Pinckney Boy Joins Marines

Many Pinckney Boys Now Serving In Our Armed Forces. More to Enlist Soon

The large list of local boys who have entered their country's service was increased last week when Stephen Gercz, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gercz of this place, enlisted in the United States Marines at Detroit. Stephen graduated from Pinckney high school in 1936 and was a good athlete. He has worked in Detroit for several years.

We understand that quite a large number of other boys in this vicinity are contemplating enlisting in some branch of the service.

Edsel Meyer and Willard Widmeyer passed the United States naval examination at Lansing Friday with 16 other boys. They were given a seven-day furlough and will leave for the Great Lakes naval training station, near Waukegan, Wisconsin, on January 3.

Paul Singer, who has been at the U. S. naval base at Newport, Rhode Island, for the past two months, has been transferred to the Aviation Mechanic school, near Chicago, and spent Christmas here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Singer. He will take a course at Chicago in aviation motors. This is a new school and is not yet completed.

NEXT DRAFT CALL

The next draft call is next month and 11 men will be sent from this county to Detroit for army medical examination. The draft order medical examinations. The draft order was for all men available and this is all the county board had. However, they have received orders to review all Class 1B men and also to cease deferring men who have passed the 28 year age limit. The entire draft list for this county has been reviewed by federal men but they have not yet sent their recommendations to the county board. Those men will be sent for January induction:

Andrew Davis Howell

NOTICE

The annual meeting of the Livingston County Mutual Fire Insurance Company will be held at the Court House, Howell, Michigan, on Tuesday, January 6th, 1942 at 1:00 p.m., for the purpose of electing Directors and any other business that may come before said meeting. Secretary.

PROCLAMATION

I, Claude Kennedy, President of the Village of Pinckney, on behalf of the American National Red Cross do hereby proclaim that January 2, 1942, will be the opening date of the campaign for raising our quota for the Red Cross war fund.

The national organization has allotted a sum of $183.00 for the Pinckney and Putnam Township. P. H. Swarthout has been appointed Chairman for this village and township.

This fund will be used for services to our armed forces, and for the relief of distressed civilians. Pearl Harbor is still very vivid in our memories, and our contributions to this fund is one definite way to show our gratitude to those who are now defending our country against our enemies.

I know we realize the importance of raising this money at the earliest possible date, and I am confident we will all do our share to go over the top again in this most worthy cause.

Dated December 29, 1941

CARD OF THANKS

I sincerely thank the King's Daughters, Philathea Class and many friends for the beautiful flowers, cards and letters I received during my illness.

Tire Rationing Goes in Effect

All Auto and Truck Tires To Be Rationed. County Committee to Handle This Is Appointed

Owing to a rubber shortage, most rubber used in this country is imported, and the great amount of rubber needed for defense and war, all auto and truck tires, starting January 3, 1942, will be rationed by the federal government. Each state, county and township will have a quota assigned to it. This rationing is so drastic that among the average motorists, only physicians, surgeons, veterinarians and visiting nurses will be able to buy new tires.

As regard truck tires, busses with a capacity of 10 or more passengers, used exclusively for transportation, such as school, public and company busses, trucks used to carry ice, fuel, roofing, plumbing, heating, electrical repair parts, scrap and waste metal, semi-manufactured goods, finished products and farm products will be able to get tires. Farm equipment, such as tractors, are on the approved list.

Motorcycle tires are also subject to rationing but not bicycle tires.

Local rationing boards appointed by the local defense council will handle the tire rationing.

Re-treads and re-capped tires are exempt and we understand that many tire dealers have fair-sized stocks of these on hand. However, there are only about 8,000,000 new tires on sale in the United States which is about a two-month supply. In addition, there are about 1,500,000 used tires and 200,000 retreads.

Milk and bakery trucks are not on the exempt list, but an effort is being made to exempt them.

The biggest hardship will be suffered by persons who drive to work or use their cars in their business, such as salesmen. These will have to use the busses.

The following county committee has been appointed to handle the tire rationing for this county: Joe Brady, chairman, John Hagman, Fred Berry, Ora Parker and W. O. Richards.

CLARENCE POWELL

To leave our toil, When Jesus, coming clothed with power

The welcome to our home shall give On Heaven's soil.

Auto Accident Claims Two

Young Howell Couple Are Killed In Motor Accident Near New Hudson. Four Others Injured.

Christmas brought tragedy to this section in the death of Leonard Uber, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Uber, and Thelma Smith, 17 daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ferris Smith, of Howell, on Christmas night.

