Pinckney High School Was Two Games

Both Boys Teams Win From Hartland Friday Night. Girl's Team Wins By 2 Points

Pinckney High school played 3 basket ball games with Hartland last Friday night, the boys teams winning and the girls losing. The Pinckney reserve team won 11 to 6. They did not show much basket shooting ability but Hartland showed less. Barbour scored 5 points for Pinckney and Gentile 4.

The Hartland girls beat the Pinckney girls 16 to 14. Helen Reason and Roberta Shirley each scored 7 points for Pinckney. Slighter was high scorer for Hartland with 10.

In the final contest the varsity outdistanced Hartland and won easily 20 to 5. Kuhn scored 10 points for Pinckney, Levy 4, Palmer and LaMee 3, each and Widmayer 2. The boys looked good in the game even if Hartland failed to offer much opposition.

WHO'S NEWS THIS WEEK

By LEMUEL F. PARTON
(Consolidated Features—WNU Service.)

NEW YORK.—Early in September, 1924, the League of Nations assembly was in session, on a sunny afternoon, with every gardener in place. Popular Candidate on the lapel For Free Albania of its morning coat, with Modern Jeremiah ducorous murmurs mingling with the bird song and the hum of the bees, heard through the open windows. The impeccable and somewhat desiccated Sir Eric Drummond, who played closer to his immaculate white vest than any living man, was presiding watchfully against any untoward procedure, any solecism, any break in syntax or punctilio, or move toward any overt suggestion or act.

There arose among the delegates a great, shaggy bearded man who started the windows rattling with his booming voice. He said: "You are just blowing bubbles. Your talk is hot air. You have done and will do nothing for peace. You know that the Dawes plan is doomed. You know that all treaties are destined for the waste basket."

It was a long, masterful and punishing philippic, delivered in a finished Harvard accent. Sir Eric was almost a hospital case.

The Jesuit was Bishop Fanoush, of the Albanian Orthodox church, and the Bishop Noli, now supposititious living in Boston, who is named in a London cable to the New York Sun, as the popular candidate for a liberated Albania. With the aid of the Greeks, the hope of Albanian liberation is warning up daily, here and abroad. The huge, ruddy warrior-bishop, a medieval man with modern ideas, never has been caught in the feudal tensions and confusion of Balkan politics. He is a genuine libertarian and democrat, recruiting Moslems as well as Christians in his long running fight for modern free statehood for his country. His League of Nations speech was shushed in Europe, but all of it finally filtered through to American newspapers. It was the voice of a major prophet, as startling as the little flickering gleam spot on the walls of Belshazzar's palace.

If the bishop should reclaim and redeem Albania, America would get an assist, if not a put-out. He was educated at Harvard university, entering in 1908 and finishing in 1912. In the former year, the peaceful religious revolution by which the modern Orthodox Albanian church was established was just getting underway, and it was in that year, that he was invested with the robes of his priesthood.

I got a glimpse of the bishop in the Commodore hotel in 1931, a keen-eyed, black-bearded giant, purposeful, alert and powerful in every aspect of his face and person. He had arrived just a day ahead of certain disastrous Italian assassins. On this occasion he was in New York to meet Mussolini's chief monarch, Ahmed Zog much as he had visited the tit-tat-toe assembly league. But he changed frequently and mysteriously, as for many years he has had death close on his heels. And it was in 1931 that he said that Premier Mussolini would attack Albania when he got ready, and that Zog's government was all make-believe.

SIR PHILIP B. JOUBERT DE LA FERTE, British air marshal, has had a long and distinguished career in the army, and in all these years he has been a model of discretion and impeccable official behavior.

Hence it was a most extraordinary slip when he broadcast to the world details of where German bombs had fallen. The ministry of information, of which Sir Philip is a member, had been clamping down the censorship lid and British papers were printing German communiques, as the only news available. American news papers, sharply at odds with the censorship about getting news from Germany, are acclaimed for a fumble which they made in the public interest. It was to be his first fumble.

As a flier in the war, he gathered both Italian and Italian decorations, and was promoted to captain. He joined the Royal Flying Corps in 1917 and became a member of the Royal Flying Corps.

He was born in Egypt in 1887, and the war he

The ANNUNCIATION

La Befana, Penitent Old Woman, Brings Christmas Gifts in Italy

Santa Claus doesn't visit children in Italy. It isn't because they are all naughty, but because there is no Santa Claus—in Italy.

No one runs down to a well decorated tree on Christmas morning to look for presents. Brightly colored flowers decorate the room instead of Christmas trees, and presents are not exchanged until January 6.

