Livingston County Deer Herd Believed To Be Largest in Southern Michigan

Several years ago Kendrick Kimball who writes conservation news for the Detroit News ran an article on Southern Michigan deer herds in which he stated that the Livingston County-Washtenaw herd, one of the largest in southern Michigan, estimated to number over 1,000 deer was started back in 1921 when John Wrigglesworth planted two northern Michigan deer in Deerfield township.

This rather astonished me as I remembered seeing deer here way back in the nineties. My family lived in Dexter then and we often drove to Pinckney by horse and buggy and one of the sights in those days was the Birkett deer herd on the Birkett farm just south of Portage Lake across from Peach Mt. on the Pinckney-Dexter Rd.

I did a little investigating and found a number of people familiar with the Birkett deer herd. George Clark said when he was a small boy his father used to take the family there Sunday to see the Birkett deer. I called William Pidd of Dexter who was raised in the Birkett farm neighborhood and he referred me to his cousin, Ernest Voorhees of Ann Arbor with the John Fisher Hardware there. He said William Voorhees, father of Ernest Voorhees brought the deer to Mr. Birkett from Mt. Pleasant.

Ernest Voorhees said his father William Voorhees, was employed by Thomas Birkett, Dexter bank president and flour mill operator. He owned 500 acres or more at the south and west side of Portage Lake. His hobby was raising Clydesdale horses and Durham Cattle. He also had goats. Mr. Birkett had a relative named William Birkett at Mt. Pleasant, Mich. Every year Mr. Voorhees used to take horses for Mr. Birkett to Mt. Pleasant to sell. Mr. Birkett was an English man and one year he told Mr. Voorhees to bring back a pair of deer from Mt. Pleasant. Mr. Voorhees brought back a pair by lumber wagon in 1891 and this started the Birkett deer here. Eventually they numbered 25 or 30. Occasionly one got out of the enclosure and was seen in this vicinity. Kit Cobb of Portage Lake told me he once found one dead in the woods which had been shot by hunters.

The Birkett deer herd continued to be a show place until about 1914 when a disease got among them and a number died. Mr. Birkett turned the remainder loose to make their way north. The pasture was good here and most remained and were seen here in different places from time to time. Quite a few were shot illegally. I am told that Judge Willis L. Watkins of Manchester also had a private deer herd.

Thomas Birkett came from England in the early days and made a fortune in flour and wheat during the civil war. His only daughter married Judge H. Wirt Newkirk of Dexter, Mrs. Patricia Hardy, register of deeds of Washtenaw county is his great granddaughter.

This picture of the Birkett deer herd came from the collection of the late Mrs. Mary Tippie. Courtesy of Mrs. Clare Miller.

JAMES MORAN

James Moran, 51, died at Battle Creek Nov. 20 after a heart attack. He was the son of Vin Moran of Weberville and attended school there. He married Leona Thayer of Williamston in 1931. There are 2 daughters, Leona and Beverly, both married. His wife is a school teacher. The funeral and burial were from the Farley Funeral home, Battle Creek, Tuesday. He was a brother-in-law of Howard Thayer.

In 1930 he pitched for the Pinckney Independents and won 20 games. He also won 2 out of three games in a little World Series with Hamburg at the end of the season. The Pinckney team then was Hub Lee, c; Moran, p; Ed Brown, 1b; J. P. Doyle, 2b; C. H. Kennedy, ss; Clare Miller, 3b; Don Swarthout, Roy Reason, Dallas Cox, outfield. Tom Howlett, Ike Lewis and J. C. Bowman also played a number of games.

He also pitched for Pinckney in 1931. He then went to Battle Creek and played with the Kellogg and Postum teams. In 1933 a delegation from here went to Battle Creek to see him pitch against the Detroit Tigers.

A new figure moved onto the political scene in Lansing.

George E. Hill, 39, Marquette, was named chairman of the Public Service Commission by Gov. G. Mennen Williams. He succeeds Otis M. Smith, who became Auditor General.