Uber was driving and is said to have turned out to pass a car on Grand River two miles east of New Hudson when he met a car in the middle lane, going in the opposite direction. This car was driven by Henry Stankey of Detroit. With him was his wife, Lillian, son, Ronald, 12, and daughter, Patricia, 7. All were badly hurt and taken to Mellus hospital, Brighton.

Uber was instantly killed suffering a broken back and other injuries. Miss Smith died the next morning. The former graduated from Howell high school and attended Michigan State College. At the time of his death he was employed by Johnson Cartage Co. in Detroit.

Miss Smith was a senior in Howell high school. Her mother was Lillian Wasson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wasson of Plainfield and graduated from Pinckney high school in 1922.

The dead boy leaves two brothers, Charles and Paul and a sister Harriet. The dead girl leaves two sisters, Evelyn and Arlene.

Both funerals were held at Howell Saturday afternoon.

FIRE HERE SATURDAY NIGHT

The Samuel Grimes house on Main St., occupied by Mrs. Ezra Plummer and family caught fire about 6:00 p.m. Saturday night. The fire started in an upstairs room apparently from the chimney. Prompt action removed most of the household goods. The blaze was extinguished by the use of the chemical tank. Quite a little damage was caused by smoke and water. The loss is covered by insurance. The local fire department got on the job quickly and prompt work by them saved the building.

CAR STOLEN HERE

Last Wednesday night while Bert Harris was attending the midnight Mass at St. Mary's church, Pinckney, his car, a Ford coupe, was stolen from the parking ground near the church. The sheriff was notified and the theft broadcast Sunday it was found abandoned on the Northwest Territorial road near the Stier farm.

REGULAR COMMUNICATION

Regular communication of Livingston Lodge will be held on Tuesday evening, January 6 starting promptly at 8:00 p.m. Two first degrees will be conferred. Start the New Year out right by attending lodge. Refreshments will be served following degree work.

State News

Lansing - Good journalism comes straight from the heart.

It also comes from country towns -- those small towns of less than 10,000 population which serve as trading centers for surrounding rural areas.

This phenomenon of journalism has been noted often by students of American life. It was Simeon Strunksky, leading editorial writer of the New York Times, who observed in his book "The Living Tradition": "With us the small-town and country newspaper which is most often a weekly journal is more influential than the metropolitan daily press . . . Psychologically, it is a sound contention that a single copy of a weekly newspaper slowly absorbed may succeed in driving home a point more effectively than repeating the same point in the course of a week to a metropolitan audience".

All of which is preface to a remarkable newspaper editorial, written by Schuyler R. Marshall, editor and publisher of the Clinton County Republican News at St. Johns. Marshall was both an isolationist and non-interventionist during the period of debate on foreign affairs and his readers know this well. The editorial on America's war aims is as follows:

The War, and You - and Me

It was Sunday morning, December 7, 1941. Some people were at church. Others were sleeping late as is their habit on this day. In New York City it was late afternoon. In San Francisco, early morning. At Pearl Harbor in the Hawaiian Islands there was a dim light of daybreak. Despite the varying progress of daylight in these widely separated points, it was the same identical moment and all these places, and all these people were under the same flag - the Stars and Stripes. The people, whether in mid-Pacific or on Fifth avenue, are Americans.

In Washington the representatives of Japan were conferring with the State Department - talking about a peaceful settlement of a dispute. This conference had been going on for months, and in the last week or two had been made much of. There was reason to believe an honest effort was being made by these Oriental representatives to arrive at some peaceful understanding. We did not want war with them - or with any nation. They had much to gain by a peaceful settlement. They had much to lose if war was resorted to. There was no precedent, no incident in the history of the past of any nation using open diplomacy as an instrument of treachery.

But that is just what happened.

CURR E N T C O M M E N T

"By, Yo. Editor"

The past Christmas seems different than any we have ever experienced. People seem more serious and not so much given over to frivolity. The war has had its effect on all persons and there is hardly a family who has not had or does not expect to have some of its members called to military service. Readjustments will be necessary in living conditions and many other things. None of us knows what the future holds for us. We are all confident that our cause, which is a just one, will triumph in the end but the present outlook is that we shall have a rough and rocky road to travel before success crowns our efforts. The aggressor nations have been preparing for years and this country has just begun. There were many different viewpoints as to how this preparation should proceed and in our democratic form of government of unlimited debate much delay ensued and valuable time was lost. The bombing of Pearl Harbor ended this verbal warfare and unified all viewpoints.

