Unwelcome Visitor To Saxony

Baby Narrowly Escapes Death

BRIGHTON — A surprise visitor arrived at the Reed Spicer home on Lee Rd. in Saxony subdivision Saturday night. He was unwelcome because of instead of ringing the door bell he drove his car directly into the bedroom just seconds after Mrs. Spicer had lifted her baby daughter from her crib.

The car, driven by James Vandermass, 24, of Flint, crashed through the front door and demolished the baby's crib after wrecking part of the front wall. Mrs. Reed, startled by a loud crash, screamed, but her husband informed her that someone had "just driven in"—and indeed they had.

Vandermass seemed as confused as were the Spicers. He said he didn't know just how the accident happened. There was little damage to his car. However, the front wall and door of the Spicer home was pushed in about three feet, and broken glass and plaster was scattered about.

No one was injured.

Auto Hits Tree; Girl 17 Killed

BRIGHTON—Linda Jean Hoehle, 17, of Farmington was killed Saturday night when her small auto slid sideways into a tree at Hilton rd and old US 23. The accident, in front of the American Legion hall, was the 23rd auto fatality in Livingston county, this year.

According to witnesses, Miss Hoehle was turning into Hilton rd. from US 23 but either she was going too fast or her steering gear stuck and the car hit the tree.

Another victim of an auto-train crash is near death in St. Joseph's Mercy hospital in Ann Arbor. He is Myrin Mitchell, 40, of Lansing. State Police of the Brighton Post report that Mitchell drove his car into the side of a moving train at the Grand Trunk and Western crossing southeast of Brighton at Nine Mile road just off of US 23.

Mitchell suffered serious injuries to his face, head, and chest. He was alone in the car at the time of the accident.

Frederick Neil Baker, 34, of Whitmore Lake was injured when his car ran off the road at a curve on Whitmore Lake Rd. near Six Mile Rd. Saturday. The car struck a guard rail and a curve sign.

Howell Man Injured

HOWELL — A Howell man suffered serious injuries Saturday in an accident on the Howell-Pinckney road. According to the state police, James Knaupe, 22, who lives at 616 North Street in Howell, missed a curve, drove through a fence and hit a tree, with the Rush Lake road, Knaupe, who was alone in the car was taken to the McPherson Health Center, where his condition was listed as fair.

Berriman gets Erwin Post as Howell Judge

HOWELL — The Howell City Council, at its meeting Monday night, appointed Stanley Berriman municipal judge to fill the unexpired term of Wilfred Erwin, who recently resigned. Mr. Berriman served 12 years as Livingston County, prosecutor, having been elected on the Republican ticket. He is married and has two daughters, Jean, a student at Albion college and Betsy in the Howell high school. A graduate of Albion college, Mr. Berriman is a Doctor De-Jure, a degree conferred on him by Northwestern University.

$178,182 Due County from Motor Fees

LANSING — The Department of State Highways is distributing third quarter Motor Vehicle Highway Fund collections to Michigan counties and incorporated cities and villages.

Howard E. Hill, State Highway Director, said net receipts of the Highway Fund during July, August and September of 1965, amounted to $2,438,035, an increase of $3,378,660, compared to the same period of 1964. The increase reflects a sharp upturn in summer vacation travel compared with 1964, Hill said.

All state gasoline and diesel fuel taxes and license plate fees go to the Motor Vehicle Highway Fund.

The counties will receive $18,352,612 and the incorporated cities and villages will get $9,435,488.

Livingston County is due to receive $155,777 and monies to the various cities are: Brighton, $5,702; Howell, $10,592; Fowler, $3,967 and Pinckney, $2,144. This makes a total of $178,182 paid into the county for the three months.

Two Lives Saved By Howell Police

HOWELL — The police often save a life or deliver a baby but rarely does one law officer save two lives on one call for help.

Little Ann Schauer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schauer, of First st., Howell, loves cats and when she saw a large cat struggling to free its head from a tin can she screamed for her mother. Mrs. Schauer tugged and tugged in vain but she couldn't free the cat so she called the Howell police for help.

Acting Chief Charlie Mason responded and with a pair of tin snips freed the cat.

But to the surprise of everyone another life had been saved.

Covering in the bottom of the car was a tiny mouse. Lifting out the cat and mouse, Mason shooed both of them away in opposite directions and little Ann declared her day was complete.

Dunn Calls Meeting

BRIGHTON — State Senator Gerald Dunn has called a meeting at 8 p.m. Nov. 27 of all Livingston county residents in the American Legion hall at Hilton rd and old U.S. 23. Senator Dunn said the meeting is in order to become better acquainted with his constituents.

Why the School Board Granted Hawkins Vacation to June 30

H. GORDON HAWKINS

LEO KUJAWA

MRS. BETTY MALTBY

THOMAS LIETZ

(See Editorial on Page 4) BRIGHTON — Except for the cooperation of a couple of the Brighton School Board members, the mystery of why the school board called a secret and sudden meeting to depose H. Gordon Hawkins as superintendent and elevate Leo Fitzgerald to the position of acting superintendent would still be unsolved.

A long statement was prepared by the school board members containing much double talk and confusing facts, none of which would be explained by most of those school board members contacted.

However, Ralph LewAllen, president of the school board, explained that Mr. Hawkins had no vacations in several years and that his resignation was in reality in the form of a statement that he would retire from the Brighton school system at the end of his contract June 30 and that because of Mr. Hawkins' 14 years of efficient administration the board granted him a vacation with pay until June 30. His salary is $13,906 a year.

None was able to explain why the action required a special, unannounced meeting. But Mr. LewAllen said the board felt that because Mr. Hawkins was leaving in June it was essential that someone be appointed to become oriented for the job by that time.

Leo Kujawa, one of the three of the newest members of the school board, said the decision to relieve Mr. Hawkins of his duties now was because Mr. Hawkins had told him that he would retire from the Brighton school system June 30, and with other members of the board in agreement, they wanted to test the capabilities of Mr. Fitzgerald, during the next six months.

This time element, said Mr. Kujawa, would give the board ample opportunity to find out if Mr. Fitzgerald was able to fill Mr. Hawkins' shoes instead of waiting until the end of the school term and then trying to fill the post of superintendent.

Foreigners Laud U.S. Hospitality

BRIGHTON — A "good turn" for a motorist with tire trouble by three Department of State Highway employees has helped a little in the far-removed field of foreign relations.

The employees, all assigned to the department's facility at Brighton recently helped Mrs. Mildred A. Ritter of Midland, when she was forced to stop near the Brighton interchange of I-96 and US-23.

Mrs. Ritter wrote to the Department:

"I was on my way from Midland to Detroit when I had a flat tire. That is, I didn't know it was the tire because the air was still in and a large hunk of the rubber had broken off. It felt like I'd busted a rod, or something like that.

BRIGHTON — Three hundred and fifty years ago, a group of Pilgrims, so often pictured as Psalm-singing, over righteous men and women, met with the friendly Indians of New England, to feast on the venison and wild turkeys the Indians had brought them, and to thank God for the blessings that had kept their little colony from extinction.

This Thursday America will commemorate Thanksgiving with heaping tables of food, prayers of thanks in all of our churches and little boys with tummy aches from too much mince pie and drumsticks.

Thanksgiving also is followed by the Salvation Army's installation of red Kettles to catch the dimes and quarters of Christmas shoppers, in order to feed the poor and lonely on Christmas day.

Thanksgiving day also is the eve of the greatest shopping day of the year. More retail sales are recorded on the Friday after Thanksgiving than in any other one day of the year.

But as to our Pilgrim fathers, researchers into history find they were anything but the "stuffed-shirts" history pictures them.

Dr. E. Brooks Smith of Wayne State University says:

"Thousands and perhaps millions of American children will come to the Thanksgiving table on this 344th anniversary of the Pilgrim Feast thinking that the Pilgrim Fathers were tall, stately and stamintionous who dressed in black frock coats and wore tall hats.

"Today's children probably cannot imagine them as the beer-drinking, joke-cracking, game-playing people that they were, particularly on Thanksgiving."

Dr. Smith says that the misconceptions of the Pilgrims as dour persons have been foisted on children by authors of textbooks and in turn by some teachers who have never gone beyond the "stuffed-shirt" myth of the Pilgrim Fathers. It was concocted, he says, by some of the Pilgrims' Victorian-minded descendants in the 19th century and perpetuated by sentimental writers and painters of the time.

The emergence of the Pilgrims as fun-loving individuals comes from the first governor of Plymouth Colony, William Bradford, in his "History of Plymouth Plantation," a firsthand account of the harvest feast and celebrations held in the fall of 1621, which Dr. Smith uses as one of his sources.

In his account, Governor Bradford tells of the Pilgrims drinking beer brought over on the Mayflower and playing shooting games with Indian guests.

A major misconception is that the Pilgrims lived in log cabins, says Dr. Smith, "in fact, they built thatched-roofed clapboard houses similar to those they knew in England. It was the Scandinavian colonists who brought the log cabin design with them."

The original accounts of the first years of the colony by Governor Bradford were not rediscovered until late in the 19th century. Since then scholars have been busy destroying the sentimental myth and providing the historical case for an epic story of a courageous and dedicated people building the foundations for a new America.

Dr. Smith is now using the original accounts to convey to today's children the true heroic story of these sturdy folk who landed on the barren shores of Cape Cod nearly 350 years ago.

This Thanksgiving will be the 44th for Goodwill Industries. Since its humble beginning in a

Howell Woman Teaches Dietitians

MRS. EVELYN WARNE

Mrs. Evelyn Warnie, dietitian at McPherson Community Health Center, recently conducted an orientation meeting for the new class of dietary interns at University Hospital in Ann Arbor.

For the third year University Hospital will send each of its thirteen dietary interns to the Health Center for a two-week experience in small hospital dietary practice. The Progressive Patient Care program at Howell is also an important factor in the study of the students.

Mrs. Warnie in the meeting used colored slides to show the new interns what the Health Center is like, how the various PPC units are designed and what purposes they serve. She further outlined the objectives of the two-week experience and what steps will be taken in the teaching. The students will be expected to become conversant with PPC. They will spend at least one day in Home Care visits and will plan and conduct classes for ambulant hospital patients. They will also learn to plan and supervise cafeteria service for Self Care patients.

The girls paid for the entire dinner out of their own dues and did all the cooking as well as making the place cards and settings and all table arrangements.

Troop leader Dorothy Baginski would like to thank co-leader Mrs. JoAnn Wardynski, Mrs. Benser and Mrs. Thesier for their help in making this dinner a success, and a special thanks to Mrs. Eve Sak for her wonderful assistance.

Parents were overwhelmingly pleased and surprised by this treat given by their daughters who are in the 6th and 7th grades.

Cup cakes and cookies were served as dessert.

The event ended on a very happy note with everyone singing Happy Birthday to Mrs. Lipka who has the Beauty College and had a birthday that day while her daughter Lavina presented her with a cup cake.

Please don't forget the Thanksgiving clothing drive that is now in progress at St. Patrick's. Any clean usable clothing, winter or summer may be brought to the old garage next to the priest home for the next two weeks.

Anyone interested in helping to pack these clothes may contact Mrs. Baginski by calling 227-4652.

School of Instructions Pinckney Chapter No. 145 Order of the Eastern Stars is set for Dec. 3 at 7:30 p.m. at the Masonic Hall.

All officers will wear white or colored formals and please don't forget your stamps for operation "Bus."

Pam and Kathy Winslow will be hostesses for a pajama party for the Rainbow Girls at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Winslow at 5625 Fernland Dr., Lakeland.

Rainbow Assembly No. 67 of Pinckney will sponsor a card party Dec. 1st at 12:30 at Pinckney Masonic Temple.

This will be a dessert luncheon and table and door prizes will be awarded.

Come help fill up a table! You'll enjoy it.

Tickets are available at the door or from Sandy Elliot, Beverly Bowles or Dorothy Winslow.

We are sorry to hear that 11 year old Allan Becker is having so much trouble with his arm that he broke while climbing a tree and hope his X-rays show some improvement on his next visit to St. Josephs Hospital.

Hamburg Happenings

ELIZABETH HATALA

Girl Scout Troop No. 559 and their leaders can be very proud of the very fine dinner and entertainment they put on for the girls' families Thursday Nov. 18.

