Results of the Primary Election

Dickinson and Von Wagoner Win Nominations for Governor with Keyes and Frank Murphy Leading for Lt. Governor. Adams Wins For State Representative.

In the primary election in Michigan Tuesday Governor Dickinson won in a split field easily by means of his dry support. Keyes had apparently won the lt. governor nomination on the Republican ticket and Frank Murphy the Democrat nomination. W. W. Blackney was nominated for congress by the Republicans and Charles Cummings by the Democrats. Harry Hittle and John Leighton are the respective nominees for state senator. Charles P. Adams won the nomination for representative of the Republican ticket and Guy Hosley on the Democrat. In the county with one precinct missing the vote was as follows:

Governor: Dickinson, r, 1772; Read, r, 407; Van Wagoner, d, 1408. Lt. Governor: Keyes, r, 557; Eaton, r, 447; Murphy, d, 250; Canfield, d, 252; Cong. Blackney, r, 2352; McBride, r, 318; Adair, d, 288; Cummings, d, 457; Larkin, d, 146; O'Neil, 76.

State Senator: Hittle, r, 1597; Wise, r, 833; Leighton, d, 982; 18 of 19 precincts.

PINCKNEY MAN ROBBED

Late last Wednesday afternoon two women driving a car with New Mexico license stopped at the home of Michael Lavey on Main Street. Mr. Lavey was sitting in a chair in his yard. They had some conversation with him and when they had departed he missed $30 which was in his vest pocket. The sheriff's office was called and Deputy Murray Kennedy came over but could find no trace of the women. Several other thefts by gypsy women were reported last week. One from Frank Doletsky on the same day on Northwest Territorial road and the other last Tuesday at Ignia. In the old horse and buggy days it used to be possible to apprehend these marauders but in the motorized age it is practically an impossibility.

M-36 PAVING PROGRESSING

The hard surfacing of 23.9 miles of M-36 from the Ingham County line to U. S.-23 started last week and is expected to be finished in 6 weeks. The asphalt is being shipped here over the Grand Trunk railroad and the gravel drawn from Green Oak gravel pit. The loads are too big to cross the overhead bridge, east of the Peter Conway farm and they have to detour around by the Clifford Van Horn farm. One truck tipped over there last week.

A new system is used in this work. A layer of asphalt is laid down, then a layer of crushed stone, then a layer of asphalt and another layer of stone until three layers have been put down. This is much quicker than the blacktopping method used by the county road commission as the mixture does not have to be turned over as does blacktop. In the first two days this work was extended from the pavements end at the west limits of Pinckney to Mike Roche's corners. A number of men working on this project are boarding with local families while some are living in house trailers near the Grand Trunk depot. Some local men have also been hired by them.

Pinckney School To Have Bus Service

Arrangements Were Concluded Last Week Whereby Pinckney Will Have Bus Service for Her School From Two Districts.

Supt. E. L. Hulce, P. W. Curlett, director of the school board and Earl Baughn were in Lansing last Friday and visited the office of the Supt. of Public Instruction where arrangements were made to procure a bus to bring rural pupils to the Pinckney Public School. The bus will be owned by Baughn and leased to the school district. The school will have absolute control over the bus and it can be used only for school purposes. Friday afternoon Mr. Baughn went to Ann Arbor and purchased a bus, returning home with it. This bus was formerly owned by Mercywood Hospital there and will carry fifty passengers. It is a Reo bus, heated and ventilated, etc. It will probably be a week or more before the bus is put into service as according to regulations of the Dept. of Public Instruction it must be painted red, white and blue and the name of the school lettered on both sides, the front and rear.

At the present time Baughn is hauling about 30 pupils to the Pinckney school in his car, making several trips. This is all right in good weather but would have been inconvenient in the winter. These pupils are from the Harris district which has been closed for several years and from the Hudson Corners district on the Dexter Road. This school has been condemned and as the bulk of the children attending the school live around Portage Lake they elected to come to Pinckney.

In the years to come it is expected that more rural schools will close and send their pupils to Pinckney. In many cases it is cheaper to do this than to operate the rural schools. Last year the total operating expense of the Harris school which served the pupils to Pinckney was $900 which is much cheaper than most of the rural schools operated for.

The number of rural pupils hauled to school by school buses is rapidly increasing. Last year 52,700 rural pupils were carried to school by them. This number will be augmented greatly this year according to the dept. as many more operating permits for school buses have been issued.

PINCKNEY SCHOOL BOARD MEETING.

Meeting called to order. Present: Bowers) Kennedy, Swarthout and Curlett. Absent Reason. Motion by Kennedy, seconded by Bowers that Putnam School District No. 2 lease a bus of Earl Baughn for $1.00 and other considerations to carry rural pupils to the Pinckney Public School for the school year of 1940-41. Motion carried.

Motion by Kennedy, seconded by Curlett that Putnam School District No. 2 advance Earl Baughn $100 towards the lease of said bus.

Motion carried. The following bills were presented to the board:

Gasoline for N. Y. A. Ball team $4.25
Top Dressing for playground, purchased of John Spears. 9.00
Motion made by Curlett seconded by Bowers to pay bills. Motion carried. Motion to adjourn made by Kennedy, seconded by Swarthout. Motion carried.

P. W. Curlett, sec'y.

Clan de Reason Dies Suddenly

Prominent Local Business Man is Found Dead in Bed Sunday

This community was shocked last Sunday morning to hear of the sudden death of Claude Reason. He had been at his place of business until late Saturday night and had retired in apparently good health. During the night he passed away from a heart attack.

Claude W. Reason, son of Chas. and Esther Reason, was born February the twelfth, 1879, and died on Sept. 8, 1940, at the age of sixty-one years, six months and twenty-six days.

All of his life was spent in and around Pinckney with the exception of a few years spent at Durand before his marriage to Edna Carpenter, which took place December the twelfth, Nineteen hundred and five.

His wife and he then settled in Pinckney, where three children were born to this union, Kenneth, Roy and Leota. One sister, Mrs. Grace Matthews survives, one brother, Homer, having died several years ago.

For the past twenty years Mr. Reason has been the head of the firm "Reason & Sons" an up-to-date Grocery Store in Pinckney. Of a generous, kind nature he contributed liberally to all church, social and fraternal functions. Never a man to publish his good deeds, he went on his way from day to day, quietly serving, quietly working for those he loved - until September the seventh, when the Lord in all his kindness, watched him drift from earthly sleep to a heavenly sleep.

