Chapter No. 145, Order of the Eastern Star of Pinckney, Livingston County, Michigan, in testimony of its loss, be draped in mourning for thirty days, and that we tender to the family our sincere condolence in their deep affliction, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family.

COMMUNICATION

Manistiquic, Mich., Feb. 22, 1928

Dear Sir: The writer will endeavor to describe to the readers of your paper the many enterprises of Manistiquic, one of the many beautiful cities of the upper peninsula of Michigan.

This city has paper mills, saw mills, chemical works, handle factories, flooring and finished products mills and numerous smaller industries. Also Manistiquic boasts of one of the largest chicken farms in Michigan where many thousands of the finest birds are housed. Beautiful well fed deer roam here that are as tame as a house cat. This has been a great attraction for the tourists, many of whom spend hours viewing the chickens and deer. This industry is owned by Dr. C. M. Sigler who is installing 20,000 egg capacity incubators. Dr. Sigler reports that he has sold nearly the entire seasons out put of day old chicks.

We pass along to Indian Lake and the big spring which is a rare sight worth seeing. This lake has hundreds of fine cottages and summer homes. On the banks of Indian Lake is one of the state golf grounds where many people spend the afternoon in contests to determine their skill as golf players. There has been but a light fall of snow until today. It has been extremely fine weather, thawing nearly every day so that water ran freely in the streets. Tourists will be able to get any supplies needed at the new store, Sigler's Hardware and Sport Shop, the electric sign reads. This store is pronounced the most up-to-date store of its kind in the upper peninsula. Thousands of tourists visit this section each summer and return home well paid for their time.

SUPER-MYSTERY FILM

The "Chinese Parrot," the great mystery film which comes to the Temple Theatre, Howell March 5 is as follows:

Sally Randal, daughter of a rich Hawaiian planter, marries Philmore, the man of her father's choice, thereby jilting P. J. Madden, to whom she had sworn her love. Tearing from her throat the priceless pearls that are Sally's wedding gift from her father, Madden declares that he will one day buy her at the same price.

Twenty years later Mrs. Sally Philmore, now a widow in financial straits, returns to San Francisco to offer for sale through her jeweler, Philip Eden, the last of her possessions, the pearls. Accompanied by her daughter Sally, she goes from the ship to meet the prospective purchaser of her gems, who turns out to be Madden.

Mrs. Philmore is astonished and humiliated in his presence and Madden is struck by the beauty and charm of Sally's daughter, Sally. Since Mrs. Philmore has entrusted the gems to a Chinese detective named Chan, who is arriving on another ship, she is unable to deliver the pearls at once. Madden tells her to bring them in person to his desert hacienda and to bring Sally with her.

Philmore waits in his desert home for the pearls, and particularly for Sally, but he is struck from behind by his secretary, who has found a crook who bears a striking resemblance to Madden. Madden is held a prisoner in his own house while the crook impersonates him and meets Sally upon her arrival.

A Chinese parrot, overhearing Madden's cry of "Murder" repeats the cry at an unexpected moment and the story takes a new turn from this moment to the great climax.

"DETROIT" SAILORS WELCOMED BY POPE

A party of 88 officers and sailors from the U. S. cruiser "Detroit" was recently received in a special audience by Pope Pius XI, according to a dispatch from Rome. Protestants were included in the group as well as Catholics. Captain John Warren Moore and Commander George Hayes Laid were among the officers presented and were accompanied by their wives. Pope Pius received the party cordially, asking several of its members questions about the cruise of the "Detroit".

PRIEST HERO IN CHURCH BLAZE

Detroit Pastor Braves Flames to Save Sacrament

Braving flames which threatened to destroy the entire edifice, the Rev. Norman A. Duckette, pastor of the Church of St. Benedict the Moor, Detroit, entered the burning structure when it caught fire recently, and with the aid of firemen, rescued the Host which was locked in the tabernacle. Fire from an overheated furnace broke out while Father Duckette was saying the early morning Mass. Sending an altar boy to turn in the alarm, the priest attempted to finish the service, in compliance with Roman Catholic law. The flames broke through the floor behind him and he was forced to the rectory, next door, carrying the consecrated Host with him.

Returning to the Church, Father Duckette, with the aid of firemen, made their way through the flames to the tabernacle and secured the reserved Host, which he carried to the rectory. He then finished the Mass at St. Leo's Church, nearby.

The Church, which was established for Negro Catholics in the northwest section of the city only last May, was saved but the interior was gutted by the flames. The loss was not fully covered by insurance. Father Duckette is one of three Negro priests in North America. He was recently ordained especially for the Detroit diocese.

