News Items Concerning Our Boys Who Are In Their Country's Service

In connection with the letter of commendation awarded to Edsel Meyer of this place, now in the U. S. Navy on the U.S.S. Morris, Attorney Jay Sweeney, of Howell, informs us that he has a nephew, John Jackson, serving on the same boat. He is chief petty officer and has served on this boat since it was commissioned.

Of the quota of 15 men sent to the Detroit induction center last Wednesday, four were accepted. They were Harold Farley, of Pinckney, Al Beet, Jr. of Gregory, William Brown of Howell and Orville Puckett, of Gregory. Earl Sawyer and Edward Klausung, of Howell, were rejected. Malcolm Schroder and Frank Horton, of Howell, enlisted prior to induction. Hollis Lewis, Pat Devens and Henry Perry were held for further examination. The next draft call is for July 15 and about 75 men are asked of this county.

Press releases stated last week that, beginning next August, all Class 1B registrants would be called into the service and would replace men now holding non-combatant jobs releasing the latter from active service. The county draft board has received orders to induct five per cent of their 1B registrants per month starting August 1.

The report that all married men will henceforth be exempt from the draft is unfounded. The ruling is as follows: All men married after Dec. 7, 1941, Pearl Harbor, are classified as unmarried. All men who married after the draft law was passed Sept. 16, 1940, must prove their marriage was not for the purpose of draft evasion. These rulings came from Col. E. M. Rosecrance, state selective service director.

Dear Editor:

Well, here I am finishing up my last week in Chicago and will be on my way to a new base before the week is over. We are not going to get a leave after school so I thought I had better drop you a line and have you hold up my paper until I get settled and send you my new address. What it will be your guess is as good as mine.

I don't know whether you have heard or not, but I am now a 3rd class Petty Officer, which is equal to a Sergeant in the army. I got my rate on the 12th of June.

We are not going to get a leave after school and I don't know when I will get home. It will probably depend on where I go.

My company graduates Friday afternoon and will leave either Friday or Saturday.

I have had lots of fun here in Chicago and will miss it more than likely see a little action now, I hope, so we can get this war over and get back to good old free life again. I don't think I would want to make this my life's profession, although it will probably be a good place to be after this war is over.

I see you are entering a softball league this year. Would sure like to be there and play. I have played but one game of ball this year, and the ball they play here is a lot different from the way we play in Pinckney. I wouldn't even call it playing ball.

I see by the paper that the rest of the boys in service are doing all right. Maybe I will meet some of them one of these days. If I do, maybe some of them will take orders from me and like it, ha, ha.

Well, it is getting time for the lights to go out so I had better cut this off. It seems funny going to bed when it is still light.

I'll write when I get settled and then you can start sending me the paper again, 'cause it really is swell to read the news from home.

So, thanks a lot, and here's wishing the rest of the boys in service a lot of luck.

Burns-Young Wedding

Popular Young People Are Married At Howell Last Saturday Morning

Miss Ella Marie Burns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Burns, until recently local residents, and Jack Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Young, of Gregory, were united in marriage at St. Joseph's church at Howell last Saturday morning, Rev. Fr. Fedewa officiating, assisted by Rev. Fr. Chapman and Francis Martin, a student for the priesthood. The bridal party marched into the church in the following order: The four ushers, dressed in dark pants and light colored coats. They were William Kuhn, Glennon McCleer, Paul Young and James Burns. They were followed by the four bridesmaids, Mary Spears, Jeanne Clark, Elaine Young and Bonnie Jean Burns. Two wore blue organdy and two wore yellow and carried snap dragons and yellow roses. Mitzie Young, dressed in blue organdy, and Bernadine Burns, in yellow organdy, came next. They carried baskets of rose petals which they scattered in the aisle. Janice Burns, the ring bearer, followed, bearing the ring in a lily. Margaret Jean Burns the maid of honor, followed. She wore pink chiffon, trimmed with pink lace. A crown of roses and a peach colored veil added to the effect of the costume. Robert Young, brother of the groom, acted as best man. He wore white trousers and a brown coat.

The bride came in on the arm of her father. She was lovely in her all white costume of frosted organdy with velvet roses embroidered on it. She carried a prayer book with white orchids.

The groom wore a white suit and presented a trim appearance. Muriel Read, in a blue dress, carried the guest book, over which she officiated at the church and later at the reception.