The sorrow of the family and community is real; for they have lost a good husband, a good father and a good citizen.

The Masonic Lodge of which he was a member for thirty years, and the Eastern Star Chapter of which he has been a member for nineteen years feel their loss in the death of their Brother.

"Standing beside the Broken Column, may we with trustful faith, look beyond the shore of time, and know that our Brother, though lost to mortal vision is waiting to welcome us to our eternal home". Funeral services were held in the Community Congregational Church Tuesday afternoon. Rev. J. M. McLucas officiating. Interment was in the Pinckney Cemetery.

Robert McCrory, 75, of South Lyon was struck and killed by an auto near there on last Saturday night. He was returning home from the state fair in a car driven by a neighbor, Bernis Carver and was hit by a car when he got out in front of his home. The car which hit him was driven by Marion Fletcher, 15, of New Hudson.

Michigan Mirror State News

War Orders Will Bring Much Prosperity to Michigan. It Would Be Possible to Save $196,000 Per Year by Closing the Smaller Rural Schools.

Maybe it's just the pre-election rose-colored glasses that Washington experts are looking through.

Possibly it's plain wishful thinking. But if the prognostications of the government authorities are right, Michigan is going to enjoy, more than the average state, a record bumper prosperity during the next few years.

According to arms contracts let so far, Michigan is eighth on the roll of states with a total amount of $40,315,000. The astonishing contemplated expenditure of 36 billions for defense of democracy will serve as an inflationary influence on commerce, and in the judgment of the "United States News", Washington news weekly, the coming boom of record proportions "is underwritten by the uncertainties that will continue regardless of the course of the war ahead."

While the average business man is inclined to be skeptical that the new federal spending venture may turn out to be another "flash in the pan," it is pointed out that the 36 billion program far exceeds any spending experiment during the New Deal, that it will be prolonged over at least four years, and that the new spending must go on whether Great Britain loses or wins the war.

Furthermore, the new federal reserve index shows business today is higher than it was in 1929 or 1937.

Politically speaking, Democrats are jubilant over the 1940 boom, while Republicans feel they have been robbed of an honest issue of New Deal unemployment. It's like having a rabbit pulled out of your hat, while the magician is off-stage.

One-Room Schools

Politicians are once again promising miracles of doing away with our multi-million state deficit while giving more pensions for the aged, restoring aid to the crippled children and assuring other benefits here and there.

Dr. Eugene B. Elliott, state superintendent of public instruction, has been one of Michigan's most vigorous proponents for adequate state school aid. However, he is also aware of certain weaknesses in the school armor. The one-room school, of which there are more than 5,900 in the state, is one of them.

In this day of good transportation it may surprise you to know that Michigan has 596 schools with 10 pupils or less. In fact, 66 school exist with five pupils each!

In rural areas that are scarcely populated, the one-room school may be indispensable. But an astonishing fact is that most of the 596 one-room schools with 10 or less pupils are located in the southern rural districts, they are not in northern Michigan and the Upper Peninsula.

TO MAKE ANOTHER PICTURE SATURDAY AFTERNOON

The Wilding Pictures Co. Inc., who made two pictures here last summer will make another one here next Saturday, September 14. This picture will be of a picnic scene and will be made at the White Lodge Country Club. A cast of 200 adults is wanted and 100 children. This cast will be furnished by the Congregational and St. Mary's churches and the school. The company will pay $1.00 per person. All those who wish to take part will be provided with the means to get to White Lodge.

CALDWELL STOCK COMPANY RETURNS

The Caldwell Stock Co., headed by Dick Caldwell who put on comedy plays at the Pinckney Community Hall last fall, winter and spring have returned here and will put on their first show on Thursday night, September 12. It is a rollicking comedy entitled "Let's Get Married." This company has many of the same cast who appeared here last year and there will be musical numbers and other specialties between acts.

During the summer this company travels in a large tent. This summer they worked in the territory adjacent to Battle Creek. During the present fall and winter they show every night in the week, making their headquarters at Fowlerville.

CURRENT COMMENT

The siege of Great Britain still continues with both the British and Nazi forces claiming to have done greater damage to each other. So far according to figures released the British have lost 92,000 soldiers while the Nazi losses are considerably larger as they have done more fighting. As yet the fighting has been mostly air raids with small numbers of planes engaged. England is hemmed in and has undoubtedly suffered severe losses in lives and property. With the Nazis in possession of most of Europe, all the advantages will remain with them and victory will be impossible for Great Britain until she gathers sufficient strength to drive their foes out of France, Belgium, Holland etc. With these countries remaining in the hands of the Nazi Great Britain's position will constantly remain perilous.

The fifth columnists flood the papers with their propaganda such as the "white papers etc." but not much of it gets into print. However there is one place where they seem to be making hay while the sun shines and that is in the "Voice of the People" or public letter column in the daily press. The Detroit papers are composed of about two thirds of 5th column or pro-Nazi letters. The letters are against conscription and everything else which means preparedness in this country. When the move was on to bring the children from the European war zones over here to prevent them from starving to death these letter writers condemned the move as propaganda and advised this country to let them starve, giving as a reason that many children in this country did not have enough to eat and why should we bother with children from another nation. This line of reasoning is small, mean and petty.

The state police now have 475,000 prints of the fingers of residents of Michigan on file and will have many more when the alien registration is completed. The objection to finger printing is disappearing. This was caused by the fact that this method of identification was first used by the police to assist in identification of criminals. Later employment in factories and in some cases banks used it to identify employees and customers. It is the greatest method of identification known. The state police keep their 1,259,000 personal finger prints separate from their criminal finger prints.

The schools have had trouble getting in the past year as the school funds have been diverted by the state and held up due to deficiencies in other depts. This has happened to such an extent that Supt. of Public Instruction Elliott seriously considered placing an amendment on the ballot making it impossible to use the school funds for other purposes. Now Attorney General Tom Read has discovered a leak where school funds were used for other purposes. This is the sum of $200,000 from escheated estates which was paid over into the general fund and used for other purposes. The attorney general has ruled that this money was earmarked for the schools and must be returned to them.

