

The Democrat State Convention

A Good Sized Delegation From This County Attended the State Convention at Grand Rapids Monday and Tuesday.

The Democrat State Convention was held at Grand Rapids Monday and Tuesday and the usual good sized Livingston county delegation was present. They were: W. E. Robb, M. J. Lavan, Robert Gates, Mr. and Mrs. McKinley Payn, Wm. Hoagland, Sheriff I. J. Kennedy, Guy Hosley, Russell Woodruff, Bert Hoff, C. Gannon, Margaret Brogan, Mrs. Mae Barron, Francis Barron, Lee Lavey, and P. W. Curlett.

At the district caucuses held on Monday morning Former Congressman Andrew Transue was elected chairman of the 6th district delegation, Margaret Brogan of Howell, vice chairman and Elizabeth Belon of Lansing to the resolutions committee.

The banquet at the civic auditorium in the evening followed. Raymond Starr was toastmaster and the addresses were made by Murray Von Wagoner, candidate for governor and Senator Scott Lucas of Illinois.

The balance of the first day was spent in caucuses with the woods filled with candidates. Finally the district chairman etc., got together and about 2:00 a. m. Tuesday passed out the following ticket: Attorney General, Raymond Starr, Grand Rapids; Treasurer, Theodore Eye, Fremont; Secretary of State, Lee Card, Hillsdale; Auditor General, James Dotsch, Garden; Supreme Court Justice, Circuit Judge Phillip Elliott of Flint. Card is not well known and his choice provoked considerable comment and Senator David Martin of Flint, a candidate for secretary of state refused to withdraw. Dotsch was nominated by acclamation for auditor general. So was Frye for state treasurer. Card and Martin were nominated for secretary of state. However Wayne county voted solidly for Card and Chairman Transue withdrew Martin's name and made the Card nomination unanimous. Starr was nominated by acclamation for attorney general. Transue nominated Elliott for the supreme court and this also went over by acclamation. Then the presidential electors were named.

The convention was completely harmonious and with Murray Von Wagoner and his friends in complete control.

IS ARRESTED FOR THEFT

Wesley Gace, 23, who has been caretaker on the Darwin farm, east of town, for the past eight months, was arrested for theft by state police Saturday. A Mr. Hamill who is in the refrigeration business in Detroit bought the Darwin farm and sent Gace who worked for him in Detroit out here as caretaker. Gace is a Missourian. For some time Hamill has been missing chickens, stock etc. and so have other farmers in that section. State police were called in and found five sheep missing off the farm had been sold by Gace to Sam Campbell of South Lyon who formerly lived here. So Gace was arrested and put in jail. We understand additional evidence against him was given by Nelson Negus who is caretaker on the Markham farm.

MOTION PICTURE FINISHED

The motion picture made by the Wilding Pictures Inc. at White Lodge Country Club for the Goodyear Tire Co. was finished Saturday. On account of cloudy weather it was not completed the previous week. The cast of 800 was furnished by the Congregational and Catholic churches and the school. Each organization got $100 and $10 extra for coming back Saturday. It was a picnic scene. Don Clark won the pie eating contest over Wesley Palmer, L. D. Haines, Maynard Clark and others. Garth Meyer won the sack race and C. H. Kennedy the potato race. The tug of war was an even affair but finally a team composed of P. H. Swarouth, John Chambers, Louis Coyle, Will Nash, was declared the winner over a team composed of R. K. Elliott, Rev. Murphy, N. White.

This company made two pictures here last year using local talent and expect to come back again to make pictures.

County Conventions Held Last Week

Republican Convention is Held at Howell Last Wednesday and Democrats on Thursday Night. Both are Harmonious.

Both parties held their conventions at the court house in Howell last week. The prime object of these conventions is to nominate delegates to the state conventions where supreme court justice, attorney general auditor general, secretary of state and state treasurer are nominated. Both state conventions are to be held at Grand Rapids this week. The Democrats meet Monday and Tuesday and the G. O. P. Republicans the next two days. However the county conventions are to introduce the candidates on the county ticket, promulgate party principals and give the faithful warhorses of the party a chance to wave the flag and let off steam.

At the Republican convention held Wednesday Henry Ross was temporary chairman and opened the convention. Glenn Mack was elected permanent chairman and Jack McDonald acted as secretary. A resolutions and credentials committee was appointed. 12 delegates were nominated to the state convention. Pep speeches were made by Hiram Smith and Herbert Gillett. Bert Daller of Pinckney displayed his Harrison and Tyler coin which belonged to his grandfather and is 100 years old and gave it to Henry Ross to present to Wendell Willkie.

The county committee elected by the candidates was as follows: Henry Ross, Brighton, chairman; John McDonald, Howell, secretary; and Cleve Copeland, Fowlerville, treasurer.

The following 12 delegates to the state convention at Grand Rapids, September 27 were elected and were not instructed: Glenn S. Mack, Henry Ross, Miss Sue Barnes, Rex Peckens, E. Reed Fletcher, H. R. Gillett, Jay P. Sweeney, S. J. Tomlin, Thuber Cornell, Charles Showerman, Fred Woodworth, Bert Rubbins.

The Democrat convention met on Thursday night and turned out to be a regular love feast. M. J. Lavan chairman, called the convention to order. Lyman Fay was named secretary and Guy Pitkin, mayor of Brighton permanent chairman. The naming of committees was dispensed with. It was voted to send delegates to the state convention for each township, one for each 50 votes cast. This brought the number of delegates to 80. Each township nominated their own. The delegates from Putnam are Lee Lavey, Claude Kennedy and Paul W. Curlett.

The county candidates were then introduced and all were present and responded briefly, appealing for support for all candidates from president down to surveyor. W. E. Robb, Don Van Winkle and Martin J. Lavan were then called upon and made brief speeches, extolling the virtues of Democracy and harmony and prophesying that this year will be a big Democratic year. Miss Margaret Brogan, delegate to the national convention was recognized and Lee Lavey of Pinckney was given a vote of thanks for his services as treasurer on the county committee for the past eight years under three different chairmen, Pfau, Van Winkle, and Lavan.

