THE PINCKNEY DISPATCH Wednesday, December 17, 1958

No. 10

The Michigan Mirror

Highway safety experts are getting worried about the killer with two martini under his belt. He is not legally intoxicated but that feeling of overconfidence makes him a menace on the highways. State officers are talking the emphasis from "Drunk Drivers Go to Jail" and placing it on "Drinking Drivers". Research shows that over half of the traffic accidents are caused by a drinking driver or pedestrian. A driver with less than .05 percent of alcohol in his blood stream is considered sober. A man with 15 percent or more is considered loaded.

Drivers go faster in winter too. The windows are closed and they lose the sensation of speed that comes with wind rushing thru the car. Then he is handicapped by ice and snow.

Officers have been bothered by multiple accidents. 5 were killed in one at St. Johns, 4 at Holland and 3 other accidents each killed 3 people.

It has been suggested that drivers put on probation lose their license for 30 days. Com. Childs of the state police is not strong for this. He thinks drivers should be educated and warned of the dangers of driving after drinking.

Michigan is apparently headed for a state income tax although there is plenty of opposition to one. There will be long drawn out arguments when the legislature convenes but the best bet is there will be an income tax in 2 years. A new tax is a must and this is the only one in sight.

ROBBERS GET $11,500

A daring robbery was pulled off on Owosso Road, 6 miles north of US-16 last Wednesday night in which two bandits got away with $11,500. Wasyl Euozreck, 72, and his wife, Katherine 64 live there. Two men about 20 years old came there and bought a collie dog of them. They came back at 6:00 p. m. and wanted its license papers. When Euozreck went in the bedroom to get it from a safe. They followed and beat him badly with a revolver when he put up a fight. Then they tied him and his wife up with surgical tape. The money they got from the safe and then they ransacked the house. They left taking the dog. It took Euozreck and his wife some time to get loose and they had to go a mile and a half down the road to telephone. The sheriff's men got there at 7:30 p. m. They had little to go on except the two bandits were 20 years old spoke good English and had a Chrysler made car. The victims did not agree on the color of it. The sheriff already had an alert for 2 men who pulled similar robberies in Wayne county.

CONSERVATION DEPARTMENT

Director Gerald Eddy of the State Conservation Dept. has recommended that a license be denied to the Bear Creek Mining Co. to mine copper in the Porcupine State Park. He said it would establish a precedent for similar encroachments on other state parks and dedicated lands.

Ice fishing is permitted through January and February on inland lakes and streams. Roach, bluegill, pike and perch are the favorite take. All fish shanties must have the owners name on them and be removed before the ice goes out.

HELL, MICHIGAN AGAIN

The cold weather has put Hell, Michigan just south of Pinckney in the papers again. Mrs. Dorothy Wilson Pogue who is in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, sent us an Associated Press clipping from the Miami Herald showing May or Erdley vanSickle and Susan Bows, snowballing. The big sign "Hell, Michigan provides a background. We are told the same picture was on a TV. newscast last week.

THANKS

The family of Cynthia Brown wish to thank you for the many acts of kindness shown us during our recent hospitalization. God Bless You All. The Family of Cynthia Brown.

Currot Comment

This is the Christmas time, the time for Christmas trees, holly, mistletoe, gift giving and prison paroles. The last is an ancient custom dating back 1000 years or more. We read that at the time of Christ it was the custom to pardon prisoners at this season. Pilate wanted to pardon Christ but Jewish mob yelled "Give US Barabas" a noted robber. In Michigan this year 150 prison inmates will be pardoned or paroled at Christmas time. The prisoners on being released are given a suit of clothes and $40 out of the inmate fund if they do not have any money to get home with. They are supposed to have jobs when released but this may not be possible this year due to conditions. The most famous parole ever issued in Michigan was to Frank J. Andrews of Detroit. He had been police commissioner and a prominent political figure there. Starting a bank paying a higher rate of interest he got a large number of deposits, mostly of working people. The bank failed and there were few assets. Andrews was tried for violating the banking laws and received a prison term. He only served a year when Governor Aaron T. Bliss of Saginaw pardoned him Christmas time 1903. For this the governor was universally condemned and ruined politically. The governor's statement said he pardoned him so he could earn money to pay the depositors. This never materialized as Andrews died a few years later in New York state.

