Robert Hollister and Judith Root Speak Vows

MRS. ROBERT C. HOLLISTER

Miss Judith Blanche Root and Robert Carl Hollister spoke their marriage vows at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, September 23, at the Community Congregational Church. The Rev. William Hainsworth officiated at the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Root of Stinchfield Woods road. The parents of the bridegroom are the Harold Hollisters of W. Unadilla street.

For her wedding Judy chose a floor length gown of white taffeta with sequin embroidered lace inserts in the midriff and a bateau neckline outlined in sequins and pearls. A large bow formed the bustle back of the very full skirt. Her fingertip illusion veil was held by a crown of sequins and pearls. She carried white roses with stephanotis.

Miss Margaret Lamb of Ypsilanti, cousin of the bride was her maid of honor.

In keeping with the autumn color scheme that predominated the wedding scene, Miss Lamb's gown was of nectarine silk taffeta. Her colonial bouquet of feathered carnations and pom pom mums was tinted to match her costume.

Six bridesmaids wearing autumnal gold, green and mink brown taffet with matching slippers and colonial bouquets were the Misses Patricia, Donna and Nancy Hollister, sisters of the bridegroom; Miss Jean Vielhauer of Ypsilanti, cousin of the bride; Miss Kathleen Draper of Ypsilanti and Miss Gayanne Turner of Ann Arbor.

William Hollister of Pinckney was best man for his brother, Charles Root, brother of the bride, Don Boling, David Lamb, George Bowman, Paul Russell and Rex Hendee were the ushers.

Junior ushers were Donald and Harold Hollister and David Hollister was the ringbearer. They are brothers of the bridegroom.

Little Betsy Lamb, wearing a nectarine dress, a miniature copy of the maid of honor's costume, was the flower girl.

Soloist Wesley Reader sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mary Lee Aschenbrenner was the organist and pianist John Vielhauer, cousin of the bride, played the "Wedding March."

A reception for nearly 250 guests at Pilgrim Hall followed the ceremony.

The traditional wedding fruit cake, the bride's and groom's cake were served at three tables beautifully decorated with silver candelabra and fresh flowers.

Special guests at the wedding were Mrs. Lillian Root, Ypsilanti, grandmother of the bride and Mrs. Claude Williams, Ypsilanti, and Mrs. William Hollister, Dowling, Mich., both grandmothers of the bridegroom.

Following a wedding trip of one week in northern Michigan, the couple will make their home on W. M-36, Pinckney. Both are 1960 graduates of Pinckney High school.

We Have Moved!

The new home of the Pinckney Typesetting Company and the Pinckney Dispatch was completed early last week and the big task of moving began as soon as the September 20 issue was printed. Now located at 250 Dexter street, just south of Main street, we are getting "settled" and doing business as usual.

The date for an Open House will be announced soon.

Meanwhile, please write or phone in your local items, and advertisements, or bring them to our new office. The deadline for all copy for the Dispatch is 4 p.m. on Monday of each week.

Jerry Reason, 61 graduate of P. H. S., son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Reason is attending Eastern Michigan University this fall.

Will Accept Applications for Service Appointments

Congressman Charles E. Chamberlain (R-Mich.) has announced from Washington that he will accept applications until October 21st from young men in Genesee, Ingham, and Livingston counties who are interested in attending Service Academies beginning July, 1962.

Mr. Chamberlain stated that he will nominate eleven men to the Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, six to the Naval Academy at Annapolis, and four to the Military Academy at West Point, to fill one vacancy each allotted Michigan's Sixth District at these institutions.

These candidates will compete in examinations offered by the various Academies and a principal and several alternates will be named by the Selection Boards of each Service for the vacancies.

Representative Chamberlain will nominate ten candidates to the Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point who will compete on a statewide basis for a number of vacancies. There are no Congressional appointments to the Coast Guard Academy at New London, Connecticut, but Congressman Chamberlain . . . who attended this Academy during World War II . . . will be glad to send catalogs and information to anyone interested in becoming a Coast Guard officer.