A resolution offered by Margaret Brogan and seconded by Mrs. Eleanor Ledwidge that a woman be named to the county committee was approved.

Don Van Winkle will act as chairman of the county delegation to the state convention.

The Democrat county committee: Francis Barron, chairman, Russell Woodruff, vice chairman, Lyle Redinger, secretary and Thomas Finlan, treasurer.

The election of the Democrat county committee took place Friday afternoon at the office of M. J. Lavan in Brighton. Three women vice chairmen were also elected. They are Margaret Brogan of Genoa, Mrs. Mary Marshall of Green Oak and Mrs. George Sheridan of Hamburg.

Political Campaigns Go Into Home Stretch. Sentiment of State is to Aid England But Avoid War

Political fireworks will start popping soon. With the Democratic ticket already completed and the Republican state awaiting action at the Grand Rapids state convention opening this Thursday, (Sept 26), the campaign is expected to get under way vigorously.

Wendell Willkie, the Republican standard bearer, invades Michigan on Monday Sept 30 for an address before the national convention of the Republican Women's clubs at Glympia in Detroit. And despite President Roosevelt's insistence that affairs of state will keep from political engagements, Chairman Chas. Porritt and his helpers haven't given up hope yet that the President may inspect Fort Wayne in Detroit on a national defense trip into the midlands.

Both state headquarters are officially optimistic, of course. It's going to be a colorful party, if Mr. and Mrs. John Public will only take their minds off the European tug-of-war. Therein is another story.

Anti-War Sentiment

Word from Washington's congressional row is to the effect that recent mail from the home precincts has been running heavily anti-war.

To give you an idea how Michigan home folks feel about it, here is the roll call on compulsory military service bill: Against it - Senators Arthur Vandenberg (R) and Prentiss Brown (D); Representatives Blackney, Bradley, Crawford, Hoffman, Jbnkman, McLeod, Michener, Shafer, Wolcott and Woodruff (all Republican) and Democrats Dingell, Lesinski, Rabaut, and Tenerowicz.

Out of Michigan's delegation of Republicans Dondero and Engel and 17 congressmen, three did not vote. Democrat Hook. The score, in reality, was an overwhelming protest against conscription, like it or not.

It merely illustrates the observation, oft made, that congressmen are responsive to the feelings of the folk back home. In this case, the mail has been heavy anti-conscription and anti-war. An election is looming, too. Memory is also fresh that Senator Vandenberg, opposed to conscription won a smashing primary victory.

Public Opinion

If the congressional vote and the mailbag trend is any accurate index of Michigan public opinion, the anti-conscription forces will have some bearing on the November election.

Both parties nominees are busy trying to pin the appeasement label on the other, while both have also announced in unmistakable words a

HOWELL POSTMASTER NOMINATED

Saturday's Detroit News carried a Dispatch to the effect that the name of Alfred Pfau of Isoco had been sent to the senate with the recommendation that he be appointed postmaster of Howell. He is a former Isoco supervisor, was Democrat county chairman from 1932-36 and served as postmaster at Howell since 1936. When his term expired this spring an examination was called for the office. This was later cancelled. Then another examination was called and held in which about 7 took the test. Nothing was heard until recently when all who took the examination but Pfau were disqualified, the reason being given that they did not meet the minimum requirements. This confusion has caused all sorts of wild rumors which will probably end now as nomination is usually equivalent to approval.

Alfred Pfau

COMMENT "By Ye Editor"

The radio vox populi interviews conducted by Duncan Moore each night at 10:30 in various Michigan cities is interesting although it is evident at times that the people will step up on him. Many when asked why they do not support Roosevelt for president this year usually reply that they do not believe in a third term. Further questioning usually reveals that they voted for Landon in 1936 and Hoover in 1932 so the third term idea hardly figured then. Also they seem to see nothing wrong in state or county officers seeking third terms or 10th consecutive terms. In other words a third term is only wrong when President Roosevelt is the candidate. In many counties office holders have held office 20 years or more and no one sees any evil in it.

Gov. Dickinson seems to be conducting a purge of his primary opponents. Recently he gave out an interview in which he stated that Mr. Miller Duncel and Thon Read having been defeated in their attempts to defeat him owed it to the people of Michigan not to be candidates to succeed themselves as state treasurer and attorney general and hinted that he would throw his strength against them in the convention next week. Duncel saw the handwriting on the wall and withdrew. Tom Read, however, backed by the McKay forces has shown a disposition to fight it out with the venerable governor. However with McKeighan of Genesee county beaten and Barnard's status in Wayne county in doubt, he was apparently beaten. McKay's control of the convention is in doubt and Read may be forced out in the interests of harmony as without McKeighan and Barnard, McKay will lose control. The anti-boss forces with the governor's backing will probably win.

For many many years past candidates have been running on a platform promising to cut governmental expenses, especially in this state. Invariably the expenses instead of reducing went up. Back in the past Fred Green beat Alex Grobeck on the issue but no economic followed. Instead they have steadily increased until today they are the highest ever. Back in 1932-34 when Wm. Comstock was governor the state payroll was $21,720,808. During Frank Fitzgerald's term 1935-36 it was $24,405,587. In Gov. Frank Murphy's term it increased to $35,815,872 and during the present term of Governor Dickinson it reached an all time high of $38,597,960. None of these men were to blame for this increased cost in state government. It is the trend of the times for centralized government and the urge to shift the tax burden from local to state units. For years all the state revenue was raised by the property tax or most of it. The 15 mill amendment shifted this burden to the sales tax, liquor tax and other new depts. in which only the state can make the collection. Despite who ever is elected governor in November, the state operating expenses are due for another climb.

Thanksgiving falls on November 29 this year but Gov. Dickinson has announced he will designate November 21 as the day. When President Roosevelt set Thanksgiving back a week a year ago at the request of the merchants of the nation in order to give a longer Xmas shopping period a yell went out that reached from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Now this year all is different and the action of the various governors in carrying out this action causes no comment apparently at all.