While the press as a whole agrees with the transfer of the 50 over-age destroyers from the United States to Great Britain, many of them think it should have been authorized by senate to do so before the deal was consummated. Even Wendell Wilkie agrees with this opinion and approves it but says the senate should have been given the chance to act on it. Still there is a precedent for such action. President Thomas Jefferson purchased the Louisiana Territory without any authority from congress and Theodore Roosevelt also started the construction of the Panama Canal without any authority from congress and also established the Republic of Panama to expediate matters. Congress would have procrastinated months over this question and in this case time is an important element.

WHO'S NEWS THIS WEEK

By LEMUEL F. PARTON

NEW YORK.—Producing "Gone With the Wind" turned David O. Selznick's hair gray. He worked 51 hours without sleep and stoked up on benzadrene every now and then, in order to hang on to the finish.

Liquidating his company, Selznick International Pictures, Inc., shaping a new one to meet changed conditions due to the war, will no doubt be easy after all that. The liquidation and the formation of David O. Selznick Productions, Inc., is a major adjustment in the film industry, after International's Herculean efforts and success in filming the classics.

Although he weighs 200 pounds, Mr. Selznick was always light on his feet. He is a second generation producer, but he started from scratch, after his father, L. J. Selznick, a Russian immigrant, had made and lost millions in the film business. When David was 21, his father had tried to fill some inside straight, without any luck and the young man had a one-dollar bill, with which to start his career, plus some schooling in movie-making and his old man's yen for taking a chance.

He saw possibilities in Luis Angel Firpo for a profitable quickie. He pencilled out a plot, borrowed $2,000 from a friend, paid Firpo $1,000, took a few shorts of the Wild Bull of the Pampas and within three days took a profit of $875 on his film. He went on from there to his gallery of the classics, including "The Tale of Two Cities," "David Copperfield," "Little Lord Fauntleroy," "The Prisoner of Zenda," and "Tom Sawyer."

In Russia, the family name was Zeleznick. Zeleznick pere left home at 12, met disillusionment as a hard-driven factory hand in England, and found his slice of the American dream waiting for him when he landed here, as a jeweler, banker, promoter and film-producer. All this, and his own venturesome career, has made the younger Selznick eager to film America only as a going concern. Six feet, one, muscular and energetic, he has a placid face rarely caught in a frown—unless somebody tells him that "Rebecca" was a better film than "Wind." That burns him up.

THE Nizam of Hyderabad is said to be the richest man in the world, but he gets his shoes half-soled three or four times and wears patched clothing. Hence, his gift of $400,000 to the British to buy American planes is a gesture somewhat like that of the late Hetty Green suddenly buying somebody a drink—and she never drank. As his fortune is rated around $2,000,000,000, the gift represents a similar strain on his resources.

The Nizam, a pale, bent, nervous little man, worried and watchful, lives in splendor, but his sometimes fabulous expenditures are for requirements of state. Although he has 400 up-to-date automobiles, he rides in a 28-year-old car and frequently walks quite a distance to save gas. For ceremonial journeys he keeps a train steamed up, with 22 pullmans needed to accommodate his entourage.

This writer never could get it quite straight as to how many men the Nizam could bury in diamonds. Estimates vary from four to seven. At any rate, there are always "men working" signs around his palace, as his diamonds, emeralds, rubies and gold-pieces are being shoveled this way and that. He fusses a lot about just where and how his treasure is stored, and is always adding it up and shifting it somewhere else.

In 1926, the British were worried about signs of unrest among the Mohammedan potentate's 15,000,000 subjects. There were reports that he was becoming autocratic, and if anyone drove up in a car he liked, he might add it to his collection. The viceroy interfered and certain controls were set up which seemed to settle everything nicely.

The thrifty Nizam has a playboy son, Prince Nawab Azam Jah, who thinks his father makes a mistake, like old Fañnr, in just sitting on his gold. He is firm in the belief that his pater's wealth ought to be out in circulation.

In the World war, the Nizam was supposed to be a laggard in empire co-operation at first, but at the time of the U-boat crisis suddenly made generous contributions to defense. He has 50 palaces, a splendid seraglio, and is reported to have about 100 sons and daughters.

Germany Holds Japan in Check; British Approach Nazi Airpower

German Air Losses Are High; Harold Ickes's Showing on 'Information Please' Program Annoys Senator Carter Glass.

By CARTER FIELD (Released by Western Newspaper Union.) WASHINGTON.—There is no way of confirming either in Washington in Berlin, or in Tokyo, the most interesting report that comes out of China—that Hitler has refused his permission to Japan to grab French Indo-China and the Dutch East Indies. The general idea of the report is that Hitler is unwilling to permit Japan to seize such a large percentage of the fruits of his victory over France and Holland, in view of the fact that Nippon has contributed so little to the Nazi effort.

The report further states that, some time back, when the Germans approached Japann about sending her navy to join those of Italy and Germany, with a view to annihilating the British fleet, the Japanese preferred watchful waiting. Now, the report goes on, the Nazis feel that they have victory within their grasp without calling on Japan, and they do not propose to see Japan make the same sort of territorial profit, only on a much larger scale, that she made from the last World war. That time, also, the Germans remember bitterly, Japan paid a very small price in military effort for her gains.

But while the report, for obvious reasons, cannot be confirmed, there is an inclination in official circles here to accept it at almost face value. It is too logical to be utterly untrue.

Further, there is another reason why the Germans might view with alarm Japanese aggression in the Dutch East Indies. They remember the amazement with which the whole world heard the sharp caution of Secretary of State Cordell Hull that this country would be much disturbed at any change in ownership of the Dutch East Indies.

Berlin Distrusts U. S. Defense Preparations

At first blush it might seem that, if the Germans are worried about the possibility of the United States getting into the war, they might welcome a diversion in the Far East calculated to keep Uncle Sam very busy until the war in Europe is over. This, of course, might be the German reasoning, but it is not thought here that it is. Berlin is extremely distrustful of every move Washington is making toward preparedness. There are indications that the Nazis do not want the United States on a war basis, entirely aside from any fear that this country might actually enter the European war.

The administration in Washington, of course, believes that Hitler intends activities in Latin America after he has won the Battle of Britain, but that he has always calculated that pacifist sentiment in the United States would prevent this country from being able to do anything to stop him before it was too late.

