Two Wounded By Shotgun Blasts

One Victim Dies

Tuesday Morning

Two boys were badly wounded here about 10:00 p.m. Saturday night at the Coffee Pot, a drive in on M-36 E at the village limits. The affair seems to have started some time before at the Smith Restaurant on E Main Street, Pinckney. The accounts given by the parties involved vary. Robert Lee Gipson, 27, of Chelsea said he was kicked and slapped by Danny Haines, 21, of Gregory. Others say that the two became involved in a dispute about a girl. Haines is the son of Mrs. Margaret Haines of Gregory. The dispute was continued at the local bowling alley and then Gipson went home and got his shotgun and picked up Roger Steffen, 14, of Chelsea. Haines and Deloss Coffey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Coffey on County Farm Road, Howell had gone to the Coffee Pot Drive-in. Gipson started firing with the shot gun. Coffey was hit in the arm and back and Haines in the stomach as they got out of their car. Then Gipson and Steffen left in their car. They were followed by David Darrow, Tom Singer and Alton Hollingsworth in the later car. They followed them to the old Detroit Die Set factory where the two abandoned their car and went on foot west down the Grand Trunk Railroad tracks. The alarm was given and soon 50 police officers were searching for them. Livingston County deputies were reinforced by state police and deputies from Washtenaw and Jackson counties. The fugitives were traced down the track to Kelly Road, where they went across by the Vern Keiser farm where trace was lost. Search was kept up all night despite the rain and fog. It was not until 5:00 a.m. they got a break. John Barber of Rush Lake Road started home about then. When he reached the Grand Trunk station here he saw a boy coming along the road. He stopped and asked him if he wanted a ride. The boy said he wanted the police and would show them where the man who did the shooting was hiding. It took about 5 minutes to contact the police and they went to the Dr. Sam Levin farm home at 2480 Beardsley Road, where Gipson was found hiding. The two had gained entrance by forcing a back door. Dr. Levin who lives in Detroit comes out often and usually leaves the lights on to keep burglars away. Gipson offered no resistance and was taken to the Howell Jail. Gipson who is 27 is out on parole from a 10 year sentence in Kentucky for robbery and attempted murder.

He lives with his brother in Chelsea where he is employed by the Jones factory. He talked readily and gave his version of the story. Prosecutor Wilfred Erwin has held up issuing a warrant until the extent of the wounded boys injuries is determined. Following the shooting Rev. Frs. Horkan and Bilak of St. Mary's Church were summoned and gave Danny Haines the rites of the church. Coffey was taken to St. Joe Hospital in the Swarthout Ambulance and Haines in the McDonald Ambulance from Howell. The condition of Haines is critical and that of Coffey less so. Haines works in a printing office in Chelsea. Coffey works for a construction company in Williamston.

According to several persons here Gipson has been coming to Pinckney frequently but he was not known.

Steffen a minor was released to his parents.

NEW YEAR

Greetings

1960

WITH sincere thanks for your good will and patronage, we wish you a very happy and prosperous New Year.

State Police News

Michigan lost its goal to reduce traffic death in 1959. They are expected to be 75 per cent higher than in 1958. 64,600 people were injured in 198,000 accidents. There were 4,051,342 drivers. Three hundred thirteen people drowned in Michigan this year.

There were 216,629 traffic arrests. Enlisted strength of the state police was 1129 at one time but now is 1107. Vacancies were not filled due to the depleted treasury.

A modern postoffice building was completed at Grand Haven at a cost of $87,750. It replaced one removed for a highway widening.

The state police skin diving squad was increased to 56 trained divers from 30.

Three state police died this year, 48 were promoted and 9 retired after 25 years service.

SUES SPORTS FIRM

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Johnson of Dallas, Texas, have sued a national sporting goods firm for $52,035.00 damages. Their son, Michael, 13, was playing baseball in a junior league and wearing a head helmet made by the firm, when he was struck in the head by a pitched ball and killed. The ball was thrown by a 12 year old boy who stood 50½ feet away at pitchers box. The helmet shattered and disintegrated. The parents claim it was structurally weak.

McPherson Health Center Meet Set

The Annual Meeting of the McPherson Community Health Center corporation members is to be held in the hospital auditorium on Tuesday, January 12, 1960, at 8:00 p.m. The Board of Trustees anticipates the largest attendance since the hospital began operation as there are approximately 500 paid up members.

