Waste Paper Drive On

Waste Paper is Badly Needed in the War Effort. County Salvage Committee Has Arranged To Sell Direct To The Mills

The waste paper drive has gotten underway in this county and the quota is some 800 tons for this month. Supt. Page, head of Boy Scouts of this district is head of the drive but has named Mr. Idle of Howell his chief assistant. The big trouble in the past has been the low price paid for paper. The last drive only netted the scrap collectors $6 a ton. By going direct to the mills Mr. Idle has secured higher prices which are as follows:

Old Newspapers etc. per ton $15.00
Corrugated Boxes, Per Ton $23.00
Old Magazines per ton $27.00
Loose paper is not desired. In Howell a building has been secured and the Boy Scouts will bail it. All paper must be piled in bundles and tied. There are a number of conditions which must be complied with in order to get the above prices. The trucks will not be sent out unless they can get 18 ton lots which is a truck load. So this paper must be piled up at central collection points where the trucks can easily get it. Paper picked up in small lots brings a much lower price.

In Pinckney Mrs. Lola Lobdell is the head of the scrap paper drive. In December she with the aid of her 7th and 8th grade pupils collected 5 tons. If anyone has any scrap paper they should notify her or call the school. The money derived from the sale of this paper will go for worthy local projects.

Mich. Mirror State News

Items of State and National News Briefly Given.

"Sure, Michigan is on the fighting front." Don't forget for one minute that Michigan as well as being an arsenal of democracy, is one of the five states in the Nation which were responsible in 1943 for fully 50 percent of all vital essential war food stuffs.

Dean Ernest L. Anthony, head of the school of agriculture at Michigan State College and recognized leader of the state's agriculture, punched his fist on the desk. His jaws were firm. His eyes flashed a spirit of determination that was next to belligerence itself.

It's about high-time that the consumer in our industrial center realized the importance of the Michigan farm battle front," he continued. "Of course, Michigan factories produce most of our weapons of war-air planes and tanks and cannons & the like. They're all mighty important in the coming invasion fronts of Europe and in the Pacific fronts too.

Too many people overlook the significant fact that Michigan, while being a key industrial state in the production of war material, is recognized nationally as being one of five states which account for half of essential foods that are needed most for war.

The fighters on this Michigan front are the operators of 188,000 farms of which 107,000 are regarded as being commercial farms. Michigan's farm population totals 865,000 men, women and children- quite a sizeable host.

Visualize this home front army, said the dean. You have 75 county agriculture agents throughout the state as key commanders. Nine of those men, all of whom are members of the college extension teaching staff, have full-time assistants. Cost of the servi-

CURRENT COMMENT

Another grand jury investigation seems to be looming this time in the Wayne county branch of the state highway dept. Employees there who became cognizant of proposed road widening and straightenings are said to have tipped off real estate men who bought up options on the property along the state at greatly increased valuation. Most of the deals seem to have occurred along Telegraph road one of the main thoroughfares of the state. The investigation will have to be in Wayne county if it is held. Attorney General Rushton says that at the present time he doubts if a grand jury investigation is needed.

Workmen at the Willow Run Bomber plant report that thousands of workers are being dismissed there & many of those who are from the South are returning home. The reason is that the plant is going off the cost plus plan and only essential workers are being kept. Those with excessive absentee records are being released. So far as we know no Pinckney workers have been released.

CURRENT COMMENT

By Yo. Editor

The county seat paper gets worked up over the fact that the OPA does not give out extra gas to allow people to attend funerals. It says that an age old tradition that funerals take precedence over every thing else is violated. The matter was even referred to Congress. Blackney on his recent visit and he got equally indignant with the irate lady who had all her extra gas application turned down but said he was powerless to do anything about it. All this seems to be a tempest in a teapot. A person who passes away here last week was taken to Woodland for burial, the body going by train. So extra gas stamps are not an absolute necessity. Besides the line has to be drawn somewhere and funerals and sickness have, since time began, been the champion of not innumerable things. Everyone remembers the story of the office boy on the opening day of the big league baseball season who always got the day off so he could attend his grandmother's funeral. Regularly every year on this date he got the day off for the funeral. No we think that extra gas for funerals would prove a big leak in the gas rationing program.

In regard to the OPA W.K. Kelsey had a very excellent writeup on this subject in the Detroit News last Wed. He refers to those who oppose as persons having a peasant mentality, the mark of which is the controlling thought, "What can I get that other people can't? How much can I get away with?" Without the OPA it would long ago have become impossible to get food we must have and both production and distribution would have become demoralized. We know it is tough for those people who have plenty of money and can't get what they want. In the meat market the million air and the taxi driver are on equal terms, each can buy his points worth of meat or as much more as he wants or is it? The OPA cannot control crops. It can't dictate the weather. However it has the point system to fall back on. It can mark up the points for goods that are scarce and mark down those that are abundant. In this it has been successful. What it does not want is to favor the men with a purse of folding money over a man with a purse full of silver. It has made a fair job of it. Of course it is unpopular because some people do not want restrictions of any kind. That is why the saloon laws were flouted and prohibition failed. That is why prisons are full and police forces and sheriffs are necessary for society must be protected even from itself.

