The Way We Hear It

BY: DOLLY BAUGHN

Tom Davis and Tom Abrass are certainly ambitious! Now they have bought Jack's Print Shop from Jack Doyle, and expect to move the equipment to the former ALee farm and will operate under the name of Hell Creek Print Shop. These two young men are very industrial minded! They also have Hell Creek Riding Stables, Hell Creek Western clothes shop, and plan to maintain a Hell Creek Riding Club this summer.

... bonds are listed on sale now for the new proposed school building and additions

... Tony DePhillippe was in town last Tuesday. It was 12 years ago he sold the bowling alleys and tavern to Vince LaRosa and went to East Tawas to continue in the hotel restaurant business there.

... Vince LaRosa has gotten underway to expand! He plans by next fall to have at least two more alleys ready for use. These will be in the old tavern part of the building which the bowling alley is now located.

... Herb Schenden is still pushing onward, gaining on his new place of business, which he hopes to open soon. It will be known as "The Dairy-Dip."

... Mrs. Swarthout and Mr. Chamberlain took their art and English classes to Detroit last week Friday and toured the Detroit Institute of Art.

... the China Painter's Exhibit last Saturday proved a success, however, there was no person present from the Pinckney area. Proceeds of this affair went to Rickett School in Brighton.

... the annual township meeting was a very quiet meeting. This is the time that persons with gripes and groans are given the privilege to appear before the Township Board and get things off their chest, so to speak! Must be residents of Putnam are a happy and satisfied bunch of people!

... Gerald Reason is having a terrible time getting any organization to handle the Miss Livingston County contest. He would like to keep it in Pinckney and you do hear a lot of comments that Pinckney never does anything! This could be the reason why - cause no one wants to!

... the Davis Crop Dusting bowling team, (women) bowled 2776 series in the city tournament, Ann Arbor, Saturday night. Top score in the tourney so far is 2850—so these five bowlers should receive some prize money for their bowling.

... Ruby Brewis bowled 634 in the single and double event in the tournament in Ann Arbor over the weekend. This is very good! The tournament ends April 18.

... some of the people returning to their summer homes last Friday didn't appreciate the beautiful blanket of snow that covered the turf Saturday morning. A few of those arriving just ahead of the big snow were the Lee Laveys, the Oscar Becks, and the Ivan Richardsons.

Stores Urged To Promote State Products

HOWELL—Livingston County stores are urged to promote Michigan products and promote Michigan generally in connection with Michigan Week this year.

The appeal is made by Douglas Parmenter, County Chairman, who points out that every retailer shares a common interest with the people who provide the products he sells. Michigan Week is May 17-23. Grocery stores have been asked to place special emphasis on the products of Michigan they sell. Retailers of manufactured products have a close relationship with their suppliers and can expect enthusiastic support in any effort to display Michigan made products.

Retailers are requested to cooperate with schools in the displaying of posters on Michigan, and to utilize all Michigan Week promotional materials in their stores. Display of the Michigan flag is also suggested during the week and throughout the year.

School Bonds Approved By Attorney General

Attorney General Frank J. Kelley, Chairman of the Municipal Finance Commission, announced today that the Commission approved $1,300,000.00 of School Site and Building Bonds for Pinckney Community Schools, Livingston and Washtenaw Counties. Attorney General Kelley said, "The proceeds will be used to erect, furnish and equip a new high school building and an addition to the Hamburg Schoolhouse, to remodel the existing high school building for upper elementary school purposes, to acquire additional land for site purposes, to develop and improve sites and to construct and equip athletic fields and playgrounds.

These bonds were approved by the electors of the school district, on January 13, 1964, are unlimited tax bonds and will run until 1993. The school district is authorized to levy whatever taxes are necessary to pay principal and interest. These bonds are also qualified by the Superintendent of Public Instruction under the School Bond Loan Program."

Other members of the Municipal Finance Commission are Sanford A. Brown, State Treasurer; Billie S. Farnum, Auditor General; and Lynn M. Bartlett, Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Pirates Beat Brighton

The Pinckney baseball team got off to a roaring start with an 11 to 5 victory over Brighton on Monday.

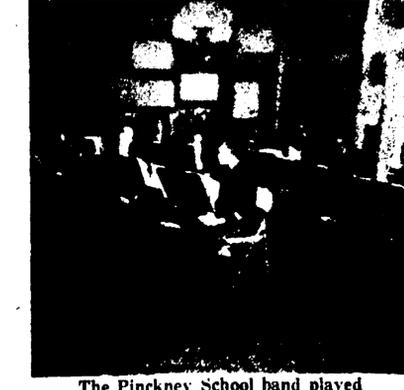

Jim Barker, veteran Pinckney pitcher, had an 11 to 2 lead at the end of 5 innings. Steve Randolph, and Dennis Williams pitched the last 2 innings. Carmon Bonaire was the leading Pirate hitter with 2 doubles and a single. Jim Pine had 2 singles, and Robert Darrow, last season's leading hitter, rapped out a double and a single. Both teams looked ragged in the field, due largely to the bad weather that has hampered outdoor practice.

The Republican elephant!

Sweet Sixteen Celebration

"Ahhh, yes, sweet sixteen"—remember? Mary Sullivan will most likely not forget her "sweet sixteen birthday." Her parents, the Ray Sullivans, entertained about 30 of Mary's friends Saturday night marking the date.

Guests spent the evening dancing, playing games, eating and watching Mary open her many lovely gifts. The affair was held in the basement of the Sullivan home.

Spirit And Enthusiasm Retained To Fullest

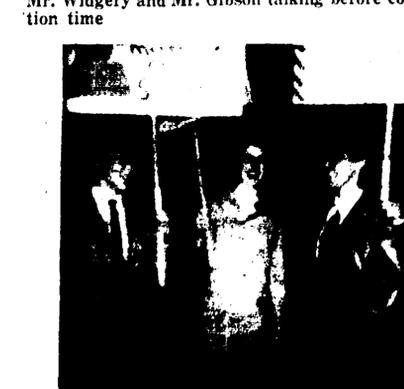

The mock political convention staged by the senior class of P.H.S. last week retained the spirit and enthusiasm of any "full-fledged" political convention ever held. The demonstration, conducted primarily by Don Gibson's Government class, was a take off of the recent political convention held in New Jersey with candidates Rockefeller, Goldwater, Nixon, Lodge, Margaret Smith Chase, etc. The Government class took the lead but before the dramatic climax of speakers, the entire senior class was enveloped with the enthusiasm and during the assembly benefitting the underclassmen, grades 9, 10, and 11, a well conducted and intelligent convention was demonstrated.

These two led the demonstration through the gym

Mr. Widgery and Mr. Gibson talking before convention time

The gym wall was covered with banners and posters, and each student carried one similar to these used at such events

Reading, left to right is Sharon Cordwas, Beth Minnock and Carol Pietila. These three were supposedly campaigning for Margaret Chase Smith.