The purpose of the Annual Meeting is to elect for a term of three years, five members to the Board of Trustees to fill vacancies created by the expiration of terms of office.

A nominating committee consisting of L. J. Henry of Pinckney, Thomas Sharpe of Howell and Stanley Berriman of Howell will meet prior to the annual meeting to select names to be placed in nomination.

At the Annual Meeting reports will be given by the Chairman of the Board, Treasurer, Chairman of the Building Committee, Chairman of the Professional Committee and the Administrator on the activities of the hospital for the past year.

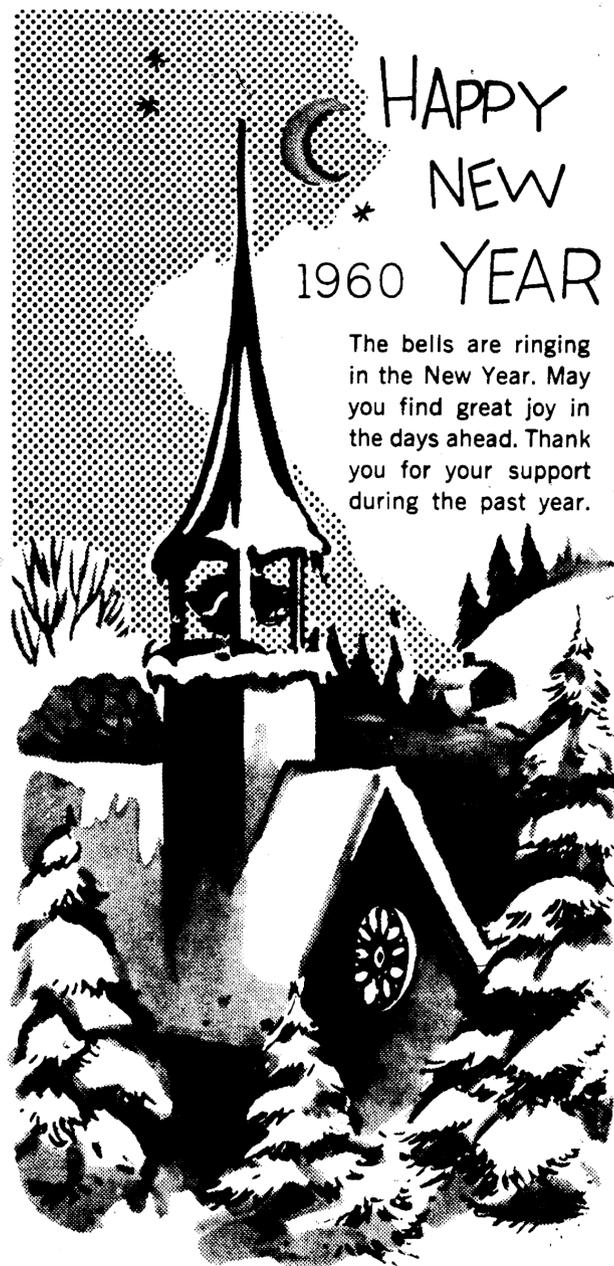

Proxy cards will be sent to every paid up member. The trustees urge that if a member cannot attend in person, that the proxy card be completed and returned as soon as possible.

The Bailey Castle House . . .

In the old days farmers had big families. 10 or 14 children were not uncommon and they called for big farm houses. The present type ranch houses now being built would have been considered ridiculous.

The above picture is of a farm house on Cedar Lake Road which stood where the Lloyd poultry farm is. It burned down about 1926. The builder was Charles Bailey who erected it in the eighties. It had some 20 rooms with a cupola on the top. The cellar was big enough to allow a team to drive in. The top part was never finished off. The late William E. Murphy told me he worked on the house assisting Tom Ross, uncle of Guy Hinchey who did the mason work. Bailey ran out of funds before he finished the house and lost it.

Fred Hemmingway got it after that and owned it for a number of years. He and his wife were childless and usually kept from 7 to 8 orphans who assisted in the farm work. The children attended the Pinckney School and they used to have school parties in the house. The Aschenbrenner children used to play there.

