OUR DEMOCRACY

"The first requisite of a good citizen is that he shall be able and willing to pull his weight."

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

GOOD CITIZENS PULL THEIR WEIGHT WHEN THEY GIVE THEIR BEST TO THEIR WORK AND WHEN THEY DO THEIR INDIVIDUAL SHARE IN NEIGHBORHOOD AND FAMILY ACTIVITIES.

THEY PULL THEIR WEIGHT WHEN THEY SPEAK AND ACT FOR THEIR CONVICTIONS.

AND THE GOOD CITIZEN'S ACCEPTANCE OF RESPONSIBILITY FOR "PULLING HIS WEIGHT" IN PROVIDING FINANCIAL SECURITY FOR HIMSELF AND HIS FAMILY IS THE GREATEST FACTOR IN THE STRENGTH AND STAMINA OF OUR DEMOCRACY.

Current Comment

Howell high school will inaugurate something this year which we are heartily in favor of. This year at basket ball between the halves, teams from the 7th and 8th grades will play. There is a 20 minute rest period between the halves which is usually a time of confusion as people flock out on the gym floor etc. It will also accustom them to playing before a crowd. This system should work out good here as Pinckney has some good athletic material in the grades. Back in the time of Supt. Hulce a grade team was organized and played a series with outside teams such as Dexter, Brighton, Stockbridge and Hartland. Such stars as Gus Led-widge, Ross Lamb, Fred Saecker, Jack Haines, Pat Jeffreys, Garth Meyer and Chas. and Tom Clark played on this team and they are high school players was several league championships for Pinckney.

We read that a St. Clair Shores man has been arrested for adulter-ating hamburger. He was supply-ing 5 restaurants. The dept. said his product contained a large amount of horse meat. We sup-pose like the rabbit pie man of World War I he apportioned it 50/50, one horse, one cow.

The Thanksgiving season was not without tragedy as a train wreck on Long Island killed 76 people when one train crashed into the rear of another one. This is the third wreck in about a years time on this road and an usual there is much locking of the barn after the horse is stolen.

Gov. Dewey of New York and Mayor impellerette of New York City have demanded sweeping investigations. This road carries passenger only, mostly city business men, and clerks to their homes on Long Island. We rode on this road once some years ago. The road is in receivership as it has not paid the damages resulting from the previous two wrecks. As the engineer and most of the crew were killed we fail to see where an investigation will get anywhere.

We read that the wife of Al. Jolson has announced she has no intention of breaking his will. She is his 4th wife and was in her twenties when she married the past 60 year old Jolson. He left her the income from a mill-ion dollars. Four million he left to charity.

Senator Taft of Ohio regards his election as a personal vindication of his policies and at the same time indignantly denies he is an isolationist. The leopard cannot change its spots and we do not believe Senator Taft can either. At least he has given no signs of it. He has planned all an-gles of the Marshall plan and also the aid to Greece. He favors intervention in Germany and aid to Chiang Kai Shek which is also favored by those who have huge business interests in China. We think his reexamination of Euro-pean policies would be for the pur-pose of wrecking them.

Many racists are preached under the guise of religion. One now being operated by a negro who calls himself Prophet Jones, is flourishing in Detroit. He oper-ates similar to Father Divine, the negro racketeer of New York. Jones runs a 54 room house and feeds his followers fried chicken. The prophet wears jewels and dia-monds, gifts of his followers. The members of his sect must turn their wages over to him.

One wonders if the days of Sodom and Gomorrah were here again last week when flood wat-ers threatened to destroy Reno, Nevada, the wickedest city in the United States where divorces are quick and gambling legal. Most of the dens of iniquity were put of business by flood waters, including that of Mart. Wertheimer, former Michigan gambling king.

A race riot was narrowly av-erted in Detroit last week when negro shot and killed a police officer who had arrested his son. A Communist spread report said 2 negro children had been killed took 100 police commandos to dis-entangle them from the scene. It took 100 police commandos to dis-pers the mob. The negro killer was captured by means of tear gas bombs.

