Topical Fluoride Program To Begin Next Week

The Summer Topical Fluoride Program in Pinckney will begin next Monday, July 23. The clinic will be conducted in the Pinckney Elem. School. The dental student who has been assigned to our area is David E. Eagle, from Whitmore Lake.

Mrs. Robert Amburgey has announced that 106 children have enrolled in the program. The series of four applications of a 2% sodium fluoride to newly erupted teeth will reduce new tooth decay by 40% in groups of children. The cleansing which is essential before the application of sodium fluoride is not the same as a prophylaxis in the dental office. Sodium fluoride applications are an additional help in the fight against tooth decay but do not replace necessary dental care. Sodium fluoride prevents some decay from forming but does not stop decay which has already begun.

The inspection which is made by the dental hygienist is not the same as the complete oral examination in the dental office. She sends home a card with a message to the parent to help remind him of the necessity of regular dental care.

Children who participate in the fluoride program are being taught the proper method of toothbrushing, are given information about the kind of diet that is best for good dental health, and information about the value of sodium fluoride on teeth.

Parents can help their children to good dental health by limiting the availability of sweets in the home and substituting non-sweetened foods. For example, nuts and popcorn are suggested instead of candy. Sugarless gum is available from most drug stores. Look for new ideas in using meat, cheese, and fresh fruit for parties!

Make regular dental visits to avoid loss of teeth from dental diseases. Begin early with preschoolers before you think they have any decay.

Local Man Named VP in Ann Arbor

Ralph Hammett Associates in Architecture, Inc., of 321 North Main Street, Ann Arbor, recently named new officers to the reorganized firm.

Ralph W. Hammett, professor of architecture at the University of Michigan and president of the firm announced the appointment of Lee Goucher of Hi-Land Lake as vice president. In association with other architects, while working from his own office in Pinckney Goucher has been responsible for the design and construction of many schools, churches and industrial projects in Michigan since moving here five years ago.

Locally, he was the designer of the completely remodelled Congregational Church interior and the new shopper's mall on Main Street for the Pinckney General Store and the McPherson Bank.

While employed by W. T. Anicka Associates, he was in charge of field supervision for the St. Mary's School here and the 1955 additions to the Pinckney Schools.

Goucher is presently secretary of the Pinckney Board of Education and an associate member of the Detroit Chapter of the American Institute of Architects.

Mrs. Harry Rose and Mrs. Rueben Rose of Ann Arbor were Saturday visitors at the Roy Reason home.

Howell State Hospital To Accept Out-patients

Howell State Hospital announced limited out-patient services to begin after August 1, according to Dr. M. J. Skowronski, Medical Superintendent of the Hospital.

The Hospital's Social Service Department will accept applications for consultation services from the parents of 16 children currently on the Livingston County Probate Court waiting list for admission to the Lapeer Home and Training School.

In addition, parents who may be considering the placement of their child in a State Home and Training School and who apply to the Probate Court for such help can be referred to the Social Service Department of Howell State Hospital for diagnostic services which might result in treatment recommendations other than commitment to a State institution, Dr. Skowronski said.

With these direct services, the Hospital Staff offers to share leadership responsibility with interested individuals and groups to plan and organize an educational campaign, through speaking engagements, newspaper publicity, and radio in order to acquaint the public with the needs of mentally handicapped children and their parents, and to suggest methods of developing various kinds of local services to meet the needs of handicapped people.

Dr. Skowronski stated the Howell State Hospital Staff is interested in helping to develop community services for the families of retarded children living at home. Therefore, as a contribution toward this goal, Dr. Skowronski outlined a pilot plan for (1) direct services for certain groups of families, and (2) participation in an educational program designed to inform all segments of the community about the need for and values of social, educational, rehabilitative and medical services for the retarded child living at home.

Four-year-old Jeffrey Soo Hoo looks unconcerned as he sits high atop the world's largest CARE package, which contains 2600 pounds of wood working shop equipment. In comparison, actress Linda Ho shows a regular size $1.00 CARE food package to David Smith, Flight Superintendent for Hong Kong based Cathay Pacific Airways, which airlifted the huge package from Los Angeles to Linda's birthplace, Hong Kong. The shop equipment will be used in the CARE Mission in Hong Kong to set up a Self-Help workshop for the training of Chinese refugees. Cathay Pacific volunteered to airlift the material to the Orient when it delivered its new San Diego-made Convair 880 Jet (in background) to the airline's routes in the Far East.

ARTICLE I SHORT TITLE

This Ordinance shall be known as and cited as the Building Code.

ARTICLE II PURPOSE

The purpose of this ordinance and code is to provide minimum standards to safeguard life, limb, health, property, and public welfare insofar as they are affected by the design, construction, quality of materials, workmanship, use and occupancy, location and maintenance of all buildings and/or structures and their appurtenances and service equipment in the Village of Pinckney.

