125th Birthday of Village Celebrated Saturday Night

The dance sponsored by the Kiwanis Club in honor of the 125th anniversary of Pinckney attracted a fair attendance and everyone there reported a fine time.

Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Amburgey won the prize for the best "old time" costume; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Young were the winners of the dance contest while Mr. and Mrs. Otis Matteson were judged the best in Squaring dancing. Door prizes were won by Mrs. Frank Czerwinski and Mrs. C. Wilton.

Unlike the Centennial year in 1935 which was marked by four days of pageantry and revelry, the 125th milestone was passed with calm and serenity. These characteristics Pinckney has acquired since the early boom days. Pinckney was settled shortly after the War of 1812 in the days of wild cat banking and wild land speculations. Although records show that many of the hardy pioneers were here much earlier than the 1835 "birthdate", Professor William Kirkland of New York, a school teacher and land speculator, planned and named the town in that year. It is a matter of record that the first official village election was held in 1836.

Cubs Schedule Paper Drive

The Cub Scouts of Pack 58 have scheduled a paper drive with the pick-up date set for January 14. All newspapers and magazines will be appreciated and will be picked up if the Pack is notified before the above date. Helping the cubs will be their committee-men who are Cortland Geib, Patterson Lake area; Frank Zezulka, village; Art Rentz, rural; Harold Halliburton, Portage Lake and George Oury, village.

A phone call to any of these men will assure that your donation of paper will be picked up.

Descendents of the early pioneers still live here. Notable among the first settlers were the Irish; such families as the Maloneys, Monks, Harrises and Spears were the first to claim land here. There were the Manns, Grimes, Marbles, Siglers, Swarthouts and the Pettys who settled and remained long after Professor Kirkland returned to the East.

Latest census figures received this week show Pinckney's population to be 732. Located in the heart of a popular recreation area Pinckney enjoys a brisk resort trade in the summer. Several industries, a large consolidated school system and an attractive Main Street business section are features of the village.

Pirate Cagers Lost Two Games

It has been two losses in two starts so far for the Pirate Cagers. They lost the opener, a non-league game at Webberville, 42-26. Last Friday's game on the home court was lost to the visiting Manchester Dutchmen, 63-34.

In the first game Jim Geary was high scorer with six points. Tom Ritter, the Pirates leading scorer last season, fouled out in the first half. In the Manchester game Bob Williams made 8 points and Ritter 7.

The junior varsity team won their first game at Webberville, 41-16. They lost to the Little Dutchmen 39-22. In the game Friday Pete Singer and Ron Haines were high men with nine points each.

Mrs. Susan Hulce, 74, a granddaughter of one of the founders of Chelsea died at the home of her daughter there on Monday. Mrs. Hulce was the mother of Elwin Hulce of Roscommon, former coach and superintendent of Pinckney High School.

Accident Fatal to Portage Lake Resident

Welford L. Breckenridge, 25, of 10972 Maple View, Portage Lake, was killed when his car left the road and struck a tree early Sunday morning. The accident occurred on West N. Territorial road near Scully road in Webster township. Homer O. Hawk, 27, also of Pinckney, a passenger in the Breckenridge car was injured. He was reported in fair condition in University hospital late Monday.

Washtenaw Sheriff's deputies believe that the driver fell asleep moments before his car left the road. He was pronounced dead on arrival at St. Joseph Mercy hospital at 5:50 a.m. Sunday.

Mr. Breckenridge came to Pinckney about three months ago from Peach Orchard, Arkansas, where he was born on February 26, 1935. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Alice Breckenridge of Ann Arbor, his father of Paragould, Arkansas; a brother and two sisters living out-state.

Funeral services were to be held this afternoon at the Hildinger Funeral Home in Ann Arbor. Burial to be made in Fairview cemetery.

VILLAGE ZONING MAP ON DISPLAY AT LOCAL DRUG STORE

In order to give all village residents an opportunity to study the proposed village zoning ordinance a copy of the same has been put on display in Jerry's Drug Store.

There will be an official meeting at a later date for the open discussion of the ordinance. It is expected that there may be several exploratory meetings prior to this to bring up all types of questions citizens will want to have answered.

