Auction - Fireworks to Head July 3 Activities Here

With July 3 fast approaching, various local organizations are completing plans now that will make for a full day of activity in Pinckney village, to tie in with July 4, Independence Day.

The Kiwanis Club will hold their annual Kiwanis Auction Saturday, July 3, 10 a.m. on the village square, according to President Gary Elchman. This is a major fund raising project the Club promotes each year. The proceeds are used, primarily, to finance Little League baseball in the Pinckney area.

"The Kiwanians welcome any and all items suitable for auctioning that you might have around your home," says Publicity Chairman, Ray Stillwell. If you have an item, or items, and you do not care to tote it to the Square, pick-up-service is available. Just phone Jerry's, 878-3460, or Lee's Standard, 878-8701.

Summer residents at area lakes are urged to attend. Many items auctioned off each year are ideal for cottage use, such as beds, refrigerators, chairs, tables, upright pianos, etc.

The Ladies' Aid from the Pinckney Community Congregational Church will be holding a bake sale on the Village Square July 3, beginning at 10 a.m. In case of rain the sale will be held in the Dispatch office.

However, if it rains, the Kiwanis Club will postpone their auction until Monday, July 5, same time, same place.

About 9 p.m., July 3, the Pinckney firemen will stage their annual Fourth of July Fireworks Show at the Pinckney Elementary school grounds.

Chairman of the fireworks, and Pinckney's only Pyrotechnician, Charles Hewlett, announces that this year, with enough equipment and shells to fire three rockets every minute for one solid hour, and twice the ground displays there have been other years, this should be the "biggest and best show yet seen here."

The firemen urge all persons who plan to attend the show to arrive a little earlier than 9 p.m. and avoid the traffic problem just before show time. Parking area has been more than doubled this year. Residents are reminded about having access to the playground equipment, and also that there will be refreshment stands in operation well in advance of the show.

This big event is sponsored each year by the Pinckney Fire Department, with various area merchants sharing the cost of the fireworks. There is no admission charge to enter the grounds. If an individual would care to give a cash donation toward the show, it may be left with Fireman Speake at Jerry's in Pinckney, or with Fireman Lee at Lee's Standard.

Those on the fireworks five man committee under Charles Hewlett's direction are Jerry Speake, Ohs Matteson, Leonard Lee, and Noel Cooke.

36 Autos Ruined In Train Wreck

An Ann Arbor Railroad freight train was derailed at 10:45 Sunday night two miles southeast of Howell spilling 43 new Mustangs and Thunderbirds onto the railway.

Eighteen out of the 75 cars of the Owosso bound train left the tracks, crushing and mangling the new cars intermingled in the jack-straw confusion of the wreck. Only nine of the 43 new autos were unscathed.

The Livingston County Sheriff's Department patrolled the area throughout the night to prevent looting, and protect curiosity seekers from the hazard of stepping into knee deep pools of battery acid that gushed from an overturned tanker through the night.

A burned-out wheel bearing was blamed for the accident, that caused an estimated total damage of $500,000.

The train was enroute from Toledo to Owosso. Twenty-two cars behind the engine stayed on the track and the 35 cars at the rear of the train were re-routed.

The acid spilling from the overturned tank car caused the greatest concern for the spectators because the acid was so strong it could even eat into shoes. As quickly as possible hoses were turned on the pools of acid to wash it down the drain and barricades were put up to keep away the curious.

Hartland Hires New School Head

The Hartland School System has obtained a new superintendent. He is 55 year old Robert L. Miller, who comes to Hartland from the Centerville School system. Miller, who is a graduate of the University of Michigan, with a masters degree in business administration, comes to Hartland with outstanding recommendations.

He has already established his wife and two children in the community, and is building a home in the Hartland area. He will begin his duties in Hartland on July 1st.

Wilkinson, Rice End Partnership

Dr. O. C. Wilkinson and Dr. W. L. Rice announce the termination of their 17 year partnership practice, to be effective June 30.

Dr. Wilkinson will continue practice in the present location at 206 East Grand River Ave., Brighton.

Dr. and Mrs. Rice will be vacationing until early fall, at which time Dr. Rice will resume practice in Brighton at a location to be announced.

'Fluoride Clinic' Coming to Pinckney July 19 - August 10

The Fluoride Clinic sponsored by the Pinckney Elementary P. T. A. will take place July 19 through August 10, at the Elementary school.

Appointment cards will be mailed out in early July to those who signed up for this service during last school year. Those in charge anticipate nearly 250 children to receive fluoride treatment at this time.

Hell Celebrates Satan's Holiday

Plans have been completed for the third annual Satan's Holiday Festival at Hell, Mich., near Pinckney, with the event to be held Saturday night and Sunday.

Two dances will begin at 8 p.m. Saturday, one to feature square dancing and the other to be a hoochenny and rock n roll event.

The latter will include a "band war" between the "Tea Drops" of Pinckney and the "Variations" from Allen Park.

The dancers will have 9 p.m. intermissions for the fireworks show.

The Sunday program involves a horse show at the Hell Creek Farming Stable.

Postmaster at State Session

Gladys B. Lee, Lakeland postmaster, attended the 30th annual State convention of the Michigan N.A.P.U.S. chapter held at Manistee. This was her tenth convention as Sergeant of Arms, and helped roll out the red carpet to welcome Frederick Belene, Deputy Postmaster General.

She also acted as timekeeper for a College Bowl Game, where Michigan officials matched with officials from Washington and Chicago.

Guests at the Lee home were Dora Dillaway and daughter Catherine from Chicago.

Saturday Gladys Lee attended the wedding of Joanne Edwards to William Rooke at the St. Mary's Church in Pinckney. She attended the breakfast held at the parish hall and the reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edwards.

Washaw Sheriff Douglas J. Harvey and Deputy Thomas A. Spas came to the rescue of a horse Tuesday which was mired in mud after a small bridge collapsed.

John Outwater, 12 and Steve Horner, 10, both of Pinckney were riding the saddle horse through the Pinckney Recreation Area near Hankard Rd when the mishap occurred.

Harvey and his deputy secured a rop around the animal and with the help of a dozen teenagers who converged on the scene, they pulled until the horse was free.

School Bus Drivers Are 'Certified'

The following local school bus drivers have been awarded certificates for completing the needed twelve or more hours of prescribed instruction offered by the Michigan School Bus Driver Education Program and conducted by Eastern Michigan University. Several attorneys lost their twelve hours, a few did not attend. Those that did are: C. Amanda DeBarr, Lynn D. Barnes, Carl W. Hooker, Hazel L. Penson, Olive Smith.

Children 7-14 Years To Register Saturday-Monday

The Summer Recreation Program for youngsters in this area will begin Monday, June 28 in Hamburg and Tuesday, June 29, in Pinckney. A trained program director, Miss Roberta Fagin, a University of Michigan student from Huntington Woods, will be in charge. The program is sponsored by your Hamburg-Putnam Community Chest, the Pinckney Community School Board of Education and the Hamburg Village League.

Boys and girls from 7 to 15 years of age are eligible to enroll for the 8 week session. Miss Fagin will be in Pinckney on Tuesdays and Thursdays, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.; and on Friday afternoons, 12 to 4 p.m. All activities will take place on the elementary school grounds. She will be in Hamburg, at the elementary school, on Mondays, Wednesdays and on Friday in the forenoon.

There will be lessons in art, dramatics and various types of games that children like best. After the registration is completed Miss Fagin will announce the hours for each age group; possibly taking the youngest group in the morning and the older boys and girls in the afternoon.

Registration for this program will take place in Pinckney Saturday morning, 9 a.m. till noon; and on Monday, June 28, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Dispatch office, located two doors east of Jerry's. There will be a $1.00 fee due at time of registration for each child.

Hamburg youngsters will be registered on June 23 and 24, 9:00-11:30 a.m. and 1:00-3:30 p.m. each day, in front of Suter's Market.

This type of recreation program has proved very popular in neighboring towns and cities and the local groups bringing it to Pinckney and Hamburg this season feel particularly fortunate in securing a capable director for the recreation program's debut here.

Library News

New books at the library are: Michigan: A HISTORY OF THE WOLFRINE STATE - which is just off the press. This carefully researched book is by the professor of history at Western Michigan University and takes Michigan from the coming of the first white man to the space age, and seeks to interpret as well as to record the major events, movements and personalities of Michigan's past. Adults and students will find it interesting and profitable reading.

Beneley, "THE VISITORS" is the story of a house on the Atlantic coast with a delightful view and an active interest. This is not the usual suspense story of a haunted house, but one which will delight Beneley fans and those who have not read a Beneley previously.

Hammarskiold, "MARRIAGE" is the book which Hammarskiold left in manuscript form to be published after his death, a record of his spiritual life, poems and notes, mostly of the years 1950-1960.

For boys and girls just learning to read we have two delightful books, Mikowicz, "BARE FOOT BOY" and Bastien, "PEARL GOES TO SCHOOL".

The Library Board appreciated very much, Col. Robert Benjamin's giving his check for his Memorial Day address to the library. This was a great thing on his part.

Mrs. Eleanor Douglas and Mrs. Pauline Vukler gave books to the library; Mrs. John Colquhoun gave magazines. Such donations are appreciated. If you have any to make, PLEASE, bring them in before July 1. After that date such donations cannot be accepted due to there being no more room in the library.

And just a reminder - after July 1 there will be a 2 cent fine on each overdue book from the Pinckney Community Library.

Howell Claims Peril Insurance

The Howell City Council was confronted with a problem at its Tuesday meeting that may be facing many small municipalities, the cost of Workmen's Compensation skyrocketed.

The city's Insurance underwriter, Bob Akin was present, and informed the council that Howell was following the pattern set by most small towns, in that their claims were above average.

He went on to explain that Howell's claims were so high that the Citizen's Mutual Insurance Co. would have to cancel Howell's workman's compensation policy effective July 1st. This action forces the city into becoming an assigned risk, and will increase the city's insurance rates at least 8 percent.

The council, after study of the claims report, took immediate action to cut down the claims rate. Their first order was directed to the city refuse collectors. The garbage men were ordered by the council to discontinue lifting any refuse container over a 30 gallon capacity. This will cut down on the expensive hernia claims, and will force residents to comply with the city ordinance regarding refuse containers.

According to Akin many smaller towns, because of the type of people they employ are faced with higher than usual workman's compensation rates. He did admit to the extent that Howell's overall rate was not too far out of line, but that some were 4 or 5 claims amounting to thousands of dollars that had boosted Howell's claims above the average of most other small towns.