The bride's mother wore a jacket of navy blue over a blue and white dress and carried roses. The groom's mother wore a dress of rayon crepe and carried sweet peas.

Charles Smith, cousin of the bride, acted as altar boy.

The wedding breakfast was served following the ceremony at St. Joseph's hall to a large number of guests. Those in charge of the serving were Mrs. Roy Clark, and Mrs. Edward Singer, of Pinckney, and Mrs. Eyelett, of Howell. The girls who helped serve were Mary Jane Gallagher, Rosemary Read, Pinckney; Pat Bollinger, Shirley Rockwell Janet Marshall, Betty Wackenhut, of Gregory, Patty Burns, Agnes Jameison.

Following this, a reception was held at the home of Mrs. Mary Burns, of Howell, grandmother of the bride.

Both young people are well known and liked in this section. The bride graduated from St. Thomas high school, Ann Arbor, in 1941, and is employed in the office of the King-Seely Corp. in Ann Arbor. The groom graduated from Pinckney high school in 1941 and is employed by a plumbing firm at the Willow Run Bomber plant. He is building a home in Ann Arbor, where he and his bride will reside as soon as it is completed. After the reception, the newly-weds left for a trip in northern Michigan.

In behalf of their many friends here the Dispatch takes pleasure in extending congratulations.

Pinckney To Have Three Big Gala Days, July 3, 4, 5. Many Amusements and Concessions To Be Held Friday, Saturday and Sunday Pinckney will put on an old fashioned 4th of July celebration, consisting of parades, merry-go-round, Ferris wheel, concessions and other amusements, such as shooting galleries, games, etc. On the Fourth, at 10 a.m. there will be a pet parade in which the youngsters will get an opportunity to exhibit their pets. In addition to a number of boys, the following young ladies have entered their pets: Joan Griffiths, a cat; Nan Ledwidge, a cat; Barbara Tindler, a dog; and Rena Haines, a dog. Come on, kiddies, enter your pets and win the prize.

In addition, another attraction has been added in Fred's Novelty Circus and Travelling Zoo. This is a first class aggregation of trained animals. Don't miss it.

The amusements and concessions will operate both during the day and evening. Come to Pinckney on the 4th and enjoy yourself.

Tire and Rubber Shortage Is Expected to Boom the Vacation Facilities of Michigan

Keep fit for war work by healthful vacation in Michigan.

This theme of the four tourist and resort associations has been sanctioned in spirit by the Office of Defense Transportation for the nation's wartime requirements.

It may rescue Michigan's $300,000,000 recreational industry, highly concentrated in North Michigan and the Upper Peninsula, from the economic doghouse this summer.

Two months ago the uncertainties of war made the summer outlook dismal indeed. Then reservations for cottages began to arrive. And folks are staying for the summer, too. Now, the first week in July, things are on the "up and up" in North Michigan, from all reports. As is often the case, facts are better than fears.

Transportation is the key to the 1942 vacation season.

Anticipated gasoline rationing, a means of conserving rubber tires for the duration, has been postponed. The contradictory statements of federal and state officials have confused the situation. Resort owners are frankly worried, but the silver lining to date is this: It is not unpatriotic to fish and swim and otherwise to keep physically fit.

From the White House down to the governor's executive offices, leaders recommend the desirability of recreation for needed morale.

What are the favorable factors?

First, Michigan is convenient to the national center of population. Long trips to the west or New England are impractical this summer. Michigan is within a day's access of millions of people, many of whom are working long hours in war plants, earning high wages, and probably will continue to do so for many months to come.

Second, a short war lessens the need of a civilian furlough, but a lengthened strain upon our manpower will increase its importance. Recent over-optimism has been checked by military reverses of the past few weeks. Victory in 1942 no longer seems possible, even by a remote stretch of imagination. The long haul is ahead.

Third, railroad and bus facilities are good to Michigan's vacationland. If vacations are started mid-week, instead of week end periods, these facilities should be adequate to meet the additional travel demands.

Fourth, Michigan comprises not only one peninsula, but two peninsulas. Our coastline is greater than any other state, even including Florida. Consequently, water transportation is available.

