RETTINGER IGNORES HIGH COURT'S RULING

Fails to Tell Delegates of Meeting Day

The hassle between the two factions of the Democratic Party in Livingston county reached a new high when it was revealed this week that Edward Rettinger, hold-over chairman of the county Democratic Committee, had ignored the Court of Appeals order of Dec. 6. This could lay Rettinger open to contempt of court proceedings, according to Martin Lavan, leader of the anti-Rettinger forces.

The high court's order specifically specified that Rettinger must give notice, on or before Dec. 14, by first class mail and also by newspaper publication to all the delegates and delegates-at-large who were officially certified by the Livingston County Clerk on Sept. 4, 1964. This notice should have stated that a convention of delegates would be held at 8 p.m. on Jan. 5, 1966, in the courthouse at Howell.

No official notice has been published in the newspaper nor have any of the delegates received their notices, as yet, by mail. However, in last week's edition of the local newspaper at Howell an advertisement carried the notice that the Democratic COMMITTEE of the county would meet in Howell at 8 a.m., Jan. 5, 1966.

The court did not order a convention of the Committee nor did it set the time at 8 o'clock in the morning, but stated the convention of delegates should meet at 8 o'clock in the evening of Jan. 5, 1966.

Mr. Rettinger, in a recent interview, said he was inviting members of the hierarchy of the state Democratic party, to which Mr. Lavan, who was the Democratic nominee for the office of county prosecutor, replied that he would be delighted to have them at the convention of delegates.

It is recalled that when the 1964 convention of delegates met, Mr. Rettinger appointed a credentials committee which disenfranchised more than 80 of the 110 delegates and delegates.

Children Crowd To Greet Santa

BRIGHTON — The rains fell, the siren of a fire truck sounded in the distance and soon Santa Claus atop the fire truck dove into town. The cheers from half a thousand children rang out last Saturday when the patron saint of all youngsters brought gifts for every one who came to the Brighton fire hall to sit on his lap, confide the secrets of desires and return to mama a happy child.

The greatest crowd of children ever to greet Santa were in Brighton last week and although the weather was atrocious, the lights and decorations despite the dripping draperies, brought the Christmas spirit to the hundreds who poured into the city.

Although the greatest inflow and flow of mail in the history of Brighton is reported by the postmaster, Al Bosworth, the cooperation of those sending out mail from the city has speeded up deliveries.

"I want to thank every person who uses this postoffice," said Mr. Bosworth.

Families Bid Sons Adieu

HOWELL — While the spirit of Christmas filled most of the homes in America, in seven Livingston county homes, the spark was dimmed by the tragedy of war. Just before the joys of the holiday brought cheers for Santa from the young fry, seven Livingston county boys took a bus for the camp that means in all probability a stepping stone to the battle front in Viet Nam.

Monday night the stark realities of that war were brought into sharp focus to seven Livingston county families. These people reenacted an age old scene as tearful sweethearts, and mothers, and stoic fathers, waited out the last agonizing minutes of good-bye, before sending their sons off to war.

They were young, and as brave in those moments of departure as they will surely be in battle, and it seemed only fitting that there should be some ceremony to mark their leaving.

There was none, only the small knot of family and friends that stood waving until the bus was out of sight.

There will be seventeen of Livingston county's young men leaving for the service next month.

Dickie, Caren and Cindy Williams of Brighton were some of the first children in line Saturday afternoon when Santa came into town riding on a fire truck. Caren and Cindy fully appreciated the warm Santa-hug, but their little brother was a little awed when he met the jolly gentleman in person.

BOY SCOUTS throughout the county came to the rescue of the Salvation Army in collecting food for the needy. More than a week ago they distributed bags and asked homeowners to fill them. The Brighton area Scouts are shown here with several hundred filled bags. Those in the picture are, left to right top row: Chairman Car-

Mrs. Allen Herzfeld on the right show Mary Golden, social director at the hospital, the gifts that the Jaycettes brought to the children. The gifts represent the proceeds of a toy party given by the Jaycettes.

Committee Named For Head Start

HOWELL — Anticipating Federal money to help inaugurate a "head start" in the county's educational program the Livingston County Intermediate School District has helped in the organization of a special action committee. The government specifies that such a committee be formed before taking a hand in the program.

The committee headed by Dr. Fred Hauer of Fowlerville is composed of 26 members.

This week Gil Dunn from the Pinckney Community Schools and Ernestine Carlson from the Livingston Intermediate School District are attending a Head Start Workshop at Michigan State University, where clinics are being conducted for all aspects of the program development. This information will be used by the members of the Social Action Committee at their next meeting on December 20, at the Howell Recreation Center. The purpose of the program is to give underprivileged children pre-school instruction in preparation for their future education which many of their parents now lack, in order that they may become educated and useful "grown-ups", learned in skills or professions that will make them self supporting. The children are mostly from families now on welfare because of parental inability to earn a living.

Besides Dr. Hauer, the other members of the committee are: Representing the Welfare Board is Cecil Bohm of Fowlerville; Jr. Chamber Commerce, Robert C. MacBride of Hartland; Business, Miller Beurmann of Howell; Hospital Administration, James Sullivan of Howell; Cities, Cliff Heller of Howell; Education, Pat Murphy of Howell; Hope Industries, Edgar Glynn of Howell; Medical, Dorothy Dinkel of Pinckney, Church, the Rev. Ted Bowditch of Brighton; Parochial schools, the Rev. Wieber of Howell; Medical, Dr. R. Fred Hauer of Fowlerville; Professional, Dr. Robert W. Greenway of Howell; Business, Don Rhodes of Howell; Homemaker, Mrs. Carol Frisbey of Hartland; County Board Member, Mrs. Bernice Hyme of Brighton; Civic, Mrs. Herbert Dyer of Howell; Twp. Supervisor, Francis Shehan of Pinckney; Education, Jack Potts of Howell; Cities, Merwin Campbell of Pinckney; Homemaker, Mrs. George McClure of Fowlerville; Homemaker, Mrs. Jenny Egeler of Howell; Industry, William M. Allan of Brighton; Superintendent, Robert L. Miller of Hartland; Intermediate Dist., Ernestine Carlson of Howell; Twp Supervisor, Herbert Munnell of Brighton and County School Supt. Walter C. Hampton of Howell.

Livingston County Boys Leave for Camp

Seven of the 15 boys scheduled to entrain Dec. 18 for duty in the armed services left by bus at 7 a.m. The other eight had enlisted in various other branches of the armed services. On Dec. 27 there will be 55 more from Livingston county scheduled to take physical examinations. From left to right

Myrtle and Carl Stromberg, 708 No. 2nd have a real good reason for those beaming smiles they have been wearing this last week. A brand new lovely grandson Anthony, born to their son and daughter-in-law, Carl, Jr., and wife, in San Diego, California, last week. He has a little sister, Angela. Myrtle and Carl will get to see their new little grandson and his sister, after the 7th or 8th of January, as the family is making the move from the west coast to the east coast, Carl, Jr. being in the service. What a wonderful reunion that will be.

Mrs. John Jarvis and Mrs. Norman Roe have organized a new troop of Brownies from the 2nd grade of West Elementary School. The investiture was last week at which there were 15 mothers and girls present, the girls received their pins. Mrs. Leo Kujawa and Mrs. Mark Tutz were guests. The very lucky girls in this Troop are Mary Ann Anderson, Roxanne Bowhall, Patricia Collett, Ruth Ann Foerster, Deborah Hall, Ann Herbst, Susan Jarvis, Daine Meeks, Denise Moon, Joanne Norris, Polly Roe, Kathi Rochester, Jeannette Westfield, Diane Wnybria, Laura Winegar. Congratulations girls. You are very fortunate in having such a nice Troop, two very fine leaders and such a nice group of girls with whom to be associated.

Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Madden were host and hostess for their "couple" bridge club at their home 722 S. 3rd St. Shirlee and Bill Davison came from Cleveland for the festivities, an event that is always looked forward to by the rest of the club. Word has been received that Mrs. Nate Morland is in the Mound Park Hospital in St. Petersburg, Florida, with a fractured pelvis. She will appreciate your cards to cheer her.

Peter Marshall, City Manager, has gone to Pittsburgh to bring his wife Betty and daughter, Heather, home from their visit to New York to Betty's Mother and Father.

Ruth and Glen Eastman had a delightful time last week at the Hillcrest Country Club, Mt. Clemens, where they were guests with 150 other square dance callers. The occasion was the Christmas party of the members of the Michigan Square Dance Association, and they were served a scrumptious Christmas dinner and all that goes with it.

