Putnam Goes Democratic, That Party Winning All Offices But Two Constables. A Heavy Vote Cast

The warm weather on Monday brought out a big vote in places where there was a contest. 508 votes were cast in Putnam township. Of these were 157 Democrat straight, 112 Republican straight and 228 splits. The results showed a decided Democratic tinge, that party winning all offices but two constables where Edmund Haines and Norman Miller won over Bert VanBlaricum Jr. and Al Dewey, Democrats. - Justice-Henry Gilbert, d, 62
- High. Com.-Earl Doletski, d, 65

The county board of supervisors now stands 10 Republicans and 8 Democrats. The proposition to buy a fire engine carried in Handy township. Glenn Slayton was defeated for councilman at Howell.

ASCHENBRENNER LOSES 1ST PROFESSIONAL BOUT

Julius Aschenbrenner of this town made his debut as a professional wrestler in the Dearborn Arena in a match against Art Perkins, a wrestler of six years professional standing.

Although Aschenbrenner lost the match, his youth and daring won the applause and approval of the audience.

If Aschenbrenner continues in this line of work we predict a lot of hard work ahead, as the promoters do not seem to be able to find a man his equal in age and weight.

In the main event George Dusette, Boston strong man, won 2 out of 3 falls from Bull Curry. In the semi-final, Leon St. Pierre ex-foreign Legionnaire, defeated Al Krushar.

Local Industries of the Past

Silas Barton, Sr., Was Gunsmith of Skill and Made Guns and Pistols for the People of This Section. Also had a Farm South of Town.

In the early days of this country there were no large factories in existence in this state employing thousands of people and turning out large quantities of manufactured goods. Instead, every village and hamlet had its own skilled artisan who turned out articles of various kinds most of which were made by hand. Transportation was crude and expensive and the people found it cheaper to buy at home than to pay the transportation costs.

In the early days this section boasted a first class gunsmith, one who not only repaired guns, but also made them from the raw material. This person was Silas Barton, sr., who owned the farm south of town in more recent years known as the Marcus Graves farm.

In addition to carrying on the occupation of farming, Mr. Barton also had a shop at his farm where he did blacksmith work and carried on his trade as a gunsmith. We understand that he made guns complete, even to boring out the barrel. These guns were the old muzzle loader kind, the powder being inserted by a powder horn and fired by means of a cap. There are some of these guns still around this section and still in good condition. When the late Wales Leland moved on the Barton farm, before Mr. Graves bought it he found one in the attic. This he later let the late Elmer Glenn have and in 1935 at the time of the centennial here it was loaned to the committee and was on display in the museum. According to the late Mr. Glenn it still shot with great accuracy.

Mr. and Mrs. Ona Campbell have two pistols which were made by Mr. Barton. Pistols were in common use before the days of the revolver.

Silas Barton had two sons, Henry Barton and Silas Barton, jr. Henry married Jennie Clark, a daughter of Hugh Clark and lived in the house owned by Jesse Richardson. He followed his fathers profession of a gunsmith to which he afterwards added the jewelry business. He had a store where the Loll Tavern is now located. In after years Silas Barton sr., retired from farming and built the house now occupied by Ona Campbell and family. His son, Silas Barton, jr., ran the farm. The latter had two children, a son, Lee, and a daughter, Alice, now Mrs. Wm. King of Onondago. Silas Barton later retired and moved to this place where he and his son, Lee had a machine shop for a time. Silas was also a deputy sheriff. The Bartons are now all dead except the two children of Silas Barton, jr.

The Barton farm was sold by Silas Barton jr., to John McIntyre. Wales Leland was tenant there and so was Nelson Mortenson. Then Perry Towle bought it. He never lived there and in a short time sold it to Marcus Graves, who owned it for twenty years. Louis Clinton, of St. Catherine, Ontario, is now the owner of the farm.

