PINCKNEY MASONS ARE HOSTS TO GRAND MASTER BONISTEEL

The most notable occasion since the establishment of Livingston Lodge No. 76 F. & A. M. at Pinckney took place last Saturday when they celebrated Past Master's night and had as their honored and distinguished guest, Hon. Roscoe Bonisteel of Ann Arbor, the most worthy Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Michigan. Although the Pinckney Lodge is nearly 75 years old this is the first time it has ever been honored by the visit of a grand master. The local and visiting Masons were served a simple banquet by the Pinckney O. E. S. Past Master John Martin pronouncing the invocation. At the completion of the repast, P. W. Curlett, master of Livingston Lodge welcomed the Masonic brothers and introduced the toastmaster, Norman Reason. Mr. Reason then called upon Kirk Van Winkle of Lansing, the oldest living past master of Livingston Lodge who responded to the welcome and expressed his pleasure on being present on this auspicious occasion. The toastmaster presented Grand Master Bonisteel who delivered an address on "Masonic Charities" in an impressive and forceful manner. He stated that out of every dollar collected by the grand lodge 75 cents is expended for charity. The Masonic home at Alma was also touched upon and the needs and occasion for it. Grand Master Bonisteel is an able speaker and has the faculty of driving his remarks home. Judge Neil Reid of Mt. Clemens was the next speaker and dwelt on "Masonic Friendship" in a pleasing manner. Judge Reid is circuit judge of McComb County. Previous to that he was Probate Judge and before that court stenographer so that his record for public service rivals that of Judge Willis Lyons of Howell. Judge Lyons spoke on the subject "Is Masonry Worthwhile" and detailed the many benefits he had derived from it and declared emphatically that it certainly was. Hon. Lynn Gardner was the last speaker and talked briefly of the pleasures he had derived through Masonry. The brothers then proceeded to the lodge room where the past masters conferred the third degree upon Clare Miller, son of Postmaster Miller. The chairs were filled as follows: W. M., John Martin; S. W., Kirk VanWinkle; J. W., Reginald Schaefer; S. D., Paul Clark; J. D., Walter Girard; Stewards, Azel Carpenter, J. H. Hooker; Sec'y., W. C. Miller; Tiler, Rex Burnett. The following brothers were on the Fellowcraft team and assisted in conferring the degree: Azel Carpenter, Percy Ellis, Ona Campbell, Kenneth Reason, George Clark, Albert Dinkel, Louis Wegener, Andrew Campbell, Robert Meyers, Calvin Hooker, L. J. Henry, Stacy Hall, Earl Baughn, Walter Girard and William Clark. N. O. Frye, J. H. Hooker and John Chambers also took part in the degree work. Taking it all in all it was a momentous occasion and plans are under way to make it an annual event. The Masons wish to express their thanks to the ladies of the O. E. S. for the excellent banquet served by them and all others who helped to make it a grand success.

The following is the number of visitors from the neighboring lodges: Fraternity No. 262, Ann Arbor 1; Golden Rule No. 150, Ann Arbor 2; Mt. Clemens No. 6, 1; Stockbridge, No. 130, 14; Howell, No. 38, 10; Lansing, No. 557, 1; City of Straits, Detroit, No. 452, 2; Dexter, No. 65, 7; St. Johns, No. 105, 2; Brighton, No. 247, 7; South Lyon, No. 319, 3; Fowlerville, No. 164, 2; Flint No. 174, 1; Flint No. 23, 1.

SCHOOL NOTES

The school will send contestants to Ypsilanti Thursday April 10 to take part in the Public Speaking contest. Miss Evelyn Graves will represent the school in Oratory. The subject of her oration is "The Complexities of Crime." Miss Arloa Esic will represent the school in declamatory. The title of her declamation is "The Unknown Soldier."

