The Way We Hear It

... the senior's graduation picture proofs all came back to them — colored! This is work of the Lyndon Studios, and very clever it is! Makes one able to visualize what a finished colored picture will look like.

... Mr. and Mrs. James Lavey finally succeeded getting the carpenters out of their newly built home, in order that they could move in, which they did Saturday.

... every Sunday afternoon at 1:30 p.m. the People's Church of Pinckney sponsor and participate in a fifteen minute broadcast, station WHIM, Howell. The name of this program is "People Church of the Air." They invite you to listen.

... the "50-Plus Club," a group from the Congregational Church, have delegates each month to make calls on the shut-ins, the sick, or others who need cheering such as this.

... the Cub Scouts had their annual "Blue and Gold Banquet," Monday night at Pilgrim Hall. Some 200 people turned out for this family pot-luck supper.

... when you read the stories written by the senior English class in this issue, you may perhaps, want a copy of "Webster's Unabridged Dictionary" close at hand! To read these stories however, it does encourage one to see what our Pinckney High seniors can turn out by themselves, and to know they are receiving teaching of this type.

... is anyone with a problem that is just "too much" for them should be all means write it down and send it immediately to "Dear Rachel." This column is one of the many included in the Pinckney Dispatch, The Brighton Argus, and the Whitmore Eagle. We have two persons, that must be very happy now after writing and getting "Dear Rachel's" point of view to their problems. We have many readers in these three cities comment favorably that this column should be — but no one seems to submit their problems: Is it due to your being afraid you might be recognized? If so please relax! (The only two letters received, and fit for publication) so far, brought many inquiries such as "was that my husband or my wife, who wrote that?" You see friends, chances are there are many with the same problems — and who would know which one ask for the help? Come now, and send your problems in! They don't have to be problems concerning your spouse or your love life, especially, it could be with your neighbor — your child's school teacher, your mother-in-law; (any "in-law" for that matter's) pose). If you live in the Pinckney area, please send them to the Pinckney Dispatch, and they shall be forwarded on to "Dear Rachel." Thank you!

... Mr. Phil Gentile has gone skiing again, this time to Colorado. He is due back this week, and before two years lapse, his friends should know of this!

... Mr. Ridge Shirey, a very patient out-of-doors sportsman, finally hooked on to a prize 30 inch, 8 pound pike one day last week! Mr. Shirey has not revealed the "secret spot" he acquired this prize at ... but it might have been "close to home."

... (and see it) the Pinckney Dispatch owes Mrs. Harriet Rahrig an apology! Last week's report of the candidates elected in the Township Primary election, Mrs. Rahrig's name was listed as Mrs. John Rublig, Republican candidate opposing Mrs. Helen Reynolds for Township treasurer. All concerned are so very sorry when such a thing as this happens.

The Editor Speaks:

THE DISPATCH BELONGS TO THE COMMUNITY

The Literati Club

By ALICE ALLEN
The inception of this club was on Wednesday night, January 9, 1963, at the home of Mr. Chamberlain, one of the English teachers at Pinckney High.

A small concourse of senior high girls congregated there for the purpose of expanding their knowledge in English literature and to analyze top-level books with sagacious Mr. Chamberlain.

They hope to augment the size of it as it proceeds. Judy Bekker, Pat Borovsky, Anita Clark, Pam Hoelt, Brenda McKnight, Shirley Mitchell, Carolyn Nicholes, Valorie Parker, Viola Treaster and myself now make up the present membership.

Officers were chosen and they are Anita Clark, president; Viola Treaster, vice-president; Brenda McKnight, secretary; and Carolyn Nicholes, treasurer.

"Romeo and Juliet" is the appellation of the first book they discussed after which, refreshments were served. The next meeting of the Club will be on February 27, at Mr. Chamberlain's home. The book "The Marble Faun" by Nathaniel Hawthorne will be discussed. In March the group will read "The Idylls of the Kings," by Tennyson, which should be very interesting.

Any student interested in joining the club, please contact Mr. Chamberlain. They would be extremely happy to have you with them. Mr. Chamberlain avowed that this club will greatly help those students who plan to go to college.

"He who can take advice, is sometimes superior to him who can give it." Von Knebel. However, it is believed to be so, that there be some people, including managers, among our readers, and in our communities, who would make use of a column, wherein, they could present problems and receive a new approach to the answer. If you agree, mail your problems in letter form, signed or un-signed, to "Dear Rachel," Box 78, Pinckney, Michigan.

Two Lawyers (Con Con Delegates) Explain Code in State Bar Journal

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is No. 37 in a series about the proposed new Michigan Constitution. Additional articles will appear in subsequent weeks.

Two former Con Con delegates, a Republican and a Democrat, are authors of an article supporting adoption of the proposed new Michigan constitution in the current issue of the Michigan State Bar Journal.

The bipartisan summary of the new document is written by John E. McCauley, Wyandotte attorney, and Eugene G. Wanger, Lansing lawyer.

McCauley was a Democratic delegate representing Wayne county's 18th district at the Constitutional Convention. He is chairman of

Visual Aid Club

By RALPH EMERY

The Visual Aids Club is composed of thirty-six members. Mr. Swarthout is the sponsor for such. The officers include, Ralph Emery, president; Dennis Williams, vice-president; Beverly Umstead, secretary; and George Colone, treasurer. This club was established four years ago in order that students might gain ability in the operation of movie projectors, tape recorders, and other machines of this caliber that are for educational purposes.

This year's club is the largest in Visual Aids' history, membership ways, because they have repealed the twenty-five maximum membership limitations. So far conditions have favored this procedure, because of the widely dispersment of members throughout each study hall, preventing the necessity of taking students out of a class to show a movie.

Machines on hand for this Club's use are two movie projectors, a film strip machine, an opaque projector, a tape recorder, a record player, and screens. We issue three certificates, one for 10 hours of teaching others to run the machines, one for knowing how to run all of the machines, and a certificate for 24 hours of using them for the teachers. If a person gets all three certificates, he will receive a pin at the end of the year.

the Wayne county board of supervisors. Wanger is a Republican and was elected to represent Ingham county's 1st district at Con Con.

"Taken as a whole and judged by any nonpartisan standard, the proposed new Michigan constitution is a great improvement. It deserves your support at the polls April 1," the article begins.

Continuing, lawyers McCauley and Wanger write: "It contains literally scores of major new provisions, the majority of which were supported by both political parties at the convention, which could never be amended into the present constitution by the legally cumbersome, politically uncertain, time-consuming and costly process currently required."

Important changes in each of the 12 articles of the proposed constitution are discussed by the attorneys with the comment that "most informed citizens will find the vast majority of them to be better, in most instances immensely better, than our presently basic law."

With respect to the controversial issue of apportionment, McCauley and Wanger says:

"The new provisions will produce a legislature far more representative of population than at present and contain machinery virtually guaranteeing that both houses will be redistricted promptly every 10 years to reflect population changes. At the same time effective representation for people in sparsely populated localities is retained."

Among the improvements noted in the new document by the two delegates are:

1. Broad and flexible government.
2. Provisions for strengthening county, city, village and township.
3. Executive branch reorganization to consolidate the more than 120 executive agencies into not more than 20 principal departments.
4. Increasing the terms of the governor and other elective state officials to four years; and joint election of the governor and Lieutenant governor as nominees of the same political party.
5. More adequate, equitable and flexible state financing.

