The Reverend Samuel Noble

Oliver D.D., Interim Superintendent of the Michigan Congregational Conference will be the principal speaker.

The presentation of the keys will be made by Claude Swarthout, contractor, and will be accepted by E. Lee Goucher, architect. The keys in turn will be given to Charles Ward, Chairman of the Board of Trustees.

The act of dedication will follow a brief message from the church pastor, Reverend J. W. Winger.

The choir will present the anthem "Praise Ye The Name of the Lord."

Fire Destroys Portage Lake Home Saturday

Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the home of the Orin Marlow family at Swarthout's cove Saturday afternoon. Located on Kennedy Drive at Portage Lake, the house was in flames when the fire was first noticed by Ralph Curts and an Ann Arbor couple who were working on a new home nearby. The Pinckney Fire department was called at about 3:30 and worked for nearly three hours to bring the flames under control. One wing of the house, a new addition was saved at that time although the interior was completely ruined by smoke and water.

At 6:30 in the evening fire broke out again, in the ruins, and again the fire department worked several hours, this time to save the L.J. Swarthout cottage next door. This home, vacant for the winter, was slightly scorched by flames in the second outbreak of the fire.

The Marlow family lost all its possessions including clothing, furniture and papers and records. No one was home at the time the fire was discovered. Mr. and Mrs. Marlow and son, Steve, were in Dexter where they had gone to the laundromat. Sandy, a daughter was away visiting, and their oldest daughter, Sue, was at work in Ann Arbor.

Mr. Marlow stated Monday morning that the loss was partially covered by insurance. The Marlows are staying with friends and relatives for the time being.

HOSPITAL AUXILIARY MEETS TONIGHT

The regular meeting of the McPherson Community Health Center Auxiliary will be held in the hospital auditorium at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, February 15th.

The speaker of the evening will be the hospital administrator James H. Sullivan. The topic will be information on the Blue Cross Public Hearing. Members of the Auxiliary feel that this would be a subject of great interest to the auxiliary and the public at large because of the current request for a rate hike by Michigan Blue Cross.

The Auxiliary extends a cordial invitation to the public to attend this meeting.

Pirates Gain Cage Victory

The P.H.S. Pirates have tasted their first victory of the basketball season. They ended the long losing streak Thursday night by defeating Roosevelt of Ypsilanti, 63-62, in a thrilling last seconds-of-the-game scoring.

They had trailed the Rough Riders through the entire game until Tom Ritter, Pinckney's high-point man shot the winning basket with just a little more than a minute to play. The Pirate cagers then held the opponents in check until the final whistle.

Tom's total for this game was 26 points. Ed Guy and Jim Geary each scored 14 points.

This victory was the Pirate's first in 12 games and the Rough Riders 8th loss in 9 games.

The little Rough Riders won the junior varsity game, 24-21.

Two days before their game with Roosevelt the Pirates lost a game, 85-60, to the Washtenaw Conference leaders, the Saline Hornets. In that contest Tom Ritter had scored 24 points and Ed Guy led with 25 points. In preliminary play that night the little Pirates lost to the little Hornets, 36-24.

This week, Friday, the Pirates will be hosts to Chelsea at 6:45 p.m.

According to a report received from County chairman Robert Kennedy of Howell, on Monday afternoon, the Pinckney area drivers for the March of Dimes netted $707.90.

The efforts of the Teen-agers, the proceeds from the bowling for the March of Dimes contests, the bake sale, individual contributions and two dances at Jerry's soda bar and the Mother's March in the village resulted in the final total announced Monday.

HEARING SCREENING COMPLETED AT SCHOOLS

The 1960-61 Hearing Screening of school children in the county was recently completed. Conducted with the cooperation of the schools, the Livingston County Health Department and the Michigan Department of Health, the program tested the hearing of 3328 students in the six schools which had the program this year.

In the Pinckney elementary grade 826 youngsters were checked; of these 66 were re-tested; 46 audiograms were submitted to the State Health Dept. and 34 children were later seen by a doctor at a clinic held at Pilgrim Hall. A number of children who were invited to the clinic did not keep their appointments for some reason or other. The parents of these children are urged to have them checked by the family physician. The most important part of this hearing test program is the following through with the recommendations. Hearing defects require treatment without delay.

LICENSE APPEAL BOARDS REVIEW 1,706 CASES
 Michigan's unique License Appeal Boards listened to the pleas of twice as many "grounded" drivers in January as they did a year ago.
 According to James M. Hare, Secretary of State, 1,706 conviction-prone drivers petitioned the three-man review boards to set aside or modify the order suspending or revoking their driving privilege.
Right to Appeal
 Michigan is the only state which gives drivers, who have exceeded their statutory "quota" for traffic convictions, a second chance to appeal their case through this board of review. It is part of Michigan's "firm but fair" procedure for keeping violation-prone motorists off of the highways.