Organic Matter and Fertilizer Are Top Crop Building Team

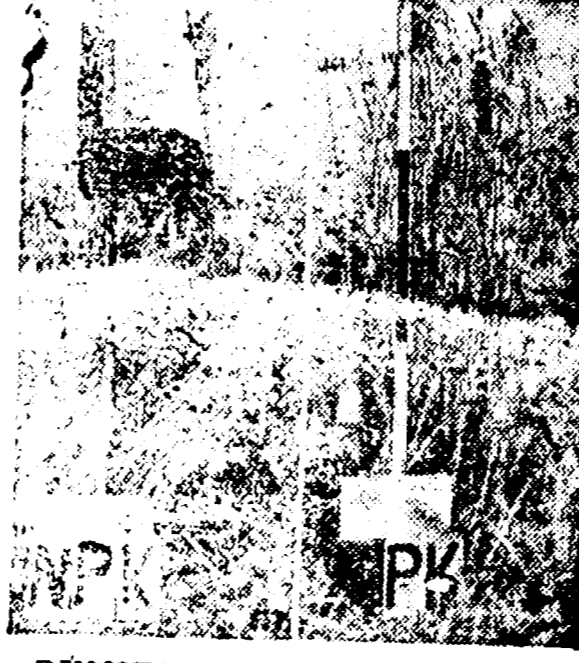

CHICAGO—Organic matter gives farm soil the "get up and go" to produce bigger yields and higher quality crops, the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee points out. As organic matter rots, it releases elements needed for feeding crops. During the decomposition process, favorable conditions are produced for making available the plant nutrients contained in soil minerals, says a statement issued by the committee.

But organic matter alone cannot do the whole job of giving you big yields and high quality crops, the statement adds. It needs to be reinforced by commercial fertilizer.

Prof. Emil Truog, University of Wisconsin agronomist, recently declared: "To say—as does the organic school—that chemical fertilizer such as phosphate and potash should not be used—is pure bunkum. These fertilizers are needed to make up the inevitable lack of nutritive elements which organic matter alone cannot supply."

Prof. Truog says that in gardens and other small areas, you can maintain the fertility and organic matter supply by the use of composts and animal manures. But he emphasizes that such practices are not feasible for large farm acreages. It is impossible, he says, to prepare and apply the enormous amounts of compost that would be needed for the average farm.

On such big farm acreages, a good crop rotation will provide the need for organic matter. This can be supplied in the form of plowed-under deep-rooted legumes, crop residues, stubble, stalks and roots and barnyard manure. Prof. Truog says all that is necessary to make the system work is the proper use of lime and fertilizer—containing phosphorus and potash and sometimes nitrogen. The key to the organic matter and fertilizer problem he adds, is high soil and mineral fertility. This assures a thick, luxuriant stand of superior deep-rooted legumes such as alfalfa and the clovers.

BUSHEL-BOOSTING BARLEY—New stiff-strawed grain like this experimental barley variety (right) can take heavier amounts of plant food without lodging. Its "ramrod" stiff straw will support all the weight of heavy, fully-developed, bushel-building heads. Straw of variety at left is too weak to hold up heads of well-fertilized barley crop. Straw broke down and barley lodged, resulting in much lower crop yield. Clinton, Benton and Eaton oats are new varieties that "take" heavier amounts of plant food and yield more bushels per acre!

Balanced Soil Plan Gives Top Yields at Low Production Cost

COLUMBIA, MO.—A five-point program to "balance the soil's needs" and obtain maximum crop yields per acre at low production costs, was outlined by O. T. Coleman, Missouri University extension soils specialist.

- Here are the steps Coleman suggests:
1. Provide plenty of plant food in available form for the crops you are growing. Crops cannot grow without nutrients.
2. Have your soil tested to determine whether the plant food supply is in balance. Growing crops need a balanced ration the same as do people and livestock.
3. Get the soil in condition so that crops can use the plant foods. This means a turnover of organic matter. You can add organic matter and improve soil tilth, drainage and aeration by growing well-fertilized deep-rooted legumes.
4. Keep water, plant nutrients and topsoil at home by conservation methods. Where needed, these may include terracing and contouring to reduce runoff and erosion losses.
5. Follow a well-balanced cropping system. Deep-rooted legumes for pasture and green manure crops need to be rotated regularly with grains. Livestock is a "must" to properly handle pasture and roughage crops in such a crop-balancing program. Tests have shown that where a crop is pastured off, about 75 per cent of the organic matter is returned to the soil. This is true of both legume and grain crops.

