

Pinckney Dispatch

Michigan Mirror

The puzzle of putting Michigan's budget for the coming year is almost completed. The legislators have whittled down Gov. Willham's $644-million-dollar budget to $280 million. As anticipated revenue will only be about $235 million this will leave a $20- to $25 million deficit.

The legislature will soon recess until June 30.

The governor recommended that the appropriations be increased $110 million. Of this $135 million would go for state operations, $156.3 for local government units and $27.9 million for colleges and hospitals, leaving $18.7 for road improvements.

The difficulty in trimming the budget is recognized. Caucuses have been necessary to hold Republican legislators in line. The Democrat strategy is to publicize the economy program of the Republicans at the expense of needed improvements also the fact they failed to budget the budget.

Reassignment of Republicans over the governor's refusal to allow them to introduce legislation not listed in his special call is reflected in an amendment calling for yearly sessions. If approved by two-thirds of the house and senate it goes on the November ballot. These sessions would convene in January and adjourn in April. Under this legislation could introduce any legislation they desired.

The state administrative board has approved a plan for a $4 million new office building. The building would be financed by bonds. Whereas the state now pays $1.15 per ft. rental in private buildings they would pay $2.50 per ft. in this new building.

The newest effort to reorganize state and local government is being made by a committee headed by Senator Milliken. Although the 1945 legislature only contributed $5,000 to this move $200,000 more has been received from various and private organizations. Efforts to this date have failed. Senator Milliken is hopeful that this effort patterned on the Hoover-Reagan Plan will succeed.

IRRESPONSIBLE JOURNALISM

Editors and publishers of American newspapers, particularly our metropolitan publishers, should realize that Americans are getting fed up with irresponsible, dishonest and show-off journalism as practiced by too many of this country's trained and columnists and journalistic prima donnas.

Even critics of the press are prone at times to excuse irresponsibility and "showmanship" on the part of some of our columnists and "special writers" by condoning their dishonest practices as a necessary evil of a free press and "good for the country." Nothing is further from the truth. It is time to wake up American newspapermen, and "clean house" it is time to give the public a better product. Perhaps we have underestimated the desire of the public for responsible, constructive journalism.

During these critical times with the fate of the entire world hanging in the balance, the American public is treated to the following journalistic spectacles:

1. Columnist Westbrook Pegler attempted to prove, a week or two ago, that Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt was descended from a thief and a traitor. Pegler succeeded only in proving that Pegler had been careless with the facts, and they wasn't man enough to admit his mistake.
2. American newspapers and wire services sent more than 100 reporters, photographers, and radio broadcasters to a little town in New Hampshire to cover the trial of a doctor charged with a "mercy killing." In ten days of court sessions, the press corps filed 1,600,000 words, at a total cost of who knows how many thousands of dollars?
3. Newspaper Enterprise Association columnist Erskine Johnson, who earns about $35,000 a year, is conducting a "campaign" complete with drama, razzle-dazzle, and holism (principally holism) against eating popcorn in the movies. It seems to my one-track mind that this movie columnist would be earning his $35,000 a year if he confined himself to more weather and lotter crusades, for example, trying to improve the product coming out of Hollywood.

VAN'S SERVICE WINS BOWLING TITLE

The top teams in the Pinckney bowling league like the Ken-tucky Derby winners were pretty well hunched while coming down the home stretch. Current Comment

We read that Michigan will plant 99,500 trees this year, most of them in the form of seedlings. It took the farmers and others many years to realize that trees were one of their best crops and this fact was not realized by them until most of the land had been denuded of the huge forest growth which once covered it. This state was once almost entirely covered with a dense forest growth. The early settlers wanted farm lands and the forests stood in their way. The trees were cut without any regard to their quality and placed in huge piles and burned to get rid of them. Walnut, hickory, maple and other valuable wood went to these huge piles. Back in the nineties most farms were fenced with zig-zag rail fences and these rails were often made of walnut, maple, etc. Then came lumbering operations which followed the civil war and again huge waste predominated. The limbs of the trees cut for logs were left lying on the ground and as they dried out they caught fire and caused big forest fires in which sometimes entire counties were burned over. Undoubtedly more timber was destroyed by forest fire than by the lumbermen's ax. Finally when Michigan woke up her forests were gone. Many of the cut over lands would not bear crops and in many thousands of acres were ruined by soil erosion and washouts. Now Michigan is spending millions of dollars to bring back the forests, which a little elimination of waste would have saved.