REV. D. C. LITTLEJOHN

Rev. Dewitt C. Littlejohn, 67, pastor of the Pinckney M. E. church some 35 years ago, died at Bellefontaine, Ohio, June 24. He was born in Sidney, Ohio, on Dec. 6th, 1875, and studied at Ohio Wesleyan University and Boston University. He took his first pastorate in Pinckney in 1906, going from here to Saline in 1909, Howell in 1911 and to Calumet in 1916-20. From there he went to Detroit in 1923 to become pastor of the Jefferson M. E. church, later he was superintendent of the Port Huron district and his last pastorate was at the Flint Central M. E. church.

WAS IN THIS COUNTY

State police were here until late Wednesday night blocking the roads on a chance that James McCarter Leonard, the Cheboygan desperado who shot several men in Wayne county that day, might make his escape through here. Sheriff's officers also were on guard. Despite this, he seems to have slipped on through, as the ear he stole in Northville to make his getaway was found abandoned near Grand River Ave. in Howell. He got to Grand Rapids, where he was trapped in a room in the Lorraine Hotel and shot dead by two Grand Rapids detectives. Leonard had a long police record and had served time in Ionia. He was 22 years old.

CURRENT COMMENT

Again the current of the war tide has changed and the Axis forces at the moment seem to have the best of it. The Allied rout at Libya was as sudden as it was unexpected and overnight changed the entire complexion of it. A week or two ago you could have gotten plenty of bets here that the war would end by next Christmas. These are now no more. The war now looks like a long drawn out fight of several years with the victory going to the army having the greatest staying power. The Allies are still on the defensive with the exception of hit and run air raids on the continent and the opening of a second front in Europe still appears far away. This second European front is a prime necessity if the Allies expect to win the war. Now there are numerous difficulties in the way of this as compared to the World War I. Then, France and Belgium were Allies and still fighting, and landing soldiers was comparatively easy. Germany now controls all of these countries and the landing of troops in either of these countries would result in large casualties and keeping supply lines open would encounter many difficulties. Great Britain remembers Dunkirk and is extremely cautious. Still, Russia appears to be yielding to the Axis on many fronts and a second front may be a necessity to save Russia. This was undoubtedly the purpose of the visit of the Russian minister here last week.

The present situation is not unlike that which existed in this country in the first years of the civil war. In the opening days of the war, Gen. McDowell marched an untrained army out to meet the Rebels at Bull Run and was soundly licked. He was replaced by McClellan. He built up the finest army this country had ever seen. It was given everything it required. Months and months passed and still he did not lead it into battle. Finally, the patience of the people was exhausted and he was replaced by Gen. Joe Hooker. Hooker went into battle, was beaten, and replaced by Gen. Burnside, who in turn was replaced by Gen. Halleck. Still, no victories followed. At last, Gen. Grant, who had been successful in the campaign in the west, was placed in command. He attacked the enemy in the battle of The Wilderness and by fighting continuously and holding on, managed to outlast the Rebel, and win. Still, there were continued outcries for his removal because of his great losses in men. Grant knew he could lose 10,000 men with less loss of fighting strength than the enemy could 5,000, and acted on this theory. However, we do not believe this country is yet ready for a General Grant but before the war is ended, one will undoubtedly appear.

We think that the airing and broadcasting of the petty squabbles at the Ford bomber plant at Willow Run, near Ypsilanti, are not what one could call in the interests of national unity. This project was a tremendous undertaking and will not get into full production until next year. The site of the factory is out in the country. This caused rents to double in Ypsilanti and other nearby towns and still there was a housing shortage. Workers are now living in tents and shacks and trailers, and unsanitary conditions prevail in many places. No attempt seems to have been made by the communities nearby to relieve the situation. The federal government decided on a huge housing project. This caused the neighboring communities to see red and they sent a delegation to Washington which got nowhere. Then Henry Ford came out in opposition to it, ordered federal surveyors off his lands and had their stakes pulled up. Now the WLB will give the disputing parties another hearing at Washington. Washtenaw county charges that it is a CIO plot to overthrow the powers in that county which have been Republican since the last World War. Still, it must be admitted that the federal housing project is the only bonafide effort that has been made to end the housing shortage.

Michigan's Beauty Spots are at your door

When you want to telephone home while taking a Michigan holiday, please avoid the busy hours. The best times to make your Long Distance calls are:
BEFORE 10 A. M. FOUR TO 7 P. M.
NOON TO 2 P. M. AFTER 9 P. M.
 You can help keep lines clear for vital war calls by keeping personal calls brief and by making them at other times than during "rush" hours.