Baseball practise has started. There promises to be a merry chase for positions on the team this year. Some of the veterans of last year are likely to be benched for younger and more capable players. In the outfield Stanley Adseh, James Hall, Bob Smith, Loren Meabon, Ted Adseh, and Leo Clark are trying out for positions. The infield candidates are Leonard Devereaux, Roland Shehan, Emmett Roche, Clyde Soper, Joe Basydio, and Carl Soper. The pitching prospects are Gerald Kennedy, Frank Smaka, Marshall Meabon, Lyman Battle, and Aloysius Stackable. Behind the plate Russell Read, Stanley Dinkel, and Harlow Haines look best, all three are capable receivers but lack considerable in throwing ability. The first game scheduled is with Howell April 22.

CARD OF THANKS

We thank the neighbors and friends who so kindly helped us with their gifts and sympathy in the time of need and the King's Daughters and Philathea class for the nice plants sent to the sick one and all others for their gifts of flowers, Rev. E. J. Burquist, the choir for singing, many thanks to all of you.
William J. Engell and family
Mr. and Mrs. C. Albert Frost and family.

TOWNSHIP ELECTION RESULTS

The township elections in this section furnished many upsets. The voters evidently placed the blame for the depression period upon the office holders and many of them went down to defeat, others winning only by narrow margins. It would seem to indicate that a period of great unrest prevails which if it continues will make things interesting this fall.

Putnam, the rock ribbed Democrat strong hold of this county showed signs of jumping over into the Republican column. Cutting was universal and the normal Democrat majority of 60 was cut to about 15. Walter Mowers was reelected supervisor for his third consecutive term getting a majority of 35. The highway commissioner result furnished the biggest upset. Clare Swarthout, a dark horse who was put on to fill a withdrawal and made no campaign defeated the present holder of that office by 21 votes. Other Democrat majorities were extremely small. There were 328 votes cast compared to 310 last year. Of these there were 78 Republican straight and 67 Democrat as compared to 50 and 86 last year. The following are some of the majorities of Putnam and neighboring township:

CURRENT COMMENT

Much comment and some censure has been aroused by the agitation in Detroit to cut from the city pay rolls all aliens. As this would affect all teachers who are not citizens those affected has raised a great outcry. Of course this action is the result of the business depression which has thrown so many out of work but the fact still persists that some of the aliens on the city pay roll have been here some 20 years and this is more than ample time for them to become citizens. Henry Ford caused the same clamor a number of yrs. ago by a curt order to his employes to become citizens. At that time the naturalization office was swamped by applicants as it is now.

The Ford Motor Co. added some 600 men to their pay roll one day recently. The next day a mob of several thousand gathered and became uncontrollable, fences were torn down and the Ford guards were powerless to handle them, it being necessary to call outside assistance. Unemployment still prevails despite glowing prospects to the contrary and the depression period still continues.

The Washtenaw Tribune came out with a 32 page edition last week which was devoted to anti-chain store agitation. This edition was sponsored by the independent merchants most of whom carried advertising in it. One significant fact brought to light is that one independent store, the Schultz Grocery, in Ann Arbor pays as much taxes as the 3 Kroger stores combined. The same is true of the Pierce Grocery. The anti-chain store agitation shows no signs of decreasing and Henderson of Shreveport still directs his thunder over the radio at them. We firmly believe that the one thing that has most blasted the confidence of the public in the chains is the number arrested recently for giving short weight.

WILD LIFE LABORATORY GIVEN TO UNIVERSITY

Col. E. S. George Creates 1,250 Acre Preserve for Michigan Nature Students

An unusual gift, primarily for the benefit of students in zoology, ornithology, botany, nature and landscape studies at the University of Michigan, the Cranbrook school at Bloomfield Hills and for Boy Scout and Girl Scout units, was accepted from Col. Edwin E. George, Detroit financier and lover of the outdoors, by the university board of regents Friday afternoon.

More than 1,250 acres, that has been kept in wild state, reforested to a considerable extent, and added to from the standpoint of its natural animal and bird life, are included in the gift. It is located three miles west of Pinckney in Livingston county, about 20 miles northwest of Ann Arbor, and not far from the university's reforestation experiment station and also the new observatory property on Portage lake.