The Way We Hear It

BY DOLLY BAUGHN

John Eisle is visiting here from his home in Truth or Consequences, New Mexico. Mr. Eisle at one time conducted a car body bump shop in Pinckney.

Herb and Rene Schenden, Paul and Julie Ware were in Howell to attend the Jaycee Annual Ball and installation of the new Jaycee officers there. "We hear" it was a real ball, too!

three year old Billy Widmayer underwent a tonsillectomy at the Howell Health Center last week. His mother, Jane, said he was a very well behaved patient. "This is nice to hear! ... get well soon now, Billy!"

9 couple of the Village Squares dance club danced in Milford Saturday night. The couples who went were the Marshall Meabons, the Jerry Speakes, the Mattesons, Harold Henrys, Russell Clarks, Earl Kimberlys, Earl Schunians, and Cliff Millers.

In the annual spring school election last Monday, nearly 200 more voters voted on the millage proposal than did for the school Board candidates.

Pinckney's Pyrotechnician, Charles Hewlett will shoot a fifteen minute show June 26 during the celebration at Hell, and then he, and Jerry Speake plan to be on the barge in the Detroit River to help shoot the annual fireworks show there June 30. Good luck, Men!

Principal at Pinckney Elementary, Mrs. Jennie Kellenberger, and office clerk, Mrs. Mary Baughn, have been busy this week putting away new books that have arrived already for next school year.

It is sickening to ride around the vicinity and see all the dead trees standing bare of leaves. That elm disease proved to be a terrible thing.

doesn't the Summer Recreation Program sound terrific? Let's hope it is successful. Good luck to those in charge!

are you going to the Horse Show out at Hell Creek stables?

Sunday? ... should be interesting.

... you people who like to "drag race" should get in touch with the two boys who received speeding tickets a week ago. $50,000.00. Boy. ... That would certainly slow me down for a while. Wonder if they think it was worth it now.

... this Friday night is "cut-down-day" for Driver Education students. They will "cut-down" high weeds and brush at intersections in the area where it is too dangerous to pull out to cross or turn the corner. They began this good deed two years ago following a few fatal accidents at a few of the corners. ... and the county allows them to continue the task each year. ... Isn't that nice of them?

... Miss Gladys McCollum, Livingston County curricular coordinator for many years and now in Lansing, was special guest at the recent Delta Kappa Gamma meeting, June 11, at Alta Meyer's home.

Girl Scouts Work For 'Cyclist Badge'

The Pinckney Girl Scouts are working on the "Cyclist Badge." One of the requirements is to hold a community safety program. We hope you noticed the bicycle on display last week and also our Safety Posters.

We want to remind everyone that uses a bicycle that you must obey all traffic rules or you may be hurt or even killed. Some good ideas to remember and put into use are:

1. Ride slowly.
2. Obey rules, signs and signals.
3. Keep to the right.
4. Ride at safe speeds.
5. Have a light and reflector in proper place on your bike.

(On June 21 some of our Troop took a test on "Bicycle Safety" and we are happy to announce EVERYONE passed it in good measure.

Sincerely,
Girl Scout Troop 276

Delta Kappa Gamma Enjoy Meeting With Pinckney Hostess

Mrs. Alta Meyer was hostess to Alpha Theta Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma at her lovely new home in Pinckney, June 11. A beautiful potluck dinner was served by Mrs. Meyer and her co-hostesses, Mrs. Bonnie Henry and Mrs. Irene Miller.

A tour of the garden which was ablaze with perennials was a highlight of the evening.

Mrs. Rose Hamlin and Mrs. Julia Ruttman gave reports of the State convention held recently in Grand Rapids.

"Creativity" will be the theme for study next year. Much discussion and thought was given to ways that the group could be of service in the community both as individuals and as Delta Kappa Gamma members.

Nation to Honor Helen Keller

To honor Helen Keller's 55th birthday, Sunday, June 27 the United States Senate has passed a special resolution and the governor of many states across the country have proclaimed the day as Helen Keller Day.

Miss Keller is celebrating her birthday at her home Arcan Ridge in Connecticut, where congratulatory messages are pouring in from around the World. Through her books, lectures, and trips, and William Gibson's dramatization of her triumph over both blindness and deafness in "The Miracle Worker," she has inspired untold millions in every corner of the globe.

Last year President Johnson awarded her the Medal of Freedom, the nation's highest civil award. At that time the President stated that Miss Keller is "an example of courage to all mankind."

Wolverine State Elects Brightonites

Two Brighton area boys were elected in mock city and county office elections held at the American Legion's 28th Wolverine Boys' State.

The boys are: Mike Kluck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester G. Kluck of 5475 Daniel Drive. Mike was elected as State Representative. Robert Cameron, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Cameron of 7979 Crooked Lake Road. Robert was elected to the office of City Surveyor.

Retires

The Michigan State University Board of Trustees approved the retirement of Hildred J. Hart. Mr. Hart will be remembered by many Livingston county people as the 4-H Club Agent from 1935 to 1955 when he transferred to St. Joseph County.

Starting in 1935 Mr. Hart served Livingston, Oakland and Washtenaw counties. As the 4-H program grew larger Washtenaw and Oakland counties secured the services of full time agents for their respective counties and Mr. Hart devoted his full efforts to the program in Livingston county.

Skateboards Help Fill Hospitals

"Wipe-outs" may shatter more than your pride.

During a six-week period, doctors at the University of Michigan and St. Joseph Hospital have treated nearly 50 fractures resulting from "wipe-outs" (skateboard jargon for falling off the board).

According to a U-M orthopedic surgeon, who has been tabulating the fractures, skateboard injuries are more common than bicycle injuries and, with the exception of bike-car collisions, are a lot more serious.

Although the fractures have run the gamut from broken collar bones, shoulders, arms, hands and elbows to fractured legs and feet, 12 of the 22 breaks treated at University Hospital were fractured ankles.

Doctors at University Hospital treated 21 U-M students for skateboard fractures — and one physician.

Bird Lover

Mrs. Shirley Irwin of Howell, last week, wrecked her auto for the love of a blue jay and now a Fort Worth, Texas woman comes up with a sacrifice for the live of a canary.

While his cage was being vacuumed, a canary in Fort Worth was whisked into the nozzle, rescued from the vacuum's dust bag, rinsed off under a faucet and placed under a hair drier to dry so he wouldn't catch a cold.

Realty Grad

Clair S. Simmons, of 460 Brighton road, Howell was among 102 men and women who will receive final certificates in real estate at the University of Michigan next Thursday.

The successful students, including two from out of state, will receive their certificates from Dean Floyd A. Bond of the U-M Graduate School of Business Administration, which offers the statewide Certificate Program in Real Estate with the University Extension Service in cooperation with MREA.

COOKING KNOW-HOW

When you start making up a recipe, do what professionals do: place necessary utensils as well as measured ingredients on a tray or cooky sheet.

It's not easily possible to forget important ingredients when they're measured and checked with the recipe. Neither do you have to be interrupted to go shopping for some supplies when you're right in the middle of mixing.

Keep measurements level so that recipes can be duplicated as they were tested.

Hamburg Township News Notes

By Jeanne Knipple - UP 8-9720

I am sorry my readers, but I have little news this week. Everyone is either at the beach or home peacefully enjoying as best they can on this hot humid day, the restfulness of the summer. Father's Day was hot wasn't it? Many fathers got a rest as the sons cut the weeds and the daughters brought slippers and the paper. (We don't have a dog.) Why doesn't someone invent a teenager's Day. Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Duchane spent a day at the zoo in Toledo, Ohio, a week ago Saturday. They had a very interesting time seeing the animals and enjoying the rides.

Mrs. Carl Rowland spent four days recently at the home of her mother, Mrs. John Serbin in Detroit. Mrs. Serbin has been very ill and we wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rowland entertained Mr. and Mrs. Garth Rowland of Grand Ledge, last weekend.

Buddy Leach returned home recently after having his tonsils removed at McPherson Health Center.

Cyrene Stowers had her dance recital last Friday at the Dick Spencer School of Dance in Brighton. Cyrene danced four dances of modern jazz and tap.

Girl Scout Troop No. 559 returned from a pleasant trip to the Foote Hostel in Milford Thursday. They enjoyed swimming at Kensington both days. The scouts would like to thank Mrs. Chester Cramer and Mrs. the Barvarians for accompanying them.

Hamburg Trip

The Hamburg Village League went to Bronner's in Frankenthum to purchase a new nativity scene for the village, with contributions made from various organizations. The nativity scene will be displayed in Hamburg during Gala Days.

The members enjoyed a dinner at the famous Zenders restaurant. The trip was of special interest because it was during the Barvian Week celebrations.

Around Bishop Lake

E. C. SCHROEDER
227-3420

Bishop Lake was exuberantly blue last Tuesday. The water reflected the cloudless blue sky. The mischievous waves whipped up by the strong Northeast winds teased the fishermen's bobbers and playfully slapped the faces of the swimmers.

The laughing voices were suddenly hushed by a frantic screaming for help! Thus tragedy struck a party of happy young people who were out for the day. The whine of the sirens brought startled parents to attention while they made a mental check on their children. When they were satisfied that everyone was accounted for, they said a silent prayer for whoever it was that needed the call for help.

The lifeguard, the rangers, the fire department and the sheriff's men all went into action. They did a very commendable job — but their efforts were not enough. An 18 year old boy had been snatched from life and was cradled in the depths of the lake until 9:30 the next morning.

Today the public remembers him only as a statistic. Those who were there, recall details and add their "ifs" and "ands". Perhaps the five young people were foolish to play off the boat, far from the swimming area where a lifeguard was on duty — but almost everyone of us have done something similar to that. Perhaps they showed too much confidence in respect to their abilities to swim. Hind sight is always so much clearer than fore sight. Nevertheless, it has been a very graphic lesson to all of the summer visitors to area lakes. They should beware of overconfidence, horse play, over-urgedness, and — just for any occasion such as this — keep a lifesaver in the boat.

Mrs. John Schroeder attended the 6th triennial convention of the Lutheran Church — Missouri Synod at Cobo Hall Wednesday evening. She went with Mrs. George May, Mrs. Richard Beirlein, and Mrs. Harold Abend all of Lakeland. They also attended Cinema — "The Greatest Story Ever Told."

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Matteson report that their grandson, "Fritz" Hartman of Chilson, is recovering from his skull fracture. He was injured in an auto accident recently.

Mr. Norman Patton visited Algonac this weekend.

John H. Schroeder ATW 3 (He has had to chide me several times when I've forgotten to use his proper "rating in his letters — he sewed the "crow" on his sleeve already in May — but Mothers can be absent minded too!) — ANYway, he's now stationed in Argentina until July 21. No more flights to Iceland or Scotland.