The Get Together Club had a delightful pot luck lunch and meeting at the First Methodist Church last Wednesday. There were 28 present. They celebrated their first birthday. At the first meeting there were 8 present and at the birthday celebration there were 40. Rev. Brubaker had his ukulele and they enjoyed singing Christmas carols. They presented the Church with $25.00 and were able to give the State Hospital socks, candy, etc. Their election made Mr. Goucher State Chairman, Ruth Sipes Vice State Chairman, Ila Gauss Secretary and Treasurer, and Sarah Davis Publicity. Grace Gaskill sender of card to the sick, etc. and Ralph Brown, Chairman of Food.

We are sorry to hear Mrs. Jos. Wenzel, sister-in-law of Matt Wenzel, passed away and was buried in Flint December 7th. Mrs. Wenzel was well known in Brighton as she spent her summers here.

Michael Koteles left Monday morning for entrance in the Armed Service. As yet he does not know just where he will be stationed.

Brighton Business and Professional Women had their Christmas party at the Canopy Tuesday night. Most all the members were present and they all had a wonderful time. There was only a short business meeting, then the rest of the time was spent in fun and the eating of good food.

Margaret and Oscar Muller are working hard to get their restaurant in shape for their grand opening around January 10th. They, of course, are in business now, and everything is going along splendidly. Margaret was telling me there are three generations of restaurant people in her family. They ran a hotel here from 1918 to 1922, her grandmother had a restaurant in the Squire Building, also where Dr. Sheng has his office, so restaurants are nothing new to them. They are open for business, can serve you anything from a snack to a full dinner, or just coffee and you always get a cherry greeting when you go in or leave. They give you a sincere welcome and good food.

Tuesday night the American Legion Auxiliary had their Christmas party at the Legion Hall, Pot Luck, it looked like a banquet, such food and such fun as everyone had. There were about 18 present.

The Brighton Business & Professional Group use a prayer I would like to share with all. "Keep us, Oh, God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought in word in deed. Let us be done with faultfinding and leave off self-seeking. May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face, without self-pity and without prejudice. May we never be hasty in judgement and always generous. Let us take time for all things, make us to grow calm, serene, gentle. Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straight-forward and unafraid. Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences, that in the things of life we are as one."

"And may we strive to touch and to know the great, common human heart of us all, and Oh, Lord God, let us not forget to be kind." How wonderful for us all if we lived by that prayer. Let's try.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pless, 325 So. 3rd, were happy last week as their grandson, Eric Michael, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jon Pless, Jr. of Woodland Lake was with them over the week-end, while his parents were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Webber of Grand Ledge. Jan Pless and her son, Kirk of Redford came out from Redford over the week-end, so the family had a nice get-together.

Russell E. Durk will be home this Saturday for a 15 day leave to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Durk of 1841 W. Grand River, Brighton. Russell is stationed in Jacksonville, Fla. in the Marines.

Charles and Florence Matteson of 8200 Woodland Shore Drive, were honored at a surprise party, Saturday, Dec. 11 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton-Harris in Detroit.

Thirty guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Matteson left Tuesday Dec. 14 for Santa Barbara California for the winter.

Marine Grad

SAN DIEGO, CALIF. (FHT-NC) — Marine Private Douglas W. Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Miller of 9800 Bluewater Drive, Lakeland, Mich., has been graduated from Marine recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot at San Diego, Calif.

He has been assigned to Camp Pendleton, Calif. for four weeks of individual combat training and four weeks of basic specialist training in his military occupational field.

400 Children Greet Santa

PINCKNEY—Santa Claus was ho-ho hoarse Saturday after chatting with Pinckney boys and girls from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. at the high school.

Without Rudolph to lead the way on the spring-like misty, foggy day, Santa's flight was thwarted, and he was forced to arrive by one-horse open sleigh. Plans had been made for him to be piloted to the elementary school ground.

The kids took this in stride, though, and 400 of them stood in line (as well as 150 or more of their mothers) to tell Santa to bring a b-b-gun or a doll with clothes.

Jaycees who arranged the event were prepared for 300 more youngsters, so that many boxes of candy will be handed out by the same jolly Santa (alias Jack Quigley) to children in the wards at University Hospital in Ann Arbor. Part of the Jaycee plan was to give the surplus to children in an institution, so they stocked plenty of goodies.

Jaycees were responsible for the life-giving coffee passed out to harassed mothers.

Ken Charboneau and his young brother took a lot of pictures of Saturday's affair, and he will put them on display downtown for parents to see. Anyone who wants one may order it from Ken simply for the cost of the reprint.

Point Of View

BY TOM KIZER

This column will appear, for the first time, in both the LIVINGSTON COUNTY ARGUS DISPATCH and THE LIVINGSTON COUNTY PRESS. I like this because while the county is my "Church," Howell is my "Pew." Both of these weeklies do a tremendous job of serving, first, their respective village communities and, second, the county of Livingston. The fact that they are competitors to each other is the finest thing that could happen to each of them and to our community. The worst thing that could happen to you and me, as Livingston Countyites would be for either of them to go under. As long as we have both of them vigorous and prosperous we have "a famous cigarette ad says," a good thing going.

Now with those well chosen words to you fellow citizens of the county, this may be the last column you'll see of mine in either paper. But in all sincerity, let me make a plug for both, we need 'em, lets support them.

A good many years ago, before he was Mayor, I remember talking one day to the now Mayor Heller of Howell. This was at a time when Howell was faced with too, too much conservatism (now it's just too much) and there were some people in the community who felt it ought to expand and go forward, not be just the pleasant town "that time forgot."

Cliff Heller was one that believed in the "forward movement." He was taken to task for his views by some of the towns elders and it was pointed out to him that if the town grew, there would surely be another florist move in.

Unruffled, Cliff responded in what I thought was staunch logic. He said, "that won't worry me a bit, in fact I'll welcome it, because the new competitor will be advertising and promoting flowers and if I do my job right, some of their effort is going to slip over on me."

I feel the same way about the "Argus" and the "Press." Their individual contributions to both advertising and news column is going to be better because they are in competition.

Speaking further of our "county community" there is a little story that goes along with the idea of patronizing our local merchants. It goes like this. A local citizen came into one of the local hardware stores to buy a saw. He selected the one he preferred from the merchant's display and asked the price. The merchant quoted it and the customers said, "I can buy that same saw for $1.25 less from the mail order catalog." The merchant thought a moment and responded, "Okay, Jim, I'll let you have this one at the same price."

"Fine," said the customer, "I'll take it."

The merchant took his money and proceeded to put the saw back in its rack.

"Well, give me the saw," said the customer.

"Oh, not now," replied the merchant. "You'll have to come back in three days, that's about the time it would take for the mail order house to fill your order."

Since he needed the saw that day, what do you think happened? Yep!

You could improvise on that story, Mr. Howell and Brighton merchant and apply the same logic to those of us who sashay the fifty miles into Detroit at a cost of 8c a mile to buy from some of the cut rate houses hawking their wares. Just advertise is all in your local county papers.

The other day General Hershey (I think it is "General," he's been on the job long enough) speaking of the young men who have exhibited disagreement with being drafted for the Vietnam war, made the statement that opposition to conscription would be SUICIDE for the draft, — speaking for myself. I can't think of a finer way for it to "go."

Last week my wife and I were listening to Huntley-Brinkley. They reported that President Johnson had authorized 50 million dollars to build a fertilizer plant in India for starving Indians.

My lovely help mate turned to me and said, "wouldn't you think they would like food a lot better than fertilizer?"

Just the other day Defense Secretary McNamara said, "We are not now losing the war in Vietnam — this is the same war he said a year ago we were winning in 1965 and it is the same war he and the administration said "we weren't fighting" a year before that!

(Editor's Note: We regret losing Mr. Kizer's exclusive services but we know readers of the local Howell paper will enjoy his columns as much as our readers have.)

Jaycee's Dance

PINCKNEY — Pinckney and Howell Jaycees will sponsor a dance at the Anchor Inn at Portage Lake on New Year's Eve. Profits from the affair which is open to the public are to be divided between the two groups for their civic activities designed to better their communities.

There will be a four-piece band, a buffet lunch and dancing from 10 p.m. at a cost of $6 per couple.

Pat Reynolds admits she was wrong!

(She was sure electric dryers were more expensive. Then we showed her these money-saving facts.)

- 1 Gas dryers cost a couple of pennies less per load to operate; we'd be the first to admit it. But with electric dryers you still come out ahead. Read on.
 - 2 Electric dryers cost less to buy. Model for model, prices run about $20 to $40 lower than gas dryers.
 - 3 And now, for a limited time, this lower price includes installation and wiring, if needed, when you buy from one of the many dealers participating in this special sales event.
 - 4 Electric dryers cost nothing for electrical repairs or labor. Gas dryers? Well, you can get a manufacturer's repair service policy—but it will cost you up to $120 over the first five years of operation alone. Of course, if your dryer is electric, Edison comes out, repairs electric operating parts, and leaves without leaving you a bill! (It's the only no-charge dryer repair service offered by a utility company in this area.)
- Add up ALL the costs and you'll see what Pat Reynolds saw — electric dryers actually cost less to own.