 "The L.A.B." Hare said, "has the power and authority to affirm, modify, or set aside any determination made by departmental driver examiners who suspend or revoke operator's or chauffeur's license."

MICHIGAN BELL'S TAX PAYMENT LARGEST EVER
 Michigan Bell Telephone Company announced its payment to the state primary school fund in 1960 was the largest single state property tax payment in the company's history.
 Amounting to a record of $14,857,665, an increase of nearly a million dollars over 1959, the payment again placed Michigan Bell as the top contributor to the field.
 Russell H. Engelhardt, manager here for the company, reported that $10,128 of the total tax payment was allocated to the public school system of Pinckney. This is an increase of $401 over last year.

 All Michigan State Police officers are attending one day in-service training schools throughout the state which began February 7 and will extend through March 16.
 Topics include a lecture on communism, the department's tracking dog program, and pre-polygraph interrogation.

 The tax payment amounted to $6.99 for each of the 2,124,139 students in the state between the ages of 5 and 19 who were on the census rolls for the 1959-60 school year.

O.E.S. Friendship Night Held Saturday With 200 Attending

TOP: James Moran, Mrs. Harriet Rahrig, Worthy Matron, in Hawaiian costume and John Rahrig, Worthy Patron, look on happily as "Natives of the Island" parade at the O. E. S. Chapter's salute to Hawaii program on Friendship Night here last Friday. LOWER: Lead dancer, Geo. Van Norman sways out of the picture as Geo. Engquist, James Boyd and Gil Skinner, his Hula Queen partners dance along.

More than 200 members of the Pinckney Chapter of the O.E.S. and their guests attended the local chapter's annual Friendship Night at the Masonic hall here Saturday night. Hawaii was the theme of the program as the group saluted the 50th State of the Union in words and music.

At least ninety of the guests wore gay, colorful muumuus, the shapeless but flattering native dress of the women of the island. Many of the gowns were authentic, having been ordered or received as gifts from Hawaii.

Appearing on the program were the "Three Coconuts," namely Mrs. Oscar Beck playing the guitar, Mrs. Merwin

Campbell at the piano and Mrs. Virginia Van Norman who serenaded the guests with Hawaiian tunes. A surprise and a great delight to the audience was the appearance of the four Hula Island Queens. Their dances literally 'brought down the house' and demands rang out for encores. The famed dancers were in fabulous disguise, George Van Norman, George Engquist, James Boyd and Gilbert Skinner. The finale of the program included everyone in costume parading in the "Parade of the Natives."

Guests at this annual event were from chapters throughout the county, as well as from Washtenaw county.

Early Leaders Set Citizen-Soldier Standards for Duty in Peace or War

George Washington, at the age of 22, commanded a Virginia Militia regiment in the French and Indian Wars. Even as a young man, Washington believed in a principle which he later in life expressed in these words: "Every citizen who enjoys the protection of a free government owes not only a portion of his property but even of his personal services to the defense of it." Today, George Washington's Birthday is also widely observed as "National Guard Muster Day." On "Muster Day" the National Guard salutes the memory of the first President militiaman in the "civilian-soldier" tradition.

he said, "I return these colors to the National Guard. I hope they will use them to train young men in the interests of peace and in the welfare of the country."

"And," added the onetime captain of artillery of the Missouri National Guard, "I am sure they will do just that."

Called up in the "partial mobilization" of the Guard for Korea: Approximately one-third of the Army National Guard, about 85% of the Air Guard.

California's 40th Division and Oklahoma's 45th Division were soon on the battle line in Korea. From Arkansas and Texas the 136th Fighter-Bomber Wing was early into the fight. It was not until February 1956, two and a half years after the Armistice that the last National Guard unit called in the emergency was released to State control.

During 1960 both Army and Air National Guard units took part in important training exercises conducted by the active forces. For the Air Guard there was "Operation Bright Star/Pine Cone III," an important tactical air support test. The Tactical Air Force employed was commanded by a New Jersey Air Guardsman, Brigadier General Donald J. Strait. Another major accomplishment was the airlift of a complete Utah Army National Guard Artillery battalion from Hill Air Force Base (Ogden) to Puerto Rico, 3,500 miles. This was in "Operation Big Slam/Puerto Pine," and marked the first airlift of an Army National Guard battalion-size force over a great distance in an Active Army maneuver. The exercise was a 100% success and prompted a Utah newspaperman to write, "We can no longer think of the National Guard as a Monday night sanctuary

Sam Houston is remembered chiefly as the architect of Texas Independence. Less known is that following War of 1812 service under General Andrew Jackson he became the Adjutant General of Tennessee. He was Tennessee's No. 1 soldier from 1818 until 1823 when he entered the United States Congress.

