THE PINCKNEY DISPATCH Wednesday, December 3, 1958

No. 48

The Michigan Mirror

Special session letters have affected the legislators. With the house evenly divided they fear a stalemate. If tradition holds up most of the important decisions will be by passed until the final days of the session, and agencies or special interests are afraid their causes will be lost or disregarded.

Probate judges want something done about juveniles in trouble due to mental illness. Schoolmen are worried their cause will be lost or disregarded, would fall way below standards.

There is pressure to get started on a new source of revenue. The one most favored is an income tax. To make it attractive they would cut the sales tax $9 per person a year, the personal property tax and intangibles tax. The tax would be $300 on $3000 would yield $135,000,000 more than current revenues, Rep. Goulet, Republican of Iron Mountain who was defeated wants to raise the legislators salaries from $5000 a year to $7500.

Gov. Williams has so far rejected a special session. He says all these measures were before the 1958 legislature and they failed to act on them. Then a special session now would be a Republican legislature. The 1959 legislature will have many more Democrats in it.

The governor has killed the rumor he will oppose Senator Pat McNamara for the senate nomination in 1960 by endorsing Pat. Incidentally the governor's majority was the 3rd highest in the recent election, Sec. of State James Hare led with 303,000, Phil Hart was 2nd with 173,000 and the governor got 143,000. Some claim this means he is slipping but without his continuous victories the past 10 years there would have been no Democrat sweep.

Mrs. Andrew Nesbitt spent the week end with the Gordon Hesters in Ypsilanti.

The Tom Wares entertained at dinner Saturday the John Paul Wares Earl Kimbler and George Mullins and wife of Seville Ohio.

The Don Burnas entertained all the Burns families Thanksgiving. Miss Isabel Nash and Mary Livingston visited the Kenneth Zills in Syracuse N. Y. over the week end.

Mrs. Madames Mildred Ackley, Roberta Noff and Donna Palmer gave a shower Sunday afternoon for Janet Shirley, 34 were there. She will be married to Ralph Williams of Brighton on Christmas day.

The Irvin Kennedys spent Thanksgiving with the Ambrose Kennedys in Pontiac.

The Tom Howes Mrs. Mary Kennedy and Bernardine Lynch spent Thanksgiving with the Lloyd Van-Burkums at Portage Lake.

The Al Bochinskis of Warren were Thanksgiving guests of the Murray Kennedys, Jeanne and Joie Kennedy went home with them. Their parents went after them Sunday.

Bernardine Lynch of Kalamazoo spent the week end with Mrs. Mary Kennedy.

Mrs. Sadie Moran entertained for Thanksgiving Mrs. Fannie Bradley Mr. and Mrs. Dusenberry of Flint, Mr. and Mrs. Grosshans and daughter and daughter of Detroit and daughter of Detroit.

PROPOSE NEW POSTOFFICE

The Brighton Masonic Lodge has an option on the property picked by the government for a postoffice and has offered to build a postoffice with 3500 ft. of floor space, double that of the present office. It would have 6 of street parking places and an ample parking space.

MARRIED AT DEXTER

Sharon Borovovsky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Borovovsky of Pinckney was married to Gary King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe King of Rush Lake Saturday night at St. Andrews Church, Dexter, Rev. Donald Eaton officiating. Only members of the family were present. Susan Clark of Pinckney was bridesmaid and Jack Hooking Brighton, best man. Curret Comment

Gov. Almond of Virginia seems to have stolen the thunder of Gov. Faubus of Arkansas on the desegregation issue and went him one better when he replaced the United States flag on the capital at Richmond with the flag of Virginia. He says hereafter the state flag will fly alongside or atop the American flag but never below it. He added Virginia may have to yield to the overwhelming power of the federal government but that he is seeking new grounds to fight on. This of course is all window dressing to play up to the segregationists who are strong in Virginia. He should read history. There he would find that all states rights stuff was settled back in 1865 when a gentleman named Lee surrendered to a gentleman named Grant at Appotomax Court House in his own state. The states rights he is as dead as a door nail and efforts to revive it are silly.

The Democrats swept the election in Alaska last week, winning all offices in this newest state despite the fact Vice President Nixon was sent there to campaign. He had no more success than he did in California, Minnesota and other states where he campaigned last October. Secretary of the Interior Seaton also campaigned there. He promised roads, bridges, schools and everything else in vain. The next move will be to get Hawaii admitted as a state. This is usually Republican it will not be so easy as it has a large negro population which will earn it the opposition of the south. There are also many Japanese American citizens there.

