Electric Cooking

seals in the delicious natural flavors of foods

The reason so many modern women prefer an electric range is because it seals in the delicious natural flavors of meats and vegetables. Even the cheaper cuts of roasts cook to melting tenderness. Very little water is necessary, and the nourishing juices that are lost in the form of steam in an ordinary stove, are retained by electric cooking. Baking too is simplified with an electric range. Pastry is flaky and cakes are light and fine-grained. Automatic oven heat control eliminates guesswork and assures consistent baking results, time after time. Once you have enjoyed electric cooking, you will never again agree to cook with a flaming fire.

OLD TEKONSHA LANDMARK TO BE TORN DOWN

Tekonsha is soon to lose one of its historic places, the Blake hotel, situated at the corner of Main street on US-27 and Jackson avenue on M-60. It is to be torn down to give place to a bill station.

The large three-story building is nearly one hundred years old, having been constructed by Smith Barclay in 1836. Later it was sold to Mr. Hemmeway. The more recent owners of this historic tavern were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Blake and during their long ownership much local history was made. This old inn, once a center of merriment, has a ballroom on the third floor that was known throughout the locality as a gathering place for dances. Mr. Blake was a horse trainer of considerable repute. The Blakes operated the hotel for more than sixty years and following their death the property descended to their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Wilbur, both of whom are dead. It is now owned by the granddaughter, Miss Josephine Blake Wilbur.

Since the death of Mrs. Wilbur about two years ago the hotel has been closed to the public. Many antiques are to be found there. On the first floor is the bar, built of walnut with part of the old trimmings still intact.

Good Camp Site in State Forests, Plan

With five state forest camp sites open to the public, the forestry division of the department of conservation is planning to extend the system to include at least one prepared camp site in each state forest.

No attempt has been made to form elaborate parks. The most beautiful settings in each of the forests are selected; the brush is cleared away, the place is made more accessible, and water and sanitary facilities are installed.

The five camp sites now completed are: Spring lake in the Fife Lake forest; Muscalonge lake in the Lake Superior forest; Higgins Lake forest; Black lake in the Black Lake forest; and the South Branch of the Thunder Bay river in the Alpena forest.

STATE'S DRAINAGE PROGRAM IS LARGE

Eighty-seven drainage projects, involving drains used jointly by two or more counties, were started or completed under supervision of the drainage division of the state department of agriculture during the last quarter of 1930, according to the report filed recently by Ernest L. Hunter, division chief.

In addition to these 87 projects, the division's engineers made 62 separate drainage investigations for the state highway department. These inquiries covered apportionment of benefits and all construction phases of drainage work.

The drainage section of the department of agriculture has jurisdiction in cases involving joint use of drains by two or more counties. In such cases it supervises construction and letting of contracts.

New Air Line Would Link Detroit-Havana

Airplane passenger service between Detroit and Cuba is seen in a recent announcement of the Seaboard Airways, Inc. Plans and preparations are in the final stages for the inauguration by this company of a direct passenger route between Detroit and Havana, Cuba, by way of Cincinnati, Knoxville, Atlanta, Jacksonville and Tampa. In addition, feeder lines will afford direct connections to Nashville, Memphis, Birmingham, New Orleans, Palm Beach and Miami.

No precise date for the opening of this service has been set by the Seaboard Airways, Inc. It is proposed to operate two main routes, the Governors' line which will stretch from Detroit to Havana, and the Liberty line which will link New York and Havana.

Cincinnati would be the principal junction on the Governors' line. At this point, lines from Detroit, Milwaukee and Buffalo will converge, and passengers from these and intermediate points such as Chicago, Indianapolis, Toledo, Dayton, Cleveland and Columbus, will board giant Burnelli airliners, having made the first stage of the flight in smaller ships.

Feeder lines will connect with the Governors' route at Knoxville, Atlanta and Tampa, while another feeder will link the route with the Liberty route. This feeder will run between Atlanta and Richmond, Va.

The type of planes to be operated on the feeders and on the Governors' line north of Cincinnati has not been announced. The Burnellis, which will fly the two main lines, are unique among American transport ships. Their 24 passengers ride in a broad cabin in which there are five rows of chairs and two aisles. In addition, there is a lounge. Besides the passengers, the ship carries a pilot, copilot, steward and radio operator. The Burnelli, a monoplane, is driven by two 1,200-horsepower Isotta Franchini motors. Its wingspread is 91 feet.

Old Black River Bridge Giving Way to Progress

With the opening of the detour bridge across Black river traffic has been resumed on US31. Work has been started on tearing down the old steel span which rendered service for 40 years.

The old bridge will be replaced by a new concrete structure, equipped with a 40-foot road and two 6-foot walks. The bridge will have two 88-foot spans.

Seek Airport Lease

A study of the legislature program necessary to assure a municipal airport for Lansing, on the state-owned property now being used as a field, is to be undertaken by the airport committee of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Lansing Aviation club. Lansing's efforts to obtain a municipal field in the past have been balked by legal difficulties. It is probable that a valid lease of the present airport property will be sought during the 1931 legislative session in order that the field may be developed with municipal expenditures without fear that the land will later be diverted to some other use.

RECLASSIFICATION OF LAKES IS URGED

Sportsmen of Charlevoix county have forwarded a petition to Lansing asking that Lake Charlevoix and Round lake be reclassified and not regarded by the state as inland bodies. The lakes are regarded by the federal government as navigable waters.