The views of two leading clergymen given here should be of assistance to those who have trouble reconciling their religious faith and their country's policy. Rev. Harry Emerson Fosdick, pastor of the Riverside Baptist church in New York City, has been active in that group who have worked against participation in war. He says:

There will be those who will take quite a negative and individual attitude toward the war, as if they could remain aloof and unsullied. But the people and the nation and their troubles, perils and sins are ours, part and parcel of a common need. Now all, as Christians, should face the challenge and stand together on at least one platform -- all this agony shall not be wasted as it was the last time.

At the same time one of the leading spokesmen for the Roman Catholic church in America, the Right Rev. Fulton J. Sheen, professor of philosophy at Catholic University challenged the Catholicism of those members of that church who do not support the President as the authority of the state to which they belong. He said it is the duty of all Roman Catholics to respect the authority of the state no matter where it may be vested, and quoted the words of Jesus Christ and the encyclical of the late Pope Pius XII to show that is the fundamental doctrine of the church.

Few can understand why no effort was made to relieve the brave American soldiers and Marines who defended Guam and Wake Islands to the end and literally died with their boots on. We have seen several explanations of this but none are convincing. One states that the Japanese attacks in the Far East are a feint for the purpose of getting us to divert our efforts in that direction and so ease the pressure on Hitler and other Axis powers.

That the real war effort must be directed against Hitler and that the Japanese effort is merely a sort of side show. However, the truth is that we are probably unprepared to send a fleet with sufficient men and planes to the Far East which would be able to turn the scales in our favor and at the present time what we could send there would be totally insufficient and fall as easy prey to the Japs.

It would seem that many of our defense efforts are inclined to overlap. The new draft bill passed by both houses provides that all men between the ages of 18 and 64 must register, said registration to take place probably in February. Only those from 20 to 45 will be called for military duty. All others will be placed on the reserve list and may be called later on for non-military duty. The Civilian Defense also urges all people to register for defense duties. It would seem that these two organizations would overlap and that many names would be bound to appear on both lists. As yet, the duties of neither have been clearly defined. The Civilian Defense is supposed to take precautions against air raids, form volunteer fire fighter organizations, etc. All counties have been organized with county committees but as yet haven't gotten down to actual work. 7500 have registered in this state.

THE DAY OF PRAYER

In keeping with the request of President Roosevelt that Thursday, January 1st, (New Year's Day) be made a day of prayer for our Nation, a public service of worshipand prayer will be held Thursday morning at 10:30 a.m. Men are dressing and dying for the cause of freedom and righteousness, and many mother's sons are giving their lives for us, so it behoves us as a community to stop feasting as is the traditional custom of New Years Day and turn to praying for our beloved Nation and her allies in this hour of great peril and crisis.May God help us to give some time and thought to these serious things.
It has been known in human history when it was too late to pray. Wake up, America, it is not too late yet, pray while you have an opportunity. Freedom of worship is denied many who are under the heel of gum dictators. We are still free and may we pray to God to keep us free. It is hoped and expected a large group will avail themselves of this opportunity on Thursday morning. A hearty welcome is extended to all who worship with us.All who are not affiliated with any other church will find a welcome at all our regular services. Any and all people in our community will be very welcome to the services New Years morning.The Pastor wishes to express the appreciation of himself and family to the church for the Christmas gift also the personal gifts and cards, and wishes all in the community a happy and prosperous
New Year.

PHILATEA NOTESThe church service on Sunday was very helpful. The pastor's sermon was from the wonderful text,
"For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindness shall not depart from thee neither shall the covenant of my peace removed, saith the Lord that hath mercy on thee." Isaiah 54:10.It is hoped that by next Sunday we may have Sunday School again, as we are missing our class discussions. We begin a new quarter with the beginning of the year, studying the "Life of Christ" from the Synoptic Gospel. For next Sunday, Jan.
4, we consider Matt. 1:17, Mark
1:14, 15; Luke 1:14; Acts 1:1-5.

To Our Friends:

Of course, you know that we really don't need the New Year to make us realize how much friends mean to us, but perhaps it does take the good old New Year to remind us to tell you so.

At this time our thoughts turn toward those with whom our success is so closely linked . . . to our many customers whom we are proud to call our friends.

To you then, we welcome this opportunity to express our sincere appreciation for the business relationship you have made it our privilege to enjoy in the past.

