

Local Deer Hunters Return With Many Deer

Local Hunter Gets a Buck Near Mio On Opening Day of Season. Other Hunters go North. Returning Hunters say Nimrods are too Thick for Comfort and the is Hazardous

Claude Swarthout returned from Lovells Wednesday with a deer shot the opening day. He went back Friday, however, accompanied by his brother, Clare. Another brother, Claude, is also at Lovells.

Norman Reason went to Mio with Marvin Shirey. He only hunted one day and returned home. He says the hunters are too numerous for safety and are shooting at everything in sight.

Gerald Reason and Burr King are at Prudenville.

Jack Dilloway has also gone north.

Al Dewey, John Connors, and Lee Osborne are also among the deer hunters from here in the north.

Sunday Norman Miller, Friday E. Haines, J. B. Livermore and L. J. Swarthout returned with five deer.

Gerald Reason also brought back an 8 point buck and so did George Meabow, jr.

Coon seem to be quite numerous here this fall. Erdley VanSickel got two recently which weighed about 40 pounds each. Friday Haines got several and Wm. Darrow, jr., got one. Friday donated his for a free supper to his friends which was served at the Caldwell restaurant.

John Wise and Fritz Gardner returned home Monday with a deer shot by Fritz.

W. H. Meyer and son, Billy, returned home empty handed. The former got a shot at the deer that was latter killed by Gerald Reason. He says he saw many deer but most of them were without horns.

THE FORD BROOKLYN PLANT

The Booster Club of Brooklyn gave a banquet at the high school there last Tuesday night. Roscoe A. Smith of Ypsilanti, was the guest of honor. He is manager of factory planning and machinery for the Ford Motor Co. He told the 300 persons present that the Ford factory being built at Brooklyn would manufacture air horns and electric buttons for Ford cars and would employ 100 men. Operation will start in March, 1939. Other guests were Dan Simonds, a Ford executive from Dearborn and Dan Levett, foreman of the Brooklyn project. Others of the speakers were Fred Ambler, the township supervisor, Clarence Holl and of the Knoxville Chamber of Commerce, and L. D. Cash, president of the Boosters Club.

PAYS ELECTION BET

Last Friday was election bet pay-off day at Howell. To pay off bets Henry VanSice and Howard Gentry gave Fred Cronnonwett a ride down Grand River Ave., in a wheelbarrow before a very large crowd. The losers backed Governor Murphy and the winner Fitzgerald. In 1936 Cronnonwett was the loser and had to wheel Van Sice down Grand River in a wheel barrow.

Philathea Notes

Thanksgiving greetings to all our readers.

A special Thanksgiving service is being held this Wednesday evening with appropriate musical numbers and a message for this Thanksgiving season by the pastor.

Reverend McLucas gave a special appeal on Sunday in connection with the envelopes sent out by the Lansing department for the offering for this Thanksgiving service. This is to go toward our Benevolence quota and we are urged to make it as generous as possible in order that our year's apportionment may be met promptly and sent in by Mrs. Killenberger, the Benevolence Treasurer. Birthday offerings are also to be resumed beginning on the first Sunday in each month and Missionary envelopes are provided for use each Sunday.

The Baraca-Philathea News for the month of November contains a great many inspiring accounts of class activities especially the programs for the Birthday celebrations. Michigan was ahead at the time of going to press in the amount of the checks sent in with the candles.

The sacredness of the Home was the subject of the commandment study presented by Mrs. Elliott during our short class hour on Sunday. The commandment, Thou shalt not steal, is the one for consideration next; Lord's Day, when we will consider Modern forms of Dishonesty, Study Exodus, 20:15, Luke 19:1-19 and Luke 48:46.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the Fire Department and all the people who helped put out the swamp fire and saved our property.

New Local Industry Starts Operation This Week

New Pinckney Factory Goes Into Production This Week on Account of Accumulated Orders. Local Men Are Being Hired. Expansion of the Present Plant Is Probable

The new Pinckney factory of which Clare Reason is president has most of their machinery moved in and expect to start production, partially at least this week as moving has put them behind in their orders. They will make die sets for drill presses and other tools and have contracts with the Chrysler Co., and other Detroit firms. The firm expect to employ 18 men and will use local men as much as possible. The steel is trucked in from Detroit in huge slabs and the finished product is trucked back.