A warrant has been issued for Nicholas Katopodis, 21, the feeble minded boy at Ann Arbor who detailed an express train there last week by putting a spike on the track. In the wreck that followed 2 men were killed, the depot demolished and thousands of dollars worth of damage done. Katopodis was committed to the York asylum this year but released after a few months as cured. Evidently his diagnosis was wrong.

NEW YORK.—The urgency of the times is such that perhaps this country needs a good alchemist more than a good five-cent cigar.

Good Alchemist Possibly we have one in Dr. Samuel Colville Lind, who offers what appears to this department to be the first soundly conservative sanction for the possible availability of atomic power—power in our time.

At the Detroit meeting of the American Chemical Society, starting its national defense inventory of chemical skills and resources, Dr. Lind reports a startling advance toward the power riches of the metal uranium 235. Hit a few atoms of U-235 with 50 electron volts and you draw off 200,000,000 electron volts. It looks like a power millennium, which this country could use just now. Dr. Lind says there is plenty of uranium and that the seizure of its power is a practical possibility, not nullified by high costs of the process. Cutting the power atom out of the herd of slightly different atoms is the one great remaining obstacle.

Dr. Lind has been an ace atom-nucleus bomber for many years. His field of radioactivity has been a zone of wizardry in chemistry and he has turned in much basic research, including his ionization theory of the chemical effect of radium rays. He has written extensively on subjects in his field.

From his native McMinnville, Tenn., where he was born in 1879, he went to Washington and Lee University and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, with an educational chaser at the University of Leipzig and later at the University of Paris. He taught at the University of Michigan, served as chief chemist of the U. S. bureau of mines and is now dean of the institute of technology of the University of Minnesota.

MILLIONS by the hundreds are just about an irresistible target, and perhaps Sunday supplement writers can be forgiven for trying Field Humps at to make a playboy out of Marshall Children Moving Field, although in his heyday his chief sins have been no more than an understandable interest in hunting and horses, and dogs, mainly retrievers.

Now, however, even these trot into the background as he gears up the National Child Refugee committee of which he is chairman. His job is to keep well oiled the wheels that roll English children by the thousands out of the reach of Nazi dive bombers. It must keep him whacking away long after the latest fox has taken cover.

Just the same the supplementers were right on one point. He really has hundreds of millions. They pour down from the original Marshall Fields of Chicago.

In his middle forties now, Chairman Field is sturdily handsome, with a grayish pompadour and a big, sharp nose. He dresses well, as he was taught at Eton and Cambridge where he got his schooling, though conservatively. His pants have no cuffs at all.

Maj. Gen. Emmons Still Puzzled as picked by To Why of 'Delos' Roosevelt a while back to give the country's several military arms extra socko. Fifty-two years old, he has been in the army since 1909; with the infantry until 1916, when he was switched to the signal corps. That made him a flier because in those dark and stumbling days the signal corps was all the flying service the United States had.

At birth his parents named him "Delos." Mostly, the Deloses lack adequate explanation of their parents' curious preference, and the general belongs to this forever-puzzled fry.

In full his name is Delos Carleton Emmons. In many given names there is little sense indeed, but in "Delos" there can be no rhyme or reason. This commentator knows one "Delos" who explains feebly that his given name stems from a French cook in a Wisconsin lumber camp where his father was foreman. No more! Not even that he slipped a noble flapjack. The general has one daughter; she undoubtedly has told him he is a man who never learns. Because, guess what he named her. Delosie!

Willkie's War Stand Jeopardizes Election Chances in Middle West

Political Observers Believe a Strong Non-Intervention Stand Would Have Been Popular; Politicians Grumble About Hatch Act.

By CARTER FIELD (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

WASHINGTON.—There is a very strong feeling, among newspaper men and other political observers here in the Middle West, that Wendell L. Willkie may have thrown away the certainty of being elected President of the United States by his stubborn refusal to take issue with President Roosevelt on the war issue.

This is not an attempt to estimate the accuracy of this belief. It is merely the recording of the obvious so far as this section of the country is concerned.

Illinois is one of the great German states of the country. Its German population is huge in proportion. The same is true to an even greater extent of the neighboring state of Wisconsin, while Minnesota has more Germans than either Sweden or Norway, though not as many as all the Scandinavians put together.

It is also true that this whole neck of the woods has been undergoing newspaper bombardment for the last 21 years against the League of Nations, the World court, and any sort of European entanglement. In Chicago the Tribune and the Hearst papers have been particularly vicious in their propaganda, along this line.

Willkie Advised To Stress 'Peace'

While "vacationing" at Colorado Springs, after the Republican convention and before his acceptance speech, Willkie was approached by any number of men and women who appreciated this racial group situation keenly. They were sure that Willkie could carry every state in the Central West by merely keeping quiet on every question which seemed to lead toward war. They wanted him to refuse to say anything more than that he wanted to keep this country out of war. They were shocked at the "aid to Britain" portions of his acceptance speech. They were horrified when he sanctioned the exchange of the destroyers.

Now they are asking: "What is the difference between Roosevelt and Willkie?"

Curiously enough, the administration seems to have joined these unsuccessful advisers of Willkie in trying to drive him into the other camp. When Henry A. Wallace toured Illinois, the main theme of all his talks was thumping his nose at Adolf Hitler.

That was NOT good medicine, politically, for a state with such a heavy German population. But, apparently, the New Dealers are counting on Willkie's utterances on conscription, on the destroyers, and on aid to Britain to offset anything Wallace said, and to permit them to do a little proselyting on the other side of the street.

It is certainly not a happy thought, but there is no blinking the fact that Adolf Hitler has a lot of admirers in our Central West.

German Votes Important In Middle West States

The tremendous importance of the German and pacifist votes in this Middle-West country is not underestimated in the slightest degree by Wendell L. Willkie. He chose his course—to support aid to Britain, to support the exchange of the destroyers, and to support conscription—in full knowledge of the political potentialities.