Colonel George has devoted several years to the acquisition and development of the tract, which is to bear the name of "The Edwin George Reserve of the University of Michigan," and has been motivated by the belief that growth of population in the southern part of the state is making natural beauty spots scarcer and more inaccessible to those interested in native fauna and flora.

The character of the tract is rolling and hilly, more than half of it being woods and large portions of the balance being in the process of reforestation to pine trees. It is completely surrounded by a seven foot park and paddock wire fence, and in the center is located a beautiful small Michigan colonial house, a garage, also stables, and near the main entrance on the north side of the property there is a gate lodge. Two other buildings are on the property, houses on the south side and west side. Trails and roads to the extent of 18 miles have been laid out and about half have been constructed.

A landing field for airplanes has also been located.

There is a small lake, a pond and a small stream in the woods, enhancing the natural landscape beauty.

Colonel George likes to talk of the natural life on the property. From the upper peninsula he transported 16 deer, and from Alberta, Canada, two years ago, he moved four prong-horned antelope that are running wild on the reserve. In the woods there are also numerous badger, coon and squirrel, while the birds include the rarely found ruffed grouse and prairie chickens, also partridge, pheasants and quail. In the fall and spring of the year, the lake on the reserve is a haven for ducks. It has been planted with feed to attract them.

In presenting the gift to the university, Colonel George described his purposes as follows:

"First, as a contribution to education, recognizing that life is largely idealistic and that enlightenment develops character and a better understanding of spiritual values and our duty towards humanity.

"Second, because of my sincere belief that for the youth to come in contact with God's great out-of-doors is sure to bestow a beneficial influence, enabling them to discern Providence in Nature; an appreciation of the truer values of life as expressed by the truth in Nature; quicken interest in our wild friends, trees and flowers, and prompt a desire to conserve them rather than destroy."

The management of the reserve is to be in the hands of the university board of regents, under curator and such other assistants as may be necessary properly to protect and care for the animals and plants; maintain the property and further its development. Further, it is provided in the terms of the gift that if changing conditions in the future should make it inadvisable to maintain a wild-life preserve on the property, the regents may make other use of it for a nearly related project.

The colonel made it plain that the reserve is not intended as a public park, but rather as wild-life and nature laboratory for the university and Cranbrook students and also for such Boy Scout and Girl Scout troops as may desire to use it seriously for study and observation.

The property is easily accessible being on trunk line 49 leading from South Lyons to Pinckney, Stockbridge and Jackson, and just a short distance west of the main highway between Dexter and Pinckney.

Colonel George's interest and love of the outdoors is of many years standing, and he is nationally recognized as an authority on wild life. He has hunted in the north, in the west and in Africa. He is not an alumnus of the University of Michigan.

NEARLY 8000 CHAINS NOW OPERATING

Anything from flower seeds to grand pianos can be purchased through one of approximately 8000 chains now operating throughout the country. These various chains control a total of 160,000 separate unit stores. This is an increase of 300 per cent in systems and 700 per cent in unit stores since 1914 when there were 2000 chains operating 20,000 stores.

In the grocery field alone the store total has jumped from 27,000 in 1920 to approximately 68,000 at the close of 1929. Chain drug stores, according to H. W. Ryan of the Monroe Calculating Machine Company, Inc., who has made a thorough study of chains from the standpoint of store calculating problems, now control slightly over seven per cent of the business.

The four leading chains listed according to their size and prosperity are the grocery chains, first; five and ten cent chains, second; candy chains, third; and drug chains fourth. As a whole, the end of the rapid expansion period of the chain system is predicted in 1931.

ARE you denying yourself and your family the pleasure of electric cooking because of the belief that it is expensive? Have you said, as have so many others, "Electric cooking is ideal—if only we could afford it." Now you CAN afford it!

Cooking with ELECTROCHEF costs about one dollar per month per person—frequently less, seldom more.