The factory building is of cement construction and supported by steel beams. It is equipped with steam heat and water system. Local labor was used in building it. Up to date the following people are employed there: Gerald Reason, Jack Reason, Oscar Beck, Marion Shirey, and Wm. Darrow. Jack Reason drives the truck from Pinckney to Detroit and the others work in the factory. The building is far from finished as a great deal of electrical work etc., remains to be done. However, some of the machines will be started this week.

The company is also considering an additional building here and a foundry may be erected soon.

FOUR KILLED IN FOWLVERVILLE FIRE

Three small children and a man 65 years old were burned to death in a fire at Fowlerville Sunday. The dead are James, 7, Grace, 5, and Ellen, 17 months, children of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Cole. They had gone away and left the children with Wm. Bristol. The house was in flames when the firemen arrived and they were unable to enter. The cause of the fire is not known. The Cole family moved to Fowlerville from Ingham county recently. Cole is a WPA worker. The funeral of the victims was held at Fowlerville Monday.

U. S. 23 TO BE FINISHED

There has been much difficulty in getting U. S. 23 paved from Grand River to Fenton. The survey laid the road out so that it detoured around Hartland and Brighton. This aroused opposition at these places. Finally a right of way was secured and the road paved from Grand River to a point near Hartland. There has been much agitation from people who use the road to go from Ann Arbor to Flint. Now, according to a statement from Highway Commissioner Murray VonWagoner in the Ann Arbor News the road will be finished and the gravel stretch from near Hartland to Fenton paved. It will be included in the list of paving projects for December and bids will be asked for it at once. It will be necessary to pave about 11 miles.

NOTICE

Reverend John Domhoeffer of Springport, Penn., will speak at the Pinckney Baptist Friday evening on November 25th, at 8 o'clock p. m. Colored singers will be present. This is sponsored by the Reaper Prayer Band. Everybody welcome.

NOTICE

The King's Daughter of Pinckney will give a party at the home of F. Lamb on December 1st at 8:00. Every one Come. There will be games and entertainment for all. Admission 25c each.

THE GENERAL MOTORS PLAN

The General Motors Co. has offered a stabilized income plan to its employees. This is not the annual wage plan advocated by the unions. The General Motors Plan is that the company will pay their employees advances during the laid off periods out of their wages, these to be deducted when the men are working steady again. Thus the income of the men would never be below 60 per cent of their annual wages. Of course it may not be popular for the reason that the men will be forced to work for low wages while they are paying back the money drawn during a slack period.

CURRENT "By Ye Editor"

The persecution of the Jews in Germany by Hitler seems to be a shocking thing to the world but outside of the other nations ganging up and declaring war on Germany there does not seem to be much of anything that can be done except to issue manifestos which are disregarded. The whole thing in a nutshell is that Nazi Germany is running out of money for carrying their type of civilization forward. The dictators and thrifty Jews have always been money makers and following the World War when depression hit Germany and German marks sold for ten cents a bushel the Jews were busy and when better times came the Jews had most of the assets of Germany. So Hitler, the dictator, turned back the pages of history and banished the Jews from Germany after first taking their wealth from them. In this he was only taking a leaf out of the method of some of the ancient kings of history. Richard, the Lion-Hearted of England, financed his many wars by extorting money from the rich Jews of Merry England. He was not always particular how he did this. In Ivanhoe, a novel by Sir Walter Scott, depicting the time of Richard of England, a device for extorting money from Jews, was an iron frame under which a fire was built. The writhed Jew was laid on this and slowly roasted until he gave up his wealth. Undoubtedly French, Spanish and Italian kings used this or similar methods when they had to raise money for war. The Jew was a man without a country and fair prey for anyone who wanted to deprive him of his wealth.

