MICHIGAN MIRROR

To supplement the regular material provided to critics who say Michigan's tax structure is too high to hold present industries or attract new ones. The list of contemplated expansions would seem to be the Michigan voters may get a chance to vote on a $500 million bond issue for highways and an $80 million bond for Korean War Veterans. The bond issue of $99,500,000 for the Mackinac bridge has already been approved.

Michigan Week will consider communities that have the proper environment for industrial plants and the people. The churches, PTA, veterans, labor, industries, business and educational societies are sponsoring it. The president is Walter C. Cline of the Detroit Edison Company. Chairman is Mr. Runkle of Crowley Millers. There are also 28 civic leaders. Celebrations will be held in each community on a county basis. In most cases the committee will consist of 6 people. It will be the county school superintendent, agriculture agent, chamber of commerce head and a newspaper publisher. Don Weeks of the Michigan Economics Dept. will do much of the work. The theme will be "This Is Your Michigan."

Michigan is the second state to adopt this special week. Pennsylvania has had it 8 years. The difference is that Michigan's is the first and only. Pennsylvania was the first to set up by Governor William Penn. Local communities will have their own.

Michigan is now in the process of purchasing of eight acres of land for state highway department. It is believed that certain highway officials, profited by paying excessive prices for land. Several officials have been forced to resign. Michigan now has 900 men employed according to the latest figures. Governor William E. Spring has out in favor of President Eisenhower's increased unemployment insurance.

CONSERVATION DEPARTMENT

A hearing on changing the law will be held at Detroit, March 19. Things to be discussed are the increasing limits, increasing size of boats and banning hand guns, and night fishing, use of nets, and use of more than 1 fish. The number of anglers has been increasing yearly and the catch of fisherman decreasing. Fawn does were killed by auto last week, one near Leland and near Hastings both carrying loads. Due to lack of snow the winter fish kill is expected to be light. This occurs when snow blankets lakes shutting out oxygen.

The state stock of seedlings at the 3 state nurseries may soon be exhausted. Of the 11 million trees on sale over half have been sold. 2 major and 40 wildlife flooding projects were completed last year. 45 coyotes and 225 foxes were bountied in January.

THE ICE HARVEST

Your worries over an empty kitchen next winter are past. Yesterday the Schuler Ice Co. finished harvesting and loading its Zuke Lake ice house. 185,000 tons of clear, flint-land, 12 inch thick cakes, all carefully packed in sawdust. The company's 185 men worked 21 days on the ice. Meanwhile the harvesting of Whitmore Lake lags badly. The Toledo Ice Company workers seem to prefer drinking their cakes with alcohol—to storing them. Three nearby saloons, the county jail and the Ann Arbor justice courts are more of them than their bosses.

This is from the Ann Arbor News file of Feb. 27, 1914. In those days the ice harvest was always confined to the shortest time possible to avoid thaws. At Lakeland they put lights and worked nights. Horses were in the harvest occasionally were through the ice and drowned. The were boarding houses for the men at both Lakeland and Whitmore. Bunks were recruited from Toledo flop houses. They were furnished with clothes, boots and board and the cost deducted from their pay. It is to them the News refers. The New York Central Railroad harvested their ice at Shanghai Pit near Ypsilanti.

CURRENT COMMENT

We do not admire Senator McCarthy and his scattergun method of leveling unsubstantiated charges against anyone he takes a dislike to. He has hit a number of targets by accident but has smeared more innocent people. Still we cannot but admire the manner in which he polished off the United States Army in what the press refers to as the first surrender since the battle of Bull Run. Apparently David in his battle with Goliath had nothing on the senator. The cause of the battle was small and infinitesimal until it was enlarged and magnified beyond all proportion by the senator who saw a chance for big publicity. A dentist in the army by the name of Peress with the rank of major was found by McCarthy investigators to have had at one time Communist connections and to have refused to answer questions. McCarthy who has been gunning for the army which he claims is coddling Communists, demanded his court martial. Instead he was given an honorable discharge. McCarthy got the dentists' commanding officers, Gen. Wickens, a hero of the Battle of the Bulge, on the stand and gave him a severe grilling and declared him a disgrace to his uniform. Secretary of the Army Stevens at once ordered army officers to ignore McCarthy's suppositions and said he, himself, would take on McCarthy from the witness stand. The bout was set for Tuesday and then put over to Thursday. It was to be on TV and the nation was ast to tune in. Then a meeting was arranged between Stevens and McCarthy at which Stevens backed down and agreed to everything McCarthy demanded. The press hints that this was on orders of President Eisenhower or who feared a party split. Now McCarthy is cock of the walk while Stevens is looking for alibis. It is even hinted he may resign.