These large old time farm houses are fast disappearing. There are few of them left now. The Augur Taylor house on the Dexter Road a mile south of the North Territorial Road is one of them. It is now owned by Norman Jeffrey.

Seek Best Way for Applying Fertilizer

Michigan State University soils scientists are trying to get at the bottom of this question: Which would be the most profitable for Michigan farmers—apply fertilizer in bands or broadcast.

Band applications refer to putting the plant food in select areas in the root zone. Broadcast means working the fertilizer throughout the root zone.

"Many farmers have been interested in broadcast applications of bulk fertilizer because they save on labor costs," remarks Dr. Ray Cook, head of the soil science department. "And many feel that they would like to get out of handling so many bags of fertilizer at planting time as is necessary with band applications."

"But just because it is easier to apply bulk fertilizer, it may not be as efficient in terms of plant response per unit of cost," notes Cook.

The Michigan State scientists are trying to determine just how much more efficient band applications are over broadcast treatments. "We want to know what portion should be applied broadcast and what part should be banded for the greatest return and lowest cost," says Cook.

Old Base Burner Stoves Popular In Pinckney at Turn of the Century

THE OLD BASE
BURNER STOVE

This is another picture from the collection of the late Mary Teeple. It was probably taken in the John Teeple home which stood where the Michigan Bell Telephone station is now in the nineties as the two youth making harmony are Guy Teeple and Lorenzo Farnum.

In the background is a base burner coal stove universally used for heating homes until around 1910. There were a few furnaces before that but the base burner was the popular heating plant. The base burner stove stood from 5 to 6 feet high and had isinglass in the four doors. There was a place for a teakettle on the back. It filled from the top and burned a small size of hard coal called chestnut.

The burning coal shed a cherry red glow and lighted up the room. Almost all of the front and sides of the stoves were nickel work. It was nice to sit in front of it with your feet on the nickel plated side rest and watch the fire. My mother used to open the doors and bake potatoes on the coals or heat flatirons. There were no electric flatirons then only the iron kind, heated on top of a stove. You had to be careful to keep the doors closed. I remember a few cases where persons were over come by gas. They were economical. Fifty dollars would buy all the coal a baseburner would burn in one winter.

The boys of the family assisted in operating the stove. They had to keep several small skuttles of coal on hand which the father when he came home at noon and night and before retiring and arising emptied into the magazine at the top of the stove.

The hardware stores provided a stove service. When the fire was allowed to go out, usually in May, they came and got the stove. In the fall they blacked the stove and replaced broken isinglass and other things and brought it back and set it up.

Jerry Keating used to be busy a couple of months each fall blacking the stoves in the hardware stockroom.

The Winston Baughn family called on the Frank Clarks at Milford Sunday.

Christmas guests of the Mark Nash family were the Bud Bekkerings of Howell, Jack Clarks of Dexter and the Kenneth Zills of Ann Arbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Hendee had for Christmas guests the Dr. James Nash family of Coldwater, the Gayle Hendees of Owosso and the Lloyd Hendees and Rex Hendees.

Two Republican congressmen, Charles Chamberlain of the 6th district and John Bennett of Otongon are under fire, for refusing to sign a petition to discharge a civil rights bill from committee. Many civil rights bills are introduced but the southern congressmen usually have enough power to kill them in committee by aid of Republican votes. If enough congressmen sign a petition the bill can be gotten out of committee for a vote. Rep. Dingell of Dearborn who has many negro voters in his district is trying to get the civil rights bill out of committee but can't get enough Republican congressmen to sign the petition. Among them are Chamberlain and Bennett. Dingell charges that there was a deal on by which southern democrats supported the Landrum-Griffith Labor Bill in return for a promise by Republicans that no civil rights legislation would be adopted this session. The two Republican congressmen deny it.

The tossed salad for dinner need not be limited to head lettuce. Darker greens such as spinach, water cress, chard and bibb lettuce add eye appeal to the salad bowl. Greens like romaine and escarole add unique flavors. Home economists suggest you try using parts of head lettuce and one or more other salad greens for a tossed salad.