And a Republican convention is just nothing without the ever famous mascot, the Republican Elephant? Therefore, no one was surprised in the least when one such animal made a grand entrance to get the convention rolling. Cleverly assembled with some wooden staves, cardboard, canvas a piece of vacuum hose, Gary Gow, and Laverne Hunt this animal nearly stole the show! (See Photo).

The walls of the gym were appropriately covered with political posters and banners and students carrying various posters naming candidates, supposedly of their choice, added much realism to the event.

Barbara Johnson gave the introductory speech followed by soloist, Pat Borosvsky singing the national anthem. The Pinckney band, directed by Dennis Napier, played her accompaniment. The invocation was said by Rev. Gerald Bender of the Congregational Church.

Guest speaker for the event was Mr. Widgery of the Republican State Committee, Lansing. Student speakers who delivered campaign speeches during the morning performance were Gary Warner, Shirley Mitchell, Judy Haines, Tom Chambers, Jim Wicker, Pat Treasmer, Larry Hull, Mike Harden, Niane Bolen, Larry Davis, Sandy Wetherbee, Beth Minock, Florence Morofka, Karen King, Pam Hoeft, Jim Ruggles, Dan Morse, Larry Baerwald, Maynard Garrett, and Don LaBelle.

John Haarer brought the program to a close with closing comments. The entire morning was truly a display of talent to make residents of the Pinckney Community School district very proud.

TB Tests Scheduled For Pinckney Area

The tuberculin test is like a detective. It shows whether there are any TB germs in your body even though they may have done no damage to your lungs and your chest X-ray is negative for tuberculosis. It pays to know whether or not you have a TB infection.

For one thing, sometimes you can find an unsuspected source of the infection though this is less likely with adults than children. It is also important knowledge for prevention. Because one in twenty reactors may develop active TB sometime in their lifetime, all reactors can be alerted to have annual chest X-rays to play safe. This is the kind of program needed for eventual eradication of TB to protect all of our families from TB.

Persons can take this TB test in Pinckney at Phil Gentile Home Center, Monday April 20, 2 to 5 p.m. and 6 to 8 p.m.

The TB test reading schedule is in Pinckney at Gentile's Home Center, Thursday, April 23, 2 to 5 p.m. and 6 to 8 p.m.

Anyone, no matter where you live can take the test in Pinckney. Your age must be 21 years and over. Be sure to return for the reading test, whether there is anything to see or not!

Champs For 1963 - 1964

The "CHAMPIONS" of the Women's Monday night bowling league was determined last week when the women bowled their last night of the 1963-64 season. Team standings were close this last night and therefore, the bowling alleys reeked with excitement and good cheer, and the leading team then realized they could relax at last!

The champion team, sponsored by Pinckney General Store, consists of Barb Murphy, Flo Manfrom, Rose Collier, Mary Baughn and Ruth Ritter. They have found it hard to relax this past season while competing with the five other teams in the league.

It was in 1954-55 season that this team, then sponsored by Mt. Airy Tavern, took first place honors. In 1958-59 season, Davis Crop Dusting team took first place from these women by one half point! This team organized in 1952 and has been just a point or two from being "champs" many times.

The remaining final team standings for Monday night women's league are as follows: Davis Crop Dusting, LaRosa Bowl, Jack's Printing Shop, ACO, Inc. and Beck's Marathon.

This league anticipate winding their season up with the annual banquet to be held this year at the American Legion Hall in Dexter, Saturday, April 11. Trophies and prize money will be awarded at this time.

Basketball Coach Featured At Library Open House

University of Michigan's assistant basketball coach Jim Skala will be the guest of honor for an open house at the Pinckney Public Library Monday evening 7:30-9:30 April 13.

National Library Week is the 12-18 of April. Jim Skala returned to his alma mater with Dave Strack to help rebuild Michigan's cage fortunes. Previously he served as head coach at Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti for six seasons. Despite a definite lack of topflight material, Skala turned in a strong coaching performance each season.

The husky Wolverine assistant earned letters in basketball at Michigan in 1950-51-52 as a forward and guard.

He was a strong scorer and a standout floor man for the Wolverines during his varsity career. Originally from Chicago where he attended Lincoln High School, Skala earned All-City and All-State honors. Jim also played football for Michigan and became a varsity end. He passed up the 1950 Rose Bowl trip, however, to concentrate on the cage sport and later was named captain and most valuable player as a senior in 1952.

Jim is married and is the father of three children, a son David, and twin daughters, Susan and Debra.

Come to the library next Monday evening and meet one of the coaches that helped give Michigan such a great basketball season this year.

The Library Committee will serve refreshments. Each committee member cordially invites you to the open house at the library, drop in any time during the hours of 7:30

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

April 12, 1939

Carl J. Soper, son of the Claude Sopers of Pinckney, was married to Esther Merriman of Saline in Ann Arbor.

Harrison Hole has moved back into the J. P. Doyle house on Putnam Street which has been remodeled since it was damaged by fire.

A heavy snow storm hit here on Monday evening and made driving difficult. Several cars became stuck. Tuesday morning the big milk truck of W. H. Meyer ran off in the swamp near the Hause schoolhouse.

Several hours work were required to get the truck out. At the dancing school held at the high school auditorium Thursday night, square dances were specialized in with John Burg doing the calling. Floyd Haines on the violin and Mrs. Cleasie Palmer on the piano furnished the music.

A letter received from Willie Darrow announces that he has arrived at Camp Mackinac, the CCC camp in the upper peninsula. It took 27 hours train riding from Howell to get there.

Coach John Burg and his father from Saline spent the weekend fishing for smelt at Boyne City.

Harlo Haines and Curran Palmer left by auto for Texas and points south last week.

Mrs. Harry Palmer, Mrs. Earl Baughn, Mrs. W. C. Atlee and Mrs. Fred Read attended a meeting of the Past and Present Presidents Club of the King's Daughters Monday.

A big fire was raging in the Gregory business section the day the paper went to press. The Harlo Munsell store and Conk barber shop had already been destroyed.

Gregory, Stockbridge, and Pinckney fire departments were trying to save the other buildings. Nothing was saved from the Munsell and Conk buildings.

FORTY-EIGHT YEARS AGO
April 20, 1916

In an effort to close the two saloons in Dexter, a number of women of that village induced the council to boost the license to $500 and it is said that at least one of the liquor dealers would close his place of business.

About $20 has been subscribed for the benefit of the PHS baseball team by the businessmen of Pinckney. The team goes to South Lyon for their first game of the season Saturday.

The first dance after Easter was to be held at the Opera House Friday for the benefit of the PHS baseball team.

Sidney Thurston, 83, who had lived three miles south of Pinckney, died Tuesday afternoon.

