County Board of Education Hires School Diagnostician

Continuing its efforts toward providing some help to the handicapped children in this area, the Livingston County Board of Education announces the hiring of Mr. Richard E. Daniels of 6555 Chilson Road to serve as School Diagnostician for the coming year. This psychological service provides a means by which children may be selected for eligibility in the educational program for the mentally handicapped.

The results of a survey conducted in the schools of Livingston County in January showed that over 800 pupils could benefit by some type of special education not now available in the regular classroom.

Realizing that it could not finance a program to meet the individual needs of all the handicapped pupils in the county without the financial assistance provided by extra-voted millage, the County Board of Education decided to attack the area of the mentally handicapped on the strength of its own budget and state aid for one year. Should this venture prove successful other areas of special education may be included if financial aid is made available.

It was the desire of the Board to have at least one Type "A" (educable mentally retarded) class in operation by the fall of 1961, but because of the lack of available classrooms in a regularly established elementary school, this was not possible.

On the recommendation of the Department of Public Instruction we are making every attempt to employ a Type "C" consultant to the Mentally Handicapped for this coming school year. This person would work with the mentally retarded child and his teacher in the regular classroom toward the development of a program to meet his individual needs.

Mr. Daniels holds a B. S. degree in psychology and an M.A. degree in counseling and guidance from Eastern Michigan University. In addition to working on his doctoral degree at Michigan State University, he is currently employed as an extern psychologist at Hawthorn Center Mental Hospital for Children at Northville, Mich. He has served as a classroom teacher and principal and comes from the Whitmore Lake Area Schools where he was supervisor of pupil personnel.

Mr. Daniels is married and has a family of four children. He will assume his new duties in the County School Office in September.

The Doyle Templetons of Keego Harbor were Sunday guests at the Albert Shirley home.

Cash prizes were awarded to the winners by Mel Reinhard, Recreation Program Director for Playland and the Hi-Land Lake area.

Local Square Dancers Earn More Badges

There are several residents in the village who are cuckoo—and they know it. What's more they are proudly wearing badges signifying the fact. Nine couples, members of the Village Squares, square dancing club, earned the coveted "Cook-oo" badge Saturday night by following a leader to a "mystery place" which turned out to be the University of Michigan's Fresh Air Camp at Patterson Lake where the Ann Arbor Callers Association was holding its annual convention or Square Dance Camp. Dancers receiving a "summons" to come to earn a badge must go clad in night attire if called at night, as was the case, on Saturday. And earn their cuckoo badges they did! Then while in the mood for dancing, the pajama-clad dancers went on to complete the nocturnal adventure by earning another "honor" the Aqua-nut Badge which is an award for dancing a set of dances in the lake. Patterson Lake was quite cool about 2 a. m. Sunday morning but the barefoot dancers didn't seem to mind—what with an aqua-nut honor to top off a cuckoo tag — well, do-si-do, and see you at the Square Dance next Saturday night.

Incidentally, classes for beginners are now organizing and will be ready to start instruction in September. Couples interested may call Marshall Meabon or Mrs. Robert Amburgey for information.

Will all people who have worked for, recruited for or contributed to any charity drive please let us know how you would feel about a Pinckney Community United Fund Drive. If enough people respond to this notice a meeting will be called. Please notify Mrs. Stanley Dinkel, UP 8-3131.

New Congregational Head To Move Here September 2

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM HAINSWORTH

Reverend and Mrs. William Hainsworth, presently of Dexter, will be moving into the parsonage on W. Unadilla st., here, on September 2. The Reverend Hainsworth, a retired minister, has accepted the pastorate of the Community Congregational church for the period of at least one year.

The genial, white-haired man, who last year retired as pastor of the Mayflower Congregational church in Lansing, has already endeared himself to the local congregation and to everyone who has met him since he agreed last June to fill the pulpit vacated by Reverend J. W. Winger, who resigned to move to Eldora, Iowa.