5. Increasing the independence of the judiciary by permitting elected incumbent judges to nominate themselves for reelection.

6. Establishment within five years of a court of limited jurisdiction to replace justices of the peace and circuit court commissioners; elimination of the fee system as compensation for judges.

7. Better coordination and planning for public education in the state.

In their concluding paragraph the attorneys write: "We think that the new constitution will be adopted April 1 because of the votes of Democrats and independents, as well as Republicans, who having judged the two documents on a nonpartisan basis recognize that Michigan's future will be better under the new constitution."

This Newspaper Is OUR Very Own

IT IS A FACT, the PINCKNEY DISPATCH, printed and published by the late P. W. Curlett, was an ideal small town newspaper; and, IT IS A FACT, no one could possibly do the job, such as he did. So we may as well figure out such a paper to be out of the question now!

This is reference to all the many comments, "The paper sure isn't what it used to be when P. W. Curlett had it".

We are all quite aware of this at the Present Dispatch office!

IT IS A FACT the Pinckney Dispatch no longer held interest in Pinckney for the printing and publication of such, therefore it was sold — not stolen, or taken away from Pinckney, — but sold.

Sold to people who are interested that Pinckney have a paper, or they probably would never have bought it in the first place! (a fact.)

And now we should "figure" they will do their best to please us, if only we manage to give them the chance. In doing this, we must not be antagonistic toward them just because it is someone out of town now who owns, prints, and publishes this said paper and stop (and figure) what they have done in the past four or five months that they have owned it.

One thing, the new owners rent and maintain an office in Pinckney, which means an added business to the Village, and all news, advertisements, and other Dispatch business goes through this office without much interference from Brighton people, and all the papers are brought to and mailed through the local post office, beneficially so.

Do not these things prove more or less that the new owners are trying to add to — not take away from — the development and progress of Pinckney?

The new owners, by all means, do not care what Pinckney are people put in the paper. Let's forget, they do not live in Pinckney, or do not print the paper locally — and make the most of what we have!

Deer Killing Puts Father, Son Behind Iron Bars

HOWELL — A father and son are in the Livingston County Jail as a result of illegal deer killing.

Harold G. Stambaugh, 27, was recently found guilty of unlawful possession of deer and his father, Augustus W. Stambaugh, 61, of possession of unlawful deer, by Justice Stanley F. Peoviak.

Each was fined $75 plus costs of $10 or 30 days in jail. They chose the jail sentence.

They were arrested by State Conservation Officer Bruce Jones. The son held responsible for the killing of the deer and the father for the possession when the deer was found in his home at 1746 Gully Rd., Oceola Township, according to Justice Peoviak.

Two South Lyon residents paid fines of $85 and $10 costs, following their arrest by State Trooper William E. Meyer.

Robert A. Reaume, 37, of 22320 Pontiac Trail, was charged with transporting a loaded gun, and Thurman J. Sutliff, Jr., 27, of 9,000 Pontiac Trail was charged with having a loaded gun.

Both men told the justice they had come to Livingston County with the intention of killing deer.

Conservation officers here have asked the public to notify them if they see anyone killing deer illegally. Remains of deer killed recently, have spurred the officers in the making of this request.

Health Center Curtails Visits To Fight Flu
HOWELL — To avoid the possible spread of influenza which has reached near epidemic stages in some parts of the country, a decision has been made to limit visiting at McPherson Community Health Center.
Until such a time as this danger has passed, only members of the immediate families will be accorded visiting privileges, according to James Sullivan, hospital administrator.
"This is considered a precautionary measure and the public is urged to give their full cooperation," he said.
The curtailment of visiting is in keeping with the policy of many of the surrounding hospitals at this time.
"It is suggested that instead of visiting, you send a note to those in the hospital whom you might wish to visit," Sullivan recommended.

Progressive Patient Care Soon To Be Rounded Out

The Progressive Patient Care program being rounded out at McPherson Community Health Center this coming summer will consist of services within the hospital and services extended outside the hospital.

Already articles have appeared describing "in" services offered through the Intensive Care and Self Care units. Two other units, Intermediate Care and Continuing Care will be discussed now, and the Home Care department will be discussed in a subsequent article.

Intermediate Care has been described variously as "normal" care, "general" care, and "good" nursing care. It is all of those but it can best be described in its relative position in the PPC scale.

INTERMEDIATE CARE

Intermediate Care is good nursing care which does not require quite as close attention and observation of the patient as does Intensive Care. There is not the need for quite as high a ratio of nursing hours per patient as in Intensive Care, yet much skill in giving care will be required.

On the other hand, Intermediate Care will require a higher ratio of nursing hours per patient than Self Care. Also the nurses' time will be spent more in bedside nursing than in giving instructions in how to care for one's self.

If you exclude obstetrical and pediatric cases, most patients who enter the hospital will be admitted to Intermediate Care and will remain there for their complete stay. This will be the biggest single unit in PPC.

As we have seen, the most critically ill are assigned to Intensive Care and those able to be up and about are often in Self Care. If, of those remaining, the patients classified as needing regular care were assigned to Intermediate Care, there would still be one large category of patients left. They would be the patients who are in the hospital for an extended stay and who can benefit from rehabilitative care.

NURSING DIFFERS

These long-term patients will be grouped together in the Continuing Care Unit of PPC. These patients will require a different kind of care from others. The nursing hours required per patient will average about as high as those for Intensive Care, but the kind of nursing will be different.

Many of the patients in Continuing Care will be suffering from strokes, diseases of old age, will be wearing casts or be in traction because of fractures or other injuries. For one reason or another these people can be expected to be bed patients for longer than average.

Patients of this type need more than average help in feeding, bathing, skin care, linen changes, turning in bed, and physical assistance to get into a chair. There is not the need for the same amount of emergency care as in Intensive Care but there is much personal care needed. A higher ratio of nurses aides and orderlies to registered nurses is needed in Continuing Care than in ICU.

THERAPY HELPS

Many of these patients can show improvement under the thoughtful use of physical and occupational therapy. The Health Center is rapidly developing these therapy facilities under the advice and counsel of the School of Physical Medicine of The University of Michigan. Staff physicians can order rehabilitative exercises and therapy to help restore many patients to partial or full recovery.

There will be a small dining room in the Continuing Care Unit where wheel chair patients can be taken for meals when they are able to feed themselves. Special tables under which wheel chairs can fit will enable patients to eat in a more home-like atmosphere and in the company of fellow patients.

It is the sincere hope of the staff at the Health Center that Continuing Care can make a significant contribution to help patients on the road to real recovery. So often, in the past many long-term patients seemed destined to remain at one level of their physical disability. Now there seems to be hope that many patients can come a long way back on the road to normal living.

FOOD MEANS MUCH

One item of care which is important to every one of the PPC units, including Continuing Care, is food. Anyone who has been a hospital patient knows the arrival of the trays of food at mealtime is an important moment to the person in bed.

A dietitian of a modern hospital has to be able to cope with the problem of supplying food for any one of the diets the physician may order for his patient. The number of possible diets is almost countless, but twenty or thirty are commonly available on short notice.

The dietitian's problem is further compounded by her being required to furnish tasty and attractively-served meals in all the possible diets. The diet kitchen of the Health Center offers what few hospitals this size attempt — a selective menu for patients.