★ CURRENT COMMENT ★

By PAUL W. CURLETT

The Industrial News Review says there are only two ways a worker can protect his wages from confiscation by federal, state and local taxes. That is to vote no on all candidates and measures for public expenditures except for legitimate functions of governing and national defense. Evidently schools, highways, hospitals and other such public enterprises do not come under the legitimate head. Its big bugaboo is rural electrification in particular the Tennessee Valley Authority. If it had not been for them many rural districts would have been deprived of light and power. The big power companies do not like to go into a district unless the power sales there will show a profit. The first power plants in the state were erected by villages and citizens who were willing to take a loss until the plants could be put on a paying basis. They did the electric power and light pioneering not the big companies who came in long afterward.

Just how screwy can people get. We read that the members of the Boston Planning Board have asked David Ross, one of their members to shave off his beard or be fired. The rest of the members are all clean shaven. We wonder if his drafting technique is impaired by his whiskers. A little research would have shown them different. All the patriarchs of the Bible: Moses, Abraham, etc. grew whiskers. 10 presidents of the United States, including Abe Lincoln also did. We never heard that it impaired their abilities. Beards were regarded as a mark of distinction. Maybe the other members of the board are so strongly anti-Castro men that they think anyone who sports whiskers is a revolutionist seeking to overthrow the country as Castro did in Cuba.

Some people are becoming concerned about possible repercussions from President Eisenhower's Asiatic tour and the enthusiasm of the people alarms them. They say he is arousing expectations which cannot be fulfilled. Pakistan expects him to settle their Kashmir border dispute and all talk about increased American aid. Most people glow with pleasure from the reception he got but they don't get the impace he did from the poverty and misery of the multitudes. The president has always wanted more foreign aid than congress was willing to give him. Some specific steps have been taken such as student exchange, wiser aid and increased trade. But the follow through will tax the wisdom, vision and capacity of the nation.

Chairman Wilbur Mills of the Congressional Ways and Means Committee says there will be no general overhaul of the tax structure this year. There may be minor exemptions and the base may be broadened as it was in Michigan by taxing things hitherto exempt. Hearings have been held in Washington and some 175 industrialists have testified but no two of them agreed on any plan. The one most favored was to hold all exemptions to the $600 basic one but this would work hardships in a number of cases. This would cancel the exemptions on home mortgages which encourage people to own homes, also exemptions on all gifts to charity. Many philanthropic and educational institutions would suffer. It would also cancel the exemptions on long term profits which carry a reduced rate, and permission for married couples to file joint returns and those for depreciation and depletion in the income tax returns. All this will militate against any great change in the tax structure.

The presidents joy ride is apt to end abruptly when he reaches Frances as General DeGaulle, the prime minister like Horatius at the bridge is fighting the NATO. He refuses to coordinate his forces under one head with the NATO. He is in serious trouble in Algeria and all the battles have not been French victories. He wants to use his forces there and is resentful because the United States has not given him all the assistance he thinks he should have. He says he might change his mind if the Algerian war ends with a French victory. There is a hint that he is holding this as a threat over our heads unless we agree to see things his way.

Vice President Nixon will come to Detroit February 15 to try to heal the split in the Republican party. The two factions here are led by Chairman Lindemere and Postmaster General Summerfield. Summerfield's ultimatum is no big contributions unless he gets Lindemere's scalp. In some ways the campaign next year will not be different from that of 1952 with Nixon leading the conservatives and Rockefeller the liberals. Nixon was a follower of Senator McCarthy and he once called President Truman a traitor. So far he is leading all the straw votes but so was Senator Taft early in 1952. The Congress and senate was for him and so were most of the state and county office holders. At that time General Eisenhower had not voted in years and had not decided whether he was a Democrat or Republican. At college he was listed as a Democrat. The Republicans had been out of power 20 years. The General Motors decided Taft could not be elected and sent Summerfield around to preach this doctrine. He succeeded and industry as a whole lined up in the Eisenhower camp and got Governor Dewey of New York as floor manager of the convention. The rest is history. It could happen again. They are not yet sure that Nixon can win.

Christmas Day guests at the home of Mrs. R. K. Elliott were Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Tiney of Lansing, Mrs. Emma Hoyt of Clinton and the W. Hendershots of Tecumseh.

Only the name is different when you examine cane sugar and beet sugar. Home economists at Michigan State University say both sugars are identical in chemical composition. Granulated sugar on the market is practically pure sucrose, whether it comes from the beet or cane.