This has been ideal "hayline" weather and some of our local farmers are really busy while the sun shines! Apparently, it is also camping weather! Some of the trailers going by to the campground are regular homes-on-wheels — really roughing it!

I hope all you poor, hard working fathers had a happy day Sunday. (Funniest thing — Mothers on Mother's Day get this silly urge to collect all their children and children's children about them on their day. The Fathers would give anything to "blow" on their day — disappear on the golf links, baseball game, trout stream, or just get out on the lake — ALONE! Unless, of course, they have sons old enough or fathers young enough to join them. Humans are strange creatures.

Star Gazers

Mars and Venus are features of the western sky this month, says Dr. Hazel M. Losh, University of Michigan astronomer.

Mars is increasing its distance from Regulus, rapidly moving eastward among the stars, until by the end of the month it will be found almost directly below Denebola in Leo's Tail, she points out.

Venus may be spotted as the "evening star" in the western sky after sunset near the horizon, and Saturn as the "morning star," rising around midnight near the east point. As there are no bright stars in the immediate vicinity of Saturn, it should be easily picked out.

Moving on to the constellations of the month, Scorpius with its bright red star, Antares, is rising around sunset in the southeast.

OUTDOOR COOKERY

When you're cooking on an outdoor grill, how do you figure cooking time? If the temperature is kept at moderate, the times will approximate those used indoors with your range.

Outdoor grill thermometers will give accurate temperatures to guide you while cooking proceeds, but if you don't have one, then make certain the coals burn down from their white-hot stage to that in which they're covered with a fine gray ash. This provides a moderate temperature for grilling the food instead of charring it unpalatably.

The so mis-matched it's amazing they hang together at all!

Methodist Church News

A special program for the Vacation Church School was held on Thursday evening, June 17th, from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. in the First Methodist Church sanctuary of Brighton. The representatives from the Episcopal, Presbyterian, and Methodist churches appreciated the program and seemed grateful for the success of the total vacation church school.

The Rev. Robert C. Brubaker, pastor of the Brighton church, presided at the Detroit Annual Conference, June 16-20, at Adrian College. While he was away, Mr. Lloyd French preached at the Sunday morning worship services, June 20th, on the theme, "The Measure of a Man." Also attending the conference were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kingsley, Kaye Hood, and Gilbert Auty. On Sunday, June 27th, a special presentation on the Vacation Church School met in the parlor of the First United Methodist Church of Brighton to evaluate the school. Monday afternoon, June 21st, the Rev. Robert Coffey served as chairman of the group and coordinator of the school.

The "Friendly Callers" met in the church parlor for a brief period of training which was followed by friendly visitation in the Brighton area, Monday evening, June 21st. Mrs. Lawrence McCartney, chairman of the Commission on Membership and Evangelism, serves as coordinator of the group.

The senior choir will practice on Wednesday, June 23rd, at 7:30 p.m. The carol choir will rehearse on Saturday, June 26th, at 2:15 p.m.

On Sunday, June 27th, immediately after the second service of worship, a special reception will be held for Dr. and Mrs. Verne Hoshal and family in the church parlor. The Hoshals will soon be leaving the Brighton area.

The Rev. Robert Brubaker will be leaving with his family for their vacation on Sunday afternoon, June 27th. Preaching during the July 4th services of worship will be the Rev. William Browne, recently from Alabama and presently director of the Wesley Foundation, Eastern Michigan University. Dr. Eugene Ransom, director of the Wesley Foundation at the University of Michigan, will be preaching on Sunday, July 11th.

All people interested in attending a Methodist summer camp are asked to contact either Mr. William Cuthbert or the Rev. Robert Brubaker immediately.

At the June 15th official board meeting, the members decided to order 150 copies of the new Methodist Hymnal to be published during the spring-summer of 1966. All those who would be willing to buy a $3.00 hymnal for the church are encouraged to sign their names on the bulletin board. The official board decided as well to conduct a fall retreat on the mission and program of the Church, gave Mr. Albert Tennant permission to use the fellowship hall for square dancing assuming adult supervision, received affirmatively a proposal from Mr. Gilbert Auty for Sunday evening programs in the fall of 1965, and considered those who were sick in the hospital or recovering at home.

This coming Sunday, June 27th the pastor will preach on "The Make-Believe Family."

Brighton Police Chief Walter LaMoria, and Patrolman Clarence Seigle have been preparing for Brighton's Vehicle Safety Check Day, which will be held Saturday from 9 to 5 p.m. on North Street in front of the Post Office. Seigle is in charge of the program. He is shown here affixing a safety check sticker to his own vehicle, as an example to other Brighton residents.

Canned bacon which has been sliced and partially fried is being produced by at least three meat processing firms. This partially fried bacon is ready for the table in two to three minutes.

BEEN SHOPPING LATELY?

Sure! People go shopping for many things. Even a Church! But, then, they take Dad along!

Before you go shopping for a Church, make sure you know what you're looking for. For a Church isn't a theatre to provide entertainment, nor a club to fortify one's social position, nor a foundation to channel our charities.

A Church is a SCHOOL that trains whole families in spiritual perception.

It is a FACTORY that makes earnest Christians. They're in evidence all over town.

A Church is a TOWER, giving a glimpse of life's horizons, far beyond the petty problems of each day.

A Church is a WORK-SHOP where one volunteers his talents in the most challenging tasks that confront humanity.

And, of course, a Church is HOME — the place where we're appreciated, where we're one of the Family!

But it doesn't hurt to admit that in one respect our churches are like our stores: There wouldn't be one in town if we didn't need what they offer!

Methodist Church News
A special program for the Vacation Church School was held on Thursday evening, June 17th, from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. in the First Methodist Church sanctuary of Brighton. The representatives from the Episcopal

Presbyterian, and Methodist churches appreciated the program and seemed grateful for the success of the total vacation church school.
The Rev. Robert C. Brubaker attended the Detroit Annual Conference, June 16-20, at Adrian College. While he was away, the conference will be given. Mr. Lloyd French preached at the Sunday morning worship services, June 20th, on the theme, "The Measure of a Man." Also attending the conference were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kingsley, Kaye Hood, and Gilbert Auty. On Sunday, June 27th, a special presentation on the conference will be given. The ecumenical study group met at the home of the Rev. Robert Edson's on Sunday, June 20th, to discuss chapter two of Paul's letter to the Galatians. The group will resume in the fall of 1965.

The executive committee of the Vacation Church School met in the parlor of the First United Presbyterian Church of Brighton to evaluate the school, Monday afternoon, June 21st. The Rev. Robert Coffey served as chairman of the group and coordinator of the school.

The "Friendly Callers" met in the church parlor for a brief period of training which was followed by friendly visitation in the Brighton area, Monday evening, June 21st. Mrs. Lawrence McCartney, chairman of the Commission on Membership and Evangelism, serves as coordinator of the group.

The senior choir will practice on Wednesday, June 23rd, at 7:30 p.m. The carol choir will rehearse on Saturday, June 26th, at 2:15 p.m.
On Sunday, June 27th, immediately after the second service of worship, a special reception will be held for Dr. and Mrs. Verne Hoshal and family in the church parlor. The Hoshals will soon be leaving the Brighton area.

Brighton Police Chief Walter LaMoria, and Patrolman Clarence Seigle have been preparing for Brighton's Vehicle Safety Check Day, which will be held Saturday from 9 to 5 p.m. on North Street in front of the Post Office. Seigle is in charge of the program. He is shown here affixing a safety check sticker to his own vehicle, as an example to other Brighton residents.

The Rev. Robert Brubaker will be leaving with his family for their vacation on Sunday afternoon, June 27th. Preaching during the July 4th services of worship will be the Rev. William Browne, recently from Alabama and presently director of the Wesley Foundation, Eastern Michigan University. Dr. Eugene Ransom, director of the Wesley Foundation at the University of Michigan, will be preaching on Sunday, July 11th.
All people interested in attending a Methodist summer camp are asked to contact either Mr. William Cuthbert or the Rev. Robert Brubaker immediately.

At the June 15th official board meeting, the members decided to order 150 copies of the new Methodist Hymnal to be published during the spring-summer of 1966. All those who would be willing to buy a $3.00 hymnal for the church are encouraged to sign their names on the bulletin board. The official board decided as well to conduct a fall retreat on the mission and program of the Church, gave Mr. Albert Tennant permission to use the fellowship hall for square dancing assuming adult supervision, received affirmatively a proposal from Mr. Gilbert Auty for Sunday evening programs in the fall of 1965, and considered those who were sick in the hospital or recovering at home.
This coming Sunday, June 27th the pastor will preach on "The Make-Believe Family."

Canned bacon which has been sliced and partially fried is being produced by at least three meat processing firms. This partially fried bacon is ready for the table in two to three minutes.

Size has little relationship to strawberry eating quality. Variety, growing conditions, maturity, handling care and length of time after harvest have as much or more to do with flavor than has size.

BEEN SHOPPING LATELY?

Sure! People go shopping for many things. Even a Church! But, then, they take Dad along!
 Before you go shopping for a Church, make sure you know what you're looking for. For a Church isn't a theatre to provide entertainment, nor a club to fortify one's social position, nor a foundation to channel our charities.
 A Church is a SCHOOL that trains whole families in spiritual perception.
 It is a FACTORY that makes earnest Christians. They're in evidence all over town.
 A Church is a TOWER, giving a glimpse of life's horizons, far beyond the petty problems of each day.
 A Church is a WORK-SHOP where one volunteers his talents in the most challenging tasks that confront humanity.
 And, of course, a Church is HOME - the place where we're appreciated, where we're one of the Family!
 But it doesn't hurt to admit that in one respect our churches are like our stores: There wouldn't be one in town if we didn't need what they offer!

Flood of Money Puzzles Library Board

NEW LIBRARY now too small. Mrs. Hill, the librarian, in front of building.

The Brighton City Library board members faced a delightful dilemma recently, when they found themselves with plenty of money, but not enough time to spend it in.

The library received $23,000 from the new penal fines system this year, and were ordered by law to have the entire amount spent by June 30 of 1965. If all plans had jelled properly the money would have been expended. However the bids came in slowly on the remodeling of the old City Hall, which will be the new library, and the present library is too small to accommodate the new volumes that were planned. The previous library budget had been $3,000 yearly.

Brighton City Manager Peter Marshall has now received an extension from state authorities, and the improvements in the new library are expected to be completed by this fall.

City Librarian Carol Hills reported that the penal fines money will bring the capacity of the library up to 10,000 volumes. There are presently approximately 6,000 volumes in the library, which was started 15 years ago with 450 donated books.