The physician's duty is to signify the diet category for his patient. The diet ordered may be general, salt free, liquid, diabetic, low sodium, low fat — or any one of the many others.

After the doctor has written his diet order, the dietitian sub-

Legislature Wants May Adjournment

By THOMAS G. SHARPE
State Representative
Shiawassee-Livingston
District

Will the Legislature meet its self-imposed deadlines, and be able to adjourn as scheduled early in May? Everybody is working with that end in view, with perhaps a few exceptions, but now some are beginning to doubt if it can be done, unless everybody abandons delaying tactics.

Republicans and most Democrats subscribe to the idea of an "action-packed" session. However certain procedures must be followed.

Both House and Senate have set up tight schedules. If there is no unnecessary debate or discussion, those schedules can be met. Delaying tactics on the floor of the House, in the way of speeches that call for action, but effectively prevent the House from doing its work have been cropping up.

Long speeches of criticism of the Governor, of the Republican House leadership, and of their program, serve only to delay the vital work, which must be done before we can turn our attention to the passage of bills.

This week a tremendous number of bills must be introduced, and assigned to committees. Unless the House can work without interruption, this work cannot be done by the deadline. A few members can prevent the kind of action needed to move legislation along smoothly.

Once the bills are all introduced, and the committees have had time to study them, and report them back, then you will see a daily attention to passage of bills which is not now possible. Committees are all meeting to study the bills that have been introduced. Hearings are being held, and some bills are being reported, and already several pieces of legislation have passed the House.

A public hearing was held last Thursday before the Election Committee, on House Bill 16, which proposes to change the date of the Primary Election from August to the Second Tuesday in September.

There appears to be considerable opposition to this bill, mostly based upon the fact that it provides too little time to get absentee ballots to voters in our armed forces serving overseas. Those who furnish election supplies also said that there would be difficulty in providing ballots and other supplies in the short time provided in the bill.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Kirgibury from Shiawassee county were at the hearing. Clark is the County Clerk for Shiawassee county.

As of Friday the 23rd, there were 491 bills introduced and started on their legislative journey.

Army Private Attends Retreat

HOWELL — Army PFC Daniel C. Utley, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Utley, 3700 Jewell, recently attended a five-day religious retreat at the Eighth U. S. Army Religious Retreat Center near Seoul, Korea.

The purpose of the retreat is to provide the soldier with the opportunity to meditate and discuss religious matters with a chaplain of his faith.

Utley, a tank driver in the 40th Armor's Company C, entered the Army in October 1961, completed basic training at Fort Knox, Ky., and arrived overseas last April.

He attended Mackenzie High School in Detroit, and was employed by Food Fair in Detroit, before entering the Army.

RONALD EDWARD SINGER

By Ronald Edward Singer

Being composed of an exceptional amount of energy to burn, I find it quite necessary and very enjoyable to participate in such things as all sports and most every other winter or summer activity that one may find time to participate in.

In my school life I find myself engulfed in the study of American Government, College English, Trigonometry, and Physics.

Having majored in math and science I plan on making a future career of Electronics.

At the present I am making application to Western Michigan in hopes that I may take a course in Electronics Technology.

The University of Michigan conducts a Center for Research on Teaching and Learning to study modern instructional techniques.

People who work hard seem to find it very difficult to keep ahead of those who do little, or no, work.

RUBIE LEE THORNTON

By Rubie Lee Thornton

I was born in Ardmore, Oklahoma in 1945.

I have attended Hamburg Elementary School through the eighth grades, and I am now attending Pinckney High School, in which I am a Senior.

My favorite subjects are History, English, and Commercial Courses. I spend my extra time reading, dancing, and visiting with my friends. I like most all winter and summer sports. I especially like to watch football and basketball.

After graduation from high school I hope to attend either Ferris Institute or Cleary College to become a secretary or a high school teacher.

Schoonmaker Will Study Fingerprinting

BRIGHTON — Detective Ronald W. Schoonmaker of the Brighton Post will be among twelve State Police detectives and three troopers who will attend a week's training course in latent fingerprints at East Lansing headquarters beginning Monday.

English Students Report School News

By SHIRLEY CZERWINSKI
Thursday of last week a number of students from the College Preparatory English class organized themselves into a group of enthusiastic reporters, composing articles for the Pinckney Dispatch.

There are eleven students participating in this activity. They are, Caroline Nicholes, reporting on the activities of the Home Economic classes; Ralph Emery, in charge of the Visual Sids Club and industrial arts classes; Alice Allen, relating the adventures of the Literati Club, Jesse Petty, giving an account of the mathematics classes, Steve Chamberlain, in the art department, Nancy Read, reporting on the government classes; Gerald Pike, relating at progress of the Yearbook staff; Robert Logan, presenting a review of Student Council activities; Norman Melby, the English department, and myself, Shirley Czerwinski, reporting on general happenings about the school.

Pinckney H.S. English Classes

By NORMAN L. MELBY

Freshman English Class, Mr. Weber, instructor. In the field of grammar the Freshman are studying sentence structure and punctuation.

In the field of writing the freshmen are concentrating on the writing of good paragraphs. Their literature study so far in this school year has included the short story, the essay, the biography, and the autobiography. At present their literary study is concentrating diligently on poetry.

Mrs. Miller's Sophomore English classes have spent a considerable amount of time studying grammar; they work on it fifteen minutes a day.

In the first term studied the short story extensively. Then they studied essays, thor.

CIVICS CLASS

Mrs. Morris

The civics classes enjoyed the talks given by Ryan Bonner, and Ron Fox. Both of these young men are former students of Pinckney High, and are now in the military service. It was interesting to the class that both Ryan and Ron stressed the importance of hard work in high school as a preparation for life. Both said they realized the value of an education more now than they did a few years ago.

These classes have been making a study of the United Nations.

The World History Classes are studying the French Revolution. The unit of work began with an excellent film, which showed the causes and results of the Revolution.

In these classes one day a week is set aside for current history, in this way the students try to link the past and the present.

The seniors in the World History classes conducted a panel discussion Friday on the life of Napoleon. The seniors used their text books for basic knowledge, then branched out into approximately fifteen other references among these references were "War and Peace" by Tolstoy; "The Outline of History" by H. G. Wells; "Fifteen Decisive Battles of the World" by Creasy, and "Napoleon" by Manuel Komroff.

Advice To Teenagers

FROM THE INDIANAPOLIS STAR

The Wall Street Journal recently printed this sparkling little gem. It was written by L. D. Harris, chief of police at Manassas Park, Va. and distributed at a Parent-Teacher Association meeting.

Always we hear the plaintive cry of the teenagers: "What can we do? Where can we go?"

The answer is... Go home!

Hang the storm windows, paint the woodwork. Rake the leaves. Mow the lawn. Shovel the walk. Wash the car. Learn to cook. Scrub the floors. Repair the sink. Build a boat. Get a job.

Help the minister, priest or rabbi, the Red Cross, the Salvation Army. Visit the sick. Assist poor. Study your lessons. And then when you are through — and not tired — read a book.

Your parents do not owe you entertainment. Your village does not owe you recreation facilities. The world does not owe you a living. You owe it the world something. You owe it your time and energy and your talents so that no one will be at war or in poverty or sick, or lonely again.

In plain, simple words: Grow up; quit being a cry baby; get out of your dream world — start acting like a man or a lady.