The fact is that he remarked to friends BEFORE his acceptance speech that he believed he could be elected easily if he were willing to sacrifice his convictions on the international issue.

WILLKIE'S WAR STAND Carter Field believes that Willkie's stand on the European war has seriously jeopardized his chances of carrying the middle-western states. He points to the large German populations there which oppose aid to Britain. Politicians of both parties are grumbling about the Hatch act, but the law hits the Republicans hardest. This raises the question whether large campaign expenditures are really necessary for victory.

As he put it, he did not HAVE to be President, but he did have to live with himself for the rest of his life.

It is argued by some that Willkie was wrong even in his estimate that to take the isolationist side would help him. Those holding this view say that he would have lost more votes in the East than he would have gained in the Central West by a pacifist stand, had he been willing to go isolationist in order to win the election.

This may be true, but the evidence seems to be against it. It is more probable that Willkie was right—that he could have been elected easily if he had taken the isolationist side.

This estimate of the situation is not pleasing to the writer, for with a good many others he shares the view that to aid Britain is postponing the day of our own trouble—that every day Britain is able to fight is one more day before we are in trouble—that if Britain is able to survive, our danger for the present will have passed.

Four Central States Necessary for Victory

The real point is that, if it is conceded as a basis for argument that this is a fairly close election—and otherwise no political argument is of any value because NOTHING would make any difference—then there are certain states which are utterly vital to Willkie. First and foremost among these is New York. But right in second place is Illinois, with its huge German vote, and close behind are Wisconsin and Minnesota, with even larger German votes.

Willkie MUST carry every one of these four states to have a CHANCE to be elected. Roosevelt could lose any three of them, assuming the election is fairly close, and be safe.

Sentiment is these three states, Illinois, Wisconsin and Minnesota, is very heavily AGAINST aid to Britain, if normally reliable observers are accurate this time.

This is not to say that Willkie has lost them. He may carry them all. But what appears is that he threw away, for reasons that one cannot help admire, the certainty of carrying them.

Hatch Act Hampers Politicians of Both Parties

Politicians in both parties are grumbling no end about the operations of the Hatch act in limiting campaign expenditures. The Republicans, naturally, are doing the more grumbling, because, while the Democratic workers who want to get their hands on some money are just as greedy, the big shots in the party organization know that they have a tremendous advantage. Their workers are paid out of the federal treasury and are even more zealous than workers just earning a temporary wage, since the success of the campaign will determine whether the Democrats stay on the federal pay roll or not.

One of the restrictions against which the Republicans are most bitter is that every cent spent since January 1 counts against the $3,000,000 limitation. It so happens that in the first few months of this year the Republicans paid off something like $350,000 of debt. Now obviously there was no intention on the part of congress to count anything of the sort, but when the law is perfectly clear in its wording it makes no difference what congress intended. There are lots of Supreme court decisions showing that, including particularly the Mann white slave act, which did NOT do what congress intended, but which for various reasons has never been amended.

This is really academic, however, in view of Willkie's own decision that the campaign should not cost more than $2,500,000.

All of which brings up the question it is worth while for a political party to spend as much as has been spent in the last half dozen presidential battles. The difficulty is that it is hard for persons of college educations and cultured associations, for instance, to appreciate some of the things that politicians generally regard as absolutely essential.

But Willkie, like most intelligent observers, believes that a big fraction of the money spent for campaigns is wasted. Whether some of the cuts will actually be harmful no one may ever know.

Do buttons change votes? That is a question which would take a lot of skillful investigation to determine. Beyond doubt there are lots of people who like to be on the winning side. Certainly there is little appeal to one's intelligence in a button, or an automobile placard, but how the county chairmen seem to love them! The average man will not read a campaign pamphlet. That seems to go without saying. But most politicians are not willing to take a chance on eliminating them, despite the terrific printing and postage expense involved.

SCHOOL again, and this sketch shows a quiet study corner for one girl. It is all very gay in tones of golden yellow and green and was made almost entirely of things already on hand—even down to the hooked rug.

The hanging book shelf doesn't really hang at all. It is made of a box screwed to the wall, and if you never thought of slip-covering a book shelf, here is proof of how smart one will look, especially if it is matched with a chair covered in the same material. The legs of the chair are painted green and so is the old kitchen table which has now become a desk. The yellow tone is repeated in the blotter and an old brass lamp and other desk things carry out the green and yellow color scheme. A shelf like this one would be attractive in almost any room, even the bathroom or the kitchen. This box was so rough that the oil cloth lining was necessary. A box of smooth wood could be painted inside.

WHO WON?

The results of the Wayne County Republican Convention seems to have made the press dizzy and the name of the faction who won is anybody's guess. The effort to defeat Ed Barnard, big time boss, failed to go over as planned and charges of double cross and triple cross are many. The anti-Barnard group led by Wilbur Brucker, Fred Alger and Louis Columbo and others only had about one third of the candidates so they formed an alliance with Harry Bennett of the Ford Motor Co., who claimed to be an anti-Barnard man. They called John Gillispie, old time politician into the game and he suggested the only way to beat Barnard was to double cross him. So the Ford delegates allied themselves with Barnard and with his help elected a Ford worker named Hoppe chairman over the Alger candidate. The bargain with Barnard was that Harry Toy, former attorney general and a Ford lawyer name part of the delegates and Barnard part. Hoppe assumed office and at once gave Toy sole power to name all delegates. Then he declared the meeting adjourned. Barnard reconvened the meeting, put in Clyde Ford, former Dearborn mayor as chairman and named a set of delegates of his own. So Wayne as she has done before in the past will send two sets of contesting delegates to the state convention.

The Alger group now accuses Bennett and the Ford men of double crossing them and elder Columbo has resigned from the Ford legal staff.

Harry Bennett's reply is they are a bunch of amateurs and don't know the political game and ousting Barnard and giving them full control would only exchange one boss for another. Two years ago with Barnard's assistance Harry Kipke, employed by the Ford Co. was nominated regent of the University of Michigan.

