PERSONALITY SKETCH

By Heck

The subject of this weeks sketch is probably one of the busiest persons of the school. Gloria Craft was born in Wayne county but has lived in this section and attended this school for the past 9 years. She is of a generous nature and has a kindly disposition and in addition to handling her own problems and difficulties successfully takes on the problems of her school mates and by her aid and advice a successful solution is arrived at. She is a musician of note and handles the ivories in all musical entertainments put on by the school as well as most of the patriotic meetings held in this section after Pearl Harbor.

One of the most patriotic pupils of the school she is a pen pal to many of the boys in the service and who have gone into the service and keeps up a steady correspondence with them.

We commend her for her untiring work and devotion to the school and its many activities and it is by the efforts of such pupils as Gloria that the school continue on the present high level.

ARE FOUND NOT GUILTY

The Hincheys boys, Roy and Orla of Pinckney were found not guilty in the court of Justice Knapp of Howell last Thursday of improperly feeding their cattle. Humane Officer Curtis of Detroit failed to prove insufficient feeding. Erdley VanSickle testified as to the amount of hay he drew for them. Michael Roche also testified as a cattle feeder. It was a jury trial. Don VanWinkle represented the Hincheys and Prosecutor Berfi man for the people.

Tin Can Drive May 1

People Are Asked to Have Their Cans Ready on That Date

Mich. Mirror State News

The Career of the Lt. Governor is Discussed at Length

This is an interview story about Dr. Eugene Keyes, Michigan's Lt. Governor.

He is nobody's fool, he is a resolute fighter, Keyes has demonstrated to friend and foe that he is competent and sincere. He has displayed a crusader's zeal for rights of the minority and thus proved to politicians that he is a sentimentalist at heart.

Not in many years has one individual zoomed in such a short time from comparative obscurity in Michigan politics to the second highest state office to the governorship itself. In the 1940 primary he defeated a field of well known and well known Republican leaders including a past state chairman of the republican party, a presiding chairman of the State Senate. With a new face and a clever slogan, Keyes to Good Government" he captured the voters.

By virtue of his independence he became one of the most talked about men at Lansing.

Almost single-handed, by his parliamentary action he foisted attempts of Republican legislators to remove the office of highway commission from the April 5 ballot.

Keyes was denounced by a metropolitan newspaper for perpetrating a cheap parliamentary trick. The senate snubbed him when it refused to grant him the right of committee appointments. He continued to smile.

Dr. Keyes is ambitious. He hopes to become governor some day.

He is a licensed doctor, a lawyer, an attorney—a combination that is somewhat paradox among the professions.

He has his own story of why he did as he did—also what he hopes to do in the future.

"For 14 years I lived at my maternal grandfather's farm in North county. I came to respect the farmer's individualism and to know his problems. When the question came of war time I found myself sympathetic to the needs of the farm. I made a suggestion that war time be limited to the summer. I still believe that would have been the best solution.

You are interested in why I opposed to bills to deprive the people of the right to elect their own highway comm. There are several reasons and here they are:

First it does not seem logical to me that the people should be trusted with the choice of the state supt of public instruction, the regents of the university and members of

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Over 50 friends helped S.E. Swarthout celebrate his 80th birthday Sunday. They were present from Ann Arbor, Flint, Detroit, Lansing, Jackson and Ann Arbor. Mr. Swarthout was born in Putnam on the farm taken up by his grandfather, Ralph Swarthout, now owned by Morley Reynolds.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. Swarthout, Mrs. Jas. Stickey and Miss Lillian Swarthout, Alma Mrs. Bregel, Lansing, Fred Swarthout, Detroit, Ward Swarthout and wife, Jackson, Lester Swarthout, Detroit. Mr and Mrs. George Bradley and Mrs. Sadie Moran and daughters of Flint.

DAM TO BE REPAIRED

The date will soon be announced for the bee in which the Pinckney dam will be repaired. This dam went out last Feb. due to the weakened condition. It is owned by Henry Ford but his secretary, Mr. Liebold stated no work would be done on it for the duration but if local parties wanted to put it in he had no objection. The dam can be repaired at a small expenditure by replacing the middle pier. The village will pay the cost of material and the labor will be donated. If you will donate labor leave your name at the Dispatch Office. The date will be set later. The going out of the dam greatly inconvenienced the farmers as they had to extend their fences to keep their stock from straying where the water has gone down.

The loss of the pond would deprive Pinckney of swimming, boating and fishing.

HIGH SCHOOL DATES

The Senior Class play is April 30. The J-Eop is May 7th and Commencement is May 26.