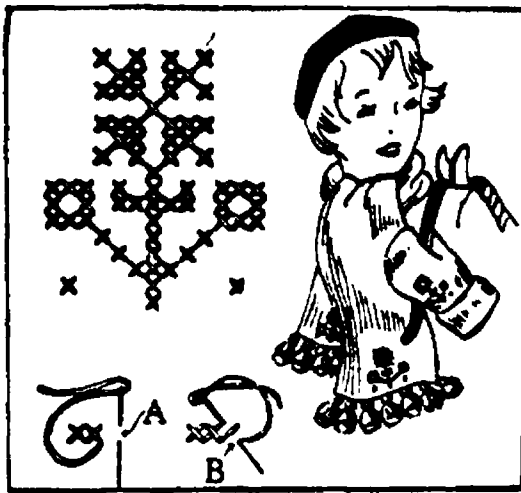

The other countries are alarmed at the exodus of Jews from Germany and other countries where similar persecutions are expected. Various plans are discussed for handling the overflow. One plan was to rent lower California from Mexico and transplant the Jews there. As this is a rocky, barren soil they would probably be unable to exist there. Another plan is to send them to a German colony in Africa. This will not work either. After the civil war a part of Africa was purchased, and named Liberia. It was planned to send all the negroes back there following the civil war. However, this plan struck a snag because most of them refused to go.

The first gun in the battle of the conservatives against old age pension social security, etc., was sounded in the final session of the American Bankers Association meeting at Houston, Texas, last week when Phillip Benson of Brooklyn, N. Y. newly elected president fired a broadside against old age pensions. He said that those who are receiving old age pensions were obtaining something for nothing and something that they had not earned. To greatly increase the number of people who derive support from the government makes an additional burden on industry and one that they should not have to bear. The recent conservative victory has heartened the reactionaries and undoubtedly a program to modify or abolish the old age pensions will be formulated.

The school teachers are once again breaking into the print. Helen Hulick, 28, Los Angeles, school teacher was given five days in jail by a California judge for contempt of court when she persisted in wearing slacks into the witness box, after she had been forbidden to by the judge. After serving one hour she got out of jail on a writ of habeas corpus. We fail to see where the offense. The teachers, including the local ones, can wear slacks seven days a week for all we care. We thought this prudish stage had passed. Of course it was only about 12 years ago the Michigan State Normal College at Ypsilanti expelled a coed for smoking cigarettes. If all the coeds there now who smoke cigarettes were expelled we wonder how much the enrollment would decrease.

NOTE—Mrs. Spears' Sewing Book 2—Gifts, Novelties and Embroidery—has helped thousands of women to use odds and ends of materials and their spare time to make things to sell and to use for gifts and church bazaars. If your home is your hobby you will also want Book 1—SEWING for the Home Decorator. Order by number enclosing 25 cents for each book. If you order both books, a leaflet on crazy-quilt quilts with 38 authentic stitches will be included free. Address Mrs. Spears, 210 S. Desplains St., Chicago, Ill.

THERE is an amusing story about the mittens and scarf shown here. They were not hand knitted. They were purchased rather hurriedly and sent to a young miss who was away at school. She had wanted something rather gay and a bit foreign looking to wear for skating and these were perfectly plain and pretty drab. Looking about, she found the Swedish cross-stitch design shown here and copied it in all its gay colors on the ends of the scarf and backs of the mittens.

Hand knitted mittens and other knitted things in plain colors may also be decorated with this pattern.

AROUND THE HOUSE

Economy Note.—Save all celery tops, wash and dry them and place in the oven, turning them now and then. Store the leaves in an airtight tin. Use them for flavoring soups, salads, etc.

Toast Animals.—Cut animal shapes out of bread with animal cookie cutters. Spread with butter and toast a light golden brown under the broiler. Serve these to the children to eat with their soup.

A Scrap Book.—A large loose-leaf note book is inexpensive and handy to use if you are saving the newspaper clippings of the doings of anyone in the family. More pages can be added when needed and any added data may be written on the note book paper alongside of the articles.

Cleaning Strainers.—Never wash a tea strainer or a fine sieve in soapy water. Rinse in clear water always, then there can be no unpleasant flavor when next used.

Just Charlie

Charles M. Schwab, the American millionaire, was very fond of farce, and one day he asked his secretary to get him two tickets for "Charlie's Aunt."

The secretary called a messenger and said: "Go round to the theater and get two tickets for 'Charlie's Aunt.'"

The messenger hesitated, then said: "Hadn't I better say for Mr. Schwab's aunt, sir?"

BE KIND!