We look forward with confidence to a continuance of the grand friendship and pleasant relationship for many years to come. It is our sincere hope that the New Year may bring you prosperity in bountiful measure and real happiness.

STAR DUST
STAGE SCREEN RADIO

By VIRGINIA VALE
(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

THANKS to the war, Errol Flynn lost his chance to be Prince Charming at a huge debutante party in New York. Picture the scene as it was planned. According to announcements, he was to be seated in a silver coach, which at midnight would rise from the orchestra pit. But the debutante cancelled the party, feeling that it was not fitting to go through with it in war time.

Hollywood's station wagon battalion, formed a few weeks ago to meet emergencies in time of war, is now being put through its paces, according to the King's men, the quartet of the Fibber McGee and Molly program. They are listed among the 200 members of the battalion.

Ginger Rogers will star in "The Major and the Minor," a romantic comedy, as her first picture under her recently signed agreement with Paramount. It ought to be a swell picture; its authors wrote "Hold Back the Dawn," "Ninotchka" and "Ball of Fire."

Incidentally, Ginger has spent six years attempting to gain six pounds, and has finally achieved that goal.

With practically all the other girls in Hollywood going in for very short hair, Claudette Colbert, who has worn hers fairly short, will have the longest bob she's ever worn in "The Palm Beach Story." Her hair will fall to her shoulders, but she'll keep her famous bangs. It's a Preston Sturges picture, this new one, and Joel McCrea plays opposite her.

Once again Director Norman Taurog is looking for a baby. He's the man who, eight years ago, conducted the search for an infant who could mimic Maurice Chevalier's out-thrust lower lip—a search that brought Baby Le Roy to the screen. Later he was responsible for the casting of Jackie Cooper in "Skippy." Now he seeks a year-old child who resembles Ray Milland, for "Mr. and Mrs. Cugat."

As soon as the first word of Japan's attack on Hawaii reached the United States the March of Time began preparing as its next release a comprehensive film story of how this country, in the last war, came through to final victory. Titled "Our America at War," it ends by showing that, as America won the last war through co-ordinated effort, so she will win this one.

One night not so long ago Mickey Rooney was called to the telephone. It was Carmen Miranda—she'd heard that he was going to do an impersonation of her in "Bebe on Broadway." To make sure that it would be a good one, she arranged to coach him, and the result is the very funny burlesque of her that he does in the picture.

Cary Grant's main idea, when he finished working in "Suspicion," with Joan Fontaine, was to catch up on sleep. Said he hadn't had a day or evening to himself since he started work in "My Favorite Wife," more than a year ago; "Suspicion" was his fifth picture in a row without a good long vacation. Maybe all those extra-curricular activities that we heard about were just rumors.

Joan Blaine, who soon starts doubling between two air serials for a total of three broadcasts a day, vastly prefers radio to any other branch of show business. "Stage and film stars are so visibly beautiful," says she. "Their waists are thin, their eyelashes sweep alarmingly. Their slips never show. But the radio actress is just folks to her audience."

ODDS AND ENDS—Paula Winslow was brought in to do Shirley Temple's screams in the little star's first radio series; she first time she yelled Shirley herself jumped in alarm . . . Two young players, Diane Rutherford and Robert Sterling, get breaks in Metro's "Just Between Us"—they have leading roles . . . Kate Smith now does her mid-day broadcasts from the CBS newsroom . . . Robert Montgomery got home from England for a vacation, just in time to be called into service here . . . John Scott Trotter is making the most of his flair for good food, he's preparing a cook book, which he ought to dedicate to Bing Crosby.

Learn to Sew if Your Budget Is Limited—It's Fun, Too!

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

THIS year the fashion picture is literally packed with drama.

What with a whirl of midwinter festivities and gala occasions in full swing one is almost sure to yearn for more than the usual amount of clothes glamour. The good news is that, by making sewing your hobby, you can easily manage to have an enchanting array without suffering a single budget twinge.

Simply pick the pattern that measures up to your idea of a dream dress, get your material in hand and then dash off to your nearest local sewing center where expert help is cheerfully given in sewing shorts cuts and fashion tricks, at little or no expense.

Fabric counters are literally bubbling over with an endless display of smart, inexpensive rayon jerseys, tweedy weaves that tailor beautifully, gorgeous taffetas and moires that look twice as expensive as they really are; velveteens in alluring pastel and brilliant jewel-toned colors; handsome laces of every type from sheer to the new linens effects, which, for the most part, can be had for under a dollar a yard. This year a merry war is going on between traditional black-and-white and lush, ravishing colors like fuchsia, turquoise, black plum, alarm red, topaz, gold and beige, Kelly green and seafoam tones and tints.