The library hours will be increased to a full-time basis when the move to the new library is made this fall. Presently the library is open 18 hours each week. The hours are Tuesday and Thursday from 1 to 5 p.m. and 7-9 p.m., and on Saturday from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m.

The present library building will be used for a community meeting room when the library

moves this fall. The changing of the library is tied in with a carefully worked out Mill Pond Improvement Plan. The Mill Pond will be beautified, and the stores, city hall and library will blend into a center of community activity that will be functional, beautiful, and characteristic of the personality of Brighton.

The rewards of comparative shopping can be important to family finances. To shop comparatively, read the label to learn price and net weight of contents. Convert prices of similar foods to cost per unit of weight or volume... such as cost per ounce, pound, pint, quart, or serving. This gives the true or real cost of food.

Scope of New Health Test Law

House Bill 2080 signed into law by Gov. Romney and given immediate effect, requires a tuberculin skin test of children entering school, and certain immunization, and also requires schools to report the immunization and tuberculin status of each entering child.

All children enrolling in any public, private, parochial or denominational school in Michigan for the first time shall submit either a statement signed by a physician that they have been immunized against smallpox, diphtheria, tetanus, pertussis (whooping cough), and poliomyelitis, AND TUBERCULIN tested to determine the presence of infection from tuberculosis, or a statement signed by one parent or guardian to the effect that the child has not been immunized and tuberculin tested because of religious convictions or other objection to immunization; or a request signed by one parent or guardian that the local health department give the needed protective injections and diagnostic test.

Prior to November 1 of each year, the administrator of each school shall provide the state health commissioner with the immunization and tuberculin status of each entering child.

The summation of the House Bill was made by V. Snacker, Hartland school principal, for the patrons of the Hartland Consolidated School District so they may better understand the Michigan School Law and cooperate. He urges all parents of entering kindergarten students to start immediately on the "shot-program" so that they can help the schools meet their legal requirements.

GM Institute Extends Campus

FLINT — Probably the first ground-breaking ceremony ever to feature a balloon ascension triggered by a LASER beam today symbolized the actual beginning of a long-range campus expansion program here at General Motors Institute.

Plans for development of the new campus were announced last August by Dr. Harold P. Rodes, GM president. The expansion is to take place on a 40-acre site southwest of the corner of Third and Chevrolet Avenues (across the street and directly south of the present GM campus).

As the first stage in the master development plan for the new campus, work will begin shortly on a 185,000-square-foot men's residence hall which will house 400 first-year students. Soon, also, construction will start on a new five-story Student Activities and Conference Building of the Institute's 1966 fall term and the new student activity center is due for completion later in that year.

Summer Toll Of Deaths High

There were 287 persons killed in summer weekend traffic accidents in Michigan last year, an average of 21.2 deaths for the fourteen 54-hour periods covered in a special study by the State Police safety and traffic bureau.

The average was almost two deaths higher than that of 19.4 for all 52 weekends of the year, lending statistical support to the need for greater care in summer driving when increased recreational and vacation traveling adds to the potential for accident.

The worst weekend period not only for the summer but for all of last year, was from 6 p.m. July 3 to midnight July 5 with 38 deaths.

Two periods, June 12-14 and July 24-26, each had the second high summer weekend toll of 28.

Three summer weekends shared the low toll of 13 — June 26-28, July 31-August 2 and August 28-30. In contrast, the year's lowest 54-hour weekend toll was six during November 20-22.

The State Police study showed the summer weekend deaths averaged one every two hours and 33 minutes. By comparison the average for all weekends weekdays, Monday through Thursday, averaged a death every five hours and 22 minutes.

Dried prunes are abundant. The current estimated production is about 34 per cent above that of 1963-64.

JUNE — BARBECUE MONTH

June has been named Barbecue Month, but it's only the beginning of a season which lasts at least three months in most places and more in warmer climates.

This popular outdoor cooking and dining hobby can include many different kinds of parties, a rotisserie roast, a kabob cook-out, a steak grill, a spare rib feast, or a "weenie" or hamburger roast, to name a few.

BACON FOR A CROWD

Having a crowd for a week-end breakfast? It's easy to cook a large quantity of bacon by placing it on a rack in an open roasting pan and cooking in the oven. Cook in a 400 degrees F. oven about 10 minutes or until brown. Turning is not necessary.

This picture we can't say enough about. It is one of the best 2 or 3 comedies I've ever seen in my lifetime. This spring at a special screening for 17 theatre owners who have been in the business all their life sounded like a kids' matinee with all the hollering and laughing. It's really terrific — we highly recommend it for the Whole Family.

I would like to begin all over again telling you about the Rouse's new born son. You know that baby is a grandson to Mr. and Mrs. Asher Wylie — NOT Mr. and Mrs. Eric Rose — as stated in last week's Dispatch. Hope everyone concerned will forgive me. Certainly glad the mix up didn't happen at the hospital! Little Russell Conrad belongs to Lt. J. G. and Mrs. William Rouse, formerly Shirley Wylie. A Wee Bit of Reminiscing

By Pam Seefeld

News 5 Years Ago — June 23
Severe winds following day-long rain storms here last Thursday did considerable damage in the McGregor Road area of Portage Lake. A cottage owned by Mrs. Florence Atlee was badly damaged when a tree crashed into the roof. Many trees were uprooted or broken and utility wires were down for hours. No one was injured.

Mr. and Mrs. Ona Campbell enjoyed an early Father's Day dinner when their daughter, Mrs. Carl Lentz, of Lansing entertained at dinner in honor of her dad, Saturday evening. Deputy Robert Egeler who has been seriously ill at St. Joseph Hospital, Ann Arbor, was able to come home the first of the week.

News 10 Years Ago — June 22
Mr. and Mrs. Max Reynolds entertained Mary Wylie at dinner Friday, also Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Reason and Mrs. Morley Reynolds Sunday.

Pinckney is in second place in the County League with a 2-won, 1-lost record. Howell Gear leads with 3 wins. Pinckney beat Hamburg 5 to 0 Tuesday, Southwell throwing a 4 hit game. Pinckney made no errors. Gentle had 4 hits for Pinckney and batted in 4 runs. Pinckney plays Fowlerville at Howell Friday at 9 p.m. Batteries—Pinckney: Southwell and Reader; Hamburg — McMichael, J. Bennett and G. Bennett. (Ed. note: Pinckney will never have a baseball team or paper like they had in 1955.)

News 48 Years Ago — June 21
A one-horse show made this town last Friday evening, which was not as much of a show as it was an advertisement for Henry Ford. The entire show, consisting of three large trailers and five people was hauled across country with one Ford Runabout. The moving pictures given were also from Henry Ford and advertising Ford cars. (Ed. note: What do you want for nothing, they're still doing the same thing today, with all our shows. Oh those commercials.)

Here comes the jokes gang! "You say you did your best to save the balloonist from falling?" "Yes he hadn't fallen more than 50 feet before I called out to him to stop!"

Auto Overturns, Driver Injured

A 42 year old Walled Lake man, Harry Edmonson, was hospitalized Monday afternoon, after a one car accident on I-96, just east of the Chilson road overpass.

According to the State Police, Edmonson lost control of his car as he was driving west on I-96, and he was thrown from the car as it rolled over. He was taken to McPherson Community Health Center, suffering head injuries.

A 19 year old Lansing motorcyclist was treated at the Health Center for injuries received on I-96, just east of the Pinckney Road. According to the Sheriff's department Walter A. Seward was going east on I-96 when he decided to make a U-turn in the median. He turned into the side of a car driven by Gerald Harris of Detroit, and was thrown over the car into the median.

He was taken to the Health Center for injuries that were described as minor. The deputies ticketed him for improper lane usage.

Beans Favorite

Livingston County navy beans have gone to the World's Fair and why not? Part of the fun of visiting the biggest show of its kind in the world is enjoying the food . . . good American favorite as well as delicacies from nearly every foreign country.

You'll find real Boston baked beans in the Better Living Center that are flavored with molasses, and navies sweetened with maple syrup in the Wisconsin Pavilion. As popular as our own hot dogs are the Farafel bean balls in the Cairo eatery. In fact beans, mashed or otherwise, are a standby at every true Arabic get together. One writer says "one bite and you'll want to start shouting at Camels!" So here are a couple of authentic and delicious mid-eastern dishes you might like to try at home.

Economists See World of Future

BY MRS. MILDRED BINDER

TODAY'S WORLD or TOMORROW'S WORLD was the topic discussed by county extension agents in Home Economics specialists and other professional people interested in helping to solve some of the problems we face in our society. Some form of education for all people appears to be the best way to cope with social changes.

This is an age in which people will not live their lives in the world into which they were born, nor will they die in the world in which they matured. Some observers say that ours is the first generation of parents who cannot surely tell our children what the future will be like. To some people this is frightening, to other it is discouraging, and to still others it is an exciting challenge. It all depends on your point of view. How much change have you seen in your lifetime? Would you want to go back? Perhaps we have some nostalgia for certain things in our early days, but to go back is hardly what we really want.

We discussed in our conference some of the ways that "education might make a contribution for tomorrow's world. What can education really contribute? One mark of an educated man, perhaps the most distinguishing mark, is his ability to use what he knows in new situations. Once this is learned, there is almost no limit to what he can do.

We hear a great deal about creativity today. Actually creativity is his ability to use what you know in new situations. Most human beings go through life only partially aware of the full range of their abilities. In our society we could do much more than we do now to encourage self-development. We could for example drop the silly fiction that education is for youngsters, and devise many more arrangements for lifelong learning.

Specialists at Michigan State University are preparing to assist county extension agents in offering a variety of educational opportunities to the people of Livingston County. All kinds of things are being prepared for this effort: new areas of packaging of foods and advertising, ideas to help communities plan for today's needs in housing such as housing for our senior citizens.

These efforts plus many others are aimed at creating better environment for tomorrow's world.

Wesleyan Methodist Church News

The Vacation Bible School came to a close Friday, June 18, after two weeks of morning sessions that extended from 9:00 to 11:15 a.m. Three departments were included in the total program:

Beginners with Mrs. Pat Newton as superintendent; Primary, Mrs. Bruce Cox served as superintendent; Juniors, Mrs. Murel Cole as superintendent.

The average daily attendance was 183 with over one hundred dollars raised for missions. The course that was taught was entitled, "Discovering With Christ." The total program included singing, Bible memorization, a recreation period, Bible stories, and crafts. The closing demonstration program for parents was given Thursday evening, June 17.