Macaroni and meat balls were served to 100 guests including Father McCann and sisters of St. Patrick's School.

Guest speaker from the Lion's Club was Mr. Phil McBride who gave a very interesting talk on the Michigan Eye Collection Center at the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor.

Special guests were Mrs. Cramer and daughter Christine who had accompanied the girls troop for a two nights stay at the Foote Hostel at Milford.

Entertainment was furnished by the entire troop with a special piano selection by Susan Kelly.

A wonderful performance was put on by the three Wardynski sisters, 8th grade Lisa, 3rd grade Gina and 1st grade Laurie who sang several solo selections as well as together.

The girls paid for the entire dinner out of their own dues and did all the cooking as well as making the place cards and settings and all table arrangements.

Troop leader Dorothy Baginski would like to thank co-leader Mrs. JoAnn Wardynski, Mrs. Benser and Mrs. Thesier for their help in making this dinner a success, and a special thanks to Mrs. Eve Sak for her wonderful assistance.

New Hope Held For Diabetics

ANN ARBOR — Hope for the hundreds of diabetics in Livingston county, is held out by a University of Michigan, Dr. Jerome Conn, the world's leading authority on a disease called primary aldosteronism.

Dr. Conn contends that more than a million Americans, thought to be victims of diabetes are in reality suffering from an adrenal gland disorder that can be cured by surgery.

Recent investigations at the U-M have shown that more than half of the victims Primary aldosteronism exhibit symptoms which look like diabetes. Sophisticated tests can distinguish the true diabetics from the aldosteronism victims.

Primary aldosteronism is a hormone imbalance caused by a small tumor in the adrenal gland. Removing the tumor cures the disorder, he reports.

Earlier this year, Dr. Conn's investigations revealed that many instances of essential hypertension (unexplained high blood pressure) also could be traced to the adrenal tumor.

However, says Dr. Conn, diagnosis of the strange, elusive disease is still limited to the tools and techniques of the medical research laboratory. "It will be out of reach of the practicing physician for some time to come."

In the 1965 Joslin Memorial Lecture, Dr. Conn reviewed 38 scientific reports on carbohydrate tolerance, glucose tolerance tests, plasma insulin levels and other topics associated with diabetes and hypertension.

He said this evidence plus the recent findings at the University Medical Center furnish grounds for his conclusions, and the estimate that one to one and a half million Americans are affected.

His studies have been supported by U.S. Army Medical Research and Development Command and U.S. Public Health Service.

Low Pay Cuts Sheriff's Staff

The Livingston county sheriff's department, caught between the county's salary plan and the increasing cost of living, has lost eight men in the past year. This loss represents a sizeable turnover, when it is considered that it is only a 13-man department.

Undersheriff Don Davis, speaking in behalf of sheriff Lawrence Gehring, put the problem before the supervisors yesterday.

According to Davis the turnover has been in the newly hired deputies who start out on the lowest rung of the salary plan. Davis said that the $4,700 starting pay is much lower than that of surrounding law-enforcement agencies, and pointed out that most of the men who have left the department did so only because they were offered sizeable wage increases elsewhere.

He said that the training of a deputy is an expensive process, and that a newly hired man is not able to work alone until he has been with the department many months. Beginning the first of the year all men hired by the department will be required by law to attend a law-enforcement school, costing the county $600 tuition, plus living costs for the deputy. He called this false economy in the light of the increasing cost of training men for the department.

The problem was turned over to the salary committee. However the chairman of the board of supervisors urged both the salary committee and the detention committee to work together to solve the problem.

Until some changes are made in the starting pay for the deputies Livingston county will probably continue to provide other areas with men whose expensive training costs have been paid by Livingston county.

Ann Arbor to Host Bankers

ANN ARBOR — More than 250 bankers many from Livingston County are expected to convene in Ann Arbor Dec. 1, 2 and 3, when the Michigan Bankers Association holds its 27th annual Bank Study Conference.

Subjects covered during the three-day conference will range all the way from "Bond Portfolio Management" to "Personnel Training."

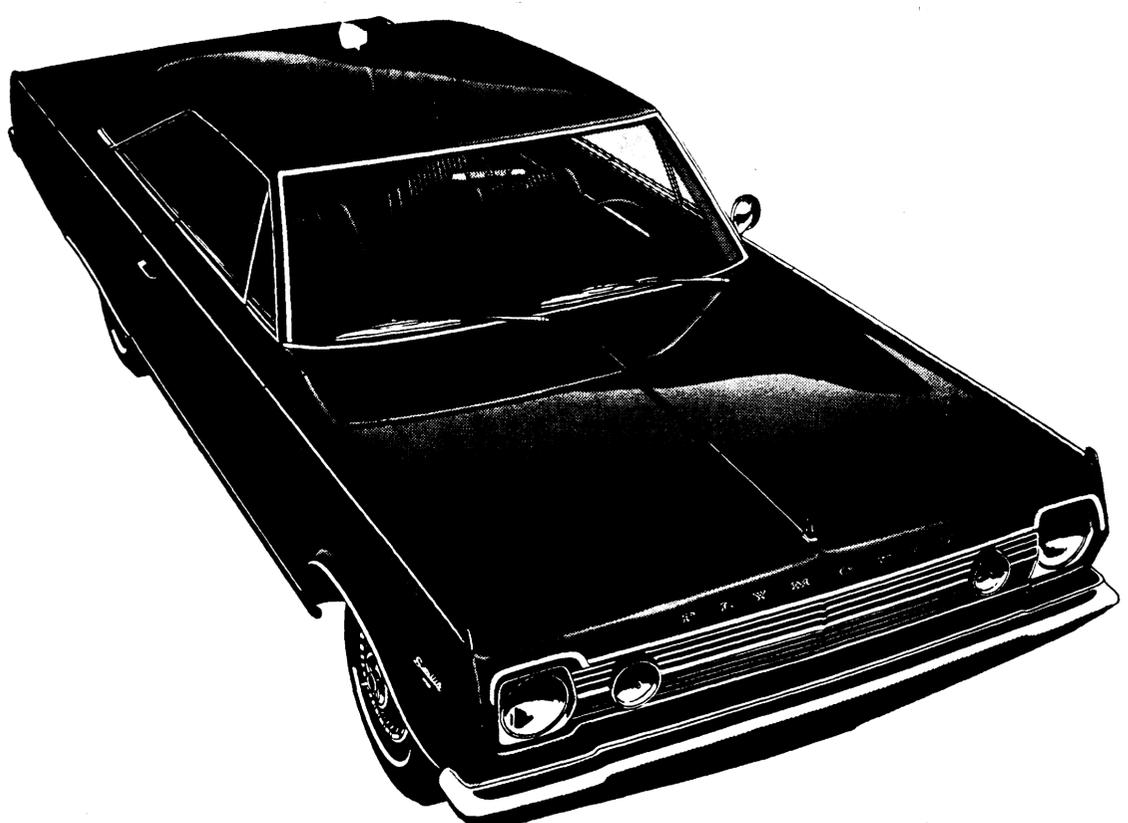

The entertainment for the Thursday evening banquet will again be the famous University of Michigan Men's Glee Club under the direction of Philip A. Ducey, Professor of Music at the University of Michigan.

All sessions are being held at the University of Michigan Union Building in Ann Arbor.

Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Madden, 22 So. 3rd St., spent two days in South Bend, Indiana, last week at an optometric convention.

The Brighton Volunteer Fire Department men announced they will be very glad to take over the feeding of the ducks this winter and seeing that the ice is chopped away so they will have a place to swim. Corn, of course, will be needed, and it will be necessary that we donate corn or money with which to purchase the corn, which will be kept in a barrel at the Fire Hall. Will you please give your donations of corn or money for corn to any of the firemen, and we will be glad to make mention of those contributing? Thanks so very much.

I am told by City Manager Peter Marshall the benches have been finished by the City Crew and will be placed at the Mill Pond. Right at present trees and bushes are being placed around the Mill Pond. Thanksgiving and Christmas are rushing right on to us — my favorite two holidays. I can hardly wait — mmm! can smell that turkey and dressing right now.

Jo Bender is smiling, smiling, smiling — and who can blame her. She won a ham for bowling the other night, for pins over average, last Wednesday night at the Bowlin' Bar. Wowie, isn't that something? Jo Bender, 5905 Florida Lake Drive, was formerly employed at The Country Cupboard on Main St., but is now employed at Michigan Seamless Tube.

Richard Sell, son of Mrs. Juanita Sell of Brighton, was married Nov. 13th at 2:00 P.M. to Bobbie Burchette. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Meeden in the Baptist Church, Howell. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Burchette of Howell. The bride, pretty as she is, was lovelier than ever in her beautiful white wedding gown. There were 10 in the wedding party, a train bearer, ring bearer flower girl, best man, two ushers, maid of honor, and two bridesmaids. A lovely reception was held, and Mr. and Mrs. Sell will make their home at Great Lakes, Illinois, where Mr. Sell is in Officers' Training School. Congratulations to the happy couple. Birthdays are the nicest things to have. Ask Eileen Lanning (Mrs. Jack H. Lanning, 1022 Washington). She had one the other day, and a group of her friends marked the day with a luncheon in her honor at the Canopy. Everyone had a scrumptious time, but you always do when you celebrate at the Canopy. Those present were Eileen, Virgeleene Housner, Carol Hills, Jo Bender, and Dorcas Walby.

Mrs. Mary Koch, "Ma Koch" as she is affectionately called by everyone who knows her, wishes to thank everyone who had anything to do with the luncheon and card party she supervised last week in the Shamrock Room at St. Patrick's Church. This means all those who worked hard, those who gave prizes, and those who attended the affair and had such a nice time. With "Ma" Koch's name added to an affair you are assured of a nice time, her name sort of puts a "magical" touch to it. The party was for the benefit of the Infant of Prague Guild of St. Patrick's.

Mrs. Koch attended the funeral of her cousin, Leigh Beach, in Chelsea last week. Mr. Beach had been Supervisor of Lima Township for 39 years.

Mrs. Koch also attended the baptismal dinner of the great grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Davis, Patterson Lake Rd., Pinckney, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Jamison, 12450 Jacoby Road, entertained the Ye Olde Bridge Club Saturday night at which all had a wonderful time. The high light of those monthly meetings is the fact Mr. and Mrs. Bill Davison, formerly of Brighton and now of Cleveland, with their sons come for the evening and Sunday. This gives the entire family a chance to see their friends. Likewise when it is the Davison's turn to entertain the Brighton members make the trip to Cleveland. A nice fun arrangement. Bill Davison has a nice new position in Cleveland on which all his friends congratulate him and wish him success.

Mrs. George Hatz, 131 Hyvie, has a friend living with her now. She is Mildred Cole formerly of South Lyons and both Mrs. Ratz and Mrs. Cole are very pleased to be together.

Mrs. Cole is very fortunate in having such a beautiful home and such a charming person as Mrs. Ratz with whom to live. Mrs. Ratz spent last week in Northville visiting her brother, Elmer Smith.

I always enjoy reading Alice Gray's column in the Livingston County Press and her suggestion to the men last week to mark on the calendar (so as not to forget) the date of their wife's birthday, their anniversary, the date they met, and you'll be the best husband in the world. I'm passing this very fine advice on to our Brighton Area men. Do this if even before so doing you'll have to ask her. She'll forget you asked her in the sublime joy of having you remember. Remember now, circle those magic dates on the calendar, you'll be forever grateful to Alice Gray of Howell and Dorcas.

Are you very, very pleased with the "new look" of the Argus-Dispatch? Believe me, I am. I think it is just super-duper if you agree with me, and I'm sure you do, call Tom and tell him so. It takes only a minute to give words of praise and you'll make the Argus-Dispatch and its staff feel it is all worth while. Thanks very much.

How I wish there was some way to warn the poor little deer. You see Leo Vasher is on a deer hunt up around Harrison where his folks have a Motel. It just isn't fair to the deer. BUT that is the way it goes. I do wish you luck though, Leo.

Do you realize how soon Christmas will be with us? Oh, I know, you are one of those who have their cards addressed, stamped, girls' bought and wrapped. Honestly, I greatly admire you, I'm one of those last minute guys. Just can't help it. No strength of character. Any way, maybe next year. How I love the holidays!

Every time I walk by Sean Lavan's beautiful store I look up and wonder about those flags at the top of his store. I promise I'll ask Sean and tell you next week.