Be considerate! Don't cough in public places. Carry with you Smith Bros. Cough Drops. (Two kinds—Black or Menthol, 5¢.) Smith Bros. Cough Drops are the only drops containing VITAMIN A. This is the vitamin that raises the resistance of the mucous membranes of the nose and throat to cold infections.

A Trade Mark Is an Honor Badge and Newspaper Advertising the Sentinel

Substitutes today are the illegitimate children of business. They are fatherless and unknown and they come to the consumer with a "Just as good" label on them which indicates clearly to the thinking buyer that she is buying something which is only "Just as good." The unknown product, the substitute parasite, has no reputation at stake. It is merely advertised for sale on a price basis and if the consumer does not like the quality, the manufacturer has suffered no injury because he is unknown and because he rarely links his name with a product as a standard of quality and a measuring stick of buying. It merely competes on a "take a chance" basis.

The manufacturers of well-known quality merchandise today place their names upon it and advertise it as the best they can offer to the consumer. The name of a manufacturer on an advertised product says this: This is the best product I know how to make. It is pure, good and worthy of your purchase. I think so well of it that I place my name upon it as a guarantee to you of its goodness. If it does not fulfill your wants I will gladly make good its failure.

There is no good reason why you should accept the unknown instead of the known; the untried instead of the tested; the doubtful instead of the sure. To refuse unknown substitutes is a guarantee to yourself of positive satisfaction in buying. If every purchaser will confine his or her purchases to known, advertised quality merchandise there will be little cause for complaint. Trade mark products tell their own story. It pays to look before you buy. Reading the advertisements in the newspaper, looking at trade marks, labels and names on products has great interest.

W. E. MOFFETT

WHO'S NEWS THIS WEEK

By LEMUEL F. PARTON

NEW YORK.—G. S. Messersmith, assistant secretary of state, consul general in Berlin when Hitler rose to power, used to be a lot more optimistic about Germany settling down to normal trade intercourse than he appears to be now. He predicted that "evolution" would soon follow revolution and urged the world to give Germany a chance to work through a period of stress and confusion. Today he is concerned about "world law and order" in trade intercourse, and says, "We ought to be prepared to protect our interests wherever they may be attacked." German bawling activities, particularly in South America, seem to be worrying the traders.

Widely experienced and minutely informed in foreign trade, Mr. Messersmith has been an evangel of Secretary Hull's reciprocal trade policies. His zeal in this is not lessened, but he reveals deep concern over the subordination of the rights of business and property "to the will of individual leaders or nations for expansion and domination."

This writer has just obtained from a friend, an economist returning from Germany, his first close-up of what Dr. Walter Funk, German minister of economics, and his shrewd "hunch" man, Hjalmar Schacht, are doing with their new militarized economics. "My informant, who wrote books about the old, mellow, beery, bassoon Germany, had many old friends there and was steered right into the wheelhouse. According to him, the new German formula is as revolutionary as 'communism.' Every atom of surplus wealth is sluiced into the 'dynamics' of expansion, and the Reich outreach is based on jug-handled trade relations which mean commercial subjugation for any short-enders who try to do business with it."

WE REGRET the lack of space to reprint here some merry little poems, such as "The Bird and the Burdock," and "The Tern and the Turnip," by honored by the British Royal Society for his work in experimental physics. He tossed off a book of them, along with whimsical drawings, in between takes of "Fluorescence and Magnetic Rotation Spectra of Sodium Vapor, and Their Analysis."

He is one of this department's favorite scientific debunkers. One of his high scores here was banishing the death-ray bogey—pertinent just now in view of our sensitiveness to Martian attack. In this connection, the British government has good reason to give him a medal. An inventor was demonstrating his death ray to British war office representatives at Dawn. He focused the ray on a cow in a meadow 200 yards away and threw a switch. The cow flopped, dead as a mackerel. The inventor collected and departed. Then they found the cow's feet, wired to an underground circuit, connected with the inventor's switch.

Professor Wood, by scientific demonstrations, put the quietus on all death rays and offered to stand up against any of them. He invented tear gas for the Allies in the World war, developed a chemical eye by which "we can see and the enemy can't," and contributed greatly to the development of instruments of precision and spectroscopic research. He was educated at Harvard and the University of Berlin.