Sunday evening an Easter Song Service was to be held at the Congregational Church. Mrs. Fred Swarhout was to sing a solo, and also combine her talents with those of Miss Florence Kice in a duet.

Mr. Stranger, piano tuner of Ann Arbor, proposed to hire a rig and come to Pinckney if any four persons in a neighborhood desired their pianos tuned.

EIGHTY YEARS AGO
April 10, 1884

John Lakin sold his farm in North Putnam to his son-in-law, Valentine Dinkel, taking as part pay 40 acres owned by Dinkel.

F. A. Sigler was preparing to build an addition to his residence on Main Street.

Brown & Collier hardware store was being enlarged by taking out the partition and was to have an addition built on the back also.

Emmett Murphy, from Dexter, had purchased the livery stock of H. O. Barnard and also rented the hotel barn, which he was to run, as well as the bus to and from railroad trains. Murphy and his family were moving into the house on Main Street just vacated by the Lawrences.

Some of the citizens were waiting for a warm, dark night so they could go spearing mullet.

The Highland Pickle Factory was contracting for cucumbers the coming summer at 45c per bushel.

Will Harris bought of John McCloskey, two lots east of the old "Austin Park" site and was to build a home there.

John McCloskey was to try his fortunes in Dakota, having started for that "famous Western country" last week.

Ferdinand Grisson, pioneer resident of Hamburg village died suddenly April 9, 1884 at the age of 72. Grisson was a native of Hamburg, Germany and settled with two brothers in the township of which gave the name of their "Faderland" home. Grisson was Postmaster of the village for many years, also, a Justice of the Peace.

Gregory News

BY: M. COSGRAY

The following is Gregory history!

Many have traveled over 106 and have passed through Gregory. As you drive through this village toward Stockbridge you climb a hill with a large stone farm house at the top on the right. In this beautiful stone house lived the family that gave Gregory its name.

Philander Gregory from Rochester, Monroe county, New York, moved to Unadilla Township, Section 21, in August 1837. His wife and infant son came to the wilderness to establish a home and make a living. There were few neighbors, Indians, and no roads. Gregory was entirely new and unsettled as was most of the township.

They soon built a small frame house, and his family settled. It was a hard struggle for several years.

Philander continued his trade of making gloves and mittens which he sold to settlers. His wife learned the trade and made the mittens and gloves while he tanned the leather. Deer and wild game were plentiful and this furnished them with hides and meat.

The frame house was later replaced by a large stone house (which still stands). More acres were added, from time to time, until they totaled 240.

In 1884 the Grand Trunk Railroad was built through the Gregory farm. A depot was erected and the village of Gregory was born.

Mrs. Beth Ludtke was pleasantly surprised when several couples "dropped in" Wednesday evening to help her celebrate her birthday.

Miss Bonnie Prescott and Mrs. Gerald Kunzleman were married March 21 at the Gregory Baptist Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merton Prescott of Gregory, Mr. and Mrs. George Kunzleman are the bridegroom's parents. The newlyweds are residing in Stockbridge.

Rev. and Mrs. Robert Ramseyer and family left Tuesday to assume the pastoral duties at the Nankin Mills Baptist Church in Garden City.

Volunteer solicitors are now collecting contributions for the American Red Cross in Unadilla Township.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gough of Canal Pt., Florida surprised her mother, Mrs. Belle Leach, when they flew into Richmond field Gregory last Friday to spend several days with her.

The installation of a sign properly identifying the "Gregory Elementary School" has been placed on the new addition of the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Howlett attended the Fred Waring Performance in Detroit.

The Staff and Pupils at Gregory Elementary School breathe a bit easier these days. Two hundred pupils no longer expose themselves six times a day to crossing an unguarded street. The street in front of the school is closed during school hours. The 3rd, 4th and sixth grades each have tomato trees. The 4th and 6th have had ripe tomatoes already, with more due to ripen shortly.

Ed Howlett visited his brother, Rick in Munich, Germany last week. Both boys are servicemen.

New Detergents Beat Stream Pollution

Polluted streams like this are becoming an increasingly familiar sight in many areas. "Hard" detergents causing such pollution and foaming, destroy fish life and make the water useless for bathing and boating. It is feared that such "hard" detergents may start seeping into the soil, affecting the health of our entire population.

As a result, in many parts of the country lawmakers have passed legislation outlawing the use of such detergents. In many others, similar legislation is being introduced.

Mr. C. M. Braham, president of Arkansas Co., Inc., Newark, New Jersey, manufacturer of industrial chemicals used by the textile, leather, paper and other industries, has announced the development by his company of a group of "soft" detergents, "Lantol" A-BD and "Dergon." OM which are biodegradable and completely destroyed by bacterial action under conditions of standard sewage digestion procedure. Tests of these "soft" detergents made by Foster D. Snell Laboratories of New York City, well known consultants to the chemical industry, show that in one day Dergon OM was completely broken down, and Lantol A-BD was broken down in three days — as compared with weeks required by "hard" detergents. Additional information about these new detergents can be obtained by addressing: Arkansas Co., Inc., P. O. Box 210, Newark, N. J.

FHS GRADUATE OF '63 IN CHORAL GROUP

Scharme Baxter, daughter of the Charles Baxters of Patterson Lake and now a student at the Grand Rapids School of the Bible and Music is currently on a two-week tour which will take her through eight states with the "Symphonettes," a choral group made up of 25 girls attending the school.

The Symphonettes will present their concert in the Pinckney area on May 3 when they appear at the Hiawatha Beach Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Sven Sattavara who have been gone since the second of January, are now back at their Hi-Land Lake home after spending the winter at Lantana, Florida which is near Palm Beach.

The Bert Wylie family and the Dwight Wegeners with daughter, Linda attended the wedding of Mrs. Wylie's and Mrs. Wegener's brother, Walter Neumann of Ypsilanti, to Dorothy Westphal Saturday afternoon in Byron.

Overnight guest at the Willard White home on West M-36 last Sunday was Miss Ruth Daniels, who gave a very interesting talk at the Gregory Baptist Church that Sunday. Miss Daniels spent 44 years of her life as a missionary in India. She travelled on to her home in Birmingham, Mich., Monday.

Spring must be coming... Everyday we hear of the return of those lucky enough to spend their winters in the warmer climates of Florida and California. The L. J. McKinleys and the Louis Sherwins are now enroute to Pinckney. Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Raetz left Florida for home on April 7, planning to visit their son and his family in Illinois on the return trip.

The Lee Lavys are back, and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Richardson returned from Florida Friday afternoon... just in time for the big snow Saturday.

DEMOLAY TEAM ON TO STATE FINALS

The Livingston County Chapter Demolay boys are going along in great style winning two basketball games this week. Pinckney hosted the games. Thursday the local boys defeated the Jackson Chapter for the district championship. Saturday, in the regional playoffs, they again defeated their opponent, this time the Redford Chapter.