The Sixth District Congressman stated that he based his nominations primarily upon a civil service competitive examination and upon the applicant's high school academic record.

The age limits for the appointments are 17 through 21. This means, the Congressman explained, that young men born July 1, 1940 to July 1, 1945, are eligible for the classes that will enter next summer.

Richard "Dick" Wylie, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Wylie, nominated three years ago by Mr. Chamberlain is now a junior at the West Point Military Academy.

Women's Fellowship To Hear Student, View Slides

The Women's Fellowship will meet tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock at Pilgrim Hall and the regular business meeting will be preceded by a program featuring color slides depicting the vacation adventures of a Pinckney High School junior during his summer visit to Bogota, Colombia, in South America.

John Biery of Portage Lake, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Biery, spent nearly three months with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Jeantet, in that high altitude country. He was privileged to attend many social functions including one at the home of the U. S. Ambassador at Medellin. John met many, many teenagers who like teenagers everywhere, love fun, music, food, sports and when the time comes, will take their places as fine, serious citizens of tomorrow's world.

John's talk and pictures pleased the Kiwanis Club Tuesday evening. The women of the church will not want to miss this program.

PEGS to Meet

The first fall meeting of the Pinckney P. E. G. S., home extension group will be a dessert luncheon gathering at the home of Mrs. Russell Clark, 718 E. Putnam Street, at 12:30 tomorrow afternoon.

The group will hear reports from Mrs. Marshall Meabon and Mrs. Clark who attended a special officers training course recently. The lesson for this meeting will be given by project leader, Mrs. Arthur Rentz; the topic is "What's Ahead For Our County?" Subjects to be covered include the new highways in the county, education and others of interest to homemakers.

Writer's Club Reorganized

The Pinckney Writer's Club members welcomed five new prospects of the printed word, at the re-organizational meeting Monday night.

The roster now lists three newspaper editors, one minister, one former WAC officer, a couple of members who "have published", and the majority are folks who "just love to write." They have written some impressive poetry, short stories, and a number of articles which are expressions of the individual on any subject of interest to him.

The Writer's Club will continue to meet on the first and third Mondays of each month, but at a new time — 8:00 p.m., after Library hours are over, in the back room of the Town Hall.

A cordial invitation is extended to any who are interested in writing to join at our next meeting, Monday, October 2nd.

Dues of 25¢ per meeting will one day be used to purchase a Writer's Course.

Parents' Club Meeting Set

School enrollment is up and an active Parents' Club is needed more than ever in the Pinckney Schools. At the last meetings of the group in April and May there were not enough people present to elect officers for the coming year or plan a program. If you are interested in continuing with a Parents' Club for our Public Schools you are asked to attend an organizational meeting on Thursday evening, September 28th, in the All-Purpose Room of the Elementary School, at 7:30 P.M. At that time the assembled group can set a meeting time best suited to the majority of interested parents and discuss possible aims for the group for the current school year.

Surely, every parent is interested enough in his child's school to want this organization continued, so let's have a good representation of parents on Thursday evening.

Come and bring your neighbor with you!

