Lighted Athletic Field Project

Veteran's Memorial Field Project Progressing, Final Deadline Jan. 26

Donations are coming in steadily for the Pinckney Veteran's Memorial Field and the committee is confident it will be over the required $3000 by Jan. 26 which is the Victory Party and Box Social at the school which will wind up the campaign. The committee and solicitors have worked hard and should be congratulated on the almost assured success of the drive. The response of the people was most gratifying. Many informed the solicitors that if they were short at the end of the drive to return and they would give more. About 95 percent of the village business men and residents contributed to it.

The Detroit News carried a fine writup of the project on their school page Monday in which they praised the initiative and enterprise of the community and said Pinckney would be one of the first class "D" schools in the state to have a lighted athletic field.

Gentlemen: Kindly find enclosed my check to the amount of $10.00 as a contribution to Veterans Memorial Field Project. I wish the committee success and appreciation in their efforts to better the value of Pinckney to its residents and others.

The next project for Pinckney should be a permanent care plan for its cemetery under permanent supervision.

Very truly yours
Harry G. Jackson

I have been receiving the paper quite regularly so guess you have plenty of manpower around here and you can have a big time as long as your dough holds out. I had a fine time over New Years.

Received a package from the servicemen's com. Wish you would thank them for me.

Enclosed you will find $5.00 for the Veteran's Memorial Field.

Guess my next leave will be a permanent one so will be seeing you sometime next summer.

Sincerely
Phillip Gettle USN

Michigan Mirror State News

News and Happenings of the State Told from Lansing

There is only one thing worse than a state deficit; it is a state surplus.

Auditor General John Morrison estimates there'll be a surplus in the state treasury of around $28,000,000 by July 1947. To date the requests for this 27 million exceed 76 million near three times the sum available.

What would be normally be considered an asset now threatens to become a political liability.

Pressure groups are organizing again and their leaders possess persuasive arguments. The public schools are close to the heart of the people. The Mich. Educational Association wants $3 million more, the Mich. Veterans Facility at Grand Rapids asks $775,000, the State Agricultural Commission $250,000, and colleges all want new buildings, the mental health program 20 million. The cities want money too and so it goes.

This is election year and politicians are wary.

Increased service demands are the rule in every state. Heavy wartime traffic has damaged the highways. Roads must be replaced. Inflation has decreased the buying power. The wages must rise. Increased attendance at colleges has caused housing shortage. Hospitals are badly overcrowded. The war's strain and decline of morals has spawned a crime wave in Detroit and other cities.

Retirement pensions for state and local employees authorized by the 1945 legislature, constitute another bid for funds.

If long term unemployment again prevails in Michigan, welfare officials would again implore increased legislative appropriations for public relief.

Back in 1937 when sitdown strikes raged the state went into debt to provide relief to the distressed. This could happen again.

States have expended their unemployment compensation coverage. Despite a $7 billion reserve, these funds could be wiped out by a prolonged economic depression.

Back in the war years when government officials were busy with post-war planning, a favorite subject in war projects. These were designed to help abolish the snock of veterans returning to civilian life during reconversion from war to peace.

Now it appears that most of this work project must wait several years until costs come down and material is available. Owing to inflation and uncertain wages contractors are offering only the highest bids possible. Cost are from 40 to 70 percent above 1940 and are still rising.

Much of the post-war planning was not realistic as it was based on federal aid from Washington. Congress will make no appropriations unless there is widespread unemployment.

Getting the federal government to provide work is not the answer either. From 1929 to 1939 while federal employees increased 66 percent, state employees also increased 62 percent and municipal employees 14 percent. Thus despite increased federal employment there was no local saving.

The plight of the cities is due to the exodus of wealth in outlying low tax areas and a decline in assessed valuation. City valuations declined 12 percent from 1928 to 1940.

CURKE COMMENT

During the campaign of 1936 an organization known as the "Liberty League" sprang into existence. Its purpose was to see that the people in the high income class got a square deal. It presented a bright and shining target for New Deal orators in the campaign in which F. D. R. carried all the states but two and it was never heard of again after that campaign. Now another organization has reared its head calling itself the "Sentinels of America" which according to W. K. Kelsey of the Detroit News wants to go back to the days of the Garden of Eden. It would do this by repealing all progressive legislation enacted in recent years including Social Security, Unemployment Compensation, National Labor Relations Act, Wages and Hours Act, Collective Bargaining, Old Age Pensions, etc. The General Motors disclaims any responsibility for it although their chief economist, Stephen DeBrid, is one of its vice presidents. They say there is sicker born every minute and apparently the moneyed boys have again been taken for a ride by a clever promoter akin to the one who once sold gold bricks on Broadway.