ARTICLE III SPECIAL RULES

The following special rules shall take precedence over the provisions of the above Building Codes.

Section 100.51 - STATE HOUSING LAW - The Housing Law of Michigan (Act 167, Public Acts of 1917) as at present in effect, and as same may from time to time be amended is hereby adopted in all of its provisions, and is made a part of and a supplement to this code. The provisions thereof shall in every respect be recognized and enforced the same as any of the other provisions hereof.

The location of any building upon the lot on which it is situated, and the size of the yards and courts shall be as provided by the said housing law. Minimum sizes and heights of rooms in dwellings and provisions for lighting, ventilation, and the installation of sanitary services, shall conform to the requirements of the said Housing Law.

SECTION 104.5 — VIOLATIONS & PENALTIES — Whenever Building Operations requiring a permit are being performed without a permit, or in the absence of a notice of permit being properly posted, or contrary to the plans, specifications, applications or permit, if permit has been obtained, the Building Official shall order the work stopped at once without the necessity of further notice, and shall post a written statement to the effect upon the premises. At the written request of the Building Official, the Police Department shall enforce such orders and any person or persons found working upon such building or structure shall be deemed disorderly persons.

Whenever the construction of a building shall have been started before the permit therefor has been issued, it shall be the duty of the department to charge a fee of double the amount herein established. Excavation work, construction of any portion of the foundation, or the erection of any part of any other portion of the building shall be construed as constituting the starting of construction.

When the department shall find any building or other structure to be in violation of the code in any part, the Building Official shall cause to be sent to the owner, or if such owner cannot be found, to his agent or tenant, a written notice of such facts, bearing the signature of the Building Official. Such notice shall state the nature of the violation and date when such defects shall be remedied. At the expiration of this time a second notice shall be served personally upon the owner or his agent as herein set forth. Should the necessary changes not be made within thirty (30) days after service of second notice, the Village Trustees may order the Building Official to proceed with the work of making such changes. A statement of the cost of such work shall be transmitted to this Board of Trustees, which shall cause the sum to be paid and levied as a special assessment against the property. Should the owner or his agent refuse peaceable entry to the Building Official or his agents, the Building Official shall apply to any Court of competent jurisdiction who, upon finding his statement of facts to be true and in accordance with this ordinance, shall issue the necessary writs of entry to the premises.

Proper service as required herein shall be personal service upon the owner of record if he shall be within the Village of Pinckney. If he shall not be within the Village of Pinckney, such service may be had upon any person accustomed to collect rents upon the property in question, who may be in the Village of Pinckney, and in the absence of such a one, upon any tenant of the premises. Should such premises be vacant and this owner be not in the Village, service will be complete when such a notice is sent by registered mail to the best address obtainable from the records of Livingston County. Whenever the owner, agent or tenant is a corporation, service may be upon the president, vice president, secretary, or treasurer, or in the absence of all these, local representative of such corporation.

In any case where it is not practical to alter an unlawful structure to make the same comply with the requirements of this ordinance, the Building Official may apply to the Circuit Court in Chancery to declare such a building or other structure a nuisance and order the same removed.

Whenever any person shall wilfully violate any of the provisions of this ordinance either personally or by conspiring with, or causing others to commit acts in violation of this ordinance, whether such person be the owner, agent of owner, contractor, architect, or workman, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00), or confined in any penal institution for not to exceed ninety (90) days or both, at the discretion of the court.

The imposing of a sentence under this section shall not be construed as excusing or permitting the continuance of any violation, but the department shall, when necessary to compel correction of unlawful conditions, also proceed as required under section 106.0 of the Basic Building Code and Subsections thereunder, and when the violation constitutes a nuisance, the owner of the premises, whether the owner at the time the violation was committed or his assignee, shall be deemed guilty of a violation of this ordinance for each day he shall permit such nuisance to continue unabated after due notice from the Building Official of the existence of such nuisance. The penalty for maintaining such a nuisance for each day shall be a fine of not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00) or confinement in any penal institution for not to exceed ninety (90) days, or both at the discretion of the court.

Section 104.51 — BOARD OF APPEALS — There shall be a Board of Appeals consisting of five members to be appointed by the Village of Pinckney Board of Trustees. The members of the Board of Appeals may be removed from office by the Board of Trustees at will. The Board of Appeals may also act as the Board of Appeals required by the Zoning Ordinance, if any.

The Board of Appeals shall have the power to make such rules and regulations concerning the administration of its duties as it deems satisfactory.

In case of dissatisfaction with any decision of the Building Official, except as to dangerous structures and the management of the department, including the dismissal of employees, an appeal may be made to the Board of Appeals as herein provided, but if no such appeal is made, the decision of the Building Official shall be final and conclusive.