The following from here were the delegates to the Republican county convention at Howell last Wednesday: Stanley Dinkel, Ross Read, W. C. Miller, Bert Daller, Winifred Graves. No delegates from here were sent to the state convention except Fred Woodworth.

HOWELL WINS CLOSE GAME

Pinckney lost to the Howell Sportsmen Club soft ball team at Pinckney Sunday 6 to 5. The game was very close and although Pinckney outhit the visitors 10 to 6, they couldn't get the runs in. The locals were poor on the bases, 6 of them being thrown out, and 2 nipped at the plate.

Howell got the jump on Pinckney in the first inning by scoring four runs on one hit, a walk and 3 errors. Pinckney got 2 when Singer walked, stole second, and scored on Hendee's hit. Howell added another in the 4th on a walk and a sacrifice fly and another in the 6th on 2 hits and an out at first. In the 7th Van tripled, N. Miller walked and Ledwidge tripled scoring them. Ledwidge should have scored but was stopped at third. Pinckney added another in the 8th when Singer led off with a home run. Howell failed to threaten in the 8th or 9th. In the last of the 9th Meabon fled to right. Van got another hit and stole second and went to third on a pass ball. He tried to score on another passed ball but was out at home. J. Wylie batted for Joe Lavey and walked. N. Miller ended the game grounding out. Ledwidge got 4 hits for Pinckney and Singer and Van each two.

CONSERVATION DEPT. NOTES

The 60 day season on waterfowl opens Tuesday October 1st. That on pheasants and small game on October 15th.

The state will sell at auction on October 14 all oil and gas leases on 37,000 acres of state owned land.

Cutting of mature timber on state owned lands to improve the area for game is now in progress. No timber was cut on these lands until January 1st last. Mature timber offers no food or shelter for game and cutting it gives the young timber a chance to grow. Permits to cut this timber are awarded to the highest bidder.

Improvement of the Gratiot river in Keweenaw county to provide better trout fishing will continue until cold weather sets in. 40 cents of each dollar license fee is used for acquisition of lake and stream frontage to provide public access to waters, for lake and stream improvement.

Closing of St. Clair county to Sunday hunting will not prevent Sunday hunting of waterfowl on the St. Clair river or Lake St. Clair. Eight counties now prohibit Sunday hunting entirely. Four others prohibit Sunday hunting on lands of another.

Preparedness

The mechanism behind your telephone is so intricate that it cannot possibly be assembled hastily. It must be planned ahead and built ahead. That is why preparedness is a long-time policy with us—almost as old as the telephone itself. It is due to preparations made yesterday that Michigan's telephone service is so fine and dependable today. Today's preparedness makes us ready to meet tomorrow's unpredictable demands.

LIVINGSTON COUNTY NEEDS MORE POPULATION

While the corrected figures of the 1940 census are not yet available the preliminary report shows that while Livingston County had a total population of 22,251 in 1880 by 1920 the population has decreased to 17,522. From 1920 to this date there was a gradual increase to the present census of 20,773. This increase occurred almost entirely in the growth of Howell, Brighton and Fowlerville, plus the sanatorium population of 507 which did not exist in 1880. The sixty year period from 1880 to 1940 shows a total decrease of approximately 1500 persons in the county, and a decrease of approximately 2800 in the farm population.

Our rural population is an important factor in the welfare of the county as a whole. The county needs a substantial increase in farm population. Numerous abandoned farms, particularly in the eastern and the southern parts of the county, should be rehabilitated and again come under production. Other large farms, particularly in these areas where there are many submarginal lands might well be cut up into smaller farms and acreage parcels if a desirable population could be brought into the county to utilize them. How can this best be brought about? The best and perhaps only solution is to draw new families in from the congested Detroit area who desire to move into the country. To attract this type of resident to Livingston County we need first an easy means of access to and from Detroit and its vicinity. The modern automobile provides the carrier but what is lacking are modern, fast, safe highways with traffic restricted to personal car use, uninterrupted by dangerous crossings and free from delays by numerous stop lights. Distance is now measured by minutes rather than miles. A highway that will save twenty minutes travel time from the center of Detroit to the eastern edge of Livingston County is equivalent to shortening the distance some fifteen miles or more.

The plans for the Detroit Huron-Clinton Parkway Project covers exactly this situation. Limited access highways free from grade crossings, from downtown Detroit to the valley of the Huron River is a part of the plan. Over them safely at high speed Detroit residents who desire to live in the country, either permanently or for summer homes, will find a quick access to the beauties of the hills, lakes and streams of Livingston County.

What has happened around New York City and other of our large cities after installing similar highway improvements is definite proof of the need of such developments, and points definitely to a similar growth in our rural areas. Around these cities following the building of proper highways new homes have been built, farms have been improved and land values have had a remarkable increase. These increased values add to the local assessment rolls.

It follows that with this development labor will find new employment, and local communities will receive an increase in business from the added population.

These limited access highways from Detroit to the Huron Clinton river valleys would come under the building program of the State Highway Department. From their military necessity as a means of rapid communication with Detroit, a border city they would fit into our Federal defense plans and should receive liberal Federal aid. Livingston county can hardly afford to overlook this opportunity to secure the benefits to be gained by a yes vote on the Huron-Clinton Parkway Authority bill at the November election.

War hysteria seems to be present in some places. A speaker recently at a gathering complained that a woman in the gallery was waving a red flag. Investigations showed that she was knitting a red sock. The worst case so far seems to be the American flag stickers. An oil company handed out hundreds of these for motorists to stick on their windshield. Nothing was heard of this until Michigan motorists going to Indiana to hear Willkie's acceptance speech were abused for having them on their windshields and ordered to remove them because they carried a Communist emblem. The shadow in the flag where the furl is said to be in the form of a Communist snake. The F. B. I. was appealed to and the oil company recently made public a letter it received from John Bugas, director of the Detroit office in which he stated he could see no reason for any suspicion of the sticker flag.

Philathea Notes

Mrs. Inez Buzzard, teacher of the "What-so-ever Class", very pleasantly entertained the Philatheas for their September meeting on Wednesday afternoon of last week.