Webster Man Is Robbed Last Week

Basil P. Cyrus 63, of 7755 Church Road, Webster township was robbed last week. He was in a bar in Detroit and got talking to a stranger there who offered to drive him home. When they reached Gregory and Zeeb Roads the man stopped his car and demanded Cyrus money at the point of a knife. He gave him $35, all he had but he got the number of the car. Detroit police picked up James Head, 26, an ex-convict, in Lincoln Park. Head is held in the Washtenaw County jail on $10,000 bond, not furnished. He also has a dishonorable discharge from the U. S. Army.

TRAFFIC FATALITIES

Despite the decreasing number of fast trains 323 train auto accidents the first 10 months of 1959 killed 41 people and injured 141. In 1958 there were 64 killed.

Three hundred thirty-three drivers out of 1100 fail to renew their drivers licenses last year before the expiration date.

Sixteen Michigan children on sleds lost their lives by being hit by autos last year.

Michigan motorists travel 80,000,000 miles a day.

Three hundred twenty-nine people lost their lives in airplane crashes this year which is twice that of 1958.

CONSERVATION NOTES

Michigan is still trying to free $500,000 in Pittman Roberson funds for wild life restoration projects. The distributions are based on the number of licenses sold. Michigan has many different licenses and claims the distribution should be on the number of holders not the number sold. If the latter form is followed it would short Michigan considerably.

Resident fishing license sales dropped to 750,000 in 1959. In 1958 they were 878,688. This may put the department $50,000 in the red in 1960 by July. Persons interested will be able to air their views on state parks at the meeting at Lansing January 11. Among proposals are separate park use rules from those of other state lands.

Keep dogs in state parks under control on leases from May 1 to September 30.

Make bathing beaches off limits for dogs.

Conservation sales of tax reverted lands in 1959 totalled $227,750.00.

Avocados are ready to eat when they are ripe and buttery. Home economists at Michigan State University say ripe avocados will yield to light pressure on the skin. With a sharp knife, pierce skin and cut into sections, then pull skin away from the fruit.

BAKED APPLE SAUCE-TAPIOCA

You often serve canned apple sauce. You often serve tapioca custard. But in this baked dessert you serve them both. And the result is jolly, a bit of the unexpected, yet friendly and familiar.

The apple sauce layer, blended with sugar 'n spice is bright, tangy and full of real apple fruitiness. The tapioca custard poured on top is smooth and delicate. As for the meringue . . . well, that turns the dish into a dress-up dessert you'll be happy to serve to family, to guests, to your junior Juniors and senior Seniors.

And you'll be happy, also, to see how simple it is to prepare. A can or jar of apple sauce, a package of quick-cooking tapioca . . . and you're on your way.

2 cups canned apple sauce	1/2 cup quick cooking tapioca
1/2 cup brown sugar	1 quart milk
2 teaspoons lemon juice	3 eggs, separated
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg	1/2 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt	1 teaspoon vanilla extract
1 tablespoon butter	1/2 cup sugar

Combine apple sauce, brown sugar, lemon juice, nutmeg and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Place in casserole; dot with butter. Soak tapioca in 2 cups milk, 5 minutes. Beat egg yolks; add tapioca mixture, remaining milk, 1/2 cup sugar, 1/4 teaspoon salt and vanilla extract. Carefully pour over apple sauce. Bake in moderate oven 325 degrees, 1 hour and 15 minutes. Beat egg whites stiff, gradually add remaining 1/2 teaspoon salt and 1/2 cup sugar, beating constantly. Spoon over tapioca. Bake at 325 degrees about 15 minutes or until meringue is delicate brown. Serve cold. Makes 8-10 servings.

Mr. and Mrs. John Burg and family. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Howe and family and Mrs. Mary Kennedy were Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. VanBlaricum.

Mr. John Burg Jr. spent the first of the week in Detroit.

The Wayne Carr family spent Christmas and the weekend with Mike Carr and wife in Cleveland, Ohio.

Most of us are familiar with the glorious days of the Yankee Clipper. During the 1800's American sailing ships were renowned throughout the world. Then a little steam vessel called the Savannah managed to cross the Atlantic. Its feat was discounted by 19th Century statisticians and cost accountants. American owners continued to develop sailing ships. Great Britain, meanwhile, found ways to improve steam's performance and soon recaptured maritime supremacy. It took more than 100 years for this country to win it back.