All of this seems far afield from the Dutch East Indies, but the Nazis know that once in the war, even if it were against Japan alone and not directed primarily at Europe, it would be a very easy step for this country to go all the way.

German Pilots Suffer From Insufficient Training

One of the reasons why the British have been able to bring down such a heavy toll of Nazi fliers in proportion to their own loss of airplanes, according to Capt. Harold H. Balfour, British undersecretary for air, is that the Nazis have been sending aviators into battle without sufficient training. Another is that the British fighting planes are very much superior to any of the various German types. Still a third, when it comes to big aircraft, according to Captain Balfour, is that the Germans cramp their crews, and actually interfere with their effectiveness, in order to have the individual men close together physically. This is thought necessary by the Germans in order that the physical closeness may aid in maintaining morale in emergencies.

Germany has been prodigiously wasteful of the lives of her aviators, Captain Balfour thinks, sending them out not only with insufficient training, but with inadequate information as to the objectives. Britain's "luck" in losing so few bombing planes attacking objectives in Germany and along the channel, he thinks, is due to infinitely better training, superior planes, and most important of all, that the training permitted night instead of day raiding.

In fact, Captain Balfour is highly optimistic about eventual victory, this largely because of some inherent weakness in the direction of the Nazi air force. With every passing day, he says, the only superiority the Germans have, of numbers, is being decreased.

Whether Captain Balfour's reasons are accurate or not, and there is no obvious flaw in them, it is apparent that, despite German official claims, the Germans are losing a very heavy percentage of the planes they send out to "pulverize" England, and so far, according to U. S. official sources of information, the damage has not been important from a military standpoint, horrifying as it may be from the humanitarian aspect.

Harold Ickes Appears On 'Information Please'

Sen. Carter Glass, despite his fiery temper and the ease with which it can be aroused, has never committed murder. This is a record, considering his 82 years, which his friends commend very highly, in view of the number of times they were unable to understand how he was able to restrain himself.

But the old man is getting soft, or perhaps it is the mellowing influence of his honeymoon, for Harold L. Ickes is still alive as this is written. The point of all this is that, in an effort to demonstrate to the country that making a showing on the "Information Please" radio hour is not much of a stunt, and that folks are attaching entirely too much importance to the showing Wendell L. Willkie made over the air and in the news-reels in his unrehearsed performance as co-star with John Kieran and F. P. A.

So Honest Harold appeared, with the two stars just mentioned and Kenneth F. Simpson, the New York Republican leader, as a fellow guest. It is tough to admit but Ickes did not show up very well, and in his polite but misguided efforts to help the prominent New Dealer out, Clinton Fadiman, the interlocutor, did not help things any.

The question was in the administration of what President the federal reserve act was passed. Ickes had his hand up right away, and, unfortunately for the feelings of Senator Glass, Fadiman ignored John Kieran, who KNEW, and called on the secretary of the interior. Ickes promptly said this happened in the Harding administration.

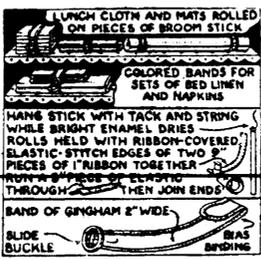

In the roundtable discussion which followed it appeared that both Fadiman and Ickes seemed to have gotten the notion that Wilson followed Harding in the White House, instead of the other way round. Stage fright, probably, on Ickes' part, for he certainly knew better.

But the trouble about Senator Glass' reaction is that, of all the things he has done in his long and useful life, the one he is proudest of is that he fathered the federal reserve act. It was he who was chairman of the house banking and currency committee at the time of its passage, and his colleagues in both house and senate have always given him more credit than any other man for piloting it through not only the house of representatives, but through the conference committee which adjusted the differences in details of the bills as they passed the house and senate.

To old-line Democrats, incidentally, of whom Senator Glass is admittedly rather outstanding, one of the great achievements of their party in the last generation is the reform of the banking system. This reform met the problems so clearly shown in the 1907 panic, for which the Aldrich-Vreeland bill was a hastily rushed through specific, and it also brought control of the country's system to Washington, taking it away from Wall Street.

And Harold Ickes thought it was done under Warren G. Harding, who was an obscure editor at the time.

HOW TO SEW by Ruth Wyeth Spears

many pieces than to fold them. The best napkins may be banded in blue and white, luncheon mats may be rolled on a red stick with a red band and green may be used for the bridge table cloth. Linen holders like these would make attractive gifts, too. And speaking of shelves and drawers; girls adore the stocking case in Book 3, and the drawer pads in Book 4; and they make dainty gifts for any one. The table cloth case in Book 2 is another good linen closet idea.

MODERN linen closets are tucked in spare corners all over the house, always as close as possible to the place that the linens will be needed. Towels may be found in the bathroom, napkins in the pantry or kitchen and bed linens near the bed rooms.

I have sketched the whole story here of how one homemaker keeps her linen shelves in order. She likes to keep things in sets identified with colored bands and thinks it is more efficient to roll

GERMAN POWER

A report has reached Washington that Japan has not seized Dutch and French possessions in Indo-China because she has received threats from Germany, according to Carter Field. He reports that Carter Glass was irked when Ickes stated that the federal reserve act was passed during the Harding administration. This act is Glass' proudest achievement.

TO HONOR JUDGE WIEST

An old-fashioned ox roast at the "Shagbark", the country home of Justice Howard Wiest of the Michigan Supreme Court, will feature the fifth annual State Bar convention which will be held at Lansing September 19, 20 and 21. The State Bar purchased the largest steer - coming from a prize herd - which was sold in the Detroit market during the past sixty days for the occasion. It will take forty-eight hours to cook the ox, which will be roasted whole. Over a thousand lawyers are expected to attend the event and pay their respects to Justice Wiest, Justice Wiest, who is dean of Michigan's judiciary, enjoys fame as a host that rival his fame as a jurist. His picnic at "Shagbark" during the past quarter of a century have already made him and "Shagbark" legendary among Michigan lawyers.

The Bar convention opens September 19 with the annual business meeting in the House of Representatives' Chamber in the Capitol Building at Lansing. That evening, lawyers' ladies are invited to a dinner yet attending the convention, and dance at the Hotel Olds arranged by the Ingham County Bar Association.

