Dear Paul,

Thanks a lot for your paper. It was like being in Pinckney again to read it. I'm going to subscribe for it soon.

Remember the boy who used to work on the Darwin farm on the Portage lake road? He chummed around with Jay Shirey. He drove a Model A Pickup a used to take a big load of kids to the Gregory show. I saw him last week. He was in the barrack one nite. He didn't know me but I knew him right away.

The weather here is kinda hot. 104 in the shade here yesterday. I got my typhoid shot yesterday. Some of the boys passed out last nite but only 1 from our company. To make it tougher they had the water 78° for 4 hour last nite. We carried water from another camp. They posted me guard over it or they would have killed themselves drinking too much.

The entertainment is tops. I saw and heard Lt. Commander Eddy Peabody Thursday nite. You recall he is the Banjo King. He is stationed here. He is in charge of entertainment.

Mickey Cochran is here also. I expect to see him at one of the ball games. We see one game next week. They show three shows a week and have some of the newest ones, have good sound equipment.

Thanks a lot for the paper and hoping to hear from you,

I remain,
Clemet Thorp

DON'T CALL WASHINGTON

Salesmanship in the reverse is an endeavor to save telephone facilities to help war effort is being practised by the Michigan Telephone Co. according to J. E. Johnson manager for the company.

That is particularly true with respect to the use of long distance lines, he stated inasmuch as these circuits are congested with military and war production calls. On all calls, both local and long distance, telephone users are asked to be brief. Inability of the company to expand its system sufficiently to care for increasing business because of the scarcity of materials more urgently needed for war is given as the reason.

The lines to Washington are more congested with calls than any others in the country, the telephone manager said, and customers of the company are being requested in newspaper advertising and over the radio not to call the nation's capital at all unless the particular call directly concerns the war effort.

Service users also are requested in the company's advertising to restrict their long distance calls to various other war production localities which the lines are abnormally busy. These areas include all Pacific coast points, Albany, N. Y.; Atlanta, Baltimore, Boston, Buffalo, Columbus, O., Dayton, Indianapolis, Louisville, Minn., St. Paul, Muncie Ind.; Philadelphia, and Warren, O., in addition to Washington;

Sault Ste. Marie an Mt. Clemens, telephone users also are requested not to make any but important local calls because of the congestion of the switchboards.

CURKENT COMMENT

"By Ye Editor"

As predicted the smallest number of candidates in years filed last Tuesday in order to get their names on the ballot in the primary election. As a rule there was little contest for office. In many counties only one ticket or partial tickets were put up. In Detroit with 17 legislative places open the Republicans failed to put up candidates in 7. The state and county tickets predict little or no contests. The people have the war and the welfare of soldier boys on their minds and have no time to devote to the election apparently.

Sylvester Walicki of Jackson was recently held in justice court charged with inflicting bodily damage on one, Thomas E. Kew of Albion. He was left in the jail over Sunday and brought up Monday and fined $50. The story came out that Mr. E. Kew came over to Jackson, talked publicly in favor of Germany and Japan and predicted their victory.

Walicki is patriotic and despite the fact that he is smaller he gave battle to him and won. The justice was told this by a friend of Walicki and called him before him again, remitted the fine and gave him a nod of judicial approval. It's too bad that all champions of the enemies of our country could not receive similar treatment.

For some time we have been hearing from men employed at the Ford motor plant at Willow Run that the employment of women there was not successful and they would be transferred to River Rouge and replaced by men. This was published by "Wage Pinner" a Catholic labor paper published in Detroit. Now Harry Bennett of the Ford Motor Co. comes out with the statement that this is not so. According to the Ann Arbor Post he said: "We were discouraged at first but now the women employees are working out fine. He added that the employment of women would be continued.

According to the Detroit Free Press the president has put the quietus on the mad social whirl in Washington. The society staff has been hitting the high spots with high society entertaining exiled kings and nobility from Europe almost nightly and other cities aping this. The president is said to have given out the hint that this is no time for ogeries and adoration of monarchical refugees by the diamond horse shoe gang. If these dethroned monarchs wish to regain their thrones why do they not join the ranks and fight for them instead of coming over here and sponging on this country who has its hands full now.