The after effects of the war continue to crop up. All the ports of Europe are said to be filled with the wives of American G. I.'s awaiting transportation to America. In Algiers North Africa, and her country exists a woman Red Cross worker forming an organization to bring to country the thousands of illegitimate children left overseas by American veterans. According to her there are 4000 in Algiers alone.

Every so often some leading educator takes a rap at college athletics and college athletic policies. Last week Pres. Hanna of Mich. State condemned the football bowl games as rank commercialism and said they destroyed entirely the purpose of college athletics, physical development of the students. He also deplored the practise of paying college athletes 10 times what the job was worth for jobs about the college. His outburst will get nowhere.

College football is a goose that lays the golden egg and 80,000 crowds at the big games not only pay the cost of the entire college athletic program but do other things, such as retiring the bonds on huge stadiums. In order to draw well the colleges must have winning teams. Hence the mad scramble for star 11-1 school players who receive free scholarships and jobs about the college to help pay their way. This practise is as old as the hills and probably continue until the fans are completely satisfied with losing teams which will probably be never.

The wholesale agitation conducted by agitators and politicians to bring back all the doughboys from overseas may reach such proportions as to imperil the peace program. An army of occupation is a necessity unless we want to prepare to fight World War III. We have talked with a number of returned veterans and their chief complaint on life overseas is that there is nothing to do but set around and wait. One commentator seems to see in the agitation a plot to extend conscription so that replacements will be available for all overseas veterans.

The labor situation seems to be as far as the auto industry is concerned. The new motor Co. at Willow Run has had a $5 bonus which could do much to help in production. Henry Ford's new car is expected to be each approximately $1,000. This is on both sides. His remarks are from others on the usually able to Frank McKay and his affairs again made the front page last week in connection with his trial at Mason this week when some of his henchmen were ordered arrested to jury tampering. It is alleged they called members of the jury panel over the telephone and made threats. Several prominent men are mentioned including Ira Marman a former state police official and Edwin Godwin, editor of a Lansing weekly and some lesser lights. With about all legal means of delay exhausted his followers seem to be strabbing at straws.

WHY Michigan Bell Goes to Court Again

A year ago, Michigan Bell asked the Federal Circuit Court for relief from an order of the Michigan Public Service Commission directing us to refund $3,500,000 from 1944 revenues. That court declared the order illegal on the ground that the Commission has no authority to make a retroactive rate reduction. The issue has been taken to the Michigan Supreme Court on appeal.

On December 13, 1945, the Commission issued another order directing us to refund $7,000,000 from 1944 and 1945 revenues and to reduce rates for 1946 by an amount estimated by the Commission to be $3,500,000. Michigan Bell has now asked the Federal Circuit Court to restrain the Commission from enforcing this present order.

We went to court BEFORE because of our obligation to protect the service we render the public. For the same reason, we must go to court AGAIN.

We can afford no such reduction in our revenues, and the same conditions apply to the refund provisions of the new order as in the 1944 order, previously held illegal.

Each utility, like same as each different business, has its own individual problems. During the war, we gained a large number of telephones, although restrictions prevented expansion of facilities to meet ordinary civilian needs. We still are far behind the demand for service.

We are now $50,000,000 of investment in facilities needed to serve today's business the way it should be served. Plant already would have been built had it not been for the war. Now it must be built. But as we add the new investment dollars, with no additional revenues from the increased investment, our rate of earnings will go even lower than the inadequate level to which it already has fallen.

Michigan Bell's earnings today are a lot lower than those of most industries. Our wartime earnings were the lowest in history except during the depression. Now and in the future, savings from lower rates will be more than offset by the increased costs of doing business. Our basic wage rates, for example, are up more than 10 per cent since a year ago and the national pattern of further wage increases is still a matter of debate. Other costs are climbing higher every day.

Unless conditions not now foreseeable improve the situation, the Commission's order would reduce our earnings to the point of impaired credit, which, if continued too long, would result in insolvency.

When the financial standing of a public service institution is impaired, rate increases are necessary or the service supplied will be less than fair over the years or good telephone service cannot be maintained.

If refunds and a rate reduction cut our earnings further, it will tend to discourage folks from investing their money in the telephone business. And we'll be needing more investment money from now on to expand and improve telephone service.

Michigan Bell's objective is to furnish the best possible service at the lowest possible cost. Since 1936, the last time the Company challenged a reduction in exchange rates, there have been numerous rate cuts, representing a total savings of some $7,700,000 a year on the basis of present usage.

Looking toward the widest possible use of the service, we expect and want our rates to come down as rapidly as technical improvements will permit. Such improvements in the past have kept telephone rates down in the face of rising costs. But today, increased costs are coming so rapidly that improvements in the telephone art cannot keep pace in offsetting them. We simply cannot afford another rate cut at this time.