INDICATING A MORE COLORFUL FUTURE, CBS WILL tape "Cinderella" in color during the summer for televising next winter and frequently thereafter, as NBC does with its "Peter Pan" color tape. Julie Andrews will repeat the title role she created in the 1957 telecast. CBS is dickering with Robert Goulet to play her Prince Charming... Chances are good that Goulet also will be tapped to play opposite Carol Burnett in her "Calamity Jane" special, scheduled to be taped next summer for fall showing... CBS, incidentally, will repeat "Julie and Carol at Carnegie Hall" June 12... Dick Clark will move his American Bandstand to Hollywood and turn part-time dramatic actor if Drayton's Kinoid series finds a sponsor. The test film will air as an episode of Stoney Burke, with Clark getting not only the title role but a piece (10 percent) of the action.

The new half-hour version of Fair Exchange will then inherit Ed's Thursday evening time... ABC has okayed Hootenanny, its new half-hour folk-singer series, for an April start as replacement for Our Man Higgins... Mr. Smith Goes to Washington, either or both of which may be canceled... ABC has revived Hawaiian Eye. Slated for dumping in April, it will now go through the season to June... Joan Shawlee joins The Dick Van Dyke Show as a regular in the role of Morey Amsterdam's wife, Pickles... On the Jay Ward agenda: a cartoon series called Super Chicken.

KINDERGARTEN
Mrs. Paris

Susan Blades has come back to our morning class. Most of us know our full names and addresses now. Gary Ledwidge had his tonsils out.

Tom Schroeder is in the hospital with pneumonia. Terry Russom celebrated his birthday on Valentine's day.

We wish to express our appreciation to the mothers who came with a treat for our Valentine party. Everybody had fun. We folded paper and made paper hats for George Washington's birthday.

We are beginning to write our names with manuscript letters.

THIRD GRADE
Mrs. Henry

The boys and girls in our room would like to thank mothers and fathers who attended our P.T.A. meeting.

It enabled our room to share the "Room of the Month Plaque" with Mrs. Douglas' room. We each had eleven parents present.

This week we made rubber by mixing natural rubber latex from the Far East plantations with a vinegar solution. The rubber looked like our light colored crayons.

FOURTH GRADE
Mrs. VanBlaircum

We wrote "thank-you letters" to the mothers, who baked for our Valentine party.

They were: Mrs. Baller, Mrs. Schroeder, Mrs. Krause, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Aschenbrenner, and Mrs. Holcomb.

We all enjoyed the puppet show. It was very good. We are sorry that Vickie Overmyer got burned so badly. We hope she will get back to school soon.

Nearly everyone has finished their project on Africa. We have several movies, dioramas, pictorial maps, and dolls dressed appropriately.

We had a room spell down. The most difficult word was an easy one — circus. About ten people went down before someone remembered that it started with a "c", not a "s".

We have learned two dances, "The Virginia Reel", and "Take a Little Peek".

SIXTH GRADE
Mrs. Erhard

On Valentine's day the two 6th grade rooms got together for a party. We danced and for refreshments we had pop and cake. We passed out the Valentines just before we went home.

We ordered some more books from the Arrow Book Company. This time we receive two free books, "Outlaw Red," and "Fire Hunter," for our order. We have about $90.00 worth of books.

David Hampton moved away. We now have 37 boys and girls in the room. Ms. Erhard was ill last Monday and Tuesday, and we had Mrs. Bell for substitute teacher.

SIXTH GRADE
Mrs. Taach

We are studying the "Middle Ages," and find it very interesting.

We have started to learn how to do decimals.

We have been memorizing different plays. One of them is named "Piffle, Its Only A Sniffle." We are entering this play in the school annual talent show.

7TH AND 8TH GRADE
NEWS
Mrs. Carr

We made a bulletin board scene which is titled, "Around the World," and it has pictures of different countries.

We elected new officers. They are: Tim Umstead, president; Clara Watters, vice-president; Don Hollister, secretary.

EIGHTH GRADE
Mrs. Meyer

Our aquariums are becoming very interesting. Guppies are increasing in numbers, as are the snails. We enjoy our gold fish very much.

We are planning a trip to the Ice Capades, March 2nd.

John Crittenden, Darryl Holcomb, Cindy Borovshy, Carol Gyde, Mary Stapleton, and Larry Kessler missed school last week — the flu bug bit 'em.

Some of the eighth grade boys are happy that Boy Scout group is being organized again. "Division A group" in mathematics are using new workbooks.

Yearbook Nears Finish

By GERALD PIKE
Editor

Again the staff of the "Pirate Log" is pleased to announce the completion of another deadline. With little hindrance my inexhaustible cohorts have compiled the second third of our momentous yearbook. Censoring our volume to the most infinite degree, we have inter-fused humorous caricatures with many pliancies; one modification will be the upgrading of the faculty subdivision, comparable to that of a college annual.

Another facet, which we hope everyone will find rather "musing," is our presentation of the mock elections. We feel this publication will be found irreproachable, standing as a monumental paragon for future works, habituating itself to its sagacious readers.

A "How-To-Do-It" PAINT POINTERS

Ever been tempted to refinish furniture, either as a hobby or just for the one-time fun of it? If so, a real good way to begin is with Du Pont's "Dulux" satin sheen varnish, formulated to produce as easily as possible the hand-rubbed effect so cherished by experts.

In restoring an antique, for instance, simply remove all old lacquer with a wax-free remover. Then sand moderately with a 60 or finer paper, and stain or bleach, if desired. Next, apply two or three coats of satin sheen varnish.

If the original finish was shellac or lacquer and is not removed completely, it should be covered with super clear varnish as an adhesion-promoting undercoat for the satin sheen.

A beautiful, soft luster sheen can be achieved over old, high gloss varnish in good condition by simply sanding lightly, followed by one or two coats of this new type of varnish — the hobbyist's delight.

Delta College Becomes Focal Point of Dispute over Role of Universities

By ELMER E. WHITE
Michigan Press Association
Saginaw Valley will have a four-year institution of higher education if a group of legislators get their way this year, but there is at least one stumbling block in the offing.
The group, headed by Sen. Lester O. Begick, Bay City Republican serving his first term in the Senate after two years in the House, has proposed a bill under which the state would establish a junior-college year institution in the area now served on the freshman-sophomore level by Delta College.
Begick in the Senate and Rep. Russell H. Stranger, R-

Clare, in the other chamber are hoping Sen. Stanley Thayer, Ann Arbor Republican, will go along with their proposal.
Thayer, representing the home city of the University of Michigan, has something of a conflict where the bill is concerned.
University of Michigan officials have expressed an interest in supporting an upper-level, two-year institution in the Delta College area. The plans have not progressed yet to the point where the University is ready to ask for state funds to establish the unit.
Residents in the Delta College area have been pushing for the creation of the full four years of higher education to be established in their area for several years now. Begick and Stranger, along with a number of others who conducted a study last summer of the possibilities for offering the service, are anxious for action this year.

As majority caucus leader in the Senate, however, Thayer's voice is powerful. His ties with the U-M could pose a threat to the possibility of legislative action if the University maintains its hopes of establishing a two-year branch in the Valley area.
Some legislators, however, don't want to see U-M and other existing colleges start creating a "chain store" or "piggy back" system of branches throughout the state. A number of these are afraid the Legislature would lose what little control it has over the institutions if this were to occur.

