Michigan Mirror

Dr. Paul Miller of Michigan State college says the whole part of southern Michigan will be one wast urban community by 2000 A. D. This he said now points out the need of township zoning laws. He says the community of rural dwellers living near cities inf 2500 may be put in 4 classes.

1. Natives who are good people. 2. Natives who are chiselers. Hard working Detroiters. Shiftless Detroiters.

The term Detroiters is applied to everybody who is not born and raised on the farm.

These communities used to be closely knit sections with free work bees and community enter prizes But these present so tralled Detroiters are not inclined to sociaibility. However these barriers are breaking down as Tie children of the Detroiters are inclined to be sociable. The schools have much to do with thia.

Of the good natives most are 65 years old or more That means the younger age group predominate, Dr. Miller says these new communities are new frontiers. A city man moves out in the country and buys 4 or 5 acres of land. The land goes out of production. Eventually there will not be enough land in cul tivation to grow the crops ed,

The number of farms have de created, In 1920 there were 196. 447 in cultivation. This year the number fell to 155.589, 51,7 per anized and he has to be a mech and saved the house andic, marketing expert, chemist and boilogist Everyone has a stake in the states soil and vou connot live off dead land.

In Detroit Attorney Mourice Rhodes has been arrested for cruetly to animals. He shot a cocker spaniel pet of neighbors children which strayed on a va. cant lot next to his home. He had spent $2000 landscorping, The dogs dug it up and a though he warned their owners they did not confine their dogs. He was arraigned before Judge Gillis pled not quilty and was veleased on personal bond This should be an interesting case in tried. A man's home is his castle but just how far he can go in keeping off trespassers has nev er been settled.

The Lapser farmers took ne chances last week. Senator Nix on was billed to speak there 15 minuetes. Remembering the run. around they got the week before when Gen. Eisenhowers' train went though there with but a slight pause, they barricaded the track and put men there with empty guns and senator made his 15 minute speech. They were not so fortunate at New Haven. Senotor Nixon had agreed to de dicate the Amvet hall there. Then said he would not have time but would make a rear platform speech. About a thounand peo ple were at the dept but his tituin went though without stopp ing, Gov. Williams has been asked to make the dedication speech.

Wonder How Miss Gilbert Is in "Histery"?

By now I guess you've heard about the spelling errors in the kids' report cards this week.

A typical eard looked like this: Geography B-Spelling.....C

Grammer B I don't knew if Miss Gilbert, the principal, actually wrote those eards, but she took full responsibility. This morning I hear she got up in the Assembly Hall-before all the students—and started writing GRAMMAR with two "a's" on the blackboard 180 times!

From where I sit, I'll bet this makes her even more popular with the students. It's mice to see an expert admit she occasionally makes a mistake. Tee many sesalled "experts" claim they're never wrong on such subjects as what you or I ought to eat . . . what we should wear . . . whether we should enjoy beer or buttermilk. A really wise person never elaims to "knew all the answers"

Watch Corn Plants For Hunger Signs From Now to Harvest

WATCH your corn fields for plant food hunger signs from now to food hunger signs from now to harvest, advise Midwestern agronomists. Color and rate of growth are the principal clues. If the leaves are deep, dark, healthy green, you have nothing to worry about. But any other color means trouble.

Leaf No. 1 in the accompanying chart is starved for potash. The tip and edges look scorched. They lose potash first when there isn't enough for healthy growth. Fotash hungry corn has weak roots and stalks. It lodges easily.

The crinkly, "fired" tip and midrib of Leaf No. 2 are signs of nitrogen hunger. Notice the inverted "V" running from the leaf tip along the midrib. This is yellowish and later will begin to dry and brown. "Firing" of corn leaves and stalks is usually blamed on drouth. But actually it is due to a lack of enough nitrogen. Drouth-thirsty corn leaves roll, wither and dry, but they still hold their green color.

When corn is starved for phosphate, the leaves have purple edges and tips. In severe cases, leaves may show signs of nitrogen hunger, too, because phosphate - starved corn cannot use the nitrogen it takes up.

Hunger signs in your corn fields mean that the soil is seriously low in plant nutrients. That, in turn, means low yields and poor quality. Best insurance against such yieldcutting hunger signs is a well-balanced supply of the three major plant nutrients-nitrogen, phosphate and potash. This can be supplied by commercial fertilizer carrying sufficient amounts of each element. Good tilth is another essential. Tilth can be built by including well-fertilized deep-rooted legumes regularly in the rotation. The legumes mellow the soil, improve its structure and add nitrogen and organic matter.

EEP the corn plant's pipe line system open, if you want to get high yields per acre this year. You can do this by making sure the soil furnishes the crop with a well-balanced supply of the three major plant nutrients - nitrogen, phosphate and potash.

Each corn plant has from 1 to 11/2 The Probate Court for the County miles of interior tubes or pipe lines, according to Dr. George N. Hoffer, Midwest manager of the American Potash Institute. These tubes carry At a session of said court held nitrogen, phosphate, potash, calcium and magnesium from the root tips up to the leaves Here the nutrients are manufactured into starches, sugars and proteins. Other tubes Notice is Hereby Given, That the carry these foods back to the roots

The joints or nodes in a corn plant

Potash-starved stalk (left) shows joint damage; other one is well fed. mesh work of smaller tubes. Surrounding this mesh work are special tissues which regulate the workings of the pipe lines.

When the soil's plant nutrient supply is out of balance—particularly if potash is lacking—the tubes in the joint tissues in the base of the corn plant get clogged. Then the roots starve, the stalks become weakened and infected and the plants lodge. When tubes in the ear nodes fail to work, kernels cannot be and. Ears do not mature. Tissue tests on many Midwestern farms last summer showed that corn plants with defective pipe lines were starving for potash. Joint tissues were swollen, discreted and disorganized due to accommutations of iron and other metals. Healthy plants with efficiently operating pipe lines and plenty of potash. Potash keeps the joint tissues active in producing protective ensymes that protect the inner health of the corn plants. When all the plant nutrients are in well balanced su try you will get thrifty, high prod and corn crops,

OWEN J. CLEARY SECRETARY OF STATE

JOHN B. MARTIN, JR AUDITOR GENERAL

RECENT PRISON RIOTS cost you and your fellow Michigan citizens about $2,000,000! The supervisor of Michigan State Prisons—appointed by the Governor -and the Governor himself, failed to act in time to prevent these costly riots. Later, a "truce" was made with the surly prisoners and YOU bought them steak, ice cream and other favors for their promise to be "good boys" in the future!

WHO CONTROLS OUR GOVERNOR? Find out who ordered him to open the prison gates for a goon-squad leader convicted of destroying property. Find out who ordered him to veto the "Good Roads Program" to take Michigan out of the mud. Find out who ordered him to veto the loyalty board charter amendment to Detroit's city charter and told him not to let the legislature consider anti-communist laws in a special session.

HARRY F. SMITH, Secretary; ROBERT C. C. HEANEY, Treasurer.

THESE SPECIAL GROUPS can get favors and privileges from the Governor's office because they "control" the Governor. He owes allegiance to them because they are the back-bone of his support. They are not interested in what is good for the State of Michigan but only in what will further their own ambitions and lust for power. These groups are controlled by a few men who dictate policy and act as political advisors to the Governor. They are responsible to nobody but themselves. This secret political bossism in Michigan must end!

SURE, YOU'RE BURNED UP! Well, do something about it, this time! Get Michigan State Government back in working, dosomething order! Show them you mean it, by voting straight Republican . . . on November 4th!