The Argus-Dispatch and I deeply apologize for the printing of my telephone number incorrectly. The lady whose number we printed in error called me this morning and was quite justly indignant, and I certainly apologize and hope it doesn't occur again. However, thank all of you who called.

Happy Thanksgiving to each of you!

Secrecy Breeds Skulduggery

An able and dedicated man, H. Gordon Hawkins, for 14 years superintendent of the Brighton School system, has been lost to this community. But action by many of the members of the Brighton School Board, left doubt in the minds of the taxpayers as to the cause of Mr. Hawkins' summary removal in the midst of a school year and during the process of building a new high school.

Apparently to save face the members of the school board drew up what they termed a "press release" that appeared to hide the facts that in a hastily called and secret session, they had "fired" Mr. Hawkins.

The document as printed on the first page of this issue of The Argus-Dispatch contained what a trained newspaper reporter would consider to be double talk to obscure the facts. And when the various members of the school board were contacted, as well as the acting superintendent, Mr. Leo Fitzgerald, all were apparently afraid to tell what happened at the meeting. Only the school board president, Mr. Ralph LewAllen, and Mr. Leo Kujawa would reveal any of the reasons.

Members of the school board are elected by the people who are entitled to all the facts concerning any move that concerns our schools.

Their attitude of the "public be damned" is not according to our democratic principles. They can not muzzle the press and The Argus-Dispatch must live up to its slogan of being Livingston county's watchdog. Had the former New York mayor Jimmy Walker been able to muzzle the press the people of New York would still be filling Jimmy Walker's pockets.

There was nothing wrong involved but the very atmosphere of secrecy created suspicion. Secret meetings, secret deals and secret talks by those custodians of our nation who are elected by the people create — and justify — the suspicion that something underhanded is afoot.

In the case of the vacation granted Mr. Hawkins and the elevation of Mr. Fitzgerald, all was as it should have been except for the attempt by some of the members of the school board to keep from the voters the true reasons. As one board member expressed it, "Mr. Hawkins has lots of friends and our action may cause them to vote against me."

Freedom at Stake

There is every evidence that labor legislation will be a major subject of debate in the next Congress. The drive to repeal section 14(b) of the Taft-Hartley Act, which was passed over by the Senate this year, will be up again. This, if successful, would deprive the states of their existing authority to pass right-to-work laws. There is ample reason to believe that the bulk of the people, including large numbers of union members, are opposed to repeal on grounds of principle. They feel, most strongly, that there is no room in a free country for a compulsory union shop which forces a man to join or lose his job.

But all the controversy will not take place over 14(b). Sentiment is growing in favor of another change in Taft-Hartley. This would make it obligatory for secret ballot elections to be held, under National Labor Relations Board auspices, to determine whether workers concerned wish a particular union to represent them. As of now, that determination is frequently made on a count of authorization cards. This method opens the door wide to abuses and misrepresentations. It does not provide safeguards that are needed if the true sentiment of employees is to be registered. Only a secret ballot can do that.

It is difficult to see how anyone can rationally oppose the secret ballot proposal. It is certainly not antiunion. It simply guarantees the right of the worker to make his wants known in a way that prevents coercion or misrepresentation.

Time For Caution

What has happened to the federal budget?

The answer is that the course of events have taken much of the meaning out of past estimates — including the $99.7 billion budget submitted to Congress last January to provide for the current fiscal year. Actual spending is running much above that figure.

One primary reason, as financial writer Sylvia Porter points out, "... is the simple fact that Congress has been substantially increasing the costs of nonmilitary programs requested by the President — has voted outlays running hundreds of millions of dollars above what the administration asked for programs ranging from public works and poverty to housing and aid to schools."

It is true, as Miss Porter also writes, that the budget when measured as a percentage of the Gross National Product, which is the total value of all the goods and services we produce, is lower than in the past. That is to be expected in boom times. And there are those who look for no decline in economic expansion in the foreseeable future. But what if they should prove to be wrong?

It is argued, even if there is some economic letdown, the government can take care of it by pump priming. But history also illustrates the dangers that lie in that kind of optimism. We could, at the rate we are going, run head on into a deficit situation of such monumental proportions as to be disastrous. If ever there was a time for caution — fiscal caution — this is it.

A DAY OF THANKS

Thanksgiving is as old as the need to worship. Many nations set aside days to invoke Divine thanks for the bountiful blessings of the harvest.

In Japan it is the "New Tasting Festival," in Sardinia colourfully clad natives meet at the "Festival of the Saviour," while throughout Europe the plaintive voice of the violins and the rhythm of the tambourines mark the week-long Gypsy festival with dancing in the streets. In India's Punjab state natives dance the Bhangra at harvest time, while the Swiss flock to the capital city of Berne with their wares.

However, it was Colonial America, and the Plymouth Bay Colony where white and red men shared the harvest, exchanged gifts, and gave thanks to the Supreme Being—which imprinted this holiday in the minds and hearts of all Americans.

Today is a far cry from this historic event—and the munificence of worldly goods bestowed on this nation gives us cause to take time out from the inter-city football clash, to pause and reflect on the true meaning of Thanksgiving day.

Let us pause, and recall the parable of the good Samaritan. He found the time to stop, bind up the wounds of a man set-upon by thieves, and paid for the man's shelter at the inn.

We too, can be good Samaritans by continuing to share this nation's bounty with the undernourished, underprivileged people of the world.

REPORT from LANSING

State Representative

Thomas G. Sharpe

1965 LABOR LEGISLATION

With Democrats in the driver's seat for the first time in over 30 years, the 1965 Michigan Legislature approved an unheralded number of bills to broaden and increase the benefits of the worker. Major changes in compensation for injured workers and jobless pay benefits have already been discussed in previous columns. Today, in concluding my review of this year's labor legislation, I shall highlight other actions taken.

PUBLIC EMPLOYEES

Hutchinson Act of 1947
The 1947 Hutchinson Act was given a major overhaul this year. Although ejected officials and state civil service employees are not covered by this law, some 250,000 public employees at the local level are.

Local public employees, including teachers, won the right to unionize and bargain collectively with public bodies over wages, hours, and other conditions of employment — and cities, counties, school districts, and other units must now bargain and enter into agreements with employee groups.

The revised law retains the strike ban, but without the mandatory firing or loss of seniority provisions. It sets up mediation procedures and provides that the Labor Mediation Board will administer elections to determine if public employees want to organize.

Home Rule City Act
This was amended to prohibit any city from denying employment to a person because of membership in an organization comprised solely of law enforcement officers.

Municipal Firemen
The average work week for municipal firemen was reduced from 73½ hours to 63 hours commencing July 1, 1966 — with a further reduction July 1, 1967 to 56 hours.

Labor Mediation Act
The Labor Mediation Act was amended with respect to procedures in labor disputes affecting hospitals and public utilities. Restrictions were placed on picketing; machinery was established to mediate disputes; and although the ban on strikes by hospital or utility employees and lockouts by hospitals or utilities was retained, the $10,000 per day maximum fine for an illegal strike or lockout was stricken.

Wages on State Projects
Contractors and subcontractors working on projects supported in whole or part by state funds will now be required to pay prevailing wages and fringe benefits, as determined by the State Commissioner of Labor.

Workmen's Compensation
County Sheriffs, their Deputies, and the State Police — The Workmen's Compensation Act was expanded to include heart and lung diseases of county sheriffs, their deputies, and state police.

Second Injury Fund — The assessment procedure for the Second Injury Fund has been changed to require the Workmen's Compensation Department to assess employers whenever the fund balance falls below $100,000.

MISCELLANEOUS

Non-Profit Dental Clinics for union members, financed by contributions made under terms of collective bargaining agreements, have been authorized.

Discrimination in Employment because of age alone is now prohibited.

Manpower Training & Development — Local governing units are authorized to participate in federal matching fund programs for manpower development and training.

Point Of View

BY TOM KIZER

When I get through with this column it is a ten to one bet someone will brand me "communist," and the one who does will be the one who will stand on his soap box and yell the loudest in righteous wrath about preserving freedom. "Freedom," to him, will be HIS interpretation of freedom. It's like the people who scream about the supreme court decision of prayer in school. They want prayer, but whose prayer? If they are Protestant, their idea of the Lords Prayer is the Protestant version, if they are Catholic, it is the Catholic version, if they are Jewish, it must omit Christ, for their Messiah has yet to come. So, I repeat, whose prayer are they talking about when they piously insist on prayer in school? They also forget that "freedom of religion" is freedom FROM it as well as FOR it.

History records that one of the greatest men ever to sit on the U.S. Supreme Court was an Athlete, but he lived a life of service and such exemplary good, it would make most of we pious church goers look like wall flowers at a "dime a dance" hall.

But now we come to the real meat of this week's column which was inspired by Mr. Bruce Taylor's letter to the editor in response to this column's plea for peaceful co-existence with communism a couple of weeks ago. Mr. Taylor offered to enlighten "both Mr. Kizer and your other readers as to the danger in peaceful co-existence."

First, let me say I'm sure Mr. Taylor's motives are as objective and sincere as mine and with that premise we start to do friendly battle.

The first thing Mr. Taylor said was, "I was deeply disturbed to see the comments made by Mr. Kizer in his article last week."

Why was he so DISTURBED? All I said was that in the 40 odd years since going communist, Russia has become second only to the U.S. in power and prestige and as a result it looked like Communism was here to stay and therefore it looked intelligent to me to make every effort to live with it in PEACEFUL co-existence. I added that, "there is, of course, one way to stop it, KILL every communist man, woman and child. That philosophy would make Hitler look like a Sunday school teacher."

Mr. Taylor conceded the big KILL is "out of order," but he offered no alternative unless you consider this quotation from his letter as the alternative. "... with education as our strategy and the truth as our only weapon, American principles of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness can be realized by all men."

Amn! I buy every word of that as a living philosophy but we aren't LIVING it in Vietnam. Our weapons there are a lot more lethal than "strategy and truth," yet we profess to be fighting communism.

And speaking of "truth" what about the Johnson administration feeding a little more of it to the American people? What, for example, about the absence of truth in telling the American people? What, for example, about the absence of truth in telling the American people that NO PEACE OFFER had been made by Hanoi. (See Eric Sevareid's article in LOOK Magazine.)

Mr. Taylor admitted Russia to be the second most powerful nation in the world. That accomplishment requires the full cooperation and belief of the Russian people, you don't acquire power with slaves alone, else the South should have defeated the North in our own Civil war. Therefore we must face the fact that most Russian men and women love their country and believe in it and are free men within limits greater than they ever enjoyed under any other form of government THEY knew.

But Mr. Taylor doesn't attribute their strength and power and progress to that, he says it is "because of the TOLERANCE and AID of the American people."

What does he mean? By TOLERANCE does he mean lack of the big KILL? By AID does he mean honoring our belief in our new found conviction of the dignity and equality of man regardless of race, creed or color?

Finally, I have more confidence in our own country and its people than some seem to. I don't think that because Russia, China, Vietnam, Cuba or any other country goes communist that we are next. Russia went communist because a cruel, powerful, Communist minority at the ruling top exploited the poor, underprivileged millions at the bottom. Cuba went the same route for the same general reasons. South Vietnam's former governments were anything but benevolent toward their rank and file citizenry.

We slammed the door shut on communism in this country when we started our social reforms back in 1932 with Social Security, minimum wages, fair labor laws, unemployment compensation, war on poverty, health insurance etc. etc. There is nothing communism can hold out as bait to the masses in the U.S.A. because our "masses" are better off than any country they can point to. All we've got to do is make sure we keep it that way.

I repeat, in this writer's most humble opinion we MUST work and strive for PEACEFUL co-existence because communism is with us in our world society and it is here to stay, like it or not, and while I don't like it, that doesn't mean all other countries and people don't.

Freedom to decide (not by guns) freedom of elections (not by bombs) freedom from Russian or U.S. influence and policy by the United Nations, that is our only hope and prayer for continued universal existence. Down that road alone lies man's dream of peace, freedom and happiness.

Congressman Wes Vivian Reports

At this season of giving, thanks, we express our gratitude especially for two blessings — for the bountiful table set before us on Thanksgiving Day and for the opportunity to share our abundance with the hungry peoples of the world.