For the twilight hour and its flattening candlelight, there's romantic elegance needed, and you will be equal to the occasion if you make a dinner dress which combines a long-sleeved, front-buttoned, long-torso

White Fur

In keeping with the vogue for "winter white," this season, comes the prediction from furriers that snow white lamb will prove one of the most popular furs of the season. The young set is "rushing" the idea. It's a treat to the eye to see young girls wearing coats like the one pictured. These coats are strikingly new, and they top the now-so-modish white jersey "date" dresses to perfection.

Rain Now Calls for Gay Fashion Parade

Away with somber attire on a rainy day! No longer are leaden-skies, downpours of rain and muddy streets a sign that one must match the somberness of the scene with clothes equally depressing. According to the new theory, a rainy day is just the time to come out in bright array. In fact, rainy days are turning into cheerful events.

There are gay new capes, fitted coats and trench model coats, some in white, some in blue and, most exciting of all, those in bright red rainproof transparencies or processed cloth, if you prefer. You can get red or white boots to match.

There's style and charm, too, in the new processed black satin raincoats that are fashioned with smart details and given a glamour touch in that the newest out are fashioned with jeweled buttons.

Magazine Tells What the College Girl Is Wearing

According to a new women's magazine:

College co-eds are braiding their hair in "country cousin" style.

Earrings are being worn with the braids.

Sixty inch pearls worn on "Sloppy Joe" cardigans are "tops" everywhere.

Cowboy boots, plaid sweaters, lime yellow shirts, corduroy jackets, the "V" neck sweater and knee length argyle plaid socks also storm the American campus scene.

For the Young

Take yards and yards of bright red net. Fashion this into a full skirt. Top this with a snug-fitting bodice made of jersey in matching red. Outline the decolletage, sleeve edges and finish off the waistline with a single-row beading of sparkling red sequins.

Adamant Club Grets New Year on Summit Of Lofty Pikes Peak

While most people will be celebrating New Year's in comfortably warm homes, theaters and other amusement places, a small group of men will be battling bitter cold and high snow drifts as they climb to the top of Pikes peak.

Every year at the stroke of midnight on New Year's eve members of the Adamant club set off a huge display of fireworks from the summit of Pikes peak. The mercury has fallen as low as 40 degrees below zero during the nine-mile climb, and the wind blows relentlessly atop the 14,110-foot peak.

Early in the afternoon of December 31 the hardy group will leave Colorado Springs. They will ride in automobiles as far as Manitou Springs which is located at the base of the peak. Their ride ends here, and they begin their long climb.

At first the climb is easy, but after the Half Way House is passed the climbing becomes extremely difficult. Snow drifts are more than 20 feet deep in places, and the incessant north wind whips the snow particles with great force.

In addition to food supply, each man carries his share of the fireworks. The trip is a grueling test of endurance and strength. But the men really enjoy it.

U. S. Had Quiet Year During '42

No one knows what the year 1942 will bring, but '42 exactly 100 years ago was a relatively quiet one for the United States.

In that year the national debt reached the high level of more than $13,594,000. La' gripe (influenza) was prevalent throughout the country. This year also saw Charles Dickens visit the United States, and the Horatio Greenough statue of General George Washington was placed in the federal Capitol.

Other events of national importance which occurred exactly one century ago follow:

March 31—Henry Clay of Kentucky resigns from the U. S. Senate. May 2—Col. John C. Fremont commenced an exploring expedition to the Rocky mountains.

June 29—President Tyler vetoes the tariff bill.

August 9—Maine boundary established by the Webster-Ashburn treaty between the United States and England.

August 30—President Tyler signs the tariff bill.

September 29—Order of the Sons of Temperance organized in New York.

Columbus Achieved 'Greatest Discovery' Just 450 Years Ago

The year 1942 would ordinarily be one marked by a great observance of some sort for the achievement of Christopher Columbus in 1492. For 1942 rounds out 450 years since the discovery of America.

In 1892, on the occasion of the four-hundredth anniversary, the Chicago fair, one of the most renowned in the world, took place. But for World War II, 1942 would have brought about another significant celebration.

Even as it is, there is some talk of paying due honor to the great navigator who, in 1492 like the world we know in the dawn of 1942, also had his "darkest hour" before the light burst on a new world.