In the list of decisive battles the Christian Science Monitor thinks the battle of Pearl Harbor should be added to the 15 enumerated by Sir Edward Greasy. How long the United States could have remained neutral is problematical. However she was literally pushed into the conflict by the attack on Pearl Harbor by the Japs. There is not one person in 100 today who thinks that Great Britain would have been able to survive without the aid of America. Previous to Pearl Harbor the Isolationists were strong in many places and might have continued to have kept this country out of the conflict. However the Japs onslaught on the Hawaiians swept their platform away from them like a spring flood breaking through a dam.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Paul and daughter, Joan and Patricia from Chicago are spending the week at the H. C. Finley.

THOMAS FARLEY

Thomas Farley, 97, died at his home in Marion township Monday. Surviving are two sons Leo and Orrie and one daughter Mrs. Emmett Harris of Howell. The funeral was held this morning from St. Josephs church Howell, Rev. Fr. Fedawa officiating. Burial was in St. Marys cemetery Pinckney

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

It's not a pleasant picture to contemplate, but War calls for "blood and sweat and tears." And the Army Medical Corps, with its efficient nurses and its volunteer Red Cross "Angels of Mercy," needs thousands of surgical beds for field and base hospitals on every front.

These beds cost approximately $22 each. They are the latest thing in modern hospital beds, with elevating springs. In some instances surgical cots are used in temporary field hospitals and there is a folding bed which may be used in ambulances. Your purchase of War Bonds and Stamps can buy many of these beds for the Army. You'll sleep better if you know our boys have every hospital comfort. Buy War Bonds every pay day. Invest ten percent of your income.

U.S. Treasury Department
In "Miscellaneous Writings" Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, states (p. 307): "God gives you His spiritual ideas, and in turn, they give you daily supplies. Never ask for to-morrow; it is enough that divine Love is an ever-present help; and if you wait, never doubting, you will have all you need every moment." What a blessed assurance this is!

A state of mortal thought which would delay proper adjustment is that one which hoards material things at the sacrifice of others' well-being and comfort. Hoarding is an act of selfishness, and deprives the one who indulges it of his reliance upon God, the source and substance of all true supply. To hoard is to admit shortage and limitation and to invite their appearing. Those who wish to abide by our Master's commandments, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength," and "Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself" (Mark 12:30, 31), will not engage in the practice of limiting their sense of good.

Let the one who is contemplating future inconveniences and losses turn his thoughts to God, who is the Giver and Protector of all good. Can anything change God's universal plan? Can Mind, which gives us daily supplies, ever cease in its production of ideas? Can good lapse into evil or Love change into hate? No, the universal law of Love can never be touched by anything base or unworthy. Nothing can ever change the uninterrupted continuity of Spirit. God's law is continually in operation. Hence, whatever adjustment needs to take place is in individual thinking, so that the human may yield to the divine and God's omnipotence be demonstrated on earth.

God's law is a law of sufficiency. It does not take away from one to give to another. He "is no respecter of persons" (Acts 10:34), but He supplies all of His children with spiritual ideas, and all who will accept them can demonstrate daily supply. Jesus fed the multitude and there was food enough and to spare, "and they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes" (Mark 6:43). This experience proved that God not only supplies our needs but supplies them abundantly. As thought is adjusted to God's law of universal harmony, the beliefs of limitation and shortage will yield to a broader and increasing unfoldment of spiritual ideas. . . . The Christian Science Monitor.

CONGRESSIONAL NEWS LETTER

Hon. W. W. Blackney

Employment in War Industries
The War Manpower Commission reports that as of July 1 about 12,500,000 persons were working in direct war employment, and that under present schedules about 5,000,000 more would be added in the last half of 1942. These figures may be compared with total war employment of 9,000,000 on April first; 6,900,000 on Jan. 1st and a average of 5,800,000 for the first three months of 1941. In the second quarter of 1942 alone there was an increase of 67 per cent over the first quarter.

Cost of Living
The cost of living index dropped slightly as of June 2 from May 1942. Thus the combined index was 115.9 as against 116 in May. However, the index for foods and fuels both went up, the former from 121.6 to 122 and the latter from 104.7 to 104.8. The cost of living, however, is now more than 15 percent higher than June 1940, with food up more than 24 percent, clothing nearly 24 and rents nearly 4 percent.