William Hainsworth, who described himself as an actor turned preacher, has played many memorable roles in his life time. He was born in 1889 in the hamlet of Burly-Wood-Head on the uplands of England's Yorkshire moors. He spent his boyhood and youth in the town of Doncaster. His first real job was as a junior bank clerk in England, a post he held for five years. Later came piano and elocution lessons in London's Guildhall School of Music. A desire to pursue a stage and music career was eventually overcome by the strong leaning toward the ministry. He began to study for the Wesleyan Methodist Ministry but ran into difficulty when he failed to pass a rigid physical examination required by the institution. He left England, migrating to Alberta, Canada, in 1913 to try his hand at farming — still clinging to the hope of becoming a minister.

Ere long he was appointed to a three-point Methodist charge in the Mesabi Iron range in Minnesota. He studied at Hamline University, St. Paul, Minn., until his funds were exhausted. At this stage his earlier stage training and ability came into use; he went to Chicago to become a professional entertainer at the piano in Chautauqua, lyceum, vauville and dramatic stock companies. He met his wife, Helen, in Chicago and they were married in 1920. Shortly afterward he turned to pulpit ministry in the Congregational denomination and held pastorates at Roberts, Ill., St. Louis, Mo., Muscatine, Iowa, and Grindley, Iowa.

An extensive lecture tour featuring a religious dramatic monolog brought him into demand as a speaker in 1934-35. He presented his "sermonology" before hundreds of college, service clubs and churches. Then followed churches in Wayland, Mich., Dexter, Webster and Lansing.

While in Dexter he served the Webster Congregational church and the Dexter Federated church for two years.

In 1946 and 1947 he received nation-wide prominence in two "roof-top" preaching tours.

Reverend Hainsworth has spent several years in attracting attention to the need for "more religion in everyday life." He appeals for "down-to-earth and up-to-Heaven religion."

Prior to his retirement in December of 1960, Rev. Hainsworth was pastor of the Mayflower Congregational church for ten years.

He was the principal subject of a farewell program based on the "This Is Your Life" format in Lansing on December 1, last year. On hand were many friends and dignitaries from the Michigan Congregational Council and more old friends from everywhere.

The Hainsworths are the parents of three grown children; a son, William, daughters, Vera and Ann.

CHANGING SCENE: This portion of Main street will be undergoing extensive remodeling and face-lifting by the time the picture reaches Dispatch readers. Beautiful new material will soon cover the fronts of the old Bell Telephone building which now houses (l. to r.) King's Barber Shop and Alta Mae's Beauty Shop, next the old Red and White store building formerly owned by Mrs. C. H. Kennedy, then the Pinckney General Store, all now owned by the proprietors of the General Store. A canopy is planned to extend over the sidewalk and wrought iron columns set in planters will give Main street a really new look.

Mrs. Michael Wiles (Karen McComber) of Howell was a Sunday visitor at the home of her parents, the Leslie McCombers. Mrs. Myrtle McComber of Superior, Wisconsin, is here for an extended visit with her son and daughter-in-law.

Notes of 48 Years Ago

John Dinkel raised a tomato in his garden that weighs exactly one pound.

The Miss Mae Kennedy and Joie Devereaux are spending a week with friends and relatives at Niagara Falls.

A number of East Putnam residents enjoyed a picnic at Reeves Pond (Hell) last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Casper Vollmer and Miss Lucy Harris were Sunday guests of the Stephen Scullys at Webster.

TWO OF WHAT FOR ONE OF WHAT
By Paul L. Adams
State Attorney General
Consumer organizations in several communities have alerted my office to current widespread publicizing of the "two for one plus 1c" marketing device. Some national advertisers in the home improvement field base their full marketing program on this device.

"Buy one," they tell their customers, "and for a single cent, we'll give you another."

Sounds pretty good, doesn't it?

But stop a moment and think before buying.

The federal government has recently taken legal action against certain enterprises using this sales pitch. They found that when the prices were compared and the sales scheme broken down to the solid basic facts, certain sellers were selling the first can for just about double the going market price for that particular commodity. On this basis, the customer was getting, not two for the price of one (plus one red cent), but instead the customer was paying the going market price, for two cans, plus one red cent, to boot.