 Save cars, tires and time right here in Michigan!

WINNING the war is a job for vigorous Americans, ready to put all they've got into production and to work overtime cheerfully. But on days off they need to renew their energies out in the open. In Michigan, you don't have far to go. Here you'll find almost any kind of recreation you want—fishing, swimming, canoeing, camping—all close at hand. Five thousand miles of streams and rivers and millions of acres of woodland are your playground. Michigan workers are fortunate in having all these opportunities within easy reach by bus, boat or train.

PINCKNEY SOFTBALL LEAGUE

In the local soft ball league Gallup beat Lamb Monday by a score of 9-8. On Wednesday, the Shehan and Miller teams played a close game, Shehan winning 14-12. The game was featured with plenty of hitting. Seguin, Ellis and J. Swarthout all hit home runs. This leaves the standings of the teams unchanged.

Batteries: Gallup, Hulce and Widmayer; Lamb: C. Miller and C. Miller.

Batteries, Shehan: B. Singer and J. Lavey; Miller: Hulce and Reader.

WIN FROM BRIGHTON

In the county league last week Pinckney won their third straight game by beating Brighton here on Tuesday night, 9 to 3. Pinckney took the lead in the first by scoring three runs on a walk, a sacrifice, a single by Reader and Joe Lavey's triple, and was always ahead. The Brighton team got their three runs in the 5th when Pinckney threw the ball away twice. Brighton got good pitching but their infield work was poor. They got but three hits off Bob Singer, Pinckney pitcher.

Pinckney defeated the Fowlerville Wildcats here Friday night in a weird game, 26 to 20. Bob Singer pitching for Pinckney, did not have much, but the Fowlerville pitchers had less. The Fowlerville boys were a bunch of hard hitters but they were deficient in fielding and pitching. The Pinckney infield also gave Singer poor support.

ARMY JARGON

The tire and rubber shortage has had its effect on the United States army. Officers who served in the last world war, who have been re-commissioned and put back into service are called retreads and reserve or national guard officers are called spoolies.

CAPT. GUS WINS

Capt. Gus Ledwidge and his Invincibles took Camp Robinson 18 to 14 last Saturday night, but had to call in all their reserves to do it. Jack Haines starred at third for the Invincibles with fine fielding plays and also hit two doubles. The starting lineup was Ross Lamb, c; Fred Singer, p; Don Jones, 1b; Ron Darrow, 2b; Haines, 3b; Wes Palmer, ss; Dale Meabon, rs; Capt. Gus, lf; Russ Clark, cf and Donald Clark, rf. Another game will be played soon.

Miss Bernardine Lynch, of Kalemasoo, and Mr. and Mrs. John Burg and son of Sakine, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kennedy and daughters.

Mrs. Thos. Shehan, Mrs. Nettie Vaughn and Mrs. Roy Campbell attended a shower for Mrs. Rolland Shehan at the Roy Merrill home on Saturday.

 Everybody: I am very glad to see you send me the Pinckney patch. Good boy, Joe Lavey, your father. Tell him hello and the love of Pinckney. Well, Paul, I am sending my general orders. I am going to see the big city in two weeks. I mean New York City. One day some girls come over to our tent. Well, ones, not like those in Pinckney. Some night I am going over to see them. How is the ball team coming?
 If I see Bennie B. at New York and the five Pinckney boys, I will let you know next time. How is Fritz Helmer. Tell him to write. Also William Ezra Devol, 32, a former Brighton man, is among the hundreds of American citizens to be returned to this country from Japanese controlled territory. He has been a medical missionary in Luho, China since September, 1940. He is on the list of 420 Americans to be exchanged for Japanese nationals. His wife is the former Francis Hodgkin of Brighton. She was with him in China seven weeks when she was ordered home with their 2 daughters. She is a trained nurse and is now in Brighton. Other Michigan men to be exchanged are H. M. Whitmer, Burr Oak; E. Fleeg and S. A. Dystra, Grand Rapids. They will board the Swedish exchange ship, Gripsholm, in Portuguese East Africa.