Brighton Masons Install Officers

Then and Now

REMINDER

This is just a reminder of the school dress code and dance rule.

Girls are required to wear skirts that come to the middle of the knee.

Boys are to have their shirts tucked in and look like gentlemen, not like slob!!!!!!

When you attend a school dance you must have a pass for everyone you bring. If you only have your date with you, no pass is required. You can get passes from Student Council.

The above article was written by a Brighton high school student designating the attire that should be worn. The cycle of 20 years has elapsed and as they say in the fashion world, styles return in kind every 20 years—Especially the length of skirts.

In the World War I era skirts crept up to the knees then came down and began again to climb during the World War II era. The following "Letter to the Editor" was found in a 1945 edition of a St. Louis newspaper:

Indecency in Dress

To the Editor:
"Old-Fashioned Mother" implied the disgust and contempt of all decent people for the disgraceful attire of women and girls in the city and county—abhorrent also to men. A widow for 10 years, I am comforted as I walk the streets, that I used to with my pure and properly-dressed wife, to know that this most godly woman is spared from witnessing the suggestive attire and partial nudity of girls and women "who, being past feeling, have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to mark all uncleanliness with greediness." Ephesians 4:19.

Distinguished Scholar Had Doubts About Famous Christmas Poem

"Twas the night before Christmas, when all through the house,
 Not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse."
 With these lines begins the familiar poem, "A Visit from St. Nicholas." Today, this poem is a treasured part of the lore of Christmas, often quoted and published at the Yuletide season.

Surprisingly, the poet who created it was far from proud of his work.

A distinguished Biblical scholar and professor of divinity, Dr. Clement Clark Moore wrote the poem for the amusement of his children at Christmas in 1822. A visitor in the home at the time copied it and had it published a year later in the Troy, N.Y., Sentinel.

The poem appeared anonymously, because Dr. Moore felt that he, as a professor of divinity, should not be associated with such "undignified" work.

For more than 20 years, he refused to take credit for the poem. In 1844 the poem was published and for the first time credited to its creator, Clement Clark Moore.

Unique Holiday Message Begins Greeting Cards

It was the "Golden Age of Christmas." The personal exchange of good wishes, visiting homes to toast a friend's good health, carol-singing, bringing in the Yule log and great family dinners were all in vogue.

A new book was published that year. It told of Christmas goose and plum pudding, of happy family parties. It presented, and made immortal, Ebenezer Scrooge, Bob Cratchit and Tiny Tim. The book was Charles Dickens' "A Christmas Carol," and the year was 1843.

Appropriately, during this "Golden Age of Christmas," the now universally-popular custom of sending Christmas greeting cards began.

The very first card, authorities now agree, is the celebrated Cole-Horsley, designed and printed in London in 1843. Only a dozen of the original 1,000 copies are known to exist, and two of these, including the only unsigned and unposted specimen, are part of the Hallmark Historical Collection.

When not on display in museums and similar institutions, the collection is filed in a specially constructed vault at Hallmark Cards in Kansas City, Mo.

Sir Henry Cole, a wealthy London gentleman, and founder of the Victoria and Albert Museum, asked his friend, John C. Horsley, noted artist and member of the Royal Academy, to design the now-famous card as an unusual means of expressing his kind wishes to friends at the holiday season.

Cards Tell Of Changes

The tradition of exchanging Christmas cards is a charming part of the joyous holiday, and it has a history of its own.

One of the most interesting parts of that history is the way that greeting cards serve to record changing social customs, manners and fashions through the years, points out Miss Esther Mooney, curator of the Norcross, Inc., greeting card collection.

For instance, an English card of 1892 shows the formality existing between parents and children during the Victorian era. Here, a little girl kneels solemnly at her mother's knee, sedately offering her a Christmas bouquet, with the wish, "May your life be a Merry Christmas."

Modern cards take a livelier, more light-hearted approach.

Players' 'Santa' Delights Tots

By Dorcas

Ever since the Livingston Players started staging their plays they have wanted to present a children's play and now they have succeeded. "The Mouse Who Didn't Believe in Santa" was given at Hawkins School Dec. 10 and 11.

The direction was admirably done by Betty Golden and the cast — each one played his or her part well. Jan Gail was the star and gave a very clever interpretation, and all the others did beautifully with their parts. Bill Gail took care of the music. Why didn't you let us know you played so nicely when you were here, Bill?

The children thoroughly enjoyed the performances and wanted to know when the Players would give another — and that, I think, is praise worth working for.

Fiesta Calendar At Phone Company

HOWELL — Michigan Bell Telephone Company's local commercial office now has a supply of the company's "My Daily Get Together" calendar booklets for 1966.

National fiestas are featured throughout including "Tulip Time in Holland, Mich." on the calendar pages for the month of May.

Nearly 14 million copies of these calendars will be distributed throughout the Bell System, including 280,000 in Michigan.

Tulip Time begins Wednesday, May 11, in 1966, rather than May 18 as indicated in the book.

Why not consider a gift with built-in protectiveness—a home fire extinguisher, a hand rail for the tub, or seat belts for the family?

Steel Industry Century in State

BRIGHTON — As an aftermath of the visit of the History-mobile, several weeks ago, Brighton residents who were interested in the pre-historic period in Michigan, that showed the Indians slaying a mired mammoth for food, received a brochure telling of the early mining industry.

The first pound of steel produced commercially in the United States, according to the brochure, was made in the old Eureka Iron Works at Wyandotte in 1864.

Metallurgy in Michigan dates back to 1800 BC. Prehistoric Indians sought copper which occurred in nuggets along the shores and in bedrock of the Upper Peninsula and Isle Royale. Their method of mining is revealed in the great number of oval hammer stones and pieces of partially burned wood found in pits scattered about this area.

Fire may have been used to heat the copper bearing rock which was then cracked by dashing cold water upon it; finally, hammer stones were used to separate the copper from the fragmented rock. From the copper they fashioned arrowheads, knives and pottery. Artifacts made from Michigan copper have been found in widely scattered points throughout the country, indicating that these miners conducted a thriving trade.

Radio-carbon age tests by archeologists show that the mining pits date back 3,800 years or more. No one has been able to establish a link between the pits and the miners who made them.

Radio Expert

PORT KNOX, KY. (AHTNC) — Pvt. Tedd R. Potter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis T. Potter, of 294 E. Petersen Dr., Brighton, Mich., has completed a radio course at the Army Armor Center, Fort Knox, Ky.

During the course Potter received instruction in basic radio theory and was taught the Morse code.

He entered the Army in July of this year.

The 20-year-old soldier is a 1963 graduate of Brighton High School.

All-Live Nativity Scene At Church

HOWELL — The Hardy Methodist Church will present again this year an all-live Nativity scene on the church lawn. The dates this year are from Dec. 21 through the 24th. The time of each showing is from 6:30 p.m. till 8:30 p.m. The Hardy Methodist Church is located on M-59, six miles east of Howell and four miles west of US-23.

FIRST CARDS SOLD
 Christmas cards were first offered "to the trade" by an English publishing house in the 1860's. They carried such designs as jolly old gentlemen (who might have been Santa's forebears), plum puddings, holly and mistletoe.

Let Ham Sparkle for Christmas!

Whole baked ham for that big holiday dinner shines with a glaze of apple jelly and ginger. Fasten flowers with cloves. Christmas would not be the same if a ham were missing from the table in many homes. It's a part of the season. There's a great deal of good eating, easy slicing and handsome good looks in a whole ham. Whole hams are available says Reba Staggs, meat authority, as "fully-cooked" which need only heating through and "cook-before-eating."

Baked Whole Ham
 Place ham, fat side up, on rack in an open roasting pan. Insert meat thermometer so the bulb reaches the center of the thickest part, making certain the bulb does not rest in fat or on bone. Do not add water. Do not cover. Roast in a slow oven (300°F. to 325°F.). For "cook-before-eating" hams allow 18 to 20 minutes per pound for roasting, or until meat thermometer registers 160°F.; for a "fully-cooked" ham allow about 15 minutes per pound, or until thermometer registers 130° F. Melt 1/2 cup apple jelly slowly. Stir in 1/2 teaspoon ginger. Spread over baked ham. Decorate by arranging candied orange petals around halves of candied cherries to form flowers. Fasten petals with whole cloves. Return ham to oven for 15 to 20 minutes, until glaze is set. To make candied orange rind petals, peel a large orange. Simmer rind 10 minutes. Drain. Cover with hot water. Cook until tender. Drain again. Combine 1 cup sugar, 1/2 cup water and bring to a boil. Add rind and simmer 30 minutes. Cool and cut into petal shapes.