Next Saturday they will participate in the state championship playoffs at Lansing... and they'll all be rooting for the home boys.

Pinckney boys on the team are Bruce Henry, Bill Light, Wes Scott and Terry Reason. Only boys who are not participating in school sports are eligible to play in these games. Coaches for the team are Herbert Bowles of Pinckney and Gilbert Rosister of Fowlerville. Lawrence Baughn, member of the Advisory Board of the Livingston Chapter was coordinator of the basketball planning.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Bechler and son, Barry and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bechler and children were in Durand Sunday visiting the Ronald Bechlers.

and their first baby, a little girl, born March 23 and named Kimberly Ann. Ronald, a PHS grad of '61, and his wife the former Margaret Ann Rider of Howell are in the process of moving to Baldwin, Mich.

Clarence Williams phoned the Dispatch office this week... he saw a deer swimming across the lake in front of his home on Pointe Drive, Patterson Lake.

Remember all the fun the youngsters (and older folks, too) had at the Carnivals put on by the Mother's Club at the Pinckney Elementary??... well there is to be one this year sponsored by the PTA. Don't throw away your white elephants during spring cleaning... they can use them.

THAT'S CHARLIE!
Charles Baxter, one of Pinckney's pilots, just bought himself a new single engine, two seater airplane which he keeps at the Gregory airport. Mrs. Baxter tells us, "If you see a green and white airplane with an orange tummy flying over, that's Charlie!"

Five boys in the 10 to 12 year age group really had a ball when their Sunday School teacher, Herbert Bowles, took them to Flint Sunday afternoon for a trip through the Longway Planetarium. Making the trip were Mike Scott, Dave Clark, Kenny Hall, Joel Burg, and Allen Quessenberry.

Gerald Reason tells us, "With reference to President Johnson's declaration of war on poverty, there are several of us wondering where we can surrender."

Rhoda Baxter, PHS student, spent her spring vacation with her sister Scharme in the dormitory at the Grand Rapids School of the Bible and Music.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hewlett and children returned Tuesday, March 31, from a visit with Chuck's father in Victoria, Texas. The Hewletts were also weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Basydo at Killen, Texas. They enjoyed a tour of Fort Hood where Victor is taking part in an extensive training program.

Mr. and Mrs. George Black, Robert, John and Cynthia were weekend guests of the Lawrence Gonyea family in Dearborn, Mich.

The Mrs. Alta Meyer farm has been sold by Gerald Reason, Pinckney realtor, and development will start in the very near future.

CHARBONEAU HOME ON LEAVE
S/Sgt. Everette L. Charboneau, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Charboneau, 9040 Farley Road, Pinckney arrived home last Saturday morning for a surprise short leave. Charboneau was detailed as military escort for the body of SP5 William Waller, who died in Japan, to his family at Richmond, Indiana.

Everette, who has been in the army since 1953, is stationed at the U.S. Army Personnel Center, Oakland, California. He was last home in August '63 while on a similar escort duty to Flint. He is taking a five-day leave to visit his parents, brothers and sisters in this area, and his grandmother in River Rouge. Sunday he spent the day with a family group of 40 at the home of his parents.

Miss Margaret Scovia and Miss Catherine Rohs of Detroit spent Thursday with Miss Florence Preuss, Pinckney's librarian.

Twelve members of the Pinckney Craft Club met at the home of Mrs. Earl Packer last Wednesday, April 1, to learn the basic steps in knitting taught by their president, Mrs. Nestor Engquist.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kimbler and sons, David and Danny, arrived home Saturday evening from a two-week vacation in Mobile, Alabama and Pensacola, Florida. Earl's mother, Mrs. Levin Kimbler of Mobile, came back with her son for a visit in Michigan.

Mrs. Ernest Bottke is convalescing at her home after heart surgery done at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

PAKISTAN MISSIONARY SPEAKS
About 80 persons were present at the "Family Night Supper" at the Gallean Baptist Church last Saturday evening. Rev. Roland Crosby as program chairman presented Rev. J. Walsh, missionary who has worked in the East Pakistan field. Rev. Walsh showed slides of his work there and curios which he had brought back. Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Walker of East M-36 were the chairman of the supper committee.

Mr. Alvin Washburn of West M-36 is still a patient at McPherson Health Center but is progressing nicely.

John Rogers shared his 10th birthday celebration with his fellow Cub Scouts in Den 4 last Thursday, April 2. Den mother Mrs. Louis Rogers provided the fun and refreshments for Cub Scouts Gordy Szalwinski, Robert and Dave Slinger, Terry Brenneman, Tim Gardner, and Gordon and George Marshall.

Mrs. Sadie Moran left Easter Sunday to spend a week in Detroit with her daughter and son-in-law, the R. W. Grossers.

The TOPS Slenderizers at their regular Thursday evening meeting crowned their March Queen of the Month (the girl who lost the most weight during the month). Marge Rogers walked off with the honors and the prize.

The club cleared over $10 at a Silent Auction held after the meeting. They now have 18 members, some coming from as far away as Whitmore Lake, South Lyons, and Gregory.

The Slenderizers are currently discussing the possibility of having a float in the Memorial Day Parade... one of the problems is finding members brave enough to ride it!
The Rainbow Girls Box Social Friday evening at Masonic Hall was an enjoyable event. About thirty persons played cards, bingo and games. Pinckney's auctioneer, Bert Wylie, in his inimitable style auctioned off the lunches the girls had packed and wrapped so prettily. Mrs. Asher Wylie, president of the Mothers Club, was general chairman for this event.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wlodzga are back at White Lodge after a combined business and pleasure trip to Alabama. The Wlodzgas drove to Mobile where Mr. Wlodzga was to transact business for his employer, the Ford Motor Co. They were lucky to be in Mobile when the azaleas were in bloom and visited the famous Azalea Trail, and travelled on to the nearby Gulf of Mexico.

Mrs. Wlodzga flew back after one week, while her husband stayed on for another week, finished his assignment. Mrs. C. R. Stevens, another White Lodge resident, stayed with the Wlodzga children while their parents were away.

Carl Burg, son of the John Burgs, underwent surgery at the Medical Research Center at the University Hospital on Monday.

DIXON FAMILY SUFFER NO EARTHQUAKE DAMAGE
Mrs. Abner Watkins was kind enough to share her letter from her sister, Mrs. Viola Dixon, with us. Mrs. Dixon, also the sister of other Pinckney residents, Clara, L. J. and Claude Swarthout, survived the Alaskan earthquake in fine shape. Spenard, her place of residence which is about 3 miles from Anchorage, suffered some broken windows; the houses shook like they had the ague; and the water, lights, and gas were temporarily shut off. The Dixons had to live in one room for a short time and heat with electricity until the gas mains were again in working order. Quite an experience.