Thanksgiving Day is an important part of our treasured heritage and, in recent decades, has assumed new significance as our agricultural surpluses have grown. In both world wars, we were able to provide food to starving millions across the sea. Since World War II, our Food for Peace Program has distributed hundreds of billions of pounds of food and fiber to people in need in many lands. But, in spite of the magnitude of this program of sharing, it is painfully clear that our surpluses are small when measured against the yardstick of the world's needs.

It has been one of the goals of this nation to help people in other lands to help themselves to increase the productivity of their soil and to feed their own needy millions. Our efforts in this direction are many and varied. They include sending our own agricultural experts to other lands to farm small demonstration plots; building fertilizer plants; providing farm machinery; supplying parts for factories which produce agricultural equipment; engineering dams for irrigation; training agricultural experts from other nations at our own schools, such as Michigan State University and the University of Michigan; and sending long range weather forecasts, obtained via our Tiro and Nimbus satellites.

We are privileged to be able to share our bountiful harvests, our knowhow, our wherewithal, with the peoples of other lands. And, for as long as millions are hungry, we shall continue as a nation toward the goal of bringing an end to hunger in the world — and to give thanks that we are able to do so.

Since Veterans' Day occurred late last week, I am taking this occasion to review legislation, passed by the 89th Congress this year, which is of particular interest to veterans of the U.S. Armed Services.

Public Law 89-311, signed by President Johnson on October 31, increases by an average of ten per cent the compensation for veterans with service-connected disabilities and for their dependents. Maximum increases go to veterans with fifty per cent or more disability. Since the last increase, the cost of living and standard of living have risen appreciably. All of us, I am sure, feel that disabled veterans relying on pensions should be protected against increases in cost of living and should share in the increase in material benefits of our society.

The same Act authorizes the Veterans Administration to operate up to 125,000 hospital beds for veterans and to provide for 4,000 additional nursing care beds. We in the Second Congressional District are fortunate to have one of the finest veterans' hospital facilities located within our boundaries, in Ann Arbor. However, some constituents and their relatives and friends must use outmoded facilities in Dearborn. Along with other Michigan Congressmen, I am hopeful that some of the available funds will be used to upgrade or replace the Dearborn facilities. The leasing of additional custodial care beds in nursing homes in communities close to the veterans' families was, in my opinion, a very desirable step, for many a disabled veteran needs and wants the companionship of family members more than he needs total hospital care.

When viewing the U.N. and its various organizational outlets, it is necessary to make a distinction between the idealists dream presented by public relations experts and the nightmare of the reality. This is not always easy with present day situations, but events of the past will illustrate just such situations, (i.e. settlement at Munich, the propaganda and rise of Castro, etc.).

A case in point is the use of the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration (UNRRA) materials that were shipped to Poland after World War II. These supplies were used to a notable measure to force the people of Poland into supporting and bringing the communists to power in that country. Materials were given or withheld depending on which political faction a person supported. (See Ambassador Arthur Bliss Lane's excellent book "I Saw Poland Betrayed"). In the mid forties many churches supported and propagandized for UNRRA. The damage on Poland has now been done, but no one seems ready to apologize for past faulty administration.

No one is able to say how many communists are on the Executive Board of UNICEF. Past history of the U.N. has shown that many American high level participants of the U.N. policy have been communist agents; namely: Harry Dexter White, Alger Hiss, Virginius Duggan, Henry Vincent, Laurence Duggan, Henry Julian, Wadeigh, John Carter Vincent, David Weintraub, Nathan Gregory Silvermaster, Harold Glasser, Victor Perlo, Irving Kaplan, Solomon Adler, Abraham Goswami, William L. Taylor, etc. Who knows how many communists there are from other "free countries" whose security laws are even more lax than ours? No one!

True the National Council of Churches has endorsed UNICEF, but this group has also urged the recognition of Red China and the admission of Red China to the U.N. The N.C.C. has also praised the decision of the Supreme Court that bans prayer in public schools. The suggested reading list of the N.C.C. includes many books written by clearly identified communists. Numerous N. C. C. recommendations have frequently been questionable.

When UNICEF gives aid to a communist school program, as in Romania, such funds go to the totalitarian government, earmarked for the school program. By making such funds available for school food programs, other monies are thus released for heavy industry needs. Romania is a major producer of military trucks and carries on active trade with Red China. Red China actively aids N. Vietnam, which presently is fighting to send our sons and husbands home in boxes. LET'S WAKE UP!

UNICEF funds have gone to Communist Poland, Communist Yugoslavia, Communist Albania, Communist Bulgaria, Communist Czechoslovakia, Communist Hungary, Communist Romania and others. All of these countries teach "hate America" in their schools and directly or indirectly give aid to our fighting enemy in Vietnam.

The Communists say they have the best system and that they are the "wave of the future." They say they will bury us. If they are superior and have such excellent system of economics, politics, "religion," etc. then why must we continually bail out the world's most evil and despotic tyrants the world has ever known? The communist bosses should be made to answer to the people they are supposed to represent.

Does anyone think we should have sent financial and military aid to the school system of the Hitler Youth Crops during the height of World War II? Where has our common sense gone? Let's face it, this so called "Cold War" is a real "Hot War." More people have died at the hands of Communists since the end of World War II and during this "Cold War" than in all of the hot wars of this century. We are losing this struggle and will continue to lose until we look realistically at the enemy we face and act accordingly. You say you are "too busy"? Then let me ask you this: What will you be busy doing after you have lost your country?

Letter To The Editor

Various letters to the editor have recently defended UNICEF. Sometimes this is based on very worthy idealism for humanitarian ends and the listing of endorsements by numerous prominent persons and organizations.

When viewing the U.N. and its various organizational outlets, it is necessary to make a distinction between the idealists dream presented by public relations experts and the nightmare of the reality. This is not always easy with present day situations, but events of the past will illustrate just such situations, (i.e. settlement at Munich, the propaganda and rise of Castro, etc.).

A case in point is the use of the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration (UNRRA) materials that were shipped to Poland after World War II. These supplies were used to a notable measure to force the people of Poland into supporting and bringing the communists to power in that country. Materials were given or withheld depending on which political faction a person supported. (See Ambassador Arthur Bliss Lane's excellent book "I Saw Poland Betrayed"). In the mid forties many churches supported and propagandized for UNRRA. The damage on Poland has now been done, but no one seems ready to apologize for past faulty administration.

No one is able to say how many communists are on the Executive Board of UNICEF. Past history of the U.N. has shown that many American high level participants of the U.N. policy have been communist agents; namely: Harry Dexter White, Alger Hiss, Virginius Duggan, Henry Vincent, Laurence Duggan, Henry Julian, Wadeigh, John Carter Vincent, David Weintraub, Nathan Gregory Silvermaster, Harold Glasser, Victor Perlo, Irving Kaplan, Solomon Adler, Abraham Goswami, William L. Taylor, etc. Who knows how many communists there are from other "free countries" whose security laws are even more lax than ours? No one!

True the National Council of Churches has endorsed UNICEF, but this group has also urged the recognition of Red China and the admission of Red China to the U.N. The N.C.C. has also praised the decision of the Supreme Court that bans prayer in public schools. The suggested reading list of the N.C.C. includes many books written by clearly identified communists. Numerous N. C. C. recommendations have frequently been questionable.

When UNICEF gives aid to a communist school program, as in Romania, such funds go to the totalitarian government, earmarked for the school program. By making such funds available for school food programs, other monies are thus released for heavy industry needs. Romania is a major producer of military trucks and carries on active trade with Red China. Red China actively aids N. Vietnam, which presently is fighting to send our sons and husbands home in boxes. LET'S WAKE UP!

UNICEF funds have gone to Communist Poland, Communist Yugoslavia, Communist Albania, Communist Bulgaria, Communist Czechoslovakia, Communist Hungary, Communist Romania and others. All of these countries teach "hate America" in their schools and directly or indirectly give aid to our fighting enemy in Vietnam.

The Communists say they have the best system and that they are the "wave of the future." They say they will bury us. If they are superior and have such excellent system of economics, politics, "religion," etc. then why must we continually bail out the world's most evil and despotic tyrants the world has ever known? The communist bosses should be made to answer to the people they are supposed to represent.

Does anyone think we should have sent financial and military aid to the school system of the Hitler Youth Crops during the height of World War II? Where has our common sense gone? Let's face it, this so called "Cold War" is a real "Hot War." More people have died at the hands of Communists since the end of World War II and during this "Cold War" than in all of the hot wars of this century. We are losing this struggle and will continue to lose until we look realistically at the enemy we face and act accordingly. You say you are "too busy"? Then let me ask you this: What will you be busy doing after you have lost your country?

P. H. MacBride.

Scientists at Michigan State University predict that meat substitutes now being experimentally produced from plant proteins will be in commercial production by 1980. Most consumers of the substitutes will be people who must be on special diets.

GOVERNOR ROMNEY REPORTS

It's good to be back in Michigan again and to resume my weekly visits with you.

I was privileged to spend nearly three weeks in the Far East with nine other Governors at the invitation of the Japanese government and our own State Department. This trip was made at no expense to you and gave your Governor an opportunity to view firsthand the growing economy of Japan and the conflict in which we are engaged in South Vietnam.

The few days I spent in the Republic of Vietnam gave me the opportunity to visit personally with several hundred of the thousands of Michigan men who are risking their lives there in the cause of world freedom.

My major conclusion is that what we are doing is morally right and necessary.

Man's most precious gift, aside from life itself, is the right to live according to the dictates of his own conscience and make his own choices. This is also true of peoples and nations. Life without this divinely endowed right is worse than death as millions now living under tyranny and terror know.

In essence, the war in South

Vietnam results from the effort on the part of North Vietnam and its foreign allies to impose their tyranny through terror on the people of South Vietnam who as citizens of an independent nation want to freely determine their own destiny.

They do not want to be a Communist nation. They want only to be free.

Our intervention has saved South Vietnam from defeat and tyranny which, if permitted, could lead to the collapse of Southeast Asia and stimulate other false wars of liberation through terror directed by the international Communist conspiracy.

Our commitment of ground troops has also changed the nature of the conflict. It means the North cannot win and it has given courage and greater effectiveness to the South.

Now I don't know whether we are doing everything we should. I know some of our policies are wrong, such as giving foreign aid to countries whose ships are delivering supplies to North Vietnam.

But I also know it is not a simple situation to be solved by simple, conventional solutions. It is a complex military, political, psychological and total struggle as could be imagined.

Of this I am certain. If tyranny can be imposed by terror on South Vietnam, directed and controlled from abroad, it can and will be imposed throughout the world, including the United States.

War is horrible. We all yearn for peace, as most people do. But peace cannot come through the victory of tyranny imposed through terror. I am therefore convinced we must help the people of South Vietnam if they, the rest of Southeast Asia and eventually the peoples of the earth are to avoid this fate.

Because it was a practical route to the Pacific, Pres. Franklin Pierce wanted to purchase a strip of land from Mexico in the Mesilla Valley. He asked James Gadsden to negotiate the purchase and when negotiations were completed it was named the Gadsden Strip in his honor.

War is horrible. We all yearn for peace, as most people do. But peace cannot come through the victory of tyranny imposed through terror. I am therefore convinced we must help the people of South Vietnam if they, the rest of Southeast Asia and eventually the peoples of the earth are to avoid this fate.

Brighton School Board MINUTES

November 8, 1965

A regular meeting of the Brighton Area Schools Board of Education was opened by President Ralph LewAllen at 8:00 p.m. Members present were Mrs. Maltby, Mrs. Warren, Mr. Kujawa, Mr. McMacken, Mr. Warner, Mr. Leith, Mr. Hawkins and Mr. Fitzgerald were also present as was Mr. McCrie, board attorney. Guests were Mr. Vorenkamp, Miss Siford, Mrs. Gyr, Mrs. Musch, Mrs. Heidemann, Mrs. Morrison, Mr. Wolf, Mrs. Dunstan, Mr. Bosworth, Mrs. Bloomfield.

The minutes of the previous meeting of October 25th were read and approved after minor corrections.