Mrs. Elliott presided, and in the absence of the chaplain, Mrs. Peck conducted a very beautiful Devotional service, using as a basis the book of Philemon. The secretary's report, roll call, and the routine business being disposed of there was discussion of several activities for the class including bazaar and the Red Cross work. Through all this, the ladies were busily engaged in sewing rags for rugs for the church bazaar in the near future.

Appreciation was expressed both in this monthly meeting and in the Sunday class for the work so freely given by Mrs. Pauline Vedder in the preparation of floral offerings presented by the Philatheas, the Ladies Aid and the church at various times. These sympathy tokens mean much to the recipients and these organizations do appreciate the committees and individuals who generously act for them in these activities. A vote was taken in our class to purchase a box of cards for the committee in charge.

Mrs. Rose Hendee invited the class for the October meeting, when the Missionary program and offering will be the special features.

Mrs. Peck as class teacher is giving us some intensely helpful lessons. Next Sunday we have another passage: from Proverbs (11:24-31), also Luke 16:11-13. This will be the last Sunday in the month.

Many of our Philatheas have listened with much profit to Reverend Hinkle over W. I. B. M. Beginning with October 1st, he will be on the air from 6:12 to 6:30 a. m. over W. S. A. M. (1200 kc.), the Saginaw station on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Why women will do things men won't. Dr. Donald A. Laird, internationally known American psychologist, analyzes the urge of some women to show off in useless and unbecoming contests that men fight shy of, and promote. Watch Your Kidneys!
Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste
Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as Nature intended—fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery.
Symptoms may be nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, swelling up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or frequent urination.
There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wise in such cases. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have been winning new friends for more than forty years. They have a nation-wide reputation. Are recommended by grateful people the country over. Ask your neighbor!

THE SCHOOL LUNCH
(See Recipes Below)

Whether the children carry their lunch to school or dash home at noon for a hurried meal, autumn school bells bring a major problem to the menu planner. For the mid-day repast must give plenty of nourishment in a form that can be quickly and easily eaten—and, in the case of carry-away lunches, easily packed as well.

Fruit, cookies, sandwiches and milk in some form constitute standbys for box lunches as well as the school child's home lunch. Cocoa, cream soups, custards and simple puddings help with the milk quota at the home lunch. Cocoa, or a milk shake, as well as plain milk, can be carried with the school lunch in a vacuum bottle. For the box lunch, sandwiches ought to be carefully wrapped so that they will be fresh and appetizing. Chopped meat moistened with a little butter or mayonnaise, hard-cooked egg delicately seasoned, cream cheese, jams and jellies, all make tempting fillings.

Semi-liquid foods may be put into small glass jars with tightly fitting covers. Supply paper cups for the beverage; and as a novelty, put in a paper straw, especially when you pack chocolate malt or iced cocoa. The sandwiches and softer foods should be placed on top to prevent mashing.

Brightly colored lunch boxes are popular, because they are not only easier to pack, and well-ventilated, but are attractive to carry. Literally speaking, you can pack everything in them from "soup to nuts." The lunch boxes should be kept immaculately clean by careful scalding each day.

You may like to use this menu some day when you have plenty of meat loaf left over from the Sunday dinner:

- Meat Loaf Sandwiches
- Deviled Egg
- Custard
- Chocolate Milk
- Or you might use a menu similar to this for colder weather: Cream of Tomato Soup
- Peanut Butter and Orange Marmalade Sandwiches
- Fruit Tapioca
- Cookie

There is always an extra corner into which you can tuck a surprise. To the smaller children this will be a delight. It may be a few nuts, or a few pieces of good candy, or it may be the little candy bridge favor you received yesterday. A packed lunch can become as tiresome to eat as it is to pack. Even you will be thinking of the little surprise you can find to put into it, and thus make this task more of a pleasure to you.

So get a lunch box that will be large enough to hold all the necessary equipment, but will not be too heavy to carry, and begin making your plans for the school lunch. Some of these suggestions may aid you in your plans for the school year:

Soups and Beverages.
Soups and beverages, if packed in thermos bottles, will stay hot or cold, as the case may be. The cream soups are the most nutritious, for they contain not only milk but vegetables as well. Try cream of tomato, cream of pea, cream of spinach and cream of asparagus.

There is quite a wide choice of beverages. For warmer weather you may like to give the children pineapple juice, grape juice, orange juice, milk or chocolate malt. When the weather becomes cooler, hot chocolate or cocoa are welcome beverages.

Sandwiches.
Bread for sandwiches should be cut in thin slices, with the butter and filling spread way out to the edges. The butter is easier to spread if creamed first; and the sandwiches should be cut into convenient sizes for eating. Vary the kinds of bread that you use for sandwiches: plain or white, whole wheat, rye, brown bread, peanut butter bread, orange

Why not plan a little different party for your friends? Have a harvest home party, where your guests can gather for singing, games, and dancing.

At the end of August, or the middle of September, many of the countries of Europe finished up the harvest season with the harvest festival. There the workers of the fields feasted, danced, and sang, as guests of the mansion. Wreaths, fashioned of grain, flowers, nuts and corn were hung on the walls, to remain until the following year.

Miss Howe will tell you about a harvest party in her column next week which will contain many attractive suggestions.

bread, nut bread, cornbread, raisin bread, and rolls.
For filling you may like to use these suggestions:
Chicken, with chopped celery and mayonnaise.
Cream cheese on raisin bread.
Chopped dates, nuts and orange juice.

Ground cooked veal, raw carrots and celery, with salad dressing.
Orange marmalade and peanut butter.
Cottage cheese, chopped olives and mayonnaise.
Hard cooked egg, chopped celery and mayonnaise.
Meat loaf, sliced thin.
Bacon, mayonnaise and lettuce.