How to get the most light

LAMPS AND FIXTURES

"Take good care of the things you have" is one of the cardinal rules of the U. S. Government's Consumer's Pledge—and it applies just as much to your lamps and fixtures as to your electric appliances. Perhaps it is even more important, because lamps lose their efficiency little by little, day by day, as dust and dirt collect on bulbs and shades and reflector bowls. The amount of light you are getting may be cut in half before you realize it... and these days you need plenty of good light for easy comfortable seeing, during those extra hours you spend knitting or sewing or doing war work. Good light helps make your time more productive.

Here are a few simple rules to aid in keeping your lamps and fixtures at top efficiency: Wipe all lamp bulbs frequently with a damp cloth, also the reflector bowls and shades. Dust steals light. Replace dark-colored shades with light shades or shades with white linings. This may give you as much as 50 per cent more light. Use the RIGHT SIZE BULBS in your lamps and fixtures—not too large, not too small. Too large a lamp may cause glare, too small a lamp gives inadequate light. Move your lamps closer to the point of use, so that they shed their light more directly on your work. Check the location of all your lamps with this in mind. Use adapter shades and linings to modernize your present equipment. This can be done easily and at low cost, and you obtain good light while conserving materials. The Detroit Edison Company.

PAY PROPERTY TAX

The state treasury today was enriched by $1,691,371 as the Michigan Bell Telephone Company made its semi-annual property tax payment into the Primary School Fund. Frank L. Hall, tax attorney for the company, this morning presented the check for the largest half year tax payment in the history of the company to Louis M. Nims, commissioner of the Michigan Department of Revenue. It marked the first time the check was handed to that official, previous payments having been made to the auditor general. Under the new revenue Act state tax collection duties are consolidated in the newly-created Department of Revenue. Hall said that the company's 1941 total tax bill vaulted to a new peak of $9,826,000, or nearly $2,000,000 above the previous high, which was reached the year before. Of the total, $9,294,000 or more than 17 per cent of the company's revenue was chargeable to operating expenses. That amounted to a tax of $10.59 per average telephone operated by the company during the year, compared with $9.71 for 1940. The company's Michigan property tax of $3,382,743 thus was only about a third of the total 1941 tax bill. Other levies included $5,148,000 in Federal income and capital stock taxes; $718,000 in social security taxes to the Federal and state governments; and $50,000 in miscellaneous levies, chiefly municipal taxes on company properties not used at present for telephone purposes.

The Michigan Bell property tax is the largest single payment into the Primary School Fund. Taxes paid into that Fund are returned for school purposes to the 83 counties in proportion to their school population.

Final payment on the company's $3,382,743 state property tax is due by October 31.

PHILATHEA NOTES

Our quarterly temperance lesson called out a discussion of the passages assigned for last Sunday. For next Sunday we begin a new quarter with studies in Genesis. For the lesson, "God, the Creator", we have Genesis 1:1-5; 4:31; and 2:1. The devotional reading is Psalm 33:1-9. We are asked to study this lesson carefully, even though we may not be able to have a lesson period, because of the program of the Daily Vacation Bible School. This school, under the direction of Mr. Shelver, started Monday morning in the parlors of the church and will be very instructive for the children and young people who attend. We are glad to welcome the usual summer group from "Camp Big Silver" and also other new faces and some who have before met with us and are always welcome.

Our Philatheas should bear in mind the Thursday meetings of the Ladies' Aid in the church parlors for sewing.

Remember that next Sunday is Missionary Day in our Sunday School and a special offering will be taken for the Daily Vacation Bible school director.

Wednesday, July 8, our group will meet with Mrs. Nelko Frye and Mrs. Peck at the Frye home.

Fishermen in Lake St. Clair and the Detroit river are warned to stay clear of shipping lanes or it may be necessary to bar fishing from these waters.

NEIGHBORING NOTES

The short way bus line now operates a route from Brighton to the W. W. Kier factory for bomber workers.

Clyde Titus, of Unadilla, has purchased the J. Perrigo house in Stockbridge and will move there.

The marriage of Irene Collins and Willis Fancher, of Stockbridge, is announced.

The Fowlerville State Bank, also known as the Ellsworth Bank, has gone out of business and will henceforth be known as the Community State Bank.

On account of an unfortunate occurrence the other day, the Chelsea Standard is agitating for that city to build a municipal building for city officers, jail, fire engine, etc. It seems a fire broke out in the Tower Cafe Monday night. The fire engine is kept in the Palmer garage which was locked. The marshall had the key, but he could not be found. By the time the door had been smashed the fire had such a start that the building was destroyed.