On that night, an old, old lady, La Befana, walks from house to house and leaves a present beside each little child she visits.

Exactly 1,940 years ago, according to the Italian legend, La Befana was very busy sweeping her kitchen when several men dressed like kings stopped in front of her cottage. They asked her where Bethlehem was, but she had never heard of it.

The men told her about a baby which had been born in Bethlehem, and mentioned a star which had been guiding them. The old lady wished she could accompany them when they left her in search of the infant Jesus.

But La Befana stayed home. It was getting too dark out, and besides, the baby could wait until tomorrow. Later that night she noticed the sky quivering with light. The clouds seemed to take the form of angels. All thought of sleep left her. Rising, she carefully wrapped two gifts for the Holy Baby, then ran out into the night in the direction the kings had gone.

Fast as she hurried, she had not reached Bethlehem when the star disappeared and dawn filled the sky. She frantically asked the way to Bethlehem, but no one could tell her.

And so La Befana has constantly traveled since that day, searching for the Christ Child. On the Epiphany, 12 days after Christmas, she goes from house to house, looking into the faces of babies. With each she leaves a gift, hoping that at last she will give her presents to the right child.

Christmas Card Was Invented By a Man With Many Friends

This is believed to be the first Christmas card. It was made in London in 1846.

CHRISTMAS cards are almost as much a part of Christmas as Santa Claus himself, yet they have been in use less than a century.

According to most records, the first Christmas card was designed in 1846 by Mr. J. C. Horsley, a prominent member of the Royal Academy of London. It was produced at the request of Sir Henry Cole, a popular man with many friends.

Sir Cole wondered how he could express his personal Christmas greeting to a thousand friends spread throughout England. After musing the thought of visiting each personally, or giving presents, he decided to send them each a card by mail.

One thousand hand-colored cards were prepared with a picture showing a jolly family seated at a huge dinner table. Each member of the family was looking into a brimming glass which he held in his hand. When these cards were distributed, they raised a furor among temperance proponents throughout the country. The disturbance focused nation-wide attention on the new greeting card.

It was not until several years later, however, that the first lithographed Christmas card made its appearance. Originally it almost completely lacked color. The greeting was invariably "A Merry Christmas" or "A Jolly Christmas." Designs seldom had anything to do with the season, but contained pictures of birds, flowers, animals or children.

America soon adopted the British custom and the Christmas card are given here in the sketch. The material from two corners made the square underwear case. The material from each of the other two corners was folded to make a glove or handsewing case. Bright blue bias tape was used for seam binding and the bottom facing a loop handle of the hat cover; colored zippers to match the bindings were used for the case closings.

Today's article is typical of the economy short cuts that I like to plan for homemaking budgets. There are complete working drawings for thirty-two homemaking projects in SEWING Book 8—enough exciting ideas to keep you busy all the rest of the winter. Send order to:

Airtight boxes or jars make handy containers for keeping cookies fresh. And waxed paper between the layers of cookies keeps them from sticking together.

Potatoes to be baked in the skins will cook quicker if they are dried before being placed in the oven.

Before squeezing the juice from your lemons and oranges, grate the peel. Wrapped in waxed paper these gratings will keep in the refrigerator for future use in making desserts, etc.

Use needles to pin down the pleats when pressing a pleated skirt. The needles will leave no marks when you remove them.

Layer cakes with soft fillings will not become soggy if a thin icing made with confectioner's sugar is put on and let harden, before spreading the filling.

Pumpkin pie will have that rich brown tint if a teaspoon of molasses is added to the filling.

For Busy Shoppers

Winning popular approval with busy Christmas shoppers are the two handsome gift packages of Camel cigarettes featured by local dealers. The regular Camel carton—10 packs of "20's"—comes in a colorful, holiday dress. Equally striking is the gay Camel package of 4 "flat fifties."

Both packages contain 200 cigarettes—aromatic hints to get perfect to receptive wives.

Selecting and Clearing Your Checks

One of the most valuable services rendered by banks to American people and American business is the clearing and collection of checks, drafts, and money orders. It is a service that functions so smoothly, efficiently, and quickly that it is taken entirely for granted and little thought is given how it operates.

This system works through a well-developed plan of cooperation among country banks, city correspondents, and Federal Reserve banks.

Through it you can deposit to your account checks drawn on other banks throughout the country.

Money orders sent from your bank, ready and available for you to use.

Did you ever stop to think what you would do without such a system?

