Michigan townships who will receive $26,798,834 in sales tax diversion funds may help some to improve the condition of many rural roads and get Michigan out of the mud.

During the year of 1949 in 68 out of 83 Michigan counties, township boards transferred 3,150,000 in sales tax funds to county road commission to be used to improve the roads. This would be about 34 per cent of the sales tax funds received by the townships. Last year townships received a total of $9170,000 in sales tax funds. The act of 1948 gives the townships power to appropriate funds for improvement of county roads. Such action does not have to be submitted to a vote of the people.

The tug of war in the Lansing legislature over road improvement has reached a statement with the governor seeking to finance it by a tax on corporation profit tax and the legislators seeking to do the same thing but by a direct tax on the people of Michigan by increasing the gasoline tax 2 or 3 cents on a gallon. Since the governor controls the matters to be brought up at special sessions an increased gasoline tax is not possible.

To combat this Senator Milliken in the senate and Rep. Louis Crampton in the house have introduced bills providing for yearly sessions of the legislature to be held.

The Republicans claim the governor knew his corp. profits tax would not pass but introduced it so in his campaign he could blame the Republicans for the muddy, miring roads which afflicted the state this spring.

CONSERVATION NOTES

Only 1327 pelts were taken in the lower peninsula beaver trapping season.

1057 people took the Jan. examination for conservation dept. jobs.

A Canadian goose, caught in a beaver trap was 8 years old according to the band on its leg. So far only 22 starved towns have been found in northern Michigan.

Declaring that 19 out of 20 hunting accidents are preventable, a newly formed nationwide safety com. embracing United States, Canada and Mexico has been formed to reduce hunting accidents. Most hunting fatalities are self-inflicted or by companion hunters. Careful training in use of guns is favored over tests for hunters fitness.

Conservation fire fighters were called out to fight 138 fires during the week of April 3.

During January and February 1,742,000 lbs. of smelt, whitefish and herring were taken from Great Lakes. Lake Michigan produced the most 1,453,000 lbs.

The duck epidemic in the Detroit river has apparently ended after 1000 carcasses were picked up. Dumping of oil and industrial waste in the river is the cause.

The state now has 452 public fishing sites. 305 on lakes and 147 on streams.

BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY REPORT

Pres. Lacey of the Mich. Bell Telephone Co. reported earnings for the past year at 4.6 c on each dollar invested, a slight improvement over the 3.8 c of 1948. It was the third straight year in which earnings were entirely inadequate.

The net income was $10,887,000, against $7,625,528 of 1948. Although gross revenues increased 14 percent to $128,600,000 expenses increased 16 per cent to $115,000,000. Payrolls were $6,500,000 higher than in 1948. Taxes were $34,000,000 and were three times the companies net income for the year. Earnings were 12 per cent higher, due to rate increases of 1948 and 1949.

The company now has rate adjustments pending which would yield $15,000,000 more a year. This would only be 25 per cent against a postwar rise of 69 per cent in the cost of living.

Construction work for 1949 added $50,000,000 to the investment bringing the total outlay since the war to $214,000,000. At the end of the year 1,750,000 phones were in operation a gain of 92,000 over 1948. The waiting list was cut in half to 15,000. 85 per cent of the phones are now dial operated. 97 per cent of phone users can call one or more towns without a toll charge. 9,600 rural phones were added and 54,000 rural phones taken over.

Operator dialing allowing operators to dial long distance calls direct was made available to 600 cities. 425 long distance circuits were added which handle 175,000 calls a day. The company spent $180,000 in Mich. last year.

James Docking suffered a heart attack at his home here Tuesday. He was found unconscious by Julius Aschenbrenner jr., a neighbor and taken to Howell hospital.

Current Comment

Never in the history of Michigan since the state highway and county road commissions began to function has Michigan and the nation at large experienced such bad road conditions as have existed this spring. Good gravel roads, such as the Pinckney road which were always passable before suddenly went to pieces without warning.

Many farm homes in this section were isolated for weeks by muddy roads and were without mail service and practically everything else. During the past years, due to insufficient help and money the roads have been gradually allowed to deteriorate. The drainage ditches were not kept cleaned out and low spots which developed in the roads were not filled up. There was no general program of regravelling.