Joaquin Miller wrote of this hour in Columbus' life—and it could be symbolic of the arrival and hopes of the year 1942. The poetry follows:

Then pale and wan he kept the deck
And peered through darkness.

And that night, of all dark nights
And then a light—a light.

It grew, a starlet sag untired
It grew its burst of dawn—

He gained—a world.

He gave that world its grandest lesson
On—and on!

U. S. Only Sixth Rate

In Eyes of Father Time

Although the United States leads the world in many ways, it is about sixth rate in the eyes of Father Time. He brings the new year first to Australia, Asia, Africa, Europe and most of South America before he finally gets around to this country. Then for three more hours the people of California must be satisfied with 1941 before they receive the fresh new year of 1942.

When the new year is born it will be 7 a. m., December 31, in our eastern cities; 6 a. m. in the central time zone; 5 a. m. in the mountain zone; and 4 a. m. in the Pacific coast states.

Early Scots Used Bible

For Glimpses Into Future

A glimpse into the future was believed possible by the early Scots who turned to their Bibles on New Year's day.

The sacred book was laid upon the table, opened at random and a finger was placed on the printed page. The entire chapter was then read, and the message it held was then believed to describe in some way the happiness or misery in store for the person referring to the practice.

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action

Modern life with hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—its risk of exposure and infection—can have a bad effect on the kidneys. They are apt to become over-sized and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, swelling—feeling constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney and bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

DOANS PILLS help the kidneys to pass off harmful excess waste. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!

Treacherous Death

While the conferences were in progress and while the citizens and soldiers and sailors of the United States went about their usual duties and their usual activities, death and destruction rode the skies.

Out of the early morning skies came Japanese bombers. They dumped murderous explosives on barracks filled with unsuspecting soldiers. They blasted ships at anchor. They swooped over air fields and dumped their loads of treacherous death. Onto the heads of defenseless men, women and children, they rained explosives . . . and in a few minutes were gone.

They left dead American citizens strewn around amid burning wreckage.

They left amazement, astonishment and bewilderment.

But not for long.

They left something they will never forget.

They left something they will always regret.

In a few fateful minutes they kindled the rage of a people who had for months reluctantly withheld from accepting war with all its terrible consequences.

They aroused in one rash act one hundred and thirty million Americans who have never, and will never, let any of their citizens suffer such treatment without paying back ten fold.

Japan Will Pay

America is fighting mad.

Our people will fight, as they always have fought when it was necessary.

They will work as they have always worked to win - produce more and more and then double that again and again.

They will make any sacrifices necessary - and do it quickly and just as long as there is a treacherous Japanese left.

Japan will pay for this - pay a terrible price. They asked for it. They will get it.

Yesterday is forgotten.

We have a job to do.

It will be an expensive and revolting job. It will take lives, blood, sweat, toil and privations.

No one is afraid.

No one flinches at the prospect.

War is no longer a theory. It is here. We are engaged in it. We are in to win. We are in to revenge the lives of our citizens and our boys in service who were not given the opportunity to defend themselves.

We'll Do Our Part

But what about you and I - what are we going to do?

You know, just as well as we, that we will do whatever is demanded and whenever it is needed.

Some of the boys will go to join others in army camps. Others will join the navy - and still others will pilot planes in the skies.

The rest of us will stay at home, doing our jobs to support the fighting man - to keep our homes, our farms and our factories functioning full blast.

There is food to be raised.

There are planes, tanks, munitions and equipment to be furnished.

There are vital industries, and strategic points to be guarded against sabotage.

There is the morale of the people at home and the boys away at camp or on the high seas to be maintained.

There is accurate information to be disseminated. There will be false rumors to be discredited.

An Unsavory Job

THERE IS A FREE COUNTRY TO BE PRESERVED FOR MILLIONS OF AMERICAN CHILDREN - future citizens who must never be the slaves of a slant-eyed Jap or a brutal Hitler.

All these and a thousand more jobs born of a war emergency will be waiting to be done.

Later - we hope not - there will be dead to bury. There will be the wounded to rehabilitate. There will be men coming home no longer carefree, adventurous youths who will have to be helped to fit into a new place and a new life.

In time there will again be peace.

But it must be an honorable peace and it will not come until the mad-dog nations of the earth are subdued.

Let us, in the meantime, be thinking ahead to the time when there can be a just peace. Let us, even the humblest, be thinking of the day when something can be substituted for the senseless and horrible penalties of war.

It is too late to speculate on the mistakes that have been made.

We have an unsavory job to do -