Friday, September 20, the Bar will honor the Michigan Supreme Court with a testimonial luncheon, and the annual banquet of the organization is scheduled for evening of the same day. Legal institutes on taxation, insurance and administrative agencies are included in the convention program.

Betram Votral and Mike Lankin of Bethlehem, Pa., were Saturday callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Reason.

How To Reconcile Your Account
The following method of reconciling the balance as shown by your check stubs with the balance shown on your bank statement is suggested by the Legal Department of the American Bankers Association.
1. Sort checks numerically, or by date.
2. Compare returned vouchers with list of checks on the statement. The number should agree.
3. On your stubs check off each item paid by the bank. Make a list of the numbers and amounts of those still outstanding. To the sum of the outstanding checks add the balance as shown on your check book.
4. Next list all deposits which do not appear on the statement. Add this total to the balance shown by the statement.
The two results should agree and if so, the statement rendered is correct.

MASONIC RESOLUTIONS ON DEATH OF BROTHER CLAUDE REASON

Whereas, It has pleased the Great Creator of the universe to call Brother Claude Reason from labor on the earth to rest and immortality in the Grand Lodge above, where the Supreme Grand Master himself presides; therefore be it

Resolved: That we acknowledge the wisdom and goodness of our Supreme Grand Master, and bow in humble submission to the inevitable order from the Supreme Grand East. He departed this life full of years -- ripened with age and experience. He was a just and upright Mason, a faithful husband and father, an honorable and useful citizen, a sincere friend, a courteous and obliging neighbor, a man who endeavored always to perform every duty, -- to his God, his country, his family, his lodge, his neighbor and himself honestly, faithfully and well.

We sympathize with the bereaved family and keenly mourn his departure.

Resolved: That our Charter be draped the customary time, a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of our lodge and a copy be published in the Pinckney Dispatch.

NEW TYPE DIRECTORY

Adoption of a new kind of type for directories of the Michigan Bell Telephone Company that will make listings easier to read than now, has been announced today by J. E. Johnson, local manager for the company.

The new type, known as "Bell Gothic" is to be used in virtually all forthcoming directories of the company throughout its territory, including the one at this exchange. Bell Gothic differs chiefly from the present type face used in directories in having thinner characters, allowing more space about the characters and thus making for greater legibility.

The next issue of the local telephone directory here will be published in March.

"The Table Talks". A stirring novel of thrilling incidents and sustained suspense by Jonathan Stagger well-known author. Begin this dramatic story of exciting escapades and diabolical deeds in The American Weekly, the magazine distributed with next week's Sunday Chicago Herald-American.

For your 1942 telephone call

At some future time . . . let us say some morning in 1942 . . . you will want to make a telephone call. You still will want a quick, clear connection. The necessary equipment . . . switchboards, cables, wires, vacuum tube repeaters, test boards, and so on . . . is so complex that it simply cannot be assembled overnight. That's why we are working on your 1942 call now! We must develop and build for it in advance. Long experience has taught us that while serving the present, we also must be preparing constantly for the still greater demands of the future.

For Detroit Edison Customers:

A SERVICE offered without charge

Good lighting in your home is more than just a matter of a lamp bulb here and there, or a few shades on fixtures. There are certain fundamental rules to be observed. You may be surprised to know that there is a correct amount of light for every room in your house, and that you can MEASURE this light with the Light Meter as accurately as your grocer weighs food on his scales. Nothing is left to doubt or guesswork.

Part of your Detroit Edison service--included at no extra charge--is the use of a Light Meter to check the illumination in your house . . . to help you get the right amount of light for easy, comfortable seeing and to safeguard your family's eyesight. This does not necessarily mean larger lamp bulbs. It means providing the right quality of light. We invite you to use the Light Meter. It is no larger than a tiny camera--you can hold it in the palm of your hand. And it is really fun to use!

Ready to serve you without charge--as part of your regular Detroit Edison service--is our Home Lighting staff. Helpful, courteous advisors will come to your home and assist you in every way possible with your lighting. For advice about the selection of a lamp . . . about a choice of shades or colors, to harmonize with your furnishings . . . about a novel lighting fixture for a den or recreation room . . . about a Sight Saver lamp for your child . . . you are invited to call a Home Lighting Advisor. Phone your Detroit Edison office.

With the opening of school comes football. This year there are twenty football teams expected. We hope to boys out for this sport. A very successful team is expected. We hope to come through with high honors.

The largest class in high school is Junior Business Training in which there are forty-five pupils. Later on the class will be divided into two classes. Next comes bookkeeping in which there are thirty-five pupils. This year's Latin class is the largest it has been in many years.

On Tuesday of this week the N. Y. A. team were guests of Walter O. Friggs in Detroit and saw the Detroit-Boston game.

The Senior class this year is the largest class since 1935. There are 21 in it. There are 20 in the Junior class, 23 in the sophomore class, 27 in the freshmen class and 17 in the 8th grade. The enrollment this year has increased considerably.

PINCKNEY SCHOOL NOTES

Football practice started last week with 20 men out. The boys are working hard and expect to have a good team this year. Their schedule is as follows:
Sept. 29 -- Hartland there.
Oct. 4 -- South Lyon there
Oct. 11 -- Hartland here
Oct. 18 -- Ann Arbor there
Oct. 25 -- Linden here.
Nov. 8 -- Stockbridge here

NEW 95 MILE CABLE

Accelerating its traditional policy of preparedness against possible emergencies, the Michigan Bell Telephone Company announced today that it has just started construction of a new 95-mile cable extending east and west across the heavy industrial section of the state.

The cable, according to George M. Welch, president of the company will serve as an alternate route for existing channels and also will provide relief for those over which usage is approaching the capacity stage. Estimated to involve gross expenditures of nearly $640,000, the cable will be built underground along private right-of-way.

This will be the largest single extension of the company's $10,000,000 trans-Michigan cable network in several years. Two smaller extensions -- one north and south and the other east and west -- also are being built.

President Welch said that the new cable extension is designed not only to enable the company to keep ahead of normal growth of usage, but also to meet any unexpected demand that may arise.

On 30 miles of the route, the cable will contain 129 circuits. On the remaining 65 miles, the number of available circuits will be increased 185.

Looking to continuity and reliability of service, the new cable will be placed under continuous gas pressure throughout the distance. This device expedites the location of trouble and subsequent repair.