Vice President Nixon visited England last week to represent the president in the dedication of a chapel in honor of the Americans who died there in the World War. While he did not have bricks and stones thrown at him or his car windows broken as in South America, 500 Communists demonstrated against him carrying signs reading "Nixon Go Home." This is strange considering the amount of foreign aid Great Britain has received and will continue to receive there and also the rent for our air bases there. John Knight in the Detroit Free Press last week called our government is there to stay and our opposition to them is bullheaded and foolish and costs millions a year in lost trade and support of Chiang Kai-shek.

We do not understand all the enigma of the German situation, Russia over took the east part of Germany and the Western Allies the west part. Russia wants to withdraw from her part and let the Germans run it. She also wants the Allies to turn over the west part to Germany which they refuse to do, leaving the Communists with it over. They control the roads a re and can block us from sending supplies into West Germany. They put on an embargo in 1948 and refused to fly them in.

Some years ago a motorist hit and killed a deer on U. S. 23 north of Brighton. He notified the state police who came out and found no deer but had evidence he had hit one. It was in the deer season and it was thought a hunter returning from the north had shot and put his tag on the deer and driven off with it. A similar incident last week did not work out so well. Mrs. Irene Monroe of Walled Lake struck and killed a deer on US-16 east of Brighton. Another motorist came along and offered to dispose of the deer for her. He went to Brighton, got deer license put a bullet in the deer and started for Detroit. Unfortunately Mrs. Monroe reported the accident to the state police who picked up Edward Ostia, 20 at the Eight Mile Road, confiscated the deer and arrested him for illegal possession of venison.

Seventh Grade, Mrs. Carr

We handed in our outline for the 5th chapter in history. Cheryl Van Norman and Bud Sowers were ice skating. Tommy Chambers cut his foot and had stitches taken. Jim Shirey entertained some of his friends. Pat Borovsky's grand parents visited her. Bud Sowers sister visited him. Her husband was in 6 mile race this day of the blizzard. Mrs. Carr's student from Greece visit her.

ONLY AT CORNERS

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

One Man's Hen is Another Man's Rooster

My last column was about Whitey Fisher and his chicken farm—and now Whitey has made news again.

Whitey entertained some folks from the city last weekend and they toured his modern barn. The visitors asked all sorts of questions. The best was: "How do you tell if the two-day-old chicks are hens or roosters?"

"Easy," answered Whitey. "Just take the chicks one at a time. Place some corn meal in front of it. If she eats it, she's a hen. If he eats it, he's a rooster."

From where I sit, some answers that sound like they make sense turn out to be the silliest of all. For instance, a friend recently objected to my choice of a glass of beer with dinner. When I asked him why, he replied: "I've had only coffee with my dinner for the last twenty years." Now that's not only silly—it's intolerant too. Neighbors ought to tend to the "eggs in their own baskets."

Lincoln Signed First Annual Thanksgiving Proclamation

Copyr. The Lincoln National Life Ins. Co.

Although Thanksgiving Day had been celebrated occasionally in America since early Colonial days, it remained for Abraham Lincoln, in 1863, to sign the first national annual Thanksgiving Proclamation, according to Dr. R. Gerald McMertry, director of the Lincoln National Life Foundation. His signing of the document is depicted in the above painting, created by the nationally-known artist, Dean Cornwell. The scene is historically correct and shows Lincoln in his White House office just after he had completed his signature on the document. Lincoln's Thanksgiving Proclamation of 1863 marked the beginning of an unbroken series of proclamations, although there was some deviation as to date, by United States Presidents. Lincoln selected the last Thursday in November, which was the last feast-day of the church calendar year. For a few years starting in 1939, the third Thursday was named. Since 1941, Thanksgiving has been observed on the fourth Thursday in November.

Fertilized Pasture Cuts Feed Costs, Ups Milk Profits

SIX steps to help dairymen
keep costs down and income
up in the year ahead are listed
here by the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee, in a statement summarizing suggestions by Purdue University extension dairymen:

1—Raise and feed all the high quality roughage the cows will eat. This will reduce the necessity of purchasing high priced concentrates.

2—Cull out low producing cows
that cut into profits.

3—Adopt a herd health program to reduce diseases.

4—Produce only Grade A milk.

5—Raise heifer calves that are the progeny of tested dams and proved sires.

6—Plan to have cows fresher
in the fall. Fall-freshened cows usually produce more milk and return more income.

"Of all the various management practices, the matter of keeping feeding costs low with high quality forage is particularly important," says the committee. "Feed costs represent 50 to 60 per cent of every milk production dollar."

"Good pasture, hay and grass silage can be produced for about one-third to one-half the cost of corn and other grains.

"Pasture production can be boosted by the use of lime, where needed, and fertilizer to build up the fertility level. Then the soil can support high yields of legumes and grasses.

"In such a program, a regular top-dressing with fertilizer can keep the pasture production high.
Also essential are good seed mixtures adapted to the soil and growing area and good grazing management that prevent over-
grazing."