POPE DECORATES JUSTICE FLANNIGAN

Michigan Man Awarded High Honor By Pius XI; Is Ill in Hospital

The grand cross of St. Gregory the Great, one of the highest honors the Roman Catholic Church can bestow upon a layman, was recently awarded to Justice Richard C. Flannigan, of the Michigan Supreme Court, by Pope Pius XI.

The grand cross, which is recognized by the Roman Catholic Church, was conferred upon the Rt. Rev. Michael J. Gorman, D.D., Bishop of Detroit, and the Rev. Joseph Pinter, D.D., Bishop of Grand Rapids. Justice Flannigan, who was appointed to the supreme bench by Gov. Fred W. Green a few months ago, is seriously ill in a Chicago hospital. Prior to his appointment to his present office, he served as a circuit judge in the Upper Peninsula.

Original "Mausoleum"

The term "mausoleum" applied in modern times to a tomb of considerable architectural pretension, was derived from the tomb of Mausolus, a king of Caria, near the Aegean sea. When he died in 353 B. C. Artemisia, his wife, erected at Halicarnassus one of the most magnificent tombs the world has ever seen. Artemisia died before the tomb was completed, but the work was carried on by the most famous sculptors of ancient times, and became known as one of the wonders of the world.—Kansas City Star.

WHEAT PROMOTERS TO DECOY TRUSTFUL CONSUMERS

Investigations of Various Schemes for Defrauding Public Out of Money Disclosed by Bankers Association—Many Kinds of Fake Industrial Promotions Used as Bait.

By W. R. MOREHOUSE

MILLIONS of dollars raised under the disguise of charity go to line the pockets of promoters. Ticket sales on raffles are commonly used, and while the loss to any one person who buys a ticket is small the aggregate loss for the United States runs into millions of dollars. Usually the promoters of these schemes first make a contract with some charitable institution to conduct a campaign for funds on behalf of the institution. They are to run the campaign in the name of the institution and share the proceeds. The whole scheme is often one of deception. To those who have been led to believe that their contributions go practically 100 per cent to charity, the following case we investigated should prove illuminating.

A number of promoters recently contracted with a charitable institution to put on a campaign to raise funds by the raffle of new automobiles. So far as the public could tell from the banners used in displaying the automobile, the full amount of the sale price of the tickets went to the institution. There was nothing to convey any other impression. Apparently it was open and above board and was being conducted by men who were contributing their time gratuitously.

For several days a new automobile, mounted on a truck, was driven up and down the streets, with banners telling about the drive for funds for the charitable institution. One day the truck would go by displaying one of the popular makes of automobiles. A few days later it would parade by displaying some other popular make. Periodically the truck would pull into the curb where it would park for several hours while the promoters pleaded with passers-by to take tickets on the raffle and thereby help a deserving charitable institution to meet its bills.

Thousands "Touched" Thousands of people, touched by the appeal for help, bought tickets, the total sale running into the thousands of dollars. Contrary to the belief of the ticket buyers their contributions did not go 100 per cent to charity. Instead the charitable institution received but 26 cents on the dollar, the promoters getting 52 cents on the dollar as their net profit, or twice the amount received by charity, while the remainder of 22 cents on each dollar represented the amount charged against gross sales by the promoters as expenses.

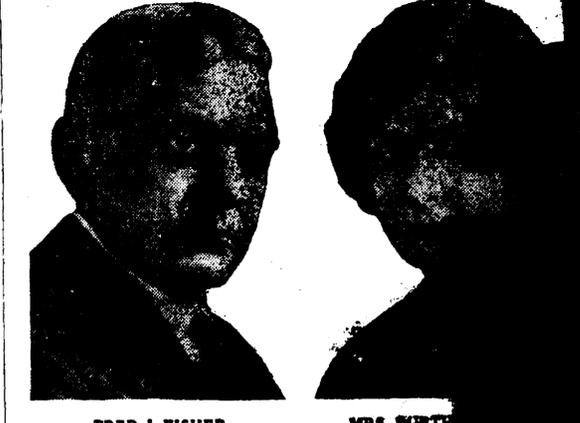

In other words, every person who bought a 50 cent ticket for the sake of charity, contributed but 13 cents to charity and 37 cents to those promoters.

Unfortunate as this scheme is, it is not the only one of its kind. In fact, they have attempted at different times to promote mills, all of which failed. One of the promoters resented that formerly he was president and general manager of one of the largest woolen mills in Canada. In fact was the mill referred to into bankruptcy and he had been taker of the plant.

This story of misrepresentation can be duplicated in practically the whole industrial field, and in many instances is being used to defraud investors to invest in some wildcat investment.

False Claims A certain group of promoters investigated offered for sale stock in a proposed woolen mill. In order to sell the stock they resorted to the use of misrepresentation and false claims. After renting space on the ground floor of an office building fronting on a busy street they began their campaign. Orally and by printed advertisements extravagant claims were made for the proposed corporation which were grossly false.