Philathea Notes

We had another very interesting Sunday School lesson on "Inviting Others to Worship God". Our time is too limited to get far into the lesson, but Mrs. Peck gave a helpful account of the history of Psalm 96 and of music in worship. There was a helpful discussion of many points in the lesson.

On next wonderful topic, for September 15, is "The Ever-present God". Psalm 139:1-12, 23, 24. We urge you to come and join with our class or some other group in our Church School, in the study of these helpful passages.

According to the "Michigan Conference News" for September, this is Stephen Lloyd year" in honor of Dr. Lloyd's ten years of service as superintendent.

The autumn meeting of the Jackson Association is to be held on Wednesday, October 2nd, at "Jackson First".

This community was shocked on Sunday morning by the news of the sudden passing of Mr. Claude Reason, one of Pinckney's business men. The family have the sincere sympathy of our class and all church circles.

A 16 months old steer from the Hendren Bros. herd of Black Angus of Fowlerville was awarded grand champion prize at the Michigan State Fair.

CONSERVATION NOTES

Thirty-one state parks will close in the four weeks following September 15. Another 25 will remain open for late fall picnics. Hunters and fishermen may continue to use state parks, though water and electricity will be shut off.

A single one acre forest fire in the 20th week of the 1940 season is the best record established since May when one wet spring week had no fires.

More ducks for Michigan hunters is indicated by the survey now being made.

The annual drain on the forest resources of the lake states is still more than twice the annual growth.

Temperature conditions are about the same in Michigan as in the states 150 to 200 miles south.

The attempt to rear sturgeon at the Allegan rearing pond has failed. Ten full grown fish were placed there last May. Three died and the other failed to produce any young.

40 miles of gravelled road is being built across the Lake Superior State forest, linking Marias and Paradise.

On certain designated lakes and streams trout fishing will continue through September, October and November.

There are now 54 hunting corporations working under the Williamson plan which control 225,000 acres of hunting lands.

One rainbow trout tagged and released in the Pigeon river in 1939 was found recently at a points 17 miles off Sarnia, Ontario, a migration of 260 miles.

The total value of all wild life in the United States is one billion dollars. The value of the meat and fur of wild animals is 190 million and the total of the hunters annual expenditures is 158 million. Nearly 14 million dollars are paid annually in this country for hunting and fishing licenses.

ST. MARY'S CHURCH

The 20th anniversary Requiem Mass was offered Monday for the Godfrey Sauve, son of Mrs. Bertha Sauve DeWitt of Portage Lake, as a child he always spent his vacation at the cottage which is called after him, "The Godfrey Cottage" Portage Lake after an absence of several years, his mother has reoccupied her cottage, which is under the process of being made into a permanent home. The Sauve-De Witt families are among our very finest summer tourist's residents and parishioners. Their wholesomeness is charm and grace to each and every function which they attend.

We extend our sympathy and condolence to the late Mr. Claude Reason's family in the death of their devoted father, and Mrs. Reason's devoted companion, husband. You are all in our thoughts, prayers in your hearts.

There will be a card party, social at the Church Home Club Rooms, Thursday, September 12th, at 8 p. m. Public is invited. Progressive games of Pedro, euchre, or your own Tickets 25c. Lunch. Prizes offered choice social game may be enjoyed.

The following committee is appointed to assist: Mr. and Mrs. Roland Sclan, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Singer, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson, Miss Mary and Miss Gertrude Spears, Francis Shehan, Don Murphy, Keith Ledwidge and Miss Eileen Kuhn.

The Wilding Moving Picture Co. will make pictures in our district on Saturday, September 14th, at 12 o'clock noon, until 4 p. m. The scene will be at the White Lodge Country Club. To be in the picture you must be present promptly at 12 o'clock noon, Saturday. Bring a basket, provided with your own choice food for self, family and friends whom you are free to invite, as you eat and enjoy the social, all free, you will have your place in the great picture. It will be a splendid opportunity for your friends all over the state, and the whole U. S. to see you, your beautiful children, wonderful neighbors, and picturesque country. It will be an asset to your community, teach others what God has given you here and invite them, when traveling to come spend a vacation nearby us. The name Pinckney, its community, people, lakes, rivers, and wonderful people will be better known. Its churches, school, trees, streets, hills, valleys, will add to the charm of your name, history, all boost for a large turnout and glamorous success. Your church will profit $100.00 by your efforts, attendance.

When you boost your school and church you boost for the build up of your own home and honor. Those who act indifferently never build up a nation of civilization or Christianity. It's a terrible thing today to be a destroyer by lack of interest, lack of co-operation, lack of pulling together. Our Lord himself has declared you are either with him or against Him. He does not tolerate those who are against Him. Pull together and you win. A chain is only as strong as its weakest link.

The Rev. J. J. Welmut, P. D. of Loyola University, who offered the 8 o'clock mass Sunday has returned to his university for the re-opening of classes this week. Father is in charge of the higher studies in mathematics. Sunday he preached a very instructive sermon on the dignity of man in relation to the Blessed Virgin Mary. Devotions were also held in tribute to the day of prayers for peace, which was requested by our President of the U. S. at Washington, D. C.

Prayers and the Holy Mass were offered Sunday of this week for the late mother of the Rev. Father Koelzers of Detroit. Mrs. Koelzers was buried in Detroit last Saturday. She has relatives living at Portage Lake.

A mission will open here October 20. The noted Father Thomas M. Kennedy, O. S. M. who is nationally known as an outstanding speaker will preside and speak during the entire week. The public is invited throughout the Mission. He will also open the Novena of our Sorrowful Mother at the Mission Novena.

HOUSEHOLD QUESTIONS

Light colored painted furniture must be carefully washed to retain its luster. Wash it well first with warm water and mild soap suds to which a few drops of ammonia have been added (one teaspoon of ammonia for each gallon of water). Quickly rinse well with cold water. Wipe dry. Then polish with cloth into which a little furniture polish is rubbed.

The flavor of apple pie is greatly improved by sprinkling a little lemon juice over the layers of sliced apples as they are placed in the pan.

Add chopped parsley, minced sweet pickles or finely cut olives to mayonnaise used in summer salads.

When preparing gelatin desserts, if left-over fruit juice is used instead of water, the desserts will be much richer.

Bake apples with only a small amount of sugar so that the characteristic flavor is not disturbed.