His position on the commission will not be one to foster political activity. But Democrat Hill, who was Marquette County Prosecutor since 1954, will be handy if Democrats need state ticket candidates in the years ahead.

A big decision looms for Hill; big to the tune of 25 million dollars.

That's about how much Michigan Bell Telephone Co. would like in new rate increases.

The rate case, started early this year, is expected to bring a decision in December.

Let's Face It - cars are mechanically superb; it is the driver who usually is at fault. Safety officials and engineers believe that 90 percent of all auto accidents are caused by drivers errors, ignorance, or recklessness.

Calkins, South Lyon; Charles Hamilton, Novi; Wray Hinckley, Hamburg; George Vogt, Dansville; Henry Howlett, Gregory; Wm. Duncan, Green Oak; M. J. Hoisel, Fred Slayton, and Wm. Skavin of Coy Allen and Guy Hosley of the county road com. The only discordant note were from Yerker, a Northville real estate man and Charles Thornton of the Gordon Creamery who wanted a 3 mile strip from Northville to Novi paved first on the grounds it carried more traffic than M-36. Mr. VonWagoner was courteous and said he would do what he could. Mr. Nagel who has known him for years introduced him to all of the delegation.

Mr. Bauchat said that it had been pointed out to him that the Township Board in the past had acted rather coldly towards the attending public, and that we should properly conduct ourselves to recognize these persons at the earliest convenience in order to add some dignity to the Town Board. Mr. Bauchat then gave a very good report on Civil Defense and recommended Mr. Leroy Hudson for the Post of Township Civil Defense Director.

Fumes and coal gas from heaters and stoves may cause yellowing of silver, say home economists at Michigan State University.

Caution Hunters About Gas Heaters

The State Health Commissioner warns that deer hunters and others in travel trailers equipped with therm heaters using bottle gas may be fatally affected by carbon monoxide fumes. These heaters are unsafe and are in violation of the Michigan Liquified Petroleum gas regulation.

State police report there have been four deaths so far this season from use of such heaters.

When improper driving is looked upon as vulgar, it will cease to be popular. As long as it is regarded as wicked, it will continue to have its fascination.

By the morning of Nov. 17, 312 deer and 3 bear had been brought back across the Mackinac Bridge. 76 percent of the bucks shot were 1½ years old. 120 deer were killed illegally and 6 elk. 491 arrests were made.

205 lakes and streams will be open to hook and line ice fishing during January and February.

5500 applications for any deer licenses were turned down on account of improper addresses, lack of signature or being incompletely filled out.

Another oil well has gone out of control at Jonesville. It is Nor-thrup No. 1 which blew up Nov. 14.

Since mid-August only 78 acres have been damaged by forest fires in Michigan.

The dept. has bought 34 acres adjoining the Mears State Park in Oceana County.

Ricky Lovell has a new baby sister, "Debbie Kay."

FIRST GRADE—

Mrs. Cooke

We were glad to have our parents and friends visit our room Thursday night. Sixteen parents were here.

We are watching our chemical garden grow. It is made out of coal and twigs with a solution of salt, bluing, ammonia and water poured over it.

We are studying about the Pilgrims, Indians and the first Thanksgiving. There are many, many things we are thankful for.

FIRST GRADE—

Mrs. Thayer

We wish to thank all the parents who came to Open House last Thursday. We appreciate it very much.

Some of us have finished our Airplane Books and did a very nice job.

We were sorry to hear Lois Chambers' mother is in the hospital. We hope she gets well soon.

Joel Burg's sister is one year old today. We wish her a happy birthday.

SECOND GRADE—

Mrs. Johnson

We want to say "Happy Birthday" to Becky Amburgey, Terry Lynn Gustafson and Courtland Geib who celebrate birthdays this week.

We made puppets out of milk cartons and have our Thanksgiving mural.

Several of us have started our new books this week.

We enjoyed getting ready for "Open House" and hope the parents enjoyed it.

Susan Bowles has a new baby brother, Timothy.

