Labor Bee To Be Held

Big Bee to Be Held Soon To Grade and Fix Up Memorial Field

The county road commission machine came over Saturday and started work removing the cement tennis court from the athletic field. It was more of a job than they figured and they will have to come back this week to finish. When this is removed the football field and soft ball diamond will be laid out.

It is planned to have a big bee soon similar to the one held here on the date of the scrap drive and ask the people to turn out and donate days work in grading the field and getting it ready for fencing and putting in the lights. A number of people have offered to donate the use of bulldozers and tractors. Much help will be needed in grading the field and considerable hand work will be necessary with rake and shovel. The post for the fence will have to be set in cement. This will be a big holiday and the school and business places will be asked to close as they did for the scrap drive. A free dinner for the workers will be served at the school. Watch this paper for the date.

Albert Dinkel Home Burns

Fine Farm Home Burns to Ground Last Thursday

The farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dinkel on Schaefer Road, west of Chulass Corners, burned down about noon Thursday. A passing motorist saw the fire and notified the Dinkels. The fire was in the attic and may have started from the chimney. Both Howell and Pinckney fire departments came out. Only part of the household goods, mostly on the first floor were saved. A quantity of furniture belonging to their daughter, Alberta, was also burned.

At the present Mr. and Mrs. Dinkel, son Allan and daughter, Alberta, are living in a barn. The loss is partially covered by insurance. We understand they expect to rebuild. The house was known as the William Allison farm home and was one of the fine old country residences.

Michigan Mirror State News

News and Happenings of the State Tereley Told from Lansing

"Preposterous fabrication of lies" retorted Harry H. Jackson, ex-warden of the state prison near Jackson, in answer to the charges against him as aired at the state civil service commission hearings in Lansing.

That nearly two dozen cases of whiskey were delivered to Jackson's prison residence from O'Larry's bar in Detroit where the state charged the murder of Senator Warren G. Hopper was plotted.

That a prison inmate was permitted to visit a house of ill fame several times a day that the prison employee who changed it went unpunished, and who open gambling prevailed at times in the prison yard where prisoners ran black-jack games and dice tables.

That a guard was bribed to permit a girl to visit the hospital room of an inmate.

Jackson was discharged after an investigation by Attorney General John R. Dethmers had disclosed alleged misadministration of the prison by the following: Jackson, the warden; D. C. Pettit, asst. warden; G. L. Francis, deputy warden; Chas. Warden, records clerk; Walter Wilson, chief guard; Richard Riley, accountant.

The seven officials dismissed from their duties, appealed the action of the state corrections commission to the civil service commission which has been conducting hearings on the evidence.

Pettit withdrew his appeal. Following disclosure that O'Larry's bar had again figured in scandal, the state liquor control commission ordered a hearing April 16 to face charges of illegal sale.

An unex-pected bouquet was handed to the state liquor control commission by E. C. Freyman, supt. of the Mich. Temperance Foundation, the successor of the Mich. Anti-Saloon League. Said Freyman:

"The state commission has done more toward cleaning up Michigan and her cities than any commission since it came to Michigan four and a half years ago."

Freyman's comment followed the state convention at Lansing of the Michigan Table Top Licensees, dispensers of beer and liquor, who were urged by Thos. O'Keefe, leading Detroit beer distributor, to elect people to office who are honest and "will do the job you want them to do."

CURRENT COMMENT

Franklin D. Roosevelt died a year ago last April 1. Last Friday his Hyde Park home, left to the nation in his will, was dedicated as a national shrine in his memory. His successor, President Truman, has found the going rocky. He lacks the popular appeal of the late F. D. R. and so far has not shown the knack exhibited by the late president in getting his measures enacted into law. Federal Housing, Wage and Hour, Draft extension and National Health are some of the bills stalled in committees by a combination of Southern Democrats and Republicans. This is rank ingratitude on the part of the south as it was chiefly at the insistence of the south he was nominated over Henry Wallace whose advocacy of repeal of the poll tax aroused the ire of the south. The Republicans are already claiming victory in 1948 and this is all more remarkable as they have not the slightest idea what their candidate will be. The resignation of Mr. Brownell, Gov. Dewey's hand picked national chairman is taken to mean Gov. Dewey will not again be a candidate. Congressman Reece of Tennessee is the stop gap, national chairman to succeed Brownell but will only hold office until the presidential candidate is nominated as the latter is always given privilege of naming his own chairman. It seems a trifle early to make prognoses as a lot can happen in the next two years and probably will.

The threatened food shortage is a direct result of the lifting of food rationing before the European countries could get into food production. Rationing was an inconvenience and unpopular although a necessity and without it the war could not have been carried on. This country was aware of the coming shortage but the clamor of pressure groups caused Washington to act against their better judgment and repeal rationing. Various expedients have been proposed such as cutting the size of a loaf of bread a fourth but we doubt if they will serve the purpose. The whole thing was brought about by public dislike for an inconvenience and Washington's inclination to listen to pressure groups.

The lowly pigeon is getting to be a regular menace. The state fire marshal ordered the pigeons which have nested around the Pinckney school exterminated as a health measure. This was done. Now the D. P. W. in Detroit has declared war on those who frequent the Detroit city airport and sentenced them to death. It seems they congregate there in such swarms as to make the landing of planes a hazzard. The execution will be carried out by the police department.