Federal Employment
Federal employment for May 1942 reached a total of approximately 2,000,000 in the executive branch for May 1942. Thus of course is exclusive of the armed forces. Of these about 256,000 are in Wash. D. C. and 1,834,100 outside. This represents a total increase of about 784,200 over May 1941. The present government executive payroll is now about $332,000,000 a month as against $198,000 a month in May 1941.

Interest in National Debt
The average rate of interest on outstanding public debt declined in June to a new low of 2.285 percent. This is because much of the new debt contracted over the past year was in short term paper.

Farm Income
Income from marketings and government payments during the first 5 months of the current year were $1,500,000,000 more than for same period in 1941, and are expected to total even more than the $14,000,000,000 record of 1919. Farm income totaled $11,800,000,000 in 1941.

Ship Construction
During the month of June about 732,000 tons of merchant shipping was delivered by the countries shipyard's, making 2.5 million tons for the first 6 months of the year.

I Wish We Knew
Things moved with a bang along the rubber front yesterday. The rubber industry released its formal announcement that tires can be made available for all purposes, civilian as well as military, and then less than an hour later President Roosevelt declared that the country would hear something about rubber within the next two weeks. In my judgement, the American people have cooperated enthusiastically with those necessary regulations brought about by the war. Recently the rubber manufacturers have been holding a conference in Washington presenting the rubber industry's exhibit. It presented a program calling for the release of tires for nearly 28,000,000 automobiles not used directly in the war effort. Government heads studied the exhibit for hours, took copious notes and asked countless questions. Otherwise no outward reaction was manifested.

If there is a shortage of rubber the American people will gladly cooperate; if there is not then the American people are entitled to know why they have not been taken into the confidence of the Government.

The Women's Auxiliary Reserve
The House recently passed H. R. 6807, to establish a Women's Reserve in the navy, the purpose of the bill to expedite the war effort by releasing officers and men on shore duty for sea duty and for replacement by women in the naval reserve. A survey of billets on shore now filled by officers and enlisted personnel indicates that 882 officers and 8848 men can be immediately made available for duty at sea by replacement of the Women's Reserve.

PHILATHEA NOTES

We trust that our next business and social meeting will be kept in mind and attended by all members and many friends of the class. A cordial invitation is extended by the hostess Mrs. Lola Rogers and the date is the second Wed in August. A cooperative supper will be served for which your bring your own table service. This will be quarterly Missionary meeting and at that time the offering goes toward our church mission.

The coming Sunday is also Missionary Day in our S. S. so come prepared. Remember our quota was stepped up this year.

We regret that our pastors visit to the hospital was hurried up a bit but fortunately Mr Alfred Lane was able to take over the services on Sunday last and gave a much appreciated message, as well as serving as usual teacher of the Mens Baraca class. Our church and community hope for Rev. McClucas speedy return to health and strength and that he may soon be able to take up his duties among us once more, in the meantime beginning with next Sunday Rev Pearce of North Lake will take charge here.

On Sunday in our Philathea class guests enjoyed a fine exposition of the lesson on "Noah! Gods Covenant with Mankind". Mrs. Buzzard has asked Mrs Peck to teach and she has our thanks for presenting the lesson so understandingly. For next Sunday we study, "Abram a Pioneer in the Faith" Gen 11:21-12:9 and Hebrews 11:8-12. It would be helpful to read the entire book of Hebrews in connection with these lessons learning much about the everlasting covenant through the blood of Jesus Christ, with his laws in our hearts and in our minds.

St. Mary's Notes

Visiting among classmates and friends over Sunday were Pat Burke and Robert Kenear of Toled, O, and Leonard Baer of Minn. also L. Demmer of Ill. The Rev. Duhart of Kenwood Seminary Mo. was celebrant at the 8 o'clock mass.

Commemorations were made in the holy sacrifice of the mass this week for the late Arthur McClear on Monday for the late Rev. Lindnan, Detroit. Wed. for the intention of the living and Friday for the boys in the U.S. service. Saturday for the deceased relatives of Miss Lucy Harris.

Prayers also were requested for the late Rev. George Stern, an assistant at our lady of Holy Rosary of Detroit whose sudden death occurred recently. Funeral services took place Wed. from the church where he has served for the past several years. We were informed today of the critical condition of Rev. Louis Dion at the St. John's Hospital Mich. He was stricken Sat. P M Father Dion was formerly located at this parish.