Dana Lowell has a new sister, Deborah Kay.

SECOND GRADE—

Mrs. Anderson

We made Thanksgiving pictures and wrote a Thanksgiving story. The story that the Pilgrims had the first Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Herbert Boles has a new baby girl.

We are adding to our seed collection.

We take the temperature every day and put pictures on the calendar to show if it was cloudy or sunny.

Some of our fathers went deer hunting. They were Roland Singer, Joe Plummer, John Haas, Bill Sayler, Lloyd Hendee, Earl Sawyer, Dewey Steffin, Ron Cullen, Ray Williams, Keith Kock, Lee Goucher, Sonny Bell. Mike Clark's brother went hunting. Becky Michael's father went squirrel hunting and shot one.

Michele Steffin's father shot a buck.

THIRD GRADE—

Mrs. Henry

We were delighted to have sixteen families visit our room at Open House. We displayed our writing for September and November and we were even surprised ourselves to see how we had improved. We also had an Arithmetic and a Spelling Assignment on display.

We received individual clocks from the Swiss Watchmakers Co. and we have been using them in our review of telling-time. We get to take them home after we are through with them.

THIRD GRADE—

Mrs. Darrow

We were pleased with the number of parents that attended Open House. Twenty-three parents visited our room.

In social studies this week we studied where food is raised. We drew pictures of ranches, farms, plantations, poultry farms, dairy farms, orchards, vineyards, truck garden and groves.

We thank Mrs. Clarke for substituting for Mrs. Darrow last Friday. We enjoyed making the paper animals she demonstrated.

FOURTH GRADE

Mrs. Campbell

Seventeen families were represented as visitors in our room for Open House on Thursday evening. Besides that several other people came in to look around.

This week we wrote a letter to each grade in our school thanking them for the help and co-operation they gave us with our newspaper. We sold two hundred and fifty copies.

Scott Carver flew with his grandmother to Washington, D.C. for a visit. He will return by bus this weekend.

FOURTH AND FIFTH GRADES—

Mrs. Heaton

If you know of any easy way to learn the multiplication facts would you contact us, please? We are using flash cards, the multiplication tables as a whole and individual challenge.

The fifth grade divided into two teams. Team one is Donald Hollister, Bill Rentz, Dale Booth, Bonnie Wylie and Debbie. Team two is David Chambers, Sandy Walkins, Loy Russom, Susan Smith and Ronald Doyle. Team two has won the first round this week.

FIFTH GRADE

Mrs. Miller

We wish to thank all the parents and friends who visited our school. We were very proud that they were interested in what we have done.

The prizes for the best covers on our Michigan units were won by: Jim Kourt and Jim Baughn, wooden covers; Linda Fritsch, paper cover; Carol Gyde, Patricia Saula, cloth and Melba Daniels most original.

Spelling Bee champions: Patsy Pendergrass, Nancy North, Linda Wegener, Nancy Bond, Melba Daniels, Sharon Bowles, Kenny Fisher, Jim Baughn, Doug Winger, Jim Kourt, Joe Plummer, and Nicky Marshe.

Those receiving a perfect score in the spelling test were: Nancy Bond, Kenny Fisher, Patsy Pendergrass.

We are having great fun with fractions—reducing them is quite a problem.

We are really stressing combinations and tables from now on. We are planning on completing 100 in 4 minutes and gradually work to 2 minutes for completion. Our Famous Men and Women charts are all completed and made into a book. We will share them with our class.

Happy Thanksgiving to everyone!

SIXTH GRADE—

Mrs. Tasch

Our room is keeping track of President Eisenhower, to see where he is going on his trip. He has asked former President Truman to go along. We also made charts on what our room has been doing. They turned out good. Some of the printing was too small, but otherwise it turned out good. The day before open house we made place mats. Then we cleaned our desks and swept the floor. We made two guest books for our parents to sign. We wrote in big letters on a large piece of paper, "Welcome Parents," then we all signed our names on it with different colored crayons. Our room turned out real nice. And we had a good open house. We are sure our parents enjoyed it.