Spices for Pot-Roast
 Families who like a light spicy taste in their foods will enjoy spiced pot-roast. Simple to use is the combination of two bay leaves and 5 whole cloves. A small amount of vinegar (1 to 2 tablespoons) may be added with hot water (1/2 to 3/4 cup) as the braising liquid. Sliced onions also contribute a harmonious flavor companion.

Do's and Don'ts
 What's the proper way to roast meat? There are two important do's: use rack for the meat and let it cook at constant low temperature. When heat penetrates the meat slowly, this usually gives it more palatability. There are three important don'ts: do not add water; do not cover; and do not baste.

Several friends, relatives and neighbors stopped by the Ed Wisser home Friday evening to bid their son, Mike Wisser, and neighbor Rick Larabee farewells as the two boys were leaving for Great Lakes, Ill., early Monday morning. These two boys and Mike Koteles, also of Brighton, were the draftees in Livingston County to be leaving Dec. 13 after being drafted into the Army. Mike and Rick decided they would rather serve with the Navy and enlisted, enabling them to receive their boot training at Illinois. Good luck, boys, on your future experiences and schooling.

Dearest sympathies extended to Mr. Ed Banfield of Brighton and his daughters, Norma Voorhis, our neighbor on PV Rd., and Irma Moore of Milford, on the loss of their wife and mother last Monday evening. Mrs. Banfield had been a patient at McPherson Community Health Center for several weeks following a broken hip at her home. She was 80 years of age Feb. 28, 1965. Words of comfort are hard to express at this time, Norma, but when we realize the many that are suffering for long periods of time, we find ourselves grateful that our loved ones have not endured this long suffering.

Pinckney Library News

New books this week include "The Situation in Flushing" Mr. Love describes his boyhood home in Michigan as a warm friendly town, records the highlights of village life and describes some of the fascinating individuals who lived there. The greatest attraction for him was the railroad until progress and the automobile reduced it to a minor position.

Carrol, "The Road Grows Strange," is a gentle reflective story in which the heroine, a retired New England school teacher finds fullness and meaning in her quiet life as she becomes involved in the lives of those around her. Golden, "In the Sun" is a suspense story. Janey who had lived a life of frustration in England hoped to find peace in a Spanish villa. The arrival of an irresponsible nephew brings with it the shadow of blackmail and danger, and the tension mounts as Janey tries to extricate herself.

Malvern, "Dancing Star" is the biography of Anna Pavlova the world famous Russian Ballet dancer. Written for young people it will be read with keen enjoyment by all who love the dance.

Holm, "North to Freedom" is another book written for young people in which all will enjoy. Translated from the Danish, it is the story of a boy who escapes from a prison camp in eastern Europe and makes his way on foot across Europe to Denmark. It tells of his change from an imprisoned creature completely shut off from normal human feelings, to a responsive and responsible boy.

Teachers Host to 85

PINCKNEY — Pinckney High School teachers entertained both academic and non-academic personnel of the Pinckney Elementary, Hamburg school, and the high school at a turkey dinner Saturday night. Some 85 persons attended.

Each year the three schools take turns acting as hosts to the affair. Last year the group went to the Hamburg school. Mrs. Grace Puravs had charge of Saturday's affair. Mrs. Irene Miller took care of the guest register and name tags. Several gifts were given.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Nash announce the marriage of their daughter Rachel Alice to Theodore J. Heldt of Madison, Wis., on Saturday, November 13. The couple were attended by friends, Mrs. Michael Van Ryzin and John Christenson, both of Madison. The bride, a teacher in Monona Grove, Wis. graduated from Michigan State University with high honors in the summer. She is a member of Michigan State's Honorary Society and Phi Kappa Phi. Heldt has served in the Navy. He is a University of Wisconsin senior and is employed by the Madison Gas and Electric Company. The couple is living at 135 South Hancock, in Madison.

Mrs. Leland Gaynor was hostess Saturday evening at an absence bridal shower for Mrs. Rachel Heldt. The ladies enjoyed wrapping their gifts and chatting over refreshments. They plan to present the gifts when Mr. and Mrs. Heldt of Madison, Wis. visit here over Christmas weekend.

Early Christmas Dinners Sunday Christmas party guests at the Mark Nash home were the Jack Clarks of Dexter and the Rev and Mrs. Gerald Brady of Harrison.

The John Burg family entertained the Paul Burges of Grass Lake and the John Burges, of Brighton, at pre-Christmas turkey dinner Sunday. Early Christmas guests included the Harry Murphy Home were the Jim Murphy family of St. Clair. As it turned out, due to the flu, the only one able to come, enjoy dinner, and exchange gifts was Jim himself!

Celebrates 80th Birthday Mrs. Eleanor Ledwidge, who celebrates her 80th birthday on Dec. 18, was the guest of honor at a birthday party Sunday in the banquet room of Robson's. Among the 28 present were Mrs. Ledwidge's sisters, Mrs. May Barron, Mrs. Mark Bergen, Miss Margaret Brogen and Mrs. Veronica Walker, all of Howell, and her brother and his wife, the Frank Brogens of Brighton. The rest of the group consisted of Mrs. Ledwidge's children and their spouses and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Stackable. The useful birthday gift presented was a "Money Tree," given to Mrs. Ledwidge by all the guests. If you would like to wish a Merry Christmas to John Booth, who was injured six weeks ago in a fall, you may address cards to room 305, St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor. Mr. Booth will soon undergo surgery on his knee and will be confined to his hospital bed for at least another month. Wouldn't This Be Fun? Mrs. Leona-Marie Bonner and her son Roger were host and hostess at their 10th annual Old Fashioned Christmas Tree Party for 16 of the Bonner's nieces and nephews. The party began with lunch, the prayer being given by Mrs. Asa Bonner, Sr. The group then enjoyed singing Christmas carols accompanied by an antique music box. After singing "Oh Christmas Tree" several times, Roger, driving the tractor, and the older children riding on the trailer, went to pick out and cut their Christmas trees. The little ones then gathered in front of the fireplace to hear Mrs. Bonner read Christmas stories. It was a fun-filled day for the youngsters.

YULE PROGRAM

PINCKNEY — The Christmas Program at Pilgrim Hall will be at 7 p.m. Dec. 19. Each child is asked to bring a dozen home-made cookies or candy wrapped as a gift to place under the Christmas tree. The Sunday School plans to carol for the sick, shut-ins and the elderly, and the gifts will be passed out at that time. Children who won't be attending the program at night are invited to bring their gifts to Sunday School that morning.

PARRIS ISLAND, S.C. 2222
PARRIS ISLAND, S.C. (FHTNC) — Marine Privates Russell E. Durk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Durk of Woodland Lake, and Delbert R. Murray, son of Mr. Roy W. Murray of 301 W. Grand River, both of Brighton, have completed Marine recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot on Parris Island.

During their eight weeks of intensified recruit training under veteran non-commissioned officer Drill Instructors, they learned small arms marksmanship, bayonet fighting, and methods of self-protection, as well as receiving instruction in military drill, history and traditions of the Marine Corps, and other academic subjects.

Orchids For Your Christmas Table

The Christmas season is fast approaching and with it the perennial problem of getting presents for those who seem to have everything.

A new and lovely gift suggestion is a centerpiece of Cattleya orchids. If you're invited to a holiday dinner, a regal purple-and-white spray of blooms is a highly prized gift for your hostess. If you're the party-giver, consider purchasing orchids to add a unique touch to the festive occasion.

Cattleyas bring a note of subtle coloring and elegance to your holiday table. The snowy white cloth, set with fine china, sparkling stemware and spotless silver will have a focal point of interest—and conversation—if an arresting display of orchids is used as a centerpiece.

Centerpieces are simple to make—just use your imagination. Set three drippless taper candles in a bed of Cattleya orchids and greens and you have a beautiful display. Or take a large brandy snifter and place some dainty china or ceramic figurines in it; then artistically arrange several orchids inside and on the rim of the glass.

Orchids give your table an exotic air. They're durable and will last through the entire holiday season if stored at night in a cool place, but not the refrigerator. And, contrary to popular notion, Cattleya orchids are reasonable in price and readily available from local florists the year round.

VOLUNTEERS HELP WHITMORE LAKE BOYS TRAINING SCHOOL

Youths Goal Rehabilitate

WHITMORE LAKE — There has always been a considerable amount of publicity concerning the effect that the Boy's Training School at Whitmore Lake has had on the surrounding community.