The Jim Whitleys were in Ann Arbor Sunday visiting with Jim's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Whitley, who had just returned the previous Friday from a six week's trip to Florida, Texas and Missouri.

Fifteen Rainbow girls and their Mother Advisor, Mrs. Herbert Bowles, attended services Sunday, April 5 at the Community Congregational Church honoring Rainbow Founder's Day. This organization for girls was founded April 6, 1922.

The ladies of the Rosary Altar Society were given a Mother and Daughter breakfast by the Holy Name men

We are writing to the Audubon Society to stop them from advocating the Kirklind Warbler as our state bird instead of the robin.

James Pietila gave an oral report on his and his father's fishing trip in Florida. The report was constructive, interesting and very humorous. He told of many of his experiences, including a story on "The One That Got Away." Altogether it was one of the most interesting reports we've had all year.

"B" division math is working on graphs and "A" division is working on formulas.

Romance in Crepe

THIS is the year when soft supple crepe of "Dacron" polyester takes its place in the sun, from a fashion point of view as well as literally. Carol Craig has designed a sunny weather success—the longline V-neck jerkin and matching pleated skirt in sunshine colors splashed with white. Stark white too is the roll-necked, three-quarter sleeved blouse to complete this washable, versatile costume.

Letter to the Editor

To the Editor;
I noted in the last week's Dispatch that the Pinckney School Board did negotiate for the purchase of the Shehan Site for the proposed new High School Facilities and as a result of a rather feeble effort on the part of the Board did reduce the purchase price of the said Shehan Site by $3,500.00.
I would suggest to those who have occasion to communicate with the Pinckney School Board in the future try using Braille instead of just plain writing. You will get at least as good results.
The $5,500.00 discount is appreciated.
Yours Truly,
Gerald F. Reason

Hunts Lost Calf In Deer Herd

Bernard Kuhns is a man who provides us with fine steaks—in other words he operates a feed lot with about 600 head of cattle. He lives near Chilson Road and Grand River, where deer herds have been especially large.

Recently, one of his calves got loose and there is nothing more oney than a calf on the loose. It disappeared. Asked if he thought the calf had been stolen, Bernie said "no" and appeared little worried.

He explained that a neighbor had a calf get loose and a year later found it running with a deer herd.

Bernie is just waiting for the deer herd to show up with his calf. He said that deer herds will adopt a calf, but he failed to explain how they teach it to jump 15 foot fences, although our smallest children will tell you of the cow that jumped over the moon.

Studies have shown that over two-thirds of the glass-door injuries occur to males, and that children 5 to 14 years old account for one-third of all injuries. More than three-fourths of the injuries occur in the home, and about three-fourths occur when the victim is passing from inside to outside. Hurrying is the major cause, much more so than slipping, crowding or horseplay.

Circuit Court

In last week's session of Circuit Court, Virginia P. Pety was granted a divorce from Raymond W. Pety.

Young America is on the move. Most brides, for example, will move at least three times during the first five years of marriage—and some of them will move as often as every six months.

1. Pack for common sense, not sentiment. Great Aunt Susie may be quite loving about her gift of fragile family teacups, but if you like them, leave them—until the day when you have proper and safe storage space and the teacup life. The same rule applies to fancy linens and glassware suitable only for party use as well as breakables that require extra care.

2. Pack first for every day. Take all the small appliances you can accommodate: electric skillet, coffee pot, mixer, toaster. Appliances of stainless steel are durable, good travelers and easy to care for—soap or detergent and hot water, plus a stainless steel scouring sponge, if needed. When you're on the move you may often find yourself in a poorly equipped temporary kitchen which you can transform in a twinkling with versatile portable appliances.

3. Pack for a pretty table. Here, too, you can be practical, and have convenience and beauty at the same time. Good stainless steel flatware, now made in heirloom patterns, survives the mobile years—and the settled ones to follow. Pack it—and repack it. It will never tarnish, is easy to care for, and will look just as good if you want to pass it on to your daughter.

4. Pack for a slim pocketbook. The first years probably will be budget years. So take along a practical trousseau of linens, sheets and tablemats you can launder yourself with the help of a communal or apartment house do-it-yourself laundry.

5. Pack for a purpose. You'll know in general what kind of a life you'll be leading at first—so pack for it. If your bridegroom is in the service and you can go with him, your life will be impromptu and informal. Take along serving dishes for one-dish meal parties. If your husband's on his way up the business-career ladder, entertaining—even on the move—may have to be a little more lavish. Certain items, however—like stainless steel serving dishes—are adaptable to either an informal supper or a candle-light dinner.

These are just five hints for the new bride who is packing up her household for the first time—and probably not the last.

News in the World of Religion

by W. W. Reid
Dr. Edgar R. Miller, of Wilmington, Del., a Methodist layman and chest surgeon who pioneered in helping to set up the first Christian medical work in Nepal, has been honored by the ruler of that Asian country. The Methodist physician, who has treated members of Nepal's royal family, was the first foreigner ever to receive a national citation, called "Gorkha Dakshihya Bahu." It was presented to him by King Mahendra of Nepal at a ceremony in which 94 Nepali citizens were also honored. The presentation was made in Kathmandu, the capital of Nepal. Dr. Miller and his wife, Dr. Elizabeth B. Miller, a pediatrician, were among the founders of the United Christian Mission to Nepal in 1935.

The Rev. Steven G. Mackie, a Church of Scotland minister, has been appointed secretary of the new study on "Theological Education and the Training of the Ministry" to be conducted by the World Council of Churches. A Council spokesman said, "The study will seek a clearer understanding of the ministry in light of the new demands placed upon it by contemporary events." For four years before his appointment Mr. Mackie was study secretary of the Student Christian Movement of Great Britain and Ireland. From 1953 to 1957 he was chaplain at the American College, Madurai, South India. Mr. Mackie is the son of Dr. Robert Mackie, former director of the Council's Division of Inter-Church Aid, Refugee, and World Service.

More than one million Greek Orthodox and four and one-half million members of other Eastern Orthodox churches in the United States began their Lent this year on Monday, March 16, with their Easter being celebrated on May 3, while the Western Eastern fell on March 29. Only once every few years do the Eastern and Western Easters coincide, though not in a fixed pattern. This next occurs in 1966 when both Easters will be celebrated on April 10. Differences concerning the date of Easter arose between the East and the West as early as the second century. The date of the Eastern Easter was finally fixed by the Council of Nicea in 325 A.D., which decreed that thereafter Easter should be celebrated on the Sunday immediately following the first full moon occurring after the vernal equinox, but always after the Hebrew Passover, in order that consistency with the biblical sequence of events might be maintained. The Eastern Orthodox churches have adhered strictly to this formula, but the Easter of the Western churches is not necessarily preceded by the Hebrew Passover.