THE humanities, like sports and diplomacy, are becoming considerably scrambled these days. Professor Harry D. Gideonse, just taking over as head of Barnard college's department of social sciences, has been up to his ears all his life in dry-as-dust economics, and now, in his first work-out before the undergraduates, he swings on swing as "musical Hitlerism." He says, with the current divorce of reason and emotion, and with the latter going haywire, some "man on horseback" is apt to get us.

Professor Gideonse is of Dutch birth. He is a canny and shrewd thinker, the author of several books on world economics and finance, and a sharp and precise critic of erratic trends of our civilization. He is 37 years old, born in Rotterdam, here at the age of four, educated at Columbia and the University of Geneva, a former teacher of economics at Columbia; Barnard, Rutgers and the University of Chicago.

WHAT to EAT and WHY

Feed Adolescent Correctly or Tragic Consequences May Result, Warns C. Houston Goudiss; Teeth Must Receive Special Consideration

By C. HOUSTON GOUDISS

OFFHAND, it may seem as if there could be very little connection between a deficient diet during adolescence and painful childbirth in later years. Yet it has been demonstrated clinically that there is a definite link. It has likewise been determined that the kind of food which is fed adolescents has a significant and far-reaching influence upon their teeth in later life, and in the case of girls, upon the teeth of their children when they in turn become mothers.

Preparation for Parenthood Adolescence is a difficult period at best. And if a girl takes an unbalanced diet at this time, the result may be an unstable nervous system, poor physical development, lowered vitality and inability to fight off infections. This lack of strong resistance may open the way to dental disease and to a variety of other serious infections as well.

It has also been established that if a girl is poorly nourished during these years of rapid development, there may not be the slightest indication of that fact until she first becomes an expectant mother. Then she will pay for her mother's lack of nutrition knowledge.

Results of Calcium Deficiency If her diet has been deficient in calcium, for example, her pelvic bones may be imperfectly developed, so that she suffers unnecessarily during the birth of her child. And if liberal amounts of calcium have not been stored in her body, she may be called upon to make needless sacrifices from her own body in the interests of her child. It is well known that if an expectant mother's diet is not abundantly supplied with calcium, the substance will be withdrawn from her own bones and teeth in an effort to meet the needs of the developing child.

An Aid to Dental Health For although expectant mothers are not always aware of this important fact, it is true that the first or "baby" teeth are developed within the jaw during prenatal life, and the foundations for the second set are also laid at this time. Unless the expectant mother's diet is very generously supplied with calcium, so as to allow adequate amounts for the baby's teeth and bones, nature will endeavor to meet the child's requirements by sacrificing calcium from the mother's own body. If she has no adequate reserve, then she may be forced to lose "a tooth for every child," or suffer even more serious dental ills.

Calcium-Rich Foods Required Leading nutrition authorities hold that the average American diet is more deficient in calcium, perhaps, than in any other single nutrient. This is especially likely to be the case in the diet of the adolescent. For at that time, boys develop prodigious appetites and a tremendous capacity for carbohydrates or energy-producing foods, while girls become extremely finicky. Either they do not take enough food at meals, or they tend to eat too many rich mixtures between meals. As a result, the diet of both boys and girls is likely to contain an abundance of meat, fish, highly milled cereals and other refined foods, with inadequate amounts of the foods rich in calcium.

The Adolescent's Diet To balance the diet properly, these necessary protein and energy foods should be supplemented by milk and cheese which are rich in calcium; by green leafy vegetables which are also a good source; by eggs and fruits, valued for their minerals and vitamins; and by bulky foods which supply sufficient cellulose to help promote regular health habits.

Mothers of adolescent children should make a conscientious and determined effort to feed them a diet rich in calcium and vitamins A, C and D—the substances required, especially, for maintaining sound, healthy teeth. If milk and succulent fruits and vegetables figure prominently in the daily menus of the adolescent girl, they will go a long way toward helping to correct the "choosy" attitude toward food from which many older children suffer.

And if careful attention to diet is coupled with careful attention to sound hygiene habits, the health of our "teen-age" boys and girls will be greatly improved, and they will be more adequately prepared to assume the duties of parenthood.