Preparing Libya for Independence

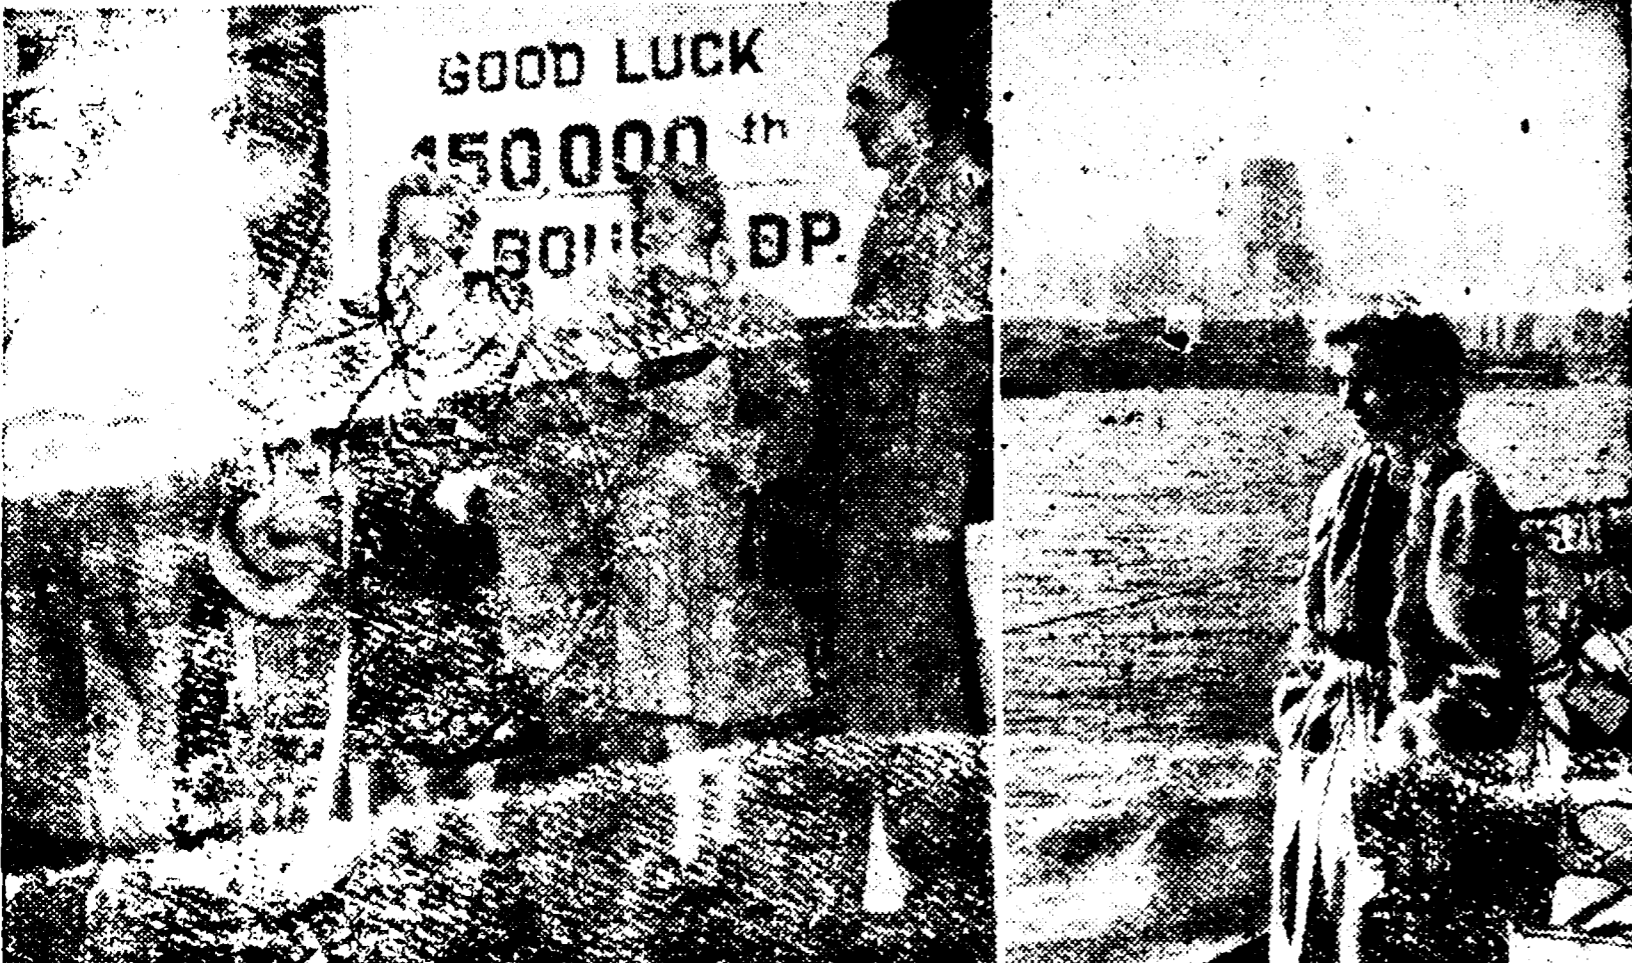

An Advisory Council has been established in accordance with a resolution of the United Nations General Assembly to aid and advise the U.N. Commissioner for Libya, Adrian Pelt, in the formation of an independent government for the former Italian colony. Here, the United Nations Commissioner at a meeting in Tripoli confers with the Council's Secretary, Mr. Thomas Power of the United States.

U.N. Blood Bank in Korea

Members of the United Nations Secretariat in Korea were among the first to contribute to U.N. Blood Bank No. 406, operated by Red Cross volunteers. Two U.N. donors are shown here with Red Cross nurses watching their colleague make her contribution. The Blood Bank was organized by July in the space of six hours by 36 women of seven different nationalities to meet emergency needs.