However another story, a warm story of human kindness has never been told, and seems particularly appropriate at Christmas time.

The story began at about the same time the first troubled delinquents were brought to the school. While many neighbors trembled with apprehension, complained, and watched with pessimistic gloom as the school progressed, others rolled up their sleeves opened their hearts, and began a person to person experiment with the youngsters.

Many area people with special talents began to donate their time to teach special classes at the school. Boys, who had never seen a truly lovely painting were able to attend an art class, taught by a volunteer. A lovely lady shared her interest in ceramics with the boys, and for the first time some of the youngsters began to realize that they could actually create something beautiful with their own hands.

Boys who had never known a father, had never been on a fishing trip, and were unable even to imagine or appreciate a true father-son relationship, were sharing time each week with a dedicated man who came all the way from Detroit in order to teach the boys fish-fly tying. A busy doctor donated his time to a sea-scout troop, and two Ann Arbor men began weekly visits and introduced the boys to the thrilling hobby of model trains.

Another young man, a musician from Ann Arbor, began to share his musical talent with the culturally deprived youngsters.

The school is grateful for these selfless people, but the appreciation of the youngsters is the only reward needed by the volunteers, and they are richly repaid. The present volunteers do a remarkable job, but there are not enough volunteers to go around and a tremendous amount of volunteer help is still needed. The youngsters at the school have the same needs and sometime a greater need for cultural improvement than any other child does.

The boys at the school would receive tremendous benefit from the self discipline of a 4-H Club, and from the pride of achievement in completing a project. They could gain self respect, and the knowledge they need to succeed that every youngster gets from a Junior Achievement Project.

Nothing lifts the spirit quite like music, and those with talent and patience would find their volunteer work with the youngsters a very rewarding experience.

There are many area people with interesting hobbies or unusual talents, and each one would bring a new experience to the youngsters at the school, a practical experience of learning, but more than that, these youngsters who in the most part have grown up in neglect, will begin to realize that there is a place in their world for understanding, kindness, and respectability. It is a pity too, that so often these human values can only be learned when the youngster is shown an example, and there just aren't enough examples.

The recent investigation of conditions at the Boy's Training School by the Department of Social Services, was undertaken upon the urging of State Rep. Thomas G. Sharpe.

Rep. Sharpe, learned that the number of walkways in October was considerably less than that of September.

"The reports we have received to date," commented Sharpe, "have revealed several factors contributing to the problem, including:

"Lack of adequate communication between the administration and staff to establish disciplinary procedures.

"Problem of food preparation and transportation (meals are prepared in one location and then transported, over rough roads, to the dining area — a procedure often resulting in meals which appear anything but appetizing.)

"Inadequate recreation facilities.

"Inadequate textbooks and library facilities.

"Lack of adequate window reinforcement to prevent escape.

Sharpe stated that Social Service Department officials are continuing to review reports and compile information which will ultimately lead to taking the proper corrective measures and the work of these volunteers is making the job of rehabilitation much easier.

Center photo: Tom Jones, a part time recreation director at the school, is a student and works as a musician in Ann Arbor. He has spent much of his own time with the boys at school.

Top left: Mrs. Richard Kelly, who lives and works in Ann Arbor as assistant research director in the Ann Arbor public schools, started working with her art class this fall. Other volunteers come on a part time basis to work with the Hi-Y, Fishing Clubs, stamp collecting, a chess club, and a photography club. Recreation Director, Jim Sherwood, reports that the other programs at the school include boxing, handball, bowling, baseball, wrestling, volleyball, handicrafts, cards, copper work, model cars, swimming and ping-pong.

Lower left: The Ann Arbor model rail-roading club with its membership of about 25 has supported a club in the school and has donated several hundred dollars worth of equipment, and many man-hours of instruction as the boys construct their own lay-out. Two

Top right: Fred Rea, a retired Chevrolet advertising manager from Detroit, spends at least one night a week at the school, teaching his art of fish fly-making to the boys. Rea, who now exhibits his skill professionally at sport shows, is one of the most dedicated volunteers.

Lower right: Pat Nissen, of Brighton, is a busy homemaker, and a devoted mother, yet she finds time once a week to teach ceramics at the school.

Much of the material she uses has been donated, but she provides the human touch, the understanding and the needed guidance.

Bottom: Dr. Russel F. Smith, from Whitmore Lake organized the school's Sea Scouts two years ago. The Scouts number about 30 now, and they have made both the school and their leader very proud on the several occasions when they have left the school to participate in parades, and sea scout projects. Dr. Smith demonstrates some knot tying to some of the boys in this picture.

Lake Speed Boat Curbs Adopted

PINCKNEY — Although the Putnam Township Board recently took action to curb speed boats and water skiing on Big Silver Lake at the suggestion of the Michigan Boating Control Commission, the board in its regular session toned down the original proposition to prohibit the two water sports.

Instead the board adopted a resolution limiting speed boats and water skiing to the hours from 10 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.

As finally adopted other restrictions on water craft to safeguard fishermen and swimmers follow:

"On the waters of Big Silver Lake, persons operating vessels shall maintain a distance of 200 feet from the shoreline and a distance of 100 feet from any raft, buoyed or occupied bathing area, or vessel motored or at anchor, except when proceeding at a 'slow-no wake' speed and except when engaged in picking up or dropping off water skiers, so long as such operation is otherwise conducted with due regard to the safety of persons and property and in a line perpendicular to the shoreline and in accordance with the laws of this State.

"Violations of the provisions of this ordinance shall be punishable by a fine of not more than $100.00 for such offense or imprisonment in the County Jail for a period not to exceed ninety (90) days, or both said fine and imprisonment."

Immunization

HOWELL — Dr. G. B. Wickstrom, director of the Livingston County Health Department, announces the monthly immunization clinic will be conducted on Wednesday, Dec. 22, at St. John's Episcopal Parish Hall, Walnut and Sibley Streets, across from the Post Office in Howell. The hours will be from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Parents are invited to take advantage of this opportunity to bring the immunization schedules of their children up to date. The fourth Wednesday afternoon of each month is the regular Immunization Clinic Day, throughout the year.

Howell Man Honored By Boy Scouts

ANN ARBOR—More than 400 persons from Livingston and Washtenaw counties attended the annual Portage Trail Council of Boy Scouts' Fellowship and Appreciation dinner, Nov. 30 at the Michigan Union.

A Howell man, Lyle M. Munsell, was one of three to receive high scout awards. The Silver Beaver award was presented to Mr. Munsell by Judge James Breakey.

Four from Livingston county received the Commissioner's Arrowhead award. They are: Jack Addington and Virgil Holdcraft, of Brighton, William Pierce, and Elmer Smith of Howell.

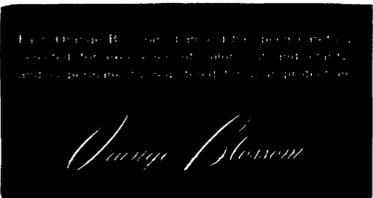

The Wood Badge Beads award was given to William Barlow of the Livingston county Boy Scouts and other training awards were presented to the following members of the Livingston County district:

Howell Man Joins Proving Grounds

POINSETTIAS AND

Poinsettias for Grandmother, a puppy for brother Joe, stationery is perfect for Aunt Sue.
"Tis the season to be jolly," carol the loudspeakers in the department stores, but each year it becomes harder. Days are frantic with shopping, wrapping, and addressing. There's too much to do, too many things to remember; Sally's school play, a white elephant for Joe's Scout party, the Kirby's gala on the twenty-second.
There's no time for thinking, but sometimes late at night; a moment for reflection. In the rush of doing all the right things have we forgotten our reasons for doing them? Have we come bearing gifts, like the Magi, with hearts empty of the wonder and awe that was theirs?
Perhaps we need to hear anew the age-old story of a tiny Babe wrapped and gently laid in a manger while shepherds quaked and angels sang. The door of your Church stands open. Worship there the newborn King this Christmas and every Sunday.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL
ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4)
For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

ACORN-ER of Green Oak
BY MONNA MITCHELL
AC 9-6888
Sorry to hear that Mrs. Ron-el-d Walker fell last Tuesday and injured her back. Guest at their home last Tuesday and Wednesday was Mrs. Walker's brother, Mr. Dean Decker of Cas-sopolis, Mich.
Mr. and Mrs. Tim Wiles enjoyed dinner at the home of Tim's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Temple Wiles in Detroit Sunday. The occasion was an early birth-day celebration for Tim and his mother. FBI Warns Shops Of Shoplifters