NOTES OF 50 YEARS AGO

Dispatch of June 30, 1892

The graduating exercises of the Pinckney school were held at the school on Wednesday evening, June 29. The orchestra played as the graduates marched in. Rev. Stephens gave the invocation. The Ladies Quartette sang two selections. The motto "Plus Ultra" was suspended across the stage. Miss Amelia Goodspeed gave an essay entitled "Reflection". Will Cadwell had for his subject, "Business or Profession, Which?". Miss Mable Mann sang a solo, "Sunny Spain". Miss Lucy Mann gave an article on Mozart. Miss Nina Younglove gave a recitation on "Discontent". Miss Alma Howard sang "Blossoms". "Tides" was the subject of an essay by Miss Mollie Wilson. Miss Emma Hicks took for her subject the class motto "More Beyond". Miss Grace Young gave the class prophecy.

On Friday night 300 invited guests attended a banquet at the school house. Norman Wilson was toastmaster. The Ladies Quartette and Alma Howard sang. The program was as follows:

The Press F. L. Andrews The Medical Profession Dr. H. F. Sigler Stepping Stones Dr. C. W. Kirland

Our Sister Nation Rev. Stephens Wanted, Successful Men Rev. Thurston

The Alumni Laura Wilson Class of '93 Will Monks Schools in the South Cora Young Knoxville, Tenn.

Recitation Franc Burch Miss Daisy Wilcox, who has been attending school here, has returned to Allendale.

Dr. F. W. Reeve and wife attended the Dexter high school alumni reunion Saturday night where the Doctor responded to a toast.

The negroes of Ypsilanti have hired John Straker, Detroit lawyer, to investigate the recent shooting of Jacob Griffin, colored, by Marshall Eaton, of South Lyon.

Ann Arbor has a band of gold sweaters and people are cautioned to watch out for coins that have been through the process.

E. W. Richards, Plainfield druggist, was married last Wednesday to Ida VanSyckel.

H. S. Holmes, of Chelsea, is taking in wool here.

I. S. P. Johnson will take his swings to the Dexter 4th of July celebration.

NOTE OF 25 YEARS AGO

Dispatch of July 5, 1917

In order to conform with a state law passed by the last legislature, the Pinckney board of education has raised the tuition of foreign pupils to $25 per year.

J. J. Doyle, employed in the Roger Carr barber shop, has gone to Detroit to work.

Last Thursday night 80 friends gave Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Chubb a surprise. Among those from Pinckney who attended were Fred Swarthout and wife, Clyde Sibley, Ruth Frost and Gladys Chubb.

A large number from here attended the 4th of July celebration at Stockbridge.

The Misses Ruth Frost, Norma Curlett, Dolores Richardson, Madeleine Bowman, Pauline Swarthout and Rose Flintoft are camping at Portage Lake.

While cutting a tree Monday, S. H. Carr caught his axe in the limbs, cutting a gash in his head.

Clyde Bennett has completed his school work at Big Rapids. Erwin Nash and bride returned home from Toledo last week.

CONSERVATION NOTES

A wartime injunction to Michigan fishermen is to eat all fish legally caught. The limit is 15 bluegills, 25 pan fish, and five big game fish, such as bass or pike.

Reviewing this history of sheep and cattle grazing on the northern jack pine lands, shows many failures as the deer lands will not support livestock the year around.

Only half the number of life guards are employed at state parks beaches this year because of labor scarcity. A Red Cross life saving certificate is no longer required for guards.

The representatives of 40,000 sportsmen and 134 clubs recently met at Prudenville. They voted to leave all details of fish and game seasons, bag and creel limits to the conservation commission. They favored the repeal of the Sunday hunting laws and authorized a friendly suit to test the constitutionality of such laws.

CONGRESSIONAL NEWS LETTER

Hon. W. W. Blackney

The Military Establishment Appropriation Bill

The House of Representatives last week passed H. R. 7280, a bill making appropriations for the military establishments of our country for the fiscal year 1943. This appropriation is colossal in size, aggregating a total of $42,821,000,000. This vast sum of money will be expended for liberty loving countries all over the world and for the defense of the United States. It will provide material, implements of war, clothing and food for an army of 4,000,000 fine American boys. It will see that the Nation is well supplied with tanks and planes, with anti-aircraft guns and with other implements of war.