It all depends on where you start figuring.

"Fictitious pricing," the experts call it.

Whatever you call it, it's no bargain.

I suggest you watch out for it.

If you really are getting two for the price of one, fine. Don't let me stop you. If not — let your budget be your guide.

Mrs. Carl Lentz and children of Lansing were Friday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ona Campbell. Linda Lentz remained to spend the week with her grand parents.

DETROIT—A new "medical corridor," approved by the Federal government as a $100,000,000 project, will soon link Wayne State University's two campuses.

The medical college buildings near the river front have hitherto been separated from the Cultural Campus by a crowded two-mile expanse of residential and retail structures. The new development will be concentrated upon this inter-campus area in which a number of Detroit's major hospitals already stand.

Before the U. S. Marines made their assault landing on Iwo Jima in February 1945, to wage one of their fiercest battles, the tiny island had been subject to 72 consecutive days of aerial bombardment.

SS. Hope Makes Milk From Sea Water

They are "farming the sea" on board the SS. Hope, an extension of Project Hope, a humanitarian People-to-People program. Currently operating in Indonesia where she is training local medical personnel and performing the everyday miracles of modern medicine, the SS. Hope has another, smaller miracle going for her: she is making milk from sea water.

The miracle of milk from the sea is made possible through the cooperation of the dairy industry which has donated the equipment in the Hope dairy.

Five decks within the hull of the SS. Hope lies a modern dairy plant. Here, anhydrous milk fats, non-fat dry milk solids and purified sea water are combined into pure sweet milk for the crew, medical personnel and patients of the Hope and the thousands of children who visit her daily. The entire operation is not as complicated as one might think.

First, thousands of gallons of sea water, with its high salt content, are pumped into huge evaporating tanks. Here, the salt is removed from the water which is then pumped into purifying vats.

From that point on, the water is combined with milk properties. Then it is pasteurized, homogenized, chilled and pumped into a milk packaging machine. This machine forms cartons out of half-pint blanks, sterilizes them and fills and chills them for delivery to appreciative children of Indonesia. The startling technique of making milk from sea water is the development of Foremost Dairies, Inc., in cooperation with The Ex-Cell-O Corporation. Foremost, one of the Big Three of American dairying, has a number of similar recombined dairy operations throughout the world.

In the past, these dairies have always had to be located near a source of fresh water. The development of the Hope dairy opens up new horizons for the everyday production of milk areas of the world where fresh water is in short supply or non-existent.

Shorty Made No "Bones" About It

Folks thought it was a big joke when Shorty Johnson came back from Center City with a new St. Bernard for his kids.

And the truth was, Shorty did look kind of funny. The pooch practically filled the whole back seat of Shorty's car, and, when he let it out, it stood darn near as high as Shorty did!

But Shorty didn't mind the ribbing. As he explained, "I know I look pretty silly with a dog like this. But when you've got eight kids like I do, and you get 'em a dog, you get one big enough so they can all play with it at once!"

From where I sit, folks should "size up" a situation before jumping to conclusions. For example, because Shorty likes coffee, I used to feel he'd disapproved when I'd have a glass of beer. But after I got to know him, I realized he was a tolerant man—one who'd never think of challenging his neighbor's right to his own opinions. This attitude is typical of most of the folks in our town—one of the things that makes them so "dog-gone" wonderful!

MICHIGAN MIRROR

"Equal Time" for political candidates on radio and television is a deceptively simple and dangerous concept.

In the fall campaign of 1960, the requirement that broadcast media give "equal time" to all candidates for a given office was suspended for the Presidential and Vice - Presidential candidates only.

Specifically, the "equal time" provision is in section 315 of the Communications Act, and was suspended last year by Congress, which passed the act in the first place.

The danger in this whole situation is this:

As indicated in the campaign last year, the wording of section 315 is somewhat vague and this leads to problems over just where it applies. Because minor party candidates could have equal time with Republicans and Democrats under an interpretation of 315 by the Federal Communications Commission (FCC), a tremendous hardship threatened the broadcast industry in the 1960 election.