A letter was read from Mrs. Golden requesting use of the Hawkins school for the purpose of presenting a play by the Livingston Players on December 10 and December 11. Storage space is at a minimum at the Hawkins School and this would present some problems; however, if the organization wants the building for presentation of the play only, there appears to be no real difficulty. Mrs. Golden requested also that a letter of information be sent to elementary principals and teachers, as well as notices of the play to be handed out to the students to take home. A motion was made by Mrs. Warren to grant the use of the Hawkins school for Friday, December 10 and Saturday, December 11 for the presentation of this production. Other times that the organization would like to use the school for rehearsal, etc., should be worked out with Mr. Smith, Hawkins School principal. Mr. McMacken supported the motion and it was carried unanimously. The letter in question to be sent to the elementary principals and teachers may be sent for their information and the notices of the play to be sent with children to their homes, may be cleared or stopped by the principals in their buildings.

Mrs. Bloomfield appeared before the board requesting that her children be let off the school bus at an extra stop on North US 23 so it would be more convenient to get the younger children to their grandparents home safely. The board, because of a full agenda, chose to table this request temporarily.

Mr. McCrie appeared at the table and requested that the board hear from Mr. Vorenkamp, who is the tenant in the old home on the new high school property. Mr. Vorenkamp is having difficulty finding other quarters and requests that he might remain on the premises on a month to month basis. This request was granted by the board and Mr. Vorenkamp agreed that he is trying seriously to find other quarters, hopefully within a month.

Mr. McCrie brought to the board his opinion on a letter recently received from the Brighton Education Association regarding the organization and collective bargaining prospects of that group with the Board of Education. A copy of Mr. McCrie's letter becomes a part of these minutes. Procedures of representation of appropriate groups is required in order to negotiate with the Board of Education. Miss Siford and Mrs. Musch, as representatives of the Brighton Education Association, were informed that the Association must follow proper rules and regulations in order to be recognized by this Board.

Mr. McCrie next offered the Board his opinion on Act No. 343 of the Public Acts of 1965. This act stipulates that a public school must offer to the non-public schools in that district the same services that it offers to its own students. This opinion becomes a part of these minutes.

Mr. Hawkins puts the board on notice that, no doubt, by another year through the efforts of the Brighton Education Association the teaching personnel will be requesting a number of fringe benefits and that the board should be studying the financing of these additional services.

Some discussion followed concerning threats that a student's beard has made to one of our bus drivers. Mr. McCrie was asked to draft a letter to this person spelling out the fact that if he should cause bodily harm to the bus driver, he will be prosecuted.

There was a report from Mr. Lowe of Kingscott Associates on percentages of work done on the new high school site. Work appears to be going well and nearly on schedule and the report is that if there were five weeks of good weather still to be had this fall, the school could be ready for occupancy by September 1, 1966.

Mrs. Maltby moved that the Board of Education join with the Michigan Association of School Boards effective January 1, 1966. Motion supported by Mrs. Warren and carried unanimously.

Mrs. Maltby moved that this Board of Education join with the Livingston County School Officers Association, which was supported by Mr. McMacken and carried unanimously.

Mr. Kujawa, Mrs. Maltby and Mrs. Warren submitted three names each for a proposed committee for a long range study of local school needs and proposed growth. Those names submitted were Ina Shannon, Betty McCausey, Robert McKinney, Fred Hyne, Max Musch, Merlin Glazier, Harold Leitz, Clay Will and Elsa Stegenga. The other four members of the board are expected to bring names of other prospective members at the next meeting.

Mrs. Warren inquired about having Board meeting minutes published in the local newspaper. It is determined that the minutes are printed when there is space and are not printed if there is not ample space.

Mr. Warner made a motion to pay the bills as presented by Mr. Hawkins and was supported by Mr. McMacken. Motion carried unanimously.

No further business appearing, Mr. Kujawa moved that the meeting adjourn at 12:00 midnight. Motion supported by Mr. Warner and carried unanimously.

School Board

In the school rooms it was impressed on the students that Mr. Hawkins was on vacation—a vacation until June 30, because of an accumulation of time he was entitled to.

Mr. Fitzgerald was entirely noncommittal refusing to state who made the original motion to dispose of Mr. Hawkins' services saying only that the prepared statement expressed his views. The statement explaining Mr. Fitzgerald's background as being a graduate of both the Toledo University and the University of Michigan and that he taught in Beecher and Lincoln schools. The new acting Superintendent is a member of the Methodist Church and is active in community affairs.

In awarding Mr. Hawkins his vacation, the Board of Education commended the manner in which the building program had been handled by him over the years; noting that the District, largely through his efforts, is in excellent financial condition at a time when most school systems find themselves in extreme financial difficulty.

Mr. Hawkins was honored by the System in 1960 when the new grade school on Rickett Road was named the H. Gordon Hawkins school.

The Board of Education does not expect this change will cause any delay in the completion of the new High School scheduled to be occupied in the fall of 1966, in view of the fact that Mr. Fitzgerald has been with us for some time in an administrative capacity and knows the workings of the System.

Mr. Hawkins, who has been Superintendent for the last 14 years, announced no future plans and is expected to stay in the community at the present and will assist Mr. Fitzgerald during the transition.

As Acting Superintendent, Mr. Fitzgerald will take charge of all phases of the operation of our District; comprising some fifty square miles around the Brighton area, employing some 150 persons and having an annual payroll in excess of $750,000.00.

Mr. Fitzgerald is to assume his new position immediately and Superintendent Hawkins was placed on vacation status. The motion was made by Mr. McMacken and supported by Mr. Kujawa. A roll call vote followed, each member voting aye and the decision was unanimous. A motion was put into correct terminology by Mr. McCrie.

Mr. LewAllen next asked for a motion, corrected by Mr. McCrie, that Mr. Fitzgerald be elevated to the position of acting Superintendent for the remainder of the school year. Mrs. Maltby moved this and Mr. Warner supported. Mr. LewAllen asked for a roll call vote which was as follows: Mr. Kujawa, aye; Mrs. Maltby, aye; Mrs. Warren, aye; Mr. McMacken, aye; Mr. Warner, aye; Mr. Leith, aye; and Mr. LewAllen, aye. Motion carried unanimously.

Mr. Fitzgerald was contacted at this point and asked to be present at the meeting. He arrived at this time and was appraised of the action that the board had taken thus far. Mr. Fitzgerald accepted this change in position and voiced his opinion that Mr. Hawkins has done a commendable job in steering the school district over the past 14 years.

Mr. McCrie was requested to draw up a resolution by the board thanking Mr. Hawkins for his many years of service to the district.

No further business appearing, Mr. LewAllen asked for a motion to adjourn which was made by Mr. Warner, supported by Mr. McMacken and carried unanimously at 9:00 p.m.

Upside-Down House

A gleaming kitchen, filled with the latest, timesaving appliances and convenient work-savers, is featured in the Upside Down Marsh House in Princeton, New Jersey.

Built to be the epitome of convenience for the home-maker, the Marsh House is called Upside Down because it is designed to fully utilize the normally wasted space of conventional attics.

In the kitchen, the layout allows for maximum storage space and a large amount of top-of-the-counter working area. Architect R. M. Englebrecht took a personal survey to find out which appliances were the most convenient and preferred by homemakers all over the country.

For example, featured in the kitchen is a new KitchenAid top-of-the-line, built-in dishwasher which the architect specified. The model chosen is finished in stainless steel, elegant and easy to keep clean. It also has a special sanitizing cycle called SaniCycle during

County School Boards Organize

BRIGHTON — The Livingston County Association of School Boards adopted a constitution and elected officers at the Miller Elementary School in Brighton Nov. 15.

Wilfred Erwin, an attorney of Howell, was elected president. Erwin Haire of Fowlerville, vice president, and Mrs. Betty Maltby of Brighton, secretary-treasurer.

Attending the meeting from Pinckney were Mrs. Louis Stackable, of the Pinckney School Board and Lawrence Baughn representing the Intermediate School District.

Each board represented was entitled to one vote.

Turkey Dinner

PINCKNEY—Mrs. Grace Puravs is in charge of plans for the teacher-sponsored turkey potluck dinner for all school personnel on Saturday, Dec. 11 in the high school gym. Music director Dennis Napier will put on the annual Christmas music concert at the school before vacation starts; probably on Thursday, Dec. 16.

Offers County Poverty Funds

HOWELL — Clifton W. Heller reported to the Board of Supervisors on a meeting he attended in Washington. Representatives from the second congressional district were briefed on the ways that local governments could obtain federal funds.

According to Heller there is approximately $174,000 that has been set aside for Livingston County. The money distributed by the President's anti poverty program, would be used for an anti-poverty program for Livingston County. Heller reported that the county has not asked for the money through any official channels, and he has not been able to determine who did ask for it, what steps the county would have to take to get it, or if the county actually needs or would want the money if it did get it.

Heller told the supervisors that there were numerous ways that local governments in the cities, villages, townships, and the county, could obtain federal monies. He told of out-right grants, matching funds, and low interest loans, however most of the county's officials do not know of their existence. The county planning commission was suggested as an official body to study the programs available, so that Livingston County could receive more benefit from the available federal funds.

At the conclusion of the report, Brighton Democrat, Martin Lavan, asked Heller, a prominent republican who had reported on the federal bounty in glowing terms, if he was ready to announce a change in party. Heller replied, "Well, Martin, I'm a politician too, and I'll decline to comment on that."

Monoxide Fumes Kill Two in Auto

Two Wixom children were asphyxiated by carbon monoxide fumes, while riding in a car on the expressway near Wixom.

The two, 3 year old Charlie Wise, and 5 year old Vickie Wise, were two of 11 persons traveling from Kentucky to Walled Lake.

According to the Police the driver of the car pulled over to the side of the road, when two of the older children complained of feeling ill, and it was then discovered that the two younger children were dead.

All of the passengers in the car were taken to a hospital for treatment.

Jaycettes Charter

PINCKNEY — Pinckney Jaycettes will have to wait until spring to receive their charter. Meanwhile, they are in preparation. Acting Chairman Mrs. Nancy Roth attended the District 11 presidents' meeting at Lansing last week. It was an opportunity for the women to exchange ideas.

 church basement in 1921. Goodwill's expansion has been continuous. Every year there is so much more to be thankful for! Dr. John E. Hoskins, executive director, says Goodwill's handicapped workers currently total 482, and 701 persons have been served thus far in 1965 through the Goodwill program for Rehabilitation Services.

THANKSGIVING
 This is the time of year when you look for the Red Kettles of Christmas and Santa Claus on the street corners in Livingston County.

THANKSGIVING
 Starting Friday, the Salvation Army will open its Annual Christmas Kettle Appeal for all who might be forgotten at Christmas.

THANKSGIVING
 It is traditional for the Salvation Army to begin its Christmas appeal on the day following Thanksgiving and continue through Christmas Eve. There is no surer sign that the Yuletide season is upon us than the Red Kettles' appearance on street corners. The tradition of the Salvation Army Red Kettles goes hand in hand with another tradition which began with the birth of the Christ Child - the tradition of giving.

FIGHTING WORDS

Three vetoes made public by Lt. Gov. William G. Milliken while Gov. George Romney was on his Tokyo-Viet Nam tour in October appear as a kind of power play by the chief executive.

Previous vetoes from Romney indicate he has gained political skill during his years in the governor's chair. He used the veto power consistently to kill several strictly Democratic Party measures and he was effective a couple times in just using it as a threat to get changes in measures before they reached him.

The three which provoked majority Democrats to attempt an override in December were the last of several in which he used the veto to display his disgust with the lack of fiscal reform action.

In question on these three measures were funds to help senior citizens who rent homes, disabled veterans, and seven state colleges. An estimated $10 million a year was involved in the first two bills, while the third was a one-shot reimbursement of $1.2 million promised to schools which enrolled more students than expected.

Democratic legislative leaders gave Romney the run-around most of the summer on whether they might agree to even give a full hearing to any proposed fiscal reform program, his or one they might put together.

Many veteran observers in both political camps predicted from the start that the majority chiefs were just being polite to listen to the governor's pleas at all. The leadership didn't want to get involved in such a basic issue this year, they said.

Michigan's surplus funds which will still provide a cushion in the next fiscal year will again discourage any change in the tax pattern which might cost votes at the polls next fall.

The vetoes put the spotlight on Milliken, the state GOP's rising star. Romney made it clear he was in agreement with all action to be announced during his absence.

The three vetoes were his own language, used often: Although the surplus was now $136 million, this would be gone within two years and to spend more without adding revenue would be "unconscionable."