Ordinary care in the control of heat may greatly lower this cost. Focused radiant heat—a prime feature of ELECTROCHEF—brings unbelievably fast cooking, amazingly clean cooking, with heat as clean as sunlight. The semi-sealed oven seals in the delicious natural flavors that you have never tasted before in foods unless you have enjoyed electric cooking! Meats and vegetables cook in their own juices. ELECTROCHEF's light, fine-grained cake and flaky pastry will delight you.

People who see ELECTROCHEF ask how it can be offered at the low figure for which it now sells. ELECTROCHEF is being introduced at this price because of The Detroit Edison Company's desire to encourage electric cooking in the homes of its customers. It is only possible because of long planning by engineers and the use of mass production methods. See this remarkable range today—at any Detroit Edison Office.

BIG SHOW AT HOWELL

Come to the Howell Theatre Sunday April 3 5 Acts Vitophone Vaudeville. See and Hear the Greatest Stars of Stage and Screen.

Act 1, Charles Peterson, the world-famous billiard champion of fancy shots, who ranks with the ablest cue artists of the century, will be seen and heard in a Vitophone presentation at the Howell Theatre next Sunday, April 13 in his first screen appearance. He exhibits and explains many of the spectacular plays which have made him famous. Peterson has a reputation of more than 500 fancy shots, two of which, "The Lindberg" and the "Silver Dollar" are considered most extraordinary. He demonstrates both of these in his vitophone act. For "The Silver Dollar" shot Peterson places a silver dollar erect between two pieces of chalk and then strikes the coin with his cue, driving it down the table and making it return from the top rail to pass between the pieces of chalk which have not been disturbed. The dollar always come home to him.

Act 2, Harry Lang & Bernice Haley, vaudeville headliners, will be seen and heard in a nonsensical skit of laughs and witty dialogue, A Warner Bros. Vitophone variety entitled "Who's Who" at the Howell Theatre next Sunday. It is a sketch built for the display of the players' imitable comedy dialogue and palter and ends with a song "Love Lit Hollow" rendered by Miss Haley to the whistling accompaniment of Mr. Lang. Arthur Hurley directed Lang & Haley and have been in vaudeville together for many years. Miss Haley was a musical comedy actress, having appeared in many Shubert productions. She is one of the four beautiful Haley sisters. Lang was a burlesque star on the Columbia circuit for years, heading his own company "The Lid Lifters" for seven years before teaming up with Miss Haley in Vaudeville.

At 3 No American actress has more universal appeal than Elsie Janis the song-bird of the army. In the fervid days of the late war Miss Janis traveled through shell ruined sectors entertaining the troops of the allies. She was signally honored by the government of France and America for her valiant work. Her work in France enhanced her popularity which she had gained as the leading actress of Broadway musical comedy stage. To Broadway it seems an immemorial age since Elsie Janis first came to the big screen. She began her theatrical career when a young Miss of sixteen. Her debut was made on the stage but her vivid personality was made for the theatre proper. She took concert work for an engagement in musical comedy. It was the most fortunate thing in her life for she became an instantaneous favorite. Act 4 Phil Baker, comic and musician of the Broadway musical comedy stage who will be seen and heard in the vitophone presentation program at the New Howell Theatre next Sunday began his theatrical career at the age of fifteen when he was given an extra's part at the Bowdoin Square Theatre in Boston. His initial connection with the theatre did not last long for he was discovered by anxious parents and returned to New York home. But Mr. Baker's love for the theatre encompassed his every desire and he again fled from home this time to success on the variety stage.

Act 5 Larry Ceballos celebrated director of the dance, whose revue is seen and heard in vitophone presentation program at Howl Theatre next Sunday, is a veteran of the theatre, although he reached the pinnacle of his career as a young man directing Broadway shows. Ceballos spent many years from his childhood on as a performer under the "Big Tent" at the age of five he was with Barnum and Bailey and he had his first dramatic role as one of the Christian children cast in a din of lions. Ceballos had the memorable role of the child, who with preserving faith rebuked the tyrant, Nero.