School Com. Julius Haab has been called in to settle a dispute in the Whitmore Lake school. Olive Walsh a kindergarten teacher there for 18 years was not offered a contract for 1946-47. A petition asking she be hired was signed by 218 people in the district. The board disregarded this and hired another teacher. Miss Walsh is well known around Pinckney. She is a daughter of the late Michael Walsh of Dexter township who lived just south of the Northwest Territorial Road.

In Dearborn the pupils of the Brainard school are still out on strike because they decided not to renew the contract of Principal Blaise for next year. They picketed the school for two days carrying banners. In this they were joined by their mothers. This has now been discontinued but they are still remaining away from school.

O'Larry's Bar in Detroit where the plotting to assassinate Senator Cooper of Albion was done is still going business. It's reputed owner, Mike Selig is a leading Purple ganster and under sentence in the Hooper case. During the Jackson prison inquiry last week it was disclosed 24 cases of whiskey had been sent from there to Jackson prison for sale to inmates. Chairman Pat Aron of the liquor commission announces he will start action to repeal the O'Larry bar license for sale of liquor for consumption off the premises.

ANYONE caught DUMPING RUBBISH on Graza Property, West of school property will be prosecuted. Norman Reason

DAD, CARRIED A LANTERN

There were times when Mother had to wade through snow to carry wood to feed the kitchen stove. She heated water on the stove to thaw the pump. Then she pumped more water and carried it in to be heated on the same stove for cooking, scrubbing and bathing—and for thawing the pump again.

But on the farms of Michigan life has changed, and is continuing to change.

The greatest factor in that change has been the availability of electric power.

In the electrified farm home that lantern is almost a museum piece. In the kitchen, the bathroom and the laundry, water, hot and cold, is on tap. The ash pan is gone where the woodbox pineth.

The electric range is white and shining, and the calendar hangs over what was once the exit of the old black stovepipe.

The milk and butter that used to hang in the well before Dad's dad built the milk house out by the windmill are in the electric refrigerator now.

There's a broom in the closet for shoeing the cat—an electric sweeper for the Brussels carpet.

Out in Dad's domain electricity milks the cows, grinds the feed, hoists the hay and saws the wood. It separates the cream and sends the sheep, warms the baby chicks as no hen could warm them, and kids the hens themselves into getting up before daylight to be about the business of laying eggs.

The Detroit Edison Company already has made service available to 34,000 of the 37,000 farms in its 7,600 square miles of territory. Its objective is to see that electric service is within the reach of every one of those farms.

To that end Detroit Edison now is engaged in extending its lines some 600 miles into every remote corner of its territory. These extensions will be completed just as rapidly as materials and skilled labor can be obtained.

CAN SCIENCE HARNESS THE ATOM FOR YOU?

Atom-powered airplanes, trains and autos are possible within five years,
but there's a catch—deadly radiation.
It could kill users of atomic engines unless means are devised to over-

(April 21) Detroit Times. Read how this peril will not hinder building of atomic energy plants.

She's just used Dips
That drove her crazy.
They dizied her head
And put her to bed.
But now, PAR-O-

done quickly, easily, safely without irritating your eyes, nose or causing

Help yourself to better rural line service

On most rural lines today, there are more telephones than before the war. That's because so many "essential" rural folks had telephones installed during the war when shortages of materials and manpower made it impossible to add enough new lines. Just as fast as conditions permit, we intend to add more lines to take care of those who are waiting for telephones and to reduce the number of telephones on many rural lines. While we're doing this, you and all your telephone neighbors will enjoy better service if everyone will share the line and consider the other fellow. You can do your part by continuing to keep all calls short... avoid listening in or interrupting when the line is in use... hang up your receiver carefully. (One receiver off the hook can tie up a whole line.)

MICH. MIKOR Cont. According to Prettyman, spokesman for the drys, the liquor licensees are going into politics. Another quotation: "We have from a reliable source information that one of the Republican candidates for governor will have a large contribution for his campaign fund if he will get rid of a certain member of the liquor control commission."
If you wonder why Michigan's primary election is going to be held in mid-July, here's the reason. Michigan farmers and fishermen take their responsibilities seriously. So much so that the state legislature decided in its 1946 session to change the election date. Gov. Kelly suggested July 9, 2 days off the time of the 1944 state primary on July 11, but that is the plowing season for farmers so the legislature moved the date to June 25. Rep. Elton Eaton of Plymouth recalled that was the opening of the bass fishing season so June 18 was the final choice. The county convention must be held before June 27. The Republican state convention is a Cass Tech affair, held on July 5 and the Democrat at the Braden Auditorium, Lansing on July 6 (Saturday).
The Mich. supreme court has ruled it is legal to gamble on horses under the 1933 pari-mutual betting law. So the Detroit track at the state fair grounds will open May 25 and continue through July 20.
Retail sales are still climbing and the Detroit auto strike, Mich. Motor Co. has in anticipation a total of $111 million income for the year ending June 30. This compares with about $100 million for the previous year. Dept. officials are counting on a sustained high income for the year ending June 30.