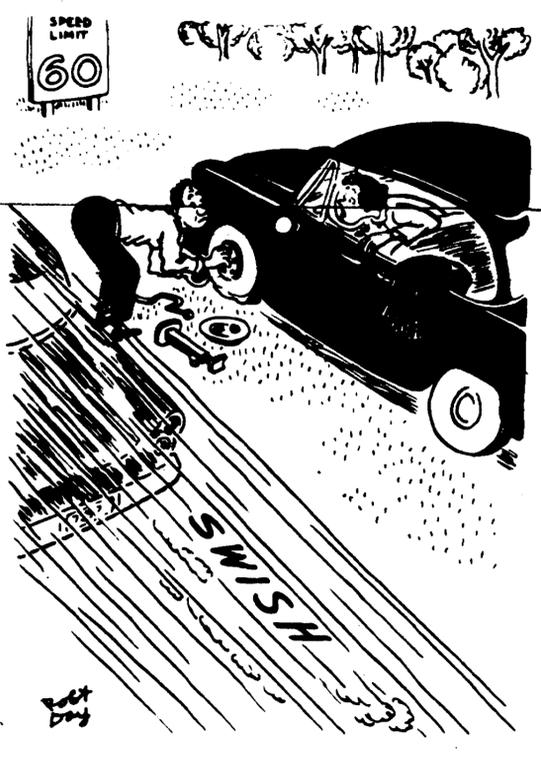

This photo was taken at the Grand Hotel on Mackinac Island, September 22, during the 63rd annual convention of the Michigan Municipal League. Mrs. Max Russell, second from left, was the delegate from Pinckney Village Council. Seated from left to right are Max Russell, Mrs. Russell, Mrs. H. J. St. Louis of Milan and her husband. Mrs. St. Louis, the former Elaine (Lea) Kulbicki of Pinckney, is village clerk at Milan. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kulbicki of W. M-36, Pinckney.

American Red Cross at Work in Texas, Louisiana

During Hurrigan Carla voluntary workers and professional staff of American National Red Cross were busy helping to provide shelter, food, and clothing for the disaster victims.

Now the storm is over. Red Cross will continue its service in rehabilitation of families, financing of home repairs, and reconstruction. In addition those injured will have constant and continuing care where family economic situations require.

The magnitude of the Carla's damage has not been assessed as yet, but it is predicted the cost to American National Red Cross will sorely tax its budgeted Disaster Funds.

Miss Josephine Grostic, Chairman of the Livingston Chapter, American National Red Cross requests that any gifts for purposes of alleviating the hurricane damage and suffering should be sent to her office at 105 West Grand River Avenue, Howell, Michigan.

Kindly make checks payable to American National Red Cross.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Moriarty (Mary Margaret Clark) have adopted an infant boy who has been named Gregory Raymond. He is just a month old now. The couple who live on Mill street have a daughter, Cindy. Mr. Moriarty is superintendent of schools at Deerfield.

Mrs. George W. Clark is particularly delighted over the arrival of the baby boy who arrived by adoption at the Ray Moriarty home. Mrs. Clark is Mrs. Moriarty's grandmother and the new great-grandson brings to a total of 103 her children and grandchildren.

New Plymouth for 1962 Now on Display at Van's

The completely new Plymouth for 1962 is now showing at Van's Motor Sales, 145 East

Main Street.

New Forward Flair Design

Forward Flair is an entirely new design concept in Plymouth's field. No low-price car ever looked like this before! Slender new dimensions all around. Gleaming new grille. Tailored, tapered hood. Rakish new roof line. Next, discover . . .

Exciting New Beauty Inside

Plymouth unveils the richest interiors it has yet used to dress a car. The handsome fabrics display unmistakable good taste. And in most Fury models, you can order an elegant all-vinyl interior (it's optional). In front of you: a clean instrument cluster with big, easy-to-read dials. Around you: new quality, for Plymouth meets . . .

Rugged New Durability

New full-unit construction in the '62 Plymouth is even tougher and more aloof to miles and years than last year's super-strong Unibody. In every way, Plymouth is engineered to last a long time, repay you at trade-

Eager New Performance

When you put your foot down in the new Plymouth, you really move out in a hurry. You surge to cruising speed as much as 10% faster than last year's quick Plymouth got you there. And then you merely point this

Plymouth this way you want to go. Plymouth stays on course, because of its new improved center-of-balance. You enjoy easy handling, too, thanks to the new low-friction steering gear.

Important New Economy

Plymouth now brings you what is probably the best gas mileage of any full-size car. You can expect fewer "gasoline breaks" than the 1961 Plymouth took (and remember a Plymouth "6" scored higher than any other full-size car in the 1961 Mobilgas Economy Run). Plymouth's new 32,000-mile lube cycle on major chassis points, 4000-mile oil change, self-adjusting brakes mean fewer "pit stops," less expense. Even the battery - saving alternator (still exclusive as standard equipment on all Chrysler Corporation cars) has been improved, although it hardly needed it.