Because of the millions of dol-lars lost by merchants due to shoplifters, J. Edgar Hoover has sent to Livingston county law enforcement officers a warning that the shoplifter is everywhere during the Christ-mas buying rush.
The shoplifter does not over-look the smaller towns, because he finds the smaller communi-ties easier prey.
Hoover's warning follows in part:
"The Christmas Season, with its religious significance and spiritual uplift, is often marred by human greed and weakness. One of the more serious prob-lems is caused by the despic-able sneak thief — the shoplif-ter.
"Each year during the holi-days, the heisters and boosters step up their forays of theft and pilferage which result in trem-orous losses to the public. Their methods are as old as the profession itself. They operate with fake boxes and packages, loose coats and oversize cloth-ing, shopping bags, large pur-ses, and numerous other devices to cover their activities.
"No merchant, from the cor-ner grocer to the exclusive fur-rier, is exempt from the shop-lifter. This thief comes from any station in life. He may be rich or poor, male or female, young or old, and an amateur or professional. Encouraged and unwittingly abetted by bustling crowds and jammed stores, the shoplifter and two of his law-less allies, the purse snatcher and pickpocket, are bold and ag-gressive.
"From 1959 through 1964, shop-lifting increased 93 percent, and it is the fastest growing larceny violation.
"Record-breaking retail sales are predicted for the pre-Chris-tmas shopping days. Law en-forcement agencies will be overtaxed and enforcement ranks will be thinly spread. The thieves and thugs can be ex-pected to take full advantage of these favorable conditions.
"Let us confront the shoplif-ter with good security and det-errence measures, quick arrest, and prompt and forceful prose-cution. To do less is to condone him."

U.S. TO CHECK FARM HIRING
The Census Bureau's annual survey of hired farm work and the first phase of a survey on hunting and fishing will be taken during December in Livingston County as part of the bureau's monthly current population sur-vey.
The farm work survey, to de-termine the number of persons in the nation doing full and part-time farm work for hire, is be-ing done for the U.S. Depart-ment of Agriculture. The hunt-ing and fishing survey, to get national statistics on each ac-tivity, is for the U.S. Department of the Interior.
Both surveys will supplement regular monthly inquiries on employment asked by the Bu-reau to furnish information for the U.S. Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics.
Questions on hunting and fish-ing will be asked about all sur-vey family members in the area who are 9 years of age and over. The questions seek to determine how many persons hunted or fished during 1965, their ages, how often they engaged in these activities, and approximately how much they spent on them.
The information will be col-lected during the work week starting December 13 from scientifically selected sample households in this area.

Youth For Unity

The Junior Class meeting a couple of weeks back gave proof to the rumors that the class was splitting in half. The grease and the frats. To me, there are no such things as the grease and frats. If a person wants to wear certain clothes, that is his business. It all began when a certain person, to be more specific, a certain girl, stood up and said the frats think they can run everything. After that was said, the meeting was like a war with no actual fighting, although it came to be just that. Some people think that if a person wears certain clothes, it affects his mind, and it does, to a point. But if a person wears white levis and black socks, it is the same as black slacks and white socks. If anybody had not said anything about this, this year, and if we would have waited until next year, there is no telling what would have happened. Really, clothes don't make any difference. We were in that meeting to improve our class and anyone wanting to help in the work will work, no matter what he is, or the type of clothes he wears. ANONYMOUS RANDOM

Slaps At Frat In Rebuttal: Defends 'Grease In Controversy

In answer to the article on this page December 8:
Who are you to classify a person as "Grease" or "Frat" by his moral standards? By the way your article was worded, I assume that you are a "Frat." Is this Fraternity, though, when you degrade a person by mentioning his moral standards? Moral standards have nothing to do with "Grease-Frat" classification. I have yet to see a "Grease" standing in front of someone else's locker making-out. What moral standard is this?

You mentioned a person's way of dressing as a characteristic of which group this person belongs to. This are two: different and neatness. If "Grease" girls came to school wearing their fathers' old white shirts hanging down to their knees, or if "Grease" boys wore ragged old sweatshirts and sneakers full of holes, you might have a legitimate gripe. They don't, so why must you continue to degrade someone because he is not like you. "Frat"? Maybe someone has different ideas about what they are going to do with their lives. There are many other rewarding careers in this school that you don't have to go to college to learn. So why must you degrade him for wanting to make something out of his life, a life he will enjoy because that's the way he wants it to be?

The juniors recently had a discussion about this problem within their class, but must the whole school knock them for it?

This problem has developed into a school-wide, all-out fight. Why? Because some people have nothing better to do than to find something to fight about. The students of this school have a logical right to choose their own friends. These friends stick together, become interested in different things and do different things than some other groups might be doing. This is why some one is classified because they do not conform to one group or the other. Why should this be a subject to dispute?

This group that a person belongs to in school does not necessarily mold his entire life. A "Grease" or a "Frat" is perfectly capable of getting along with anyone not of their group without changing the group he hangs around with. Most of the students do get along with everyone, but they still go around with the same crowd they always have, and this doesn't hurt them a bit. So why can't a "Frat" be on social terms with a "grease," Frat? Just once, why don't you speak to a "Grease." Say "Hi" sometimes. You'll be surprised when they say "Hi" to you, too. But why? He's human, too. You might find he's not as bad as you thought he was. You mentioned moral standards as a way of classifying a person. I have just one thought to add to that. A "Grease" can just as easily become a Senator as a "Frat" could become a "Jail-bird." These school groups have no influence on a person after high school if he is well-adjusted.

BY STEVE FLOWERS and JOSE SOLER

I would like to add a few very important facts that were left out of the article in the December 8th issue called "Grease or Frat Rebuttal." The writer was obviously for the people who call themselves frats or continentals. He proved this by cutting down the group considered as grease, and telling only a one sided story against them.

I would like to start off by saying that the word "frat" came from the word fraternal. A fraternity is a group that people belonging to, so no one person can be a frat (or fraternity).

Second, I would like to clear up the definition of continental. Webster defines continental as, "a soldier in the Continental army." This proves that there isn't any person living who is a continental, because all the men in that army are dead. The only other continental I know that is a person is the car in the T.V. show "My Mother the Car."

Third, I would like to prove that a person can't be a grease. Webster's definition of grease is, "Fat or fatness of an animal's body." I think pure logic and common sense will tell you that no person came from the fat of an animal.

By these definitions it is proved that a person is neither frat, continental nor grease.

But finding that people consider themselves as a part of these groups I will fill in what was left out of the foregoing mentioned article.

It was stated that a grease stands on the corner and smokes and cusses and swears. I'm going to add drinking to this list. Yes, some grease smoke, drink, and cuss, but not all. It was stated that this wasn't for the frats. Well, I'd like to know what group these people who consider themselves frats, should belong to who do drink, smoke, and cuss because there is about the same percent age of frats and continentals who do drink, smoke and cuss.

It was also stated that the grease wear their pants so tight that you can count the hairs on their legs. Again this is some of the grease, not all of them. I have to admit that the way some of the frat boys wear their pants you couldn't count the hairs on their legs. The reason for this is that they wear their pants so tight that they have to shave the hair off of their legs before they can pull their pants on. There are also plenty of frats and continentals who wear their pants up to six inches above the shoes.

The idea that the frats follow the dress code is out. This is proved by the fact that some wear tight and short pants. It is also out because the dress code states that the hair should be worn in a normal hair do and at a reasonable length. Hair hanging, like a girl's bangs on a boy isn't exactly a normal hairdo. They are also frats that insist on wearing their shirts with the shirt tail outside the pants instead of inside as the dress code states they are to do.

I don't know where he got his information about grease leading in the noon drag strip up and down the Main Street hill, because I didn't realize that calling yourself a frat took the notions out of your head to lay a patch or go at speeds over the speed limit. But considering he must have gotten it from a good source, he will have to eliminate the fact that the greases are the ones breaking the bottles in the A & P parking lot, because with all the speeding and tires peeling at noon the grease wouldn't have time for such little things as breaking bottles.

He did make one very true statement. He said you greases find very many, if any greases on a University Campus. I don't see how you could find something or some one that doesn't exist. Besides, what do you classify the bearded beatnik as?

While I was talking to Mrs. Addington about her views on the subject she said, "Since when does being with any 'in' group (whether frat or grease) show the independence and individual personality of the American teen? America is noted for its uniqueness and individual tastes. Will the American teen ruin this special characteristic of the U.S.A. by being a conformist?" This means that if your friend likes black pants or white levis, don't kick him out of your group because everyone has his own likes and dislikes in the color of the clothes he wears.

I'm not trying to cut down any certain person (except the person who wrote that article) in this article. I'm just trying to get the point over that there isn't any such thing as a person being frat, grease or continental; also that there are good and bad in every group. This goes back to the point that the frats are no more frat than the person who wears tight black pants with high heels on his shoes. I think the person who wrote that story should apologize to the people that he cut down and tried to hurt by telling such a one sided story.