Many hours of work have gone into the preparation of the proposed ruling since the preliminary draft was drawn last August.

The zoning map of the village is also on display showing the seven zoning districts into which the unincorporated territory of the village of Pinckney would be divided.

The general purpose of the zoning ordinance states; It is the intent of the Council to promote the health, safety, and the general welfare by guiding the development of the village by means of a comprehensive land use which is in part carried out by this ordinance. The ordinance would provide regulations and standards and guides for the development of the village.

Mrs. Edith Carr Greene of Lansing, died on November 28 following a long illness. She is survived by her husband, James Greene. The deceased was a sister of the late Roger J. Carr of Pinckney.

Following funeral services in Lansing the body was brought to Pinckney Cemetery for burial.

Mrs. Louis Kwart received word Tuesday morning of the death of her sister, Mrs. Norman McClements of North Branch.

At the regular meeting of the Pinckney Board of Education last Thursday evening John L. "Jack" Young was elected new president of the school board. He succeeds C. C. omies room of the high school will hold its next meeting on January 5, at the Hamburg Elementary school.

Lyle Kinsey was the representative for the Board of Education.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Kennedy were Tuesday guests of Miss Mary Ellen Doyle in Ann Arbor.

Ready for Christmas . . . with the addition of the Christmas trees that are to be set up in front of each business place and a little snow, Main Street will become Santa Claus Lane. Some of the new silvery decorations were purchased by the Village Council this year. The huge candy canes which decorate the lamp posts were acquired last year and are a favorite of the children in town.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

Any number of issues could make the 1961-62 session of the Michigan Legislature the liveliest in years. Perhaps three stand out above the others:

From where in the state to elect the extra Congressman Michigan became entitled to after the 1960 census.

What to do about the overall tax muddle?

Provisions to bring about a constitutional convention if one is approved by voters at the Spring election.

Add to these the routine and recurrent problems such as appropriations and pork barrel legislation and you have the makings of a session that could outdo the year-long "cash crisis" session of 1959 for fireworks.

Both Republicans and Democrats, of course, want the new Congressman to be of their political faith.

Because of Michigan's rural-urban split, the area which is given the right to elect the new Congressman will pretty much determine what party he represents. Either party can make a pretty good case for at least one or two areas where it is stronger.

One obvious solution would be to split one of the highly populous areas of Wayne county.

This would almost certainly give the seat to the Democrats.

Two other suggestions affecting southeast Michigan although not Wayne county would very possibly result in Republicans claiming the seat for one of their members. One plan would detach Macomb county from the Seventh district, which also stretches up into the thumb.

Democrat James C. O'Hara of Utica holds this seat, and while he would probably hold the new Macomb county seat, a Republican would have an excellent chance in the newly created district.

The other suggestion calls for division of populous Oakland county, presently represented by Republican William S. Broomfield, into two parts.

While Democrats would stand a fairly good chance of electing a representative from a divided 18th, Republicans would almost certainly retain Broomfield and it seems likely a second Congressman of his party would be swept into office with him.

Theoretically, each Congressman should represent the same number of people.

Many Democrats insist that some of the spacious but sparsely populated congressional districts of northern Michigan, now all represented in Washington by Republicans, should be consolidated.

With the GOP dominating the state senate and holding a one-seat edge in the state house of representatives, this is unlikely.

There is a possibility that a complete redistricting could be attempted to bring populations into line with each other among the districts. However, Republicans don't want to lose any of their 11 seats and would like to gain another. Democrats will insist they are entitled to their seven seats and should get the new one.

Another problem that could lead to bitter wrangling — both inter-party and intra-party — is taxes.

Though a problem nearly every year, revenue for the state will be even more pressing in the upcoming session because of the aftermath of the cash crisis.

Voting a penny hike in the sales tax as approved by the people could make little difference in the legislative tax squabble.

While Republicans may hold out for the four-cent sales tax and nothing else, there is considerable agitation among members of both parties to carry out total tax revision aimed at making the burden of paying for government fall more equitably.