Many said the political dangers of the first two vetoes were great. In the end, however, Romney likely will wind up looking like the great protector of public funds even to the renting senior citizens and disabled veterans who will get no change in tax status.

KNOW MEDICARE

An important message is going out to Michigan's senior citizens which apparently cannot be repeated and emphasized strongly enough.

This is the word from both federal and state authorities to keep present hospital or medical insurance plans in effect for the time being.

State Insurance Commissioner Allen Mayerson reminds persons over 65 that the federal Medicare program enacted this year to dovetail with the Social Security plan will not be effective until next July 1.

Even closer to the July effective date, personal study is encouraged of the new federal plan versus present individual or group insurance programs.

Some doctors and any insurance man whose firm sells hospital-medical policies are very willing to advise whether the Medicare plan is likely to meet an individual's potential needs.

Brochures available from many federal government agencies detail exactly what is and what is not covered under the new program. Some kind of professional advice as to individual needs is strongly advised.

In several cases senior citizens have been advised to seriously weigh the higher cost of private insurance against the relative benefits of the two plans.

WHO'S BIGGEST?

Size and scope of Michigan's government agencies frequently are a big surprise to the average citizen.

Perhaps one of the best examples is Michigan's largest department in terms of employment. The State Mental Health Department last year employed about 11,000 people.

Operating with one director and six assistants for various divisions, the department is concerned with services for the mentally retarded, mentally ill, community facilities, planning and research, and, of course, its own internal administration.

The picture of this department is still not quite in focus until you see the numbers and kinds of services provided in the state by its units.

As of a fall rundown, the department's jurisdiction covered 83 separate agencies. Child guidance clinics numbering 21 was the largest group.

State hospitals, 17 in all, were next. These provide services for the mentally ill, criminal insane, mentally retarded and epileptic.

The full range of mental and psychiatric problems are attempted to be served in the various other branch clinics, adult clinics, all-purpose clinics, aftercare consultation centers, and day care centers for the retarded or emotionally disturbed.

The Commission on Missions

Masons Hear Denver Cleric

Livingston county Masons attending the 32nd Degree Scottish Rite banquet, Nov. 13, in Detroit heard the Rev. Dr. Frank A. Court of Denver speak on America's dream for the future. More than 2,000 attended the banquet.

The occasion was the 258th reunion in which some 300 southeastern Michigan Blue Lodge Masons received the 32nd Degree in Scottish Rite of Freemasonry.

A 33rd Degree Mason, Dr. Court, who recently returned after visiting tension spots in 28 countries, said the "word we need to stress today is involvement. How often we read of people who see someone in need but who do not want to become involved."

The Scottish Rite Valley of Detroit has a membership of more than 10,000 32nd Degree Masons.

Around Bishop Lake

As of this writing, the first crop of hunters that started the Upper Peninsula haven't returned to report on their luck. The second contingent left Thursday, Friday and Saturday —quite an impressive group! Ralph Schroeder, Sr., Paul Keranen, Lewis Barnes, Cecil Lindburg, Fred Aurora, Jake Adams, Wally Buerge, Art Glowacki — to name a few. If each man brings home a deer, this little section of Livingston County won't starve to death this winter anyway.

Saturday was pretty lucky for three men who felt that the Brighton Recreation Area was as far out as they cared to go when it came to wildernesses. Three bucks were shot the first day — a ten, a four and a thirteen pointer. Actually the hunting was fairly light — it won't really pick up until the men come back from their northern treks empty handed and make one more frantic effort near home.

The home front isn't exactly dead either. A couple of our ladies are getting things ready for the Christmas Bazaar-Bake Sale-Smorgasbord affair that will be held at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Hamburg on the 4th of December. The annual affair is becoming quite popular in the area — if you haven't taken it in during previous years, don't miss it.

Ralph Schroeder Jr. reports that the weather, the golfing, the surfing, and just plain "living" is terrific at Palm Beach Gardens, Fla. The P.G.A. National Golf Course is out of this world!

We wish everyone a very happy Thanksgiving. Why not share your day with us by giving a glowing report of your activities.

Thanksgiving Day, a happier, more meaningful day...

It's a story we all know and love—the first Pilgrim Thanksgiving. The excitement in their little homes must have been pretty much as it is today—the tantalizing smells of roast turkey and pumpkin pie—the bustle and rush of eager children—it must have been a wonderful day!

But before the Pilgrims sat down to their feast they observed the true meaning of Thanksgiving. They all gathered together in their meetinghouse to give thanks for the good they had received, for survival through a long year of hardship, and to pray for the strength and courage to keep their faith in this strange, new land.

This Thanksgiving, why not take your family to your house of worship. A quiet hour of prayer and thanks will make your holiday so much more meaningful.

Wherever you are... whatever your beliefs may be... take time to offer your words of thanks... just as the Pilgrims did more than 300 years ago.

ATTENTION: Weight Watchers

Are you discouraged? Have you tried all the latest diets with no results? Have you tried the latest special foods with no results? Take heart. Follow this simple rule. Cut down the quantity of food you eat, not the quality. Eat well-balanced nutritious meals. But eat moderately. And be sure your meals include fresh milk for vitality. Only milk gives you 86 nutrients... more nutritional value per calorie than any other food.

MIER, JOHN G. McMILLAN, JACK H. SHINN, THOMAS A. BARTON, MURRAY KENNEDY, and CHARLES A. POWERS, Plaintiffs - Appellees versus

No. 1034 EDWARD R. RETTINGER, PAULINE RETTINGER, HERBERT MUNZEL, RUTH MUNZEL, WALTER GREGG, GRETA GREGG, LEO BURKE, SARAH BURKE, MAURICE DASCHKE, ESTHER DASCHKE, LEONARD LARK, VERNON PUSMAN, GERALD SIXBEY and DEMOCRATIC STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE, Defendants - Appellants

BEFORE: Quinn, presiding judge; McGregor and Watts, Justices.

JUDGE QUINN wrote the opinion which follows:

"Pursuant to leave granted, plaintiffs filed complaint in quo warranto in Livingston county circuit court against defendants to test individual defendants' rights to hold office as officers or members of the Livingston County Democratic Committee or the county executive committee. By amended complaint, plaintiffs requested similar relief and in the alternative a judgment declaring the September, 1964 Democratic county conventions invalid and ordering a new convention. Defendants answered and trial was had. Plaintiffs had judgment for the alternate relief.

"A Democratic county convention was called in Livingston county for September 12, 1964. It is conceded that this convention was invalid because temporary chairman Rettinger refused to follow the statute and read the county clerk's list of certified delegates. Defendant Rettinger called a second convention for September 15, 1964, but failed to notify all delegates thereof. The invalidity of this convention is conceded. In addition, at the first convention, the temporary chairman refused the vote to 80 of 119 delegates certified by the clerk. No other Democratic county convention has been called, and the individual defendants, except Sixbey, continue as hold-over officers or members of the county committee or county executive committee. At the primary election held September 1, 1964, plaintiff Lavan was nominated Democratic candidate for state representative, and plaintiffs McMILLAN, Mier, Shinn and Rettinger were nominated as Democratic candidates for county clerk, treasurer, register of deeds and drain commissioner, respectively. Their nomination made them members of the Democratic county executive committee. 2

"There are only two judicial issues in this case, namely: did the trial court have authority to order a new convention, and did the trial court properly refuse to go behind the election certificates of precinct delegates to determine the propriety of their election. The trial court found no specific authority for ordering a new convention; none has been cited, and this Court has found none. However, the language of the controlling statute is mandatory.

"The county conventions of each political party shall be held at such time and place as the county chairman of each political party, through its chairman, shall designate: . . . 3

"This language imposes a duty to call and create a right in party members to have a convention. In such situations, courts have authority to enforce the duty and protect the right. 20 ALR 1041; Baker v. Board of Election Commissioners (1896), 110 Mich. 635; Soutar v. St. Clair County Election Commission (1952), 334 Mich. 258; Wojcinski v. State Board of Canvassers (1957), 347 Mich. 573. The trial court properly ordered a new convention.

"The trial court ruled that neither it nor the county convention could go behind the election certificates of precinct delegates to determine the propriety of their election, except for fraud shown to have occurred between the counting of the votes and certification. The record contains no showing of such fraud. It is this Court's opinion that the ruling was correct. The statute spells out the manner of questioning the propriety of the election of delegates 4 and specifies the method of reviewing any determination made as to the propriety of election of delegates. 5 These statutory methods were used in this instance. Absent fraud, these methods are conclusive.

"Defendants raise two further questions, neither of which requires decision. The question of applying the 'one man - one vote' principle to the election of delegates was not raised below; it cannot be raised here for the first time. Citation of authority is not required to support this elemental rule of appellate practice.

"The last error alleged is that the trial court erred in finding that 'the riot - or close to it - was the result of action of the Democratic county chairman.' No such finding appears in the judgment, and it is immaterial to decision in any event.

"The trial court is affirmed with costs to plaintiffs. An order may enter in this Court directing the call of a new Democratic county convention in Livingston county forthwith and in conformity with all pertinent statutes and that the delegates and delegates at large to such convention shall be those certified by the county clerk of Livingston county in his official certificate dated September 4, 1964."

Q. My broker keeps referring to something he calls "the Dow-Jones average" whenever I ask him whether stocks are up or down. Just who is Dow-Jones and how valid are his figures as a market index?

A. In the first place, Dow-Jones isn't a man; it's a company - the same company that publishes the Wall Street Journal and operates the financial news tickers you see in most brokers' offices.

The Dow-Jones averages (actually, there are four: one for industrial stocks, one for utilities, one for railroads and a composite figure combining all three fields) aim to give an indication of the ups and downs the stock market, both on a daily basis and over a period of time.

There are a number of such statistical indicators, compiled by other financial services; but the Dow-Jones averages are the best known, probably because they are the oldest.

The first Dow-Jones average was set up in 1897. It was organized with 12 well known stocks of that day. Prices of the 12 were added and then the total was divided by 12. This could then be compared to the previous averages to give a thumbnail indication of what the market had done. In 1916 the number of stocks was raised to 20, the total was divided by 20 and there were still no complications.

Today, however, 65 stocks are included in the Dow-Jones averages. They have been divided into 30 industrial common stocks, 20 railroad common stocks and 15 public utility common stocks. These groups are averaged separately to give us the Dow-Jones industrial, rail and utility averages.

In the process, the old-time simplicity has disappeared. Because of numerous stock splits it would no longer give an accurate picture if we added the prices of all 65 stocks and divided by 65. One of the stocks, previously selling for 200, might have been split four for one, at which time the new share would have an indicated value of 50 - instead of the figure of 200 previously used. This would subtract 150 points from the total value of the entire group. And a reported 150-point drop in the Dow-Jones industrial average might well bring on a panic in the street.

To make up for this, a divisor was established in 1928. Now, each time there is a stock split, the divisor is changed accordingly. As a result, the averages give a fair indication of what's going on in the markets.

Incidentally, because of the stock splits and other factors, a one-point change in the Dow-Jones averages no longer denotes a change of one dollar per share in stock prices - as it does in other stock-market figures. For instance, on a recent day the Dow-Jones industrials stood at 937.88 at the end of a day's trading - 4.39 points higher than the day's opener of 933.49. This denoted an average rise of about $1 a share for the stocks involved - not $4.39 a share, as you might assume.

The 30 industrial stocks used in compiling the Dow-Jones averages are, by and large, those of high-quality, blue-chip companies. The price movements of this particular group don't always coincide with those of the market as a whole. Again, it's just an indicator of what's going on in one important segment of the market.

Q. I asked my broker to buy me 20 shares of a stock listed on the New York Stock Exchange. Now I find he charged me an "odd lot differential" in addition to the usual commission. Do I have to pay it?

A. Yes. In the interests of economy and speed, stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange and most other exchanges normally are traded in packages, or lots, of 100 shares. These are called "round lots."

Not every buyer, of course, wants or can afford to buy 100 shares at one time - particularly of the higher-priced stocks. So he buys a broken package - or an "odd lot," as it is known in Wall Street. Any purchase of less than 100 shares is an "odd lot."

The odd-lot differential is, in effect, simply the extra commission you should expect to pay for the service involved in breaking up a round lot to give you the shares you want. For stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange this comes to 25 cents per share where the selling price is $40 or more a share; 12 1/2 cents per share on stocks selling for less.