B.H.S. Fan

Dear Brightontites:
Thank you all so much for a very enjoyable day with you in your school. I have never felt so welcome anywhere; you seemed to go out of your way to be friendly.

I know that your school is overcrowded, and that you are awaiting the completion of a new building. You seem to be making the best of it; I didn't hear one complaint.

I was so surprised to see your lockers left open as they are, with not a thought of closing them, let alone locking them. This must be symbolic of the one-big-happy-family attitude you have.

I won't forget your pep assemble and, later, that exciting game. Once, I got colors straightened out (like Clarkston our colors are blue and gold), I cheered like a fellow Brightontite; your school spirit was so contagious. I won't betray my Alma Mater and list her faults, but count me as one B.H.S. fan.

Sincerely,
Leslie Pocklington

Scholastic Tests For 13

BY MARY SCHOEN

The testing programs at B.H.S. began this year with thirteen seniors taking the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test (P.S.A.T.) on October 19. National Honor Society members are automatically made eligible for scholarship by taking this test. The P.S.A.T. is not used for college entrance, but as a practice test for the Scholastic Aptitude Test (S.A.T.).

The S.A.T. was taken by several seniors on Saturday, November 4, at test centers in Fenton and L'Anford.

About sixteen colleges in Michigan require the S.A.T. for entrance, while one, Central Michigan, requires the American College Testing Program (A.C.T.) examination. The A.C.T. and the S.A.T. are often referred to as College Entrance Exams, and are given several times a year, usually about two months past.

The State Competitive Scholarships for the academic year 1966-67, were given at Howell High School, November 20. Last year, the first year the tests were given, 4,600 scholarships were given to deserving students in the state of Michigan. This year about 6,000 scholarships will be given.

A three hour Air Force Aptitude Test was given November 29. The test was taken by twenty-six students of B.H.S., both girls and boys, in an attempt to find out if the students would fit in military service.

Later in the spring the Essential Content Test Battery will be taken by all seniors. It is an achievement test used to evaluate courses and programs

A Fiction Story By High Student

It was dark and gloomy out. The sky shed lights of gold, purple and burnt orange. There was no wind at all, and the heavy, hot air pressed down on everything and everyone. Once in a while a sharp flash of lightning would pierce the sky.
If one didn't sense the danger in the atmosphere, one might think the horizon was very beautiful.
An old man sat on the rickety front steps of his hut and stared at the sky. He watched the pale shafts of light that filtered through the silvered planks of the old fishery. He stared long and hard at the wharf that stretched shabbily from the fishery to the grimy land.
Suddenly a flash of lightning showed the old man what the old buildings really were like. The fishery was still yellow with newness; thirty small boats were clustered around the legs of the pier, and two large boats were waiting to take their catch on to the mainland. Far out, just beyond the whitetipped reef, a few sails could be seen. Again he was a young man hauling in fish nets, lobster traps, and shouting orders to the wind.
The mirage lasted a second longer, then another lightning flash brought him back to reality. The old man's wrinkled and bearded face was wet with tears.
He arose and stood in the doorway of his lonely shack. It was then that he noticed the sky had lost all color and was now a deep and dirty black. Low rumbling noises ran through the air. Danger prevailed!
Everyone was in their poor little huts when it hit. It was a strange storm, with high winds, higher waves, thunderous lightning and no rain.
The first finger of lightning had set a humble shack on fire. The second bolt had hit the generator. A loud explosion sounded, followed next by tiny flames that scattered and flew and grew bigger and bigger. The few lights that had shown inside the houses vanished, and men scattered, separately, to put out the fires nearest their own homes.

The men were soon followed by scared women and frightened children. No one cared about his neighbor. After all, times had been hard for the last six years. Many families had gone to the mainland to live with relatives who were better off than they. None ever came back; none ever wrote, and no one knew if life was really any better there. So, the weak and spineless ones remained on the island and lived in poverty. Some, like the old man, stayed on out of honor and respect for what the island used to be.
The fire grew out of control and people began running to the wharf and the safety of their boats.
Boats! The old man laughed inwardly. They were used so infrequently that they were half rotted, sodden with splintering boards and beginning to fill with water when the waves splashed over into them. Yet, the people rushed to them and what safety they offered.
The old man watched silently as the fire devoured his hut with greedily yellow, blue and red lips.
Down on the pier people were pushing themselves into boats until there was fear of them capsizing. Out on the water the little boats were certain to tip or crack with the wind, rain, and strain of distance.

The fire had crept to the shore and you could hear it hiss and pop, but higher up the fire still attacked the island with fury.
The old man picked his way carefully down to the cave where his tiny boat was moored. Twice along the way he had to stop and beat out the fire that had grabbed angrily at his pants and straw sandals. Once he fell and lay face down while the fire monster crept toward him. Then he got up and ran screaming toward the boat.
A family with four shabbily dressed children, their tired mother, and scar-faced father were there ahead of the old man. There was no question of ownership as they all scurried into the little old boat.
The sails were as trim as ever and once set, the wind whipped it out into the open waters.
The old man shouted orders which the slovenly father ignored. The children wailed and moved in the boat causing it to rock precariously. Another boat ran along side and tipped, spilling the people into the angry sea. This old man tried to pull the drowning people into his own little boat, but the father hit him and he fell backwards. His head banged against the mast, and he lay with his feet hanging in the mad waters. A child screamed in terror, and the mother hit him with the back of her hand. Instantly blood colored the child's face and streamed down on his shabby coat.
The old man pulled his feet in and sat huddled in the back of his boat. He sat there for a minute, too frightened to move. Finally he summoned up his courage and stood up.
Nobody even noticed when the old man lowered himself down into the sea and sank further and further.

Dear Jan and Feb,
I have a very large problem with my girl. Everytime we go out all she wants to do is kiss. She is very strong and powerful and every time she kisses me she breaks my glasses. Please give me an answer on what I can do about this. Last week

I went through 36 pairs of glasses.
I sent.
Going Broke,
Dear Going,
There are a few things you can do. You can stop kissing her, break up with her, or take your glasses off when you go out with her. If she's that strong and powerful, you ought to do something about it. (Don't forget to take off your glasses).

Youth Speaks Out

By P. Carusi
What's the matter with you guys? You should know better. Hissing and booing shows a complete lack of sportsmanship. How can we expect the boys on the team to try if we show such disgusting actions?
Sure things aren't going to go our way. But win or lose, the team tries very hard.
So come on. Let's show a little bit of cultivation. Try to win a sportsmanship award for B. H. S.

Brighton Beats South Lyon '5'

BY MIKE BAKER
"Brighton Freshman cagers battled South Lyon to a 62-46 victory."
The B.H.S. five were on top all through out the game as South Lyon could never quite catch up after their first and second quarters. South Lyon just couldn't seem to get the range of the basket as they only scored 9 points to Brighton's 18 in the second quarter.
Their coach must have read them the riot act at half time as they came back in the third and fourth periods and closed the gap between the scores a little bit. They couldn't quite make up for the bad start that they had. Brighton still out scored them as they scored 14 and 16 respectively to South Lyons 13 to 15.
These are the box scores for Brighton:

What Is The John Birch Society?

The Truth May Surprise You!

This week we are celebrating our seventh anniversary. We are glad to take the occasion therefore, to give as much of an answer to the above question as space will permit, for those who really want to know. So—

I. Let's Start At The Beginning

The John Birch Society was founded in Indianapolis, on December 9, 1958. It was chartered under the General Laws of Massachusetts as a non-profit educational organization. We have lived up meticulously to those specifications (including not making any profit!) for seven years.

During these seven years we have sought to bring into The John Birch Society only men and women of good character, humane consciences, and religious ideals. For we are striving to set an example, by dedication, integrity, and purpose — in word and deed — which our children's children may follow without hesitation.

Members of the Society are all races, colors, and creeds. We are of all social, economic, and educational levels. We are individualists who disagree among ourselves about many things. But we are firmly united in devotion to those beliefs, principles, and purposes which we do hold in common. For we have voluntarily joined together:

- (1) To combat more effectively the evil forces which now threaten our freedom, our lives, our country, and our civilization;
- (2) To prevail upon our fellow citizens to start pulling out of the deepening morass of collectivism, and then climb up the mountain to higher levels of individual freedom and responsibility than man has ever achieved before;
- (3) To restore, with brighter lustre and deeper conviction, the faith-inspired morality, the spiritual sense of values, and the ennobling aspirations, on which our western civilization has been built. The longrange objective of the Society has been summarized as less government, more responsibility, and a better world.