If the tax picture is touched up, the sales tax will still be the focus of attention.

Any adjustment would be made in the subsidiary and auxiliary taxes which are imposed on special groups or special types of transactions. This would mean special interest forces would fight hard for advantage.

Con-Con problems can be expected to haunt lawmakers for some time to come.

Not only must they provide for the means of selecting the delegates to a Con-Con, they must make provision for a place to hold one and vote the money to pay for it — estimated at better than $2 million.

The thorny question of whether to nominate candidates for Con-Con delegates in party convention, party primary or non-partisan primary could in itself be dynamite.

Recalcitrant lawmakers could, by dragging their feet, put a serious hitch in Con-Con plans even if voters give quick approval right down the line.

why there's no water heater like an

ELECTRIC WATER HEATER

YOU CAN PUT IT ANYWHERE—even in an air-tight closet. Because there's no flame, an electric water heater doesn't need air flow to support combustion, or a vent to carry off fumes. There's even a table-top model you can put under the counter in the kitchen or utility room. Here's the only heater you can always place close to point of greatest hot water use.

PLENTY OF HOT WATER ROUND THE CLOCK. For dishes, laundry, baths, there's always plenty of hot water available. Electric water heaters have two heating units: one for normal use, the other for those special occasions when there's an extra demand for hot water.

HOTTER HOT WATER WHENEVER YOU NEED IT. Some laundering requires very hot water to get clothes really clean. Dishwashers, too, need water that's very hot. Remember, an electric water heater can keep on and on, delivering the extra-hot water needed without burning out.

OPERATING COSTS ARE AMAZINGLY LOW. The popular 50-gallon heater will meet the needs of 8 out of 10 families. Using estimated operating costs for this size unit, a plentiful supply of hot water for all family needs should cost you less than 15¢ a day!

FOUR DOLLARS

Four Dollars from Starvation is the theme of this year's Christian Rural Overseas Program Drive, according to Dr. Stanley Hoffman, President of the Livingston County CROP Board. The Drive is scheduled from November 20 through December 3 according to Rev. Donald Thompson, the campaign director. Sunday, November 20 was observed as CROP Sunday in several churches throughout the county.

Last year $3,711.85 was donated to CROP. Each dollar donated moved $6.30 worth of foodstuffs to hungry people. The total effect provided $23,762.65 worth of food to less fortunate people throughout the World.

This years emphasis includes aid to 150,000 school children in Hong Kong that are dangerously undernourished. Some faint from hunger in school. They live on scraps, not having a decent meal from one week to the next. Most are refugees from China. Some are orphans. Parents of many are ill or unemployed. All are hungry.

CROP has been asked to provide the rice in a joint effort being undertaken to aid the situation. $4.00 given thru CROP will provide the rice, delivered, for one hot meal for a child each day for an entire year.

● Notes of 48 Years Ago

A large audience here enjoyed the performance by the Chicago Ladies orchestra at the opera house Friday evening. Sylvester Long, a young orator and former Dayton, Ohio school teacher will be the third number on the lecture course series next week.

W.C. Dunning recently purchased the imported Belgian draft stallion Empereur 6715. He is a chestnut stallion weighing over 1700 pounds and is one of the finest horses in the country. He was imported in August and is now at the local livery barn.

The market report for Wednesday, December 5, 1912, lists wheat at .92 per bushel; rye, .52; oats, .32; beans, $2.00; onions, $1.00; potatoes, .45; butter .28; eggs, .28; chickens, live .10 and .09 per pound.

At long last the people of Pinckney will have something they have been waiting for; the Hoyt Brothers have bought the electric plant of the Jackson Lighting Company and will move it here as soon as possible and will run it by water at their mill giving the village lights all night. The new concern will be known as the Pinckney Electric Company.

Word has been received here that a son, Forest William, was born on December 5 to Mr. and Mrs. Dale Darrow of Allegan, Michigan.

The high school orchestra consisting of Ona Campbell, first violinist; Myron Dunning, second violin; Ward Swarthout, cornet; Alger Hall, flute; Earl Tupper, drums and traps; and Ruth Patterson piano accompanist, is practising with great diligence and will soon be ready for a public appearance.

