Boy Scout Anniversary

President Roosevelt Issues Proclamation Commemorating the Occasion

President Roosevelt in a message to the Boy Scouts of America on its thirty fifth anniversary today said that it is the youth of the world who must share and maintain the peace now being purchased so dearly on the battlefronts and that he is convinced that Boy Scouts and Cubs as well as senior groups, through their mutual understanding, mutual appreciation and mutual respect will be among the leaders in promoting of comradeship among the democratic people of the earth.

In his message to the 1,800,000 members of the Boy Scouts of America, of which he is Honorary President and an active leader for over 23 years, President Roosevelt said the theme of this year's observance, "Scouts of the World-Brothers Together" gave him great satisfaction. He wrote in a letter which was made public today by Paul Uber, the president of the Washtenaw Livingston Council, Boy Scouts of America follows:

To The Boy Scouts of America- Your theme for your Thirty-fifth Anniversary gives me great satisfaction. Movement has been a real force among the democratic countries of the world. For many years the Boy Scout world in helping to promote better understanding among the nations.

At the time of our National Jamboree in 1937 I was happy to note the many scouts from across the seas who came to camp with the Boy Scouts of America and learn more of our way of life. At the world Scout Jamborees Scouts from freedom loving nations lived together, found common interests and ideals, and formed friendships of lasting value to themselves and others.

Friendship is a basis of our Scout ideals and a part of our Scout law. Let us live by it and strengthen it. God bless you all.

(Signed) Franklin D. Roosevelt

HAS APPEALED CASE

The Michigan Bell Telephone Co. has appealed to the Ingham Circuit Court from an order of the Michigan Public Service Commission directing the company to rebate $3,500,000 to its customers.

George M. Welch, president in the company's bill of complaint asked the court to set aside the order on the grounds that the Commission is without legal authority to grant rebates or to make its decisions retroactive. Welch contended the Commission has authority only "to make, alter or abolish existing rates" and that such authority extends only to future business.

In a public statement Welch has said the order jeopardizes the company's ability to provide good service "by whittling away at our already inadequate earnings. The public interest impels us to seek the protection of the courts."

The order was handed down by the commission as a part of its broad inquiry into the operations of utilities paying so-called excess profits taxes.

The Brownout Is Explained

Detroit Edison Company Gives Some Information on the Brownout

Hundred of inquiries have been received from Detroit Edison customers anxious to conform with the new order. Customers will be assisted by the company's power engineers and sales personnel in effecting more economical use of electrical energy and meeting the requirements of WPB's order - keeping in mind the necessity of maintaining health and safety.

Several hundreds tons of coal have been saved by Detroit Edison during the past few days as a result of the voluntary compliance by customers with the War Production Board's new nationwide brownout order.

Flood lights on the stacks of the company's Conners Creek plant will be continued during the War Production's brownout, which was effective February 1. The seven stacks, sometimes referred to as the 'seven sisters', are used by civilian and military pilots as a marker, and they are also a serious hazard to aviation if unlighted. Mr. Angus D. McLay, vice president and sales manager of the company said today. Not only the plants with chimneys, radio towers or tall buildings must be lighted under aeronautical regulations as markers.

Michigan Mirror State News

Nor is it pro-management.

Instead it seeks, as objectively as possible to be straight pro-American, presenting facts as we get them about today's war urgency program in manpower contribution to the military forces is now approximately 550,000. Michigan draft boards have been instructed to induct young farmers; even war workers in the age group through 29 are being reclassified for military duty. Fewer workers will be left to fill the essential jobs in the home front.

Production requirements have been stepped up sharply. Michigan is high on the list of critical contracts some which have been increased as much as 700 percent. More war material vs fewer workers.

For example take tank production. Tanks have made a strong comeback. Whereas production early in 1944 had been pared to 1,200 per month, requirements today are nearly 2000 a month. Designs have been changed also toward greater fire power and mobility including wider treads.

The Chrysler and Fisher tank arsenals are now nearly tooled for a heavy tank of new design deliveries of which have already started.

Another item is rockets. The production schedule for January called for a 92 percent increase over Dec. 1.

Munition production in December was 1 percent over November total but still 2 percent behind quotas scheduled. The December production record achieved at the time of the costly German break-through into Belgium, is scarcely cause for cheering.

Another must is heavy-duty trucks with the foundry industry a temporary bottleneck.

"All right you say our war plant aren't making tanks or rockets or trucks, what can I do about it?"

That's where the average reader may be mistaken. The big war plants depend on hundreds of sub-contractors for vitally needed parts and hundreds of these sub-contractors are located in small cities & towns throughout Michigan. Don't be so positive that the "other war plant" is in Detroit, Flint, Pontiac or Jackson, just mention a few of the leading industrial centers. A critical bottleneck may develop right in your own home town.

This article is not anti-labor.