Eugene Campbell who had been in Kansas later became a partner of Henry Barton in the jewelry and gunsmith business. Eventually he became the sole owner of the business. The building where the Dispatch is located was built by him and the business moved there and he divided his time between running it and farming.

CENSUS ENUMERATORS

Lorenzo Murphy and Wm. E. Darrow took the three day examination as census enumerator which was held at Lansing last Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Murphy was eliminated because he is township treasurer, so Mr. Darrow will take the census here. As there are 24 districts in the county and only 24 took the examination another will have to be chosen.

Other census takers are Vincent Young, Lyle Brogan, Paul Brogan and Mrs. Kittie Bergin.

CARD OF THANKS

To all those who gave me their support at the election Monday I extend my sincere thanks.

EASTER CANTATA GIVEN SUNDAY NIGHT

For some weeks past the choirs of the Pinckney Congl church and the Plainfield M. E. Church have been practicing diligently on an Easter Cantata entitled the "Resurrection." Mr. R. R. MacFarland who directed a very successful Christmas Cantata here also directed this one. The first presentation was given at Plainfield Easter night. The choir numbered 42 voices but a few were absent Sunday night on account of illness, when it was presented in Pinckney at Congregational church. A number of solo parts were taken by H. H. MacFarland, P. H. Swarthout, R. R. MacFarland, Mrs. Merwin Campbell, Mrs. Maxine Sweet, Mrs. James Hall and Mrs. J. McClucas. The cantata was well rendered and showed the results of much effort and practice and was thoroughly enjoyed.
Brief remarks were given by Rev. Smith of Plainfield and McClucas of Pinckney and a silver offering taken.

The Cantata will be presented at the Gregory Baptist church on next Sunday evening. Several other invitations have also been received to present it to other churches.

One of the Largest Crowds in the History of the Local Lodge Attends Past Masters Night Here Friday Evening

A warm bright spring day, and an excellent program packed the local Masonic hall to overflowing on the occasion of their 11th annual past masters night observance on last Friday evening. The visitors came from far and near. Besides 43 Michigan lodges, four lodges outside

Hon. W. W. Blackney the state were represented. These lodges were White Bear, Minn., Savannah, Niagara Falls and Auburn New York. For some time the F. B. I. has been under fire because they are alleged to have obtained much of their evidence in important cases by the tapping of telephone and telegraph wires. For some reason it is claimed that getting evidence by this means is not according to Hoyle. Although in criminal cases it would seem that the means justifies the end. Now according to the Washington commentator in the daily papers, this issue seems to have backfired for it is now alleged that Thomas Dewey, Republican candidate for the presidential nomination obtained much of his evidence in the New York vice cases by wire tapping.

In the Canadian election last week Premier Mackenzie King was given a huge vote of confidence and his Liberal party made almost a clean sweep of the election. Although his term has not been an unqualified success locally, the war issue overshadowed all others and the vote was a vote of confidence in his handling of the war. According to political writers the European war is bound to play a big part in the election in this country next fall.

CURRENT COMMENT

The sore spot with the state administration is that so far they have been unable to pay old age pensions to any of the 22,000 people now eligible who are on the waiting list.

At the present time pensions are being paid to 75,000 beneficiaries and it has been only by means of cutting the pensions and other ways of squeezing that the state has been able to continue the payments to these. As each person on the waiting list represents a vote a big effort will be made to pay at least half of them pensions by July 1st. Director Phillip Callahan believes at least 12,000 of them can be investigated by that time. The plan of financing it is to pay it out of next years appropriation and then to ask the 1941 legislature for a deficiency appropriation. Deaths of the pensioners are expected to reduce the load to a certain extent. Lack of funds to pay these pensioners on the waiting list is due to the stringent economy measures put into effect by the last legislature.

There is no question but that the pension issue is the most popular campaign appeal at the present time Mel McPherson would pay every person 65, years old a pension irrespective of need. The American Legion has a pension plan by means of which all World War veterans would be paid pensions. Of course this pension plan may not come up this year or next but it is certain to some time as surely as the night follows day and the legion is only waiting for the opportune time to spring it. We often wonder just where all this pension agitation will eventually lead.