Hamburg

Mrs. Grace Howard entertained the Lakeland Circle of King's Daughters at its Christmas party at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Don Savery, in Hamburg township Tuesday with 27 in attendance. Guests were: Mrs. Ira Navarre of Ann Arbor, Mrs. S. H. Carr of Pinckney and Mrs. Harry Barr.

The rooms were very prettily decorated in keeping with the holiday season, including a small Christmas tree and an array of 40 small dolls with Mrs. Smith Martin, Mrs. Edward G. Houghton Mrs. Glen Borton as committee.

A chicken-pie dinner was served followed by the business meeting, Mrs. Harry A. Lee, the president, in charge. Being the annual meeting election of officers was held, resulting as follows: Mrs. N. J. Stephanon president; Mrs. Ben Tomlin, vice-president; Mrs. Glen Borton, secretary; Mrs. Smith Martin, treasurer. The gift box was received by Mrs. Joe Baaylo. It was voted to discontinue the gift box, the ensuing year.

The meeting opened with singing "Holy Night," scripture reading and "A Christmas Carol" by Edgar A. Guest by the chaplain, Mrs. James Jury. Official reports were given by Mrs. Glenn Borton, Mrs. Edward Houghton and Mrs. Ben Tomlin, who also reported for the "Happy Helpers" Junior Circle also showing work of the Juniors: a dressed doll with wardrobe which will be given to a little girl patient at the state Sanatorium at Howell and scrapbooks which will be given to children at the University Hospital at Ann Arbor as will the 40 small dolls for favors.

It was voted to purchase Christmas gifts and ice-cream for the juniors for their Christmas party held at the home of Mrs. Harry A. Lee Saturday.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Glenn Borton, Tuesday, January 14, with pot-luck dinner; Miss Viola Petty appointed to act as chaplain and Mrs. Smith Martin and Mrs. E. Clyde Dunning as committee on entertainment and installation of officers by the county president. For entertainment, "O Little Town of Bethlehem" was sung anagrams, the prize winner being Mrs. Navarre, a give and take contest, with Mrs. Fred Myers the prize winner, and a reading, "The Two Stockings", by Miss Julie A Ball, with Mrs. Charles Thomas and Mrs. William Honbaum as committee, Christmas gifts were exchanged.

Mrs. Manly W. Bennett was the honor guest at a house and baby shower given at her home, the hostesses being Mr. and Mrs. Bennett's mother, Mrs. James Emery of Camp Point, Illinois, and Mrs. Charles J. Bennett. Other guests were Madames Thomas Featherly, James Featherly, John Moon, Vance Viserman, Wayne Jury, John Moore, Walter Gray, Werner Todd, Helen Detter Wolf and Ruby Sines and Misses Jeanne Bennett and Mary Moore. Mrs. Bennett received many gifts for her infant daughter and her home.

Mrs. William Keedle was given a most pleasant surprise party at her home last Thursday by the Ladies' Guild of St. Stephen's Episcopal church, the occasion being her birthday anniversary with 20 grown-ups present. Among the guests were her sister, Mrs. Catherine Cehlski and grandchildren, Miss Grace Lundy and Mrs. John Lundy of Detroit. The guests served a delicious meal. The guests presented her with a beautiful potted plant; she also received other individual cards.

The Macabees card party at I. O. O. F. hall, with Mrs. Docking and Mrs. Ida Knapp as committee, was an enjoyable one. Tables of progressive euchre were played. First prizes were won by Mrs. Frank Buckalew and John Mason; second by Miss Mercedes Merrill and Thomas Featherly; consolation by Mrs. Mack Rice and Frank Buckalew. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Folkenrath and daughter, Waheta, of Royal Oak were guests of their cousin, Mrs. Edwin Shannon, Sr. and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kittle of Emery are the parents of a baby daughter, Judy Ann, born November 25.

Christmas party is scheduled for Wednesday afternoon with Santa and What-So-Ever and a general audience. A special helpful sermon and message from our lesson discussion class will be given. Classes in the church will be dismissed at noon.

Members of the junior class but also set fire to the building. The Dexter fire engine was called but burned out a motor and could not get up the hill. In the meantime the building was emptied of students and the fire extinguished by Wm. Bates, a student with a fire extinguisher.

The accident started when one of the boys poured carbon disulphide in a hot test tube to remove some sulphur that had settled there. This formed a gas which ignited when it hit a burning gas jet. The teacher and the boys, Albert Johnson, Leon and Spiegelberg and Carl Lesser were burned about the hands and face.