SEVENTH GRADE—

Mrs. Carr

This month our bulletin board has been divided into three parts: one for Michigan News, one for World News and one for Space News. We all brought clippings from the newspapers as our share in the project. For open house we displayed our book reports and a picture of the class arranged in the same order as our desks. On our desks we had our reading, arithmetic, science and spelling workbooks and our Geography units on South America.

About twenty-five guests came to our room and we would like to thank them all.

CURRENT COMMENT

By PAUL W. CURLETT

The battle of the cranberries goes merrily on. Contaminated cranberries were found in Detroit stores last week in canned ones. These were grown in Massachusetts and processed in New Jersey and labelled "Grosse Pointe" quality. They were the remains of a shipment of 44,000 cans made in 1958 and most had been sold. Dr. Joseph Molnar, city health officer of Detroit said the people who ate them were in no danger as the amount of poison in each can was too minute to cause any danger. All cranberries of this kind have been ordered off the Detroit store shelves.

The nations defense bill has been eating up more than half of the federal budget and the president has indicated that he intends to cut this bill so it will fit the $41 billion allotted to it for next year. Now let us see if this is possible or feasible. It will not be to outside aid or handouts to foreign countries as the president has always asked for more money for this purpose than Congress has appropriated. Neither will it be for sputnik or rocket research for the administration has always been panned unmercifully for letting Russia outstrip us in this. We do not want to let Russia attain any greater superiority over us. Then it would have to be in armaments and war supplies or planes. Now a lot of our industries are toolled up for this kind of production and any letdown in this would only swell the unemployment lists.

The family doctor or general practitioner holds a high and honorable place in American history and tradition. The very name brings up a picture of a dedicated physician fighting his way through snowdrifts in a horse and buggy or primitive car. Yet some years ago it was felt that the family doctor was on his way out, that medical knowledge had become so vast and treatment so complex that only a specialist could meet the need. For a time statistics bore this out. In 1940 only one student in 10 planned to enter general practice. But a dramatic change has taken place. Today 6 medical students out of 10 plan to enter general practice. There are reasons for this. The general practitioner today is far more competent and knowledgeable than his predecessors. Post graduate work, medical meetings and other factors keep him up with medical progress. Also there is another angle specialists cannot fill. He knows his patients and they know him as a friend as well as a medical man. He is on call when needed and instills confidence and peace of mind. He knows when a specialist should be called and what kind. He holds an important place in American medicine.

Everything seems to be on the rise even parking meter tolls. When these first started to become a fad 10 years ago the charge was 5 cents an hour but a survey taken this year of 48 large cities showed 38 of them charged 10 cents an hour, five charge 20 cents an hour. Six of these cities devote all of their parking meter income to off street parking or parking lots. 16 cities reported an increase in parking revenue following rate increases averaging 70 per cent. No cities reported a decrease.

No matter how much you are convinced that it is a bad risk to pick up a hitchhiker you still feel like a heel if you pass one on the road and do not pick him or her up. The Liberal Daily Times of Kansas says you should continue feeling like a heel and keep on ignoring hitchhikers. A survey shows that the percentage of thugs among hitchhikers is not one in a thousand or anything like it. A survey taken in Arizona of 2300 hitchhikers showed that 84 had criminal records or were wanted by the police. Twenty-four had criminal records. Fourteen were wanted for auto theft and 11 for personal violence.

So much criticism has following the passing of the Republican nuisance tax bill to raise $72,000,000 that it may be withdrawn. The senators have been receiving 14 letters a day most of them in opposition to the bill. There does not seem to be much opposition to the section that soaks the boys who like to hoist one occasionally or smoke cigarettes. The opposition is to the section that taxes services. This seems to take in a wide area. Under the bill the tax on automotive service would include bus lines, freight trucks, armored cars, ambulances and even hearses, home building costs, wrecking buildings, pulling stumps, truck lines, dry cleaners, and laundries, barber shops and beauty parlors were also first included but the attorney general says they are not affected. This attempt to find a painless tax bill is apparently as fruitless as seeking for perpetual motion or turning lead into gold.