LOOK AT PLYMOUTH NOW!

at VAN'S MOTOR SALES

Come in and take a good look at the car that makes the beautiful difference in the low-price field!

This year, beyond any doubt, the real luxury car of the low-price field is '62 Plymouth. Beautifully different outside, with crisp, new, action-inclined lines—richly new inside, with handsome, color-harmonized fabrics.

BEAUTIFUL—AND BUILT TO LAST

Most outstanding of all, however, is the lasting character of Plymouth's new beauty. Built in by Chrysler Corporation's quality-engineering, it is evident in Plymouth's Unibody construction, Torsion-Aire suspension, and battery-saving alternator. It is further apparent in '62 Plymouth's new, pre-lubrication system, that permits 32,000 miles between "lube jobs" on major chassis points—its new, twice-as-long oil change interval—and many more quality-engineered refinements.

DAREL M. BAKER

Darel M. Baker, 67, of 5655 Ferndale Dr., Lakeland, Livingston, a resident of the area for the past 15 years, and a member of the Hamburg Township Board, died Thursday at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor following a long illness.

Survivors, in addition to his wife, include a son, Charles, and two daughters, Mrs. Virginia Sowers and Mrs. Dorothy Winslow, all of Lakeland; 10 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren; and a brother,

The mention of an old time grocery store will bring back nostalgic memories to many readers including William Ketchum of Main street, who once owned such a store in Detroit. Shown in the photo are Mr. Ketchum, his brother, Earl, the late Mrs. Ketchum, their grandson, Louis, age 11, who loved to help in the store. A delivery boy was employed to drive the horse and delivery wagon. Next year when the world's biggest Food Show of the International Food Congress is held in the N. Y. Coliseum there will be displays of "fabulous foods in the world of tomorrow" such as never imagined "back in those days". The show will honor the "stores of long ago" in many exhibits. In Lincoln's day, when he clerked in a store, there were considerably less than 100 items on sale; today a super "super" stocks about 8000 different items.

Hurley Baker of Pulaski, Mich.

A "Moving" Story

A couple of nights ago, Bud Holmes, who runs the town's local drive-in movie, got to talking about a "boner" he had pulled last summer.

Seems one night he was waiting to close up when a customer came over and asked if Bud would get his car started. Turned out his battery was dead. Bud drives over to where he thinks the customer's car is parked and starts to give it a big shove.

All of a sudden, Red Dolan's head pops out of the front window! "Listen, Bud," Red says with a grin, "if you want me to go home so you can close up, I'll go. But you don't have to push me!"

From where I sit, a person always has to be careful not to interfere with other people's enjoyment by "pushing" his preferences. Whenever Bud has me over to dinner, he's always considerate enough to make sure there's some beer on hand for me, even though he prefers tea himself. He's respecting my right to think for myself, and not trying to "drive home" his own views.

FIRST GRADE NEWS

We are beginning to read little stories about Tag, Jim and Dot on the chart board. We listen and hear the sound of the long vowel or short vowel in words.

We have our writing books now. We are practicing how to write our name with a capital and the rest small letters. When we can write it nicely we will write it in our new books.

Saturday was the first day of autumn. We are looking for signs of fall outdoors. We have found many pretty leaves. We noticed the apples and other fruit are getting ripe. People are busy getting ready for winter.

We measured ourselves and are going to see how much we grow this winter.

SIXTH GRADE NEWS

We're going to start making things from papier mache as soon as some of us bring the things needed to make it. We have also picked some boys and girls to be on the Service Squad and Safety Patrol. The Safety

Patrol regulars are James Hampton, Sam Singer and Charles Chambers and the alternate is Ricky Sowers. The Service Squad girl regulars are Linda Zezulka, and Linda Steffen and the alternates are Sandra Salyer and Diane Halliburton. We are also going to interview the football players on the varsity, and we're looking forward to it.
You'll be reading about them in our football program if you buy one at the games. We hope to sell a lot of them to you.

