Orthopedic Clinic Planned For Livingston County

The Livingston County Health Department is cooperating with the Michigan Crippled Children's Commission in planning an orthopedic clinic to be held June 1 at the Walnut Street Methodist Church in Howell. This clinic is a part of the Commission's state-wide program of aid to physically handicapped children. Others cooperating are the Livingston County Chapter of the Michigan Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Howell School Nurse, Hartland School Nurse, and the local physicians.

Robert W. Bailey, M.D., will be the orthopedic surgeon examining the children. Clinic attendance is limited to orthopedic children from birth up to but not including 21 years of age. There is no charge for this evaluation. The family physician receives a copy of the clinic report giving findings and recommendations. Anyone desiring further information may contact Judith Hubbel, R.N., Public Health Nurse, at the Health Department at Howell 2325.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Higgs have announced the birth of a daughter, Kimberlee, at an Ann Arbor hospital on May 16.

Dr. and Mrs. James Nash of Coldwater announce the engagement of their daughter, Kay Ann, to Maurice J. Gowens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew D. Gowens of Highland Falls, New York. The bride-elect will graduate from the Bronson School of Nursing in Kalamazoo this fall. Her fiance is a student at Western Michigan University. No date has been set for the wedding.

She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Lynn Hendee of Pinckney.

Talent shows and musical entertainment of all kinds were enjoyed by the P.H.S. seniors on their recent boat trip to Niagara Falls. Above, Ron Bechler, contributes to a program while some of the 500 students and chaperones listen. The local seniors boated the boat in Detroit Wednesday and returned to Pinckney early Friday afternoon with their sponsors, Mr. Don Gibson and Mr. Quigley, who hosted a breakfast for the group immediately upon their return at Jerry's. Mrs. Quigley also accompanied the group on the trip.

Track Team Earns Share of League Crown

Pinckney's 'Trackless' track team earned a share in the Track Crown at Saline last Thursday night by defeating Dexter 80½ to 28½. Tied for first place are Pinckney, Chelsea, and Saline. The team showed its power by taking 10 first places, 7 seconds, and 6 thirds to score the largest team total of the Saline Conference meet. This win, being made in the absence of the Seniors who were on the Boat Trip, gives the boys an insight on next years squad. Jim Wicker, freshman, was a double winner in the 100 and 220 as well as running a leg of the 880 relay. Bob Beck took both hurdle races, 2nd in the pole vault and ran in 880 relay. Pinckney swept both the 100 with Tim Clark 2nd and John Holben 3rd, and Hi hurdles with Chas. DeWolf 2nd and Roy Carpenter 3rd. Pinckney's Mile Relay team: Roy Carpenter, John Colone, Roy Kinsey, Tom Ritter (Gerald Pike in absence of Ritter) has not been defeated at the Saline Conference meets. In the 880 sweep Gerald Pike running this race for the first time in a meet, took 1st, John Colone 2nd, and Roy Carpenter 3rd.

Bob Beck led the scoring for season with 54½ points. Jim Wicker 2nd with 52¾ points, followed by Tom Ritter with 43. Tim Clark tied with John Colone each placing 29¼. Ed Guy 27½ points. Each of the 24 man squad displayed a real interest in the sport this spring and evidence of their efforts have been shown by the record.

Tom Ritter was the captain of the 1960 squad, and on Monday the squad elected Bob Beck as next year's captain.

Governor Ferris has designated Friday, May 30, as Memorial Day and requests that this day be set aside for appropriate services in every church and school in the state whereby boys and girls may be encouraged to cherish an abiding love for our heroic dead and our heroic living.

Miss Mary Fitzsimmons closed a very successful school year at the Lakin district Friday. Ola Docking received a diploma for being neither absent or tardy during the nine months of school. Prizes were awarded to many for good marks, attendance, deportment and other accomplishments. Ice cream and candy were served to all.

Orville Nash and family were guests at the home of Earl Davenport in Whitmore Lake on Sunday.

Two carloads of men from here attended the cow sales in Howell Saturday.

Carl and Lester Bowen attend the funeral of a niece in Fowlerville on Thursday.

The Putnam and Hamburg Farmers' Clubs will meet Saturday, May 31, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hooker. Topic for the meeting will be "Improvements in Country Life" to be discussed by Mrs. George Van Horn and Mrs. Clyde Dunning.

The ladies of the Congregational church will sell homemade ice cream Saturday afternoon. Baked goods will be offered, too.

St. Mary's church here has been bequeathed approximately $5,000 by the late Mrs. M. Farley. There has been considerable talk that the money would be used to build a school although nothing definite has been announced.

How Valuable Is Local Newspaper Advertising To Local Business People?

American Bankers Magazine
Has To Say:*

"No business man or woman in any town should allow a newspaper to go to press without his or her name and business being mentioned somewhere in its columns. This does not mean you should have a whole, half, or even a quarter page advertisement in each issue of the paper, but your name and address should be mentioned, if you do not use more than several inches of space.