The lakes contain Mackinaw trout, whitefish and perch which sportsmen state migrate back and forth from Lake Michigan, and hence should be regarded by the state as other than inland bodies. Lake Charlevoix, listed by the state as a pike lake, is closed in April when trout trolling is best and at a season which is advertised to tourists' attraction.

Elimination of the ban on spearing Mackinaw trout and whitefish and the charge of $10 for licenses for those who desire to sell their catches, also is sought. Men otherwise without work fish through the ice for their livelihood and the $10 fee is regarded as exorbitant for them.

700 Millions Outstanding Bonds in Michigan

Most of us sometimes wonder where our money goes, but few of us take the time and go to the trouble to find out.

The ninety-fourth annual report and financial statement made recently by W. F. Manning, manager of the municipal bond division of the state treasury department, shows that the total bonded indebtedness in the state is $700,707,437.

Municipalities retired $33,736,826.46 in bonds during the year, but floated new issues totaling $80,945,051.62, leaving a net gain of $47,208,225.16 in bonded indebtedness. They already were approximately $71,000,000 in debt and the new plunge brought the grand total to $618,207,437.

This sum, however, does not include the state's bonded indebtedness of $82,500,000. The state debt brings the total to $700,707,437.

Some of the Old Man's children are making the state look like a piker when it comes to spending money and going into debt. Wayne county alone, with its cities, villages, townships and school districts, must account for two-thirds of the entire municipal bonded indebtedness.

The $4,457,121 in township bonds outstanding was lowest of all. County certificates were next to the lowest, totaling $16,314,000, while the villages were the third with $29,609,229. The cities were by far the state's leading spenders. Their bonded indebtedness jumped to $385,066,341, while school districts were a close rival, placing second with $182,760,746.

The municipal bonds were of three types. The records indicate there were $336,221,502.15 in serial bonds outstanding and $213,816.18 in sinking fund bonds. The remainder of the indebtedness was in special assessment bonds.

Under act No. 273 of the public acts of 1925, municipalities are required to make annual reports on their bonded indebtedness together with sinking fund holdings for the retirement of the bonds as they mature. New issues cannot be floated until permission has been obtained from the treasury department.

The reports indicate the municipalities have $50,087,528.13 in their sinking funds. Notes and contracts also are held in the amount of $4,742,559.25, indicating that the municipalities have accumulated approximately $55,000,000 toward the retirement of $618,000,000 in bonded indebtedness.

The state's bonded indebtedness of $82,000,000 consists of $30,000,000 in soldiers' bonus bonds, $50,000,000 in highway bonds and $2,500,000 in war loan securities. The state has built up a sinking fund of $25,000,000 toward the retirement of the notes as they mature.

Michigan is paying 9.61 per cent interest on bonded indebtedness. Based upon an interest rate of 4 per cent, here is how it figures: $28,000,000 per year, $2,333,333 per month, $777,777 per day, $34,658 per hour, $577 per minute and 9.61 per second.

HUNTERS SPEND $12,000,000 ON POPULAR SPORT

Michigan's 400,000 small game and deer hunters spend about twelve million dollars while in the field during the hunting season. They have approximately ten million dollars invested in guns and other more or less durable hunting equipment. This equipment has an annual depreciation volume of about one million dollars and an interest charge of a half million if it is considered as invested capital. An additional five million dollars is spent each year for sundries, if the computation of the Department of Conservation is accurate.

Included in the twelve million spent while in the field is a gasoline bill of $500,000, one hundred thousand of which is gas tax paid into state and county highway funds.

Michigan's army of hunters also pays the state a total of $600,000 in license fees. The ratio of license fees to the other costs of hunting is $1 to $18.50.

The license fees paid the state become a part of the Game Protection Fund which is administered by the Conservation Department for the protection and propagation of game.

PHILATHEA COLUMN

The January copy of Baraca-Philathea News is at hand, a veritable feast of good things. We note that plans for the 32nd annual convention of the world-wide Baraca-Philathea Union are already well under way. This will be "The sunrise convention" Boston, Massachusetts, July 8-12, 1931. Theme "Jesus Christ the Light of the World." Text Psalm 113-3. Slogan "Turn east for the sunrise."

Mr. James C. Johnson, recently considered as candidate for governor of New York State on the Prohibition ticket, has served as president of the New York state Baraca-Philathea Union for sixteen consecutive years. A good and faithful servant, surely.

Miss Henrietta Herron, our world wide president reported a good-will tour, taken during October and November. She says, "There is nothing like getting acquainted with folks, the Baracas and Philatheas are the salt of the earth—everywhere we go we find the same spirit of devotion and loyalty to Christ, to the Bible, the Bible school and the church—everywhere we find that Baraca-Philatheas are following in the footsteps of the Master and in quiet, unheralded ways are going about doing good." I wonder if we of the community S. S. class would stand 100 per cent in this rating.

How about the play sponsored by our class? Naturally you are anxious to do your bit, along with the Philatheas for the parsonage fund. This week. Buy your ticket early.

The Philatheas and ladies of the Bible class were glad of Mrs. Swarthout's recovery and return to her post as teacher. Another interesting Sunday session was held with a good attendance. Next Sunday we study "Jesus, the Great Physician." Luke 4 : 28-44 : 5 : 12-16. May we not have every member present in the class and at the morning service when Miss Berquist speaks?

Miss Mae VanFleet of Boonton, N. J. formerly of Putnam was a welcome visitor in class last Sunday.
