Lee-Campbell Wedding Vows Spoken Saturday Evening in Dexter Church

Crystal Hope Campbell and Jack Dwight Lee spoke their marriage vows at 7 o'clock Saturday evening, October 28, at the Dexter Methodist Church. The Reverend A. Theodore Halstead of Dexter officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Eleanore Campbell of Dexter and the late Harland Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lee of Pinckney are the parents of the bridegroom.

For her wedding the bride chose a floor length gown of Chantilly lace over satin taffeta fashioned with a sabrina neckline and long-fitted sleeves and a bouffant skirt with a scalloped hemline. Her bouffant veil was held by a crown of iridescent and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white stephanotis and a white orchid centered on a white Bible.

She was escorted to the altar by her brother, Tom Spiess of Dexter.

Miss Diana Campbell of Dexter was her sister's maid of honor. Her gown was a street length sheath of avacado green mesh taffeta with a full overskirt of the same fabric. She carried bronze mums and pom-poms.

The bridesmaids were Miss Susan Steeb of Dexter and Mrs. John C. Burg of Pinckney. Their costumes were street length sheaths of apricot iridescent taffeta with matching overskirts. They carried bouquets of bronze mums and pom poms.

John C. Burg of Pinckney acted as best man. The ushers were James Spiess of Dexter, brother of the bride and Ronald Bond of Dexter.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Campbell chose turquoise lace or taffeta with beige accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore green brocaded satin with brown accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of white carnations.

A reception was held following the ceremony in the church parlors and another at the home of the bride's mother.

The wedding cake was cut by Mrs. Vincent St. Charles who had made and decorated the cake for her sister's wedding. Mrs. Robert Knickerbocker and Mrs. Robert Gregory, sister of the bride, poured the fruit punch and the coffee. Mrs. Ron Bond, sister of the bridegroom, was in charge of the guest book. There were over 250 guests.

Upon their return from a week's honeymoon in northern Michigan the couple will live in East Detroit. For her traveling costume, the bride wore an avacado plaid wool suit and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The new Mrs. Lee is a graduate of Dexter High school. Her husband attended Pinckney high school and is now stationed with the U.S. Army at Kercheval Army Base in East Detroit.

Top Ranking Seniors Invited to Alumni Scholarship Day

The highest ranking seniors in Pinckney high school have been invited to an Alumni Scholarship Student Day at Michigan State University on Saturday, November 11.

Main purpose of the visit will be to learn more about the extensive MSU scholarship program, in which the top award is worth up to $4,000.

The visiting students also will meet with professors to discuss academic programs, get answers from student leaders at the University to their questions about MSU student life, and hear MSU Professor Fred Williams, one of the nation's experts in American military history, speak on "The Meaning of the Civil War."

The highest scholarship at Michigan State — and one of the very best in the United States — is the Alumni Distinguished Scholarship. It is worth $1,000 a year and is renewable for four years. Ten of these are awarded high school seniors each year and go to some of the most brilliant students in the country.

There is no requirement for family financial need for this scholarship. Each student, however, must rank in the top five per cent of the senior class and score high on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test or similar exam just to be invited to compete for it.

For all other Michigan State scholarships, the student must have financial need and rank at least in the top quarter of his graduating class.

Scottish Rite Club Meets In Detroit

President Roscoe O. Bonisteel, Jr., of the Scottish Rite Club of Washtenaw, has announced that the 250th Scottish Rite Reunion will take place in Detroit on two successive week ends.

Again, the degree schedule has been carefully planned to better serve the needs of the eleven-county area covered by the Valley of Detroit. The new timetable makes it possible for the 230 candidates to become Thirty-second Degree Masons through participating in four meetings on Friday evening, November 3; Saturday afternoon and evening, Nov. 4; Friday evening, November 10 and Saturday afternoon and evening, November 11.

Many club members are planning to attend the Detroit Meetings which will highlight the beginning of the celebration of 100 years of Scottish Rite Freemasonry in the State of Michigan. A group of Washtenaw area members will be featured in the presentation of the Thirty-second degree on Saturday evening, November 11. Included in the cast are: Harry Shipman, James Boyd, Richard Snowgold and James Hallaway. Boyd and Snowgold are residents of Lakeland.