That's why Congress suspended the operation of 315 for the top two races.

Frank Stanton, president of the Columbia Broadcasting System, in a speech to members of the professional journalism society, Sigma Delta Chi, advocated permanent repeal of the "equal time" law.

His point, one well worthy of consideration, was that rule 315 cannot be construed as anything but a limitation on the free flow of information, and as such not only is an infringement on the rights of broadcasters, but constitutes a threat to freedom of the press.

Indirectly, restrictions of this sort reach to the basic freedoms guaranteed in the Constitution to all United States citizens.

Perhaps the original intent of section 315 was good, or at least not bad. It was probably designed to prevent anyone from using the airwaves, apparently well established as public property, to overexpose one candidate in a political campaign and thereby practically guarantee his election.

The consequences of requiring equal time, for example, for a score of candidates for a local office apparently was not foreseen.

Also missed in the zeal for regulation was the necessity for a better definition of how "equal time" should work. The FCC later said section 315 applied to newscasts, interview programs or anything else that constituted an appearance. This is really where the trouble lies.

Obviously, few broadcasters would object to making "equal time" available to those who would pay for it.

But the necessity to time each appearance of each candidate on news programs and other shows so all other candidates could be given equal treatment is an intolerable burden.

Even if radio and television stations would put up with the restrictions of section 315, however, the threat of expanding the "equal time" concept should frighten all citizens.

As Stanton eloquently put it in his speech to Sigma Delta Chi:

"A free society cannot say of one medium that it shall have less freedom than another, because it has more impact or more immediacy or a greater audience.

"If the freedom of any medium is restricted, the foundation for the freedom of all media is gone, and freedom event-

In 1960, Michigan motorists injured 13,280 children in traffic!

Of these, 200 died!

Of all persons injured in Michigan traffic last year 57.8 per cent were children under 15 years of age—3,500 youngsters!

More than 34 per cent of all persons killed in Michigan traffic were children!

The most common accidents injuring or killing children were:

- (1) Crossing the street or road not at an intersection and from behind parked cars.
- (2) Playing in the roadway.

Eight out of 10 fatalities to children occurred in broad day light. The worst hours for child accidents are from 3 to 8 p.m.

More than 50 per cent of all child accidents occur on residential streets — a few blocks from home.

WHEN YOU DRIVE — WATCH OUT FOR KIDS!

usually becomes a government handout.

"Nor can a free society give governmental agencies the power to roam around the substance of publications or of broadcasts, choosing what matter shall be free and what subject to government restraints or reprisals, except in the case of clearly and publicly defined security matters."

Stanton went on to say:

"It is in the nature of a free society that only the people make choices about what they shall read or see or hear, and not their government, whether its motive be protective or self-seeking, benevolent or invidious. "And a free society rejects also the notion that any freedom is occasional, and particularly that suitable occasions for limiting the freedom of the press in any of its forms are election issues."

Yacht Club Ends Season's Activities with Race, Dinner

Perfect sailing weather prevailed for the Huron - Portage Yacht Club's third annual Invitational Regatta held on Portage Lake during the past week end. Forty-six sailboats of many descriptions participated in the week end of racing. Saturday night's Moonlight Race was the highlight of the Regatta.

The first race was held Saturday afternoon; the 3rd on Sunday afternoon. A complete list of regatta winners will be published next week since it was not available at Monday's press time. The telephone connections were slightly disrupted by Sunday night's storm making reporting late.

More than 160 guests and members attended the dinner served at St. Mary's parish hall on Saturday evening. A cocktail party at the Mumford Park home of Dr. and Mrs. John Henderson preceded the dinner.

The Indian motif used to decorate the dinner tables at the dinner was in honor of the Indian derivation of the club's name. Small teepees decorated the tables and Indian headdress was worn by each guest. Commodore John Bartlett wore a beautiful, authentic war-bonnet, as did vice-commodore Tom Fhman.