The Anti-Saloon League will start circulating petitions this month to ban all beer gardens and liquor dispensing places except those in incorporated cities and villages. The rural places where there is no police protection are classed as undesirable by them. This will be the opening wedge in the dry campaign and if successful will lead to other more drastic measures.

Some judicial decisions excite our curiosity. Last March 17, a boy 21 years old by the name of Wm. Hook, failed to stop for a red light and kept on going after a police car started after him. After a chase of considerable length in which he tried to force the police car over the curb he was struck by a bullet from a gun of one of the police in the scout car and died of his wound. Investigation showed that he was a persistent traffic violator, having been arrested 11 times for violations. Each time he escaped with a small fine. Now we wonder by what process a reasoning did the judges before whom he was brought decide he was entitled to endless leniency. To the average person it would seem that anyone with such a bad driving record would have been deprived of their driving license long ago.

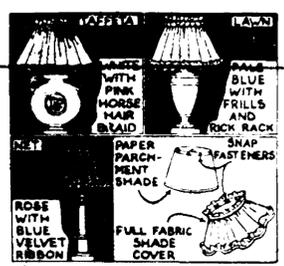

For some time the F. B. I. has been under fire because they are alleged to have obtained much of their evidence in important cases by the tapping of telephone and telegraph wires. For some reason it is claimed that getting evidence by this means is not according to Hoyle. Although in criminal cases it would seem that the means justifies the end. Third Term Backers Dismayed By Roosevelt's Failure to Speak

Candidates Farley and Garner Confuse Issue for President's Followers; Hull-Jackson Combination Further Complicates Political Scene.

By WILLIAM BRUCKART WNU Service, National Press Bldg., Washington, D. C.

WASHINGTON.—The political situation that fails to provide a good laugh somewhere along the line is rare, indeed. There is, of course, that time-worn expression about politics making strange bedfellows, which frequently happens.

The story at this time is what has happened in another direction. In the efforts of the strategists to make the fences safe against the Garner bulls, they forgot about the man who built the Democratic machine of which these strategists are a part.

Jim Farley

They apparently overlooked Mr. Farley, except that they did a lot of things contrary to his idea of smart politics and fairness to those who had been riding herd in the pastures where votes grow.

Farley's Candidacy Surprise to Leaders

And, now, what confronts the boys? Just an announcement by Mr. Farley that he is an out-and-out candidate for the presidential nomination of the Democratic party, an announcement that ended with "that's that!"

There are not many folks in the country who do not realize that, as a machine politician, Mr. Farley has few equals. He has a personal following that he has built up throughout the nation, men whom he calls by their first names and who write to him as "Dear Jim."

The ranks of those who jumped too soon include a lot of senators and representatives who had arrived at their places on the payroll by virtue of a happy ride on the Roosevelt coattails.

Hull-Jackson Team May Enter 1940 Race

This whole stage scene is further complicated by continued stories that Mr. Roosevelt looks upon Secretary Hull of the state department as a "good man," but with sort of a side glance that "some good liberal like Bob Jackson (the attorney general) should be nominated with him."

In the current whispering campaign—and its source can be traced to an expert—Mr. Garner is pictured as just a stooge, just someone striving to break down the New Deal. He was pointed out as disloyal, a personally disloyal man despite 40 years as a Democratic battler, and his campaign was said to have "flattened out" to such an extent that everyone interested in the Democratic party could go home and go to bed—you know, the way that is done after an election victory is safely in the bag and the worry is over.

I am not prepared to argue that Mr. Garner's candidacy is, or is not, washed up. Just as a one-man guess, I have thought he was rather popular in the parts of the country where I have traveled in recent months. But that is not the story about which I am writing.

STRANGE BEDFELLOWS

Strange political bedfellows result in interesting politics, according to William Bruckart, who today discusses the third term issue in relationship to the Roosevelt "coattail riders."