What we all agree up to is this — Michigan Bell is not asking increased rates or large profits. The Company is in court AGAIN to contest an order which is contrary to present economic conditions and which cannot be carried out at this time without jeopardizing the future quality of your telephone service.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

ART: "Saw you at the movies last night, Judge. That was quite a weekend that alcoholic went through, wasn't it?"

OLD JUDGE: "Sure was, but I'm afraid most people won't really understand it."

ART: "What do you mean, Judge?"

OLD JUDGE: "Simply this. That poor chap was really a sick man...not just a drunk. Studies by famous psychiatrists and the medical profession show that alcoholism is not caused by a craving for alcohol...it is usually the result of some deep-rooted social, physical or emotional condition. If that fellow had not turned to alcohol for escape, he would have turned to something else."

ART: "Are there many that get in that condition, Judge?"

OLD JUDGE: "Fortunately not. Art. Scientists at a great university have stated that approximately 95% of the people who drink do so sensibly. Only 5% are immoderate at times. In that 5% is the small number known as alcoholics. And the beverage distilling industry which does not want a single person to use its product immoderately, is cooperating fully in the solution of this problem."

*There isn't always room
for one more*

Triplets are an expensive addition to any family. There isn't always room for another in the buggy—or in the budget. And there isn't always room for the extra lamp or appliance you want to have—if your wiring is inadequate. An inadequate wiring system means frequent blown fuses, resetting of circuit breakers and a loss of electricity which you pay for in both money and benefit. Having that recreation room you've always wanted may be a grand idea—that is, until you discover that you can't have lights without a network of "drop cords." And your plan to get Junior's electric train from underfoot by putting it in the attic won't be thwarted if you've modernized your wiring system to meet such needs. Adequate wiring means even distribution of outlets on each circuit, that does away with "overloading" and frequent blown fuses. It means the "full light" of satisfaction in your home.

This is one of a series of advertisements prepared in the interest of the electrical contractors in your area to insure adequate wiring for every home. When you build or remodel, be sure your home is properly wired.

Lighted Athletic Field Project

Donations are coming in steadily for the Pinckney Veteran's Memorial Field and the committee is confident it will be over the required $3000 by Jan. 26 which is the Victory Party and Box Social at the school which will wind up the campaign. The committee and solicitors have worked hard and should be congratulated on the almost assured success of the drive. The response of the people was most gratifying. Many informed the solicitors that if they were short at the end of the drive to return and they would give more. About 95 percent of the village business men and residents contributed to it.

The Detroit News carried a fine writup of the project on their school page Monday in which they praised the initiative and enterprise of the community and said Pinckney would be one of the first class "D" schools in the state to have a lighted athletic field.

Gentlemen kindly find enclosed my check to the amount of $10.00 as a contribution to Veterans Memorial Field Project. I wish the committee success and appreciation in their efforts to better the value of Pinckney to its residents and others.

The next project for Pinckney should be a permanent care plan for its cemetery under permanent supervision.

Very truly yours

I have been receiving the paper quite regularly so guess you have plenty of manpower around.

There's plenty going on around here and you can have a big time as long as your dough holds out.

Had a fine time over New Years.

Received a package from the service men. Wish you would thank them for me.

Received you will find $5.00 for the Veterans Memorial Field.

Open my next issue will be a personal one so will be making personal notes next issue.

Michigan Mirror State News

News and Happenings of the State Torsley Told from Lansing

There is only one thing worse than a state deficit; it is a state surplus.

Auditor General John Morrison estimates there'll be a surplus in the state treasury of around $28,000,000 by July 1947. To date the requests for this 27 million exceed 76 million nearly three times the sum available.

What would be normally be considered an asset now threatens to become a political liability.

Pressure groups are organizing again and their leaders possess persuasive arguments. The public schools are close to the hearts of the people. The Mich. Educational Association wants $3 million more, the Mich. Veterans Facility at Grand Rapids asks $775,000, the State Aeronautical Commission $250,000, the colleges all want new buildings, the mental health program 20 million. The cities want money too and so it goes.

This is election year and politicians are wary.

Increased service demands are the rule in every state. Heavy wartime traffic has damaged the highways. Roads must be replaced. Inflation has decreased the buying power. The wages must rise. Increased attendance at colleges has caused housing shortage. Hospitals are badly overcrowded. The war's strain and decline of morals has spawned a crime wave in Detroit and other cities.

Retirement pensions for state and local employees authorized by the 1945 legislature, constitute another bid for funds.

If long term unemployment again prevails in Michigan, welfare officials would again implore increased legislative appropriations for public relief.

Back in 1937 when sidown strikes raged the state went into debt to provide relief to the distressed. This could happen again.

States have expended their unemployment compensation coverage. Despite a $7 billion reserve, these funds could be wiped out by a prolonged economic depression.

