Michigan Mirror

The idea of May are almost here and the Mich. Legislature is still in session with virtually nothing accomplished.

Using his constitutional right to limit legislation Gov. Williams has ruled on approximately $112 million in additional government spending must be financed, if at all, by a corp profits tax. He has declined to permit the legislature to increase gas or weight taxes for road improvement.

There is little chance that the legislature will accept the governor's program. Their leaders have pledged the Republican dominated legislature not to levy any more taxes or increase government spending in 1950.

This looks like a miracle. Already demands are pouring in to the legislature urging them to make exceptions for this worthy cause or that and the public need. As there is obvious merit to all needs according to individual viewpoints, the Republicans will have to hold the line rigorously if they obtain their objective.

The budget submitted by Gov. Williams would put the state $112 million in the red. In the past legislature have always been prone to talk economy but to vote spending. It is up to the legislature to balance the budget or incur a deficit. Whether they cut appropriations there will be a howl of anguish as some worry enterprise or activity gets its toes stepped on. The legislature has no choice they must cut spending or accept the governor's tax program.

DETROIT KIWANIS CLUB TO SPONSOR 4-H PROJECT

Gayle Johnson, Chairman of the Agricultural Committee of the STRATHMOOR KIWANIS CLUB of DETROIT and William B. Lambert, Club President, made a trip to Pinckney a few days ago in the interest of the newly organized 4-H Club to see what they could do to assist in expanding the Group Activities. The KIWANIS Club which they represented is making plans to sponsor a thorough-bred Hereford stock raising program with the 4-H group here and as a starter, purchased a registered Hereford calf which they presented to Jerry Henry to be raised by him and exhibited by him at several fairs this fall including the Michigan State Fair at Detroit.

They plan to continue this program each year with the 4-H group and will purchase additional stock and present them to one or more boys and girls which are to be selected by the KIWANIS CLUB on a merit and Citizenship basis and hope that through their efforts, these boys and girls will become the respected and successful citizens of the communities in which they live.

Such projects are being sponsored by over three thousand KIWANIS CLUBS throughout the United States, Canada, Hawaii and Alaska, all working for the same objective "Building good citizens of tomorrow from the youth of today."

Gayle and Mr. Lambert both wish to express their thanks to all who offered their assistance and gave their time in helping them with their project and especially to Fred Read, who acted as Chief Navigator for the day.

Among those from Pinckney attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark and daughter, Mary Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fisher, from Howell; Mr. and Mrs. Glen Slayton.

SCHOOL ELECTION IS MAY 25

After several discussion meetings throughout the Pinckney Community school area the planning committee has set May 25th as the date for vote. The site committee has given considerable time and effort in picking a site for the new buildings because of the generous cooperation of the village the present ball ground west of town has been chosen. The Council has agreed to forego its half interest in the field if the school district chooses to build there. By use of this site already half owned by the school there will be considerable savings in cash outlay.

At the vote on May 25 two ball lots are being prepared, one to raise the ceiling on the 15 mill amendment and two to bond the school district for $140,000.00 for a period of 20 years. Under the present plan the bonds would be paid off in 15 years.

The qualifications to vote on the mill amendment are as follows: The person must: 1. a citizen of the U. S., 2. above 21 years of age, 3. have resided in the State of Michigan six mos., and 4. in the school district 20 days preceding the election.

The qualification to vote on the bond issue are the same as the above plus the voter must have property assessed for taxes within the school district or be the lawful husband or wife of such person.

These requirements are set forth by the State Legislature.

BAN POPPIE SALES

Members of the Detroit school board voted last fall to ban all fund soliciting in Detroit schools except the Torch Drive of the United Foundation. This organization collects funds and then divides them among the charitable groups, similar to that of a Community Fund in accordance with this the school board has just refused the Allied Veterans Council permission to sell Memorial Day poppies in the Detroit schools. Their reason is if they grant them permission they would have to do so to other groups.

TEACHERS MEETING

The teachers of Livingston co. met at the Pinckney school Fri. A dinner was served.

Current Comment

Gov. Williams has come in for considerable criticism because he refused to let the legislature in special session consider anything except which he proposed in his call. He is within his rights. A special session is an emergency session called for a certain purpose only and to let the legislators introduce any bill desired not related to the emergency would defeat its purpose. Many state deporements were running short of funds and some action had to be taken to avoid a deficit or breakdown in state services. So far the legislature has accomplished nothing as they have refused to accept the governor's program. Instead they have advocated an economy program but upodate have put no economies into effect. The big trouble with economy is that everyone want it to be at the expense of the other fellow.

The legislature in special session has approved a $6,184,240 appropriation to cover deficiencies in old-age pensions and unemployment insurance. In many cases old age pensions have been increased. The direct relief load has increased especially in Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, counties growing out of the Chrysler strike. Part of it will also go to board mental patients in private homes, relieving the overcrowded conditions in hospitals. The fund is $32000 more than voted by the senate but the senate will probably concur in the recommendation of the house.