Household News By Eleanor Howe

SAUCE MUST COMPLEMENT THE FOOD (See Recipes Below)

'Sauce for the Goose'

The function of a sauce may be either to accent or to soften a flavor; it may be used to enrich a food, or to moisten it; the sauce may be sweet or savory; it may be hot or cold.

French cooks, to whom sauces are sacred, use two basic recipes or "mother sauces" from which all their savory sauces are developed; no simple white sauce or sauce merely thickened with browned flour, for them!

Plain white sauce—the standby of so many cooks—should seldom be served "as is." It's a foundation, really, which is quite likely to be flat in flavor, and very much too thick!

Orange Sauce. 1/4 cup sugar, 1 1/2 tablespoons cornstarch, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1 cup boiling water, 1/4 cup orange juice, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 1/4 teaspoon orange rind, 1 tablespoon butter.

Delicious Sauce. 1/4 cup heavy cream (whipped), 1 egg, 1/4 cup sugar, 1/4 teaspoon vanilla extract. Beat white and yolk of egg separately. Add sugar to beaten yolk, then add beaten egg white. Last of all add whipped cream and vanilla extract. Serve at once.

Italian Tomato Sauce. Into a deep frying pan place a No. 2 1/2 can of tomatoes, 1 green pepper chopped fine, 1 large onion chopped fine, 1/2 lb. ground round steak, 2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce, 1 teaspoon tabasco sauce, 1/4 teaspoon ground allspice, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon black pepper, 2 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese and 2 cups water. Cook slowly for approximately 2 hours.

Easy-to-Make Hollandaise Sauce. Into top of double boiler place the juice of 1 lemon, 4 egg yolks, 1/2 cup butter and a dash of paprika. Beat constantly over boiling water until thick.

Barbecue Sauce. 1 large onion, 1 clove garlic, 1/4 cup catsup, 1/4 cup Worcestershire sauce, 1 No. 2 can tomatoes, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 tablespoon sugar, 1/2 cup vinegar, Red pepper, black pepper, salt and mustard—to taste.

Cheese Souffle With Tomato Cream Sauce.

3 tablespoons butter, 3 tablespoons flour, 1 1/4 cups milk, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard, 1/2 pound sharp cheese, 4 eggs.

Melt the butter in a saucepan, add the flour and cook until frothy. Then add the milk and cook together until the sauce has thickened. Measure out 1/2 cup of cream sauce and set aside to use in the sauce.

Tomato Cream Sauce. 1 can condensed tomato soup, 1/2 cup cream sauce (saved from first part of recipe).

Hot Butterscotch Sauce. 2 cups light brown sugar, 1/2 cup coffee cream, 1/4 cup light corn syrup, 1/4 teaspoon salt.

Blend all the above ingredients and place in saucepan. Cook slowly, stirring at frequent intervals, until mixture reaches the soft ball stage (236 degrees). Serve very hot over ice cream.

Are You Planning Your Spring Cleaning?

Before the housecleaning season arrives (and it's just around the corner) be sure you send for a copy of "Household Hints." You'll find it a handy reference book when you begin to clean and polish and renovate the house.

'Busy-Day Meals.' Are there busy days in your household, when there's very little time for preparing and serving meals? If there are, you'll be interested in what Eleanor Howe has to tell you about "Busy-Day Meals."

'Magic' Butter Rolls. Speaking of "busy-day" meals, here's a recipe that will make one and one-half dozen "magic" butter rolls in a hurry. This is what you need:

3 cups general purpose flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 cup butter or other shortening, 1/4 cup evaporated milk, 1/4 cup water, 2 cakes yeast, 1 tablespoon sugar, 3 eggs, 1 teaspoon vanilla extract, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 cup nuts (cut fine).