There are some special stock exchange rules that apply to odd lot purchases. Since an odd lot purchase can't be made on the floor of the exchange, a broker with a buy order must approach an odd lot broker who deals solely in this market. An odd lot broker buys round lots and then breaks them up for sale to other brokers. To this extent he might be called a stock wholesaler. Odd lot brokers, unlike others, are expected to maintain an inventory of stocks.

The market price of odd lots is set by the next round-lot sale that is completed on the floor of the stock exchange. Thus, if you tell your broker to buy you, say, four shares of General Motors "at the market" and the next floor sale is 103 1/2, this is the price you pay - plus, of course, the 1/4 point extra service fee for the odd lot broker and the regular brokerage commission.

Technician For 'Space'

BOULDER, COLO. - Andrew W. Robertson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Robertson, 635 Brighton Lake Road, Brighton, Mich., has been appointed research technician to the Laboratory for Atmospheric and Space Physics (LASP) located on the campus of the University of Colorado.

ANDREW W. ROBERTSON

According to Dr. Charles Barth, LASP technical director, Robertson will work in the vital area of electronic circuitry development.

While many of LASP's experiments are performed here in our Boulder Laboratories," Dr. Barth said, "most all are designed to be performed above 80 percent of the earth's atmosphere aboard satellites or rockets. The circuitry Robertson will assist in developing is basic to the operation of the experiments in space and to the telemetry of the information gained to the ground stations."

LASP, which was formed as the Upper Air Laboratory by the University of Colorado Department of Physics in 1948, is a laboratory for studying the earth's upper atmosphere and for investigating the physics of space, with the aid of rockets and satellites.

Most of the laboratory's research has been done on ultraviolet radiation from the sun with Aerobee rockets fired from White Sands, New Mexico, but more extensive participation in satellite programs is now under way.

Two experiments are being prepared for future Orbiting Solar Observatory satellites. Instrumentation is scheduled for delivery in March, 1966, and will be aboard satellites to be launched later in the year from Cape Kennedy.

One of LASP's most important contributions to science has been the discovery of the Lyman alpha line in the far ultraviolet region of the solar system. This is the most intense radiation from the hydrogen atom in the sun's atmosphere and since the phenomenon's discovery it has undergone extensive study by many groups.

Another of LASP's important accomplishments was the discovery of ultraviolet radiation from the corona of the sun. This includes radiation from ionized helium. LASP also had discovered special kinds of atomic conditions in the atmosphere. All of the discoveries came from Aerobee rocket flights from White Sands.

LASP also has pioneered developments in ultraviolet optics and instrumentation, including the design of the first electronic pointing control for directing rocket instruments at the sun. Earlier achievements include important theoretical work on the origin of the Aurora Borealis.

Robertson, his wife, and his daughter make their home at 2635 Mapleton, Boulder.

PHYLIS SHELTERS

Hi folks! I guess that I survived through last week's column alright, now lets see what Boo-Boos I can make this week.

I have just passed the boiling point and hit the exploding point. These drivers on the side roads sure make me mad! Many a morning I've wanted at the bus stop with the small children and watched these drivers come speeding down the road. I realize that children SHOULD stay out of the road, but no matter how many times you tell them they still manage to play in the streets. What if one of these children ran out in front of one of these speeding cars? Would you want it on your conscience? I wouldn't!

WATCH OUT FOR THESE LITTLE GUYS. No one is in that big of a hurry he can afford to be careless with children's lives.

Boy do I feel silly! My own son Johnny asked me why I didn't put in the column last week about his birthday party.

Poor mom she never seems to do anything right anymore. Sorry John.

Master John Shelters had a birthday party at his home last week on Nov. 13th. He had as his guests: Kaj Gyr, Ray Bender, Ricky Geers, Judy Shelters and Kenny and Kaitn McClam. OK John?

Happy anniversary to "Doc" and Mrs. Leon Kubacz, they observed their day on Nov. 21st.

I only know of one birthday this week. A birthday wish goes out to Ed. Baprawski Sr. who had his day on Nov. 18th.

The children of the lakes are going to miss their faithful old school bus driver Ken Burrison. Ken said it was just too much for him when they finally got him a new bus. No, Ken really left to go to work over to the boys vocational school. Ken was a very good bus driver and very respected by the children and parents alike. Good Luck Ken on your new job!

The windy, gossip bridge club of Fonda Lake had their bridge club at Mrs. Jane Morgans Nov. 16th. In attendance were: Mrs. Lillian Fox, Mrs. Ida Shosey, Mrs. Jo Bender and Mrs. Jane Morgan.

I wonder who the music teacher on Kinyon Drive was that was embarrassed when some of her little pupils came to visit her on Sat. afternoon. Teachers have to have a day to relax too! Huh Sharon?

There sure has been alot of home improvements going on around the lakes. We went for a ride Sunday afternoon and were amazed at all the nice things people are doing to their homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Parlove should really be proud of their new home on Island Lake its a Beaut!

Mr. "Denny" Raquapaw is in the process of making a duplex out of one of his homes on Kinyon.

Recently Gene Raquapaw was home on leave from diving school. Gene is now stationed in Washington D.C. until March, then he will go to Hawaii.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Root spent Sunday Nov. 14th in Saginaw at their son and daughter-in-laws, Mr. and Mrs. E. Dale Root Jr. The big occasion was their granddaughters birthday dinner. Gail was 12 and Betsy Sue was 3 years old.

Mrs. Eula Davis and Miss Vi Stock spent last week-end in Detroit as guests of Mrs. Michell. Mrs. Davis was also telling me Dick Davis, who is in the Air Force, recently spent a week in Hawaii. Some people have all the luck!

I saw Jo Bender downtown Sat. afternoon, she said she had to leave the house Chuck is remodeling again. Jo, I really thought you knew better- You never go away and leave your husband home alone. Not when he's remodeling. I went and left Bud home once to run to the store and when I got back I had a planter in the living room instead of the brick seats around the fireplace. Right Bud?

Mrs. Edna Shields had her son, and grandson, Robert and Robert, Jr. from Benton Harbor visiting her Sunday. Also a friend from Detroit, Mr. Ross Fiddell was visiting Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wollenhaup and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Markell took a ride Sunday up to the other side of Clair to the Markell cabin.

Mrs. and Mrs. Robert Hubbel, formerly of Fonda Lake, had her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wollenhaup over Monday evening for dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Fox recently returned from visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. "Bill" McConnell of Michigan City, Ind.

Bill and Gloria came in today to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Fox and Bill's mother, Mrs. Chas. McConnell of Detroit.

I would like to send a very speedy recovery out to Mrs. Beryl Sr. Mrs. Fisher went into St. Joseph Mercy hospital in Ann Arbor on Aug. 24th for two weeks. She ended up staying for almost three months returning Nov. 12th. She also underwent two operations while she was there, and has to go back for checkups at the University hospital.

Jean Harvey was in Sault Ste Marie last week attending showers for her roommate who will be married in December.

Bill Harvey had as his guests Bills sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Beasley from Lansing. Also visiting from Lansing was his nephew Jim Harvey.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cryser helped entertain Dick's grandparents and his aunt and uncle while they were here from the West.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Cryser had a big family dinner while all their company was here. Attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cryser and family, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Cryser and family, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Leith Jr. and family, along with the guests of honor Mr. Cryser's mother and father, sister and brother-in-law and her uncle.

Miss Linda White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garald White, was the guest of honor at a bridal shower given in her honor, by the girls Linda works with at the Artistic Beauty Salon in Ann Arbor. Linda will become the bride of George Taylor of Brighton, now serving in the U.S. Air Force in California.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bufford were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Borders of Detroit, on Sat. Nov. 13th. After dinner they spent the evening watching movies of their trips down the Huron river in canoes, that they took last summer.

Where you at the P.T.A. meeting last Tuesday Nov. 18th? There were almost more teachers there than parents. These teachers are giving up their free time to attend these meetings, it seems like more parents could find one evening a month to attend. Believe me its well worth your while! Just remember they are your children and you should show an interest in their school. Lets see you at the next P.T.A.!!

Well, I guess that I've finally run out. Before I sign off I want to extend to you and yours a very HAPPY THANKSGIVING. See you next week.

Comet Outwits Skygazers Here

BRIGHTON — Livingston county's amateur astronomers were disappointed when the much touted comet Ikeya Seki failed to become visible Oct. 20 and 21 when it was supposed to be most visible.

Comet "Ikeya-Seki" named after the two Japanese amateur astronomers who first sighted it, defied the efforts of all but a handful of professionals to view it on its way to the sun at that time.

The story was different, however, as Ikeya-Seki emerged from the hairpin turn in its path around the sun travelling at about a million miles per hour. Light from the great comet was clearly visible in many places across the U.S., and photographs show it to have survived its close scrape with the sun. At its closest, it was within 300,000 miles of the sun's surface. Ikeya-Seki is one of the "sun-grazing group" of comets, each of which whips around the sun only once in every thousand years or so.

Disabled Vets' Benefits Upped

BRIGHTON—Beginning Dec. 1, Livingston county veterans with service connected disabilities will receive higher compensation payments under the bill recently signed by President Johnson.

Throughout Michigan more than 80,000 veterans will benefit.

Individual increases will range from $1 a month for those veterans adjudged 10 per cent disabled to $50 a month for those classified as totally disabled. It is the second increase in compensation in three years and is expected to total $176 million annually. Substantial increases are provided under the new law for more seriously disabled veterans (for example, those suffering from multiple amputation, etc.) whose monthly compensation payment may now total more than $800.

Other changes affecting dependents that are brought about by the bill increase from 21 to 23 years the age limit of a child attending school on whose behalf a dependency allowance may be paid. The additional allowance payable to the veteran-parent for these school children has been increased to a monthly maximum of $40.

Question of the Week

What is your opinion of teenage smoking?

I dislike teenage smoking! Especially in girls it gives them an unfeminine look, and usually bad breath. J.W.

I guess it's mostly up to you whether you do or don't. Me? I really don't have an opinion. J.R.

I think it depends on the person. If they handle and conduct themselves as adults while smoking and don't smoke just to show off I think it's all right. E.H.

When a teen starts smoking it is usually because of social pressure, not because they enjoy it so much, but you can't stop them. S.S.

I think it's up to the teenager himself. Although it's bad for you there are worse things teens could be doing. C.H.

If a teenager wants to smoke he will. I don't see evil in it but it runs your health in the long run. Brian Pawlak.

It's all right if you like to, but me? I hate it. P.C.

Teacher Profile: Mrs. Moscow

By Grace Martin and George McCreedy

Brighton High has a new Art teacher. She is Mrs. Eleanor Moscow.

Mrs. Moscow resides in Ann Arbor with her husband who is a doctor.

She attended high school in Philadelphia, Penn., where she was very active in student affairs. Among other things, she belonged to the high school bowling team, the student council, and was Art editor of the yearbook.

She attended the University of Michigan where she received a Bachelor of Science degree in Design. Before becoming a teacher, she also worked at the U of M.

Mrs. Moscow has traveled extensively. She has visited Europe, the exotic Middle East, the sunny Caribbean Islands, and across this great continent.

When asked what influenced her decision to choose teaching as a career, Mrs. Moscow remarked, "I have an interest in working with young people." She teaches both junior and senior high school at BHS.

The Art Club is lucky in having Mrs. Moscow as a sponsor.

Future Teachers Guests of MSU

By Mary Schoen

Fifteen F.T.A. members spent Saturday, Nov. 13, as guests of Michigan State University.

After a greeting by Miss Jeanne Hoffman, President of the Student Education Association, Mr. Russell Wentworth, Associate Director of Admission talked on the subject, "You're Almost M. S. U. Students." In this talk he stressed the importance of good grades to assure getting into college.

Dr. Keith Anderson, from the College of Education, spoke on the "Teacher Preparation Program at M. S. U.," which was followed by various interest meetings.

These meetings were divided into two groups for Elementary Education, one for Special Education, and nine groups for Secondary Education, such as Business Education and Mathematics Education.

After lunch at the Student Union, the club was treated to a football game with State beating Indiana 27 to 13.

F. T. A. members attending were Jane Demorest, Connie Duffy, Grace Martin, Alyson Arnold, Ann Armstrong, Diane De John, Phyllis Dunn, Tina Lorenger, Pat Seger, Pat Duffy, John Lasky, and Mary Schoen. The club was accompanied by Mrs. Herbst, F. T. A. Advisor, Claudia Martin, and Mrs. Lorenger.