Trophies were awarded Sunday after the close of the regatta to all the winners.

At least sixty boys turned out for first football practice on Monday afternoon of this Coach Wesley Reader had out football uniforms and equipment in the morning and called the squads to drills at 2 p.m.

A report from the Wegener farm oil well drill site on Monday afternoon stated that the well is still at the depth of 2305 feet recently reported. The time, meanwhile, has been spent in sealing out water and testing the dolomite for signs of oil which have been showing for some time now.

Momentarily work is stopped while workers await a shipment of additional cable which should arrive by mid-week.

The damage was not covered by insurance; the Essenbergs are looking at the brighter side, however, the new 1961 model family car usually parked in this spot — wasn't there, fortunately.

State School Aid Payment Will Be Mailed Aug. 25

Dr. Lynn Bartlett, Superintendent of Public Instruction, has announced that a state school aid payment in the amount of approximately $28,300,000.00 will be mailed to county treasurers on August 25. School districts can, therefore, plan on receiving this payment amounting to 75% of the amount now due, a few days thereafter. At the present time, it is impossible to predict the amount of the October 25 payment but it is hoped that it too, can equal at least 75% of the amount due.

Bank Robber Sentenced

James E. Jones, 28, of Dexter, was sentenced last Thursday to 25 years in federal prison for the $3,780 robbery of the McPherson State Bank here last April 12. He took the money from Cashiers Al Fredenburg and Mrs. Roberta Essenberg at gun point.

According to Federal Judge T. T. Thornton, Jones will undergo a three to six month observation term at a federal penitentiary at Terre Haute, Indiana.

The judge will re-examine the case after the preliminary term and give Jones an "appropriate sentence."

Jones was arrested shortly after the robbery. The money was recovered from a cornfield where he was found to have buried it. Jones has been in prison in Detroit since his arrest.

WYNNE CHESTER SAYS:

Game Preserve Shooting Is Exciting!

During the last few years the number of game preserves, most of them privately owned, has increased until there are approximately 1300 in the United States.

Here, a hunter may take wild, wary game — from quail, pheasant, mallards, chukar and Hungarian partridge—to deer, wild pig, and even rare imported European antelope and elk. Most of these 'game farms' are well managed and the wild game which they support are scientifically controlled. Guest shooters are not usually pampered and you really must hunt for your prize . . . but wonderfully trained bird dogs, skilled handlers and professional guides are available. Together with comfortable lodgings, good food, and splendid 'shooting talk' around the lodges in the evening, it makes for a delightful weekend. On my last trip out with my husband, Joe, I felt like a real maharani, or something. And its really not expensive at all. Game preserves are usually open from September to March. Your local sporting goods dealer can probably tell you where there is a private preserve in your area and tell you about the game stocked there. Ask him.

Castor Beans Not for Kids

If you have castor beans in your yard or garden, the fruit should be picked and destroyed as soon as it appears, says a pediatrician at The University of Michigan Medical Center.

The beans, which begin to appear this time of year, can cause serious or even fatal poisoning if eaten by children.

Symptoms of castor bean poisoning appear within one to three days after the bean is eaten and consist of vomiting, stomach pain, drowsiness and stupor. Death may occur within 12 days.

Many gardeners grow the castor bean plant because of its decorative appearance and large leaves. Because it is a quick growing plant, it is often used as a substitute for shrubs before more permanent bushes can be established around new homes.

Wedding anniversary congratulations are in order this week for Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hinchey who will observe their anniversary on September 2 and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dann on September 4.

(Row 2) When the photos were taken the boys in this row were the happy grins of school boys at spring vacation time; ready to return to his classes at St. Mary's next week is Bill Doyle, 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Doyle (Sally LaRosa); Eddie Colone (center) and his brother, Jerry, will attend the 6th and 4th grade classes at the elementary school. They are the sons of the John Colones of Mowers road. Black and white pictures can't do justice to the beautiful auburn hair of the young lady in the lower right. She is Debbie Lovell, nearly 2, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lovell who recently moved from W. Main street to a new home in Howell.