Isolationists and appeasers continue to try to stir up disunity among the Allies with Russia their particular targets. Since Russia has crossed the Polish border established in 1918 and pushed the Germans back the appeaser theme song now is that Russia intends to gobble up Poland. There is a story concerned with this which is that Russia has never recognized the 1919 boundary line as by its term a big chunk was carved out of Russia and given to Poland. Poland has been partitioned several times. She is located between Russia, Germany and Austria and finally completely disappeared over 100 years ago being divided among these countries. After World War I the Allies conceived the idea of resurrecting Poland as a buffer state between them and according the republic of Poland was set up. Such a small nation was of course incapable of defending herself against strong aggressor nations & she was an early casualty in World War II along with the other small nations of Europe of the defeated nations of Europe.

The invasion of Poland during the present war and when the coming peace conference is held the disposition of Poland will be one of the knottiest problems to solve.

The government asks the utmost conservation of electricity to save coal, manpower, transportation and critical war resources. Turning off your office lights for an hour at lunchtime may not seem like much of a saving. KILL OR BE KILLED

United States Marines paid the stiffest price in human life per square yard for the capture of Tarawa, vital Pacific outpost.

It was kill or be killed. Your boys did not flinch when they ran into the deadliest fire-power along the beaches of this important Gilbert Island stronghold. This assault, bloody and costly, is one of the many which must be made before Tokyo and Berlin are pounded into dust and ashes.

What are you doing to back up the boys? Remember these are boys from this very community, perhaps from your very home. Any home in your neighborhood which today does not display the treasury's red, white and blue 4th War Loan Shield proclaiming "We bought Extra War Bonds" is not backing the attack. Every Extra War Bond you buy becomes a direct fighter against Japan and Germany. If you could but see one man die on the battlefield, you would not count the cost of your slight sacrifices to buy Extra War Bonds to make each succeeding assault less costly in the lives of our boys.

You can't afford NOT to buy Extra Bonds in the 4th War Loan if you would help these boys.

'Why, What, When, Where' Of Fertilizer Use Explained

IN A statement outlining the "how, why, what, when and where" of fertilizer use for wartime crop production, the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee urged Michigan farmers to make arrangements for their plant food supplies as early as possible for next season's crop operations.

"Uncertainties of transportation, labor shortages at fertilizer factories and the possibility of further scarcities of potash and superphosphate because of increasing lend-lease requirements," says the statement, "make early purchases a necessity, if a farmer is to have his supplies when seeding time arrives."

Because every ton of fertilizer must be stretched to the utmost to help meet the vast new crop goals, the statement says, the cooperation of farmers in helping move plant food from factory to farm early is essential. Only through such cooperation can available supplies be effectively distributed and last autumn's bottleneck avoided.

The attack on our boys is a direct result of the lack of WAR BONDS.

"The farm prospects of 1944 are both good and bad, as the dean analyzes them. The manpower shortage still continues with little relief in prospect until Germany collapses and military demobilization begins in the U. S. However, the college extension service did a "masterful" job in mobilizing emergency labor for the 1943 season which was complicated by the bad spring weather, he added, and this organization work will carry over for 1944.

"Farm machinery situation is not radically different than last year" continued the Dean "except for repair parts. Some restrictions have been removed, Machinery, on the whole, is a year older, and hence there will be a greater demand for repair parts fertilizer situation is easing up a bit good to be frank about it. A survey was made recently in Wisconsin show the average truck had 85,000 miles of wear. No doubt Michigan trucks would show the same.

"On the other hand, nature favored the Michigan farmer last fall, and he is ahead of his usual farm work as of one year ago. More fall plowing was done, which will greatly help out next spring. We have had little snow, and farmers have been able to haul fertilizer to their fields. The fertilizer situation is easing up a bit by and large.

"Generally speaking the average Michigan farmer is better off financially than he was a year ago, although he may have no more—if even as much—money in his pocket. This sounds paradoxical, but it's true. Farmers had higher income, despite increased production costs, and most of them he used to pay off old debts and to make needed repairs. They may not have any more dollars in the bank but they're better off just the same.

The farmer doesn't get into the front page headlines as often as his city brother. Farmers are not striking for higher wages. They may grumble, as is their traditional right when nature goes into reverse and bureaucrats go hay-wire, but you can count on them to get up hours before sunrise and to finish their chores by artificial light in the evening, day by day, all without fan-fare of publicity or organization ballyhoo.

The dean didn't say this, but we do. It seems a logical observation to make in 1944, to these war time fighters on our Michigan home front

HERE'S THE REASON WE ARE SO PERSISTENT IN URGING EVERYONE TO BUY ALL THE U. S. BONDS POSSIBLE

When the war is over the people who have followed this advice will be in beautiful shape to stand any adjustment which may be necessary.

If you are fortunate enough to keep working steadily, so much the better; then you will not have to use any of your savings; but should the shift from warwork to peacetime work find you temporarily unemployed, you will have the where-withal to keep you going during the interim.

You who have never had a job during the right time to start a new one, have a good feeling about the year to find a goodly amount of money.