You must remember that while this sum of money is vast, yet the war in which we are now engaged is equally vast in extent. We are fighting today on a battle front virtually 20,000 miles long. Our Navy is engaged primarily in combat in the Pacific Ocean which covers an area of 63,000,000 square miles and which is 8,000,000 square miles greater than all the land area in the world. The appropriation is stupendous. The war is vital to the United States and to the world and must be won.

Both of my boys volunteered for the service; one is now in Australia your boys are scattered throughout continental United States and in the 30 naval and military bases outside continental United States. No matter what the cost may be, these boys must be protected. This is the reason why this vast appropriation was made, and the American people will ratify it because American institutions must continue and the liberty loving nations of the world must be given their chance.

The Naval Affairs Committee of which I have the honor to be a member, has been engaged during the last few months, in investigating excess profits in contracts entered into by the Navy Department with private concerns. As a result of this investigation more than $500,000,000 have been saved for the Government. This saving resulted from the renegotiation of war contracts following the investigations made by our committee.

You must remember that when these contracts were first entered into by the Navy Department even the manufacturer could not tell, definitely just what his cost of manufacture would be. For instance, a company engaged in the manufacture of automobiles would know to the minutest detail the expense of operation and the cost of producing cars but when that same company changed its entire manufacturing policy to the manufacture of tanks or planes or guns, neither it nor the Government could know in the beginning what the cost of manufacturing these articles would be.

I am happy to state that most of the companies engaged in defense manufacture willingly entered into renegotiations of their contracts as soon as the element of cost had been clearly determined.

New Navy Authorization Bill The House recently passed H.R. 7184 to establish the composition of the United States Navy, to authorize the construction of certain vessels, and for other purposes. This is the largest single authorization bill for the construction of combatant ships that has ever been considered by the Naval Affairs Committee and reported to the House. It authorizes an increase in the combatant tonnage of aircraft carriers by 500,000 tons, of cruisers by 500,000 tons, and destroyer escort vessels by 900,000 tons. You will note that this authorization does not provide for increasing the tonnage of capital ships; first, because existing authorization does not provide for increasing the tonnage of capital ships will, when completed, provide an adequate number of battleships, and second, it is anticipated, and is borne out by the war so far, that the losses in aircraft carriers, cruisers and destroyers will be relatively greater than in battleships.

Previous authorizations for the construction of combatant ships have totaled 3,749,480 tons. The vital necessity for additional authorizations at this time is seen in the fact that of the above total authorizations, 1,000,245 tons are in service; 2,646,600 tons are under construction and there remains a balance of only 93,629 tons.

In order to wage war properly against the submarine menace, it is contemplated that under this authorization some 400 steel sub-chasers, 200 wooden sub-chasers, and 200 modern torpedo boats will immediately be constructed. It is well to remember that a modern battleship of 35,000 tons would cost in the neighborhood of $75,000,000 to $85,000,000. Therefore, by not constructing battleships under the authorization of H.R. 7184, many less expensive ships, such as airplane carriers, sub-chasers and auxiliary ships can be constructed.

Submarine Sinkings Recently, news was released of the sinking by Axis submarines in American waters of 25 United Nations merchant vessels. This brings the total to about 290 since our entry into the war. The Germans have announced that after June 26 every ship entering a zone extending from the West Indies north along our coast to Greenland and eastward to Norway will expose itself to destruction.

Great lakes fishermen enjoy larger creel limits than those on inland lakes. They may take 50 perch in a day or 10 bass or pike. Through use of the commission's geological survey reports the bomber plant at Willow Run has now abundance of water located in a bed of glacial gravel.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

These huge 60-ton heavy tanks cost $120,000, and America's automotive and locomotive plants are turning them out on a never-ending assembly line. Our army uses light tanks, weighing 14 tons, and medium tanks of 28 tons also, but we favor the medium tank over the other two.

These heavy tanks are needed for certain phases of modern warfare, and with their thick armor and heavy-gauge guns they are almost unstoppable. They are considered superior in gun power, in maneuverability and in the power of their huge tractor motors to Axis tanks. Americans everywhere are helping to pay for these monsters of war through their purchase of War Bonds. Invest at least ten percent of your income in War Bonds every pay day.

WHAT'S THE IDEA?

A year or so ago the M. E. conference at Detroit went on record as being opposed to leading the use of church property or buildings for any war effort purposes whatever.