"A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell what business is represented in a town... it's the best possible town advertiser. The man or woman who does not advertise does an injustice to himself or herself and definitely to the town."

Homemaking Students Hold Oriental Dinner

The third year homemaking students held an oriental dinner last Tuesday after school, as a part of their study of foreign foods and customs. They prepared and served all the foods. Miss Fillmore went to Chinatown in Detroit to get the chopsticks and many of the products used in the food preparation.

The table was set on the floor. Placemats were used for each setting. Pillows were used to sit on. There was a floral centerpiece, and a Japanese lantern hung from the ceiling as a part of the decorations. The girls themselves were all dressed in oriental costumes. Everyone used chopsticks to eat the dinner.

The girls that took part in the dinner were Bonnie Brown, Barbara Cook, Carolyn Cosgray, Nancy Darrow, Claudia G. A. R. R., Pat Hollister, Sharon Hollister, Carol Piezinski, Grace Poulson, Kathy Reason, Karen Singer, Brenda Slayden and Julie Trumbull.

The menu consisted of egg rolls, butterfly shrimp, sweet and sour spareribs, chicken chow mein, beef chop suey, pork fried rice, pineapple chunks rolled in shredded coconut, fortune cookies and jasmine tea.

Miss Fillmore's mother, Mrs. Helen Fillmore came to the high school Wednesday to demonstrate the making of hors d'oeuvre and fancy tea sandwiches.

She gave the demonstration for the homemaking two and three classes. Mrs. Fillmore gave this same demonstration on TV over channel 56 while she was a member of the faculty of the Home Economics Department of Wayne State University.

Mrs. Merlin Amburgey, Mrs. Fred Sheldon and Mrs. Levi Ludtke attended the Mothers Tea and program given by the pupils at the Rickett School in Brighton last week. Ceramic candy dishes made by the handicraft class were given each mother as a gift.

Week end guests at the home of Mrs. Roger Carr were the Robert Carr family of Cleveland, Ohio. Sunday guests were the Leo Bettes family of Walled Lake and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Carr and Mollie.

DEADLINE FOR FILING SCHOOL BOARD PETITIONS

The deadline for the filing of nominating petitions for the annual school election is 4 p.m. tomorrow. Petitions signed by at least twenty-five electors must be filed with Joseph Basydlo, Secretary of the Board by that hour for the candidate to be on ballot.

Three candidates are said to be circulating petitions for the three vacancies to be filled. Mrs. John Towsley whose 4-year term expires is not seeking re-election; the four year term of Basydlo also expires this year, as does the two-year term of a trustee now being filled by John Walton who was appointed last winter to fill the unexpired term of C. C. Hollingsworth who resigned because he was leaving the state.

The local members of the Delta Kappa Gamma Sorority were hostesses to the County Chapter of Future Teachers of America at the elementary school Friday evening.

Thirty student teachers from Brighton, Pinckney, Fowlerville and Howell high schools were present. Dr. R. McGregor of Brighton showed films taken on his recent trip to Russia, illustrating a most interesting narration of his experiences. Three foreign students, living with Howell families, spoke to the group on the schools of their home lands, Holland, Mexico, and Germany.

Mrs. Irene Miller, sponsor of the Pinckney chapter of FTA, was chairman of the program. Mrs. Mildred Parks and Mrs. Dorothy Campbell were in charge of refreshments.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

Just North of Lansing's busy Mt. Hope avenue on the edge of the MSU campus spreads an attractive two-story building of brick and glass that shelters a varied and fascinating operation little known to most of the state's nearly eight million citizens.

Consumer protection is almost as much a part of the building as the concrete and steel. The structure is actually a collection of separate laboratories, each performing analysis and chemical determinations on different products bought by the people of the state.

The building is the Michigan Department of Agriculture's W. C. Geagley laboratory, named in honor of the man who was chief chemist until his retirement last year after 47½ years of service to the state.

Analyzed in this building last year were 3,010 food samples; 4,237 samples of dairy products of all kinds; 7,149 lots of seeds to determine their germination and purity; 211 tests of soft drinks and fruit juices. In addition there were 6,070 plant or tree specimens tested, and 1,515 analyses of feeds, fertilizers and liming materials. Some analyses take many hours to complete. Seeds take days and weeks.

It should be emphasized here that the vast majority of food processors in the state operate legally; keeping tract of the exceptions helps them too by reducing unfair competition. The consumer, of course, is the biggest benefactor.

By far the largest number of analyses were in the area of livestock disease control where 204,791 tests were run. These were mainly blood samples run for bovine brucellosis, a highly contagious disease of cattle which is transmissible to man under certain conditions in the form of undulant fever.

All in all some quarter of a million analyses were made in this important facility last year. These are chemical, biological or microscopic. One laboratory is devoted entirely to the analyses of alcoholic beverages for the State Liquor Control Commission.