In the second session of the Second Vatican Council in the fall of 1963, a proposal was made to adopt a universal calendar that would include a fixed date for Easter. This proposal was enthusiastically endorsed by all the Eastern Orthodox churches and many other Christian denominations, since the different dates for Easter have been considered one of the obstacles towards the fulfillment of Christian unity.

In today's world, women hold the balance between order and chaos in the economic and political fields, as well as in the social and religious fields, the chief executive of women's work in The Methodist Church told the denomination's Board of Missions recently. Mrs. Porter Brown, general secretary of the Woman's Division, said that "when we consider the role of women in today's world, the responsibility is staggering. And when we consider the role of Christian women, it is humbling as well as staggering." She declared that "the question is not whether women have an opportunity to mold today's world; it is rather whether women are willing to assume the responsibility that is theirs."

Plans have been approved for a new boys' high school in Basrah, Iraq's major seaport on the Persian Gulf. The "Basrah School of High Hope for Boys" will be supported by the United Mission in Iraq. The school is an outgrowth of two smaller schools previously supported in the seaport city by the U.M.I. Ground-breaking is tentatively set for June. The U.M.I., which unites all Protestant Christian missionary work in Iraq, also supports a girls' high school in Mansour, a suburb of Baghdad. Denominations participating in the U.M.I. are the Reformed Church in America, the United Presbyterian Church, U.S.A., the United Church of Christ, the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

Do Not Move Flowery Plant

EAST LANSING — Vegetable seeds planted indoors in March should yield large, growthy transplant seedlings in May and June if flowers are kept from forming at an early age.

Transplants of tomatoes, peppers, and eggplants should not be older than five to six weeks in the field, says Clark Nicklow, horticulturist for the Michigan Cooperative Extension Service as MSU. "These plants should have no open flowers when transplanted." Adjusting plant age from seedling helps prevent open flowers.

Nicklow reports that vegetative development in these small plants is suppressed when early flowers are present. "Flowers prevent vegetative growth and cause the plant to produce seeds, fruits, or more flowers," he says.

Michigan produces two-thirds of the nation's supply of eastern white winter wheat used in pastry and crackers, and as a blender for other flours. Good demand, sometimes at premium prices, keeps it from being a surplus item.

Christian Science News

"The kingdom of heaven is at hand. Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils; freely ye have received, freely give." These words from Matthew (ch. 10) will be used as the Golden Text at Christian Science churches next Sunday.

The question, "Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" will be explored in passages from the Bible and the Christian Science textbook, including this statement: "God is not the author of mortal discords. Therefore we accept the conclusion that discords have only a fabulous existence, are mortal beliefs which divine Truth and Love destroy" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy, p. 231).

BHS Track Team Opens New Season

The Brighton track team started practicing last week for their meet today but after only one regular session the practices were called off on account of the deep, sloppy snow and freezing temperatures.

The team, with mostly new members, will run on the fabulous new asphalt track at Clarenceville.

Letter-men from last season are: Mike Fournier — short dashes, relay, and broad jump (last year was 2nd high for total points beneath Danny Baker), Phil Stine — short dashes and pole vault (third high in total points last year), Lee Niles — 440, relay team and broad jump (4th high last year in total points), Buzz Davison — relay team, Harry Maltby — 440 and relay team, Jim Addington — half mile and relay team, and Chuck Garrett — low hurdles and relay team.

dozen meets because Brighton does not have the facilities for track.

Coach Jim Korowin is new at B.H.S. and his previous work as coach is in field events, something in past seasons B.H.S. lacked.

Korowin is making the boys run 5 or 6 miles a night, this means all the team. Then after everybody is warmed up, the squad breaks into divisions — running, jumping and the hurdles.

Coach Korowin says that all his boys will run in every meet and get their chance. He also said, "I think we've got a nucleus of experienced boys so that we should do better than in past years."

A new line-up of events in the league will put the order as follows: (with the boys who will run in each): 880 Relay team — Mike Fournier, Lee Niles, Harry Maltby, and Phil Stine; Mile — Mike Duffy, Mike Stellwagen, George Burford, and Steve Abner; 120 high hurdles — John Hyne; 880 — Dave and Jim Addington, Tony Bair, Bob Carusi, Don Herbst, Fred Kaltenbach, and Don Kerns; 440 — Gary Foster, Jerry Bair, Lee Niles and Harry Maltby; 100 yard dash — Phil Stine, Mike Fournier, Buzz Davison, Jim Naffin, Chuck Garrett; 180 yard low hurdles, Chuck Garrett, Dave Grob; 220, Buzz Davison, Phil Stine, Mike Fournier, Jerry Bair, Richard Hyne, Terry Feret, Dennis Kosakiewicz, Mile Relay team, Harry Maltby, Dave Addington, Jim Addington, Lee Niles on one team and Gary Foster, Dennis Kosakiewicz. Don Kearns and Mike Baker on the other.

High Jump, Steve Rathburn and Paul Hatley.

Shot Put, Rich Burns, Dennis Mayo, Steve Kujawa, Eric Hurst, and Don Kearns.

Pole Vault, Phil Stine and Bill Osborn.

Broad Jump, Lee Niles, Chuck Garrett, Gary Foster and John Hyne will be in the field events that are before the running.

Whitmore Lake Season Opens

Whitmore Lake's baseball squad will encounter Pinckney today at 4:00 on the Pirates field. Pinckney is the Wash-taw Conference champ in baseball and the Trojans will have an ever-dangerous foe at the clash with the Pirates in the year's first game.

On Friday, the Trojans will tangle with a double-rough Ypsi-Roosevelt team at Roosevelt at 4:00 p.m.

Coach Frank Vetter's third-clads open their new season Friday at Chelsea beginning at 4:00 p.m.

Every year, Michigan citizens spend more than $12-million on quack treatments for arthritis, reports the Arthritis Foundation.

Today's prime targets of arthritis are young mothers and homemakers between the ages of 25 and 45, states the Arthritis Foundation.

"Young and The Brave" Opens Here On Friday

Taut, suspenseful adventure, down-to-earth characterizations by a group of some of Hollywood's best-known actors, plus a performance you will find hard to forget by a seven-year-old newcomer and his K-9 dog pal — these are the ingredients which make for compelling, hard-hitting entertainment in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's new action-drama, "The Young and the Brave." The cast, headed by Rory Calhoun and William Bendix, co-stars Richard Jaeckel, Richard Arlen and John Agar, with the top played by Manuel Padilla. This remarkably talented youngster made an auspicious screen debut as the youngest of the Tijuana ragamuffins in "Dime With a Halo" and now has a role of incisive dramatic power as a Korean boy who joins a group of American soldiers trying to make their way back to their own lines after escaping from a North Korean prison camp.