DUST

keep your lamps and fixtures clean!

If someone were robbing your cupboard or raiding your safe, you'd take prompt measures to stop the thief. But there's a culprit who may be stealing electricity right in your own home—and perhaps you aren't even aware of it! Dust on your lamps and fixtures can prevent you from getting all the light you pay for. It can cut down the amount of light in your rooms, 10, 20, 30 per cent—equivalent to wasting that much electricity. And it's easy to overlook because the bulbs are usually hidden under lamp shades or in semi-enclosed lighting fixtures.

Lamp bulbs and reflector bowls should be cleaned frequently with a damp cloth, lamp shades dusted inside and out. Dark-colored shades soak up light and should be replaced with light shades or shades with white linings. This may give you as much as 50 per cent more light. Use the RIGHT SIZE BULBS in your lamps and fixtures—not too large, not too small. Too large a lamp may cause glare, too small a lamp gives inadequate light. Move your lamps closer to the point of use, so that they shed their light more directly on your work. And finally, use adapter shades and linings to modernize your present equipment. They will help you get more light for the same amount of electricity, they cost little, and they are easily installed. They bring good lighting results while conserving materials—important in today's war economy. The Detroit Edison Company.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Tractors and motors will never wholly replace the Army Mule as a factor in the mobile units of our army. The Army Mule is a tradition and the "mule skinner" is a breed unto himself. Army Mules are used by the Field Artillery and the Cavalry in areas where the terrain is rough and tractors cannot operate.

Pack trains in mountainous sectors are often necessary and here the mule, slow but sure-footed, plays an important role. Our Army buys thousands of mules paying from $175 to $190 for each. The mule eats less, carries more, and some declare is smarter than the horse. Your purchase of War Bonds and Stamps helps pay for these Army Mules. Invest at least ten percent of your income in War Bonds every pay day.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Hitler found out that his high powered mechanized and motorized army bogged down in the snow and mud of the Russian Winter. Although our Army is largely mechanized the cavalry horse is still a highly essential factor in this mounted division and in the Field Artillery. The Army also maintains remount farms where many cavalry horses are bred and raised.

These select horses cost from $100 to $185 and our crack cavalrymen are expert riders and carry on the traditions which have followed the cavalry from the earliest days of the Army. Purchase of War Savings Bonds will insure good mounts for the Cavalry. You and your neighbors buying War Bonds and Stamps regularly every pay day can help buy these horses for the U. S. Cavalry. Invest at least 10 percent of your income in War Bonds.

ANGELIC MESSENGERS

Speaking of "our angelic messengers" in a marginal note, Mrs. Eddy states on page 299 of the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "My angels are exalted thoughts, appearing at the door of some sepulchre, in which human belief has buried its fondest earthly hopes. With white fingers they point upward to a new and glorified trust, to higher ideals of life and its joys." Unnumbered men and women throughout the world have been delivered from entombment in the carnal mind sepulchres of fear, ignorance, and sin. "Exalted thoughts" of God's presence and omnipotence have rolled away those stones of false belief, uplifting hope and faith to behold man's oneness with God.

How tenderly Jesus reassured his disciples of the eternal relationship between God and man when he said (John 14:2), "I go to prepare a place for you!" He was assuring them of the certainty of resurrection and ascension for all who follow in his footsteps, however dark the human way may seem. Their hearts must have queried: "Where is our beloved Teacher going? To what place?" Those questions were to remain unanswered for a time. But the promise he gave brought them comfort; many times angels were to deliver them and they were to prove for themselves something of "Easter gladness."

Jesus' disciples had to learn, as all must likewise do, that the ascension of Christ Jesus did not consist of the one moment when he passed from their sight. On his ascending thoughts they must learn to model their own. In the spirit of Truth and Love, which the Christ expresses, there remains forever that which prepares men's hearts for acceptance of the kingdom of God within, for acknowledgment of their place in the "Father's house." This is the eternal benediction, "I go to prepare a place for you." Our recognition of the meaning of these words gives us something of the true gladness of Easter. —The Christian Science Monitor

Good Resolutions

AT THE beginning of the New Year, one is apt to hear a great deal about good resolutions and the figurative turning over of a new leaf. And how pleasant it is to feel this glow of good will, and to think gratefully of fresh opportunities to be better! Perhaps one is heard to assert solemnly that only wisdom and independence shall characterize his conduct in the future. Many purpose more earnestly than ever before to put a seal upon their lips, lest they may offend by foolish or factious remarks. Others resolve to avoid the pitfalls of intemperance, indecision, or delay. They hope that human ability and judgment will help them to withstand temptation at all times.