COMMENT

The Vote in Favor of Eastern War Time by the Voters of Lansing—last week seems to have mixed things up in general at the state house. The capital and the state offices will have to remain on slow time on account of the adoption of that time by the legislature but Lansing and all business places will operate on fast time. Governor Kelly has attempted to solve the difficulty by opening the state offices on fast time and closing on slow time. Of course that makes a nine hour day. However state employees will be given time off to make up for it.

The black market boys seem to be highly overdoing their stuff. They may be killing the goose that laid the golden eggs. In Detroit last week the black market dealers appeared on the market and demanded a dollar lb. for live poultry. According to Detroit papers they found few takers. All attempts to curb inflation have so far fallen by the wayside. To wit the bill of Gov. Kelly providing for meat inspection and slaughter house licensing and the fight against the farm price parity bill. In the long run no one gains by inflation but everybody loses.

While the fine run of Judge Neil of Mt. Clemens to lead the federal supreme court justice seems to have surprised the daily papers, it was no great shock to other people. Judge Neil is to Macomb county what Will Lyon, judge of probate is to Livingston county. He has spent his life in public office there. First, he was court reporter, then judge of probate and then circuit judge. He has been also visiting judge and has held court in 36 counties of this state. He was grand master of the Michigan Grand Masonic Lodge and in that capacity visited most of the lodges in the state. None of his opponents could match his acquaintance with Michigan voters and he led the field from the start and stayed there.

We are indebted to Congressman Blackney for the following figures on the manpower situation of the U.S. as of Dec. 31, 1942.

Total draft registrants 29,453,000
Registrants inducted 9,819,000
Men in Class-A await exams 1,930,000

Deferred for war jobs 1,002,000
Farm deferred men 361,000
Dependents, men with 28,000
Married men with no dep. 5,324,000
Married men with children in war work 1,231,000
Married men farming 2,650,000
Men physically unfit 5,324,000

The draft is a puzzle and probably will remain so. In some counties married men with dependents are taken while in other counties they are not. There seems to be no uniform rule and every case is supposed to be different and decided by the county draft boards on its merit alone.

Personal liberty is a great term and we have never seen it definitely defined. It may be that no definition is possible as every person seems to have his own idea of just what it is. A number of congressmen had the idea that it was their personal liberty to allow franked copies of their speeches to be sent out as Nazi propaganda. Three Michigan congressmen saw it their personal liberty to vote against extension of the Lend-Lease. Others see in personal liberty the right to criticize every effort that is made and many have considered it their personal liberty to become drunk and beat up on their family. We think all these persons are wrong and personal liberty should mean only that which does not affect some one's rights.

War News of importance seldom gets through censorship. During the Libyan campaign the papers bore headlines that Rommel was about to be trapped or annihilated. They now carry the same headlines except that the scene of action is now in Tunisia. The correspondents have to get out so many columns a day and with the censorship working most news is deleted and they have to draw on their imagination to fill the space. These experts have picked all the coast countries from Norway to Italy as to the scene of the European invasion.

BOND!

WAR SAVINGS STAMPS don't earn money—but a War Savings BOND does! A partly-filled stamp book isn't collecting any interest: A War Savings Bond IS—from the minute you enter it in your name. Why not fill up the stamp book now and put your money to work in the form of a Bond, earning more money for you?

Every three dollars you invest in War Savings Bonds brings you back an extra dollar in ten years. After the war, you can use these funds to good advantage, helping to buy the things you are now unable to get. In the meantime, your money is helping to win the war—furnishing the planes and guns and tanks needed by our fighting men on battle fronts all over the world. This equipment is vitally needed; You can help to supply it.

Don't delay—fill that partly-filled stamp book now and convert it to a War Bond. Both you and Uncle Sam will benefit.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"You can't imagine, Judge, how much comfort Louise and I got out of reading that recent report made by the government on drinking habits in and around Army camps. If you hadn't loaned us your copy we'd still be worrying about our Jim... all because of those silly rumors goin' around."

"I'm mighty glad to hear that, John. As the report says, no Army in American history has been so orderly, so well-behaved, so well-trained. Why, even on pay night, there's very little drinking done. I was particularly interested in that part which said the Army, with an eye to its own problem, usually prefers to have its camps in wet communities rather than dry communities because wet communities can be regulated... dry communities with their bootleggers can't. It's just more proof that prohibition does not prohibit."

MICHIGAN NEWS

the Mich. State college board but they shouldn't be trusted with choice of a state high comm.