In the Mexican War a cry rang out above the din of battle on a fateful day at Buena Vista, "Stand Fast, Mississippians!" This was the beginning of the legend of the famed Mississippi Rifles whose commander was — Colonel Jeff Davis.

Pitted against each other under the grim sky at Antietam on September 17, 1862, were the 69th New York and the 4th Alabama. It was a fitting symbol of the Nation re-united when these two regiments, redesignated the 165th Infantry (New York) and 167th Infantry (Alabama) fought shoulder-to-shoulder in France during World War I, with the famed 42nd Rainbow Division. "We are young men of promising pasts, but durned uncertain futures," a young soldier wrote in Ohio Rainbow Review. By the time the Armistice brought WWI to a close the Rainbow Division was among those rated as toughest by the German High Command. Six of the eight "toughest" were National Guard divisions.

The 1940-41 mobilization of the Guard immediately doubled the size of the Army. Nearly 80,000 Guardsmen were commissioned officers by the time they left active service. Twenty WWII Guardsmen earned the nation's highest award for valor, the Medal of Honor.

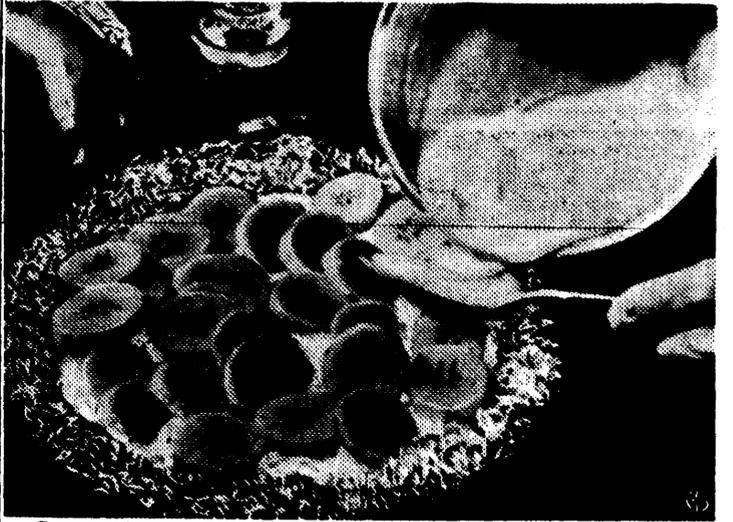

The first Guardsmen to see action in World War II were tankers and coast artillerymen who fought valiantly in the fall of the Philippines. Artillerymen from Texas were diverted to the Dutch East Indies where many volunteered for duty as B-17 gunners in the early, grim days of "too little, too late."

Nine National Guard Divisions saw service in the Pacific and nine went to the ETO. The only U. S. WWII division with a name instead of a number was the "Americal" (for Americans in New Caledonia). The hard core of this division, which saved Henderson Field on Guadalcanal, were National Guard regiments from North Dakota, Massachusetts, and Illinois.

In looking back at 34 campaigns, seven assault landings in WWII, Secretary of War Robert P. Patterson remarked, "The soldiers of the National Guard fought in every action in which the Army participated from Bataan to Okinawa. They made a brilliant record on every fighting front. They proved once more the value of the trained citizen-soldier."

From 44 federally-recognized individuals enrolled in the National Guard in June, 1946, the membership swelled to 369,489 (including 44,728 in the Air National Guard) at the time of the outbreak of hostilities in Korea, four years later.

EASY CREAM PIE

Cream pies, those culinary works of art that formerly required years of experience to make, have become favorite desserts for beginner cooks to prepare. By using a pudding and pie filling mix and simplified recipes such as this for Banana Delight Coconut Pie, the most inexperienced cook can produce a beautiful, tasteful cream pie, and it is literally a matter of minutes until it is ready to serve.