With the war threat ever hovering near it is hard to see how many economy measures can be inaugurated. Congress has just voted $300,000,000 for new war planes and $52,000,000 to convert naval vessels for anti-submarine warfare. Gen. Eisenhower also wants more funds for air bases in Alaska. With the present state of insecurity that exists in the world with its threats of war to stop preparedness measures would be fatal. 70 percent of the tax money now raised goes to pay for past, present and future wars and until this condition changes all talks of economy are futile.

During the war and as an emergency measure a 20 per cent tax was placed on all amusement admissions. The war is now over for about 5 years but the tax continues in force practically unchanged. Strong efforts have been made to get this tax removed but so far to no avail. The ways and means committee has indicated it will return the tax on coin-operated machines, bowling alleys, billiard and pool tables, club dues, initiation fees, safe deposit box leases, travel tickets, freight rates and long distance telephone and telegraph calls. The cuts so far in excise taxes total $578,000,000.

Consistency thou art a jewel. The Detroit Free Press is against socialization in government including socialized medicine etc. but it comes out strong for free dental service for school children. School children enjoy a certain type of free dental service now which is, however, paid for by private foundations and dental societies. Dr. Hildebrand of Detroit would continue this but B would have it paid by federal money. The line must be very thin as we fail to see the distinction. To our way of thinking this is socialized dentistry.

The Detroit Tigers base ball team seem to have gotten off to a fine start and have one of the best teams in years even if their star pitcher is sidelined with injuries. This year we believe all Tuesday and Friday home games will be night ones giving many people a chance to witness them. Night games are here to stay and are accepted as a matter of fact. Most of the objections to them seem to have been overcome.

DOES YOUR WATER DO A FULL DAY'S WORK?

To save precious time and labor, to step up farm profits, let Reddy Kilowatt pump and lug more water. Your "wired" hand does this chore for as little as 1 1/2c an hour.

Here are a few typical reports from Michigan farmers who have enlarged their electric water systems. "Milk production up 20%." "Butter fat increased 6 to 12%." "Feed costs way down." "Have real fire protection now." "My family is healthier and happier than ever before."

Yes, it pays to switch from man power to electric power to make water do a full day's work.

Practical Peacemaking in Palestine

Members of the Israel-Egyptia Mixed Armistice Commission (MAC) for short, iron out a demarcation line problem in the Palestine desert. The MAC is one of four groups under the United Nations-sponsored armistice agreements between Israel and her neighbors—Egypt, the Kingdom of Jordan, Lebanon and Syria.

Discute Administration meets U.N. interns

Group of forty young men and women from 28 countries is this morning for an eight-week period at U.N. Headquarters where they are assigned to different departments in the Secretariat to learn the work of the Organization. Here, Admiral Chester Nimitz of the United States, U.N. Plebiscite Administrator for Siam and Pakistan, explains his contemplated mission to interested "interns" Aniz Ataulah, (right) of Pakistan, and Surjit Singh, of India.

New Members in U.N. Security Council

Equador, India and Yugoslavia have been elected by the U.N. General Assembly to occupy the seats on the Security Council to be vacated next January by Argentina, Canada and the Philippines. The representatives of the three countries elected are (left to right) Benigno Yrigoyen, of Ecuador; General Narasing Rao, of India; and Dr. Zoran Djindjic, Foreign Minister of Yugoslavia.

Malaria Control in Turkey

Stressing a "new pattern" in international health, the U.N. World Health Organization (WHO) is now attacking international health problems with tactics based on preventive rather than curative techniques. Here, under the guidance of a WHO District Engineer assisting the Turkish Malaria Services, workers spray insecticide for mosquito control in a swamp near a town in the province of Ankara.

More Efficient Crop Production is Key to High Profits, Low Costs

FARMERS hear a good deal about the need for cutting costs these days. This is important, with production expenses high and most farm prices slumping.

Where to cut is a problem. It is false economy to reduce costs by cutting down on essential items such as fertilizer, good seed, feed supplements or good heifers.

Missouri University agricultural economists advise farmers not to be "penny wise and pound foolish" in the matter of buying fertilizer. They point out that money spent on plant food is an investment that pays out in a short time. It gets more efficient crop production. And efficient crop production that yields more bushels per acre is the key to cutting costs and building profits.

The Middle West Soil Improvement Committee points out that fertilizer does its best job of boosting yields and reducing costs when it is teamed up with other good soil and crop management practices. The heart of such a program is a good rotation built around soil-improving deep-rooted legumes. Among other steps are well-adapted, good quality seed; good cultural methods; returning crop residues and barnyard manure to the soil; and keeping soil and water at home by conservation practices such as cover crops, contour cultivation and strip cropping where needed.