The TV exposure still continues. It now develops that many TV show ratings were rigged. This is to show the popularity of certain shows. One with a high rating is more attractive to a sponsor. Canned applause has been used on TV audiences for years. We have heard many TV announcers say that 5 million persons are listening to this program. We wonder how they know? They can't count them. Neither can they go by the number of TV sets owned as many of them are only operated part-time and some are idle all day.

Mail Early For Christmas Urges Local Postmaster

Post office workers sometimes refer to dejected people as being "as sad as a dead-letter clerk on the day before Christmas."

To those with first-hand knowledge of a post office morgue, this figure of speech has picturesque and powerful meaning. At the happiest time of the year, the corpses are stacked highest; in the season when gifts are most meaningful, the largest number of bearer of good cheer have fallen along the way.

According to Postmaster Lawrence Baughn, 24,054,103 letters and 622,356 packages failed to reach their intended receivers in fiscal 1958. This was because of incomplete addresses, or illegible addresses, or inadequate wrapping, or some other major fault in preparation.

"This year, as in other years, most of the cards and parcels mailed at Christmas will be delivered as intended," says Postmaster Baughn. "But, also as in other years, some letters and parcels will fail to accomplish their important missions. Carelessness, and guess work, and haste will doom many well-conceived pieces of mail to early death."

Most of the letters and parcels that end their careers in dead-letter offices could have been saved by application of one or more of these simple rules:

1. Address mail fully and clearly. Write legibly or print plainly, and avoid abbreviations.

2. Use the 4 cent letter rate on Christmas cards. Be certain a return address is printed in the upper left-hand corner of both Christmas cards and parcels.

3. Do not enclose coins or hard objects of any kind in letters. Canceling machines often damage such letters and their contents.

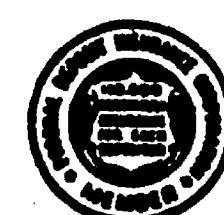

4. Make certain that parcels are well packed and securely wrapped in strong containers. The carton should be wrapped in heavy paper and securely tied with substantial twine.

5. Gifts of a delicate nature, such as glass, China, electrical appliances, radios, musical instruments, should be marked "fragile." Foodstuffs should be marked "perishable" if subject to spoilage.

6. Parcels should be insured, and letters of real value should be registered. Where proof only of delivery is required for letters of no intrinsic value, certified mail should be used.

Any post office will furnish upon request and without charge a copy of the pamphlet "Packaging and Wrapping Parcels For Mailing."

In St. Catharines, Ontario, the police have designed a ticket for motorists who commit "borderline" traffic violations. It invites offenders to come into the station and have a chat with the traffic department officer.

Should Students

Have A Car?

The county paper ran a guest editorial last week with the above caption, taken from the Clinton County News. It outlines a study made by William Conduit, vice president of the Belmont High School, California concerning the relationship between good grades and owning a car. In one survey it was found that not a single "A" student owned a car, of the "B" students only, 15 percent owned cars, among the "C" students 41, among the "D" students 71 percent and of the flunking students 83 percent. He says ownership of a car makes a student's social stock go up but his marks down. He attributes this to 2 facts. Ownership of a car develops a tendency to kill time by just driving around. It costs money to operate a car and earning this leaves little time for study. Education goes out the window. In some cases a car is necessary for transportation but this only applies to a very small percentage. Mr. Conduit says it is up to the parents whether to yield to pressure and let junior have a car for social advantages or keep him at his books rather than accepting the theory that car ownership is inevitable at the age of 16 years.

A magnifying glass is a fine gift for a child who is full of questions and curiosity, say home economists at Michigan State University.