Correct Dental Hygiene It is vitally important that the proper care be given to the teeth and mouth. But it is quite unlikely that a correct routine will be followed unless mothers offer tactful advice and suggestions very frequently. For while the tiny child has his teeth brushed for him, and the young school child has his tooth-brushing ritual supervised, too often the adolescent is left to his own devices in this respect. That is a great mistake, as adolescents are sometimes careless in the care of their teeth.

Mothers must see to it that there are two toothbrushes, one for night and one for morning, so that it is never necessary to use a soggy brush. They must watch when the supply of tooth paste or powder runs low, and see that it is replaced. For it is surprising how few children can be persuaded to brush their teeth properly without an agreeable dentifrice! Mothers should take care to choose a dentifrice that will preserve or restore luster in the teeth. For adolescents are extremely sensitive about their appearance and they must not be allowed to permit dingy teeth to spoil their smiles.

If mothers will feed their adolescents a correct diet and supervise their daily dental care, the coming generation will not only be more attractive to look at but should enjoy more abundant health.

Pretty Workaday Fashions

DURING the indoor season to come, make plenty of bright new workaday clothes for yourself and your daughter. Here's a design for charming aprons to wear over your own dark house frocks for protection and prettiness. And a simple, flare-skirted dress for school girls, so becoming and practical that just one of it will never be enough. Both of these patterns, in fact, you're sure to use over and over in different materials. They're easy as French to make. A detailed sew chart accompanies each of them.

Charming School Frock. This is an awfully good style for growing girls who incline to be a bit lanky. The puff sleeves, flared skirt and small waistline, drawn in by a belt at sides and back, give them just the right lines. The high neckline, finished by a little round collar, covers up their collar bones and looks so well under young faces. This is a diagram design, therefore can be finished in a few hours. Make it of velvet, flannel, jersey, wool plaid, gingham, linen—it looks well in practically every fabric that school girls wear.

Three-Way Apron Design. Two comfortable pinafore styles, so cut that they won't slip off at the shoulders, and a sweet little tie-around, are yours in this smart design that will help to solve many of your Christmas gift problems. Anyway you take it, or make it, this flaring, tiny-waisted apron design is a delight to make and to wear. Dimity, percale, dotted swiss, organdie and batiste, in white, dainty prints or pastels, are pretty fabrics for aprons.

The Patterns. No. 1625 is designed for sizes 6, 8, 10, 12 and 14 years. Size 8 requires 2 1/4 yards of 39-inch material; 1 1/2 yards of braid; 1/2 yard of ribbon for belt.

No. 1622 is designed for sizes 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44. Size 34 requires 2 1/2 yards for each of these aprons. And for apron No. 1, 6 yards of braid. For apron No. 2, 3/4 yard of contrast. For apron No. 3, 1 yard of pleating.

Fall and Winter Fashion Book. The new 32-page Fall and Winter Pattern Book which shows photographs of the dresses being worn is now out. (One pattern and the Fall and Winter Pattern Book—25 cents.) You can order the book separately for 15 cents.

Send your order to The Sewing Circle Pattern Dept., Room 1020, 211 W. Wacker Dr., Chicago, Ill. Price of patterns, 15 cents (in coins) each.

Thanksgiving

The last Thursday in November has been set aside for more than three centuries as a day of Thanksgiving for the bounties received in the past year.

We give thanks for our customers continued confidence in us to act as their bankers; for the opportunity of serving their financial needs as best we can; for the privilege of doing business in this community which we have had the joy of serving for almost three quarters of a century. Let us all give thanks for a country where we can live with freedom of thought, religion and action. Without these our rejoicing could be but small.

PIONEER TO PIONEER

Many farmers of Northeastern Livingston County are pioneering this year in soil stabilization and erosion control methods of farming hill land.

In 1838, when the original pioneer settled in this part of Michigan his first effort was to construct the necessary cabins or living quarters and livestock shelter and enclosures.

Later certain sites were selected for crop fields. These selections were made as to drainage, proximity to buildings, roads, etc. Apparently little thought was given to ease of tillage, as amount or type of equipment they owned at that time did not require much consideration. The virgin soil that was turned over in the first breaking was full of organic matter and soil minerals, and provided bountiful crops to our forefathers.