The necessity of a U. S. merchant marine second to none resulted in public policies that have helped to insure needed ship replacement. Recently, the first nuclear powered vessel, the N. S. Savannah was launched, as a "floating laboratory." There are many problems to be solved in the nuclear ship. American merchantmen do not intend to be caught napping in this area.

Here's Looking At You!

PEKINGESE dogs still retain their popularity as house pets, so why should Linda, two-year-old albino, appear so morose?

ORANG-UTAN look of dismay is expressed by Annabelle, denizen of the London Zoo, as she views chilly world outside from a protective covering of straw.

ELEPHANT infant, Sunderi, a hefty one-year-old, gets goggle-eyed while watching circus performance in London. He apparently can't wait to make his debut.

Highway Crews Battle Elements -But Not Drivers

Throughout the winters, highway crews of the state, counties, cities, townships and villages are ready to keep streets and highway in the best possible condition.

With the first indication of snow or icing conditions, these crews are prepared to battle the elements. Their objective is to save our lives.

Winter driving conditions, at best can be hazardous. During the period when there is ice and snow, there are more hours of darkness, adding to the peril of highway driving.

Everything possible is done to remove the hazards of winter from our streets and highways. But, there is one element which highway crews cannot control. They are powerless to control the actions of drivers.

With all the help which is provided in an effort to make our highway safe during winter, each of us must do our part. The effort of those who work on the highways must be backed by considerate driving.

If we bear in mind that even with the work of highway crews, highways are apt to be hazardous, we can reduce our winter highway death toll. At all times we should be prepared for the worst possible driving conditions. Trips should be started in ample time so that there is no need to hurry. Never drive if you have been drinking. Never take a chance.

Drive considerately and legally. It may save your life and the lives of your family.

Car Tab Sales Lag by 100,000

The Department of State announced that in the first 45 days of auto license tab sales, transactions in Michigan were running 99,000 behind that of a year ago.

"The 209,758 tabs sold are one-third less than the 308,836 licenses issued during the same period one year ago," James Hare pointed out. "If this percentage continues we will have one of the worst tie-ups in years when the deadline comes next February."

Plans for two important events in the Portage Trails council are being completed at the present time. The first event is the celebration of the 50th anniversary of scouting which will be held during the week of Feb. 7th to 13th next year.

The other major event that is being planned is the 5th national jamboree to be held next summer at Colorado Springs.

NOTICE

The Pinckney King's Daughters will hold their regular meeting on Thursday, January 7, at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Ross Read, 245 E. Main Street.

TAX COMPROMISE
 The legislature finally ended the tax muddle and adopted another patch work tax bill and tapped the $50,000,000 veterans fund. The tax measure will raise $47,000,000 and the veterans fund of $40,000,000 giving in all $87,000,000 more for the state treasury but it does nothing to cut the state deficit which was $95,000,000.

Under the rate drinkers and smokers will pay most of the increase. Cigarettes are taxed one cent a package more, other tobacco 20%, beer $2.50 a barrel, liquor 4% more, telephone and telegraph services 3% and the corporation franchise tax 13 million more. The cigarette, tobacco, beer and liquor tax will cost the average user about $15 a year. The veterans fund is only being borrowed and must be paid back starting with a million a year and increasing up to four million.

The tax compromise was led by Senator Beadle who used the theme "You can't adjourn Saturday and leave things up in the air and the state broke". Slowly the Republican senate majority of 22 disintegrated and finally broke. Senator Morris and Freeling, die hards, refused to yield and voted against the corporation franchise tax and borrowing the veterans fund but were snowed under.

Something had to be done as there were no funds for anything except marked funds such as the highway ones.

Schools have had to borrow $55,000,000 and the year is not half over. The Boys Vocational school at Whitmore Lake is completed but there is no money to operate it. The same holds true for the training school at Northville completed a year ago.

Frank Mooris, champion of the Republican senate says the Christmas spirit of "Peace on Earth Good Will to Men." had much to do with the lion and lamb settlement of the tax controversy which has raged since last January. These new taxes are only supposed to last a year. In the past most new taxes enacted usually stay on the books. They are expected to be replaced by an increased sales tax and a constitutional convention which will abolish the taxes earmarked for the schools and highways. This may not happen as the schools and highways can be depended on to fight such a change.