FREDRICK J. BOLLINGER

Fredrick J. Bollinger was born at Rogers Corners, Freedom Township, Washtenaw county, Michigan, November 1, 1856 and passed away April 4, 1930 from his home in Gregory. He had one brother, and they were the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick Bollinger. The mother died when the boys were but lads, and the mother with her sons moved to Tiffin, Ohio, where the boys grew to manhood. When Fredrick was 18 years of age, he came to Manchester, Michigan and there made his home with an uncle. Later he came to this county locating in Unadilla township, where he spent the remainder of his life. He was married May 11, 1881 to Miss Ida M. Thompson of White Oak, Ingham County, and the making of their home began at this place, where they have resided for nearly fifty years the time of married life. To this union was born one son, Carl, who has been a great comfort and joy to the home. For near a score of years he was a railroad man, taking care of the traveling public that they might go with safety. His hand has ever been a free one to render service where ever opportunity afforded. When a youth he expressed faith in the Gospel by joining the Lutheran church. He was also once a member of the Maccabees. He was a good citizen, an indulgent father, and a faithful husband.

The three closing years of his life have been a struggle against the encroaching monster of disease, until he was forced to succumb.

He leaves a wife, a son and his wife, and their three children, Alger Patricia, Louis and Kathryn, besides many friends to mourn his going.

Funeral services were held from the home of his son, Carl Bollinger, Monday afternoon, conducted by L. S. Slaybaugh, and interment was in the Plainfield cemetery.

MT. PLEASANT OIL FIELD PICKING UP

After a short period of comparative inactivity, operations again are starting in the Mt. Pleasant oil field. Three wells have recently been drilled in.

The Joslin No. 8, turning in a production estimated at 500 barrels daily, is the largest. The other two producers are the Rayner C No. 1 with a production of approximately 200 barrels daily and the Iosco B, which is estimated as pouring out 100 barrels of oil each 24 hours.

The field is marketing but 75 per cent of the production, the remainder of the oil being stored in four 55,000-barrel tanks. A tank will be built each month if the production requires. There are approximately 6,000 barrels of oil being handled daily, with 2,500 barrels going into storage.

Oil field erchusasts were somewhat disappointed when it was announced the Marken well in Porter township was reported as a dry hole. It was expected oil would be struck in this well, which is 10 miles southeast of the present field, as the structure was around 75 feet higher than in the proven territory.

Assembled Up-Side Down

Assembling the chassis upside down in order to obtain a better quality of workmanship is one of the interesting phases of automobile building found at the DeSoto plant in Detroit. More than 25 assemblies are mounted on the chassis before it is turned right side up on the production line. The chassis starts down the line in an upside down position and remains so almost until the moment arrives for installing the engine, when a special apparatus picks it up and deftly turns it over.

It has been found in developing the assembly layout that the men do better work, because the chassis is in a far more accessible position for them while these assemblies are mounted if the chassis is kept on its back.

States to Spend More For Highways in 1930

Co-operating with President Hoover in his plea to enlarge all construction programs as much as is practicable to ameliorate the unemployment situation, the states and their counties will spend in their road building programs for 1930 at least $250,000,000 more than they spent in 1929. Reports received from state highway departments and compiled by the bureau of public roads, show that state and local authorities plan to spend $1,601,167,455 for highway improvement in 1930.

The planned expenditure by state highway departments for construction and maintenance of state highways is $937,500,455; the balance, $663,667,000, will be spent, according to the estimates, on local roads and bridges. The state highway officials of 45 states estimate the total length of roads to be improved by them in 1930 as 32,532 miles, an increase of 3,126 miles over the estimate in the 1929 programs.

The highway departments of all states will control the maintenance of 281,393 miles of highways this year, an increase of 32,381 over the mileage under state maintenance in 1929. Gradually, the states are taking over into their systems for maintenance the more important county and local roads of the country.