There is hardly a let-up in intensity and excitement as the GI's, Sgt. Brent (Calhoun), battle-wise Staff Sgt. Kane (Bendix), Cpl. Estway (Jaeckel) and Pvt. Wilson (Robert Ivers) make their dangerous trek through the Korean hills, with little cigar-smoking Han (Padilla) proving himself as tough and courageous as the men. The dog, too, proves himself invaluable, first in tracking down a wild pig of which the starved escapees make a dinner; second in sniffing out land-mines seconds before they might have blown the whole party to smithereens.

Hard on their track is a North Korean patrol. In attempting to elude the enemy, one suspenseful adventure follows another. Han is caught and beaten but refuses to give away his friends. Wilson is blown to death by one of the land-mines. After a fight with members of the North Korean patrol, Brent and Kane don the uniforms of two of the men they have killed and a confused Han, believing them to be the enemy, runs away. But now a salvaged radio enables the GI's to contact a U.S. helicopter and, having found Han again, the group is able to make its way back to headquarters.

Kane returns to combat. Brent, wounded in the final skirmish, is taken to a hospital along with Han, who has an injured leg. But before parting, Kane has Brent's promise that he will adopt little Han and take him back to America when the war ends.

The performances in "The Young and the Brave" are all of a top-notch quality, even to that of the film's canine hero, Lobo, a German Shepherd who will be recognized by television fans as Rin-Tin-Tin.

An A. C. Lyles production, the picture was directed by Francis D. Lyon from the screen play by Beirne Lay, Jr., based on a story by Ronald Davidson and Harry M. Slott. An effective musical score by Ronald Stein stresses the film's suspenseful quality.

THE HI-TONES from Detroit provided the music last week at the Parish Hall Teen Dance in Brighton and will be back this Saturday night.

'The Egg and I' Offered By Hartland Juniors

The Junior Class of Hartland is presenting "The Egg and I" at the Hartland Music Hall on April 10 and 11 at 8:00 p.m. The play is based on the humorous struggles of a loveable family with the Mighty Egg.

They think it is all work and no pleasure. Anne, who is played by Kathy Ottwell, is a teen-ager who has her eye cast in the direction of a good-looking neighbor boy, Joan, played by Kathryn Wines, is slightly jealous of Anne and dislikes work and always is looking for boyfriends.

many problems develop and he finds he has more troubles than just one. This is a heart warming comedy of a family who must cope with the Egg — and learns to take it. The tickets can be purchased from any Junior or at the door. Price: 50c for students, 75c for adults.

Betty, the mother, played by ... things to cope with living on a ... like skunks and Indians.

F.T.A. Attends Career Day

Last Saturday, April 4, eight members of the F.T.A. club and 3 chaperones journeyed to Northville for a Career Day, sponsored by the Phi Tau Alpha Advisory Council.

The girls, Linda Tutthill, Nancy Rawski, Kathy Wegryn, Mary Schoen Jane Demorest, Condie Duffy, Brenda Cargill, Alyson Arnold and chaperones Mrs. Ikens, Mrs. Berra, and Mrs. Herbst left the school at 9:15. Arriving at Northville at 9:40, they registered and were served hot chocolate and cinnamon rolls.

"You Are My Sunshine," "If I Had A Hammer," "Swing Low Sweet Chariot," "I've Been Working On The Railroad", were some of the rousing songs that opened the Career Day, followed by a welcoming speech by Linda Tutthill, Phi Tau Alpha President.

Mr. Stefanski, Principal of Northville High School, was then introduced. Mr. Stefanski opened his speech by saying it gave him great pleasure to see all the fine young people interested in teaching.

Mr. Stefanski, a member of the State Curriculum Committee, went on in his speech telling the group, "The purpose of the Curriculum Committee is to see if we can find a basic curriculum to be followed by all the high schools in Michigan. This would be a great help and advantage to those students moving from one area to another.

Continuing in his charming and witty manner, Mr. Stefanski went on to give this warning: "Secondary teachers, do not confine yourself to one area, diversify yourselves. Be sure you have real strong minors. You will probably be teaching one of your minors."

Shifting from secondary to elementary teaching, Mr. Stefanski went on to explain that problem students in high school could be identified at the kindergarten level, that 1 out of every 3 children are mentally upset, not enough to be in a hospital, but ill enough to need professional help.

Mr. Stefanski asserted, "There is a great need for psychologists and psychiatrists in a preschool and elementary level to help these kids and make my job easier."

Concluding Mr. Stefanski said "Every country would give anything to have our educational system. We're doing a great job. Welcome to teaching."

Guest Speaker of the day was Mr. Jim Austin of Northville State Hospital, to explain the educational program for the younger patients there. Mr. Austin explained that the 2200 are mostly adults and that the kids can't be treated like adults. An education program was started for the young children at 3 institutions, Pontiac, Ypsilanti, and Northville at about the same time. An emotionally upset child was given a gradual re-entry into the world as we know it by attending school for an hour or two a day. Before this program began, the child's day consisted of watching T.V.

According to Mr. Austin, "The ninety kids ranging from ages 6-18 years old that are participating in this program have various disturbances, requiring different treatments that are a challenge to every teacher. The most difficult of these illnesses to help is the schizophrenic. The adopted child is frequently mentally upset especially if adopted after being in an institution where there is a lack of love. This lack of love leads to personality defects. Teachers are most important in helping these mentally upset children."

Mr. Austin explained that 4 students from Northville State Hospital are enrolled in Northville High School. The biggest thing these 4 accomplish for the other 86 back at the hospital is to give concrete proof they can get out of the State Hospital, that there is hope. Hope is what those kids need to keep them going.

Turning from the High School kids attending Northville to those of Jr. and Sr. High age at the Hospital, Mr. Austin explained the academic and vocational program for these 60 kids. These people have basically the same subjects as we take, the big difference being the textbooks which show the real side of life while ours always show the bright side. Their books are basic, down to earth, while ours are idealistic. These textbooks are written for those of a lower reading level and social economic class.

"This plan helps the kids succeed by giving them the earned success they need, but with no mistreatment," concluded Mr. Austin.

Mr. Austin then opened the door for questioning which brought out this information: The teaching of the mentally upset children is a well paid job with top teachers after 10 years earning about $10,000 a year; there is a constant need for teachers, specialized training is necessary, and M.S.U., Wayne, and State, Eastern and U of M offer courses necessary for this type of work.

At 12:10 the Career Day moved from the auditorium to Northville's cafeteria where a delicious lunch was served along with a general briefing.

At 1:15 the large group broke into smaller groups according to fields of interest. Special, secondary and elementary for questions and answers. At 2:45 Linda Tutthill adjourned the meeting and the girls headed for home arriving about 3:10.

Auto Engines Take to the Water

A California company has devised a conversion kit that can save boaters $1,500 and more in powering their craft. With this kit, boat owners can change-over their auto engines from land-power to "sea-power," providing greater horsepower for their boats.