The Rev. David S. Brady of Ypsilanti delivered the sermon on Sunday at the Community Congregational church while Rev. William Hainsworth continues to make good progress recovering from recent lung surgery. Rev. Hainsworth is spending this week back in University Medical Center undergoing treatment.

Former Local Resident Killed in Car Crash

Philip Wayne Johnson, 19, of Ann Arbor, a former Pinckney resident, was one of the three Ann Arbor men killed in a head-on car smash-up in Ann Arbor early Sunday morning on a rain-slicked street.

Johnson, Richard Taylor, 20, and Karl Palmquist, 44, died as a result of the accident that occurred when Johnson lost control of his car and smashed into Palmquist's small foreign-made car on Stadium Blvd., east of Main street. Police estimated Johnson's speed at about 85 miles per hour. Palmquist was alone in his car.

Johnson was the son of Mrs. Ann E. Russell, formerly of the White Lodge area here.

Mrs. George Holben is scheduled to enter University Medical Center tomorrow morning for surgery.

Livingston County's share at this time is $122,760 while the Village of Pinckney will receive $1,794.

VANDALS RIDE AGAIN: Vandals who for some reason or other seem partial to destroying school property damaged two buses parked on Putnam street one night last week. Several hundred dollars worth of damage resulted when a door was torn off one bus and the hood, fan, and radiator of this bus rammed. A resident living near the school heard the noise and called authorities but the culprits left before a deputy arrived.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

The State Constitutional Convention adopted a great many of its rules for procedure from practices followed in the Michigan Legislature, but one deviation, due to the nature of the Con-Con, was both a blessing and a burden.

This is the problem of committee chairmanships.

In the Legislature a complicated seniority system, built up through long practice and more or less strictly observed, determines who shall preside over various committees.

But, as Con-Con president Stephen S. Nisbet often said, all the convention delegates are freshmen.

Committee chairmen, therefore, were rather arbitrary selections made by Nisbet and his three vice-presidents, George Romney, Edward Hutchinson and Tom Downs.

Since no delegate felt he could claim a chairmanship as a matter of right, there were few complaints about the men chosen to lead the committees, although there was some grumbling about committee assignments in general.

The potential danger in the Con-Con method of selecting the chairmen will come when action of the convention is readied for voters. Almost sure to be raised by somebody is the question of whether different chairmen would have produced different decisions on the basic law subject matter.

Generally speaking, the State of Michigan has plenty of everything. Except, of course, money to run its government.

Few would find fault with the "Land of Plenty" concept as applied to Michigan because an abundance of manufactured goods, agricultural products, scenic and recreational areas, water, skilled workers and investment capital is all around.

But once, some 90 years ago, Michigan was in trouble because of a shortage of one of the most common items known to mankind.

Nowadays, the only major lack that makes a splash in the Water Wonderland is lack of jobs. Or, as during the infamous "cash crisis" of 1959, lack of money for government.

But in order to get a state Capitol, Michigan had to go to Ohio. When plans for a structure of stone to replace the old frame building which had existed prior to 1871 were complete, a search was undertaken for materials.

Michigan had fine stone, but not enough of any one color to build its seat of government building. So the three-man Board of the Building Commissioners, headed by Gov. Henry Baldwin, sent to Ohio in 1871 and selected an Ohio sandstone for construction of the Capitol.

Many Michigan products went into the Capitol, even if the main outside material was from a southern neighbor. Perhaps even the iron which went into some of the girders and furnishings of the Capitol and dome was produced from ore mined in the Upper Peninsula.

It's not often that any phase of government gets a chance to go back to the beginning and start over. But this happened recently in connection with voter registrations in two Upper Peninsula communities. Over a period of many years and through long standing, although improper practices, the situation became thoroughly fouled up.

It might be technically illegal, but the state and local officials working together have started a salvage job without any ill feeling or thought of criminal action. Obviously there was never any real intent to break the law.

There is a multitude of lessons for officials charged with supervising voting procedures and for just plain citizens.

The problems in the two Houghton county villages were mostly improper signatures on voter registration cards. Apparently nobody ever bothered to find out the proper way to handle the signature cards, so things just went along for years with no change.

All the requirements and procedures are spelled out in the state election law, which is admittedly somewhat vague, complicated, ambiguous and generally difficult.

The violations discovered in the Upper Peninsula, however, were not caused by problems of understanding election law.