To 1 1/2 cups flour add salt and shortening, combining as for pie crust. Combine milk and hot water. When lukewarm add the yeast and 1 tablespoon sugar, blend well and then stir into the first mixture, beating until very smooth. Cover and let stand 20 minutes. Then add the eggs and beat vigorously. Beat in the vanilla and remaining 1/4 cups flour. Stir until smooth. The dough will be stiff but slightly sticky.

Philathea Notes

Watch for special notice concerning the next Philathea meeting. The regular time is Wednesday, April 10

Mrs. Herman Vedder, sr. graciously taught the Sunday class in the absence of Mrs. Elliott and in an interesting and helpful way connected the events following our last lessons with the lesson passage chosen for March 31, "The Continuing Task" was a fitting subject for this closing lesson of the quarter.

One welcome guest in the class on Sunday was Mrs. Van Kueran, mother of Mrs. Mabel Reynolds. After an extended visit with her daughter here, she expects to leave soon for Saginaw.

A glance at the new quarterly shows our lesson passages to be mostly from the Old Testament and are most helpful portions for study.

The church was beautifully decorated for the Sunday services. In the morning there was special music and a fine sermon and in the evening the chorus of forty-two voices rendered the Easter Cantata, as before announced. The Christian Endeavor society of the Congregational church are holding a bake sale on this coming Sunday and will be grateful to all who contribute or who patronize it.

FLOWERS BLOOM EARLY
New Haven - Spring came early to New Haven this year, or at least signs of it did. Early in March, Mrs. John Stier picked several sprigs of blooming forsythia, lilacs, and spirea from bushes at her home.

BOBCAT IS PET
Thompsonville - Patricia Perry of Glennie is the owner of an unusual pet. It is a tame bobcat, captured last summer when but a few days old. The cat has been trained to overcome its natural fear of humans so it is tame enough that Patricia can take it to school.

Iron River (MPA): Although the state has no special license plate numbers this year, there is one combination that the local business manager would like to get rid of. It is TR-12-12. The plates have been issued and returned three times.

Several times, in this column, I have asked certain questions pertaining to safe driving. Some of the editors have felt that his type of information is valuable and interesting.

The question today is: During any one hour period, when are automobile accidents most frequent?

There have been some wild guesses no this, but statistics show that the hour between 5 and 6 P. M. is the danger hour for accidents. This is due to several things. In a congested or metropolitan area, people on their way home from work, take unnecessary chances in hurrying through heavy traffic. On long trips the average person becomes tired at dusk and, therefore, coming darkness together with fatigue, are responsible for many accidents.

Be careful all of the time, but be especially careful at this time of the day.

WHO'S NEWS THIS WEEK

By LEMUEL F. PARTON

(Consolidated Features—WFO Service.)

NEW YORK.—When young "Red" Phillips played guard on the University of Oklahoma football team, in 1915, he was scaled down to a mere 260 pounds, but in spite of that managed to root through the line like a high-powered snowshovel. Sometimes he wouldn't stop when the whistle blew and they had a hard time to keep him inside the state lines. Today, as Gov. Leon C. Phillips of Oklahoma, he weighs in at 290 and is even more abandoned in his rootin' tootin' guard play. He orders out the National Guard to repulse the invasion of the federals, trying to build a $20,000,000 dam on the Grand river in his state.

This, one of his many scrimmages, is part of his waxing battle for state rights against what he considers the illegal encroachment of the federal government. He is an apostate New Dealer, having defeated the similarly belligerent "Alfalfa Bill" Murray on the issue of New Deal adherence in the 1933 Democratic primary.

Now he has switched teams. With a big cigar protruding from his lips at a cocky angle, biting it to shreds when he gets steamed up, he says the New Deal is a social service outfit, and social workers are "sorority sisters." Like the "Fiery and Snuffy" of the Oklahoma cowboy song, he's "rarin' to go and he sends word to the war department that he won't let any invader set foot on Oklahoma soil."