Phenomenon

BY TOM GROSTICK

The hard, rugged terrain stretched endlessly to the north and to the south, bordered on the east and west by towering concrete walls. In symmetric rows, perched on top of these walls, were multiple moon like objects which afforded excellent light.

As the captain viewed these aspects, he thought to himself that a better battlefield could not be found anywhere.

After what seemed an eternity, the scouts returned with some strange news. Upon measuring the distance between the two deep caverns they found they ran parallel down the center of the valley. This, in itself, did not seem too startling to the fearless leader; but when he heard that solid steel columns were extended down into these caverns, he was astonished!

What purpose could a structure of this nature possibly serve?

After some lengthy deliberation, the captain decided that one of these would be a perfect defense for his troops. It would take a powerful weapon to dislodge his army from a natural fortress such as this. With these thoughts in mind the captain proceeded very optimistically.

On arriving at the first entrenchment, the order was given to set up an O.P. While this was being done, the heavy artillery was set up at the top of the chamber. The men were quickly deployed to the steel insert.

All of this was carried out quite easily, thanks to the bright light still offered by the planet's many moons.

Suddenly, the observation post reported activity in the adjacent cavern!

It seemed that the enemy had enacted a plan similar to that of the captain.

Before the order could be given to start the assault, both armies suddenly became frozen with fear. A thundering metal monster came lumbering down on them, accompanied by the rhythmic clanging of a bell. This monster rolled past, completely destroying all the combatants.

As dawn broke, milkmen began their routes, papers were delivered, and commuters commuted.

Jim Dotson ran across North Clinton Street, trying to beat the light. As he did so, he slipped on the trolley tracks that ran down the middle of the intersection. Because his display of co-ordination greatly embarrassed him Jim proceeded to the bus stop on the corner without looking to see what had made him stumble.

We know that Jim has no need to feel awkward about this. Co-ordination has nothing to do with Jim's fall.

A strange, but somehow common, crimson sap covered the tracks causing Jim his moment of discomfort.

New Game for Girls

The 7th grade girls Physical Education class just completed a Speed-A-Way Tournament.

This is a relatively new game for girls. It involves skills used in basketball, soccer, speedball and touch football, and is a fast and exciting game.

Toni Pennell was the captain of the winning team — others on her squad were Kathy Kotles, Janice Harbron, Sharon Adams, Margaret Gladys, Bonnie Griffith, Cherie Hagedorn, and Janet Potter.

The girls have also been working on the Royal Canadian Air Force Physical Fitness Tests. Those achieving the highest levels on these tests were Sharon Adams, Debbie Bauer, Shannon Langdi and Nancy Smith. The others are trying to match their achievements.

Civilization Tied to School

BY SHARON VOORHIS

The school is the future of education and civilization. In a broad sense it is any place where instruction is given. This type of institution can be vocational, technical, artistic, or scientific.

A school only applies to the institution below college level. In colonial times, the public school was a highly important institution. A school then, was also closely associated with the church and largely supported by subscriptions, bequests, and tuition fees.

The public schools of today are controlled by the local board, state, and some units between the state, and local communities. It is the board's duty to select the teachers to determine in part the curriculum, to plan finances, and otherwise to regulate the school through the medium of the local superintendent.

International Dinner is Given

BY MARY SCHOEN MRS. HANSELMAN

An international air hung over Miller Elementary, Wednesday, Nov. 17 at 8:15, as the F. H. A. presented their 8th annual International Dinner.

After punch and appetizers, girls and their guests took the food tour through nine nations of the world. The countries represented were Russia, Spain, Argentina, Scotland, Greece, China, Germany, Egypt, and Hawaii.

The speaker this year was Mrs. Margie Keahiple Kapu Kamohoalii Kananiakrahome Hanselman, a native of Hawaii. She gave a background of her native land and then gave a demonstration of the Hawaiian Hula and a Tahitian Dance. The Tahitian Dance was "just for fun," and she wore the traditional grass skirt.

Each F. H. A. girl dressed in the native costume of the country she represented and brought a dish also according to her country. The girls also made decorations for their countries. F. H. A. sponsors, Mrs. Arnold and Mrs. Fredricks, planned and directed the dinner.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

We dare not forget that when our forefathers celebrated the first Thanksgiving Day they weren't at all sure that their meager harvest would be adequate to sustain the little community through a long hard winter. About all they could give God was thanks!

Gratitude for our blessings in time of abundance discovers a new dimension. We can become partners with the Almighty in His mighty aims.

For the very reason in which Christians give thanks to their Lord is the season in which they plan their stewardship—their support of the Church's continuing work.

If you are a church member, demonstrate your thanksgiving in earnest commitment to your congregation's spiritual opportunity. If you are not a church member, express your thanksgiving by discovering your own spiritual opportunity.

Spiritual dedication is about the only life resource of which we do not have more than we absolutely need!

Albion College In Spotlight

BY ERIC HURST

Albion College is located in Albion, Mich., near Jackson on an 80 acre campus. Albion was begun in 1835 by the Methodist Church as a literary school. Due to the Panic of 1835, the school didn't actually commence classes until 1843 with 117 students. Now the school teaches 1500, has a faculty of 125 and 18 buildings. There are 40 acres of athletic facilities and a 315 acre biological preserve. Right now, Albion is engaged in a 10 year building program which will expand the campus greatly.

There are numerous activities ranging from athletics to professional and journalist clubs.

Students are accepted at Albion after completing high school with at least 15 credits. A student may apply at any time after the beginning of his senior year a $10 application fee is required. After a student is accepted, a $100 room fee is taken.

Personal visits to the campus are not mandatory but, are advisable. A prospective student may visit almost any time. Scholarships are numerous and may be applied for.

Dealing greatly with liberal arts, this school has much to offer in language and sciences.

The main rooming fee required is $1,060. Additional fees are taken for applications, classroom fees etc. All payments are made on registration, and a fee will be charged for late payment.

HAWAII CALLED

BY PAM CARUSI

"Welcome Mrs. Margie Keapikapu Kamohoalii Kananakahome Hanselman." With this, the special speaker for the International Dinner was introduced.

Mrs. Hanselman was born in Honolulu, Oahu at Queen Lili Okahoni hospital. Her hobbies are surfing, swimming, bowling, and dancing.

The hula didn't interest her until she worked at Queen's Surf as a Luau Hostess. Her job was to greet tourists with flowers which were put in the ladies hair and men's lapels.

The hula is easy to come by, but it took her six months to master the art of Tahitian. The hula is very graceful and tells a story with the hands and fingertips. Tahitian has more body movements and less movements with the hands. It's more fun.

Her instructor was a professional male dancer who taught her the modern dances of the hula and the basics of Tahitian. He brought her to dance at a well-known hotel in Hawaii. Her favorite hotel was called "King Kamehameha" located on the big island called Hilo, Hawaii.

In 1961 she married Raymond Hanselman who was born and raised in Ann Arbor. They have one child, George, who is four years old. Hawaiian for George is Keoki. The family resides at Whitmore Lake. "I'm so used to living close to water that I'd be lost without it!" she stated.

HOW TO SKIP IN ONE LESSON

S-K-I-P-P-I-N-G is defined in the dictionary as taking light bounding steps, but when around school, if you skip, you go bounding out the door.

Some kids think that they have captured the "art of skipping." One method is to stay home all week after you skip and then bring in a note that reads: "Please excuse (name) absence she was sick." Then you get the ones who bring in an appointment card from the dentist or doctor to be excused for maybe an hour, but then it seems to take all day for you to get over it. Most of the teachers are onto this trick; they aren't as dumb as we make them out to be.

Or you could start at home by buttering up your mother and doing things around the house. Then when the school calls, you have at least started to get on the good side of your parents.

Then you could pretend to spread a virus around the school. And the sure way to recover is to go to a party. All the kids are really doing is having a little fun on school time, but it always seems to be more fun that way. So here kids and teachers is some advice, and I'm going to remain anonymous to save my life.

Brighton High Lacks Juniors

By Linda Fritsch

Do you realize that there are no Juniors in the Junior class at Brighton High?

They are all either Frats or Grease! This was disclosed last Friday during their class meeting. This so called meeting looked more like a brawl to me! People, excuse me, Frat and Grease were shouting, pointing, and booing at each other.

The main complaint was that only the good ole' Frats were holding most of the places on the class committees.

After this was talked, excuse me, argued over for most of the hour we came to a conclusion of a sort.

Joe: Howell, Helen Maher, June Wolfman, Mary Jo Koons, Pat Dopkowski, Dave Grob, Chuck Bates, and Suzette Skrliec were chosen as the Skit Committee.

Everyone seemed pretty much satisfied with this arrangement. But, just before the bell dismissed our meeting one of our classmates gave us a very good warning. It went something like this: "Now that some of you kids who 'never get a chance on committees' are holding these positions you must be sure that you stand up to your word. You must do an extra good job, or you will probably never get another chance."

I don't know if whoever said this was Frat or Grease. He was sitting behind me and I couldn't tell by the tone of his voice!!!

LOVELORN

Dear Jan and Feb, Why aren't people happy anymore? They never seem to smile....

Just Wondering.

Dear Just wondering?

We feel we are only qualified to answer for the teenagers. They are bored because they don't have anything to do, so they don't smile. There are other reasons for not smiling, but we feel this is the answer for most people.

Farm Groups Hear of Greece

HOWELL—At a meeting last Tuesday of the various groups affiliated with the Livingston County Cooperative Extension Service, an organization for farmers supported in part by Michigan State University and the State Agricultural Department, two engaging talks were given by Mrs. Esther McCree and by Mrs. Jean McCree.

Their subject was the culinary traditions of ancient and modern Greece. Mrs. Jean McCree told how her parents, who came from Greece, adjusted to American customs.

Greek handicraft and memorabilia were displayed around the room. Esther McCree then spoke on the history, customs and how Greek food recipes were passed down for generations by word of mouth.

"Olympic games, theater masks, architecture, Greek alphabet and mythology are some of the ideas passed on to us by Greece. I learned Greek mythology from my mother as bedtime stories. Today the Greeks are converts to Orthodox religion."

To cover many customs and feasts we shall go through the Greek calendar. January — Greek New Year feast is symbolic of prosperity and good fortune. The New Year's cake is prepared on New Year's eve. It is cut at midnight into as many pieces as there are members of the family starting with the parents and then on to birth.

"February 2 is a religious holiday commemorating the Presentation of Christ. This Jewish custom of purification prevails today in the Orthodox church when mothers bring their children to church 40 days after birth for blessings and purification. February is also Aprozis, the pre-lenten holiday. This period resembles the familiar Mardi Gras.

"March is Sarakoste, the feast of Annunciation and Greek Independence Day. This is celebrated by children reciting poems, because dancing and singing are not done during Lent.

"April — Palm Sunday. Only fish and fish courses are served on Vaion. Easter Sunday (Anastasis) is a joyous celebration with hymns and candles. The Greek Easter is determined as to the date as the first Sunday after the full moon which falls after the spring Equinox and always after the Jewish Passover. After midnight Mass everyone gathers for a traditional Greek Easter soup, lamb platted, colored eggs, cheese, Easter bread, (Koulourakis). Easter dinner is a banquet with roast lamb with stuffing, Easter soup, Greek salad, yogurt, red eggs, peisma wine, Easter bread, Easter cookies — Theles Kouzabothies.

"Marriage is a Greek Orthodox Church sacrament and has many special features and ceremonies.

"The crowns used at the wedding will eventually be used at the couple's burial. Jordan almonds are given as favors. The best man is Godparent to the first born."

Mrs. Jean McCree explained Greek weddings and engagements. Greek marriages are planned by "proxy." Girls and boys are brought together after reaching 18 years of age. Up to this time girls have been learning to cook and do all the housework. No long engagements. Special ceremonies go along with giving the ring. When the marriage is planned the groom pays for all the articles of clothing the bride wears at her wedding, the flowers, for the hall rental, all food, liquor and music to entertain the guests. The wedding usually takes place in from two to six months after the very first meeting. This doesn't give the couple much time to become acquainted, but Greeks believe there is a lifetime of marriage to become acquainted. These customs sound unusual but Greek divorces are very low.