Scheduled for this week at the Hastings Campground is the Wesleyan Youth Camp. Teenagers from throughout the conference will be in attendance. From the local church will be Tim Bowditch, Mary Hathaway, and Ruth Ann Morgan. Young Adult Camp will follow Youth Camp extending from Friday of this week through Sunday.

On Wednesday of this week the local quiz team will be competing with the quiz team from Coldwater for Conference championship. The local quiz team is made up of Kirk Davis, captain, Tim Bowditch, Rick Young, and Jean Bowditch. The coaches are Mrs. Frances Young and Miss Joyce Bowditch.

At the weekly prayer hour this week Thursday will be the annual election of church officers. The annual business meeting is scheduled for Monday, June 28.

Sunday School promotion is planned for next Sunday, June 27. This marks the close of the church's fiscal year.

Racial Novel

Choice of Month

The Liberation of Lord Byron Jones, by Jesse Hill Ford, a young Southern writer's "strong, wrenching, shocking" novel about race relations in a small Southern town, has been chosen as the Book-of-the-Month Club Midsummer Selection.

George Gordon Lord Byron Jones is a wealthy Negro undertaker in a town called Somerton, Tenn. The "liberation" that he seeks is simply that he wants to assert his legal right to divorce his wife, who has been deceiving him with other men, both white and black. But Negroes, even wealthy ones, are not expected to get divorces in this part of the South — especially when the formal proceedings would bring into the open the name of a white co-respondent.

To make the impending suit even more extraordinary, Jones hires as his attorney the town's leading white lawyer, Oman Hedgepath. Although Hedgepath is interested mainly in preserving the status quo, he is talked into accepting the case by a liberal-minded nephew. Before the novel comes to its wryly ironic conclusion, several men — both white and Negro — have been killed.

Improvements are being made in banana marketing. The trend is to divide bananas into clusters and pack them into heavy fiber boxes at the plantation. This method prevents much bruising and waste in shipment of the fruit from the tropics.

Top quality cattle is being marketed at lighter weights than a year ago. This has helped prices to producers by lowering the amount of beef produced per head.

Americans are eating five times as much chicken as they did twenty years ago.

"Why are Chryslers so popular these days?"

"PRICE ONE!"

You'll find that seven models (including this one) are priced just a few dollars a month more than the most popular smaller cars, comparably equipped. These aren't stripped down Chryslers either. You get everything you want on a big car: power steering, power brakes, automatic transmission, radio, heater. Plus a big 383 cu. in. V-8 that runs on regular gas. One more point. Every Chrysler we sell is a full-size car on a 124-inch wheelbase. A lot more car for your money. Move up to the most popular Chrysler in history. It's easy.

All Bells to Ring On July Fourth

At exactly 1 p.m. on July Fourth a great chorus of church bells will begin ringing in every city, town, village and county across the State of Michigan. The bells will ring for four minutes in solemn tribute to our country's founders, to remind us of the real meaning of this great national holiday, and as a dedication to our national unity and undying devotion to our country and for what it stands.

Why haven't we done this long ago? We grown-ups won't have to now, because hundreds of enterprising young men and women — all members of the Michigan YMCA sponsored Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y Club throughout the state are going to see that freedom rings loud and clear on the Fourth.

The idea began in 1968 by two citizens of Connecticut, who bewailed the fact that Independence Day was becoming more of a summer holiday than a time of remembering the rich heritage of freedom made possible by the Declaration of Independence.

Gov. Romney proclaimed July 4th as LET FREEDOM RING DAY, and urged every citizen to organize and participate in a statewide "ringing of the bells" at 1 p.m. The living faith of those who sacrificed their lives for democracy should never become the dead faith of the living.

The signers of the Declaration of Independence did not act only for themselves or only for the 13 million inhabitants of the 13 colonies. They had a burning desire as well to secure the God-given freedoms of generations yet unborn. Consequently they willingly endured amazing trials and hardships.

Here is personal testimony from two signers indicating how well they realized the tremendous risks that all 56 were bringing upon themselves:

"The night before the Declaration was adopted John Adams of Massachusetts wrote his wife: "I am well aware of the toil and blood and treasure it will cost us to maintain this Declaration."

William Ellery of Rhode Island made it a point to watch his fellow signers affix their names to the document. "I was determined," he said, "to see how they all looked as they signed what might be their death warrants."

Richard Stockton of New Jersey sacrificed his post as chief justice of the state Supreme Court by becoming a Signer. He was betrayed, dragged from his bed and thrown into prison by the enemy. His private library, one of the finest in the land was burned. His thoroughbred horses were stolen and his farm laid waste. He died prematurely, at 51, broken in health by his mistreatment in prison.

List Tree Farms In State Program

James R. Fulsher, a General Motors employee from Bridgeport, Mich., and Frank and Arlene Dulak, owners of a Menominee, Mich. nursing home, are the latest state woodland owners to be certified in The American Tree Farm System.

Robert F. Schmeling, chairman of the Michigan Tree Farm Committee said that the additions raise the total number of Michigan Tree Farms to 1,039, embracing 1,429,367 acres of privately-owned, taxpaying forest lands under proper management.

Fulsher owns 122 acres of timber in Delta County.

The Dulaks own 80 acres of timber of the poplar-pine and swamp conifer types.

The Viet Cong and the North Vietnam people are all Vietnamese. Any way you slice it that is still a statement of fact. If a majority of the Vietnamese are in sympathy with the ideology of North Vietnam and the Viet Cong, (and it begins to look that way) then what justification have we for butting in to force, by might, our ideology on them?

More specifically, what moral right have we to do so at the cost of the life of your son or mine? If there has ever been a true government "of the people" set up in South Vietnam, I have yet to see the proof of it — and without that vital ingredient, democracy won't work.

Had it not been for the exploitation of the "many" in Cuba by the "few" for years and years, there would never have been a Castro. Our "war on poverty," our "civil rights" bill, and our "wage and hour" laws are a part of the legislative acts that worked together to slam the door shut on communism here.

Former Cuban governments, Vietnam governments and Santo Domingo governments were too selfish and had not the foresight to do these things, hence their Castros, their Viet Congs, their rebel Franciscan Caamano Cenos — each of these created a hope for the wretched "many."

"Hope" born out of "confiscation" of wealth, is entirely compatible with communist ideology, but irreconcilable with our democratic ideology. We may tax to a point of confiscation some day, but confiscation itself — never! So again, let's face it, we have the choice of unending war or peaceful co-existence. Unless we are willing to KILL every Communist-thinking man, woman, and child in every Communist-thinking nation then let those that "want it" "have it" — we can't and shouldn't police the world.

Ever since I can remember we have been fighting the "spread of communism" and all the while it has continued to spread; but oddly enough, only in those countries most guilty of exploiting its "many" for the benefits of its "few."

Democracy can't work effectively in nations dedicated to that selfish principle but it seems obvious that communism can and does. Why don't we face up to the fact that Russia is not a nation of unhappy people? Historically, they are infinitely better off than they were under the Czar. Nor can we discount her accomplishments as a world power. Yet I can remember for years hearing my elders say, "it is only a matter of time until her communist government will collapse." Well, it hasn't, has it?

Isn't it about time we faced up to the fact that MAYBE communism is okay for some nations, and democracy for others? If we do, perhaps we can live in "peaceful co-existence" despite Mao Tse-Tung's philosophy. He can't live forever any more than Stalin could.

How to Handle Emergencies

Mike Thawlus, who lives out north of Howell, gave his hand quite a gash, while adjusting the blade on his power mower. (Sure, his wife had told him to shut the motor off first, but he was saving time!) A few stitches, and just a band-aid were called for, so Mike wrapped a clean cloth around his hand, climbed into his car and headed for the doctor's office. On the way he had what seemed like a not do this thing up right, especially since he had hospitalization coverage and go straight to the Emergency Room at the hospital.

When he got there the nurse cleaned up the wound and applied a temporary dressing, while a call was being placed for his own doctor. But right about then something happened that Mike hadn't planned on. Several severely injured victims of a had accident out on the expressway were brought in. So, for a while nobody could pay much attention to Mike.

The doctor, who was the physician on call that day, came in, but could give him only a quick look and promise to take care of the hand a little later. A few minutes after that everything went black for Mike. He had fainted dead away at the sight of one of the accident victims — and so had added one more complication to an already tense and critical situation.

Some time later it was a shakey and shame-faced Mike whom his doctor took back to the office for the simple job of putting the stitches in his injured hand. And Mike also learned that his hospitalization policy covered him just as well for the emergency treatment at the doctor's office as it would have at the hospital. So, for anything like that again, it will be the doctor's office FIRST, for Mike!

Now actually, there's no Mike Thawlus in the Howell phone book; and it all didn't happen exactly like this. But similar things do occur, more often than they should, when people fail to make proper use of the Emergency Room at the McPherson Health Center. Those involved have found out, as Mike did, that the place to take non-emergency injuries, like cuts and bruises, or ailments like boils, ear-aches, sore throats, high fevers and the like, is NOT the Emergency Room at the Health Center. Instead they know that all of us will get our medical problems taken care of much quicker and possibly be spared a rough time, besides, by contacting our own doctor's office FIRST.

In addition, by doing that we'll be leaving the Emergency Room free for what it was intended — the fast and efficient treatment of actual EMERGENCIES — by one or more of the twenty-three skilled local doctors, who voluntarily take turns being on call around the clock day or night, every day of the year.

The fact is, it's to our own best interests, in almost every case where we need medical help, to GET IN TOUCH WITH OUR OWN DOCTOR FIRST.

If we contact his office first, more often than not he can take care of everything right there.

If we go to the hospital first, he will be called in anyway, so we just lose that much time. If he finds we need to go to the hospital he can make the arrangements, order any special treatment required, and have everything ready for us by the time we get there.

Contacting the doctor first makes him personally responsible for our care, from that moment on, whether it's at his office, or under his direction at the Health Center.

For INJURIES — or for ILLNESS — contact your DOCTOR, FIRST.

800 In County Face X-Ray Test

Almost 800 Livingston County residents have been notified to have a follow-up chest side Dr. Wikstrom explained.

Director of the Livingston County Health Department. He said that of 3,000 adults tuberculin-skin tested last year, 800 had a reaction to the test. This means that at some previous time they have unknowingly been exposed to a person with active tuberculosis.

Because one in twenty reactors might develop tuberculosis in their lifetime, all reactors in Livingston County were advised last year to have a chest x-ray every year to be on the safe side. Dr. Wikstrom explained that this is the first special annual x-ray program planned by the local health department, and is designed to make it convenient for the reactors to have the follow-up chest x-ray.

"X-rays for Health" for reactors will be provided by the Michigan Department of Health without charge. X-ray service will be available in Fowlerville on Tuesday, June 29; in Howell on Wednesday, June 30; and in Brighton on Thursday, July 1.