The legislature has again refused to meddle in the religious issue. Senator VanDerwerp introduced a bill to allow any pupil time off who wished to attend religious instruction in his or her church. The bill passed the senate but was killed in the house. Senator Kohl, chairman of the educational committee said opinions divided in the legislature. Many of the schools now release pupils for religious purposes but he did not think it should be made compulsory.

Michigan will have to wait until 1955 for any change in the election system as the house has killed the election procedure bill. This would have put the president on the same ballot as the state and county candidates, refund deposits to candidates who ask recounts and whose election is affirmed and provide for bi-partisan election boards. The most important is combining the presidential ballot with the others. 67,000 people in Michigan did not mark their ballots for president last year.

The Michigan state highway dept. is under fire and some of its men have been discharged for unethical practices. It is charged when they got information where roads were to be built, widened or changed they acquired the land and charged the state a big price or in other ways profited by it. So far the investigation in centered in Grand Rapids but it may be extended to other districts, particularly Wayne county where there have been rumors about the acquiring the right of ways for the John Lodge and Ford highways.

Two years ago Brighton High school left the Land'O Lakes League and went in the Wayne-Oakland League. They did not win any games there last year and only one this year. The Brighton Argus has the following to say about it:

"There is a growing feeling and it is not mine alone that Brighton High School does not belong in the Wayne-Oakland League. Brighton has the smallest enrollment of any team in the league with some like Milford school having twice as many students—Brighton Argus."

The withdrawal of Brighton from Land'O Lakes League was political in the first place. Arch Peterson coached Brighton teams then and was very successful over a number of years. His teams were undefeated in football for two years. His success aroused antagonism and he was dismissed on the ground he did not have enough credits to coach. So great was the protest, action was resinded. The next year he was dismissed again. This time it stuck. Then Brighton transferred to the Wayne-Oakland league where they have had very little success.

The T. J. Latsons of Detroit spent the week end at their home on Darwin Road. Mrs. Robert Read and daughter, EBeck, were Thursday luncheon guests of Mrs. Dan Howlett in Gregory.

John Kennedy has resigned his position as janitor of the elementary school due to ill health. Born to Howard Haines and wife at McPherson Hospital, Howell Tuesday, a daughter, Dora.

The Weight of Public Opinion is Against the Excise Tax on Telephone Service

"Which Federal excise tax do you personally object to most?"

That question was asked recently in a public poll conducted by Opinion Research Corporation. They wanted to learn how people personally felt about Federal excise taxes. These were their findings: THE EXCISE TAX THAT INCURRED THE MOST RESENTMENT AND IRRITATION WAS THE TAX ON TELEPHONE SERVICE.

Of the people interviewed, 59% objected most to this tax. It was more objectionable than the Federal excise taxes on gasoline, automobiles, tires, railroad tickets, cigarettes, movie tickets, and many other things.

This high percentage of objection to telephone excise taxes is understandable. Each month they add 15% to your telephone bill for local service, and 25% to your bill for long distance calls costing 25 cents or more. For excise tax purposes, it's as though your telephone were a luxury, like jewelry or furs.

We recognize the Government's need for income and for balancing the budget. But if Congress is to consider any excise tax reductions, we believe the excise taxes on telephone service should be among the first to get attention.

All the savings from a reduction or repeal of these taxes would go to telephone users—not to the telephone company.

Top Dressing Alfalfa Keeps Stands Strong, Output at Top Level

Established stands of alfalfa that have produced bumper crops can well need to be strengthened with a good top dressing of fertilizer, cautions the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee.

To keep strong stands of alfalfa producing at top level, the soil must supply about 100 pounds of potash and 30 pounds of phosphate per acre per year, research at Ohio State University indicates. Most of our humid Midwestern soils, however, will not provide these amounts, tests reveal. They need to be supplemented with liberal amounts of properly balanced fertilizer.

Where potash levels are not high, agronomists recommend top dressing strong alfalfa stands with 300 to 400 pounds of 0-9-27 or 0-10-30 or 0-10-20 per acre. Many fields also need to have boron added to keep them in high production, agronomists report.

After the first or second cutting is a good time to top dress these fields, the Committee reports. Then the nutrients are available for quick recovery of the plants.

No amount of top dressing will bring back alfalfa stands already lost by starvation, warns the committee. It's better to make sure that the plants have all they need, than to lose a thick stand for the lack of nutrients.