THIRD GRADE—

We enjoyed the flag raising assembly Friday morning. We wish to thank the council for making it possible.

We used water colors for the first time Friday. We just work with the colors. The next time we paint we'll try a picture.

We've finished the first chapter in arithmetic.

Everyone is working hard at improving their handwriting.

FOURTH GRADE—

We finished our animal booklets this week. Most of them were very good.

On Thursday we saw several film strips. We saw two for science called "What Is In the Sky" and "Our Earth Is Moving". We saw three film strips of Aesop's Fables. One reading group has read a fable in their reading book.

Monday we put a picture of our solar system in the display case. We put all of the planets on it. We wrote short stories about each planet.

Friday afternoon we painted pictures with water paints. We painted fruits, vegetables, and flowers.

We are sorry that Courtland Geib is ill. We hope he is better soon.

Mrs. Erhard's Room—

We got a lot done this week.
We had some tests during the week, a lot of us have work to catch up on at home and recess.
Today everyone in the school attended a Flag Raising, and our room really enjoyed it.

Our service squad members are: Melba Daniels, Linda Clough and Safety Patrol are:
Joe Plummer, Mike Wiltshire,
Toby Shettleroe.

John P. Friday

We went out doors to see the flag raising. We said the pledge and sang songs.

Mike Meriwether hit some sott sand while riding his bike.

He fell off and hurt his back.

Kathy Kourt saw the sun. It was way up in the sky.

KINDERGARTEN

We were all a little homesick at first, but we are finding friends and are a little happier now.

We have learned four songs already and are learning the "pledge to the flag."

We can read what it says on four safety posters.

One of us each day takes a turn coloring the weather on the big calendar.

We have learned to form the numbers one and two in the air with our hands, and have started in our "Happy Way to Numbers" books.

Most of us can pick out our printed names on the chalk board.

Some interesting news items have been told in our room too:

Steve Wiltse's brother made some nice mud pies, which he tried to bake on his mother's new electric stove. He was not successful as he had them on a wooden board.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

An exceptional activity in the Governor's office this year has been the consistent policy of fighting racial discrimination.

In an era when moral right is too often tied closely to what is politically expedient, John B. Swainson has provided leadership in the equal treatment for all struggle time and again.

Apparently this is a strong and sincere personal feeling with Swainson.

Too many politicians tend to favor equal rights for all minority groups only when making a pitch for their votes. These campaigners may not be actively bigoted, but seem to be disinterested in a problem that touches them personally only as it can win or lose votes.

A great many present or potential officeholders are more cognizant of the votes they can lose through too active backing of anti-discrimination causes than of the few minority group votes they might win.

Swainson, whether campaigning or not, has shown deep concern for minority rights.

A "good faith" attempt to lessen bias can sometimes produce results because its very sincerity commands respect. Apparently Swainson's "Code of Fair Practices" issued some months ago is having this effect.

The Democratic Governor's contention in his code is that equal treatment for all is morally right, and that it is especially incumbent upon state government to provide leadership in the field of job opportunity.

Encouraged by Swainson, many state departments have taken several significant steps to eliminate any possible hint of discrimination. In fact, civil rights have gained ground in many ways affecting segments of the Michigan government.

Latest and perhaps most significant item arose when the Michigan Employment Security Commission refused to take part in the annual meeting of the Interstate Conference of Employment Security Agencies because the Atlanta, Ga., hotel where it was to be held would not admit Negroes.

Swainson said he didn't know if any Negroes had planned to be included in the Michigan delegation to the conference or not, but that it didn't make any difference, the state would not send its official party to a meeting where discrimination was to be practiced under any circumstances.

The Governor commended MESC director Max M. Horton for refusing to attend the conference, although Horton was a candidate for president of the national group.

"This is the policy," Swainson said. "Where ever all the citizens of Michigan are not welcome, we will not participate."

