High School Students Hold Mock Political Convention; Kennedy, Nixon Nominated

The American history class of Pinckney high school held a real political convention at the Pinckney high school gym Wednesday morning which the editor was privileged to attend. It was under the direction of the teacher, Don Gibson, and complete with delegates, banners, confetti and nomination speeches. The Democrats had a donkey there or a burro loaned by Linda Nash, bearing a Johnson for president sign. The Republicans tried to get an elephant and called up the Detroit zoo but were told the elephants were all in winter quarters in moth balls for the season. So they made a paper mache elephant's head, complete with trunk and flapping ears which was worn by Diane Cordova.

Rusty VanNorman was keynote speaker and temporary chairman and Carl Burg, permanent chairman. The roll call of states was by alphabetical order. Nancy Wegener nominated Senator Kennedy of Massachusetts for president, Paul Howell, Senator Johnson of Texas, James Cadwell, Senator Humphries of Minnesota, Christine Schroeder, Senator Symington of Missouri, Adlai Stevenson was nominated by John Weatherbee and Governor Williams by Errol Schuman.

The Republicans only nominated two candidates, Vice President Nixon by Carol Miller and Governor Rockefelelr by James Wylie. After each nomination there was a parade of delegates through the aisles carrying their candidates banners followed by the high school band. David Darrow and Dennis Morgan in white caps and coats carrying shovels and broom followed the donkey in the parade.

Mrs. Irene Miller, Pinckney teacher, was an interested spectator. She informed us she attended one of the most famous political conventions in history, the one in Chicago in 1932 when Franklin D. Roosevelt was nominated for president for the first time over Al Smith.

The election was Thursday and following are the results:

Democrats — 106 votes.

John F. Kennedy, 51; G. Mennen Williams, 36; Johnson, 8; Stevenson, 8; Humphrey, 1; Symington, 1.

Republicans — 99 votes.

Richard Nixon, 90 votes; Rockefeller, 6.

Tournament Results

By Saturday night Ann Arbor High School was the only team left in the running for the state basketball title. They beat Bellville and then took Inkster Roosevelt in the final to win the regional title at Ann Arbor University. They beat Addison and then lost to St. Patricks of Detroit 43 to 35.

The semi-finals are this week. Quite a few winners of other years are in these including Lansing Sexton, Austin, Detroit, Pontiac Central, Grand Rapids S. and Holy Redeemer.

In picking the all star league team neither Pinckney or Roosevelt had a man picked. Don Appleton of Brighton was the only player from there picked on his all league team.

MICHIGAN MIRROR . . .

Post mortems have started on Governor Williams unprecedented six terms as governor of Michigan. A review was offered by Governor Williams himself who said "The face of Michigan has changed." The Republican legislatures must share credit and blame for his accomplishments and failures. It killed his plan for tax revision and some social reforms, but authorized his spending programs and other social reforms. Rep. Crampton of Lapeer was the father of the fair employment act that Williams sought.

Republican Senator Frank Andrews of Hillman worked with Williams for government reorganization.

Republicans say he made two mistakes. One when he kept the sales tax off the ballot in 1959 and the second when he ran for a sixth term. The first might have staved off the financial crisis and if he had run for the senate instead of governor he would have probably gotten a top heavy majority.

Commentators says Williams greatest contribution is that he has built up the Democrat party in Michigan and made it the dominant one. When he first ran in 1948 the Democrats did not hold a single state office in Michigan. Now it holds them all, has both U. S. Senators and a majority in the supreme court. His enemies claim he is dominated by organized labor. His administration has been scandal free, his penal reforms, building programs and progress in education and mental health are commended. He has a 29 point program this year which may not be approved. For 12 years he has tried to get a seal of quality for Michigan farm products but the legislature ha never gone along with him. Other states have such laws.

Statistics tell the story of the Williams era in Michigan. In 1948 he won a surprise victory over Kim Sigler by 163,854. The The Republican old guard hated Sigler on account of his legislative graft investigations. In 1950 he beat former governor Harry Kelly by 1154 votes in a recount victory. In 1952 he beat Fred Alger by 8,618 in anothe recount victory. In 1954 he took Don Leonard by 253,000 and Mayor Cobo of Detroit by 382,000 in 1956. Last year he bested Paul Bagwell by 147,444 but did not lead his ticket.