He started to be a preacher, but switched to the law. Born 50 years ago in Grant county, Missouri, along the covered wagon trail, he was taken to Oklahoma at the age of two and grew up in the Cheyenne and Arapaho Indian country. He attended Epworth university one year, studying, presumably militant, Christianity, and then entered the law school of the University of Oklahoma. His fame as "Red" Phillips, the bone-crushing, man-eating football player, gave him a fast running start in politics, and he soon landed in the state legislature. He made his campaign for the governorship on an economy platform, sweeping the state. The citizens still know him as "Red," and the "Yea Red!" yell of his college days serves for his political campaigns.

WHEN I knew Death Valley Scotty and his dog "Goldbug," around Goldfield, Rhyolite and Windy Gap, there was a story that the dog had made a great fuss over a stranger at Casey's hotel, and a theory that this stranger must have been Scotty's mysterious backer. The visitor, however, was never passing through and was never identified, and Scotty, even in moments of abandon in Tex Rickard's place, continued to insist that he had a "chimney" or "blow-out" of gold nuggets, samples of which he carried in his overall pocket. It was not until years later that the man who financed the Death Valley Scotty saga, just for his own amusement it would seem, was A. M. Johnson, the head of a big insurance firm in Chicago.

As Scotty and his backer round out 40 years of a beautiful friendship, Scotty informs the federal tax collectors that he has $100,000 in gold certificates buried somewhere in the Panamint mountains, and that the source of his mysterious wealth has unfailingly been Mr. Johnson. From the same source came the $3,000,000 Spanish castle which Scotty built in the heart of Death valley several years ago, according to his previous admissions. The unique partnership opened with a $2,500 grubstake. He not only wrote a check, but followed Scotty to Death valley. The first mine didn't pan out, but Mr. Johnson was having fun. They fought bandits, got clubby with the Piute Indians and rooted around in old prospect holes. Thereafter came Scotty's famous train ride and the deepening mystery of his treasure cache. They kept their secret until about 1930. The pooch, "Goldbug" and Scotty's extraordinarily intelligent white mule both died of old age. But the original partnership still goes on.

Mr. Johnson, now 68 years old, is cut somewhat on the same lines as Henry Ford, but with an Achilles' Heel of Romance. He was born and grew up in a small town in Ohio, went to Cornell university, did a job of railroading in Arkansas and engaged in mining lead and zinc near Joplin, Mo. In Chicago he augmented an inherited fortune in the insurance business. He belongs to a string of good clubs in Chicago, is a sagacious and conservative citizen, and, from all accounts, has bankrolled Scotty for the fun of it.

Cheer Warriors The Praying Mantis Good Warriors

The Chinese people recently responded to a government movement and wrote 500,000 letters to their fighting men to cheer, encourage and assure them that their countrymen appreciated their efforts and were solidly behind them.

Style-Right Outfits to Suit Fashion Wise Little Folks

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

MOST amusing, this thought of modern children growing to be regular fashion sophisticates, but nevertheless, it is literally true. They know more about style than their elders dared dream of in their childhood days. In this generation it is not so easy as it was in the past to satisfy little daughter or junior with made-overs and hand-me-downs. Anyway, what's the use of trying with ready-made available that are amazingly practical and inexpensive and so altogether attractive little folks delight in them.

With play clothes for youngsters and pretty frocks for little daughter being sold "for a song" these days, the idea of making over loses much of its zest. However, what is being done in this modernized world of ours is that mothers of good judgment are entrusting the matter of outfitting their children to skilled designers who make a study of juvenile apparel needs not only from a style standpoint, but from a view to real economy and practicality.

In line with the thought that children's fashions be given as sincere and careful consideration as those of grownups, it is becoming a custom in leading style centers to hold fashion shows devoted exclusively to the little folks. The cunning spring styles here pictured were shown recently at a style clinic presented in the Merchandise Mart of Chicago, before an appreciative gathering of visiting merchants. The handsome coat worn by the girl to the right in the picture is tailored of a Kenwood tweed in a charming berry-red tone. It is the smart new princess type that is an outstanding favorite this season. The white silk pique collar tells you that white accents on dark is a most important trend for spring. Here you see the ensemble idea carried out in a matching beret that comes with the coat, thus happily solving mother's problem of hatting little daughter fashionably and becomingly. Her wee companion is in navy blue, with a bonnet matched to her cunning coat.