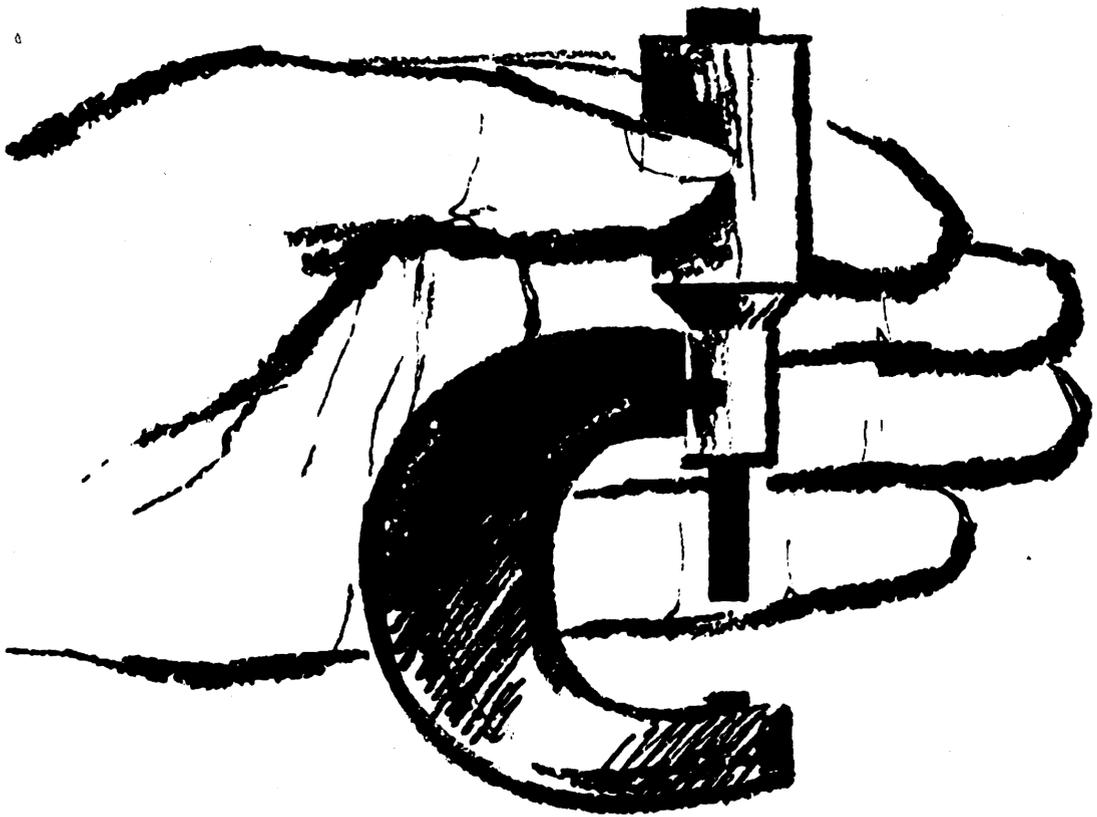

Banana Delight Coconut Pie

- 1 package Jell-O Vanilla Pudding and Pie Filling
- 2 cups milk
- 1 baked 8-inch Quick Coconut Crust
- 1 cup sliced bananas (2 bananas)
- Cinnamon
- ½ cup whipping cream
- 1 teaspoon sugar

Prepare pie filling mix according to directions on package, cooling once or twice.

Pour half of pie filling into coconut crust. Cover with layer of sliced bananas. Add remaining pie filling. Sprinkle with cinnamon. Chill. Just before serving, whip cream, sweeten with sugar, and spread over top of pie.

Quick Coconut Crust: Combine ¼ cup melted butter and 2 cups Baker's Angel Flake Coconut. Press evenly into an ungreased 8-inch pie pan. Bake in slow oven (300° F.) for 30 to 35 minutes, or until golden brown. Cool.

Michigan's 1961 tree planting season is quite a few wintry weeks away, but now is the time for private landowners to order stock if they want to be ready when spring arrives, the Conservation Department announces.

More than 8,000,000 young trees are now on sale by the Department's forestry division to help landowners check soil erosion, protect crops, and build up their forest plantings for future wood production.

In the offering at approximate costs of production and packing are white pine and red pine seedlings and transplants, jack pine seedlings, white spruce transplants, and Austrian pine.

"Neither Snow, Nor Rain..."

Herodotus, the Greek historian, said it in the 5th century, B.C., and you'll find it today inscribed on the main post office in New York City: "Neither snow, nor rain, nor heat, nor gloom of night stays these couriers from the swift completion of their appointed rounds." With the Christmas rush not far behind us, it's a good time to pay tribute to those who, day in, day out, in fair weather or foul, see that the mail gets through. Your postman deserves a pat on the back, but he'll settle for a smile . . . Incidentally, the motor truck plays a vital part in the distribution of the mail, serving the length and breadth of Michigan, from the most densely populated cities to the most remote rural areas.

When Depositing Your Funds
Be Sure You Know THE DIFFERENCE

Some Savings and Loan Associations look like banks, but:

Only a bank accepts deposits.

Savings and Loan Associations accept investment in shares.

Only as a bank depositor are you a creditor.

Savings and Loan Association members are shareholders.

Only from a bank can you receive 3% interest (the highest rate permitted by law) as a guaranteed return on your savings.

Savings and Loan Associations can only offer a dividend rate which may be paid if earned.

Only from a bank are you guaranteed availability of your money upon request without extended delay.

Applications for repurchase of Savings and Loan Association shares may be deferred for thirty days at the end of which a "take your turn" plan may be put into effect.

Only a bank invests a large percentage of depositors funds in cash and negotiable securities so that depositors demands can be met without extended delay.