Highways are one of our greatest common denominators. Every citizen affected by our highways, just as he is by school.

A second reason was my conviction that Gov. Kelly and the Republican party would be blamed by the public if the state roads were not maintained and developed as adequately as they had been under Democratic administration.

As I see it, Democrats could point to a decline in highway maintenance and put the blame right on the gov. at the 1944 election.

Another reason: Why did such auto leaders as Ford, Fisher, Algers and others take an active part in legislation to have the highway commission elected by the people and not appointed by the gov?

A comm. set-up would have brought provincial log rolling among the comm.

The administrative board shared the governor's responsibilities while the highway bills would have increased them. A road comm would have become another form of bureaucracy with provincial interests with constant conflict with state interests. Each new gov. would have to meet criticism about state roads although he would have had only limited control over the comm.

Removing the state highway commissioner from the April ballot was not good government, that is why I am opposed to it.

About the publicized parliamentary move which thwarted efforts to save the highway bill, Dr. Keyes said:

The day before the Republican state convention, the senate, after striking out the $25,000 appropriation which would have forestalled a referendum and was the real joker in the bill, voted down house bill no. 30 which would have created a state highway comm. Upon motion to reconsider, the senate placed the bill on the table for possible revival later on, about a week later on the bill was amended whereby the commissioner became an appointee of the governor. It was defeated and the bill under the rules was dead and could not be revived during the same session of the legislature.

However the chair was over-ruled again, and a few days later the same amendment was introduced, providing for the appointment of a highway commissioner, but reducing the salary $500. This was against the rules and a bill cannot be reintroduced during the same session. The chair was again over-ruled and the Senate passed the bill as amended.

The house bill, thus changed, was sent back to the house. The house could not agree, and it asked for a conference com. Senate members were named by the senate.

When the conferees could not agree a suggestion was made to have the lt. gov. appoint a new one. He named a comm. consisting of the majority and minority floor leaders and another member was a strong proponent of the bill. The senate, in a rump session, moved to reconsider the bill. This was not the proper method of discharging a committee, and was contrary to parliamentary procedure.

The substitute or third conference committee then revived the same house bill no. 30, previously defeated by the senate, with the $25,000 appropriation to forestall a referendum vote. The joint conference rules provide under the last sentence of rule 7 where the conference rules are silent, the house rules (where the bill is under consideration) govern. Senate rules 29 to 30 provide that appropriation bills must be referred by the president to the committee of finances and appropriation.

The proponents of the bill sought to circumvent these rules, without a suspension under the guise of a conference report which failed. The constitution provides that a bill cannot be passed by its title only, but must proceed through proper and complete legislative channels.

To suspend the rules for immediate passage of a bill, a motion must be supported by two-thirds of those present and voting, as a protection to minority rights. And so when Senator McCallum arose to move adoption of the conference report, he in effect moved to suspend the rules. I declined to put the motion to a vote.

When another senator then moved to adjourn, I put the motion promptly to vote. The motion to adjourn takes precedence over all other motions. The vote by voices was easily two to one. I did leave immediately.

Dr. Keyes says that his parliamentary decisions will stand under test.

Dr. Keyes has his dreams. Basically, he is a crusader for good government as he sees it, and, right or wrong, he is going to be heard when important decisions are to be made.

Tower, Sava S. Tower and their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigned, defendants.

Suit pending in the Circuit Court for the County of Livingston in Chancery, at Howell, Michigan, on this 24th day of March 1943.

It appearing from the sworn bill of complaint as filed in said cause, that the plaintiffs have not been able after diligent search and inquiry to ascertain whether the said defendants are alive or dead, or where they may reside if living, or if they have any personal representatives or heirs living, or where they or any of them may reside or whether the title, interest, claim, lien or possible right, of these defendants have been assigned to any other person or persons or whether such title interest, claim, lien or possible right has been disposed of by will by the said defendants.

And it further appearing that the plaintiffs do not know and have been unable after diligent search and inquiry to ascertain the names of the persons who are included as defendants without being named.

Upon motion therefore of VanWinkle & VanWinkle, attorneys for plaintiffs, it is ordered that the above named defendants and their unknown named heirs, devisees, legatees & assigns, cause their appearance to be entered herein within three months from the date hereof, and that in default thereof said bill be taken as confessed by said defendants and each and all of them.

It is further ordered that the plain tiffs cause this order to be published within 40 days in the Pinckney Dispatch, a newspaper printed, published and circulated in said county, once in each week for at least six successive weeks.