Favorably Priced Plant Food Pays Extra Dividends

A GOOD many farmers are missing out on extra income by failing to use enough fertilizer to give them the highest returns from their crops, according to the National Plant Food Institute's Midwest division.

As evidence of this opportunity for greater profits in plant food use, the Institute quotes D. B. Ibach and R. C. Lindberg of the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Economic Research Division, to the effect that:

"Most farmers who have adequate reserves can improve their incomes substantially through higher rates of fertilizer application."

"Farmers can do this because: 1—The cost of fertilizer is low relative to the cost of most other inputs; 2—The return from an additional dollar spent for fertilizer at present rates of application on most crops, amounts to more than a dollar and more than the return from many other inputs."

The two agricultural economists report further that "projected crop production needs can be met more economically through the use of more fertilizer, and fewer acres than are represented by the present fertilizer-land use ratio."

Increased fertilizer use, they say, has played a major part in meeting crop production needs and lowering unit cost of production.

CIVIL RIGHTS HITS MICHIGAN

The civil rights fight hit Michigan last Wednesday when 400 negroes picketed the state capitol at Lansing and held a rally. The focal point in the controversy is a clause in the bill combating racial discrimination in housing. At the hearing on the bill the sole opposition to it came from the Michigan Real Estate Ass'n. Harold Davis, president of the Ass'n. said the bill would take freedom of choice from one segment of the population and give it to another. He called the negroes assembled a mob reflecting discredit on their race. George Brazil of the Marygrove Civic Ass'n, a Northwest Praperty owners group said people should have the right to choose whom they live with. That discrimination is a part of our people and made us great.

Rt. Rev. Msgr. John Slowery of Lansing spoke for the bill. He said it would guarantee God given rights in our democracy. Governor Williams also said he regarded the civil rights issue as a moral problem and that all citizens of the United States are equal in the eye of God. Rev. Gladstone of the Lansing Friendship Baptist Church also spoke for the bill as did Rev. James Wadsworth, Detroit, Rev. John Powell, Lansing, Rep. George Sallade, Ann Arbor, and Lt. Gov. John Swanson.

The bill is bottled up in committee which refused to report it in. A vote was supposed to take place Wednesday afternoon, the deadline date but Chairman Gibbs of the committee went to lunch and never came back and the committee did not have a quorum.

WOMEN VOTERS

City Clerk Ledbetter of Detroit says before long women voters will outnumber men voters in Detroit. Now there are 433,148 women voters and 433,362 men. In 1933 there were twice as many men voters as women. Women now outnumber the men voters in 8 of Detroits 22 words. On April 6, 1959 they cast 48 percent of the vote in Detroit.

A great fortune depends on luck; a small one on diligence.

THE PUTNAM TOWNSHIP BOARD

★ CURRENT COMMENT ★

By PAUL W. CURLETT

The withdrawal of Governor G. Mennen Williams from the contest for governor in Michigan removed a dramatic figure from the political scene here whose exploits will probably never be equalled. He is the only six term governor in the history of the United States. The only ones in the state who even approach his record were Republicans Fred M. Warner and Alex Grosbeck who were three term governors. We had never heard of him when he entered the primary for governor in 1948. He won by a narrow margin over two better known Democrats whom we have never heard of since. Then he got a break. The old guard Republican machine hated Kim Sigler. He headed the grand jury investigation which convicted a lot of legislators of graft. So they decided to dump him and elect Williams, figuring he would be easy to beat when he come up for reelection. They were wrong. Williams perfected a good organization, got the support of union labor but the vote for him was close. He won an a recount over Harry Kelly by 1154. In 1952 he was stronger but only finished about 8,114 ahead of Fred Alger. Alger asked a recount. When it began, after one day Williams votes began to climb. After he gained several thousand votes and his total was still climbing. Alger called it off. Lorenzo Murphy of Pinckney was on the recount committee both times. In this county, Williams gained 400 votes on the recount against Alger and it was only half finished. Lorenzo said if the recount had been completed here he might have gained 2000. The election boards were either incompetent or had trouble seeing Williams votes. Williams won over Don Leonard and Mayor Cobo by top heavy majorities. In 1958 he got 147,444 over Paul Bagwell. His detractors hailed that an an indication he was slipping. Still this is a healthy majority for any candidate.