The states of greatest population and industrialization in which unemployment, naturally, is greatest, show the highest contemplated expenditures. The Middle Atlantic states, comprising New York, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania, plan to spend $374,835,310 on improvement of state and local roads; the East North Central states of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, and Wisconsin plan to spend $303,696,000.

Would Arouse Sentiment Against Road Advertising

Cadillac Rotarians are waging a campaign to arouse public sentiment against unsightly advertising signs along state highways.

At a recent meeting the matter was discussed by Lew Burridge, division engineer, and B. O. Hagerman, agricultural agent of the Pennsylvania railroad. Burridge objected to merchants placing unsightly signs in the very places the state highway department was advertising as spots of unusual scenic beauty.

As US-131 approaches this city from the south and the motorist gets his first glance of the city and the two lakes, huge signs already are being placed to catch the sightseers eyes instead of the natural beauty of the landscape. Burridge named two local merchants as responsible.

SOUTH HAVEN GETS PRIVATE HOSPITAL

Dr. Francis C. Penoyar and Dr. Cecil Penoyar, father and son, are remodeling a large dwelling close to the business part of South Haven for a private hospital. With an increasing practice they are bending all their efforts to make this private hospital complete in all details that it may serve the best interests of their patients, be a credit to the community and a fitting memorial to their daughter and sister, Freda Penoyar Hemenway.

The hospital will have in the basement a kitchen, dining room, laundry, heating and coal rooms. On the first floor will be waiting rooms, consultation rooms, X-ray and developing rooms, a room for treatments and one for minor operations. On the second floor are single and double rooms for patients. The third floor contains the operating room, maternity room, nursery and several rooms for short-time occupants. An addition to the second floor can be made to provide screened porches for summer and sunrooms for colder days.

Dr. Francis Penoyar came to South Haven in 1903. He was joined in 1926 by his son, Cecil L., who had just completed a year as interne in Butterworth hospital, Grand Rapids. For some years they have planned to specialize as a diagnostic clinic and by May 1 will have this equipment ready.

Or just write Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, Monticello, Ill., for a free trial bottle.

BELIEVES GOBI WAS INHABITED

Discovery of thousands of crudely shaped implements, and the finding of skulls, dinosaur eggs and other traces of life, indicate that the Gobi desert was inhabited by man during the prehistoric times, Dr. Charles P. Berkey of Columbia university told more than 400 scientists during the lecture which featured the opening session of the thirty-fifth annual meeting of the Michigan Academy of Science, Arts and Letters.

Dr. Berkey explained that the relics found were taken from rock strata, crude implements being in the lowest levels, more improved types higher up and a considerable amount of pottery close to the surface. He also expressed the belief that the district has undergone many climatic changes. The program also included a reception for visitors held in the new museum building.

Traction Company Buys Farm to Secure The Right of Way

The Indiana & Michigan Electric company has found out that the best and quickest manner of settling the controversy with William H. Matthews of Cass county, whose 180-acre farm was to be crossed by the new power lines of the traction company, and who refused to grant the right of way across the place, was to purchase the farm, and this has been done. The price paid for the 180 acres is said to have been around $40,000. Suit had been filed in the Cass probate court for the condemnation of such of the land as was needed for the erection of the power towers, but the jury held that the use of the land was not really necessary. The power company figured out that they would save money by buying the entire farm rather than fighting further through the courts of surveying and laying out a new route for their wires which are to be strung from Mishawaka, Ind., to Benton Harbor, to supply additional electric power for the industries of the twin cities. The steel towers extending from Mishawaka to the new plant of the traction company on the Van Camp property, east of Benton Harbor, have been erected and wires have been strung for a part of the distance.

Grocer Chains United

Consolidation of the National Groceries and the "R" Food Stores, operated by the National Grocer Company, and the Clarence Saunders Stores in Michigan was announced recently in a joint statement by C. C. Virgil, chairman of the board of the National Grocer Company, and Justus Saunders, president of the Saunders Michigan Stores, Inc. W. W. Anderson, treasurer of the Saunders Michigan Stores, Inc., has been added to the board of directors of the National Grocer Company.