On the other hand, there is keen competition within the universities to continue their growth and the "chain store" approach is seen as one of the few ways future growth can be assured.
Gov. George Romney has declined to express specifically his views on the U-M proposal as opposed to the legislative measure in the House.

NOT SO SUNNY
Michigan teachers who seek overseas assignments with the idea they will find an ideal situation might get a surprise, according to those who know in the educational field.
It is true that assignments in the Overseas Dependent Schools operated by the Defense Department offer wonderful opportunities for teachers who want to travel in their spare time.
On the job, however, conditions are far from ideal, according to National Education Association information circulating to state affiliates.
"The schools attended by the children of military families are 'in the horse-and-buggy era,' while the military establishment is geared to an age of space exploration," said NEA Executive Secretary William G. Carr on the basis of a survey of the schools.
The survey disclosed shortages of supplies and current textbooks, lack of needed specialist personnel, an excessive teacher turnover rate, inadequate facilities in many locations, unsuitable housing at some posts, and unprofessional salaries.
Money, of course, was seen as a way to solve many of the problems noted in the survey, Carr said. Michigan's Lynn M. Bartlett, Superintendent of Public Instruction, was among a group of six persons who toured the overseas systems last fall and wrote the report on which Carr based his warning to lower the teachers' stream of ideal conditions to reality.

awards, citations, dinners or programs to honor these individuals.
"In every community there are individuals who have contributed their time, energy, and wealth for many years in behalf of schools," Riethmiller said. "Such valuable services have contributed most in their communities."

why we are suggesting that Education Day be used to recognize and honor those who have contributed most in their communities."

Blue Cross Extends Payments To Cover County 'Home-Care'

HOWELL — The home-care service program at McPherson Community Health Center has been accepted and approved for benefit payments by Michigan Blue Cross under its home-care coverage program.
This means that eligible Blue Cross members who are accepted for home-care under the McPherson home-care will be covered under home-care benefits by Blue Cross.

The McPherson home-care program specifies that patients must live in Livingston County and be under the care of physicians on the staff of the McPherson Community Health Center. In addition, acceptance also hinges on the judgment of the physician and the home care nursing coordinator. They decide whether it is feasible to provide needed care at home and whether the patients will benefit from such care.

A Blue Cross stipulation is that the member must have unused days of hospital care to his credit, and that hospital days will be saved. However, home-care days do not reduce the number of hospital days of care he is entitled to.
Acceptance of the McPherson home-care program extends the Blue Cross program to a fourth area in the state. Blue Cross home-care coverage began as a two-year test program in the Detroit area and a one-year test program in cooperation with Sheldon Memorial Hospital in Athens.

Brown-McLaren Property Tax Is $14,751
HAMBURG — Personal property taxes of $14,751 have been collected from Brown-McLaren Manufacturing Co.—instead of $11,000 as reported in last week's paper.
Hamburg Township Supervisor Francis Shehan said that the money has been paid to the treasurer, Mrs. Ellen McAfee.
Distribution of the 1961 tax is now being made to the county, school districts, and township. The 1962 tax will be distributed in March when the taxes are in and the jeopardy assessment for 1963 will be distributed in 1963. For now, it will be placed in a special account.
Action to collect the money was taken by the township officials when the firm announced it was discontinuing its operation here on Feb. 1.

Early in 1962 both the Blue Cross of trustees and the state insurance department approved extension of home-care coverage to Blue Cross members in "areas where there is an organized home-care program operating with acceptable standards and controls."
First to qualify in addition to the two "test" areas was the home-care program of Menon Hospital in Traverse City. The McPherson rural-hospital oriented program is the second to qualify and its program ties in with the concept of a broad health-care program to achieve the best community total health care.
Dr. Edwin L. Harmon, Blue Cross Medical Director, said Blue Cross anticipates further extensions of Blue Cross home-care coverage as other areas and hospitals develop home-care facilities which meet the necessary requirements.
He pointed out that the Detroit "test" program involving more than 1,000 patients found that home-care services: (1) Generally speeded recovery of the patients, who returned favorably to an earlier return to home surroundings and family; (2) Save an estimated 20 days of hospital care per case as an average and thus freed beds earlier for other patients.
The effect, Dr. Harmon said, was to "help slow down the need for costly expansion of hospital facilities, thus effecting an over-all savings in total community health-care costs, and actually helped bring about speedier recovery in these selected home-care cases. In addition it saves money for Blue Cross on individual cases by cutting down the number of hospital days which are far more costly than a home-care day."

SEC. 507. Any registered elector who has removed from 1 election precinct of a Township, City or Village to another election precinct of the same Township, City or Village shall have the right to make application to have his registration transferred on any election or primary election day by executing a request over his or her signature for such transfer and presenting the same to the election board in the precinct in which he is registered. Upon receiving such request, the inspector of election in charge of the registration records shall compare the signature thereon with the signature upon the applicant's registration record and, if the signatures correspond, then the inspector shall certify such fact upon said request and the applicant for transfer shall then be permitted to vote in such precinct for that election only. The application for transfer shall be filed with the Township, City or Village Clerk who shall transfer such elector's registration in accordance with the application. When the name of any street or resident house number in any Township, City or Village has been changed, it shall be the duty of the Township, City or Village Clerk to make the change to show the proper name of the street or resident house number in the registration records, and it shall not be necessary for the elector to change his registration with respect thereto in order to be eligible to vote.

WYNNE CHESTER SAYS:
Try Indoor Shooting For Family Fun

We have an indoor rifle range in our basement, and believe me, it's the best way I know for the whole family to have fun together during these long winter evenings and week-end afternoons.
Our bullet stop is just a big packing case full of dry sand - anything over 18 inches through is safe - placed against a thick wall. But there are many other types of bullet stops. You can write to the National Rifle Association, 1600 Rhode Island Ave. N.W., Washington 6, D.C., for plans and information.
A few weeks ago my son Mike - bless his industrious little heart! - decided to improve our range by adding a sound-reducing shooter's box. He did it all by himself, too - with a bit of coaching from his father. It's quite simple; just a 4' x 4' open-ended box lined with acoustical tile, but it cuts down shooting noise surpris- ingly well.

Why not try one in your own indoor range? And if you don't have a range, I advise you to build one soon. As I said, it's the best way I know for the whole family to have fun to- gether.

The number of newly planted apple trees reported by the Michigan Department of Agri- culture indicates the state may someday become the na- tion's No. 2 apple producer. Michigan currently stands third.

Know YOUR MICHIGAN LAW

Attorney General
FRANK J. KELLEY

In this day and age, an auto- mobile is a necessity that many people can ill afford to be without. Sometimes the sus- pension of a driver's license has the effect of putting a man out of work entirely.

People frequently write to my office asking whether the Department of State has the legal right to take their driver's license away from them.

Our Michigan courts have held that a driver's license is a privilege which can be suspended or revoked because of a bad driving record.

Any person who accumulates 12 or more points as the result of traffic violations within two years will be called in for a hearing under the Department of State's Driver Improvement Program and his driver's license may be suspended or revoked.

Any person whose license is suspended or revoked under the Driver Improvement Program has the right to appeal to the License Appeal Board which is composed of representatives of the Attorney General, the Secretary of State, and the Chief of Police of the city, or the Sheriff of the county where the licensee resides.