Alligator meat was a prized delicacy during the civil war. Major Harrison Soule, wrote then from a camp near New Orleans. "Our men have started eating alligator meat and like it better than beef. They killed a 12 ft. one yesterday which will furnish enough meat for the whole regiment. Soule was later treasurer of the University of Michigan and vice president of the First National Bank.

County Health Measure Loses

The county board of supervisors met at Howell last Tuesday Ye editor sat in on the afternoon session. The matter of first importance was whether to continue in conjunction with the Shiawassee board of health. The supervisors voted 2 months ago not to by refusing to appropriate $25,000 to do so. The debate was heated. Dr. McGregor of Brighton and Fred Berry of Howell led the battle against it. The vote to continue with Shiawassee carried 12 to 10 on the first ballott. A motion by Dr. McGregor to reconsider carried. The 2nd vote on the proposition was 11 to 11 so the proposition lost. The school nurse and members of other womens organizations spoke for it. Supervisors Hendee of Putnam and Shehan of Hamburg were against it.

SCHOOL BOND ISSUE CARRIES
 The Lyon township voters of South Lyon approved a $615,000 school bond issue last Tuesday 496 to 353. It will be a new one floor 20 room structure for junior high school classes.

THE CHRISTMAS PARTY

This is the week of the Christmas office or factory party where everyone takes down their hair and the liquor flows freely. Hal Boyle gets the following off about the different office and factory types.

1. The year end orphan. Christmas makes him feel sad. The happier others are the sadder he feels.

2. The human marshmallow. Christmas makes him feel glad. He drips so much good will he resembles a bee hive leaking honey.

3. The calculating cutie. All the year she has been snubbing the low paid help. Now she smiles at everybody and hopes they will bombard her with gifts.

4. The office croner. He was in the high school choir and was voted likely to succeed Bing Crosby. He started humming

Christmas carols in July. Everyone in the office would like to cut his vocal chords.

5. The bleeder. She trots around the office taking up collections for everything from the office boys retirement fund, flowers for the bosses, there in laws uncles funeral to the MauMaus in Africa.

6. The bonus brooder. Christmas depends on the size of his bonus. If it is not enough, he says "Kilroy was here but where was Santa Claus."

7. The planner. He is shirking because he is doing his Christmas shopping for 1960. This kind of guy buys his coffin in advance.

8. The big spender. He opens his heart like an accordion with gifts for everyone. He borrows most of the money from the other help and when he quits in January owes everyone.

Suburbs By The Truckload

Suburbs are spreading farther out into the wide open spaces as our population continues to grow by leaps and bounds—and truck transportation makes this giant expansion program possible. That's because trucks are the only transportation system flexible enough to service all the out-of-the-way places people are moving to these days . . . Trucks go wherever there are roads—so homes (and factories and business establishments, too) can be located just about anywhere and everywhere in this big country . . . No matter where you live or do business, trucks assure you fast, efficient service for all your transportation needs.

DON'T WANT CRIMINALS

The nations airline pilots have petitioned the Federal Aviation Agency that they do not want to transport criminals who are under guard. There is too much danger of them trying to command the plane at gun point and endangering the lives of the passengers.

Last Civil War

Veteran Dies

With the passing of Walter Williams of Houston, Texas, at the age of 110 the last civil war veteran died. However this does not end civil war pensions as 4000 people are still drawing them, widows and daughters of veterans. Williams daughter will draw one. These pensions cost $8,548,363,000 in 1958, 3000 of these are widows of Union war veterans and 1000 Confederate. The average pension for widows is $65 a month. Williams received $134.45 a month.

The civil war was the most costly until the world wars. World War II pensions have gone over the $52 billion mark and World War I over $23 billion.

Revolutionary War pensions lasted 136 years. The last one being paid in 1906. The war of 1812 pension payments last 134 years, ending in 1946, the Mexican War Pensions are still being paid. The Indian war pensions lasted until 1898.

Revolutionary war pensions cost $70 million, Indian wars $119 million, Spanish American war 4 billion, Mexican War $64 million and Korean war $5 billion.

MICHIGAN MIRROR . . .

If you want to be a millionaire come to Michigan.

Among favorable reports on the state coming to light recently is one that shows we have more millionaires than even the proud state of Texas.