Spiced Blanc Mange.
2 cups milk
2 1/2 tablespoons cornstarch
1/2 cup sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
1/4 teaspoon cloves
1/4 cup nut meats (broken)
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
Scald 1 1/2 cups of milk. Mix all dry ingredients together and add the remaining 1/2 cup cold milk. Combine well. Add hot milk to the cornstarch mixture slowly. Return to double boiler and cook, stirring constantly, until the mixture thickens. Cook 5 minutes. Remove from flame, add nut meats and extract. Turn into a wet mold and chill. Serve with whipped cream if desired.

Desserts.
With the problem of packing desserts solved, there is a much wider choice than ever before. Rice pudding, small tarts, custards, oatmeal cookies, brownies, cupcakes, cakes, tapioca, cooked fruit, dates, figs, gingerbread, fresh or stewed dried fruits, and plain cakes are all to be selected to vary the school lunch.

Cream of Tomato Soup.
2 cups canned tomatoes
2 slices onion
1/4 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon sugar
1 teaspoon salt
Dash pepper
2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons flour
2 cups milk
Heat tomatoes with onion, soda, sugar, salt and pepper. Rub through sieve; reheat. Place butter in top of double boiler and melt. Add flour and mix thoroughly. Add milk. Cook, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens. Pour tomato mixture slowly into white sauce. Mix thoroughly, and serve.

Better Baking.
Wouldn't you like some good yummy chocolate nut gingerbread or some of those melt-in-your-mouth meringue cookies right about now? Or how about the delicious sounding lemon sunny silver pie? Shall I stop, or have I made you hungry enough to want to rush right out into your kitchen and whip up a batch of cookies, or one of those suggested above? You may have these tested recipes of Miss Howe if you will write, enclosing 10 cents in coin, to Eleanor Howe, 919 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, and ask for her cook book, "Better Baking." You will like them all, for they have been tried in her own test kitchen.

College Girl Fashions Stress Contrasting, Versatile 'Tops'

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

FASHION is playing a game. It's a contrast "tops." Here's how. You buy one or two or more smart skirts. Follow this up with a wardrobe of contrasting "tops" and you win a clothes collection that will carry you through with a smashing style record as you travel in campus environs and at all the football games you have dated in advance on your fall program.

For that lasting "first impression" at college you will go down in history vain gloriously as a smart dresser if you wear a costume as pictured to the left in the group illustrated. Evelyn Allen designs this versatile jacket dress with a gay check-printed velveteen top contrasting a youthful flaring skirt. Note the shirred pockets and bishop sleeves. If you take the jacket off and wear your skirt with your new sweaters and blouses, you will be voted among the best dressed of all campus trotters.

Nice thing about this contrast-top vogue is that it goes easy on the clothes budget. You can collect a whole bevy of "tops" without spending a fortune, and with judicious interchanging you can dress up or down to any occasion. One of the neatest tricks brought out in way of contrast tops is the new waist-depth pinafore top that you slip jumper-fashion over a simple blouse. It has wide shoulder straps that are brought down to the back where they tie at the waist in a pert bow exactly as a little girl's pinafore ties.

You can buy these little pinafore tops made of plaid taffeta at most stores. For the school-going girl who must keep a date they are a real "find." Slip it in your schoolbag or brief case so you can dash it on in a jiffy and look dressed up quick as a flash of lightning.

You will also be wanting one of the new gay suede vests. With your jacket suit they are "hits" in fashion. Wear it with the new velveteen suit, add a matching suede hat, and it will surely make a "hit" in any grandstand spectator group.

Centered in the group is another contrast-top costume by the same designer. This softly tailored frock of gay plaid with its interesting bell sleeve and its contrasting skirt will put you at the head of your class so far as fashion is concerned, and it will keep you there. A two-piece frock such as this is liable to prove the talk of town for months to come.

Fashion is playing up with great success the idea of the one-piece dress that looks like a two-piece. The smart dress to the right in the picture is an apt demonstration. It merited spontaneous applause recently at the National Wash Apparel style revue held in Chicago. It is of the popular shirtdress persuasion. The checked blouse top, seamed to the skirt, has a yoke front and back. Acorn buttons are placed down the front opening and on the pockets of the monotone skirt. Here is an ideal dress for go-to-school wear and it will prove a favorite standby for informal dating. You can get this very charming dress in handsome navy or sparkling wine.

You can get these shirts in wool, tailored as manlike as your heart desires. The idea is to choose a wool in color to blend or match your tweed suit, or, if you prefer, play up a contrast. You will surely be wanting a white jersey shirt. A wool homespun also will not come amiss, for the new homespuns are delightfully sheer. They are "comfy" on very first cool days and ever so good-looking. Sheer wool with drawn threadwork is just beginning to be shown in the shirt and blouse sections.

Smart Black Felt

Here you see a smart fall felt hat in all its glory. Huge cartwheels of this type are worn with chic afternoon frocks as well as with dress-up frocks and are especially good-looking with the new all-black dressmaker coats. No matter how many small hats you may be acquiring, your fall headgear wardrobe simply must include a wide-brimmed black felt. Cartwheel types shown here vie with the pompadour-flare types that you wear as far back on the head as possible to reveal and give accent to the new off-forehead hair-do.

Novelty Jewelry Is Made of 'Anything'

The fashion for gold accents on black costumes persists. The jewelry wrought in gold this season is exquisitely detailed. The emphasis is on good taste rather than bizarre effects.

Novelty jewelry is fashioned of any and every medium that happens to come to hand. Some of the smartest jewelry items in the novelty class have apparently "gone nuts." They are made of actual nuts linked together in ingenious ways. The now-so-popular jewelry of carved wood tunes beautifully to the new costumes in autumn colorings. Cork and felt are also new media used in the jewelry realm.

Mannish Influence In New Fashions

And now what! It's men's coats for women. For fashion declares that suits must take on a mannish look and the edict has been accepted as literally by members of the younger smart set. Debutantes and sub-debs, college girls and career girls are actually going into men's stores to purchase socks and blouse shirts, and to look up details as to man-tailored coats, so as to give orders to their tailor to borrow ideas from their brothers' and father's tweed suits.