Who has not learned, however, that one's noblest intentions sometimes give way under stress of circumstances? One can resist the tendency, however, to lapse into the wrong thought habits of self-condemnation, self-pity, or cynicism. Real help can come through a right understanding of God, who is the sole source and power of good resolutions. God's wisdom and love support and give scope to each heavenly desire and design.

God's perfect creation, man and the universe, consists of spiritual ideas, which manifest His nature, power, and substance. The aliveness of God, good, precludes the possibility that there can be a real and evil power to oppose Him. It is false material sense which seems to hide divine reality and to reverse the activity of good.

There is encouragement for all in the words of Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, who says (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, p. 325): "The purpose and motive to live aright can be gained now. This point won, you have started as you should. . . . Working and praying with true motives, your Father will open the way. 'Who did hinder you, that ye should not obey the truth?' Stability, dominion, progress, and joy belong to the real. . . . Therefore, there is nothing that can hinder the true thinker's efforts to realize and claim his perfect, spiritual heritage.

To fear or ignore evil's claims is not to destroy them. It is right and necessary to detect and correct through one's understanding of Truth the human hindrances which seem to postpone the enjoyment of good. Honest self-analysis may uncover the errors of procrastination.

FAUSSETT APPOINTED

Lack of space and a piling up of War Work on the part of the county clerk, chairman of the War Rationing board, has necessitated the naming of an Administrator's assistant and opening new offices. Mr. Haggman has been swamped with the extra war work since the war started. Mr. Faussett's experience in dealing with the public and merchants for many years prompted the board to recommend him for this job. The duties of the office will embrace regulations of Price Administration and rationing. Mr. Faussett will assume his duties August first. He will be located at 207 E. Grand River, in the Thos Scully building, Phone 51. D.D. Harris District Manager of the Lansing area spent Thursday in the county along with G. M. Smith Assistant state Organization officer of Price Administration. Mr. Haggman reported that the Merchants generally were cooperating in an excellent manner. Mr. Harris who was formerly engaged in the automobile business knows what it means to be brought under price regulations and rationing and therefore looks at the matter understandingly. The two gentlemen while here called on Mr. Faussett, outlining to him what his duties were when he takes office.

MICHIGAN SOIL NEEDS '3-SQUARES' SAME AS FARM'S LIVESTOCK

CHICAGO—Placing plant food within handy reach of growing crops is as important to farm profits as setting feed within easy reach of hungry livestock, according to a statement issued here by the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee.

"Crops need a well-rounded ration the same as cattle," the statement points out. "A farmer's responsibility does not end merely in supplying his soil with fertilizer. His job is effectively done only if he places that fertilizer where it will do the most good in providing growing plants with ready nourishment.

"No soil contains an inexhaustible reservoir of plant foods. Constant cropping steadily reduces the fertility level. Unless a replenishment program is undertaken, the soil will become deficient in one or all of the three major feeding elements—nitrogen, phosphorus and potash.

"In such a situation the important thing a farmer must know and do is to carry the right kind of plant food to his crops, apply it in adequate quantities and avoid waste. The soil must be considered just as seriously as the crop because the fertilizer should perform the twofold job of nourishing the crop and helping maintain the productivity of the soil as well.

"Only by a steady program of fertility replacement and soil building practices can the continuous productivity of a farm be assured. The soil can and does wear out from constant cropping, just the same as a tractor will wear out from constant use without the replacement of important parts."

Rev. John McLucas underwent an appendicitis operation at the Wayne Clinic today.

ARE YOU IN DEBT

We believe this is a good time to reduce ones obligations and to borrow only for strictly necessary things. If it should come about some time everyone will not be as busy as at present and there is not quite so much money in circulation, people will find themselves in better shape to stand the period of readjustment if they are out of debt.

Buy Saving Stamps and Bonds to further aid you in going through the reconstruction period which is very apt to come.