The Board has wide discre- tion to affirm, modify, or set aside an Order of Suspension or Revocation. If a person is not satisfied with the decision of the License Appeal Board, he has the right in most cases to petition the circuit court for restoration of his license.

The purpose of this pro- gram is to make our high- ways safer for all of the peo- ple of Michigan. When a per- son's license is suspended or revoked because of too many violations, it is done primar- ily for the protection of all other Michigan residents who use the highways, and not merely to "punish" the in- dividual driver.

Under the "Point System," 6 points are received for certain serious offenses, such as drunk driving, failing to stop and dis- close your identity at the scene of an accident when required by law, or reckless driving. For a speeding violation, 2, 3, or 4 points are given.

For disobeying a traffic signal, a stop sign, or improper passing, 3 points. For other moving violations, 2 points.

March 26 - The American Legion Auxiliary will join with the Brighton Business and Pro- fessional Womens Club for a legislative meeting. The meeting will be open to the public, and all are urged to at- tend, so that more can be learned about the new Con- stitution.

He was a molder with the former Ann Arbor Machine Co. for many years, later working as a gardener in this area.

Coming Back in Upper Peninsula

Two wildlife figures of Michigan's past—the moose and Canada lynx—are staging a comeback in the upper peninsula, according to the Conservation Department. Forced out of the state's picture—or nearly so—following the early logging days, both species have shown signs that their numbers are building up slowly, but surely, above the St. Ignace. Their recovery is traced to changing forest conditions, namely the removal of big trees—the very thing which is working more and more to the disadvantage of deer, grouse, and snowshoe hares.—Mich. New Lothrop Conquers Eagles

HARTLAND — The Hornets of New Lothrop, although two hours late in showing for their game with Hartland, after bus difficulty, found their "sting" still potent dropping the Eagles, 55-51.

The Eagles provided New Lothrop their two "toughest encounters" this year in the roundball sport. The first encounter was won by New Lothrop on their court 44-42 and the second encounter by the four point margin.

New Lothrop got what it came looking for. A share of the MVC crown and a chance to encounter M.S.D. Friday night with an 8-1 record.

Bill Davis of New Lothrop scored 18 of his 23 points in the first half the help New Lothrop to a 34-30 halftime lead.

The Eagles came back in the second half to display "superb" defensive prowess in holding the Hornets to four field goals in the second half.

The defensive game cost Hartland three of its starters with some three minutes to go. New Lothrop sank 12 of 20 free throws in the final stanza to make the difference.

Vernon Smith led Hartland scorers with 18 points followed by Larry Wharus with 13. Both Smith and Wharus were forced to sit the final minutes of the game on the bench because of fouls.

Last night Hartland will travel to Byron, current second place holder in the MVC and Friday will entertain 4th place Birch Run.

The second game of the night saw a see-saw battle between the Stealers and the Romper Stompers.

Big 10-Day Sports Show Opens Friday in Detroit

The fun and thrills of Michigan's great outdoors will move indoors for 10 days starting Friday.

That's when the world's largest sports and recreation exposition opens at the Michigan State Fairgrounds, Woodward and Eight Mile Road, Detroit.

The show, which has just concluded a highly successful run in Chicago, will become an annual event in Detroit, said producer Thomas E. Durant.

Four buildings, including the Coliseum, have been leased at the Fairgrounds to handle all the various exhibits, demonstrations and events connected with the exposition.

The two-hour presentation, "Parade of Champions", will take the "stage" twice daily in the Coliseum, at 2 p.m. and 8 p.m. (It's hard to call it a "stage", since it includes a giant pool and a pair of 86-foot-tall Norway pines).

TV's John Bromfield, famed for his role as U.S. Marshall and the Sheriff of Cochise, will emcee the "Parade of Champions," which will include the world's best log-rollers, archers, canoe-titlers, lumberjacks, and whip experts.

Local Team Starts Fast

BRIGHTON — Local fans were given a special treat at Clarenceville last Friday, as Brighton's Bulldogs played one of their finest (if not the finest) games of this rapidly-ending basketball season, winning, 55-34.

Amid the smiles and jubilation from the Brighton spectators, the Bulldogs jumped off to a fast lead of 14 to 0 before the Trojans could score their first point.

This must be attributed to Brighton's fine defensive press, which finally worked to perfection, with the Brighton cagers pulling out a first quarter lead of 23 to 7.

The second quarter continued like the first, with the Bulldogs completely dominating the boards, with Roger Lane, Ed Case, and Louie Williams doing their job of rebounding. But also in the first quarter of fouls continued to mount.

As the first half ended Brighton held a 36 to 19 lead, but by making 17 fouls in the half, they gave Clarenceville 14 out of their 19 points, and placed 4 of the starting five in danger of fouling out.

In the third quarter Clarenceville began to find the range and gave the Bulldogs a tussle under the basket, but the local five continued their steady play and took a still larger: 50 to 23.

With this huge edge, Coach Bob Kucher wisely put in some of his bench, for with the tournaments rapidly approaching, it pays to have that extra man on the bench with experience. This is a lesson Brighton coaches have learned the hard way over the long tournament trail.

Clarenceville outscored the Bulldogs in the last 8 minutes, 12 to 5 but the lead proved to big to beat as the Bulldogs laid claim to their 6th victory, 55 to 34.

One more regular season game remains with Northville here at Brighton, before the most exciting season begins with the tournaments.

Hope has been rekindled in the hearts of many a B.H.S. fan and the coach after last Friday's play. If the Bulldogs will have success in this tournament season, they will have to play ball like they are going against Clarenceville every week.

Scores for Brighton were made by Lane, 13; Case, 8; Hartman, 16; Verellen, 8; Even-son, 2 and Williams 5.

Whitmore Lake Dampens Pirates

By JERRY VAN SLAMBROOK

PINCKNEY — The Pirates had another busy schedule last week as they started to wind-up a long and discouraging season.

Tuesday night was Pinckney's last away game and they were quite decidedly beat by the Dexter Dreadnoughts.

The complete dominance of Dexter over Pinckney was proven by the fact that they took an early and large lead holding it the whole game. The outcome was 80 to 42.

The Pirates returned to their own floor Friday and they knew that if they were going to have a win for the season it would have to be then, although it would be a non-league victory.

The game was with Whitmore Lake and as the game went on the expectations for a victory got brighter and brighter with every minute.

The Pirates jumped to an early lead and held it through the first half, 26 to 20.

Then the third quarter, and the Pirates started to taste sweet victory. They held that six-point lead and as the buzzer sounded the quarter's end, the score board revealed, Home 35, Visitors, 29.

The thought of every Pirate that all that separated them at that moment must have been from victory was a mere 8 minutes.

A lot can happen in 8 minutes, and it did.

The Pirates, during that more than fateful quarter, for some unknown reason only managed to get 2 points, contrasted to the Trojans' 10.

The disappointment that was felt by both the team and their backers cannot be explained in writing. Whitmore slowly and tenaciously ate up the Pirates' 6-point lead and with nothing more than two foul shots, by Ted Ringle, they won the game 39 to 37.

Ringle, no doubt the most valuable player for the Trojans, took scoring honors with a respectable 19 points. Bill Light, in his last year at P.H.S., was great off the boards and turned in 11 points to be high scorer for the Pirates.

Rebounds mean a lot and credit must be given to Jesse Petty who grabbed 12 off.