As a result, March with its heavy snows and rainfall put the roads out of commission, in quick order by flooding the low parts in the neglected roads. K. L. Hallenbeck, supt. of the Washtenaw County Road Com. had an excellent article in the Ann Arbor News last week. He stated the county road commissions got along fairly well on the weight and auto tax money until 1931 when the county road system was adopted. This increased the county road commission's roads to 1100 miles, many of which had never been graded or gravelled and were mere dirt roads. During the past years wages of road employees have had to be raised. The price of equipment has gone up and today the county road commissions have only $57.75 per year from the wt. and gas tax to maintain a mile of roads. It is not enough. Due to the lack of funds the county road commissions have had to reduce their forces. In 1942 the Washtenaw county road commission had 140 employees. Now they have but 90. A new financing plan for the roads will have to be worked out or they will continue to deteriorate.

Many people have experienced the nuisance of being stopped on the highways during the hunting season and having their car searched by conservation officers for illegally killed game. Now the state supreme court has just declared this act unconstitutional and ruled such searches illegal unless conservation officers have reasonable grounds that motorists searched are law violators. The law just declared unconstitutional was passed in 1948 at the request of sportsmen's organizations to curb law violators. It gave officers power to search cars without going through the prosecutors office and getting a search warrant.

The belief that there are flying saucers will not down despite the repeated assertion of the war dept. that they are merely an optical illusion. The reason is that too many prominent and reputable people have seen them. Congressman Engle of Muskegon is the last person to become converted to the idea that flying saucers actually exist. Of course, the theory that these saucers are sent out from the planet Mars to scout the earth before a possible invasion is all bunk. Denial by the war dept. that they are experiments conducted by that body also does not carry conviction.

Cong. Fogarty of Rhode Island last week when by a two-thirds sprang a surprise in congress vote he got through a resolution to deny all further Marshall plan aid to Great Britain unless she surrenders the 6 British counties in northern Ireland to Eire. It is true that there were not many congressmen present when the vote was taken as only 99 congressmen constituted a two-thirds majority. Of course, the action will be reconsidered but we give Cong. Fogarty credit for being smart and seeing the opportune minute to put up with his measure. It will undoubtedly make him the most popular Irishman with his constituents along the eastern seaboard.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Gabby Enjoys Going to The Dentist

One of my molars was giving me a bad time Tuesday afternoon, so I slipped over to Doc Jones, hoping to catch him free. When I arrived, Gabby Jackson was sitting there reading a magazine. I said hello to Gabby and he nodded.

Doc comes out and says I'm next. "Wait a minute," I says. (My tooth seemed to have stopped aching.) "How about Gabby—doesn't he have an appointment?" Doc smiles and says, "Gabby? Why, he's got the finest teeth in the county. He just comes up here and reads the magazines whenever he's in town!"

As Doc went to work he told me that he's glad to have Gabby come up and read magazines... they might not all be fresh off the news stand, but if Gabby—or anyone wants to while away some time who is he to stand in their way?

From where I sit, this "live and let live" spirit helps make America what it is. If I prefer a friendly glass of beer with my supper and you prefer milk—who's to say one's right and the other wrong?

Never Wanting for a Paying Customer

Dairy farmers who are members of the Michigan Milk Producers' Association enjoy a marketing situation which is available to very few business men throughout the entire world.

These 15,000 members are GUARANTEED a market for all of the milk they produce at all times and furthermore, prompt payment for that milk is GUARANTEED.

Through their own cooperative efforts during the past third of a century, they have established these protective measures. There is an outside help available of self help and best of all, it is at its best. It is the result of the farmer's family being guaranteed a market for his milk, not a market from the market as received by the processor of the amount he would have obtained had the market been available.

These protective measures will do much to the advantage of the consumer, public and the dairyman. The supply of milk in the Michigan cities, as provided by the MMPA is always available to meet the requirements of all the people—a direct result of the association's prompt and reliable policies.

Whether you are a consumer or a producer depend upon the Michigan Milk Producers' Association and your health.

Rural Tele-news

TIMBER—It takes a sizable logging industry to keep Michigan Bell and other Bell System companies supplied with telephone poles. Altogether they use some 100 different sizes of poles, ranging from 16-foot "toothpicks" to 90-foot giants. Trees are but one of many products of the soil that are bought to provide you with telephone service.

SAVINGS AT WORK—Every time you use the telephone, the accumulated small investments of hundreds of thousands of telephone stockholders go to work for you. One in every 50 families in the United States shares directly in the ownership of the Bell Telephone System. They have invested their savings in the business, confident of a fair return on their investment. To attract the money needed to improve and expand telephone service requires the continued confidence of investors. That takes a financially healthy telephone company.

FARM CITY—If you took the 73,000 telephones that Michigan Bell has added since V-J Day in the rural areas it serves, you'd have as many telephones as there are in Flint, the third largest city in Michigan. To add all these telephones in our rural areas, we have set 75,000 poles and strung 37,000 miles of wire. This rural improvement and expansion program has cost more than $15,000,000 since the war.