They were simply improper procedures perpetuated through the years, probably because the system seemed to be working all right. Little regard was given to technicalities.

The need for re-registering all the voters, since it will be a difficult job, points up the need for closer scrutiny of official practice, both by officials and citizens.

Mrs. Ronald C. Darrow, the former Mary Ann Tripp, of Cedar Lake road left yesterday for Long Beach, California, to join her husband who is stationed there with the U. S. Navy.

Mrs. Lottie Blades Brooks of Ypsilanti and Mrs. Ada Richter Willoughby of Plymouth were Thursday afternoon visitors here. They called on the Tom Wares and the M. E. Darrows.

WYNNE CHESTER SAYS:

A Hunting License Is A Wonderful Bargain!

An annual license to hunt game during your state's open seasons is just about the biggest bargain you could possibly find in the realm of out-of-doors recreation. Recently published figures show that the millions of licensed hunters in this country pay an average of only $3.55 for the fine privileges which their license represents.

The money, of course, is used to help support the federal and state wild life conservation and management programs. When you stop to consider, though, the huge sums and the tremendous human effort poured into these programs it is plain to see that license fees are sort of a drop in the bucket. Please keep this in mind when you purchase your hunting license next season . . . and turn over your money cheerfully. The saving of our wild life is a very important item on the budgets of all our fifty states . . . and those of us who enjoy hunting are about the luckiest budget supporters in the business!

Camp Trailers Can Be Killers

With the advent of fall weather comes a rush of small trailers to Michigan woods and waters. The majority of these trailers are very well equipped for cooking lighting, and heating. Being mobile units, they are usually equipped with gas or oil powered facilities. If these units are not properly ventilated or protected, a rash of accidents may occur from explosions, fires, and most important, carbon monoxide and other fume poisoning. These dangers reached a high of seventeen fatalities in 1959, but by greater caution, this figure was reduced to two deaths in 1960. David E. Ahrendt, of the Livingston County Health Department, advises campers to have their trailers inspected by their local or state health department. A complete list of approved heating and cooking units is available at both local and state health offices. Keep 1961's hunters fatality free.

Count Your Chickens For Economy

You can't count your chickens before they're hatched. But it pays to count them when they're sale-priced at the market! Buy one or two extra for future feasting at dollars and "sense" savings!

Freeze the parts "as is" or use our "Easy Oven Fried Chicken" approach and have them oven-ready for quicker preparation. In either case, the chicken should be first chilled until firm. Then separate pieces and pack them in moisture-proof Kordite plastic bags.

Immerse the bag in a pan of cold water keeping the open end above the water line. This forces air out of the bag and makes it cling tightly to its contents. Twist top lightly and seal with tape.

"Freeze" tape, available in various colors, adheres at below-freezing temperatures and makes a quick, easy seal.

|--|-------------------------|
| 1 broiler-fryer chicken, cut into serving pieces or favorite chicken parts | 1 teaspoon paprika |
| 1 cup fine dry bread crumbs | 1 teaspoon Accent |
| 2 tablespoons instant minced
onions | 1 teaspoon salt |
| | 1/2 teaspoon pepper |
| | 1/2 cup evaporated milk |

Combine bread crumbs, minced onion and seasonings. Dip pieces of chicken in evaporated milk, then roll in seasoned crumbs. Place pieces of chicken on flat pan and place in freezer until firm. Pack into "Freeze" container bags and return to freezer. (4 servings).

To prepare for serving: Place pieces of frozen chicken on shallow baking pan (lined with aluminum foil). Dot with bits of butter. Bake uncovered at 350 degrees about 1 hour and 20 minutes or till tender. No need to cover or turn chicken while baking. Serve with Aloha or Spanish Sauce.

ALOHA SAUCE

- 1 9 oz. can pineapple chunks or tidbits
- 1/2 cup chopped green pepper
- 1/2 cup chopped pimiento
- 1/2 cup vinegar
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup water
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 2 teaspoons Soy sauce
- 3 dashes Tabasco sauce
- 2 tablespoons cornstarch
- 2 tablespoons water

Place all ingredients in saucepan, except cornstarch and water. Bring to a boil. Combine cornstarch and water. Mix to a paste and stir into pineapple mixture. Boil for 1 minute stirring constantly. Cool. Pour into 1-1/2-pint freezer container.