To remove a slight iron scorch mark from white clothes rub the scorched area lightly with peroxide. Then rinse it thoroughly in cold water. Peroxide removes the color from colored clothes, however.

Facts of ADVERTISING

ADVERTISING represents the leadership of a nation. It points the way. We merely follow—follow to new heights of comfort, of convenience, of happiness. As time goes on advertising is used more and more, and as it is used more we all profit more. It's the way advertising has—of bringing a profit to everybody concerned, the consumer included.

Money Sent Overseas Increases

From Low Depression Point In 1935 Bureau Reports Steady Recovery.

WASHINGTON. — More than $1,270,000,000 was remitted to foreign countries by American institutions, mostly religious, during the period from 1919 to 1939, according to a study made by August Maffry of the finance division of the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce. Protestant organizations sent $599,800,000, Catholics $89,600,000, Jews $149,000,000 and non-sectarians $431,400,000.

"Data on remittances abroad in individual years since 1919 indicate that the period of reconstruction and rehabilitation following the World war of 1914-18 called forth an outpouring of institutional gifts to foreign countries not equalled either before or since," Mr. Maffry said. "In 1919 the amount of these contributions was approximately $140,000,000 and, in the following two years $118,000,000 and $106,000,000, respectively. "The total decreased steadily from 1919 through 1935 and then increased during the next four years. In 1924 the figure had fallen to $71,000,000, or to half of the 1919 estimate, whereas during the succeeding five years the amount fell slowly, at the rate of $3,000,000 annually, to $55,000,000 in 1929.

Gifts at Lowest Ebb in 1935. "Remittances abroad in 1935 were $27,000,000. At this level, they were only half as large as in 1929 and less than a fifth of the 1919 aggregate. "During very recent years, 1936-39, the amount of institutional gifts increased considerably. This development, which will become pronounced in 1940 as a result of large contributions for European war relief, is traceable both to the general improvement in the resources of individual donors and to widespread distress and suffering in Europe and Asia. Including collections for war relief, contributions to foreign cause through religious and other groups in 1939 reached $43,000,000, the highest figure since 1931." Looking at the geographical distribution of the American remittances, Mr. Maffry had the following to report:

"The bulk of Protestant remittances—70 per cent on the average—go to Asiatic countries. The principal recipients are India, China, and Japan, in the order named. Substantial amounts are used also for missions work in Latin America and in Africa.

"About two-thirds of Catholic contributions are sent to Europe. Virtually all of the remainder goes to Asia, notably to China.

Palestine Remittances Rise. "Germany and Poland in Europe and Palestine in Asia each received about half of all Jewish remittances to foreign countries in the years 1937-39, although the proportion devoted to European undertakings was previously considerably higher. Small remittances to Latin America in very recent years were presumably made in connection with the emigration of European Jews to certain South American countries.

"Contributions through nonsectarian organizations for educational, scientific and philanthropic purposes go chiefly to Europe and Asia, with the large share destined generally for Europe. The countries bordering the eastern Mediterranean, on the one hand, and China, on the other, receive substantial sums each year, whereas relatively small amounts are sent to countries in Latin America and other areas."

Old Dobbin Takes a Dip

Maybe it was the heat—but whatever caused it, this horse just couldn't resist the waters of New York's East river so over he went, from one of the city's piers. Police, firemen, department of sanitation men, men from the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals and numerous volunteers had to co-operate before Dobbin was brought to shore.

Reddy Fox by Thornton W. Burgess

THE CUNNING OF OLD MAN COYOTE

IN ONE thing Old Man Coyote is very like Granny and Reddy Fox—he has no real friends. There are plenty who think him very smart, and in a way look up to him because of his cunning, but he hasn't any real friends. People who live by their wits seldom do have. If the truth be known they do not want him way to go about bragging of what he has done. No, indeed! Old Man Coyote is far too cunning for that. The very next day after he had dined on that duck he went up to the duck pond to see how things looked and while he lay hidden in the tall grass a fat duck sat down right in front of his nose and quacked loudly in the foolish way ducks have. What do you think Old Man Coyote did to that foolish and heedless duck? No, you guessed wrong that time. He didn't seize it and take it away for another good dinner, although he wanted it so much that the water trickled from the corners of his mouth. He didn't touch so much as a feather of that foolish duck, and that shows how cunning he is.

boy was certain that Reddy could not get at them then. It must be that he lay in wait for them very early in the morning, when they were let out to swim in the pond. So every morning for a week Farmer Brown's boy hid where he could watch the ducks after they were let out. There he lay until the breakfast bell called him in, and after breakfast he went out and counted the ducks. None were missing. Yet some time during the week one was taken.

The truth is, Old Man Coyote was so cunning that he stole those ducks right in broad daylight, in the very middle of the day. He knew that no one would expect anything to happen to them then, and so no one would be on the watch. And no one was. And as he always took the greatest care that the other ducks should not be frightened and that the one caught should not have a chance to quack or make a sound, no one suspected him. Oh, he was very sly and cunning, was Old Man Coyote, and, as Farmer Brown's boy said, it seemed as if those ducks just melted away. Finally he tried shutting the ducks up all day as well as all night, and then it was the chickens that began to disappear. Farmer Brown's boy was in despair. He couldn't watch them all day because there was too much work to be done.

"It's that fox! It must be that fox!" said he. "I guess I've got to go hunting after all. I had about made up my mind that I would put my gun away and never get it out again, but I can't afford to lose all my ducks and chickens."

So he waited a week, and, sure enough, Farmer Brown's boy had stopped counting his ducks. Then Old Man Coyote dined again royally. But the next one he took Farmer Brown's boy did miss, and when he counted his flock of course he found out that this was the third to disappear, and right away he made up his mind that the thief must be caught and punished. But who was the thief? There was a question, indeed. He strongly suspected Reddy Fox. He felt sure that it must be Reddy Fox. But if it was, when did Reddy do it? The ducks were shut up at night, and Farmer Brown's

Relation Patch in Marriage
WEED PATCH, CALIF.—Here is one to bring up at puzzle parties: When Dillie Ann Darden, 61, and Thomas E. Dunn, 77, exchanged "I do's" at the altar, the bride's daughter found herself married to her brother—by marriage. For the new Mrs. Dunn's daughter previously had married Dunn's son—which made Mrs. Dunn's son-in-law her stepson as well, and Mrs. Dunn's daughter's husband a stepbrother of his own wife.