Another dealing with a highly specialized branch of chemistry is devoted to analysis of saliva and urine collected at race tracks to determine if horses have been doped. This is done for and at the cost of the Michigan Racing Commission.

Services performed for the liquor and racing agencies of the state and at their expense may be important, but they are relatively minor functions. The main purpose of the laboratory is to protect consumers, whether they be purchasers of foods or buyers of such things as seeds, feeds, fertilizers, or spray materials used primarily in farming.

Many "interesting" things show up in the foods laboratory from samples picked up throughout the state by workers in the Michigan Department of Agriculture's foods and standards division. Violations are surprisingly few when one considers the millions of purchases of food in the state in a week. When adulteration, misbranding or illegal ingredients are detected, action from the Department follows promptly.

In the past coffee has been found to be adulterated with chickory or even roasted cereals.

Chemists have analyzed black pepper mixed generously with buckwheat flour to which capicum had been added to give the mixture a peppery taste.

Not infrequently egg noodles contain artificial color. This is illegal. The yellow color of egg noodles must come from egg solids and not artificial color.

Recently samples of bottled catsup were found to contain sand — and also insect eggs. Traced to the source, cases after case was seized and destroyed.

Seldom is the laboratory without samples of comminuted meat. This rather elaborate term for ground meat includes hamburger and sausage products as well. Michigan probably has the strictest sausage law in the world. Certain sausage ingredients acceptable in some states are illegal in Michigan.

In this state skeletal meats only may be used. This eliminates pork snouts, pork stomachs, beef lungs, beef spleens and pork skins as were plainly marked as ingredients on canned smoked sausage seized some time ago.

Frequently frankfurters are tested for adulterants such as soy bean flour which absorbs several times its weight in water, giving the purchaser less meat for her money. Another adulterant is sodium caseinate, which is derived from milk. It adds to the protein of sausage and its ability to absorb water.

Hamburg samples are usually sent in by Department inspectors for chemical preservatives determination or possible high fat content. Hamburg cannot contain more than 30 per cent fat. In the case of pork sausage, fat content cannot exceed 50 per cent.

During the warm periods of summer, food poisoning cases may occur as a result of certain foods not being properly refrigerated. This is particularly so of cream pies, custards, some salad dressings, and meats. In these instances, samples of the suspected food are rushed to the bacteriological section of this East Lansing laboratory to determine what toxins are present.

To the citizen interested in seeing how food and drink are analyzed to assure him of a wholesome product that is honestly labeled, or that innumerable other analytical tests are performed to protect his health and pocketbook, a trip through this State agricultural laboratory is a must, says Agricultural Director G. S. McIntyre.

"A HARD LESSON REVIEWED"

By

Paul L. Adams
State Attorney General

A year ago, in the season of roses, June graduates and commencement celebrations, I warned of diploma mill operators which drain school savings and exploit the wish of Michigan parents to educate their children.

One "civil service training" operation was halted by the Supreme Court, at my insistence and left the state.

Recently, my staff has received a series of complaints from persons being solicited in Michigan on behalf of unapproved "educational" and "training" courses offered by foreign corporations not authorized to do business in Michigan, by salesmen not licensed to solicit in this state.

These include civil service training for would-be state and federal jobholders, training courses for jet mechanics, practical nurses, and a variety of other "courses." (There are, of course, legitimate organizations teaching these subjects).

If you wish to avoid heart-break and financial disaster, I suggest you demand evidence of a license issued by the Superintendent of Public Instruction before signing or paying anything to a correspondence school salesman.

If approached by an unlicensed salesman, I will appreciate it if you will notify my office or your local prosecuting attorney at once.

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY OF McPHERSON HEALTH CENTER HOLD MEETING

The weather might have been rainy Tuesday, May 9th, but it could not dampen the spirit of the Women's Auxiliary of the McPherson Health Center or the guests at the Auxiliary membership tea held that day in the hospital auditorium from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m.

It is estimated that more than 100 women were personally greeted by Mrs. Glenn Haas of Fowlerville, chairman of the Auxiliary, and her hostesses.

A lovely table was tastefully arranged in the center of the hospital dining room at which two hostesses officiated at the double silver service. Mrs. Fred Rogers of Howell was responsible for the table arrangement. Auxiliary members provided a delightful selection of cookies and cakes, as well as mints and mixed nuts.

James Sullivan, the hospital administrator, and Mrs. Lynn Zimmerman, chairman of the Board of Trustees, conducted several groups of visitors through the hospital. It was especially interesting to tour the Health Center this particular week because of the fact that May 7th through 17th was being observed as Hospital Week and there were displays throughout the corridors explaining various functions, activities and facilities of the Health Center.

Mrs. Marion Russell, Mrs. John Rahrig, Mrs. Clifford Miller and Mrs. Herbert Bryan, all of Pinckney assisted as hostesses.

Hog prices are expected to decline seasonally into the fall and will average about $15 to $16 a hundred, say Michigan State University agricultural economists.