SPANISH SAUCE

- 2 tablespoons butter
- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 1/2 cup chopped green pepper
- 1 can (1 pound) tomatoes
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 2 teaspoons sugar

Saute onion and green pepper in butter till softened. Add remaining ingredients. Simmer over low heat for 30 minutes or till thickened. Cool. Pour into 1-pint freezer container and freeze.

To prepare for serving: Let warm water run around outside of container until mixture will slip out. Heat in double boiler. Add a little water if mixture is too thick.

Highway Needs Outstrip Revenue Estimates

A COMPREHENSIVE REPORT of Michigan's Highway Needs shows it will take $11 billion to meet the rising demands of traffic between 1960 and 1980. The Michigan State Highway Department estimates receipts from existing sources of income will provide about $8.1 billion for highway purposes, leaving $2.9 of additional funds to be provided to meet the 20-year needs. This chart shows state, county and city dollar needs as well as projected revenue.

OUTDOOR COOKING MADE EASY

— by Joe Bates, Jr., Guest Columnist

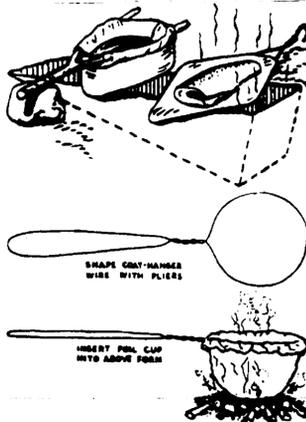

Don't bother with pots and pans. Outdoor cooking is much easier than most sportsmen think it is. Just tear a few two-foot sections from a roll of heavy duty aluminum foil and fold these all together, doubled over once, the long way. Wrap the folded foil around a small can of "EverReady" Cocoa, and put this in your fishing jacket. Wrap a few strips of bacon in some more foil; take along packets of salt and pepper (and a fork, if you wish) — and your basic lunch is compactly assembled!

A frying pan is unnecessary but, if you'd like one, just bring along an ordinary wire coat-hanger. If you want vegetables with your fish, slice some potatoes, onions and carrots and wrap individual portions in doubled foil, using the "drug-store fold" to keep each package compact. Add a little butter and condiments, if desired.

When lunch time comes, scoop out a small trench about six inches wide, a foot and a half long, and about six inches deep at the deeper end — as the sketch shows. Build a small hardwood fire in the deep end of the trench.

If you've brought the coat hanger, pull it into a square and cover it securely with foil, crimping under the edges to make your frying pan. Grease the pan with bacon; set it over the trench fire, and fry the fish on it. Another way is to impale the fish on a forked green stick, so it can be broiled over the coals. A third method is to seal it in a foil package, as was done with the vegetables. When the flesh flakes off the bones, it's done. With or without vegetables, this hot cocoa and fresh fish combination provides a lip-smacking meal. It's easy; there's little to carry, and no pots and pans to bother with. The foil acts as a cooking container and also as a plate to eat from.

Faiths Unite to Create Religious Center at WSU

DETROIT -- A $900,000 student religious center, the first one in the country embracing Protestant, Catholic, Jewish and other faiths, is planned for the Wayne State University campus.

Target date for ground breaking is next spring.

The three-story, ultra modern structure will serve the spiritual needs of all 14 religious groups on campus.

Architecturally contrasting with this larger building will be a rustic church of 1885 vintage, presently standing on an adjacent site. The vestry of St. Andrew's Memorial (Episcopal) Church is leasing this older building to the University which will in turn lease it to a newly formed Wayne State Religious Center Board Inc., for use as a student chapel.

In addition to consolidating religious activities on campus, the center will also function as a gathering place for pastors' conferences, workshops, panels, and other religious affairs.

Campus religious organizations representing the various faiths have pledged $450,000 of the needed funds for the new center.

MEDALS MARK 4-H PROGRESS FOR MANY

Scholarships Aid Outstanding Youth

One 4-H Club member in 14 will qualify for a county medal this year, predicts the National 4-H Service Committee, while the ratio for national scholarship winners will be one in approximately 10,000 members.

The coveted medals shown here represent 12 different 4-H award projects. More than 50,000 boys and girls in virtually every county in the U. S. who have done outstanding work in one of these areas will earn a medal, according to the committee.