Savings and Loan Associations loan out nearly all funds in long term mortgages and thus cannot guarantee to pay on demand.

Only banks are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation which is obligated to make depositors funds available promptly.

The Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation is not obligated to pay as long as an Association applies a stipulated percentage of its receipts to repurchase of shares in numerical order.

Only a bank can offer complete financial services under one roof.

Savings and Loan Associations can serve but a very few of your financial needs.

Compare the facts, the differences and the services available before you place your account.

NOTES FROM THE— ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

SEVENTH GRADE

Mrs. Carr

The seventh grade class would like to welcome Mr. Benham as eighth grade teacher.

We are beginning to see the light as far as percentage is concerned but active and passive verbs are still puzzling us.

We are working hard getting ready for the Spelling Bee.

SIXTH GRADE

Mrs. Tasch

Last week we decided to have a reading contest. We wanted to know who were our best oral readers. This is in the order of when they won: Melba Daniels, Linda Wegener, and Doug Winger. We also had a poem reading contest and Frank Zzulka was outstanding.

So far there have been quite a few spelling bee winners. They are Patsy Pendergrass, Linda Wegener, Nancy Bond, Kenny Fischer, Melba Daniels, Joe Plummer, and Jim Kourt.

FIFTH GRADE

Mrs. Campbell

February was our month for arranging a display on the West Wing bulletin board. We have a calendar in the center with red ribbons running from the important dates to silhouette pictures illustrating those days. We are real proud of it.

We planned our Valentine Party yesterday. Gary Burg, Breeta Brash, David Jones, and Shirley Horman are on the decorating committee. David Zzulka and Jackie Reason are to decorate a big box for our room's valentines. Janice Gyde, Sherry Kaiser and Kim Talbot are planning some games for us to play. The clean-up squad will be Jackie Makin and Harry Beckler, assisted by our regular basket boys, James Bennett and Ronald Hollister.

We have finished taking our standard achievement tests. We all did real well. Seventeen members of our class had all their grades as high as fourth or higher. Our best test results were in Language and Reading.

We have had fun doing science experiments. Several people were responsible for individual experiments and reports. Allen Russom and Gary Burg brought their transformers, wired to a telegraph key they had made. Using Morse Code, they tapped messages for us.

SECOND GRADE

Mrs. Johnson

Jerry Van Blaircum fell and sprained his thumb.

We had a good time when we visited Mrs. Anderson's room last Wednesday. The children exchanged experiences—Mrs. Anderson's children reported on dinosaurs and showed us models of the various types they had made of clay.

We told about the Great Plains we had studied. We invited them to see our display of cows grazing, cowboys riding and Indians making silver jewelry.

We had our pet show and parade. Brenda's hound dog was voted "Grand Champion."

EIGHTH GRADE

Mrs. Meyers

Our cup-cake sale held last Wednesday was a success. We made about $28.00.

We welcome Terri Jernigan from Ypsilanti into our room.

Our bulletin board for February is very impressive and educational. Kathie Shetteroe and Pam Seefeld were the originators and artists.

Our seed selling project netted us about $27.00. Gary Henry earned the Salesman Sam title, selling the most seeds.

FIFTH GRADE

Mrs. Miller

The ten finalists in the Spelling Bee were: Nancy Fadenrecht, Wess Scott, Scott Carver, John Pfaff, Charles Chambers, Susan Baughn, Peny Reynolds, Sam Singer, Roddy Widmayer and Bob Wylie winner.

We are putting up our summaries and outlines for our individual states on our bulletin boards.

Dick Wales left us for Chicago where he will write to us when he gets there.

We signed a card for Mrs. Heaton for her birthday on Sunday.

Our arithmetic workbook has us doing extra hard long division but we really like it.

Mr. Gerry Reason, our FTA student teacher is helping us in arithmetic. We enjoy it.

FIRST GRADE

Mrs. Rooke

We have been busy making valentines. We can read many words now. We made pictures of Abraham Lincoln and his log-cabin. His birthday is this month. We made Valentine boxes for our party. Two girls in our room had birthday parties. We wrote thank you letters. The party was fun.

FOURTH GRADE

We are making plans for our Valentine party. Everyone is going to decorate his own box or sack.

Gary Marsh, Daylene Lelonek and Jan Crittenden made the best February calendar. They made us a big one for the bulletin board.

We enjoyed hearing and learning from the multiplication records.

We choose new room helpers. Lee Davis was chosen to be messenger—that is the job everyone wants.

SECOND GRADE

Stevie steps on Kathy Laszlo kittens foot so now the kitten has to stay in the barn.

Cathy Johnson's kitten tears things up.

Dick and Tony had a fight. They are Tom Kaiser's dogs.

Linda Reasons' brother has a brace on his leg.