We can remember back to the days of 1898 when the most important slogan was "Remember the Maine." Few of the present day younger people ever heard of this slogan. Spain controlled Cuba then. The Cubans who were underpriviliged, revolted. Spain put down the revolt with a heavy hand and concentrated the rebels in concentration camps where they starved to death or perished of disease due to unsanitary conditions. The Red Cross and other organizations in this country came to their aid and collected food and clothing which they sent to Cuba on the battleship Maine. It never reached the Cubans as it was torpedoed and sunk in Havana harbor. Last week a French battleship carrying munitions to Cuba was sunk in Havana harbor. Fidel Castro, dictator of Cuba claimed American sabotage sunk it but has offered no proof. One American was imprisoned awhile but later released.

President Eisenhower gave an account of his South American Good Will trip over the radio Tuesday last week. He said the South Americans love us and dismissed as infinitisimal the incidents in Uruguay where a path through the mobs had to be cleared for him by using tear gas and a fire hose. He mentioned no commitments made or foreign aid to be extended to South Americans. Russia in the meantime is busy. They have just offered to build a nuclear power plant in India. This may engender the feeling the United States has lost another skirmish in the cold war.

The filibuster against the civil rights bill continues in the senate at Washington where a marathon 24 hour a day attempt to talk the bill to death is on. This all seems foolish and only a subterfuge. By a two thirds vote the senators could invoke a cloiture and limit debate which they will probably not do. The south does not have the votes to prevent it, but the Republican conservatives are in their corner. Senator Dirksen, Republican floor leader, says he is against cloiture and will vote against it. The charge is made Republican conservatives are pledged to kill the civil rights bill in return for southern support on the union labor curb bill.

This is the season for presidential primaries and public opinion polls or straw votes. New Hampshire held the first one. Nixon got a big majority over Rockefeller who had only 171 write-in votes. But Senator Kennedy, the Democrat candidate got 3913 to 386 for his three Democrat opponents and the Democrats cast a bigger vote than the Republicans. New Hampshire is usually Republican 2 to 1. Straw votes are being taken in Michigan. For the Democrat candidate for governor James Hare, secretary of state is leading John Swanson, and George Graham for the nomination. Pitted against Paul Bagwell, the favored Republican candidate, all three are leading him. Bracketed with Governor Williams, Bagwell is said to be leading but Williams is not a candidate.

In these days of rising and skyroceting prices one price has held steady. That is the price of chewing gum. It was five cents a pack 60 years ago and the price is the same today. The price has been kept down, although the ingredients cost more, by efficient production, automation, and a bigger volume of sales. Some brands have disappeared such as white gum, made of white wax and spruce gum made of pine sap.

Michigan Intangibles Tax

The McPherson State Bank is pleased to announce that it has again elected to pay the Michigan State Intangibles Tax on deposits for its customers.

The amount the bank is paying this year for its depositors is $4,500.00. This, combined with the Intangibles Tax upon the bank's capital makes a total of $10,700.00 which the bank will pay to the State of Michigan in 1960 under this tax law.

This is another one of the McPherson State Bank's services to its customers, many of which go unrecognized, but which result in a saving to its depositors.

NOW WOULD BE an excellent time to arrange additional listings for other members of the household who are not listed in the current directory. Many calls are not completed because the name in the book is not the same for everyone living in the house.

This happens often in the case of teen agers, wives, roomers, or other family members. Why not look at your listings in the book now and if you desire additional ones or wish to change your own, call the Business Office.

SMOKE SIGNALS were a fast and easy way for Indians to talk across the hills and lakes of Michigan, but they had their limitations. For one thing, the man sending the signal couldn't say anything beyond a prearranged message. Suppose, for example, a hunter told his wife that one puff of smoke would mean that he'd be coming home for dinner and two puffs meant that he wouldn't be home. If he was late, or if he wanted to bring a friend along, there was no way he could warn his wife! These smoke signals might have been our first long distance communication, but for speed and convenience, nothing can beat today's telephone call.

ON NASTY WEEKENDS in March, amateur gardeners like to get together to discuss the Spring planting. Whenever this happens, and whenever a problem comes up, they're likely to get out the handiest shopping guide there is—the Yellow Pages. Aside from numbers and addresses, there's lots of specialized information in the Yellow Pages, and it's solved many a question for amateur gardener and garage mechanic alike. So if you want a product or service, look for the detailed information in the Yellow Pages. It's put there by businessmen to help you.

PARTING SHOT: Whenever trouble comes, there's one good thing to have up your sleeve: a funny bone.