We hope that every reactor will take advantage of this opportunity to protect his health," Dr. Wikstrom said.

Assisting in recruiting volunteers to assist at the clinics are Mrs. Robert Gustafson in Fowlerville, Mrs. George Landon in Howell and Mrs. Bert Bair in Brighton. They served as chairmen for the testing program last year in their communities.

Cooperating with the health department in both the testing and follow-up x-ray programs is the Michigan Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association, the Christmas Seal agency.

The Nez Perce Indians' leopard horses that were the nemesis of the U.S. cavalry 100 years ago are making their big comeback in Livingston County through the efforts of the Silver Star ranch. The 130-acre ranch on Green Road near Clyde Road is owned and operated by Andrew Kardos and his family.

The history of the leopard horse, known as the Appaloosa, goes back to ancient Asia where it was named "Les Milles Fleurs" (Horse of a thousand flowers).

A relatively small number were brought to this country by the Spaniards who apparently were massacred and their horses taken over by the Idaho Indians.

The Indians developed them into mounts of such great speed and endurance that in the days of the Indian wars the U.S. cavalry put a price on the head of the little Appaloosa because they could outrun and outlast the American soldiers' mounts and the Indians were able to escape.

These horses brought over by the early Spaniards were strikingly marked with black, brown or auburn spots on their white or cream-colored coats.

These horses were herded into the Palouse Valley of Idaho where they quickly multiplied.

When the white man tried to exterminate these horses of which the Indians owned large herds, many escaped and ran wild on the plains. These were known as the horses of the Palouse Valley, a name which in time was shortened to Appaloosa.

The horse was near extinction when a few years ago some famous horse lovers discovered some among the Indian tribes. Gene Autry was one and his famous horse, an Appaloosa, is a grandfather of one of Silver Star Ranch's stallions.

The Indians were extremely careful in selecting breeding stock. Several great race horses were developed to the sorrow of the white man, the Indians, being wild hunters, staking their all on the sleepy looking Appaloosa against some sleek imported racers, ending up with all the winners in one race in the State of Washington, the stake reportedly totaled $30,000.

But for buffalo hunting and as a war pony, no animal could beat the Indians' Appaloosas.

Of all the Indian tribes in Northwest America, the Nez Perces were the wisest horsemen. They created and culled their horses. The poorer ones were traded off or used as pack horses. But the swift ones, the tough and game ones — these were the buffalo runners and they had no equal. They could travel the crazy mountains at full gallop. They could charge into stampeding buffalo and single out one for the kill. They were built for rough terrain forefeet turned in so they could toe dance the narrowest passes, wide heels to make them sure footed, thin tails that wricked through brush and briar without being caught.

Other tribes painted their horses for the chase and for war.

But the Nez Perce horses were painted by nature with curious spots in red or black. Some were like polka dots, some irregular as leaves and some elongated like footprints.

What did it matter that the hostile Blackfeet tribe had flintlock guns? The spotted horses could outmaneuver their guns and outrun their mounts.

And so the Nez Perces lived in security, until in time their horses were the most distinctive in markings and the fastest in North America.

The Indians took a liking to the white man and invited him to feast on buffalo meat and wild thimbleberries. And they gave the white men presents of their horses. The white man in return sent in his missionaries who taught the Indians to read and write. But the missionaries frowned on the fast spotted horses, their races and their wars with the Blackfeet and showed the Nez Perces how to use their horses to cultivate the land.

For a few quiet years the spotted horses worked the rich soil. Then in 1860 a nugget of gold was discovered and seemingly from nowhere came a stampede of gold rushers. Washington decreed that the Indian must be moved to a reservation and the soldiers moved into the valley. They were herded onto a reservation and their horses were seized and sold by the squatters.

Many years passed and in 1837 a student was poking into the history of the Nez Perces and he was intrigued by the stories of the spotted horse.

He discovered that 4,000 years ago the spotted horse was known in China as the heavenly horse and in Persia as the sacred horse.

Could he stand by and let a great breed of horses that survived wars and centuries to die out. Aroused horsemen scoured plains and mountains and found a few, enough to perpetuate the breed.

The first national Appaloosa horse show was held four years ago at the Fowerville Fair and today, from that small bunch of horses rounded up at the instigation of a student of Idaho, there are nearly 2,000.

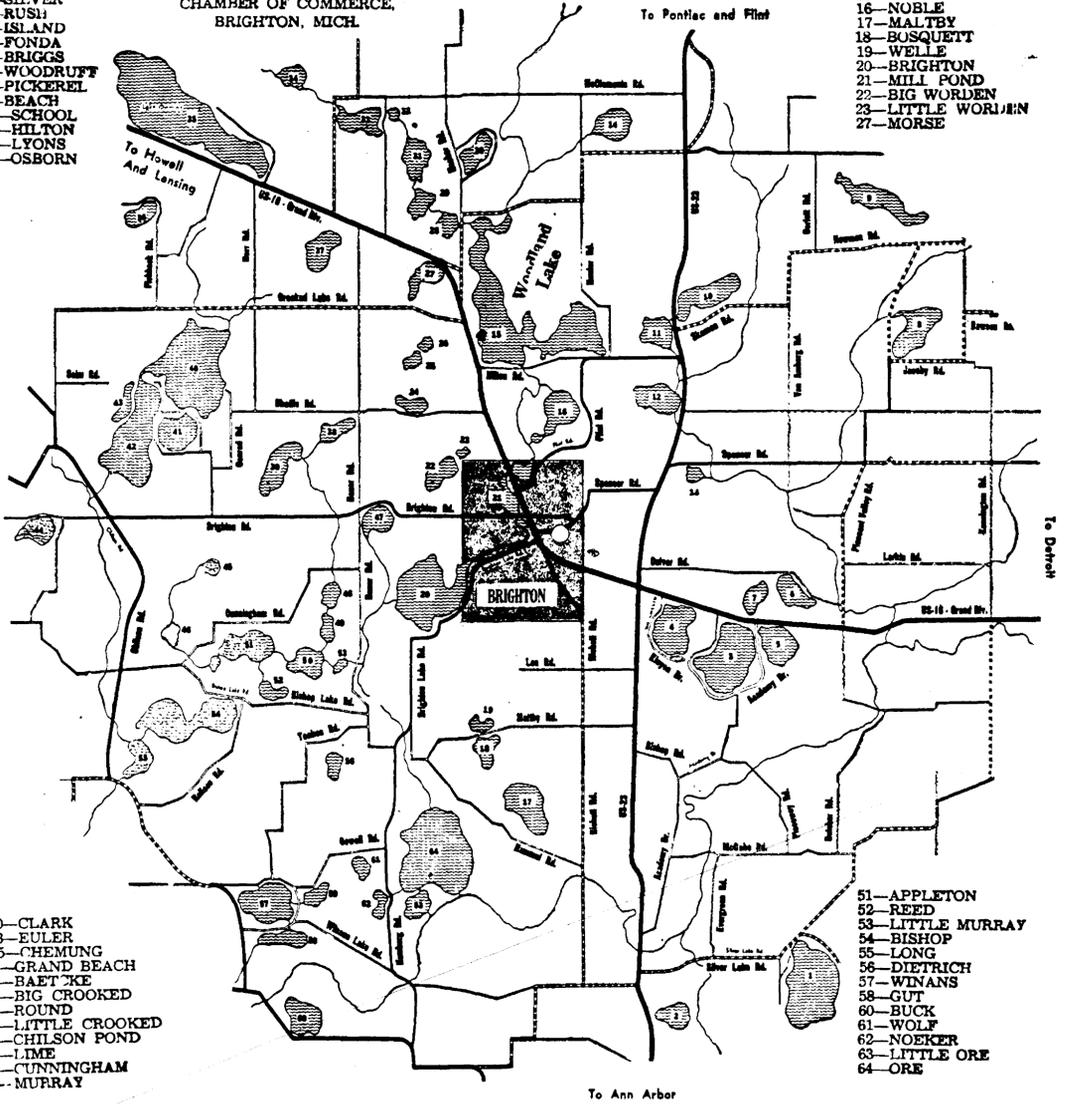

Last year the Appaloosa horse show was held at the state fair grounds in Detroit.

Andrew Kardos came by his first Appaloosa quite by accident. He purchased a beautiful roan mare for his riding stable. She was in foal and produced a beautiful leopard-spotted filly. Kardos then found out the sire was Sonseeray, owned by Arthur Sellon of Grand Rapids. Sonseeray was brought to Silver Star Ranch where he has since sired many beautiful colts.

Water Accidents Show Big Gain

Eighty-three persons have died in 104 water accidents in the first five and a half months this year, respective increases of 24 and 30 compared with the period up through June 12, in 1964, according to State Police provisional figures.

In addition, 43 persons have been injured in water mishaps.

The breakdown on 62 of the deaths on which official reports have been received includes 14 boat passengers, eight boat operators, 11 swimmers or waders, 15 who fell from bridges, banks, docks or piers, 13 who fell through ice, and one skin or Scuba diver.

Vigilant supervision of children at play in or near water and proper attention to safety rules when boating, the State Police emphasize, can help hold down the water accident toll which reaches its peak during the warm weather months in Michigan. Last year 290 persons lost their lives in 606 water accidents in the State.

Safe Boating Week on July 4

President Johnson has proclaimed the week of July 4 through 10 National Safe Boating Week.

In addition to providing an opportunity to pay tribute to the thousands of boating enthusiasts who have devoted a great deal of time and effort to teaching the fundamentals of small boat handling to newcomers to the sport, the nationwide observance focuses attention on the continuing need to promote common sense and courtesy afloat.

Official statistics indicate that, although inexperienced boat operators are responsible for many mishaps on our waterways, a majority of accidents are caused by thoughtlessness on the part of seasoned skippers. This highlights the fact that promoting safety is a never-ending job. It is not enough to be familiar with Federal, state and local boating laws. A thorough knowledge of good seamanship is not a complete guarantee against unexpected emergencies. While these are important factors in assuring greater safety afloat, they cannot take the place of constant awareness of the "unwritten rules" of common sense and courtesy which are the common denominators of any successful safety program.

Legion Nine

The American Legion ball club victorious in its last two meetings on the Fun and Fumble diamond, are starting a late season drive for the league pennant. They have compiled an envious 34 points, while their air-tight fielding has held their opponents to only 16 points.

Thursday's game with St. Paul's should prove to be a real cliff-hanger with manager George Slot's Bonus men (WW1, WW2, and Korean) just up from the minors.