Merger of these two companies will bring their combined operations under a unified management and control with warehouse and manufacturing facilities ample to care for the enlarged operation of the group. The consolidation, effective March 17, 1930, brings the total of large stores of the self-serve grocery type now in operation to 45, with five additional stores to be added before June 1, 1930. The "R" Food Stores, of which the manager owns a participating interest with the National Grocer Company, are also expanding rapidly, 267 being in operation at the present time, to be increased to 400 by July 1, 1930.

Accident Starts Safety Campaign

It took an accident to start the annual safety campaign in Big Rapids this year. After George Cousoneau of Bitely vicinity had dashed his automobile through the display window of a shoe store here Tuesday, Mayor Dan W. Rowe announced that a campaign will start soon for the inspection of all automobiles in the city. The plans are being developed by Police Chief Dan H. Vincent and Corp. Roy Shields of the state department of public safety, who is conducting a safety campaign in the Big Rapids schools at present.

NEW MASONIC HOME AT ALMA WILL RISE SOON

Construction on the new $650,000 Masonic home at Alma is to begin shortly, according to officials of the construction company which was awarded the contract. Alma labor will be employed in the construction of the home insofar as possible, the number of men employed at times being as high as 300.

For some time it has been known in state Masonic circles that the old home on State street has outgrown its capacity and that a new one on Gratiot avenue was to be built in the spring. This definite announcement has aroused new interest in labor circles in Alma for work has been scarce the past winter. Roscoe Bonisteel, worshipful grand master of Michigan, made the announcement recently that the Bay City company had been awarded the building contract.

The administrative building, which will be the home proper, will be 356x194 feet in size, three stories high and basement, of brick and stone construction, Georgian type, Colonial design. Two courtyards and a sunken garden are a part of the landscaping plans. The home for aged Masons, the main building, will have more than 200 private rooms. Sun rooms will be located at each end of the second floor and will be fitted with quartz glass. Rubber tile floors and temperature control are sanitary features among the specifications of the building.

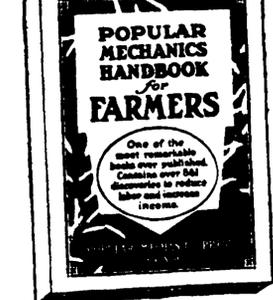

The infirmary will be of the same type of architecture as that of the main building and will be 40x155 feet and three stories high. It will have both one and two bed rooms and will be equipped throughout as a hospital. The boiler and laundry building will be 45x120 feet, two stories high and of flat roof design. An underground tunnel 750 feet long will connect the boiler house with the other three buildings. The garage will be 40x60 feet in size.

Architects are Osgood & Osgood of Grand Rapids. It is stated that the Michigan Masonic home will be one of the finest in the country and that every modern feature has been incorporated in the plans of the home.

Census Man Will Ask 232 Questions

When the census enumerator has left the farm home after his visit, the farm operator and the farm homemaker themselves will know a lot more about their plant and its operations than they did before. The enumerators will ask 232 questions covering every conceivable aspect of the farm family and the farm itself. Not only will they want to know how many there are in the family and what are their ages and sex, but how much of a mortgage there is on the place, whether there is a bathroom and electric lights, and whether the farm is rented from the wife's grandparents or not.

Mobiloil Lubricated Car Breaks Worlds Non-Stop Record by 22,461

53,711 miles of running without a stop, and still going strong at the finish!

A stock Chrysler 65 recently broke all existing endurance records after 69 days and 68 nights of continuous running at the Avus track in Berlin. The previous non-stop record was 31,250 miles. This Mobiloil lubricated Chrysler was still going strong at 53,711 miles, when a heavy fog lowered the visibility, and the car ran off the track.

On dis-assembly after this gruelling run, all mechanical parts of the Mobiloil-protected engine were found in excellent condition.