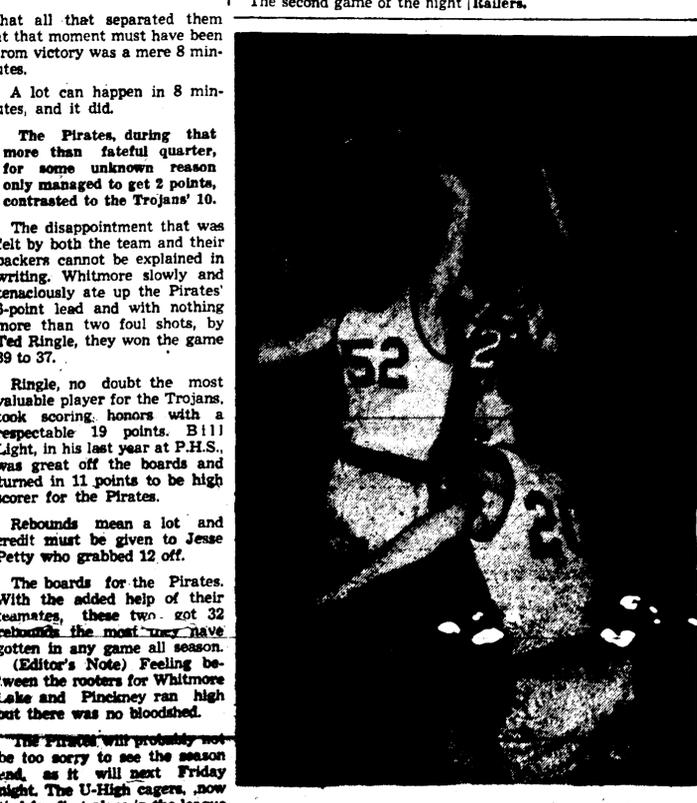

The boards for the Pirates. With the added help of their teammates, these two got 32 rebounds the most they have gotten in any game all season.

(Editor's Note) Feeling between the rooters for Whitmore Lake and Pinckney ran high but there was no bloodshed.

The Pirates will probably not be too sorry to see the season end, as it will next Friday night. The U-High cagers, now tied for first place in the league with Dexter, will visit the downed Pirates and lets hope they show a little more mercy than their earlier 101 to 23 victory.

HOLD THAT STANCE! — Gary Hill of the Pinckney Pirates awaits the results of his shot in the game Friday won by Whitmore Lake, 39-37. Also watching are Whitmore Lake players John Devoe, No. 15 and Mike Marten No. 23.

State Abolishes 'Banked Time' For Uniformed Police Officers

State Police uniformed personnel will no longer be permitted to work more than a 48-hour week after next July without overtime pay or compensatory time off, the Michigan Civil Service Commission ruled today.

The Commission voted at its monthly meeting to discontinue a "banked time" arrangement established in 1958 to help compensate Troopers who worked over 48 hours a week.

Under the plan hours in excess of 48 are "banked," and if unlisted personnel exhaust earned sick and annual leave they may then draw on this "banked time," and continue to be paid although they are not working. Ordinarily, banked time is not used unless there is a case of extended illness. Historically, State Police uniformed personnel have worked in excess of 48 hours a week although most state employees are on a 40-hour week. Applicants for State Police civil service tests are told on the examination announcement that they must expect to work six days and holidays. Troopers, who receive standard rates of pay in their job classifications, do get additional compensation not generally provided other state workers.

They get a $3.00 a day meal allowance whether they eat in the community where their station is located or elsewhere. Their lunch time is counted as working time. They a 25-year retirement system and single Troopers get free quarters at the State Police barracks.

In explaining the Commission action, State Personnel Director Franklin K. DeWald said:

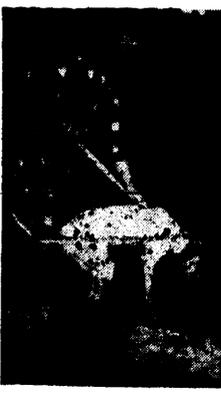

"Although uniformed police in most public jurisdictions have traditionally worked longer hours than most other employees, the trend has been to reduce these hours. Faced with continued inadequacies in funds and manpower, our studies show enlisted personnel in the State Police have been reporting an average 56-hour week.

They report having accumulated two million hours of banked time since January 1958, when the Commission agreed to the arrangement as an interim measure. Less than 2,000 banked time hours have actually been used and no end is in sight.

"Although State Police uniformed personnel do receive certain forms of compensation unique to their service, the Commission feels it cannot permit them to work more than 48 hours without either straight overtime pay or compensatory time off after the start of the fiscal year next July."

The Commission decision will permit banked time to be earned until next July and will allow future use of this time by a Trooper who exhausts his regular sick and annual leave allowance.

Brief Comments

NO POOL—Despite what many people might want for the new high school, school board members feel its expense would not warrant its being included. We agree.

NO AIRPORT—The lesson to be learned from the defeat of plans for a county airport is: make haste slowly.

SCHOOL BOARD CANDIDATES—All persons to become candidates for the school board at the June election, should be attending board meetings because much important work is being done right now in planning for the new high school.

OUST SUNDAY CLOSING—There is already too much regimentation by government... the Board of Supervisors should exercise their option under the new law and let businesses here regulate themselves.

LESSON TO BE LEARNED—Nobody ever gets something for nothing... some Fenton businessmen tried to lure a new business to their area and criticized the local newspaper for urging caution... it appears now that the local lads were almost duped and that other persons in other areas were taken by a firm which was to produce a liquid snow and ice remover.

Parliamentary Procedure

Parliamentary procedure was designed for use by England's lawmakers and is an extremely useful device where a large number of people are involved.

But it has limitations. It can be an extremely unuseful device for many small groups.

When you do a big job you use big tools; when you do a little job you use little tools.

Studies have been made and are being made of how small groups can operate most effectively. The University of Michigan is making investigation in what has come to be known as "group dynamics." As a result of this study a book was written several years back called "New Ways to Better Meetings."

This book advises most clubs to toss out parliamentary procedure; eliminate constitutions; and advises using some practices which will make meetings more pleasant and effective for all concerned.

It seems that many groups get so tangled in the web of Robert's "Rules of Order" that they can't see the woods for the trees.

A club in Detroit had a constitution which called for election for officers the first week in February but provided that no one could vote who hadn't paid dues. When the club met to elect its leaders it was found that no one present had paid dues. If the members elected officers they were violating the constitution and, if they didn't elect they were violating the constitution.

The point here being that one thing or the other had to be done or there was no club. So they set the constitution aside, elected officers, any way, paid their dues later and still had a going concern.

Many groups form for sociability but by the time three meetings have been held to adopt a constitution and the members are wrangling over whether the president shall hold office for one year or two years and whether it takes 20 or 21 members to make a quorum, most of the original group is sitting home watching television.

How many of us have been to meetings where we went to some sacrifice to attend but weren't even permitted to discuss the business at hand because there was not a sufficient quorum?

Or how many of us have sat through meetings trying to unravel whether you vote first on the resolution, or is it the amendment to the amendment? Or is it, if the amendment passes, that you don't have to vote on the original resolution?

When a question gets so bogged down, it's time for the chairman to say to all involved in the amendment-to-the-amendment-to-the-resolution: "Gentlemen, please step outside, draw up a resolution you can agree upon, and bring it back."