Lossing seems to have become a fixed habit with Pinckney teams. The Independents opened their season here Thursday night by losing a close one to Dexter 26 to 24. The boys lack practise and missed numerous shot at the basket. Many passes were also wild. Pinckney committed some 15 fouls and Dexter 8. Clinton scored 7 points for Pinckney and Singer 6. SOCIAL NEWS

The basketball girl of Chelsea High School have asked the girl's basketball team of Pinckney High School as guests to their school Friday afternoon, December 20th and to dinner that evening. The girl's team will play in the afternoon after school and the boys team will play in the evening.

At the Hartland-Pinckney basketball game last Friday, December 18, the mothers of the girls on the squad were guests that night. Each mother was presented with an American Beauty Rose by her daughter during the half of the game.

MISS BYINGTON'S ROOM

Tuesday is the night of the operaetta, and we hope it will be a success. All the children are busy practising.

On the sick list this week are Phyllis Loll and Dale Meabon. Barbara Haines and Joe Jeffries celebrated birthdays this last week.

Neal Boughan and David Abercrombie assisted in collecting this news.

JUNIOR CLASS

The Junior class will have at 7:15 and the variety show at 8:30. It is hoped that Pinckney will have a goodly number of fans in attendance.

Last but not least. The crowd spirit shown in the Hartland was remarkable. For the first time in three years Pinckney out yelled the visitors and perhaps this excellent support helps to explain the two victories and the good game which the girls displayed.

St. Mary's Church

The receipts of the card party as reported last week read $310. It should have read $10.

Parents are requested to seat their children in the front seats at mass. Children we are taught in the school should be seen and not heard. Talking and whispering in the rear seats is a distraction to adults who support, attend and come to church to adore God. Detraction creates contention.

Tuesday, Dec. 24, is the Vigil of the Holy Day, a Feast of the Nativity of Our Lord. It is a Fast Day and a Day of Abstinence. This means it is a Day of Penance. The Gospels on Sundays and each day of Advent treat of Penance. They refer to the life and teachings of St. John, the Baptist. Christmas is a Holy and Religious Feast. It is the Feast of Charity and love and teaches the duty of giving the greatest gift of giving is your soul given unto God. Confessions Tuesday, Dec. 24, to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m. Wed., also 7:30 to 8:20 before mass. Devotions on Xmas are the Xmas carols and the visit to the Stable of Bethlehem at 11 o'clock Christmas eve. High mass at midnight. Holy Communion may be received but your preparation for Holy Communion must be made by a Holy Confession Tuesday. You should be fasting from the time of your six o'clock meal. The morning mass will be at 8:30, 10:45 and 12 o'clock noon.

The 8:30 is the children's mass and the 10:45 mass will be for a commemoration for all departed benefactors, pioneers, parishioners as your Xmas offering to the devoted departed. The noon day mass will be your spirit as a faithful shepherd to return and adore. If in the event that next year you are gone into eternity you can look back with a true knowledge of a well spent Christmas. We who attend birthday parties at the house of our host and are in no hurry to leave. We hasten to attend. This is the natal feast of Christ to Earth. "Fenite Adoramus", hasten to Adore Him; not hasten to leave Him. Christmas is a church feast and after all church feasting is over to then bring Christ to our homes and there feast with Him among us.

of the New Year. We extend congratulations to the Donohue family of Gregory on the recent arrival of their son who will be baptised William Luke.

A PARISHIONER CELEBRATES

On last Sunday Mrs. Elen Duprey of Lakeland who was born Dec. 18, 1860 at Erie, Mich., celebrated her 90th birthday. Mrs. Duprey makes her home with her only child and son Leonard. Regardless of her advanced age, she each day assists in the household duties and enjoys remarkable health. A summer resorter from Ann Arbor who owns property near by, Mr. Raynor Deidenger, arranged a surprise party for her last Sunday. Among those who attended and remembered her with tokens or cards were Theresa Hindelang, Lena Foster, Edith Stevens, May and Evelyn Burke, Lon Rinsey, Mary and Lydia Koch, Mrs. Ida Shiplock, Mrs. B. Teasner, Mrs. Emma Fowler, Toledo, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. E. Schumacher, Anna Heckel, Ida, Mich., Nora Beebe, Lillian Ulrich, Raynor Deidenger, from Ann Arbor and Henry and Sarah LaProd of Monroe and Mrs. L. Webb of Carlton. The little one is most grateful for the many nice articles which were showered upon her. She is a most devoted and a Christian mother. Her needlework was exhibited at the Michigan Union exhibit last week.