Mobiloil is but another dramatic example of the superlative lubrication service Mobiloil gives to thousands of motorists throughout the world under every driving condition.

Back of every quart of Mobiloil you buy for your engine stands the knowledge and experience of the oldest organization in the world devoted to the science of lubrication. Back of every quart of Mobiloil you buy for your engine, stands a record of proved performance no other oil has ever matched.

OLDSMOBILE HAS LUXURIOUS INTERIORS

Why motoring costumes have permeated automobiles is strikingly shown in the closed type automobiles of today. These cars are literally drawing rooms on wheels and form the same harmonious background for afternoon or evening dress.

How decorative art has been applied to automobiles is strikingly shown in the new Patrician sedan introduced this year by Oldsmobile. This body type represent the artistry of body designers in combining beauty with utilitarian comforts.

The Oldsmobile Patrician sedan is upholstered throughout with dove gray broadcloth. This soft material fits smoothly over top sides, and doors and is tastefully pleated over the seats to more evenly follow the spring action without developing wrinkles.

Side and rear window curtains are of the same shade of gray, as are the side of the rear seat. Side torchere light, shedding a soft golden radiance in the rear compartment when in use. Other equipment includes foot rest, smoking set and door pockets.

In keeping with the luxurious finish and fittings, equally careful attention has been given those features which go far in providing the ultimate in riding comfort. Seats are broad and low giving that restful ease which only the most carefully designed chairs provide.

High quality type springs are used both for the seat back upholstery and for the seats. These are designed to provide maximum resiliency with permanency.

The rear compartment floor covering is an excellent grade of carpet of a shade to harmonize with the dove gray upholstery. The front compartment has a heavy rubber, felt lined mat which extends upward over the toe and cowl boards, sealing the interior of the car from noise, dust and drafts.

An instrumental panel of etched metal in silver and black harmonizes with the interior hardware.

In fact in every detail the interior of the Oldsmobile Patrician sedan matches in artistic taste and luxurious appointments a well-appointed drawing-room.

HELP THE CENSUS MAN

The average citizen regards the effort of any one not a personal friend who attempts to gain knowledge of their personal affairs, as an unwarranted piece of nerve. Undoubtedly some people will assume this attitude when the census takers are at the work of completing the decennial census for the U. S. Government. This is not mere "nosiness" however, but a very necessary attempt on the part of the governments agents to secure information which is vital to the nation's record. The law requires that such information shall be given the census taker and the information so divulged is kept in the greatest of confidence. The undertaking is a huge one and entails the necessity of directing the work of an army of people. It cannot be successfully finished without the cooperation of the people. For this reason every citizen is expected to do everything in their power to facilitate the work of the census taker when he drops in.

BURNING GRASS SETS FIRE TO BARN

The fire engine was called to the farm of Eugene Campbell Friday afternoon. Mr. Campbell had been burning leaves and brush and the fire got beyond his control and set fire to a small barn in his barn yard. Other buildings caught fire also but all were saved by the fire department but the first building which was destroyed. There have been a number of fires of a like nature and it has only been by prompt and hard work that much damage has been prevented.

We are informed that the loss is about $1000 with $350 insurance. The building burned was two story and was used as a garage and workshop. Both cars were however out at the time of the fire. A corner connected with it also burned.

DERKIS-NEWELL

Word was received here Saturday of the marriage of Miss Marion Derkis to Mr. Peter Newell at Detroit. Both young people are well known here. Miss Derkis graduated from the Pinckney high school with the class of 1929 and has since been employed in Detroit. Mr. Newell is a cartoonist of considerable ability and lived in Pinckney about 12 years ago at which time his people owned the Sam. Gilchrist farm west of town. The Dispatch wishes them success in their married life in behalf of their friends here. They are now living at the Hotel Stratmore.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my thanks to my friends and neighbors for their kindly assistance rendered me last Friday when my barn caught fire. Also the Pinckney fire department for their efficient work. Eugene Campbell