At the Rock River M. E. conference in Illinois last week, a resolution was presented stating this conference will refuse to "Officially endorse, support or participate in the war." A bitter fight followed and the resolution was tabled for re-consideration. Just what is the idea of such resolutions? In our opinion such things are nothing more or less than a thinly veiled effort to give Hitler et al a vote of confidence.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

It is possible to such isolated points as Mackinac Island - an attraction that many vacation states do not possess.

Newspaper editors of North Michigan met for a "war clinic" recently at Gaylord.

And here is a typical report of summer prospects:

"Things are a lot better than we thought they would be in fact, there are signs that we may have a better season than usual. Some families prefer to travel short distances from the cities rather than make long motor trips."

Upper Peninsula towns in mining and lumbering areas are humming with industrial activity, but the resort owners are still apprehensive. Many resorts in the U. P. lack good transportation facilities except by automobile. Distances are great.

A bright spot appears to be Sault Ste. Marie where thousands of United States soldiers are stationed at Fort Brady and surrounding cantonments and a ship lock and airport are under construction.

"A colorful drama of war defense is presented 24 hours a day at the great transportation artery which in peacetime is visited by tourists and sightseers from all over the world," writes John R. [redacted] field, secretary of the Sault Ste. [redacted] Chamber of Commerce.

"Just now barrage balloons float over the locks and the city all day long, and many a powerful searchlight stabs the sky at night.

"Soldiers of the United States Coast Artillery man the anti-aircraft batteries that are installed everywhere. The guns are of many sizes and their crews are trained to a high pitch of efficiency.

"St. Mary's majestic river, whose scenic charm has been celebrated for centuries, is now patrolled for miles north and south of the city. A strategic shore road is being constructed from end to end of the mighty stream.

"Building of the new lock will keep 600 men busy for two years or more. Widening of the west ship canal has been started by the Great Lakes Dredge and Dock Company.

Frank Davis of the Eastern Michigan Tourist Association reports philosophically, "People are going to take a vacation somehow. The biggest headache is local transportation to and from resort areas.

"Many of our tourists will be without cars and will demand jitney service, or some other means of transportation, into town. Guests are not going to seek amusement by being around the countryside in an automobile, but will stay at resorts. Shuffle-board, camera hikes, horse-back trips, ping-pong, tennis, bicycle riding, softball games - these are some of the possibilities for stay-at-camp vacationers."

Davis gives this advice, too, to resort owners: "Don't talk war, or be a 'worry wart' about national affairs. Your patrons are at your resort to escape from the strain of war work, and are seeking relaxation to build their morale."

That is the spirit of the 1942 vacation industry in Michigan. The northland country, scenic in lakes and streams and forests, offers an ideal haven for war workers who want to keep fit.

Nearby to Michigan industrial centers are shore beaches and parks and small lakes - something which Ohio, Kentucky and Illinois, for example, cannot provide for their metropolitan populations.

Michigan is more than an arsenal of assembly-line production. It is an arsenal of outdoor recreation, important to war-time morale.

PROTECT PINCKNEY

A few more are needed as wardens and fire watchers. Then every person will be called on and given full instructions in the event bombs come. This class will be trained in Pinckney. Enroll at once and show your willingness to help - just in case. C. F. Hewlett, Phone 93.

A perfect facsimile of an incendiary bomb can be seen at the Dispatch Office by all who care to.

It's common sense to be thrifty. If you save you are thrifty. War Bonds help you to save and help to save America. Buy your ten percent every pay day.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETING

Pinckney, June 29, 1942
The Pinckney school board met in session at the school on the above date. Present: C. H. Kennedy, P. H. Swarthout, Frank Bowers and P. W. Curlett. Absent: Roy Clark.

Mr. Bailey, of the Federal Reconstruction Corporation was present and asked what the school would be able to do on their bonded indebtedness. The school defaulted on the principal payment in 1935 He was informed that according to the present set-up, half of the principal default would be paid off in 1943 and the other half in 1944. Mr. Bailey expressed himself as satisfied with this arrangement.

The school lawn mower has become worn out. Efforts were made to get a power mower here on trial but the companies handling these write that their stocks are exhausted. Neither are there any hand operated lawn mowers in stock at Pinckney. No action was taken in the matter.

There being no further business, a motion to adjourn was made, seconded and carried.

P. W. Curlett, Sec.