ARTIC OWL VISITS MICHIGAN BEACH

An all white owl, usually referred to as a "Snowy" or "Arctic" Owl, has been seen during the past few days at Metropolitan Beach on Lake St. Clair near Mt. Clemens.

James J. Pompo, beach manager, stated that this unique bird may remain in the area for several days. The Artic Owl is unusual because it can see equally well in both daylight and night hours.

This Owl, which migrates from the Artic Circle, usually visits southern Michigan when their food supply becomes short in the North. These birds are protected from hunters and should not be shot.

Stop for Breakfast

Eat something before you "hit the road" in the morning. Home economists at Michigan State University suggest that "something" be protein, such as eggs, meat, milk or cheese. It may help you feel better and work better and should ward off that mid-morning slump.

ASC CHAIRMAN URGES SOIL & WATER CONSERVATION

Mr. Bentekoe, Chairman of the Livingston County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, wishes to advise farmers that they can still earn cost-sharing for applying needed soil and water conservation practices on their farms this fall.

All farmers are eligible to receive these cost-sharing payments which are authorized under the Agricultural Conservation Program. There are a number of practices such as liming materials on farmland and forestry improvement that can be performed advantageously in the fall of the year.

Mr. Bentekoe wishes to encourage farmers to apply these eligible practices this fall since adequate funds appear to be Editorial Comment...

Today marks the 19th anniversary of the attack on Pearl Harbor. Unlike other special dates on our calendar this one day is not marked by a celebration. Those of us who remember the infamous act and the astounding blow of the news as it came to us over the radio that Sunday will never forget. It is now history; history that, please God, will never be repeated.

Appropriately enough, this year December 7 has been set aside as National Defense Day, 1960. Its theme "Peace Through Preparedness."

This year finds Americans better prepared and more aware of the truth that the price of peace is eternal vigilance. Today, in addition to the tremendous steps taken nationally, many families have home shelters, a family action plan that calls for understanding certain safety rules in regard to fall-out, and the need for keeping on hand a two week supply of water and food for the family.

The office of Civil Defense Mobilization through its regional offices stands ready to help everyone to take the necessary steps to set up protection in case of a national emergency.

This program is vital; the need for preparedness is not to be taken lightly.

Everyone, every so often, should have the opportunity to see and hear a program similar to the one all the high school students and several adults in the community were privileged to attend at the high school assembly last Wednesday afternoon.

Two large, beautiful American flags were presented to the high school by representatives of the Barnes Lyons, Roberts, Auxiliary 3671, VFW of Howell and the Curtis Sessions, Auxiliary 6464, VFW, Fowlerville. The flag presentation ceremony was followed by a radio broadcast type performance of Edward Everett Hale's "Man Without a Country" by Don Gibson's speech class and the high school band and chorus, under the direction of Dennis Napier.

Young America expressing in words and music their great heritage; "This is my own, my native land."

Farm fire dangers go up as the temperature starts down around this time of year.

Richard Pfister, agricultural safety engineer at Michigan State University, discovered this in a state-wide survey of newspaper reports on farm fires.

The survey covered four years — 1956-59. February averaged 70 farm fires, January 65. By contrast, September averaged a little over 40.

"This sounds a warning not to wait until heating systems are going full blast before checking them," Pfister warns. "If you do, weaknesses may show up as a big glow in the sky."

The safety engineer gives these heating safety tips:

Keep flue or stove pipes clean, free of holes and well supported. Put combustible items like trash, papers and paint away from the heating plant.

Conservation Notes

Michigan's deer kill totaled 73-88,000 whitetails during the November 15-30 firearm season this fall, according to a preliminary Conservation Department estimate.

The estimate, based on traffic counts, observations at roadside checking stations and other field surveys, is far below last year's harvest of 115,000 deer and represents the first drop in kill since 1954.

Disappointing as the kill was, however, it could top hunter take for each of the seasons from 1954 through 1957. Whether it will or not, depends upon last minute findings which are still needed to set the final estimate.