According to records in the office of the secretary of state 9,000 Michigan auto drivers had their licenses taken away from them last year. Of these 3,300 lost theirs and were probationed 4,881 lost theirs for drunk driving, for recklessness or because they had 4 convictions. 809 had theirs taken away because of failure to comply with the Michigan responsibility act. 584 were declared mentally or physically unfit. In addition 15,757 did not complete the necessary requirements to get a license, having failed in vision or road tests.

In statistics issued by the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. this organization doubts that child ren have anything to do with decreasing the divorce rate. In statistics compiled in 1948 it was shown that in 42 per cent of the divorces granted in the nation the couples involved had children. In Wayne and other counties an office known as the Friend of the court employs a large force is looking after the children of divorced couple.

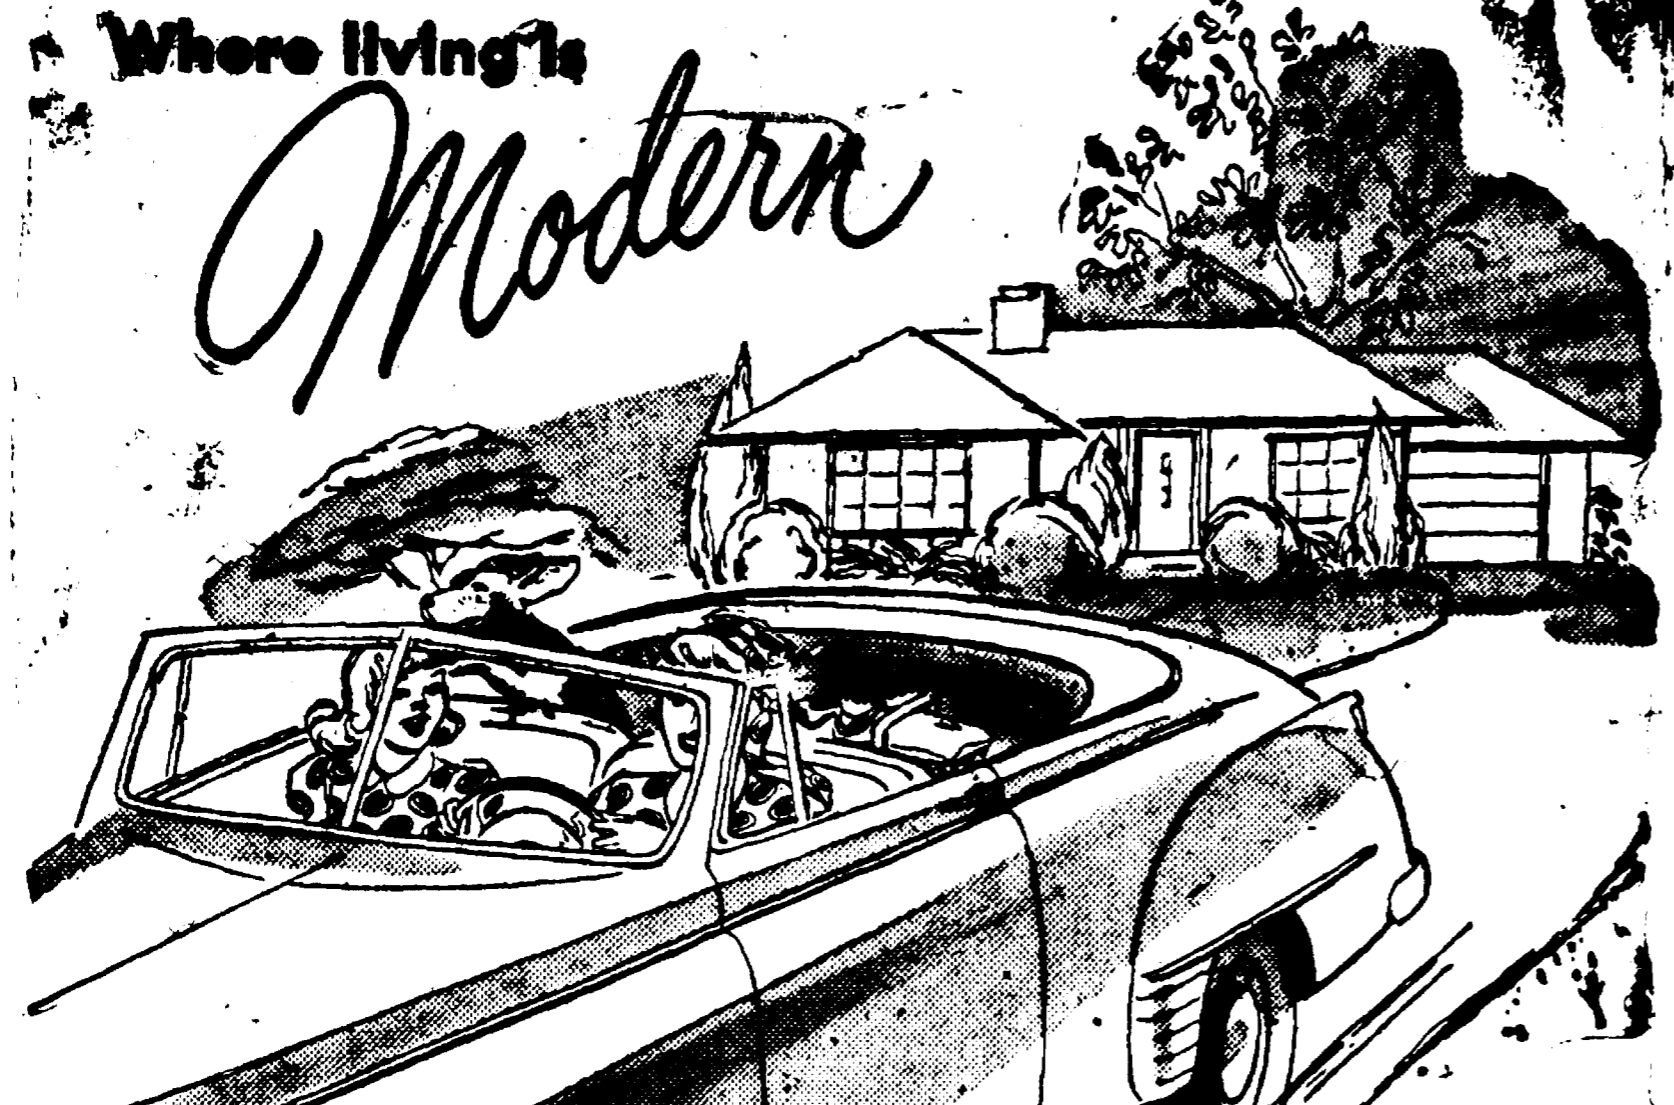

John Foster Dulles, the Republican recently appointed to the dept. of state, has an idea for stopping the spread of Communism in China and saving China. Kai Check. The latter army has now lost all of China except the island of Formosa. The Chinese Communists are now about to attack this and it is charged are being aided by Russian planes and guns. This island was taken from China by Japan and after the war was restored to China. Dulles would have the country nullify this and assert that it was still a part of Japan and occupy it with American troops. However, even Republicans are not inclined to follow Dulles, such an act would be very close to provoking war with Russia.

Congress is presumably elected to make the laws for the nation but seemingly two thirds of their time is spent running around the country investigating a hundred and one things. Nor they seem all poised to investigate gambling on a grand scale. Now all the investigation in the world is not going to stamp out gambling.