All appeals shall be filed in writing with the Village Clerk who shall bring said appeal before the Board of Appeals within thirty (30) days after the filing of such appeal.

SECTION 104.6 — FEES — Before receiving a building permit, the owner or his agent shall pay the fees as specified below. In applying the provisions of this code in respect to new work, existing buildings, alterations and repairs, the physical value of the work shall be determined by the Building Official on the basis of current costs, and as provided in Section 106.5 or as otherwise provided in the local ordinances.

Summer Barbecues Spark Outdoor Fun

Outdoor cooking advocates can save hours of fuss and assure better cooking results by building their charcoal fires the correct way.

Once the barbecue grill has been placed in position, the first step is to prepare a base for the charcoal. While a number of substances have been used, a mineral base has many of the most desirable qualities. Simply pour a mineral base such as Bar-B-Sorb from the bag into the grill until the bottom is entirely covered. Granules should be piled two to three inches deep in the center.

Next, arrange the charcoal in pyramid form in the center of the grill, approximately 12 inches wide and five inches high. There are many starters on the market although liquid starters are easy to use and work perfectly with the mineral base. A mineral base has sponge like action which holds large amounts of liquid starter, releasing it gradually for a hot flame of long duration.

Squirt the starter at the base of the pyramid and allow the charcoal to burn about 45 minutes until a gray ash appears. Knock the ash from the charcoal and arrange about one inch apart. Don't arrange the charcoal too close together or drippings from the meat will flare-up and cause charring. The mineral base assists by reflecting the heat upward, thus reducing the need for charcoal, and by absorbing many of the drippings from the meat.

With cooking completed, only the charcoal need be disposed of, since the base lasts the entire season.

Library News

Those who enjoy the books of Louise Dickinson Rich will be delighted with her new one "The Natural World of Louise Dickinson Rich" which is a companion book to her "We Took to the Woods" which told of living in the deep woods of Maine twenty miles from a post office. Her new book tells of the wild life of Maine and is filled with shrewd observations and earthy philosophy with anecdotes and humor in every chapter.

Also new is "Portrait in Brownstone" by Auchincloss, author of "The House of Five Talents." This is the story of the Denison family and the forces that shaped it, of its members living behind brownstone facades and clinging to their family identity. Auchincloss is a master craftsman and an authority on the way a certain society talks, moves, takes its pleasures and defeats.

The Pinckney Community Library welcomes summer residents, and we are glad to see so many of our summer people back this year.

Eight members were present at the meeting of the Writers club Thursday evening. All reported work in progress and spent an enjoyable evening in discussing the individual works.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

EVERY YEAR a new record. That's the story of Michigan's state government budget, which this year jumped to $511.5 million.

In recent years it has grown in leaps, from $463.5 million in the 1960-61 fiscal year to $462.6 million last year, and now $511.5 million.

But many of the large budget-consuming departments and divisions will work this year with basically the same budget they had last year.

Educational institutions, from the grade schools through the colleges and universities, gained the highest boosts. The education budget last year was $109.6 million. Some $116.5 million was set aside for it this year.

This year a boost in the school aid formula and the anticipated increase in primary enrollments pushed the budget for school aid payments to $68 million from $46 million in the past fiscal year.

Republican majority leaders in the Legislature estimated revenue from taxes around $536 million. The excess, if there is any when the taxes are collected, is designed to reduce the still mounting deficit.

A new item in the budget this year calls for the creation of a state camp facility similar to the Civilian Conservation Corps units in use in the 1930's.

The Legislature set aside $100,000 for operation of the facility for juvenile delinquents, and $80,000 for its initial physical establishment.

Michigan officials have high hopes of cornering about 10 per cent of the Federal appropriation for manpower development and training programs.

Initially 14 courses under the act will be offered to some 400 persons in Alma, Battle Creek, Grand Rapids, Jackson, Kalamazoo, Lansing and Muskegon. Later courses are planned in Bay City and Detroit, as well as several other cities.

The projects will be a prime example of federal-state-local cooperation.

The Federal government set down the ground rules and will provide the funds. State officials are coordinating the programs, which are suggested and designed by local committees working with public school officials and the Michigan Employment Security Commission.

Charles C. Killingsworth, Michigan State University labor-industry expert, predicts great success for the program in the state.

The courses offered are set up on recommendation by local officials after a study of the needs of the labor market. Killingsworth estimates that 4 out of 5 trainees under the program will have jobs waiting for them when they conclude the courses. The others will "have a good chance to get a job," he said.

Courses under the program will be similar to several already conducted in various areas under the Area Redevelopment Act, with one major change. Under the Area Redevelopment Act, communities must be classified as "distressed areas" to qualify for Federal funds.