HAS LONG SERVICE RECORD

The longest service record in the history of the Michigan Bell Telephone

Gustave Fritz phone Company recently ended with the retirement of Gustave Fritz, inspector of supplies at Detroit. He had been with the company 51 years and 4 months, starting as a messenger at 17. Fritz left the company under a rule providing for automatic retirement on pension at 65.

CURRENT COMMENT

Americans like to regard themselves as the best educated people on earth yet an interesting set of figures has been compiled by James Marlow, a Washington D. C. writer. There are at the present fifteen million men and women in service and of these ten million are not high school graduates 525,000 went no further than the fourth grade and five million entered high school but quit before finishing their course. Of the remaining five million some had some college education but quit before finishing their course. This is interesting because Congress has provided funds or those who wish to complete their college course but what of those who never got beyond the fourth grade and those who quit before reaching the 8th grade. This includes the greater number of service men. They could hardly enter class of small children who usually make up these grades. The only answer is that special schools must be set up for the service men who never reached the 8th grade.

Well, the Detroit dog does not get to inherit $25,000 in funds left to him by a devoted mistress. A Detroit probate judge has ruled that such a request is illegal and while the dog will be cared for to the end of his life, the property goes to the woman's son who was disinherited in favor of the dog. This probably suits the dog all right as long as he has a place to sleep and enough to eat. The will was as silly as the $5000 banquet given a few years ago in New York for a Shetland pony.

We suppose they are all right as a diversion and that constant concentration on the war effort is impossible. But we can not see the use of getting all hot up over such things. Instead of passing bills and working them selves into a frenzy over the time why not leave it to the people and let them choose their own time. Passing of the Central Standard Time bill such as the legislature is doing will only give the state two kinds of time and lead to endless confusion.

Another campaign is underway to get the style of button issued to discharged service men changed. The complaint is that it is too small, too cheap and does not do enough honor to the veterans. Speeches have been made a congress against it and the parsimony of the war dept. This is all far and a letting-off of steam. As we remember it the G. A. R., an organization of Civil War Veterans, wore an extremely small bronze pin of no great cost and we don't remember hearing any complaint about it.

The attitude of Gov. Kelly that none of the state sales tax should be diverted to cities, villages and townships until all state needs are met may be stiffened by the attitude of Gov. Dewey of New York state. That state has a surplus of $316,000,000 and the agitation there has been strong for the diversion of a part of it to the cities and counties. Gov. Dewey has however served notice that he will resist all efforts to divert any of it from the state treasury as the state has 1,500,000 enlisted men to whom it has obligations first and the expenditure of such a large sum of money by diversion would be inflation or a form of it.

In Detroit an episode occurred last week which is liable to take place many times after the war.

Discharged veterans, wrecked physically and mentally by their war experiences and unable to adjust selves to civilian life started on a robbery career to get the needed excitement. Fortunately they were caught in their first holdup, taken before a sympathetic judge who released them to Henry Ford who sent them to a rest camp. This thing happened many times after World War I. The illicit liquor trade was flourishing then and needed expert track and auto drivers and machine gunners. Discharged veterans unable to adjust themselves drifted into this trade in considerable numbers for the excitement of it. Repeat killed this racket and it is no longer available.

PROPHECY

The prophet Isaiah depicts God as saying (32:18), "My people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting places." Surely this indicates a mental sojourning in the "secret place of the most High," a confidence in the all-embracing love of God.

Such quietness and restfulness of thought in an individual, brings calm and comfort to those with whom he comes in contact, so that to them also the clamor of material living becomes fainter and less insistent.

In "Retrospection and Introspection" Mary Baker Eddy has written (p. 93), "The best spiritual type of Christly method for uplifting human thought and imparting divine Truth, is stationary power, stillness, and strength; and when this spiritual ideal is made our own, it becomes the model for human action." Spiritual power, not located in one place, but filling all space, is the source from which we draw strength, and that stillness in which we recognize the presence of God. This recognition makes one willing to leave all in His keeping, happy and content to see His purpose being worked out in human action. We must, however, make this spiritual ideal our own, not take it on trust from another's experience; and to do this the urgings of material sense must be silenced, and we must strive for that listening attitude of thought which can receive each indication of the Father's will. Thus quietly, yet confidently, we may expect to hear the needed direction, and rest satisfied.

SPROTAGE BY WEATHER ... Rain, sunlight, heat, cold and corrosive atmosphere are all enemies of outdoor electric equipment. Our fight against the elements is endless, posing many problems to our research engineers. The windows on outdoor meters become obscured with a film that won't wash off ... wood poles rot internally ... painted surfaces crack, peel and become chalky ... pole line hardware is eaten by corrosive gases in the air. The search never ends for better materials and better protective coatings to lengthen the life of equipment exposed to the weather.

KITCHEN CRAFT ... Egg yolks or egg whites will stay in good condition several days if you keep them in the refrigerator in a tightly covered glass jar.