Breaks Ankle

Paul DeLuca, Jr. son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul DeLuca, 1025 Madison, had the misfortune to fall off a step ladder and break his ankle on Tuesday. He was taken to St. Joseph Hospital, Ann Arbor.

ANNUAL BOOK SALE

The annual book sale will be held at the Brighton Public Library Friday, June 25 beginning at 10 a.m.

Kiwanis Gives 2 Scholarships

At the regular meeting of the Brighton Kiwanis Club June 16 at St. Paul's Episcopal Parish Hall, President Sid Zaska congratulated the membership on the success of the membership drive and discussed plans for further membership recruiting efforts.

He reminded the members that a large and energetic body of members will be needed for the labor on the mill pond improvement program, which will begin as soon as the city makes material available. Plans were made for induction of new members Tom McGee, Merlin Glazier, and Ken Faulkner, prior to induction.

Zaska announced the selection by the Brighton High School of Luanne Eikhoff for the Kiwanis Scholarship to Interlochen music camp this summer, and the selection of Mary Schoen for the Kiwanis scholarship to Northwood Institute.

Dr. Robert McKenney, program chairman for the evening, introduced Andrew Hoseny of the Wyeth Co. who gave a slide talk on the development, manufacture, and use of penicillin and other antibiotics.

Vice President Don Wagnush announced that the program for June 23 will be offered by Philip McBride, who for many years has been associated with Walden Woods, north of Brighton.

Brighton Driver 1st to Get Deer

A Brighton man, 43 year old Charles F. Garrett of 333 North First Street, was the first Livingston County man to take advantage of the new Conservation Department ruling that allows a motorist to keep the deer struck by his vehicle.

Garrett struck the deer, a doe, June 16 at 4 p.m. on the Byron Road, 1/2 mile north of Gannon Road.

Garrett's car was only slightly damaged.

Auto Inspection Is Safety Plea

With the legislative death knell sounding over a state-wide motor vehicle inspection program, the chairman of the Michigan State Safety Commission has urged Michigan's motorists to participate in the volunteer auto inspection programs being held in many communities of the State.

Secretary of State James M. Hare, chairman of the commission for the past 11 years, termed volunteer inspection as a rather limited substitute for a mandatory program, but important nevertheless to our total safety effort in Michigan.

Hare listed four favorable aspects of the volunteer program: (1) "checks out defects in some cars whose conscientious owners then get them back into good driving condition; (2) it spotlights the importance of vehicle safety and safe driving; (3) it gets community-minded groups and organizations interested in the whole traffic safety program; and (4) it keeps the public eye on vehicle inspection as an integral part of the Michigan's traffic safety program."

Funeral Auto In Crash; 3 Hurt

An accident interrupted an already sad journey for an Orchard Lake family. Grieta VanCoevering, 31, was driving her father, 65 year old J. A. VanCoevering, and 38 year old Gerrit VanCoevering to Hastings for the funeral of Mrs. VanCoevering. They were following the hearse carrying Mrs. VanCoevering on M-59 when they crashed into a car that turned sharply in front of them.

According to the sheriff's department, the other car, driven by 74 year old John Barringer of Haslett, made an abrupt left turn into the path of the VanCoevering vehicle.

Gerrit VanCoevering suffering facial cuts was taken to the McPherson Community Health Center. A passenger in Barringer's car, 74 year old Merit Anders, was also taken to the Health Center.

Re-Elected

Charles H. Sutton, Livingston County representative from Howell, was re-elected Vice Chairman of the Harco-Clinton Metropolitan Authority, a position he has held since last June.

Sutton has served on the Harco-Clinton Metropolitan Authority since he was appointed by the Livingston County board of supervisors in 1951.

Sutton was formerly Mayor of Howell, and is active in civic and community affairs throughout Livingston County.

He replaced the late Bruce R. McPherson of Howell, who was on the original Commission established in May, 1941.

GM Golf

One of the two top teams in the GM Proving Grounds' Men's Golf League wore Bob Seaton and Wayne Fellers who had bragged of a perfect record.

Monday they found out that every one doesn't bluff so easily. The partnership of Tom McCassey and Walt Mackie broke the tie and managed to take one point from the Seaton-Fellers duo. However, there remains one combination that has yet to crack, and that's Tom Hancock and Clare Reading. They continue to hold onto their perfect record and remain at the top all alone.

$100,000 Awarded Brighton Widow

A Circuit Court jury in Ann Arbor awarded $100,000 in damages to the wife and 10 children of a Brighton man who died of injuries received in an August, 1962, accident on a newly completed section of U.S. 23.

The judgment against the Miller Bros. Construction Co. of Archibald, Ohio, was sought by Mrs. Martha Birmingham for the estate of her late husband, Ambrose F. Birmingham. She had asked $344,000. Don Moon of Brighton was her attorney.

Birmingham, 54, was driving to his home in Brighton from Ann Arbor, where he was employed, on the night of Aug. 9, 1962. On a recently completed section of U.S. 23 near Warren Rd. in Ann Arbor Township, he failed to see warnings that the road narrowed from three to two lanes.

When he did see the barrels erected by the construction company to warn that the road was narrowing he swerved to avoid them. His panel truck went out of control, skidded 200 feet and hit a guardrail on the east side of the road.

Birmingham was thrown from the truck, suffering a crushed skull and severe cuts. He died on March 8, 1963, 210 days after the accident.

In the lengthy trial, Mrs. Birmingham contended that the construction firm had failed to erect sufficient markers and barricades warning that the road lane was closed off.

4-H to Meet In Howell June 25

4-H Club members are invited to attend a special 4-H Demonstration Day on Friday, June 25 at the Howell Courthouse Annex. The program will begin at 1:00 p.m., according to Harry A. Foster, Extension 4-H Agent.

4-H'ers who have a demonstration started are urged to bring it with them to the meeting. They will receive special assistance with organizing information, preparing visuals and delivering presentation. Well developed demonstrations provide excellent learning experiences.

The 4-H Club Leaders Preview meeting will be held Tuesday, June 29, at the Southwest Elementary School in Howell. The meeting will begin at 8:00 p.m.

All materials necessary for the 4-H members to enter their exhibits at the Fowlerville Fair will be distributed.

Farm Bureau Women Elect Officers at June 4 Meeting

The Livingston County Farm Bureau Women of the Southeast Quarter met June 4 for a luncheon business meeting. Mrs. Hazel Larson was in charge of the luncheon and table decorations.

Election of officers took place during the business meeting. Mrs. Beatrice Van Horn was re-elected county chairman; Mrs. Andrew Jackson, vice-chairman; Mrs. Anna Jenks, county secretary; and Mrs. Rudolph Koepfen, county treasurer.

The group voted to give $100 toward the expenses of Mrs. Scramwin when she will go to A.C.W.M. held this year in Europe.

The women also agreed to cooperate with Michigan Recipe Book committee, and will send recipes promoting products from each county. Livingston county women will promote milk and beef.

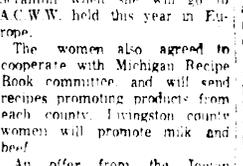

An offer from the Toisan County Fair committee means employment for a boy and a girl, 17 years old, or over, to work in the cafeteria during the fair activities. Call the Howell Farm Bureau office for further information on this matter.

The women netted $125 from their bake sale last month. This money will be used toward sending two students to the Seminar at Camp Kott in July.

How to Read an Ad
In The Argus

The following editorial was published in the November 8, 1961 issue of The Brighton Argus. It was written by Walter Ruch, then the editor and is reproduced
because of its aptness during our Midnight Madness sale.
Let's make one thing clear at the outset of this editorial. The Brighton
Argus is in business to make money.
Any contrary impression that may have been given by anything published in these pages should be dismissed forthwith. We find nothing repugnant in a dollar bill,
especially one remaining in the till after
all of our creditors have been satisfied.
Given enough net dollars, we could buy a new font or two of more attractive type,
a new Linotype or Intertype machine, or almost anything else that weekly newspapers always need but can seldom afford. Perhaps we could take on an additional hand to assist in the chores of the week.
Accordingly, this editorial is being written to make money. If there is a note of altruism to be found anywhere, it is in our desire to see our advertisers also make money as the result of the messages
they pay money to have printed in The Argus. But that is to be altruistic only to a point. Satisfied advertisers, as any publisher knows, will be glad to have more of the same. And we are just as eager to present you with bigger and better advertisements as we are to offer
you a well-written, understandable account of the news each week.

We wonder, therefore, how many of our readers are able to discern the message behind each advertisement in this newspaper? Only a part of the story is told in the type that you read.

As you read an advertisement in The Argus, for example, are you cognizant
of the enterprise it represents? A merchant,
or a service, in your city is investing dollars
to convince you that you should do business in Brighton. The advertisement reaffirms his confidence in Brighton as a good place to shop and to have things done for you. The message offers you more than a choice piece of sirloin steak,
a new automobile, a dress for the wife,
a television set for the home, or a new house in which to live.

The advertisement offers one
or all of these things, to be sure.
But it offers also a better Brighton
for everyone. When you deal with your local merchant or professional service, you are making more secure the future of all of us. As the merchant or service makes more money, he pays more taxes and hires
more persons to sustain the improved
level of his business. He, himself, spends more money on other local services and merchandise. And the personnel on his staff, as their paychecks grow with the improvement
of his business, spend more and more in the town making possible their livelihood.

A prospering town, sharply
attendant to its own interests, finds it easy to build new schools, install new sewers, pave more streets and give better and better police and fire protection. As a matter of fact,
it makes it possible also for The Brighton Argus to be a better newspaper.

The point is, however, that The Argus is not in this effort, alone.
Nor is the merchant who advertises.
And the same may be said of the reader. All of us are in the same boat, all pulling oars in the same direction. If the goal is worth the reaching, the effort is justifiable.
It should be the aim of all of us
to make certain that every dollar
has as many turnovers in Brighton
as it is possible to arrange. The more turnovers that touch the dollar in its course through the city, the more elements of profit there are to be enjoyed by all.

Looking at the matter from a purely selfish standpoint, any resident of Brighton should be eager to deal with business in Brighton. Every dollar you spend in our city helps to cut your tax bill, helps to give you better city
service, helps to give your children
better schools, helps to build a Brighton that will attract more business.

Any place of business or any service may try, of course, to get along without advertising. We think,
however, that you should have more
interest in the ones who do advertise.
Surely, they are spending money
with The Argus, but only as a means to an end. They have no interest,
nor do we expect any, in the enrichment
of our coffers. They do have an interest in their own growth, toward the end that Brighton, too, shall grow.