Success of the ARA courses has already been evidenced. In the Detroit area, three nurses' aide programs were completed in May. Of 19 persons who completed the courses, 15 were employed.

A similar ARA course in Port Huron for spring machine operators had 30 students. All 30 had jobs waiting for them.

Basically the manpower development and training programs will be geared to help the unemployed re-situate themselves in a labor market for which they are not presently qualified.

Killingsworth said Michigan hopes to receive $43 million of the initial $435 million Congressional appropriation. This would allow the training of an estimated 100,000 persons in Michigan.

Something new was recently added to Michigan's network of freeways. A 24-hour patrol by State Police was inaugurated on a semi-permanent basis after a month-long pilot study.

"About 100 troopers split into three shifts will be assigned to the freeway patrol from 20 posts," said State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs. "They will be there to assist stranded motorists as well as for traffic supervision and crime prevention."

The uses of the freeway patrol were shown well in the preliminary study of the idea.

The pilot test covered an 83-mile stretch of Interstate 94 between Battle Creek and New Buffalo. A special compilation during the month showed assistance was provided to 571 motorists.

Of these, 189 were for tire failure; 91 motorists ran out of gas; 164 had motor trouble; 37 needed help with other mechanical failures; and 100 wanted information on food and lodging or routes, became ill, or needed assistance for other miscellaneous reasons.

Childs said cars which run out of gas on freeways will be supplied enough to get to the nearest filling station.

The test patrol also handled its share of traffic control problems. The compilation showed 281 arrests for traffic violations and 584 oral warnings to drivers, most of them for speeding. During the period 32 accidents were handled, two of them resulted in traffic deaths. "The patrols will be in the experimental state for some time," Childs emphasized. "We still have the same manpower as before and must carry out our usual other duties on other highways."

IT'S NEVER TOO EARLY to learn ... and that's true where the telephone is concerned, too. That's why it's such a good idea to teach young children how to use the phone correctly—especially for emergencies. A child can easily learn how to dial the Operator—and, if need be, ask her to call the police or fire department. When children understand what a phone is for and how to use it, they're less apt to regard it as a toy, won't "play games" that could interfere with calls from people trying to reach you.

TIME FOR FUN! Summer brings out nearly everybody's urge to take to the road. And—be it a weekend of sun or vacation of fun—45,000 Michigan Bell public telephones help make for more carefree trips. Wherever you go, chances are you'll find a handy public phone ... to keep you in touch with those back home, to check on reservations and to help you with the unexpected or forgotten details.

OUR OWN "400 CLUB" ... what is it? The more than 400 Michigan Bell employees whose suggestions for money-saving operational improvements were accepted and put into use last year. In 1961, one out of every eight Michigan Bell employees submitted an idea under the Employee Suggestion Plan—a total of 2,800 ideas in all. Michigan Bell people are constantly looking for new ways to do their jobs better. And that, in turn, helps keep down the cost of your telephone service.

Men, if you believe marriage is a share-alike partnership, then let your wife try out those power tools she's been buying you for Father's Day or your birthday.

We're not suggesting that you turn your workshop into a social gathering spot, but you can ease your mate's burden by showing her how to speed up several time and energy consuming chores.

The ordinary electric drill, for example, can be fitted with a wire brush. With it, your wife can quickly clean up a charcoal blackened barbecue grill, normally a tedious arm-wearying job. It's best to mount the grill horizontally, so she can manipulate the drill with two free hands. Don't use the electric tool near water, naturally, or with wet hands.

Put a wool bonnet or cover on your drill or sander and your spouse will actually enjoy polishing furniture. She'll discover that there's little comparison between the mirror-smooth finish provided by power polishing and hard-rubbed surfaces. And she'll find it easier to keep highly polished surfaces clean.

She may be so pleased you can persuade her to shine up the car, too. Just make sure she always uses a wax made for use with electric tools.

Notes of 48 Years Ago

Lucy T. Culhane of Pinckney and Grant D. Sherman of Mayville were united in marriage on July 15 by the Rev. Fr. Coyle at St. Mary's church.

Madeline Moran and Margaret Brogan were week end guests of Mrs. R. M. Ledwidge.

Rex Read returned to New York after spending ten weeks with his parents, the Thomas Reads.

The Old Boys and Girls Association will meet here in one week. The committee has issued a request for all business places and residences in the village to be decorated, preferably with patriotic colors and Japanese lanterns. Former Pinckney residents are already arriving from far-away places for the big gathering.

The Democratic state convention has been called, to be held in Detroit on September 30. This county is sending 20 delegates.

Agnes McCluskey of Lockport, Ill., is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed McCluskey.

Miss Helen Tiplady was a house guest of the Joseph Stackable's in Inkster several days last week.