Everyone will have a part in the U.S. Savings Bonds great "Opportunity Drive" May 16-June 30. The armed forces are responding to the call for volunteer assistance by offering to fly a number of covered wagons to Independence, Mo., for a big ceremony marking opening of the drive. They will then transport the wagons to various parts of the country. The covered wagons typify the difference between the original 49 wagons which in their search for riches had to struggle and how easy it is for the modern man to find a secure future. Today, you can give the opportunity to invest in U.S. Savings Bonds. The only way to get the most out of your money is to invest in U.S. Savings Bonds. U.S. Treasury Department.

RED CROSS HAS RECORD NUMBER SERVING U. S. MILITARY FORCES

With U. S. military forces at five times their prewar strength, a record number of American Red Cross workers are serving them throughout the world.

More than 2,000 Red Cross representatives today are stationed at 1,300 military installations and 123 hospitals here and overseas. About 1,400 staff workers are serving troops in this country. The others are working at occupation and defense posts abroad.

The Red Cross man at Hickam Air Force Base, Hawaii, lends a helping hand to a young marine, enroute from Kwajalein to his Maine home on emergency leave.

The duties of these Red Cross workers are as varied as the locale in which they work, involving a wide range of welfare services that contribute to military morale. They may include tiding over a soldier's wife with grocery and rent money until her family allowance check comes through, or getting a welfare report on an Eskimo serviceman's mother via weather bureau radio.

Service of the Red Cross worker in a military hospital may be helping a man through the difficult hour when he learns that he will never be well again or removing the worry that often stands in the way of his recovery.

Under federal statute and regulations of the Army, the Navy, and the Air Force, the American Red Cross furnishes volunteer aid to the sick and wounded of the armed forces and acts in matters of voluntary relief and as a medium of communication between the people of the United States and their armed forces.

In the last year Red Cross staff members handled more than 102,000 welfare cases in military hospitals. More than 500 professional Red Cross workers are stationed at 40 army hospitals, 26 navy hospitals, and 14 air force hospitals.

For the able-bodied, too, whatever the problem or wherever the serviceman is stationed, the chances are that

Building Up Fertility is Key to Soil Conservation and Protection from Erosion

Heavy-yielding barley crop (left) had full feed of nitrogen, phosphate and potash; plot on right was unfertilized.

BUILDING soil fertility is the key to soil conservation, declared Prof. Emil Truog, chairman of the soils department of the University of Wisconsin.

"Keeping our soils high in mineral nutrients works six ways to conserve our soils and protect them from erosion," he declared:

"1—High soil fertility produces a heavier plant growth that protects soil from washing and blowing.

"2—Heavier plant growth uses more water from the land. This allows the soil to absorb more rainfall, thereby reducing soil and water losses caused by runoff.

"3—Fertile soil is in better physical shape to take in water from rainfall. Thus more is stored up for crops and less runs off.

"4—Higher soil fertility increases crop yields on more level fields. This reduces the need for growing clean cultivated row crops on sloping fields, where soil erosion takes a heavy toll.

"5—By improving our soil fertility, we make it possible to grow more crops on fewer acres, thus releasing more land for forestry, wildlife and recreation.

"6—Increased crop yields from higher soil fertility increases the farmer's income. This, in turn, provides the farmer with money for installing terraces, grass waterways, gully control and other conservation practices.

"With such a program we not only save our soils but give strong aid to the conservation of other resources—forests, wildlife and people," he concluded.

Uncle Sam Says

The U. S. Savings Bonds "Independence Drive" opening May 15 will carry a most appropriate theme: "Save for Your Independence." The Liberty Bell, symbol of political independence, will also more ring out, suggesting that you save NOW to buy more U. S. Savings Bonds to better equip yourself for a secure and comfortable future.

Uncle Sam Says

Independence is the cornerstone upon which this country was built. And thrift is the cornerstone upon which Americans are building future financial independence. That cornerstone provides the slogan for the U. S. Savings Bonds Campaign, May 15-July 4, which is: "Save For Your Independence." Everyone has something to save for, whether it be for a home, for retirement, to educate your children, or for a glorious vacation trip. With the determination "Save in 1950 for 1959" you will be well on the way to financial independence. You will receive $4 for every $3 invested within ten short years.

"He's been acting like that since he found what he wanted in the telephone directory Yellow Pages."

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Again the solemn notes that be taken the dissolution of this earthly tabernacle have alarmed our outer door and another brother, has passed out and been gathered to the land where our fathers have gone before us. Wherefore: Brother Fred Lake has long been a member of Pinckney Lodge No. 76 F. & A. M. and that in the dissolution of his fraternal relations our beloved order has lost a worthy brother and a true Mason, therefore be it Resolved: That this is but a just tribute to the memory of the departed to say that in regretting his removal from our midst, we mourn for one who was in every way worthy of our respect and regard.