Susan Riggs had to take her grandmother to the hospital.

Ricky Nosker's little brother was on skis when a car almost hit him.

The room is going to have a Valentine party.

Tara Tolbert's father went to California and saw an Indian. He brought back some cocoanuts.

THIRD GRADE

Mrs. Darrow

Janice Fadenrecht and Margaret Wollenhaupt celebrated their ninth birthday last week.

Janice brought each of us a cupcake. They were very good. Thanks, Janice.

Our Valentines party is on Tuesday. We voted to have pop and potato chips to eat at our party. Also we are making individual Valentine boxes.

We enjoyed taking our Achievement tests but we thought they were very difficult.

Dick Davis and Tim Stauffer made a chart listing the animal whose hides and skins are used for leather.

This week in arithmetic we are taking a daily test of 12 problems. We made graphs and are recording our score daily. Most of us improved each day.

We wrote the story of silk this week in Social Studies. Those who had trouble writing the story, wrote a story together.

SEVENTH GRADE

Mrs. Erhard

Yesterday we prepared for Valentine's Day. We made placemats and cards.

We had a class meeting and planned our party. We are to bring what we want for ourselves.

We will all bring Valentines.

At our classmeeting we decided that for Valentine's Day we would have a contest based on "Who tries hardest." We took a vote and Paul Cavin won. He will be awarded something he wants. We hope to give him this award on Valentine's Day but if it is now ready by then he will receive it a few days late.

We have been working on big numbers and have decided we need much more help, and find arithmetic our weakness.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT — SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

The Seniors have been reading the novel "Return of the Native" by Thomas Hardy. The Juniors are making a study of early American literature. The sophomores have begun "Julius Caesar."

Shirley Mitchell's descriptive sketch was chosen for publication in the Dispatch this week.

MY FRONT YARD

I think my front yard, in the summer, is the most beautiful sight around. Often I sit under the protecting mulberry tree, just studying the view about me. I absorb the fragrance of the stately pines that tower above me as I watch the squirrels scampering and playing in the trees. I love to sit and listen to the rustling of the cornstalks in the field across from me.

A very common scene is one I hold dear; it is the one I view each time the dog chases my brother up the long, winding drive. Hearing the bark and the laugh of them, mingled with the smell of the fresh green grass makes me feel warm inside.

I am happy, to, when I lie under the trees. The sharp needles of the pine and the soft grass beneath give me a secure, cozy feeling. All the while I listen, and watch, and drink in the beautiful sight before me. The sweet mulberries that I am eating refresh me more than any man-made food to be found.

Mother Nature certainly gave me a wonderful gift; herself.
Shirley Mitchell, Grade 9

JEST FOR FUN

Lincoln was asked how long a man's legs ought to be to give him the most service. He answered: "Long enough to reach the ground."

Thursday and Friday were busy days for the seniors. This business of having one's picture taken is a serious matter: Miss Harris had hers taken too. She said she was glad it didn't take long. Mr. Reader had to wait so long that he was afraid his hair would be all grown out again.

VISUAL AIDS CLUB

At our Monday meeting we decided to list all Visual Aids machines and give the teachers a list so that they will know what we have for their use.

We accepted one new member, Fred Lindsey. Four will receive their Visual Aids Instruction and Operation Certificates at the next assembly. Tom Read will issue a bulletin every Monday on available educational T.V. programs.

John Biery was elected the new president because of the absence of Gayle Perkins, our past president.

Charles Root has been chosen as chief engineer to negotiate for all repairs of visual aid machines.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

The meeting was called to order by the president, Nancy Read.

Since the secretary, Kitty Williams, was absent, the minutes were not read.

Dorothy Clark, treasurer, gave her report.

The girls decided not to continue the cupcake sale.

The next item on the agenda was to pick two delegates to attend the state meeting of the F.H.A. in Grand Rapids.

It was decided that Grace

Poulson should attend, because she is the oldest member of the club and then Kathy Gustafson was chosen.

The meeting will be on the 5th, 6th and 7th of April. The girls will attend with Miss Fillmore.

Dorothy Clark moved the meeting be adjourned, and Barb Hines seconded it.

Motion carried, meeting adjourned.

FUTURE TEACHERS

The F.T.A. saw an interesting movie from the Michigan Education Association entitled "Freedom to Learn."

In their business meeting, the members were asked to remember to bring candy for Friday candy sales.

Paul Howell was asked to find a candidate to present for a state officer to be elected at the spring conference. Paul, editor of the Michigan F.T.A. Newsletter, is on the state board which will choose names to be placed on the ballot.

Jack Young was elected president of our Pinckney Club for the next year.