Back in the war years when government officials were busy with post-war planning, a favorite subject in war projects. These were designed to help abolish the snock of veterans returning to civilian life during reconversion from war to peace.

Now it appears that most of this war project must wait several years until costs come down and material is available. Owing to inflation and uncertain wages contractors are offering only the highest bids possible. Cost are from 40 to 70 percent above 1940 and are still rising.

Much of the post-war planning was not realistic as it was based on federal aid from Washington. Congress will make no appropriations unless there is widespread unemployment.

Getting the federal government to provide work is not the answer either. From 1929 to 1939 while federal employees increased 66 percent, state employees also increased 62 percent and municipal employees 14 percent. Thus despite increased federal employment there was no local saving.

The plight of the cities is due to the exodus of wealth in outlying low tax areas and a decline in assessed valuation. City valuations declined 12 percent from 1928 to 1940.

CURKE T COMMENT

During the campaign of 1936 an organization known as the "Liberty League" sprang into existence. Its purpose was to see that the people in the high income class got a square deal. It presented a bright and shining target for New Deal orators in the campaign in which F. D. R. carried all the states but two and it was never heard of again after that campaign. Now another organization has ...

presented itself calling itself the "Sentinels of America" which according to W. K. Kelsey of the Detroit News wants to go back to the days of the Garden of Eden. It would do this by repealing all progressive legislation enacted in recent years including Social Security, Unemployment Compensation, National Labor Relations Act, Wages and Hours Act, Collective Bargaining, Old ...

Age Pensions etc. The General Motors disclaims any responsibility for it although their chief economist, Stephen DeBral is one of its vice presidents. They say there is sucker born every minute and apparently the moneyed boys have again been taken for a ride by a clever promoter akin to the one who once sold gold bricks on Broadway.

The after effects of the war continue to crop up. All the ports of Europe are said to be filled with the wives of American G. I.'s awaiting transportation to America in Angiers North Africa, another condition exists. A woman Red Cross worker forming an organization to bring to country the thousands of illegitimate children left overseas by American veterans. According to her there are 1000 in Angiers alone.

Every so often some leading educator takes a nap at college athletics and once athletic ponies. Last week Pres. Truman of which State commented the football bowl games as mark commorandum and said they destroyed entirely the purpose of college athletic. He also deplored the practice of paying college athletes 10 times what the job was worth for jobs about the college.

His outburst will go nowhere. College football is a goose that lays the golden egg and 50,000 crowds at the big games not only pay the cost of the entire college athletic program but do other things, such as setting the funds on huge stadiums. In order to draw well the colleges must have winning teams. Hence the mad scramble for star athletes school players who receive free scholarships and jobs about the college to help pay their way. This practice is as old as the hills and probably continue until the fans are completely satisfied with losing teams which will probably be never.

The wholesale agitation conducted by agitators and politicians to bring back all the doughboys from overseas may reach such proportions as to imperil the peace program. An army of occupation is a necessity unless we want to prepare to fight World War III. We have talked

THE FARM BUREAU IS FIGHTING YOUR BATTLE

FOR FAIR PRICES, GOOD LAWS, AND A SQUARE DEAL

A GOOD FARM ORGANIZATION enables farmers to work together effectively for fair prices, and for tax and other laws that will deal equitably with farmers. A good farm organization is the job for a square deal for agriculture.

HOW MUCH CAN YOU DO ALONE?

THE FARM BUREAU keeps its membership informed and organized to vote on legislation and other proposals which will affect their business! Men of ability represent our membership to Congress, to the state legislature, to departments of the federal and state governments, to business, industry and labor.

The Farm Bureau has advanced and protected your interests many times in the past. You can depend upon it in the years ahead!

YOU CAN HELP YOURSELF by joining the Farm Bureau, or by continuing your membership. Nearly 1,000,000 families are members in 46 states. More than 20,000 farmers are members in Michigan. Family membership is $5 per year.

*There isn't always room
for one more*

Triplets are an expensive addition to any family. There isn't always room for another in the buggy—or in the budget. And there isn't always room for the extra lamp or appliance you want to have—if your wiring is inadequate. An inadequate wiring system means frequent blown fuses, resetting of circuit breakers and a loss of electricity which you pay for in both money and benefit. Having that recreation room you've always wanted may be a grand idea—that is, until you discover that you can't have lights without a network of "drop cords." And your plan to get Junior's electric train from underfoot by putting it in the attic won't be thwarted if you've modernized your wiring system to meet such needs. Adequate wiring means even distribution of outlets on each circuit, that does away with "overloading" and frequent blown fuses. It means the "full light" of satisfaction in your home.

This is one of a series of advertisements prepared in the interest of the electrical contractors in your area to insure adequate wiring for every home. When you build or remodel, be sure your home is properly wired.