Pleasing Motifs for Pot and Pan Holders

Transfer Z8976
FOR our first fall needlework, what could be more appropriate than making some new pan holders? Gay flower faces, hen and rooster, Toby jugs and a parrot handle holder, etc. Why, even the smallest scrap bag would supply enough material, for some of these are pieced. Bazaars and gifts will take inexpensive toll of any you aren't needing yourself.

Transfer Z8976, 15 cents, gives motifs for ten holders. Send orders to:

MICHIGAN MIRROR STATE NEWS

pledge not to send American sons overseas again to fight on foreign soils.

Hadley Cantril, director of the Princeton Public Opinion Research project has been laboring since the outbreak of the war on an intensive study of the American mind with respect to neutrality and war. Aided by a grant of funds from the Rockefeller Foundation, Dr. Cantril has come to some definite conclusions, as given in the current issue of Public Opinion Quarterly. As they have a relation to the Michigan senatorial and congressional attitude, we will review them briefly.

War's outbreak in September, 1939 found an overwhelmingly majority of American people utterly confident that England and France would win, as shown by George Gallup polls at the time. By late summer, 1940, more people believed the Germans will win than those clinging to hopes of an ultimate Allied victory.

As of August 1, hopes were rising that the British, after all, might stave off immediate military defeat long enough to get an ultimate triumph due to their economic blockade. Yet, while a large majority of Americans want Washington to do more to assist the British, they also balk at anything that might embroil us in the conflict. Certainly, both nominees are pledged not to send the Yanks "over there," although it will be recalled that President Wilson was re-elected in 1916 on a record of keeping us out of war -- and we went to war the very next spring.

Dr. Cantril makes the observation that about one-quarter of our population adhere to an isolationist view "it is more important to keep out of war than to help England". Also, a majority of the isolationists believe that Germany will win the war. Of possible interest to our women readers is Dr. Cantril's observation that the Gallup polls show there are more women in this isolationist group than men; also more poor people than those who are well-to-do.

The younger Americans tend to believe cynically that the war is largely a contest between the British and the Germans over power and wealth rather than over democracy.

A second group is made up of the interventionists who, as we enter the fall season, make up a good third of the country's population. These citizens favor conscription; they fear a German attack on this country. They feel we should go to the limit in helping beleaguered England, even at the risk of involvement in the war ourselves.

This group comprises many people over 30 years of age in the upper and middle income groups; they take an educated long-range view, possess greater stability of opinion, and are fully aware of the economic consequences of war dislocation.

Sympathetic Group
A 40 per cent group (No. 3) is with the isolationist group that it is sympathetic with England, but agree more important to keep out of war than to aid England.

With regards to the possibility of a German victory, the sympathetic group is about half-way between the isolationist and the interventionist segments.

At the present time, when new British pleas for military assistance are arising in Washington, the nation finds itself in a contradictory state of public opinion: Aid England.

It is this majority viewpoint, as but keep out of war, first and last! analyzed by Michigan congressmen whether in the senate or in the house, that was behind the almost solid anti-conscription vote last week.

CONGRESSIONAL WEEKLY LETTER

By Congressman Blackney
The House has passed very little legislation this week, because of the death of our Speaker, the Hon. William B. Bankhead, of Alabama. Congressman Bankhead was elected the Speaker in 1936 and has continued as Speaker up to the present time. The late Speaker, William B. Bankhead, was an exceedingly capable Congressman and an old-fashioned Jeffersonian Democrat and was beloved by both sides of the House, because of his ability and his fairness.

The only piece of business of any importance in the House this week was H. R. 605, providing for an appropriation of $388,000,000; $8,744,000 of which is to buy land and $329,000,000 to provide facilities to house and train the men who may be called to service.

Inasmuch, as the conscription bill is now a law, it becomes imperative provision should be made for the men who are to be drafted. Nobody wants to see our American soldiers in unsanitary quarters or without the necessities of life.

This resolution provides for appropriations to house 503,000 men. The appropriation will also provide for reception centers, mobilization shelters, shelters for student personnel, training installations, school program construction for armored school programs, construction for ordinary for ground troops and general hospital for 10,000 beds. This bill passed very speedily because everybody those who had favored conscription and those who had opposed it, all agreed that every American soldier boy should be entitled to adequate shelter, food, clothing and the necessities of life.

There is one other matter to which I wish to call your attention and that is the relaxation that is occurring on the immigration question. With ten million men out of work, certainly there should be some limit placed on the number of immigrants allowed to enter this country, particularly in view of the aforesaid unemployment.

We have more than seven million aliens here now and some provision should be made that those aliens who desire to remain in America should be required to become American citizens, so that they would not only enjoy the privileges and benefits of America but would also have to assume the duties and responsibilities of American citizenship, just as you and I have to do.

In closing, I want to call your attention to a comparison of the United States Navy with that of Great Britain, Italy, Germany and Japan. Let me state that the American Navy today is the most powerful navy in the world.

High ranking naval officials are certain that American fleets can halt any invading enemy at safe distance from this country. As it stands today, the Navy numbers 410 vessels, 60 more than the British with 350. The 410 figure does not include the 50 destroyers traded to England. The comparative strength of the Navy of the aforesaid countries are as follows:

	US	GB	I	G	J
Ra'ah'ps	15	16	6	7	10
Airc'ft cr's	6	5	1	11
Cru'srs	37	62	20	4	44
Destroyers	248	219	125	50	141
Subm's	104	48	110	100	75
Total	410	350	261	162	281

In addition to the present United States Navy of 410 vessels of all types, many others are now being built in the navy yards of the country.

The baseball world's attention is centered these days on the Detroit Tigers. Here is a team which according to all factors, conditions and form should be in the lower brackets of the race for the pennant.

However, here is a team with two strikes on it at the start of the season, that has consistently battled for top honors in the American League. Team spirit, determination and heads up ball have kept them at the top.

It is our belief that this same spirit is necessary to successful living. Conscious effort to get ahead, heads up to take advantage of opportunities, gives us all equal chance to better ourselves.
