News and Happenings of the State Told from Lansing

If the proposed sales tax split had been in effect this year Mich. would have been $5 million in the red according to Fred Striffler, Mich. Budget director.

This would have happened if the state had continued to perform its duly authorized services. The alternative would have been drastic economy by slashing appropriations for hospitals, asylums, welfare etc.

Budget making is postponed until after Nov. 5. If the amendment passes all appropriations must be slashed. The legislature would be forced to do one of two things—vote new taxes or curtail public service.

On this account all state officials having to do with finance are again at the sales tax diversion. These include Auditor Gen. Morrison, Treas. Hale Brake, Sen. VanderWerf, chairman of the finance com. and Rep. John Espie of the house ways and means com. Gov. Kelly is shortly expected to issue a blast against it.

Neither candidate for governor has so far expressed his views on the subject.

The Mich. Educational Association can be expected to put up a stiff battle for the amendment. They will point out it is the only thing that will save the Michigan school system from complete collapse. This would be a bonanza to rural schools and some would get more money than they need, tending to modernize the schools at state expense. Even in the amendment loses the MEA can use it as a bargaining lever to get more state aid in 1947.

ZEKE LEDWIDGE STARS

Some of the Pinckney players played with Brighton at the Fowlerville Fair. Thursday, Zeke Ledwidge played center field and Bill Kuhn short, against Webberville. Brighton won 5 to 1. Blackwell of South Lyon pitched for Brighton. The Pinckney boys got their share of hits. Friday Brighton met Fowlerville for the title. Kuhn played left and Gus Ledwidge right. Zeke Ledwidge did not get in until the second inning to replace an injured player. He got a home run. Then in the 9th with the score tied he hit a double to drive in the winning run. Carney pitched for Brighton and Lefty Conklin, old Hartland star who once had a showup with the Detroit Tigers was the Fowlerville pitcher.

Good thing B. F. is in Detroit for the summer. He can't keep tabs on Elga and Russ. Maybe some others.

What 10th grader admires a certain yellow shirt. Would you know Shirley?

The senior that went head over heels for a red head last year spent Sat. eve with a blond. What is it that attracts you Louise?

This vicinity is thickly populated with "Whose Its" and oddly enough their middle names are all Joe.

Wolves are like trains. You like to hear them whistle whether you want to go anywhere or not.

The report Joe C. washes dishes in Howell is false. We understand he wiped them.

$500 Scholarship Is Offered

Pinckney V. F. W. Post 7301 Offers $500 Scholarship

The V. F. W. Post No. 7301 of Pinckney will offer a $500 scholarship to some member of the graduating class of 1947. This scholarship will pay the cost of books and tuition to any institution of higher learning that the applicant may choose to enter. It will not be withdrawn unless the applicant leaves the institution or fails to maintain a 'C' average while in attendance.

Each member of this years Senior Class, who has a 'C' average or better for the first semester of this year, will be given a standardized intelligence test in January. Each of these Seniors who maintains a 'C' average during the second semester will be given a similar test in May.

The Senior with the highest total score on both tests will be offered the scholarship, if this person does not desire it, the second highest will have the opportunity of accepting it. The grades received by the seniors in their 3 previous high school years do not in anyway determine the winner of this Scholarship as it will be based entirely upon this years work and the results of the 2 tests. It is believed by members of the V.F.W. that all Seniors could maintain a 'C' average if they so desired. Therefore all Seniors should have an equal chance of winning the Scholarship.

for the County of Livingston in chancery, at the City of Howell, Michigan on September 3, 1946.

In this cause it appearing from the sworn bill of complaint on file in this court and cause, that the defendant, May Yu Tien is a non-resident of the State of Michigan, and resides fendant, May Yu Tien, cause her appearance to be entered herein within three months from the date of this order, and that in case of her appearance she cause her answer to plaintiffs bill of complaint to be filed and a copy thereof served on the attorneys for plaintiff within fifteen

Miss Florence Tupper, Mrs. Loatis and daughter of Flint were Sunday callers at the Wm. Mercer home.
Mr. and Mrs. Leland Grant and baby of Ann Arbor (Virginia Nylle) called on Mrs. Jessie Wylie Sunday.

"I'm only two men today!"

Here's E. S. Humphrey talking about his farm

"Sometimes I'm five men—and so are each of my helpers. Today, we're loafing—just doing about two men's work apiece."

"Sounds like a riddle, Mr. Humphrey."

"No riddle. See that potato field? Seven of us planted those 25 acres in 10 hours' time. But—without my electric potato cutters to get 'em ready for planting—and other modern equipment—it would have taken thirty-five men to do the job."

"Golly—what a saving!"

"Yep. Electricity does a lot of our work more cheaply. Right now it's lighting my five-story chicken house—keeping my cattle inside a little one-wire fence—cooking supper—cooling the refrigerator—running the water heater. It may be washing the clothes and sweeping the rugs, too, for all I know."

"But doesn't that give you a big electric bill?"

"It's only a small fraction of one man's monthly wages. Electricity is the best of hired hands—it's never tired, it never talks back, and the more it works the lower its hourly wage. As a matter of fact, electricity is about the biggest bargain on my farm."

Uncle Sam Says

Sixty-three years ago this month, Americans discovered a new way of joshing a neighbor who invested his money unwisely: "Go buy yourself Brooklyn Bridge." Brooklyn Bridge had just been opened. Some people actually turned over their savings to confidence men who sold them the great New York span. I could say to you today: "Go buy yourself a bridge," and I would be giving you sound advice. The bridge I have in mind consists of United States Savings Bonds . . . a bridge between the present and your future.