The original pioneer could not visualize what was to take place in the succeeding three to four generations of descendants. These same hill fields today represent a problem to the present day pioneer of soil stabilization. Despite improved seed, cultural, liming, and fertilization practices, many of the same fields do not produce as they once did, due to the washing off the topsoil, and many have been completely destroyed by erosion! The original pioneer could not visualize the part and the complete destruction of the topsoil, but the present day farmer, by adopting soil conservation practices on his farm and taking steps to eliminate this waste, is truly pioneering in the stabilization of American agriculture.

THE GENERAL MOTORS PLAN

Fr. Coughlin's Idea on the Subject. Rev. Fr. Charles Coughlin is original and likes to differ with the opinions and views of other people. This characteristic is one of his appeals and has contributed to his success. While the people of Detroit and the state were holding protest meetings against the Nazi persecutions of the Jews in Germany and other places he let loose a broadcast in a measure justifying these killings although he deplored them. He stated that Communism was Jewish inspired and Jewish controlled and the attacks on the German Jews was the resentment of the people against the Communism which was personified by the Jews. In his broadcast Rev. Coughlin went directly against prevailing public opinion and his talk aroused a small tempest. He also said the present agitation against the war propaganda and no such stream of protest was unopposed following the Communist killings of Catholics and Christians in Russia, China and Mexico. These, he said, the world ignored.

Red Coral Always Prized
It is red coral that is and always has been prized, not solely for jewelry and buttons, but as a charm to bring safety, health and secrets not revealed to the ordinary person. As ancient Gauls rushed headlong into battle, they trusted their safety to their swords, strength and the "magic" coral imbedded in their shields or helmets. Many Italians and Indians regard coral as protection against the "evil eye." The world's red coral comes from the reefs off the Mediterranean coast of Africa, says the Washington Post, and is obtained chiefly by Italians.

Giant Among Flowers
The amorphophallus, which produces the largest flowers in the world, is so big that a man standing upright can barely reach the top with the tip of his fingers and can only reach it with a long pole.

Slippery roads, icy windshields, more hours of darkness these are the hazards motorists must contend with for the next several months. What have you done to prepare for driving under such adverse conditions? Is your windshield in good condition? Are your brakes good? Regardless of how mechanically perfect your car is. If you do not change your driving habits, the possibility of your having an accident is great. Good brakes won't be of much help on a stretch of icy pavement if you are traveling fast and are required to make a sudden stop. You apply the brakes, but the car merely slides along. Control your speed, approach intersections, stop signs, and traffic signals with caution. Winter driving requires much more alertness, less speed, and good common sense.

BUILDING AND LOAN REPORT READY

Figures showing that industrial centers of Michigan are experiencing a shortage of housing facilities, and that in cases of well maintained property rents are rising, are shown in a preliminary survey of the annual report now finished by the Building and Loan Division of the Department of State.

This report being compiled for submission by Leon D. Case, Secretary of State to Governor Frank Murphy, will cover a period of twelve months.

Michigan has 51 active and 4 liquidating state chartered Building and Loan Associations. 78,477 members and investors have $65,120,741.58 invested. The total assets of the 55 associations is $80,907,344.75. First mortgage loans number 21,518 with an investment of $36,766,798.40.

During the twelve month period, there were 6,117 properties sold on land contracts with a total value of $13,261,100.44. This shows an active demand this year for real estate acquired in previous years. There were 3,704 new loans made during the year. Of this amount 844 were made for the construction of new homes; 850 for purchase of new homes; 550 for refinancing of home loans held by others; 424 for additions, repairs and reconditioning of homes, and 1,036 for all other purposes.

Activities of building associations of Michigan, as reflected in the records of the Building and Loan Division, show that these associations have had a vital part in supporting the institutions of government during the past year.

Be sure to read in The American Weekly with The Detroit Sunday Times, "For Richer or Poorer" Thelma Strabel's absorbing novel of the fast-living, fast moving smart set of Miami's millionaire winter colony, a singularly appealing story of the love of a girl with high ideals, eager to make any sacrifice for the man who has asked her to marry him. You can start it this Sunday.

Friday, November 18th the football boys went to Chelsea to see Chelsea play Manchester. Chelsea won by a score of 7 to 0.