Irish Coast Guard Sows Death in Dublin Bay

Members of Eire's coast guard are shown in three stages of mine-laying operations as they speeded de-mine measures for the protection of the Irish coast against the possibility of attack by invading naval forces. The mine is of a remote control type which can be set off from shore stations by throwing an electric switch. Premier Eamon de Valera has rallied his countrymen in a program to protect Eire's neutrality and be ready to defend the Emerald Isle in case of attack.

LEARN CRAFTS WITH HONEYSUCKLE VINES, CORN STALKS

ASHEVILLE, N. C.—Miss Minnie Reese has not yet started teaching her pupils to make silk purses out of sows' ears, but they are waiting to hear the word. She is director of a welfare crafts shop located in the basement of Asheville's city hall. Impoverished men and women who come to her have learned to: Carve ashtrays and miscellaneous articles from scrap wood.

Make other ashtrays and letter openers from discarded pieces of metal. Turn honeysuckle vines into baskets. Extract dyes from ordinary red clay. Hook rugs from worn-out silk hose. Make doornaths and straw hats from corn stalks. Fashion gourds into dolls.

Miss Reese conducts her classes five days each week, with special days devoted to each of the varied arts. Some of the students, she said, merely want to learn some useful hobby, but the majority are in need of a job that can support them. The shop itself is furnished with the students' handwork, including the curtains. They are dyed with her red clay dye, which also has

CREATING NEW WEALTH TO ORDER

Advertising creates new wealth by showing people new and better ways of living, and so it creates new wealth. It contributes to the prosperity of everyone touched by the flow of money which is set up. In this way, don't you see, advertising is a social force which is working in the interest of every one of us every day of the year, bringing us new wealth to see and enjoy.

Casual Dress That Flatters the Figure

NOTHING is more important during the summer—and every season for that matter—than this type of casual frock, softly tailored and classically simple. This version (Design No. 1962-B) is ideal for women's figures, because it has a high-busted, narrow-hipped line. And that perfection of line is achieved so simply—merely by means of long darts that narrow the waistline and break into soft fullness above and below. Gathers on the shoulders are the only other detailing. The rest is just long, straight seams. You can judge, therefore, how easy this dress is to make. But you can't really tell what a distinctive, comfortable, charming fashion it is until you have it on. Then you'll repeat it many times, in silk print, rayon sheers, and street cottons like linen and batiste.

Barbara Bell Pattern No. 1962-B is designed for sizes 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 34 requires with long sleeves, 5 1/2 yards of 39-inch material; with short, 4 1/2 yards. Send order to:

TRUTH Today's popularity of Doan's Pills, after many years of world-wide use, surely must be accepted as evidence of satisfactory use. And favorable public opinion supports that of the able physicians who test the value of Doan's under exacting laboratory conditions. These physicians, too, approve every word of advertising you read, the objective of which is only to recommend Doan's Pills as a good diuretic treatment for disorder of the kidney function and for relief of the pain and worry it causes. If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove waste that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole body suffers when kidneys lag, and diuretic medication would be more often employed. Earning scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warn of disturbed kidney function. You may suffer nagging back-ache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel weak, nervous, all played out. Use Doan's Pills. It is better to rely on a medicine that has won world-wide acclaim than on something less favorably known. Ask your neighbor!

Tread Softly!

When you start talking about the rural school situation, someone is sure to warn, "Better go easy!" You are going to tread on someone's toes.

The sentiment that encircles the community center where Mother went to school (and perhaps Grandma, too) is one of the complicating things in this dollars-and-cents rural educational picture.

In the first place, folks just prefer to run their own affairs. And that goes for their schools.

In every neighborhood whether it be urban or rural you will find certain individuals who are possessed with ability for leadership. They yearn to assert their American right! The school, an institution that is almost as sacred as the church, becomes the object of friendly concern. School leaders become elected commissioners, many of whom receive salaries or fees for their services.

The principle of home rule needs no defense in rural Michigan.

Among its staunch defenders, has been Melville McPherson, for 38 years a school district officer and now chairman of the state tax commission. McPherson knows his taxes!

-196,000 Annual Saving?

Translating a generalization into pocketbook terms, the office of Dr. Elliott in Lansing has estimated it would be possible to effect saving of approximately $196,000 a year in shutting down these 596 one-room schools.

Pupils would be transported by a bus to nearby centers.

This conclusion was reached after a study had been made of "before and after" costs of seven grade school districts in Barry County.

These districts continue as legal units. They merely pay pupils' transportation and tuition costs. Here are some interesting figures.

Before. Total cost of running the seven schools was $5,926.51, or an average of $846.64 per district.

After. Total cost of transportation and tuitions was $3,811.45, or an average of $515.92 per district.

Division. Net annual saving per district is $30.72. Sharpen your pencil and the total for 596 schools would be a bit more than $196,000 every year.

That's close to a million dollars in five year's time. In any man's language, the tax economy would be substantial.

"Wasteful" - Dr. Elliott

Sympathetic as he is to the idea of home rule and the community school, Michigan's state superintendent of public instruction takes the position that waste in education must be removed.

Dr. Elliott is quoted: "To pay a teacher, pay the expenses of keeping up the school property, pay salaries or fees to three school commissioners - all for the purpose of providing a school for five or ten children seems wasteful to me. All the surveys on the subject have shown that most of these schools could be closed with advantage.

The above rural school situation is another illustration how times have changed. Good highways and comfortable heated buses have expanded the geographic radius. The modern school curriculum includes subjects other than reading, writing, and arithmetic. To Governor Dickinson some of these courses may constitute "frills" but to many mothers of 1940 they are just as essential as the telephone, electric lights, radio and the family automobile. The difference in viewpoint is largely a difference in ages.

At a time when tax dollars are being called upon to do many duties - almost impossible so at times - it is inevitable that these one-room schools of yesterday will be appraised anew in terms of today's needs.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

A proposed constitutional amendment if adopted by the voters would exempt from the effects of the 15 mill limitation taxes voted to retire school bonds which mature in 15 years and require an annual levy of 12 mills or less.

In other words school bonds falling within the above limitation may be issued by a majority vote of the electors.