An analysis of federal income tax returns by Dr. Roger L. Bowby, economist with the Bureau of Business and Economic Research at Michigan State University, shows that Michigan, with only 4.5 percent of the total taxpayers, has 6.2 per cent of those declaring gross income in excess of a million dollars in 1957. Only four states, New York, Delaware, Pennsylvania and California can boast of more millionaires.

Michigan taxpayers' incomes totaling $14.2 billion in 1957, and paid $1.84 billions in federal personal income taxes. This tax was 5.4 per cent of the national total though Michigan's population only represents 4.5 percent of the United States population.

These higher than average incomes and tax payments due entirely to Michigan's higher proportion of millionaires, but also because the average individual earns more in Michigan. The state has a much higher percent of the taxpayers in the middle income brackets from $4,000 to $10,000 than the country as a whole: 52 per cent to 43 percent.

Personal income figures for Michigan indicate that when the 1959 federal taxes are all paid Michigan will again be near the top, according to Dr. Paul A. Herbert, chief of the research division, Michigan Economic Development department. Michigan increased incomes by $9,600,000 in September over August, according to a report in Business Week magazine of Nov. 28, while all of the neighboring states showed a decline.

Michigan has the largest gain in the nation for that month and for the 12 months ending with this September. Only one state, California, showed a greater dollar increase in personal income.

This data on the state's prosperity was part of the favorable news which Michigan's Industrial Ambassadors, the citizen group created by the Michigan Economic Development Commission as a sales force to sell the state as a good location for business and industry, received at their December meeting in Detroit. At that "sales training" session, Dr. Herbert cited figures from the Nov. 10 issue of Sales Management magazine showing that Michigan metropolitan areas and other major cities will be much larger and more prosperous in 1965 than they are today. Compared to cities throughout the United States, Michigan cities will generally grow faster and will be relatively more prosperous.

Among the highlights cited by Dr. Herbert were: The people of Michigan's 13 largest cities are expected to show a growth of 135 to 173 percent in net effective buying income in 1965 as compared with 1958. Growth of cities in the neighboring states in buying income during the same period will range from 106 to 141 per cent.

By 1965 all but one of the 13 metropolitan areas and potential metropolitan areas in Michigan will have improved their ranking as compared with all the Metropolitan areas of the country based on net purchasing power. On the other hand, only 4 of the 12 large cities listed for Illinois will improve their ranking; only 5 out of 14 of those in Indiana; only 1 out of 20 in Ohio; only 2 out of 14 in Wisconsin.

Kalamazoo, according to Sales Management's tabulation, will grow fastest of the 13 major Michigan cities listed: 117 percent in population and 173 percent in net effective buying income.

Other Michigan cities gaining in rank over 10 or more metropolitan areas in other states will be Bay City, Benton Harbor - St. Joseph, Muskegon, Jackson, Ann Arbor and Battle Creek. Not a single city in the other East North Central States will equal Kalamazoo's record. Rockford, Illinois comes closest to these Michigan cities by advancing over 8 cities.

The index of growth between 1958 and 1965 in net effective buying income of the Michigan cities listed is shown as 173% Kalamazoo, 152% Ann Arbor, 150% Muskegon, Benton Harbor - St. Joseph, 149% Jackson, 147% Battle Creek, Bay City and Flint, 146% Detroit, 145% Lansing, 142% Saginaw, 141% Grand Rapids and 136% Port Huron.

Michigan as a whole will increase its net-effective purchasing power by 146% by 1965, more than any other state in the U. S. except Nevada. Illinois will increase only 131%, Indiana 135%, Ohio 125% and Wisconsin 131%.

Estimates of the United States bureau of the budget, indicate Michigan has grown, is growing, and will continue to grow in population at a rapid rate. Figures vary from a total of 9,400,000 to 11,000,000 consumers by 1970. This in itself is a large state market.

When to this is added the growth in the number of consumers in the surrounding states, it makes the east-north-central states the greatest regional market in the United States. This region will have 21 percent of the nation's entire population by 1970, over 4 million more than the second largest region, the middle-Atlantic states. It will have grown faster than other region, a million more people than the Pacific region, the second largest growing area by 1970.

Because of its geographic location, the east-north-central states (Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin and Michigan) are the most economically logical locations for an industry with one plant that also sells nationwide.