Altogether, there are nearly 60 national 4-H projects and scholarship programs participated in by 2.3 million club members. Last year a total of 166,000 medals were won.

Only members over 15 years of age who have been in 4-H at least three years can compete for scholarships and other awards. Younger 4-H'ers are eligible for medals only, one of the first badges of county recognition.

At the national level, around $115,000 in scholarships will be presented to qualified 4-H youth and young adults who were former 4-H'ers. This is a slight increase over last year, the committee reports.

All 4-H award winners are named by the Cooperative Extension Service. Funds for awards come from private business firms and educational foundations, and are administered by the National 4-H Service Committee.

Among the award sponsors are: Ford Motor Co., Olin Mathieson Chemical Corp., E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Company, Standard Brands Incorporated, Oliver Corporation, Ralston Purina Company, Hercules Powder Company, Allied Chemical Corporation, General Foods Corporation, Eli Lilly and Company, John Deere, Moorman Mfg. Co., Humble Oil and Refining Company.

Also, California Chemical Company, Singer Sewing Machine Company, Homelite, a Division of Textron Inc., Sperry and Hutchinson Company, Massey-Ferguson, Inc., Successful Farming (through Edwin T. Meredith Foundation), Elgin National Watch Company, International Minerals & Chemical Corporation, and Whirlpool Foundation.

As the 4-H Club year draws to a close, well over 1,400 top-notch boys and girls look forward to winning the most exciting award of their 4-H career.

The couple was married just a year; his widow was the former Lucille Tooley of Howell.

Munith suffered a severe loss last week when fire wiped out nine business places. The fire was believed to have started from a gasoline lamp. Our teacher was away for two days. Miss Ross was our teacher. We like Miss Ross very much.

FOURTH GRADE—

Mrs. Van Blaricum
We would like to thank Mrs. Kellenberger for the new globe. It is just what we wanted.

We are sorry that Bruce Halliburton dislocated his thumb. Bruce is lucky because he won't have to write for a couple of weeks.

We planned our Hallowe'en party. We appointed committees to plan games and arrange for our lunch. Everyone helped decorate the room. Each person made a ghost which he nicknamed. Now our room looks spooky.

We started uneven division in arithmetic. Nearly everyone knows how to do the problems.

We are sorry to see Ricky Oury leave so we are going to buy him a going away present.

Thursday Rod Darrow brought his records to school. Some of them were Rock and Roll records and Mrs. Tasch tried to get it through our heads that the rhythm in Rock and Roll was terrible. She brought one of her records to school and we voted. Most of us voted for Rock and Roll.

We would like to thank all of you that bought one of our football programs at the Homecoming game.

SIXTH and SEVENTH—

Mrs. Carr
Hallowe'en seems to be the chief interest this week. We are making plans for our party which will take place Tuesday.

T.B. tests in our room all turned out negative for which we are all thankful.

Fall Liming Aids Legumes, Boosts Plant Food Power

LIME added to the soil this fall can pay dividends in better legume stands next spring and increased efficiency from the other plant foods you use.

"First step is to have your soil tested," says the Midwest division of the National Plant Food Institute. "This will take the guesswork out of the whole operation."

"Fall liming can be particularly beneficial to legume seedings in stubble fields. The plants may have a better chance of winter survival if soil acidity is corrected. The lime, too, can help next spring's seedings make a good start."

The Institute suggests these things to keep in mind:

1 - Don't expect lime to do your entire soil building job. Liming is just the first step. Lime needs to be teamed up with nitrogen, phosphate and potash fertilizer, where needed, to give the best long range, high-profit crop yield results.

"Fall is a good time to apply lime, because farmers have more time for the job and there is a firmer footing for machinery," the Institute points out. "Moreover, there is a greater choice of fields to lime. Liming can be done after soybean harvest, or in a pasture building program."

Well Fed Alfalfa Beats Winter Kill Gives High Yields

FERTILIZER top-dressings this fall can help alfalfa plants store up food reserves for winter survival, says the Midwest division of the National Plant Food Institute, in citing statements by college specialists.

"The autumn months are a critical period in the alfalfa plant's food-storing process," Purdue University agronomists report. "This is the time when alfalfa plants build up their resistance to winter killing."

"The nutrients the alfalfa needs can be provided by fall-applied fertilizer. Sound fertilization based on soil tests can give a push to fall growth. This, in turn, means improved resistance to winter kill."