FUTURE NURSES' MEET

The Future Nurses held a meeting on Monday, February 7, 1961. The meeting was called to order by the President, Becky Morris. The minutes were read and approved by the secretary, Scharme Baxter. Old business was concerned with how much money we made by ushering at the school's two plays this past January. It came to a total of $11.57. The money will be added to our bank account.

We discussed selling stationery as another means of obtaining money. Nothing definite was decided. Also discussed was where we would go on our field trip. Both of these items will be voted on at our next meeting.

The meeting was adjourned by Becky Morris and seconded by Scharme Baxter.

STUDENT COUNCIL MINUTES

The meeting was called to order on February 8, 1961, by our president, Karl Burg.

The roll was called; Kay Wylie was absent.

The minutes were read and approved.

The treasurer's report was given. The chairman of the Valentine Dance, Carol Miller, gave a report.

Karen Eichman read the minutes of the last W.S.C.S. meeting. (Pinckney students didn't attend because of exams).

The Council decided to look into having the March meeting of the W.S.C.S. Karl Burg, Carol Miller, Paul Howell, Shirley Mitchell, Karen Eichman and Gary Hull are on the committee formed to prepare for this meeting.

Karen Eichman and Nancy

Read are to have the revised constitution typed out by Friday.

It was suggested that the Council have a school store, but this idea was dropped, due to lack of interest.

Carol Miller, Gary Lee and Nancy Read are going to sell school pennants at the University High and Chelsea games. The price will be 35c each.

The next meeting will be held February 15, 6th hour.

At this meeting Mr. McCloskey will act as chairman.

LIBRARY CLUB

We use our club meeting time to plan our school paper, to assign articles, and to appoint students to sell the papers.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

Once again the Freshmen went down to defeat as they fought a hard battle with Dexter last Monday, February 6. Dexter outclassed Pinckney 48-39. Our Freshmen played their best game of the year, but still had to take a loss. As we said before, they were fighting all the way. Gary Hull was in a class all by himself when he showed great skill in scoring from the outside as he guided the Pirates with 20 points. This is the high score for the team this year. The Pirates will be trying to boost their record in wins next Monday when they meet the Brighton team in the P.H.S. gym.

THURSDAY NIGHT'S BASKETBALL GAME

Everyone who went to the game at Ypsi (Roosevelt) felt it worth their while. The boys played their best through both games.

When the Junior Varsity played, they led in the first two quarters on and off, and it looked as if they were going to win, but by a few lucky shots Roosevelt's J.V. won by a score of 24-21.

The Varsity game was not as close as the J.V.'s, as we trailed by about seven all the way through — but then we warmed up and soon we were ahead by one, and it would have been three as Terry Rowell made a great basket just as they called time! The fact still remains that for the last 17 seconds we kept them from scoring, and we won with a close score of 63-62.

GIRL'S BASKETBALL

Two girls' basketball games were held at Pinckney High on Tuesday, February 7.

The girls participating in the first game were: Cheryl Van Norman, Chiquita Amburgey, Sharon Courdway, Nancy Ritter, Gail Smith, Pauline Stapleton, Karen King, Florence Morofka, Judy Haines, Carol

Notes

Pietela, Elma Kay Shugg, Jane Stenke.

This was a freshman game. The score was 11-23, in favor of Saline.

The Varsity girls' game was also lost to the Saline girls. The girls in this game were: Joan Endres, Grace Poulson, Carol Pierzinski, Mary Kay Wetherbee, Mary Lee Aschenbrenner, Sherri Kaiser, Nancy Darrow, Karen Schenden, Irunine Tait, Becky Morris, Di Ann Hundley, Scharme Baxter, Juli Trumbell. The score in this game was 8-30, in favor of Saline.

WEED CONTROL CLINICS FOR CORN GROWERS

Corn growers of this area will have the opportunity to secure the latest information on modern methods of weed control at a clinic at Fowlerville in the 4-H Club building on Friday, February 24.

The clinic will start promptly at 1:30 P.M. and will cover modern practices and the economic benefits of pre-emergence weed control in corn. A color motion picture will show new production methods and results obtained.

Emphasis will be placed upon those methods which experiment station tests and commercial growers' experience have proved most effective in reducing costs of corn production. This is because increased corn yields with greater net return per bushel will be of prime importance in 1961.

ATTEND MEETING

Mrs. Stackable, Mrs. Kellenberger, and Mr. Dunn attended a meeting at the Union Building Wednesday evening, February 9. The meeting was under the auspices of the Child Guidance Clinic. Dr. Ralph Rabinovitch, Director of Hawthorne Center, Northville, gave the main address. He talked about retarded children, and the care needed and provided for them.

Dr. Rabinovitch made it clear that much research is needed before complete and satisfactory answers can be given to the problems of these children.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS

The Homemaking 3 class at Pinckney High School has been studying nutrition for the past three weeks. During the study of nutrition the girls decided that they would like to get two white rats and perform a nutritional experiment on them. Everyone was very enthusiastic about the whole thing.