Star Marine Engine Works, Berkeley, supplies the kits for practically any make, year or model auto engine for from $160 and up. The company claims the resultant marine engine will be as powerful as a new marine engine costing from $2,000 and up.

If the boat owner is mechanically inclined, he can, with a minimum of professional help, convert a good automobile engine in just a few hours. Or he can have his local marine engine shop do it.

False Claims Made For Nursery Stock

Be careful of extravagant claims sometimes made by unscrupulous persons when buying nursery stock specialties.

This is the suggestion of Agricultural Director G. S. McIntyre, who is mindful of the vast strides made by plant breeders and others, but still skeptical that nursery stock developments have as yet attained the supernatural.

The Michigan Department of Agriculture's Plant Industry Division each year receives copies of advertisements sent in by citizens. Many of the claims made are deceptive, and the preposterous statements mislead unwary buyers.

Climbing strawberry plants, rose bushes that bear 1,000 blooms, and climbing peach trees are some of the products that have been advertised. A few years ago the lowly tree of heaven, regarded by some as a weed tree, was advertised as a desirable rapidly growing shade tree.

Buyers of nursery stock spend millions of dollars each year. Local nurserymen wish to see the materials they sell give satisfaction to the buyer. In so doing they build future trade. But there are some operators who make extravagant claims through advertising and other means which deceive gullible buyers.

Such claims can always be checked with representatives of the Department's Plant Industry Division. The division is responsible for the inspection of nursery stock, and its freedom from plant diseases and insect pests. It is also interested in protecting the public against sharp practices in the plant material business.

Mr. McIntyre suggested that potential buyers of nursery stock are doubtful of advertised claims the Michigan Department of Agriculture contacted for advice.

Missionary To Speak In Brighton

Miss Ruth Hayward a Wesleyan Methodist missionary nurse and educator to Sierra Leone, West Africa, will speak at 7:30 p.m., Wednesday, April 8, 1964, at the Wesleyan Methodist Church, 228 S. Fourth Street, Brighton.

She is on furlough after having served one three-year term in West Africa and is engaged in deputation work among the churches of the denomination.

Miss Hayward has been the principal of Clarke Memorial Girls' School in Kamabai, Sierra Leone, Clarke Memorial Girls' School, one of the older educational institutions of the Wesleyan Mission there, has an enrollment of about 400, of which one-fourth are boarding students.

She will describe the country she served, its people and the work of the mission there. Colored slides will be shown.

Prior to being assigned abroad she received her education at Marion College, Dakota Wesleyan University and the Methodist Hospital School of Nursing in Mitchell, South Dakota. During her furlough she is residing with her parents in Avon, South Dakota.

Corn Acreage At Low Mark

This year's planted acreage of corn for all purposes may be the 3rd smallest since planted acreage records began in 1926. Growers count on planting 68.9 million acres compared with 70.1 million last year & 5-year average of 74.1 million acres.

Based on March 1 intentions, farmers plan to seed 11.7 million acres to all spring wheat in 1964, 6% above 1963 but 3% below 1958-62 average. All wheat plantings are indicated at 54.7 million acres based on March 1 intentions for spring wheat & Dec. estimates of winter wheat seeded last fall. This would be 3% above 1963 plantings and slightly above average. Acreage of durum wheat to be planted this spring is indicated at 2.3 million acres, 16% above 1963 & 44% above average.

Other spring wheat plantings are expected to total 9.4 million acres, 4% more than in 1963 but 10% below average.

Early Garden

You can reap the most benefit from your garden by starting it early, reports Stan Ries, Michigan State University horticulturist.

"Plant peas, onion plants, lettuce, carrots, beets, and spinach early in April," he advises. "Then, about April 15, try planting some North Star sweet corn and perhaps even a few snap beans."

"If there is a killing frost, the most you can lose is the seed, and you might have sweet corn and beans by the fourth of July."

Ah! Spring! She's quite a provocative lady this year! Hasn't danced in on gossamer wings, spreading goodness and cheer over the land. There have been a few days when, wrapped in golden sunshine, she smiled on our drab little world and warmed the hearts of everyone. But it seems she is in a teasing mood — either sloshes us with mud and water, or chills us to the bone with brisk winds and swirls of snow. Then like a playful child, she sits on the hill, her arms folded around her knees, and chuckles as we try to maneuver slippery roads and struggle with snow shovels!

We suspect she is not the barefooted nymph either — but is wearing hob nailed boots that have pock-marked our roads with terrible chuck holes and oozing puddles. Driving is a challenge — it is foolhardy to drive over anything that looks like a shadow — it can be a bottomless pit rimmed with razor sharp edges! Cars weave along these obstacle courses like drunken sailors. Drivers have to make split-second decisions as to whether damage would be worse if they chose the ditch, the chuck hole or hitting an approaching vehicle head-on.

While you lament the forces of nature buffeting the Easter finery, pity the poor robin who's had to face a breakfast of quick-frozen worm or the meadowlark and killdeer who have had to try nesting on our frozen meadows, or the red-winged blackbird standing on the ice and looking forlornly at the tall dead reeds and grasses.

Easter on "our road" was spent, for the most part, by family gatherings. The Mark Mattesons had their daughter and her family, the Archie Hartmans of Chilson, and their son and his family — Jim Matteson of Drayton Plains — over for dinner. The Ralph and John Schroeder families went into Dearborn to visit the Paul Schroeders. Mr. and Mrs. James Baker visited their parents' homes in St. John. It was the first long trip for their new baby, Gregory James, born in February. Sister Judy was proud to show him off to relatives.

The Art Glowackis entertained the Pete Pierzinski of Rush Lake, Rose's sister and her family from Livonia, and Mr. and Mrs. Perry from St. Clair Shores. By the way, James Pierzinski is home now after having served his four years in the Air Force. And Debbie Glowacki, an eighth grade student at St. Patrick's, won second place in the school spellingdown. Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Muellerleile and Danny visited Mary's relatives in Homer this weekend.

James Yake, a Park Ranger here for the past two summers, stopped in during the week and visited friends.

Easter vacation for the students of Pinckney Schools was a keen disappointment. They would like to have taken a rain check on it — and pick days when snow and cold isn't the order of the day. Mary Schroeder did get to spend an afternoon in Lansing with her mother. They visited the Capitol building and sat in on the Senate and House of Representatives who were in session.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Nash are in a whirl this week, preparing for the auction scheduled for Saturday, the 11th. They have lived on their farm for several generations so there are many things that must be sold. They are going to live in a trailer next to the home of their son, Lloyd.

Christine Schroeder has been dropped into the "Walking Class" — a picup truck hit the car she was driving on US-23 during Friday's blizzard. There were no injuries, but the poor "bug" will be laid up for awhile.