It is definitely possible to have better meetings but rules of order designed for large organizations should be used only when they are useful. When they become a hindrance they should be set aside.

Many groups would find they would have much more successful endeavors if they would adopt some of the modern techniques which eliminate unnecessary and peacypune bickering.

Help Stop Illness!

Long-range forecasts predict a hard winter and possible outbreaks of Asian flu. Add to this the fact that winter illnesses reach their peak between January and March and it becomes apparent that the winter season is a time of high illness.

For protection for all concerned, disinfectant should be checked frequently to see that simple and fresh means are on hand. Remember that preventive measures, such as proper disinfection of the home, are still the best means of safeguarding the family. The 25th annual Sickroom Needs Drive, with its "Help Stop Illness" slogan, emphasizes the importance of keeping the home hospital-clean by using a germicidal disinfectant, such as Lysol Brand, in the cleaning work. Not too long ago medicinal concoctions were home-brewed concoctions handed down from one generation to the next like a favorite pudding recipe. Today, packaged medicines and such essential sickroom needs as heating pads, vaporizers, syringes, drinking tubes and stomizers, are available everywhere. For correct disinfecting procedures, send for the free pamphlet, "If There's More Illness in Your House This Year" to the Lysol Home Health Information Bureau, Room 905, 342 Madison Ave. N. Y. 17, N. Y.

Winter Deeryarding Areas

Deep snow and severe winter weather mark the start of the so-called "bottleneck" period for whitetails in northern Michigan, a time when deer retreat to sheltered areas. These yarding areas, which cover less than one-fifth of the herd's summer range, are a far cry from the lush, green setting of northern Michigan as it looks in July and August. Formerly, these areas were mostly swamps where cedar, spruce, and balsam were either predominant or mixed with hardwoods. Now, because many of the swamps have been overbrowsed and no longer produce nearly enough winter food, deer are forced to range farther and farther. In effect, the winter deer range is getting bigger, but not better. This means that the fate of many deer is left to the whims of winter; the shorter the deep-snow period the better. Deer do not yard in the southern part of the lower peninsula.

Recognize Cultural Need Alert Community Stimulates Talented Young Performers

The community artist-in-residence program of Flint, Michigan, first of its kind in the nation, has passed the halfway mark of its first year. The project was set up by the Flint Board of Education, under two endowments with these aims: To give recognition to young performers of high professional status at the beginning of their careers; and to stimulate Flint's music students and cultural life by providing access to such talents at no charge. The program has been a success and Flint will be auditioning artists for future years. Pianist Aids Success
 The success of the program, feels the steering committee of citizens who conceived, created and financed it, is due in great measure to the first incumbent, Coleman Blumfield, a 28-year-old concert pianist, native of Chicago and former pupil of Vladimir Horowitz. The idea of an artist-in-residence exploded amidst the ringing acclaim for Blumfield at a recital he gave in Flint late in 1961. The spontaneity dictated that the first resident be a musician, a fine one right at hand. Now that about 50 Flint citizens have organized themselves formally as the Community Committee for Artist-in-Residence, they are looking ahead. In the future, Flint will have a resident in residence rather than a musician, a poet or a sculptor-in-residence, or even all four at the same time. Blumfield has played in Flint, an area of 400,000 population and probably the most industrialized city in the world, to hundreds of turned-away audiences. Late in 1962 he won a standing ovation when he played Rachmaninoff's Third Concerto with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. Available for Contracts
 He lives in Flint with his wife and son, and his $12,000 contract for the year ending May 31, 1963, demands two local concerts, a series of workshops for which students audition, and availability as a music master to roughly 300,000 Flint citizens. Otherwise he is free to concertize when and where he chooses. His music is broadcast over the board of education's own FM radio station, on occasion over commercial stations, and much of his year's work is going on tape to build a massive library for the future. The Flint citizens' committee believes it has started a trend which will satisfy the need for community-level culture, which President Kennedy and others have said, may be the only form in which the arts can survive. Flint's artist-in-residence program, the committee points out, is different from residencies at colleges, where benefits usually are only for students enrolled in the right courses.

When do HOUSES Have "D-Days"?

D-Day for a house is Decision Day... the day you finally decide, after all these years, that it's time for you to sell. Then come the questions:

How do you go about it? How do you determine its value... today? Who's going to prepare the ads, show the house, find a buyer... and handle all the myriad details?

We think you would be well-advised to let an experienced broker do all this for you. If you agree, our many years in Realty are at your disposal. Call or visit.

School Collects 12 Sacks of Clothing

(News of Hamburg and Winans Lake Schools)

By GILBERT DUNN Principal

Our clothing drive is a success. We haven't as yet been able to sort through the clothes prior to packing them but it looks as if there should be around 12 to 15 large sacks full.

Mrs. Beverly Herzog has had the misfortune of coming down with the chicken pox. She has been absent all this past week. Miss Ross of Pinckney has been very capably filling in for her. Several of the kindergarten children have been on the sidelines at home this past week in support of their teacher.

The parent-teacher conferences for the schools have been set for the first week in March. The kindergarten conferences will cover all of March 6 and 7; grade 1 to 8 at Hamburg will have them in the afternoon on those two days and the Winans Lake conferences will be on Friday the 8th of March. We hope that it will be possible for all the parents to attend.

During this past week the school at Hamburg was wired in grades 3 through 8 to receive educational airborne television as well as to receive the educational programs broadcast by channel 10.

The 7th and 8th graders have already watched an airborne program on science in which the anatomy of a fish was discussed.

The 5th graders watched a science program in which the human nervous system was analyzed. In the coming weeks we anticipate making use more and more of this teaching and learning aid which comes to us through the combined efforts of the PTA and Board of Education.

Dr. Margaret Meyen of the Children's Psychiatric Hospital of the U. of M. will be the speaker at the Hamburg PTA meeting on Monday, March 4

We want each and every one of you to plan on attending. The meeting will be at the usual time of 8:00 p.m.

Winter Sign Making

Recreationists stand to lose a thing or two and generally have a better time on their visits to state forests and game areas when summer rolls around, thanks to work being done this winter by inmate labor at the Conservation Department's tree nursery near Brighton. Using lumber and posts from a special state forest logging operation and scrap materials left over from building picnic tables and other items, these men are in the midst of turning out about 2,000 rustic signs during the cold weather months. Most of these signs will be posted in 1963 to identify conservation projects, and show the way to recreational facilities, historic and scenic sites. Sign making is carried out with assembly-line efficiency. Lettering for many "standard" signs is traced on boards from pre-cut stencils. Electric routers guided by steady hands (top, middle), carve letters into the wood. After each letter is sanded and the boards are dipped in wood preservative, dried and stained, two coats of yellow enamel are stroked in the routed letter grooves to complete the job (top, right).—Mich. Facts, Fads and Fancies

MOVIES

The most hectic film ever made was the 1959 production of "Ben Hur." It cost $15 million, had 425 speaking roles, a cast of 25,000, and the longest set ever built—13 acres of land.

The 3-D movie had reached its peak in 1953 — then declined. Audiences grew tired of putting special glasses on and taking them off, straining their eyes — and doubling the stress and errors that seemed to be plaguing them from the screen.

Audiences are seeing more and more movies on TV. At home, they can sit back, relax, and enjoy America's star attractions. Four Seasons, and a few parks have been built long playing.