There's something about a soldier and about military - influenced clothes that lends smartness and proves alluring to young misses as well as to sentimental big sister. The little lady to the left in the group wears one of the new military-type cape suits such as promise widespread vogue this season. The suit is of alert blue wool with fitted jacket in bright red. The long cape theme is highly important. This ensemble is so completely matched up it includes a military looking hat with a red feather with a handbag worked out in the red and the blue.

And now for cunning fashions for junior and his buddy for little boys take delight in smart attire every whit as much as does little sister. While while you walk, if it's in coats like these, think these two young men whom you see pictured in the group. The whistler in the foreground wears a camel's hair man-tailored, double-breasted coat and his pal wears a green tweed double-breasted coat with slit pockets. Caps to match their wear. Too cunning for words! (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

Lucky Charms

It's smart, in your choice of costume jewelry, to wear a lucky charm or two. Circle your wrist with a chain from which dangles a framed fourleaf clover, saying in attractive lettering "I bring you good luck"; as shown in the picture at the left. On her lapel this lady-fair flaunts a Moncraft clip of two scarlet-tipped dancer's hands posed down, for luck. With an identification bracelet that reads, "The key to my heart," as worn by the other young woman, you will set other hearts fluttering. Note also the lapel gadget she wears. It's a Moncraft circus horse complete with colorful bridle and flowing mane, such as fashion sophisticates dote on.

Frothy Black Lace For Evening Wear

Frothy black lace combined with contrasting colors and fabrics is an outstanding feature of Heim's new evening collection. A dinner gown cut in shirtwaist style is effectively trimmed with white linen collar and cuffs. Magenta ribbon, at the hem and for the belt, is the sophisticated accent for a very formal sleeveless black lace gown.

Lingerie Blouses Simply Entrancing

Simply entrancing are the new lingerie blouses that we will all be wearing with our spring suits. In fact a wardrobe of blouses is about the most important theme we know of on the style program for the coming months. You will be needing a whole wardrobe of blouses to carry you through triumphantly from a "style" standpoint.

While the biggest play is made on the dainty lace-trimmed sheer frothy white blouse with its fluttery jabots, its finely tucked detail and its lacy loveliness, swank blouses of pique cyslet embroidered or plain-tailored are just as essential. Add to the collection a cunning sweater-blouse or so, also several washable crepes in pastel colors. As to a blouse in sprightly and now so very fashionable polka dot, you really must have at least one.

Jewelry Designed To Suit Costumes

For Bruyere's new shepherd plaid suit, a firm of Paris jewelers created a pair of huge, golden leaf coat-clips veined in brilliants, with duplicate clips of much smaller leaves for the earlobes.

For a beige tweed costume, they designed a realistic leaf of slender, baguette-cut emeralds with the gems set solid, stone to stone, and the veining of the leaf in diamonds. This same ivy-like leaf also comes in red, paved with rubies in the new way, each stone cut to exactly fit its neighbor.

Turkish Bazaar

An evening bag that will make you think of fakirs and bazaars and high thin music from pipes, is a small pouch bag in red, black, silver and gold.

PAST MASTERS' BANQUET
A local orchestra and the invocation was given by Rev. McLucas. Following the banquet, Bill Hodge of Howell took charge of the meeting and led the community singing that was featured by several comedy numbers. Ross Read, master of the local lodge, delivered the welcome and introduced Paul O. Strawhecker of Grand Rapids, a grand lodge line officer who acted as toastmaster. H. C. Vedder responded to the welcome in behalf of the past masters and ended by introducing each of them. Jackie Haines, popular juvenile entertainer sang two songs, playing his own accompaniment on the guitar. R. R. MacFarland sang two Scotch songs.