Harry Bridges the labor leader whose name was much in the papers some years back, made the front pages again last week when he tried to marry a 32 year old Japanese girl born in California. He is 55. He applied for a license in Nevada but was refused as the state has a law passed 1874 for forbidding marriages of Caucasians and Orientals. So he went into court where the judge declared the law unconstitutional and ordered the license issued. He said a similar law in California had been ruled unconstitutional. So Bridges got his license and married the Japanese girl. In Japan some 40,000 American soldiers have married Japanese girls.

There is still plenty of segregation in this nation and it does not all affect negroes. In Texas many restaurants and hotels will not serve Mexicans. The high point was reached some time ago when a Mexican boy killed in Korea was refused a burial by a funeral home at Three Rivers, Texas. It was the only funeral home there. The senator was notified and he had the boy taken to Arlington National Cemetery, Washington D. C. and buried.

Dr. Mont Follick, 70, former member of British parliament, best known for his companionship of phonetic spelling died last week. In the English language there are many words which have useless letters in them which are not used when the word is pronounced. This idea was to eliminate all these useless letters. He got out a simplified spelling book in which he spelled words exactly as pronounced. For instance through was thru, one was, horse, hors, cough, coff, friends, freng, biscuit, biskit and so on down the line. He tried for years to get it adopted and introduced many bills in parliament to that effect. We can wish for an editor who used phonetic spelling.

The Michigan Business Review has come out against the proposed income tax. It says it gives relief to everyone but industrialists. It blasts the $6 sales tax per person rebate a year. It classifies it as an attempt to buy votes at $9 each and says it used to be a beer and a sandwich.

By RUSS ENGELHARDT, Manager

SHOPPING'S A HOBBY with some people. They like nothing better than a long store-by-store hunt for a bargain. For the rest of us shopping is one of those things that just has to be done. So we put it off until the last moment—especially at Christmas—then find ourselves rushed for time. The Yellow Pages direct you can make your last-minute shopping much easier. List the names and phone numbers of local dealers. Do your searching in the Yellow Pages—and save yourself valuable time.

TALKING OF CHRISTMAS SHOPPING, why not give your family a gift that's useful year-round, smartly styled—comes in a choice of nine decorator colors? Sounds expensive but it isn't—costs only about a dollar a month after a small installation charge. It's an extension phone—the gift that speaks for itself. One in the bedroom, kitchen or laundry room will save time and steps year after year. And each time it does, your family will bless you for your thoughtfulness. Just pick up your phone and order a phone.

WHEN SPEAKING to each other, Long Distance operators usually use a code (it speeds your service). "D-A" means the party doesn't answer; "B-Y" means the number is busy and so on. An operator was stumped recently when another operator informed her that the number being called was "O-M-C." "What does that mean?" she asked, mystified. "Out milking cows," came the reply.

THIS LITTLE STORY has a point. The telephone system for all its size is actually a network of small local offices. Each is adapted to the needs of the neighborhood and run by the folks who live nearby. Despite automatic equipment of great complexity, it is still people who make telephone service good.

A VERY HAPPY CHRISTMAS to you. And may all your telephone calls in 1959 be happy ones

Evelyn Darrow and Margaret Curlett spent the week end at the Dr. Fraser home in Detroit and attended the school in which his daughter was in. Virginia Darrow is patient at U. of M. hospital, Ann Arbor.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Windy Needs Less Horse-power!

A bunch of us—Windy Taylor included—went to see Easy Roberts' new two-year-old filly. She's a real beauty!

Right off the bat, Windy was the "authority." He told Easy what kind of bridle to buy, what saddle. He even suggested that Easy was not keeping her in a warm enough stall.

Finally Windy pointed to the horse feed Easy had purchased and said, "Oh, no, not that. There's a much better brand." Easy smiled and said, "Really? When was the last time you ate

From where I sit, the best advice is not to give too much advice, too often. Sooner or later, you intrude on people's personal preferences. Like who to vote for, or what car to buy—even what beverage is most refreshing. Me—I'll take a glass of beer but maybe you like iced tea. Fine! Let's respect each other's choice and not debate each other "hoarse."

MERRY AND SAFE

The trucking industry of Michigan is again working hand in glove with Santa Claus in an effort to insure all Christmas gifts arriving at their destination on time. It's just one of the scores of ways in which trucks serve the people of Michigan, transporting everything you eat, wear, or use, trucks play a vital role in the running of the home, the operation of business, the provision of roads, public utilities, and facilities for national defense.

Trucks set a pattern for safety, too, and the state's thousands of truck drivers in wishing you and yours a Merry Christmas pledge to do their part to make 1959 a safe and Happy New Year.