Michigan dentists would like to make it easy for people to take good care of their teeth.

A possible means to accomplish this is prepaid dental care, which would be somewhat like the widespread programs of health and hospitalization insurance now offered by various companies and used by many people.

Dentist members of the Michigan Dental Association have been studying a plan of prepaid dental care which would be handled through the Michigan Dental Service Corp.

Another problem for dentists, and related to their studies of prepaid care plans, is how to keep patients informed on the importance of regular dental care.

It presumably has been found that toothaches are better than people to see their dentist.

A higher regard for the possible dangers of neglecting tooth care and regular attention by a dentist is something the dental group would like to instill in everybody.

They might even consider an advertising program which would keep people advised within ethical limits of their profession.

Hardly a project ever undertaken in Michigan has been so sure to capture the imagination as was the recent Submerged Vehicle Study conducted in Williamston.

And a great many people will maintain a close watch as the results of the tests are analyzed.

An Indiana University graduate student made 40 tests, sending an automobile plunging into an abandoned gravel pit each time, to find out what happens when a car goes off the road and into water.

Groups helping the student include the American Red Cross, Michigan State Police, Michigan Highway Department and Indiana University. How a vehicle behaves under the circumstances rather than how humans would behave, was the problem which the tests aimed to solve.

Preliminary conclusions include an indication that if the human react as well as the cars, some of the roughly 400 deaths caused in the United States each year when vehicles go off the road into water can be averted.

While the complicated data from the tests must still be worked over, one conclusion that looks safe would be this word of advice to drivers: "Just because the car sinks, don't think you're sunk."

A cool head should allow many people to escape when a car falls into the water, the tests showed.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Kingsley are the parents of a daughter, Christine Jane, born September 17 at McPherson Health Center.

Notes of 48 Years Ago

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Webb were hosts at a surprise farewell party honoring Mr. and Mrs. E.

J. Briggs and family who expect to move to Flint in the near future. In behalf of all the guests J. Martin presented the family with a silver bread tray.

Three men riding home in a buggy from Whitmore Lake on Friday were involved in a serious accident when the horse bolted and tipped the buggy. Horse, buggy and passengers went rolling down a 16-foot embankment. John Kearney was crushed to death by the horse; James Ryan and L. Sweetland were painfully injured.

Mrs. Mae Teeple is entertaining Miss Marion Woodbury of Haverhill, Mass., as a house guest this week.

Fred McGrain of Ocoola, Miss Rose Smith of Howell and the Herman Smiths of Howell were Sunday guests of the Bernard McCluskey family.

The Senior Class of 1913-14 elected the following officers this week: Ona Campbell, president; Bernard McCluskey, vice-president; Paul Clark, treasurer and Helen Monks, secretary.

The Junior class has organized with the following officers: Alger Hall, president; Clair Reason, vice president; Claude Kennedy, treasurer and Madeline Moran, secretary.

Capt. Kennedy has his football squad in excellent shape but has been unable to secure dates for games.

Miss Mary Eamens of Garden City, Kansas, who is visiting here gave a very interesting talk to the high school on her recent trip around the world.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my sincere gratitude to my neighbors and friends for their many prayers, cards, flowers and many acts of kindness shown me during the illness and death of my beloved husband, William Bova. I also wish to thank the Rev. Kriefal, for his comforting words and the Mary-Martha Circle of the St. Paul's Lutheran church of Hamburg for bringing and serving the wonderful meal to my relatives and friends, after the funeral. May God Bless each and everyone of you.

CARD OF THANKS

To my daughter Joyce, to Don Swarhout and Robert Vedder, my sincere thanks for their prompt response to my call for assistance, as well as to the Reverend Stauffer for the countless calls and comfort he brought to me during my hospitalization.

The many gorgeous bouquets of flowers and innumerable beautiful cards of cheer and hope together with the prayers in my behalf, produced a feeling of deep humility and appreciation for the fine friendships I have made in my home town. May each of you, likewise, receive such cheer and comfort if a like occasion arises in your lives.