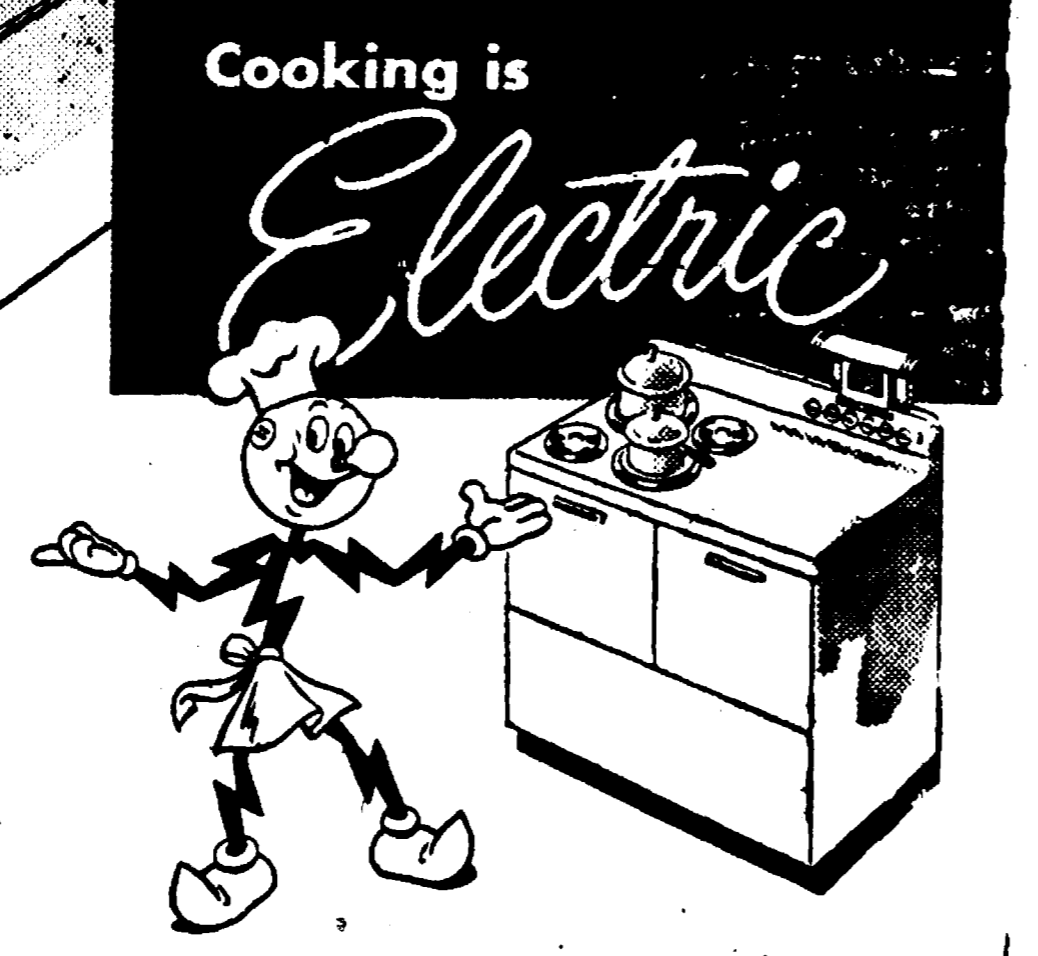

It has existed since the birth of man and always will. There is a very fine distinction as to what is gambling. For instance, some times bingo is gambling and sometimes it is perfectly legitimate. The same thing applies to betting on horse races. If you bet in a handbook place it is against the law but if you do so track it is legal. It is also perfect ly legal to play the stock market in Wall St. Under this setup how is any gambling investigation going to get anywhere.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Mud Lake Gets "Cleared Up"

County officers got a notice from the government not long ago, asking them to change the name of Mud Lake. Seems it's a pond, not a lake, by government standards.

Because it lies entirely inside our town limits, we asked to do the name-changing ourselves. Figured we'd think up a brand-new name. Mud Lake's really not very muddy—sort of pretty, in fact.

County people said go ahead, so we held a Town Meeting. Everyone suggested something. Windy Taylor thought "Taylor Pond" would be nice, because his place borders it—for about 30 feet! But we finally decided to call it "Turtle Pond" in honor of the real owners.

From where I sit, naming that pond wasn't the most important thing in the world—but the way we did it was.

Everyone offered his opinion and then the majority vote decided it. That's the way it should be—whether it concerns naming a pond, or having the right to enjoy a friendly glass of beer or ale—if and when we choose.

Message to Our Citizens

On Monday, May 15, the U. S. Savings Bonds Independence Drive Opens throughout the nation, continuing through the Fourth of July. Its symbol is the Liberty Bell, encircled by the campaign theme: Save for Your Independence—Buy U. S. Savings Bonds.

The year around Savings Bond program, of which this annual campaign is an important part, fosters the spirit of self-reliance and the urge for self-betterment that along with individual enterprise, inventiveness, productivity and thrift have carried us steadily forward since the first settlers braved the wilderness to build a free America.

Through regular savings we build up reserves against misfortune and provide income for our later years, thus lessening the burden upon others. We accumulate funds for worthwhile purchases and investments. The buying power we store up (individual savings in E Bonds alone exceed $34,000,000,000 in cash value today) helps to stabilize business and employment through the years.

As your president, I urge all who are able to help the volunteer Savings Bonds Committee of this village reach every possible Bond buyer during the campaign. The more we exceed our Independence Drive quota and the more we spread the habit of regular saving through the payroll plan or purchase of Bonds at banks and post offices, the more we shall have done for ourselves, our community and our nation.

In honor of the Liberty Bell, hallowed symbol of American principles by which we live and grow and prosper, I call upon our citizens to signal the opening of this Independence Drive by the ringing of bells throughout the village at noon and the displaying of our nations flag on Monday, May 15.

Stanley Dinkel, Village Presiden