The power of an advertisement,
then, rests not alone with the message that is printed but with the story of faith, hope and courage
that is implicit in the advertisement.
Our advertisers are putting their dollars on Brighton. Can any of us, sensibly, do anything less?

To brighten your future, spend more in Brighton. Spend it with those who cared enough to tell you first in an advertisement. Spend it with those who populate these pages. And remember these words
that cannot be read in any advertisement,
yet are the real truth of every advertisement.

SPEAKING OF AREA-DEPRESSORS

SPEAKING OF AREA-DEPRESSORS

As the travel season gains momentum and millions of families take to the highways, we should pause and consider how we may assist in retaining the natural beauty of the American countryside.

One of the major blights on the landscape is litter.

Litterbugs cost Americans a billion dollars a year, according to Keep America Beautiful, Inc., the national anti-litter organization.

Taxpayers foot half this bill, through
the cost of cleaning up streets,
highways, beaches, parks and other public areas, while the other half is paid by business, industry and individuals in the form of losses and expenses attributable to litter.

The prevention of litter should be the objective of all thinking Americans.
One of the best ways to participate
is to have a supply of litterbags
handy — and use them.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:
Having completed my thirty-seventh year in the U.S.A., and having also been a resident of Brighton, for thirty-six and one-half years, also having raised, with the able assistance of my lovely wife Margaret, (Irish), a pretty good law-abiding family, I would like,
if it is permissible, to make a few remarks about my wonderful home town.

Being a perfectly located, big little city, and the hub of the nearby
expressways, highways, fifty-two lakes,
in a radius of five miles that surround
it, however it has not grown much,
and lately has been standing still.
We have been lacking good leadership,
especially in the past six years. Oh,
yes, we have been blessed with some real phonies, but God's mills are grinding slowly, but oh, so surely.
Now after most of them have gone
on their way, have departed, we have some especially mixed up characters,
and here is hoping that they will see
the handwriting and leave us alone!

Criticism prevails, with some turning white when the other fellow
makes a dime more. Coffeeclotching, gossiping, as in any other small town,
but is done more so in Brighton,
has kept and is keeping strangers
from getting a well-deserved light.

We, the people, the residents, the taxpayers, fathers, mothers and even some organizations, plus the clubs
and churches are to blame for it.
Apathy, non-interest, our own daily problems, some of us working every day, with not such good feelings, and some that do a little indulging, has and shall of course
create some more of the above reasons.

WHAT IS THE ANSWER?
If you are sincere, if you don't like Brighton, if you must criticize,
without helping, if you don't

legals manage to operate on 1 mill or less. This low rate is due to the large amount of funds available from state and federal governments (paid,
in part, by Livingston County taxpayers), and the fact that students
pay tuition and require no living accommodations. Facilities are used both day and evening. More education for every dollar spent means education
for many who cannot afford it now.

Above all, the community college
study should not be prejudged by Livingston County citizens. Every interested citizen should be informed,
so that his opinion can be based on facts which will flow out of this study. We of the study committee will make every effort to keep all citizens informed as the study progresses.

Rep. Sharpe Reports

The Democrats, now running things
in Lansing, are about to place the legislature in control of pari-mutuel betting at the horse racing tracks
in this state. Just how are they proposing to accomplish such an outlandish and clearly unconstitutional feat? The answer is simple — with votes! With enough votes,
almost anything is possible —
and the Democrats have more than enough in both chambers
this year — controlling the House
by a 77-37 majority and the Senate
by a 23-15 margin.

There seems to be no end to the unbelievable things which our representatives are doing under our capitol dome. This week, 62
Democrats — with no Republican support — adopted an amendment to a bill which would provide that its newly-created LEGISLATIVE auditor take over the ADMINISTRATIVE function of performing daily audits
of each race at all privately-owned and operated Michigan tracks.
The amendment goes on to provide
that the auditing shall be performed
by a private auditing firm appointed by the auditor, and that the expense of these audits shall be paid for by the state — or to put it a little more bluntly — by YOU, the taxpayer.

Even the Attorney General, in an opinion rendered in February, 1964,
pointed out that his review of constitutional deliberations clearly indicated that the legislative auditor, to be appointed by the legislature under Michigan's new constitution, could not get into the kind of work which the internal accounting department and the controller
in a business do during the year —
that is, checking payments that are going out to make sure they are
proper and being used for the purposes intended. In other words, when the year is finished, the post-audit
function of the legislative auditor
would occur — and he would then review the operations to determine whether they had, in fact, been conducted according to law and in the manner prescribed by the legislature.

The new constitution, adopted by all of the people of this state, very specifically provides that the legislative auditor shall be assigned no other duties than those set forth in that document.

This amendment could open up
a whole Pandora's box of unlimited and costly operations. Conceivably, equipped with subpoena powers, the legislative auditor could be running in and out of private business offices —
leafing through books — checking
on collections of such state taxes
as the corporate franchise tax,
sales and liquor taxes, business activities tax, etc. — and could be engaging in countless other administrative, not audit, functions —
and all at state expense!

This unbridled grab for lucrative political patronage is patently unconstitutional. With the legislature's auditor in control of all who have dealings with the state, and with all state departments and agencies,
legislators can be assured of "red carpet" treatment wherever they go.

Wake up, Mr. Citizen — before
it's too late!

MICHIGAN MIRROR

GROWTH EXPENSE

Record budgets no longer are a rarity in Michigan government,
and probably in most other states, because a new record
in state spending is set each year.

The basic reason for this phenomenon is easily grasped by most people. It goes without saying that more services cost more money, and even a given
set of operations can rise in expense
from one year to the next.

Extent of Michigan's government's growth is a little more difficult to fathom unless all data are available for comparison. Such a full study of state government growth was made recently by the Citizens Research Council.

To the layman, the Council's study spells out clearly where the so-called record budget
expenditures have gone in the past 10 years.

This year, for example, Michigan
budgeted $191 million for 84
agencies and services which were not in existence in 1955.
The budget for the new fiscal year may add 14 more new programs at an estimated $7.6
million annual cost.

For the fiscal year starting
July 1, the Council estimated the 84 units new in the past decade and the proposed 14
others would require about $264 million. So it can be seen the cost of operating the relatively new programs is going up considerably
more than the amount required
for the totally new ones.

Expansion of departments and agencies which existed before 1955 are not included in the Council study, but would add
many more thousands through new functions and duties given to divisions of long standing.

"New programs and services appear regularly in annual general fund appropriations,"
the analytical council notes.
Even in the cash crisis years
new programs were added. After a peak of 20 new services started in 1958, state expansion has ranged from 2 to 17 programs
a year.

Areas of activity have varied
as greatly as their numbers.
Most recently the new programs
have been in the areas of education, mental or public health, welfare, safety, economic expansion and licensing of professional or vocational groups.

The Council notes that some programs are self-supporting;
others get contributions from the federal government. Still a third category depends totally
on state funds for operating.
All have one feature in common:
they contribute to a rapidly
rising state budget and payroll.

CARE FOR MORE

Special education offerings by Michigan schools are one of the reasons Michigan school systems
are way ahead of other states.

There are presently very few districts in Michigan which do not have some kind of special education service operating or planned for the near future.
Despite the size of the state,
few students who need these services are very far from well-established programs.

Special education facilities
range from those for the physically handicapped, the mentally retarded and the emotionally
disturbed, to the visiting teacher
and school diagnostician

Children requiring special attention

Children requiring special attention in the classroom vary considerably. Some are slow learners because of vision or hearing deficiencies, while others
have much more serious problems.

The physically handicapped
programs, covering the widest
range of individual problems,
served more than 75,000
students in the school year just ended. Crippled, cardiac, epileptic, deaf, blind, homebound and hospitalized students benefited
from these programs.

Another 27,000 students were enrolled in various programs for the mentally retarded. The program for emotionally disturbed
youngsters just completed its third year statewide but an estimated 700 students were involved,
about 300 more than last year.

Visiting teacher and school diagnostician services were extended to about 24,500 this past year. The biggest portion of this number, probably all but about 225, was part of the visiting teacher program.

LIGHTS ON SAFETY

A standard plea comes forth
from the governor's office
periodically for a "light the way to safety" campaign.

The occasions for the plea
are the various holidays when the bulk of Michigan motorists
take to the roads for long trips.
Memorial Day, Independence
Day and Labor Day, Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's
are the primary occasions.

Over the period that Gov.
George Romney has been in office, the number of cars on the road in daylight with lights
on has steadily increased throughout the year rather than just on these special occasions.

Purpose of the plea originally was to use the lights to remind motorists of the need for constant safety consciousness.
Whether it has served its purpose
is difficult to measure.

Most motorists are conscious of approaching lights in daytime driving. Only the cynics have seen the campaign as great for the auto battery
business, if nothing else.

Skimpy Water Perils Lawns

BY LARRY LAWRENCE

How much does it cost to water a lawn? I sometimes run into the man who complains that his lawn is dry but who never waters it. When I ask why
he says it's too expensive.

But is it? The cost of water per 1,000 gallons varies considerably (Detroit 18c, Columbus, Ohio 32c, Boston 40c). But few homeowners realize how little the cost of summer watering
is likely to be. Most of them guess from 3 to 5 times the real cost.

For most lawns it would be good if they could have an inch of water a week from rain or sprinkling. On a 5,000 sq. ft.
lawn this is 3,200 gallons. At a typical 30c rate that would be less than a dollar. And even with a dozen such waterings a year it would seem like a bargain
price for the continuous enjoyment
of a flourishing green lawn.

To the Editor of the Argus:

As members of the Livingston
County Community College
Study Committee, we would like to clarify for citizens of the Brighton area, the task of the committee and the progress made to date.

The task of the committee is not to promote, but to investigate and analyze the possibility of a community college for the county. This study will take several months. Only if the study shows that such a college is feasible, will an effort be made to promote a college. The questionnaires which have been sent to parents and children of the school districts, and the questionnaires
which will be sent to industry and business will determine whether the people of the area need or want such a college.

Livingston County is surrounded by community colleges, in Lansing, Jackson County, Washtenaw County, Oakland County, and Flint. Livingston County
students who wish to attend
these institutions will have to pay approximately double the tuition of students residing in these counties, and, in the future,
may not even be welcome,
as these institutions expand to capacity. Livingston County residents are paying a share of the cost of running the 23 existing community colleges, since the state provides approximately one-third of the operating cost from tax revenue. State matching funds of $4,000,000
were set aside in 1964 for community college capital outlay.
Livingston County made a contribution to this fund, but received no benefits.

Enrollment in Michigan
community colleges in 1964 averaged 52 per cent of the population of 18 and 19 year old people in community college districts. The community college can do a job,
no high school can do that,