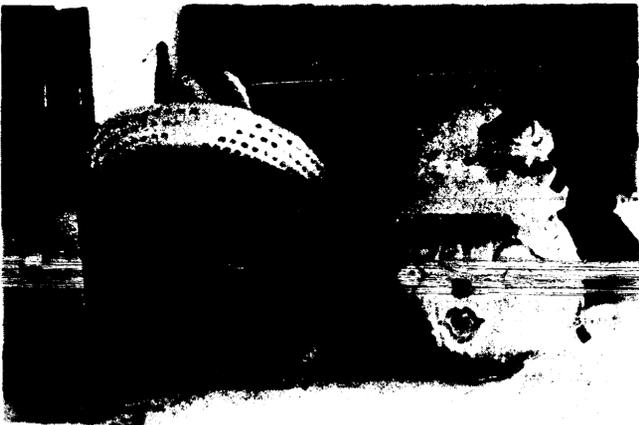

Potash does a good job of cutting winter kill and maintaining legumes in the pasture stands, according to University of Minnesota soil scientists. Phosphate is an excellent yield builder.

"To really know your soil's requirements, however, you need to test the soil," they say. "Then you can fertilize according to the recommendations of your county agent or college soils specialist."

University of Wisconsin alfalfa men say old established alfalfa stands can be top-dressed with phosphate-potash fertilizer any time up to freezing. The top-dressing not only increases crop yields, but helps prolong the alfalfa's life span. This saves you frequent and expensive reseedings.

SCHOOL BELL RINGS AGAIN: the old belfry tower of P.H.S. is gone but not the bell; in fact, it is ringing again, as of Friday night when it pealed out at every touchdown the Pirates scored at Saline. And it will continue to ring throughout the Washtenaw-Conference land for it will be on hand at every out-door athletic event. Mounted on a four-wheel chassis with a picture of a formidable Pirate and wired for siren and buzzer sounds, too, it is a "masco" second to none. Many hands helped the Industrial Arts dept. of the high school create this "flyer" which will "record" memorable sport events.

TWO OF THE MORE charming and certainly the quietest of the many faces and figures of Hallowe'en night are pictured above. They were decorations at the Village Square's Masquerade party Saturday night as a gift from their creator, Mrs. Otto Schaner of Palo Verde farm. Photos of real live spooks and goblins will appear next week.

Pirates Blast Saline, 24-14; Face U-High Here Friday

The sting of the Saline Hornets may have annoyed the Pinckney Pirates a bit during Friday night's football battle but the Hornets were soon swatted for a loss, 24-14, as the Pirates attained their seventh straight victory of the season. Five of the wins are in league competition.

Only the University High Cubs of Ann Arbor now stand between the Pirates and the undisputed title of Washtenaw Conference Football Champions. The Cubs rank third in league standings, just below Dexter who until October 20 shared a first place tie position with the Pirates.

In the game Friday night at Saline Quarterback Jack Young traveled into the Saline end zone from the one-yard line for two fourth-period touchdowns; each TD capped a touchdown drive of 34 yards.

The Pirates scored first on a nine-yard pass, Young to Ed Guy but Saline went ahead 7-6, on a 53 yard screen pass, and an extra point plunge. Just before the half, a 55 yard aerial play, Bob Williams to Ed Guy, gave Pinckney a 12-7 lead. Saline drove 55 yards in 10 plays to score in the third period.

The Homecoming floats and ceremonies of Saline were an added attraction; their beauty and workmanship delighted all spectators.

Profit Boosting Program

AS a means of helping mid-west farmers achieve more profitable crop production levels, the National Plant Food Institute has cooperated with soil specialists at a number of universities in developing yield potential programs.

These programs involve maps indicating the crop yielding capacity of particular soil types in a given state. In most cases, check lists are included which provide specific data on fertilization, seeding rates, recommended varieties, cultural practices and other management for each of the major crops.

At half-time of the game here Friday the Pirates will observe their annual Varsity Parents' Night. Mom and Dad wear numbers identical to that on son's jersey and 'take a bow' while introductions are announced over the loud speaker.

A dance in the gym will follow the game. The 20th annual Bunde Days will be observed at this time with bundles of used clothing for "Save the Children Federation" being accepted in addition to the usual admission fee.