The program Monday night was a great success. Amount received was $14.10. Percy Swarthout, Joan Spears, Edsel Meyer, and Mrs. Dilloway were contestants in musical recognition. (Mrs. Baughn and Mr. Widmayer were judges. Lucia Soper played the piano. The contest was won by Edsel Meyer who was given a trumpet so that he could 'toot his own horn'.

Because of 'so much going on nights and only three days of school dancing class will not be held this week.

An all high party is to be given Wednesday, November 23rd. The Seniors. Each person is asked to bring five cents.

Basket ball practice is to be held Friday and Saturday at 2:30. We hope to see a good turnout at our first game at least. Let's all give a hand in putting the teams on the road to victory.

Last Wednesday Nov. 16 we were entertained by the 11th graders at assembly. The main feature was a shadow recognition. Among those depicted were George Washington, President Roosevelt, Betsy Ross, Pop Eye, Kate Smith and our teachers. This contest was won by Eloise A. Gardner. She was awarded by being crowned with a crepe paper wreath.

SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT PLEASES EVERYONE

For the past three months different groups in the Pinckney school have been putting on entertainments at public assemblies. Monday night all these different numbers were combined and an entertainment was put on in the school gym to which the public was invited. The numbers were well staged and were very pleasing to a good sized audience.

Miss Margaret Aschenbrenner acted as announcer and the first number was musical drill put on by some 8th grade girls with Miss Pauline McLucas as leader. Miss Victoria Kulbicki gave a vocal selection. This was followed by a comedy skit entitled the newly weds with Keith Ledwidge and Cyrus AtLee taking the parts of the bride and groom. Virginia Baughn was next with a vocal selection and Lucia Soper played an instrumental piece on the piano.

The 10th grade put on a skit entitled 'Keeping Kitty's Dates'. The scene was laid in a girls boarding school with Rose Mary Read taking the part of Kitty who made too many dates and had to have her college mates, Marilyn Glenn, Goldi Markos and Virginia Culver help her out. Donn Widmayer was an insurance salesman, Earl Berquist, a book agent and Bob Martin, a blushing Romeo.

Megan Meyer was the servant girl Muriel MacEachren sang a vocal number and responded to an encore. An 11th grade boy's quartet composed of Bill Baughn, Jack Young, Merlyn Lavey and Jack Hannett sang several songs including one titled the 'Man on the Flying Trapeze'. They were assisted in this number by the versatile Bob Martin who took the part of the trapeze.

A music guessing number followed in which P. H. Swarthout, Edsel Meyer, Mrs. Wm. Dilloway and Joan Spears were asked to guess the name of songs played. Edsel won guessing all correctly.

Isabel Beau, Eloise Gardner and Dorin Bunting sang a song in costume.

The last was a chorus number entitled 'Ten Pretty Girls' with Betty Isham and Peach Palmer taking the lead.

We understand and hope that a number more of these entertainments will be given.

Oliver Clark had the misfortune to lose a finger one day last week while helping to operate a corn husker on the Bob Myers farm at Silver Lake.

Mrs. May Harvey and family who lived on the Sigler farm near here two years ago was here Monday looking for a farm to rent.

POULTRY EXPERTS PRAISE INSULATED LAYING HOUSES

Having observed that egg production falls off during Fall and Winter months when prices are at their peak, many progressive poultry raisers are following the advice of state and county farm advisors and are insulating their laying houses against the cold.

Scientific research has shown that a flock of 125 four to five pound layers gives off in an hour only as much heat as would be obtained by burning about five ounces of coal. Unless insulation is provided, this amount of heat is insufficient to keep a laying house warm in freezing weather and frost will gather on walls and ceiling and the litter will become wet. Also, feed is wasted in the colder house because more feed is needed to keep the hens warm and less is available to make eggs, leading poultrymen have found.

According to the observations of R. E. Cray of Ohio State University, a well-insulated laying house will also increase egg production in summer months. He says in Everybody's Poultry Magazine that flocks remain indoors close to mash hoppers until late afternoon when an insulated laying house is provided. When the house is not insulated, the birds loaf during the heat of the day trying to keep cool, he reports.

Illustrated above is a simple method of insulating and ventilating a laying house according to the findings of poultry experts. It is adaptable to practically any house, old or new, and any farm carpenter who is handy with tools can do the work easily.