FLUORIDE DEADLINE SET FOR MARCH 25

Final requests and fees are now being accepted for the Summer Topical Fluoride program to be held in Pinckney. This program is being sponsored by the Parents Club in cooperation with the Livingston County Health Department and the Michigan Department of Health.

The entire procedure consists of four visits to the topical fluoride clinic which will be held in the Pinckney School. At the first visit the teeth are cleaned and the first application is given. An application of sodium fluoride consists of the teeth being isolated with cotton rolls; then the teeth are dried with compressed air and a 2 per cent solution of sodium fluoride is applied to the teeth with cotton tip applicators. On the second, third, and fourth appointments the application of the sodium fluoride is repeated.

Any child who is a pre-schooler, second, fifth or eighth grader or is 7, 10, or 13 years of age, is eligible to enroll in the program. Special cases referred by the family dentist will also be accepted. The fee for the cleaning and four applications is $3.00.

If you have not received the necessary forms to enroll your child in this program you may contact Grace Craig at UPtown 8-9918, who is topical fluoride chairman in Pinckney.

The fee and consent cards must be returned by Mrch 25 in order for your application to be accepted.

SUPREME COURT DECISION

The state supreme court has just handed down a decision in regard to snow removal from sidewalks. In the case of Weider vs Goldsmith in Detroit the plaintiff fell on an icy walk in front of the defendant's home and suffered a broken hip. He sued and a jury awarded him damages of $92,000. The supreme court voided the judgement. It was shown the walk was cleared after a first snowfall but not all the snow was gotten off after a second snowfall. The court held it was not shown that the removal of part of the snow increased the hazard of the travel on the walk. In other words failure to get all the snow and ice off the walk is not negligence.

THE DEATH PENALTY

California still sticks to her death penalty. By a vote of 8 to 7 the committee which has the bill refused to release the bill repealing it so it could be voted upon. Caryl Chessman's execution date is now set for May 4 next. Governor Brown has said he will not again grant a reprieve. Twenty other men and one woman are also in death cells there awaiting execution. Chessman has staved off the death penalty for 12 years. Maybe he can do it again. His sentence should be commuted to life imprisonment. All this unwelcome publicity is not doing this country any good. The Secretary of State's office says is is endangering foreign relations. A movie was written about the woman executed in California a couple of years ago.

If things do not turn out as we wish, we should wish for them as they turn out.

SCHOOL NEWS

SEVENTH GRADE

The seventh grade would like to congratulate Rochello Randall for winning the school spelling bee and we hope she does well in the county bee.

The last one from our room to go down was Dennis Hollister.

The winners in our English bee yesterday were Margaret Ackley, Cherrie Darrow, Ronnie Courdway, Terry Nixon, and Robby Seefield.

We had a very nice substitute yesterday named Mrs. Kennedy, but we are glad to have Mrs. Carr back.

KINDERGARTEN

Mrs. Parks—

We are happy to have Pamela Sue Waite back with us after 5 weeks of sickness. She had her tonsils out.

Several of our people went to the Icecapades and had a wonderful time.

We can all spell our names now and some of us can spell 2 or 3 other words.

We have a new 'Safety' poster it has "Don't Play With Fire" on it.

* * * *

FOURTH and FIFTH GRADE

Mrs. Heaton—

We have a new boy, Arthur Lesek in the fifth grade. He came from the Henry Ford School in Hazel Park. Now there are 35 in our room.

More arithmetic workbooks have been finished. Linda Steffen, Judy Dean, Ronnie Makin and Rodney Darrow of the fourth grade and Sandy Watkins, Bonnie Wylie and David Chamber of the fifth grade have finished their books. Each day we are doing sheets or arithmetic to improve in accuracy and speed.

Our new officers for March are: Ronald Doyle, Pres.; Allen Porter, Vice Pres; Linda Steffen, Sec.

We have some interesting drawings being developed on our bulletin boards. One scene depicts wildlife as we know it here in Michigan. Another shows an active volcano and another area shows a cross section to illustrate how they develope. Another one predicts Spring is coming, we sure hope so.

* * * *

SIXTH GRADE

Mrs. Tasch—

Friday, March 11, we took our "Weekly Reader" mid-semester tests. There was a definite improvement in the test marks. Some of the children have come up a whole grade in their reading level.

In English we each wrote a composition describing a storm we have been in at one time or other. The object of this was to use more adjectives and adverbs.

Everyone from our room is writing a composition about "What Our Library Means To Me."