THE MICHIGAN MIRROR

With fewer persons left on the Michigan home front available to work and with greater war contracts than ever on hand to be met, solution of the problem is not going to be easy.

Is it possible for production per worked to be increased.

On the basis of official information obtained from leading army navy and War Production officials in Detroit the emphatic answer is no.

The regional director of the War production board, Carsten Tiedeman, thinks so. There is no manpower short age in Detroit. There is a decline in worker efficiency due to growing absenteeism and a failure to stick to war jobs. Production efficiency is the average war plant is below prewar level. Morale is bad.

Workers are told by some union leaders not to increase production. A company executive was going through his factory a few days ago when he came across two workers shooting arap, a dozen others were watching them. Did he fire them? Of course not. Why cause a strike.

Well what can be done about it? One suggestion is that the president summon the presidents of the local union to the White House and make a personal appeal to them to waive production restrictions and let the workers turn out the goods.

Another suggestion is for management to provide a wage incentive whereby so-called "increased profits" resulting from increased production would be shared with the workers. One automobile company has found that extra pay for extra work has achieved greater production in one plant than in other plants where incentives were lacking. Instead of the worker making $1.19 an hour, the average worker made $1.71 an hour in December.

It is a fact that organized labor could increase production in war plants by removing arbitrarily forced restrictions.

It is a fact that a chief handicap is the worker's cas district of management and the suspicion that management is trying to "put something over" for its own "selfish benefit—more dividends for stockholders and bonuses for executives.

The above situation is tragic. It is deplorable. American boys are sacrificing their lives. Read your newspaper headlines for their names.

Hence this direct appeal to the American worker: Produce more goods. And this to the management: Team up.

Quit the feud.. Uncle Sam needs your help for victory in 1945.

Mexico's Teachers Learning English

That Mexico is taking definite steps to make English a widely spoken second language is shown in a report just received by the University of Michigan from its English Language Institute in Mexico City.

Likely one of the most distant university branches in the world, the Institute was established at the request of the Mexican government and the U. S. State Department in 1942. Mexico wanted a special school to train teachers how to teach English. The State Department, which pays the cost, invited Michigan to set up a branch of its camp's English Language Institute to which all Latin American scholarship students coming to this country are sent for an intensive two months work in spoken English.

The report from Mexico City tells how 700 teachers took the winter examination and 625 passed it. Five similar courses planned for 1945 will enroll students from all types of schools, from the grade and rural level to Mexico's state and national universities.

Science Borrows Housewife's Idea; Saves Time, Money

Science, borrowing an idea from the housewife, is finding that it can save thousands of hours every year in hospitals and laboratories.

The idea is the quick freeze. Ever since germs were discovered, doctors and scientists have needed to keep strains alive, both for experiments and for teaching. Some strains are obliging and will live in test tubes. Others were not and insisted on having living hosts, usually laboratory rats and mice. But constantly transferring disease germs from one animal to another took hours of time and cost money.

In 1942 Dr. Malcolm Soule, head of the Hygienic Laboratory of the University of Michigan, read a magazine article about quick freezing. It gave him an idea and he had a couple of experimental units made, each capable of holding 54-degree-below-zero temperature for months on end.

He took nine of the most obstinate germ strains, froze them in test tubes and left them in the units. After two years and a half the germs were as potent as ever when they thawed out.

Buy your War Bonds for future security, too!

DARKNESS OF DECEPTION

The rulers of the darkness of deception hold no sway in the realm of light. Their effort, therefore, is to prevent the use of our secret weapon of prayer. Unerring in aim, instant in action, infinite in range, and ever available, prayer is as irresistible in attack as it is invulnerable in defense. Nor can the enemy prevent its use by the Christian soldier. One must guard against resistance of the carnal mind to his use of prayer. Evil would disarm before it attacks, but the very conflict arms the righteous and girds him for victory.

Jesus taught us the use of our secret weapon when he said (Matthew 6:8): "When thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly." Writing of this secret but effective prayer in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy says (p. 15): "The closet typifies the sanctuary of Spirit, the door of which shuts out sinful sense but lets in Truth, Life, and Love." She continues: "In the quiet sanctuary of earnest longings, we must deny sin and plead God's allness. We must resolve to take up the cross, and go forth with honest hearts to work and watch for wisdom, Truth, and Love." And she says further, "The Master's injunction is, that we pray in secret and let our lives attest our sincerity."

Those who have learned to use this weapon of prayer are winning priceless victories. Through prayer, the risen Christ comes again through doors which fear has closed, with the sublime message of triumph, "Peace be unto you."—The Christian Science Monitor.

MONEY IN THE BANK

One often hears that expression in talking about some friend or acquaintance, "Why he has money in the bank."

It is an expression which conveys a meaning of substance. A condition to be desired.

Don't get us wrong. We do not think that money is everything but we see in many cases where ready cash can do so much and lack of it can often mean extra cares and worries.

Better join the ranks of those with "Money in the Bank."