Carolyn Cosgray volunteered to buy the rats for us over the weekend and bring them to school with her on Monday morning. Carolyn went ahead and bought them on Friday night. Much to her surprise, when she went down to look at them on Saturday morning, there were nine rats instead of the previous two. That is, mother and father and seven babies.

As it turns out the experiment will have to be delayed for a couple of weeks. The class is now planning to use the babies in the experiment. The girls will feed two of the rats a balanced diet, and two of them a diet of favorite teenage foods, such as potato chips, coke, and candy bars. They hope to find out what different effects the two diets will have on the growing bodies of the four little experimental rats.

LOCAL FAMILY ATTENDS FORUM

The Warner Miller family of 8310 Pingree Road, Pinckney, was in Adrian last week end where they attended a three-day Bible educational forum sponsored by Jehovah's Witnesses at the Senior High School.

They were among a group of 1742 who heard noted Witness speaker Nicholas Kovalak, Jr. answer the question, "Is God Interested in the Affairs of Men?" Mr. Kovalak is an advisor from the national headquarters organization of the Watchtower Bible Society.

Saturday evening's session was given to talks and demonstrations by local Michigan Witnesses on the theme "Directing Interest to Congregational Bible Studies."

Mr. Miller, who was one of the speakers commented on the growth of Jehovah's Witnesses throughout the world and attributed it to the local Bible education programs which are the same in every congregation.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

Probably there never was a time when more Michigan people were thinking and talking more about programs to create jobs than now. This includes both community and state levels. And probably there has never been a time when people of the state were as willing to work together in such programs.

Unemployment figures, business reports and recently the announcement that Norge will move its Muskegon Heights plant to Arkansas made it quite clear in everyone's mind that the economic climate in Michigan is in serious need of improvement—and now.

The Norge incident is dramatic evidence of a situation which has been in the news for many months. For a year the rumor had been rife that the plant would be moved. Community leaders and representatives of the state Economic Development Department worked hard; even desperately to hold electric refrigerator production here. But is became apparent that the new, one million square foot plant near Fort Smith, Ark. could easily produce both gas and electric models. On Feb. 1, it was announced that the somewhat antiquated plant in Muskegon Heights would be closed.

Arkansas' Gov. Orval Faubus incidentally, lost no time in claiming that the state's gain was largely the result of legislation adopted recently and designed to lure industry there. They have a law which permits municipalities to issue revenue bonds to build plants for industry. Greenwood, Ark., a suburb of Fort Smith, issued a $7.5 million bond issue to build the Norge plant.

Michigan leaders must now decide what programs this state will adopt to help its situation. The newly elected Governor, John B. Swainson, indicates that he will have several recommendations. One approach to receive serious consideration involves a way for the state to aid local groups financing construction of buildings for lease to industry. In the past this and similar programs have been considered too liberal by the Legislature. But other states, some of them with a reputation for being conservative, have adopted such programs. To many in this state, especially the hard working staff of the Economic Development Department, some new programs are weapons urgently needed for the fight to attract industry.

Conservative Maine has sort of industrial FHA plan. So does Rhode Island. The state guarantees up to 90 per cent of a loan made by a bank in co-operation with a community industrial development group to build a plant for lease to industry. In both states the plan seems to be working well. In Maine the plan was delayed a year while it went to a vote of the people and then to the supreme court. Attorneys say that in Michigan too, a constitutional amendment would be required and a supreme court test could be expected to follow. This would take important time.

Pennsylvania has advertised for several years that "100 per cent financing of industrial plants" is available. In fact, Pennsylvania has spent something more than half a billion dollars for this advertising alone. Five years ago the Pennsylvania legislature appropriated $5 million for plan construction loans. From year to year additional sums have been appropriated, to a present total of $18 million. For each plant construction project that qualifies the state loans a third of the cost, and a community industrial development corporation and a local bank divide the rest. Commitments from the state funds have reached more than $16,000,000.

One job was created, Pennsylvania estimates, for every $654 loaned by the state. Payrolls created are estimated at $82 million a year. A standard assumption would show one per cent of this payroll paid by the recipients in direct and indirect taxes to the state and its local units of government, which would mean a million dollars coming back in taxes each year on $16 million of loans.

Republican Governor Rockefeller recommended to New York legislators this winter a plan similar to the one in Pennsylvania.

"I am convinced," said Gov. Rockefeller in his opening message, "that this proposal can provide us with a more basic approach to the problems . . .

and with an important additional means of attracting private capital . . . Its efforts in surplus labor areas would be remedial—in other areas, preventive. Its financial assistance should be made available through non-profit local development corporations composed of leading citizens concerned with the economic growth of their communities."