New Cars Ride In Style

The shiny new '60 cars you've seen appearing in show rooms all over Michigan—know how they got there? 85% of the new automobiles the country over travel by motor carrier from factory to dealer—and this applies pretty well to Michigan . . . That's only part of the story of how much the automobile industry depends on trucks. The basic materials, the parts and accessories—everything that goes into the manufacture of automobiles—travels most if not all the way from source to destination by truck . . . So, you see, cars just couldn't be turned out in today's volume—or get to their destination as quickly—if it weren't for the direct, dock-to-door service truck transport provides.

NEWS NOTES FROM THE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

FOURTH AND FIFTH GRADES—

Mrs. Heaton

This week we have concentrated our social studies on New England. We studied about the hardships encountered the first year.

We learned that the soil was thin and rocky. The colonist turned to fishing and shipbuilding and later to manufacturing.

We were very fortunate to have Miss Emma Hoffstetter come by one afternoon for a surprise visit. When she learned that we were studying New England she told us that four of her ancestors came over on the Mayflower and that the two men were signers of the Mayflower Compact. During that first winter two of these people died due to the extreme cold and poor living conditions.

Ronnie Makin had a birthday this week and celebrated it Saturday with a party. He is 10 years old. Allen Porter's birthday was Saturday and he is 9 years old.

Our school pictures were passed out this week. There were lots of laughs. Some pictures were very good, some not so good.

Our school paper, 'News of All Ages' was on sale this week by Mrs. Campbell's group. It was a very interesting paper.

FIFTH GRADE—

Mrs. Miller

Patsy Pendergrass is our spelling champion twice this week. Many of us went down on the word February. The winning word was really.

We are using a motto a day gave us.

We are doing write ups on TV shows and illustrating the programs.

We have many games and puzzles for bad days when we can't go out — dominoes, scrabble, monopoly, skunk quizzes, flash cards, all kinds of science illustrated booklets and comic books.

We wrote compositions on "I Am Thankful."

We want to welcome Patricia

Souls who came to us from Manchester.

SIXTH GRADE—

Mrs. Tasch

Our room has been busy the past week making charts on our work.

We have started our parents' gifts and shall be working on them for a couple of weeks.

Our India units are coming along nicely. We drew some pictures on India. They were very nice.

We have been working very hard on our poems. We have sixteen all together now. We have learned that it is very hard to get it right.

KINDERGARTEN NEWS—

Mrs. Parks

We welcome a new boy, Steve Latimer to our afternoon class.

We learned to draw a turkey.

Lee Meyer's brother has a broken leg. He was run over by a truck.

We are sorry to hear Larry Asbury's father is in the hospital. He had a car accident.

Everybody had a good time playing in the snow and making things out of it.

FIRST GRADE—

Mrs. Thayer

We have finished our first little Reader and have another book. On Armistice Day all our school had two minutes of silence while we said a prayer for peace for the world. We are learning some new prayers of thanks. Soon it will be Thanksgiving Day and we have many things to be thankful for.

We are sorry Barbara Wilson is moving away.

SECOND GRADE—

Mrs. Johnson

We were all very sorry that Debby Marshall lost her baby sister.

Esther Kiner is ill with pneumonia.

Susan Bowles has a new brother.

Congratulations to David Walton and Becky Amburgey who both celebrate birthdays this week.

We have made many colored turkeys.

THIRD GRADE—

Mrs. Darrow

Gary Marsh has a new brother, Kevin, born Saturday. He weighed 7 pounds, 13 ounces.

We are glad to have Dennis Booth back in school after his long illness.

We all enjoyed working on a Thanksgiving mural last Friday. It turned out to be very attractive.

We all have been busy writing stories for Thanksgiving. We have some good ones.

FOURTH GRADE—

Mrs. Campbell

We have worked hard on our paper. This week we finished it and sold out all 200 copies. We are making up some more for the people who were disappointed because they did not get one.

We want to thank everyone who helped us, those who sent in articles, and those who bought papers.

We hope each one who had a paper enjoyed reading it.

We have been working for two weeks learning how to make book reports. We have a chart to tell us how.

We started uneven division in our arithmetic class.

D. M. FERRY SEED COMPANY CLOSES