Big Number Is Lucky One for Girl Refugee

Twelve-year-old Dace Epernands (holding flowers, left picture) gets a special send-off at Bremerhaven, Germany, when records of the U.N. International Refugee Organization (IRO) disclosed that she was the 150,000th displaced person to be admitted to the USA under its DP law. Her mother and father, leaving an IRO camp with Dace for their new home, stand with her in front of the sign. At right, Dace is shown aboard an IRO-chartered ship just after she first saw the towering buildings of New York. Large numbers of refugees from European lands have also received new homes in Israel, Australia, the United Kingdom, Canada, France, Argentina and Brazil.

Doing Something About the Weather

Far out in the frigid North Atlantic Ocean seamen (1) aboard the Canadian weather ship H.M.C.S. St. Stephen, prepare to release a radio-equipped balloon which will radio back reports on weather conditions in the upper atmosphere. The St. Stephen (2) is one of 13 weather ships, supplied by eight countries and financed by 10, which make up a network arranged by the International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO), a specialized agency of the United Nations. The ICAO weather ships are on constant duty, ready to radio passing aircraft late weather information, and to participate in search and rescue operations. A specialist (3) maps weather data coming from a weather balloon and prepares it for broadcast to passing planes and shore-stations.

From Tractors to Printer's Ink in Refugee Camps

Latvian refugees, now awaiting resettlement in European countries, are being trained by the International Refugee Organization (IRO), a U. N. Specialized Agency, are learning new trades to earn livings in new homes and at the same time are keeping their skills at their former professions. A group of newspaper writers and editors (left) practiced their new knowledge of tractor repairing. After finishing their work at mechanics, they turn out newspaper copy for one of 35 journals published in refugee camps. At right, displaced editors of a Latvian-language refugee paper at work.

U.N. Facts and Figures on NICARAGUA

Nicaragua is the poorest nation in Central America. It was discovered by Columbus in 1492. It covers 57,600 square miles and has a population of 1,172,000 inhabitants. The country is rich in minerals and has a long history of agriculture, although its highland areas are still being developed. Unlike its neighbors, Costa Rica and Honduras, Nicaragua's main wealth is in the lowlands. Its Caribbean shore has tropical beaches and all the Indian tribes living there—has tropical fruits and the pineapples. Managua is the country's capital. Its present president is Dr. Antonio Bonilla and its Permanent Representative to the U.N. is Dr. Guillermo Sevilla Sacasa, Ambassador to the U.S.A. Its flag carries one white and two blue stripes and the country's crest.

- the world of adventure, where a little girl can be a princess, and a six-year-old boy can tame the West on horseback
- the world of knowledge, where learning is fun, and no one wants to "play hooky"

- the world of sports where champions teach sportsmanship as well as skill
- the world of laughter, which sweeps away the day's cares like a broom
- the world of great music and culture—a world of inspiration and re-awakened faith

Yes, these golden hours are yours to share when you're a television family... but lost forever if you delay.

CHILD PERFORMERS. Talented singers, dancers, musicians inspire your own children to learn faster, practice longer, willingly cultivate their own talents.

DRAMA for young and old—The brightest stars of the theatre now perform to millions—bring the great plays of all time to audiences who never before could see them.

THE WONDERFUL world of make believe—Experts say every child needs it as part of his normal development. And it makes mother's life a lot easier—especially on rainy days.

LAUGHTER under your roof—the sheer pleasure that binds your family closer. The greatest comedians of the entertainment age in your living room every night.

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt

United States Delegate to The General Assembly of the United Nations says:

"To me television offers a magnificent opportunity to increase the education which we make available to the children of today. If parents will supervise carefully the type of show and the time spent by children watching television, they can see the best that television has to offer, which can bring much enjoyment and much that will be valuable in their education. Of course, I am a firm believer in the supervision of children's reading habits, and now that we have television, I think that the same thing should be true for television. It is a parent's duty to see to it that the children get the best in books and the best in television entertainment and education."

EARLY WINTER WEATHER

The weather and a blizzard hit here Friday and Saturday. It was preceded by a drizzle which froze making the pavement slippery. There was not so much snow and the main roads were kept open but some side roads were blocked. New York, Cleveland and Pittsburg were hit much harder where streets were blocked, business places had to close and thousands of places were without light and the gale shook the empire state state building in New York and blew in some of the top floors. Some big football games set for Saturday were postponed but Michigan beat Ohio State at Columbus on a snow covered field 9 to 3, winning the Big Ten title and trip to the Rose bowl New Year. The 87,000 stadium was sold out only 50,000 saw the game. Scalpers got a lot of the tickets and were asking $25 each but were offering them at half price game time.