Dr. Francis B. Lambie, R. T. W. Grand Master, delivered a short address in which he touched on Masonry and the problems facing it at the present time. Dr. Lambie has spoken here many times but he always has a message to deliver and his popularity increases. The toastmaster then introduced the nine grand lodge officers present. They were Charles Sherman, Lansing, deputy grand master, Dewey Hesse, Saginaw, grand senior warden, Mr. Strawhecker himself is the grand senior grand deacon. Also present were Hugh McPherson, the grand treasurer, of Pontiac, Homer Newton, grand secretary of Grand Rapids, Dr. Kenneth Lyons, of Jackson, grand marshal and William Bryant of Detroit, grand tiler. In addition two candidates for grand marshal were present in the persons of Charles Fey of Royal Oak and Roscoe Burch of Benton Harbor. Also Ernest Gibbs of Lansing, a member of the grand lodge committee on lodges.

Hon. W. W. Blackney, congressman from this district delivered an excellent address in which he talked on the historic places on Masonry in the vicinity of Washington, D. C. which he has visited and the part Masonry played in framing the constitution of the nation and the declaration of independence. Mr. Blackney delivered an excellent address and was warmly applauded.

Following this the visiting masters and past masters were introduced and gave their name, lodge and the year in which they served as master. This concluded the banquet and lodge was then opened and life memberships were presented to W. C. Miller by Kirk VanWinkle, P. M. and to J. H. Hooker by C. W. Hooker, P. M. Fred Lake was absent and his life membership was received by P. W. Curlett acting as proxy. John Martin, P. M. making the presentation.

Reginald Shafer was unable to be present on account of illness and Ford Lamb, retiring master, was presented with his past masters apron by Rev. J. M. McLucas. This ended the evening program but many lingered for another hour visiting and thus the curtain was rung down on another of a series of successful past masters nights.

To The Editor:
As This is a great milk producing locality, some figures which I have taken from a report of the Federal Trade Commission, are of interest.

They show that in 1938 National Dairy Products Corporation had a profit of 12 per cent and that Borden, Inc., had a profit of 8.2 per cent.

These profits it was emphasized were based on capitalization, which had been "watered" until it bore no resemblance to the actual value of the properties.

In the same year (1938) Thomas H. McOnnerney, president of the National Dairies received $150,460 and Theodore M. Montague, president of Borden Inc., received $90,000 and 48 officials of National Dairies, and 35 officials of Borden Inc. received $15,000 or more each in salaries. It shows further that in 1938 the assets of National Dairies, were listed at $199,724,675 and their surplus profits were $50,000,000.

In 1938 Borden, Inc. claimed assets of $122,400,707 and undistributed profits of $36,685,560.

The Department of Agriculture in its Milwaukee audit, found that the handling charges of milk were only about one cent a quart, after including materials, insurance, salaries, wages, depreciation, power, taxes, repairs and automobile expense.

It found too, that the difference between the farmer's price, and the consumers price ranges from 5 to 13 cents a quart.

WILL STUDY WEATHER
BY "AIR MASS" ANALYSIS
W. C. Devereaux, meteorologist, will pass the next three months in Washington, D. C., on a special assignment with the United States Weather Bureau.

The veteran weatherman will leave for the capital today, accompanied by his wife. They plan to take an apartment there.

Devereaux said that he and 19 other meteorologists would be engaged in what he termed "air mass work", a study of the upper winds. Findings obtained from the study are expected to make possible more accurate weather forecasts, Devereaux said.

The study will be based on records obtained during the last year from radio sound instruments sent into the stratosphere on balloons.

This method of obtaining the temperature, wind direction, and humidity in the upper regions, Devereaux said, is much speedier and is more accurate than the former method of using airplanes.

During Devereaux's absence, W. B. Schlomer will serve as meteorologist.—Cincinnati Enquirer.