This year's buck kill for the upper, and northern lower peninsulas is estimated at 45-55,000 — down about 25 per cent from 1959 and the 10-year average. The antlerless take in this part of the state ranged between 25,000 and 30,000, a decline of about 40 percent from last season.

Hunters in the southern half of the lower peninsula reportedly approach their 1959 buck harvest of 3,350. A special December 1-6 "any deer" season in Allegan county will have little bearing on the state's antlerless kill.

Some 60,000 annual parks entrance stickers for 1961 will be mailed next week to 1,200 hunting and fishing license dealers in Michigan.

They will be sent to dealers in areas covering parks where the sticker requirement goes into effect January 1. Parks users will need annual or daily stickers on windshields of their vehicles to enter 55 of Michigan's 62 parks next year.

Conservation Department officials point out that parks are open year round and urge those planning to buy annual stickers to do so early and make the most of the recreation opportunities during the winter as well as the remainder of the 12-month parks season.

The annual sticker will cost $2.15. Of this, $2 will be earmarked to retire a bond issue which will finance a proposed $3,000,000 parks improvement and land acquisition program during the current fiscal year.

The remaining 15 cents will be collected by the dealer to cover his handling costs.

Daily 50-cent stickers will be sold at parks where they are required.

Shorty Johnson's "Sound" Remover

Our volunteer firemen's convention is quite a noisy affair. It often takes 15 minutes to bring the meeting to order. So this year, "Shorty" Johnson, our chairman, tried a new approach.

Amid all the noise, Shorty got up and began to speak. At first, you couldn't hear a word he said. But he kept on until things suddenly quieted right down.

Said Shorty, later: "I figured if I spoke softly enough, someone would wonder what I was saying and shush the man next to him. That man would quiet down the man next to him, and so on. All I was saying up there was 'Meeting will come to order.' And it did."

From where I sit, Shorty's quiet method proves there's more than one way to do things. If a neighbor, for example, prefers a glass of beer while you prefer iced tea, that's just two different ways of cooling off. It's all a matter of personal taste. And when you're tolerant of the other fellow's choice, you can be sure of "meeting" with friendliness.

F.F.A. INSTALLS NINE NEW MEMBERS

The Pinckney High chapter of Future Teachers of America initiated nine new members on Monday afternoon.

Officers in charge of the ceremonies were: Paul Howell, president; Richard Line, vice-president; Stella Turner, secretary; Rachael Nash, treasurer; Bruce Henry, historian; and Jack Young, program chairman.

New members are: Pamela Hoeft, Barbara Singer, Karen Wright, Charlene Wilton, Caroline Nichols, Anita Clark, James DeWolf, Missy Rowden, and William Dean.

Following the ceremony, punch and cookies were served by Claudia Douglas and Rachel Nash.

NOTES FROM COACH READER:

Pinckney Pirates met their first defeat of the season last Tuesday evening at Webberville. Coach Reader says "The only trouble with our team was the inability to make the required percentage of their shots."

He stated that a team should make 30% of their shots, but the Pirates made only 18%. "Fifty per cent of the free throws," he stated "should be made." The Pirates accounted for only 27%.

MR. QUIGLEY SAYS:

"I had the opportunity last Wednesday evening to take Mrs. Dinkel and three of the eighteen members of the Future Nurses' Club to the Howell high school. The meeting was entitled "Career Night," and it provided an opportunity for any girl interested in nursing to have her many questions answered by qualified people.

The speakers were from the Wayne State University.

There are probably at least 30 girls in the Pinckney High School who are presently interested in some phase of nursing. Because of my contact with these girls in my biology and physiology classes, I feel that 30 is a conservative number. In fact, I know of five young graduating girls who have the white cap uniform in their future plans for next fall. However, not even these girls were represented.

If we expect qualified people to offer these excellent programs for our students benefit, then we must support and take advantage of them.

Tell me, is ten per cent or less from P.H.S. showing little support or no support?"

The biology classes are in the process of making units on conservation. Each person has a different unit, soil erosion, forest, birds, etc.

Mr. Quigley

PINCKNEY DISPATCH
Wednesday, December 7, 1960

The State Police were at the Pinckney High School November 1st, to inspect all of the Pinckney school buses. Except for a few minor repairs, which are being taken care of, the buses were reported to be in excellent condition.

Mr. Reader

The student body wishes to thank the Pinckney Kiwanis Club for their generous gift of $100. The money will go toward the Band Uniform Fund.

THE INSIDER'S NEWS-LETTER" (Cowles Magazines, Inc.) TELLS US:

The Latin - American situation is more threatening than Washington admits. Diplomatic insiders report that the Soviets consider the Castro government so thoroughly controlled that the Cubans can now be abandoned as far as economic aid is concerned, and a new stage of the troublemaking can be started:

Caribbean experts consider it clear now that the Russian's plan is to stir up as much trouble as possible for governments friendly to the U.S. If revolutions succeed, the Soviets will try to pick up the pieces. Otherwise, they'll pull out before things get too hot. General strikes in Argentina and Chile, plus simultaneous outbreaks in Costa Rica and Guatemala, are symptoms. What the Russians would like most is to scare off Yankee investment.

Experts warn that companies already invested in the area must expect continued harassment.

KENNEDY PLANS:

You can expect Kennedy to clean out—but drastically—the U.S. Information Agency and Foreign Service. Outline for reorganization has been received overseas, and the scope shocks even Kennedy supporters. The Kennedy program is based on assumptions that the agencies are loaded with chuckleheads and that "The Ugly American" is a fact. Kennedy wants him replaced with the "Dynamic American."

WHERE IS THY STING?

A serious problem facing the U.N. force in the Congo is the use of poison darts by native tribes. Local witch doctors seem to be expert at concocting antidote-defying brews from such things as toads, crocodiles liver and fish gonads, and have stumped a team of toxicologists flown in to deal with the problem. The only advice they've been able to give the troops is to tear out the dart as soon as possible—five seconds is the margin of safety.

DEBATE: MRS. SWARTHOUT'S HISTORY CLASS

On Friday, December 2nd, during fourth hour study hall.

Mrs. Swarthout's American History class held a debate on the school integration. The participants for the affirmative were Pat Smith, and Judy DeWolf. Speaking for those opposed to integration were Karen Singer and Bob Williams. Carol Pierzinski was the general chairman.

The first speech came from the affirmative side. In it Jerry DeWolf gave his opinion on how integration could be accomplished through the step plan. That is, integrating the first grade every year over a period of twelve years. He feels that this would cause complete integration of both elementary and high schools. He also spoke about how the children are educated in the South and stated that Negro teachers receive a salary of $333 less, a month, than that of the white teachers.

Speaking for the affirmative was Bob Williams, who stressed points about poor health, education, and housing. Because the Negroes do not have proper facilities, they are unable to compete with the better equipped whites. Karen Singer said that the one reason that the white schools should not be integrated is because eventually the races would intermarry, and produce a mixed race of children.

The rebuttal was conducted in an orderly manner. After the rebuttal the students listening to the debate were allowed to ask questions.

After the debate and questioning was accomplished, Bob Williams directed questions on the subject of integration to Mr. Reader. This was done in perfect timing, because after Mr. Reader had answered the last question the bell rang for the students to be dismissed.

A "thank you" is due to Mr. Gibson, who assisted in planning the debate.

Postmaster Urges Early Mailing For Christmas

Mailing deadlines and other recommendations for the early and safe delivery of your Christmas parcels and cards have been announced by local postmaster Lawrence Baughn.

He recommends December 15 as the deadline for local parcels and December 20 for cards and letters.

Christmas cards going to Canada and Mexico, whether sealed or unsealed require 4-cent postage.

Unsealed domestic Christmas cards, bearing no message can be sent for 3 cents and sealed cards or cards with written messages takes the first class rate of four cents.

Cards should be faced one-way, tied in bundles and marked "local" or "out-of-town" with the tags provided by the post office and mail carrier for this purpose. Parcels containing perishables should be labeled and should be sent special delivery.

Following these simple rules will help your post office to help you.