II. So We Collide With Communism

These purposes bring us immediately into conflict with the Communists, on two levels. For on the ideological plane the Communists seek always and everywhere to bring about more government, less individual responsibility, and an amoral world. And on the plane of action, until the Communists can be stopped from completing their subjugation of the whole world, there will be no opportunity for us to move forward at all towards our permanent goals.

We have undertaken, therefore, to play a leading role in slowing down, stopping, and eventually routing the Communist conspiracy. We realize that the one thing no conspiracy can withstand is the light of day on its activities. The only danger to their gigantic conspiracy which the Communists fear is exposure. For this reason, we do all that we can to bring to our fellow citizens more knowledge and a better understanding of the methods, the progress, and the menace of the Communist machine. In this undertaking we have become a new form of opposition to the Communists which they have never faced before in any of the vast areas they have already taken over.

So the Communists, grasping this fact very early, set out in 1961 to destroy us. The most official Communist publication in the United States is The Worker, in which the line is laid down for the faithful. During the last six months of 1961 there was, we believe, only one issue of this weekly paper which did not contain an attack somewhere in its pages on The John Birch Society; and a number of issues contained as many as six or seven separate attacks on us at that many different places. The Comsymps got the point, and have been carrying out the indicated program with increasing furor ever since.

Of course the Communists follow Lenin's basic strategy of advancing Communism by non-Communist hands. They could never impose the tyrannical rule of some three percent of a population over the whole population — which they repeatedly do in one country after another — unless they could inveigle enough non-Communists and even anti-Communists among that other ninety-seven percent into doing their dirty work for them. Deceptively appealing, for instance, to every motivation in human character, from sordid selfishness to "practical politics" to misguided idealism, they have gradually beguiled a lot of very good Americans into joining the attack on us. Until the maligning of The John Birch Society has now probably exceeded, in intensiveness and extensiveness, that faced by any other organization in all American history. And in general our defamers do not even try to refute the facts on which we focus attention. They merely call us names for bringing these facts to light.

III. And Stir Up The Politicians

The John Birch Society is in no sense a political organization. We try to give our members information, understanding, and — we hope — even inspiration, which will make them better citizens. As good citizens they may take an active part in politics. But each member does so entirely on his own, working in the party of his choice, for the candidate of his choice, exactly as do members of the American Legion or of the Knights of Columbus or of the Rotary Club or a Baptist Church.

For we regard education as the means, and political action as only the mechanics, for bringing about improvements in government. The mechanics will automatically be used when sufficient education has prepared the way. We mean it quite literally, therefore, when we say that education is our total strategy, and truth is our only weapon. Or, as made clear throughout the Blue Book and emphasized on its last page, our gigantic task is simply to create understanding.

Members of The John Birch Society, however, are extremely hard working, highly respected in their local communities, and always earnestly determined on behalf of any cause or candidate that they support. When circumstances bring any appreciable number together behind any particular candidate, their weight is out of all proportion to their numbers. And that weight is usually felt, of course, on the side of the Conservatives—of either party. So the Liberals of both parties naturally raise all the clamor they can against Birchers in politics. As the stranglehold of the Liberals on both parties now steadily increases, even Conservative politicians feel unceasing pressures to "improve their images" by joining the chorus of attack on The John Birch Society. Very few of them indeed have ever realized the extent to which they were running interference for the Communists.

A related part of the mammoth and many-faceted campaign which the Communists have now generated against us is the deliberate and widespread attempts to associate The John Birch Society in the public mind with the Communist Party, the Ku Klux Klan, and other so-called "extremists of the left and of the right." Our approach to the problems of today is so different from the viewpoint of the Klans that we have never knowingly admitted a member of any Klan into the Society. We estimate that about forty percent of our total membership is Catholic. Many of our finest Chapter Leaders are Jewish. And we are very proud of our small but growing number of Negro members, who are working so hard — and so courageously — with us to show our fellow citizens, both white and colored, how the Negroes are being used today by the Communists to serve Communist purposes.

So we have no similarity or sympathy whatsoever with the Klans. While the so-called American Nazi Party, according to J. Edgar Hoover, has less than one hundred members. And it is visibly given immense publicity by some media for the very purpose of using it, by utterly false association, to discredit The John Birch Society.

Nor is this campaign intended to serve simply the purpose of a vague and general discrediting of the Society; or of merely discouraging our members and prospective members. There are plotters behind it who are obviously working towards a more specific goal. They wish to establish in the public mind, and then to formalize, the concept that since the Communists and Ku Kluxers and John Birchers are all "just alike," and since the Communists and Ku Kluxers are visibly "subversive," then The John Birch Society is "subversive" too. We believe it is to this end, at least in part, that so many high ranking politicians have been seduced into speaking out against us.

IV. What Have We Accomplished?

We have established a nationwide educational army. It has a fully paid field staff. This army is fighting with facts as its only weapons. And the whole army knows that to be better informed is to be better armed.

For help towards informing ourselves first, and then others, we established a publishing division. It is now turning out books and pamphlets with a retail value of about four million dollars per year. We also serve as very sizable distributors of the Conservative books and reprints of approximately one hundred other publishers. And our members now operate some 350 "reading rooms that sell books," scattered throughout the country — most of them under the name of American Opinion Libraries.

We have certainly helped to re-awaken, restore, and strengthen, in tens of thousands of Americans, the three great basic human loyalties: Loyalty to God, loyalty to country, and loyalty to family. The Communists know that they simply must destroy all three of these foundations of our civilization. For they can never rule "peacefully" — that is, without constant resistance — in any place or at any time where there is loyalty to anything except to the Communist state.

We were the first organization in the United States to start calling widespread attention to the world-wide Communist plot to discredit, demoralize, and destroy local police forces. Our members have distributed in leaflet form literally millions of our messages explaining what the Communists were doing in this area, and why. As a result, our Support Your Local Police drive has now won tremendous backing from patriotic citizens everywhere.

We are engaged in an entirely proper and constitutional movement to bring about the impeachment of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. As only one result of our educational efforts in support of that movement, we have awakened hundreds of thousands of our fellow citizens to the vital differences between a republic and a democracy. Many of them have come to realize the lengths to which our Founding Fathers went in order to give us a republic (not a democracy) — if we could keep it! And a growing number now understand how important it is to the Communists to convert this republic into a democracy as rapidly as they can.

Through the distribution by our members of huge quantities of books and pamphlets, we have brought a sizable and increasing fraction of the American people to recognize the high degree of Communist planning, influence, control, and purposes involved in the "civil rights" movement. Our increasing ability to get able, informed, and patriotic Negroes to join us in this effort, especially through continuous and widespread speaking engagements, has been an important part of this service to our country.

We have helped mightily to offset the emotional and extravagant tendencies of the prejudiced and the poorly informed to blame Communism on any one group or race or organization. The historical facts clearly reveal that the international Communist conspiracy reaches through every conceivable body it can utilize in any way to promote its ends. And we have insisted from the beginning that we are fighting the Communists — and nobody else.

The Factfinding Subcommittee of the California Senate ended the twenty-five thousand word report of its two-year investigation with these paragraphs:

"We believe that the reason the John Birch Society has attracted so many members is that it simply appeared to them to be the most effective, indeed the only, organization through which they could join in a national movement to learn the truth about the Communist menace and then take some positive concerted action to prevent its spread.

"Our investigation and study was requested by the society, which had been publicly charged with being a secret, fascist, subversive, un-American, anti-Semitic organization. We have not found any of these accusations to be supported by the evidence."

What we have accomplished, above all else, is to keep The John Birch Society alive and growing, as a rallying point for the increasing number of informed and patriotic anti-Communists. Our members have achieved this result, through staggering labor and sacrifice, despite unceasing harassments, and distortions of their actions, and pressures amounting in many instances to serious persecution. And we intend to keep on growing. For we believe the incredibly vicious and massive attacks on the Society have been due, in any final analysis, not to our mistakes and our failures, but to our successes and our progress.

V. Which Do You Choose?

We cannot give you here the full basis for that choice. But let's put down a few point by point comparisons of the Society with its Communist enemies.

- (1) The Communists seek unlimited power for themselves, over the whole human race. The John Birch Society does not want any power at all over anybody, either now or in the future. Agreeing with Lord Acton that "power tends to corrupt; absolute power corrupts absolutely," the Society seeks to make progress towards its goals only by education and persuasion.

- (2) The Communists believe that any means may be used to attain their ends. The Society believes that improper means are never justified by even the noblest of aims, and that means are as important as ends in any worthwhile civilization.

- (3) The Communists always accuse their enemies — such as The John Birch Society — of exactly those crimes which the Communists themselves are committing. We do not bear false witness against anybody, about anything.

- (4) The Communists believe that words should be used to conceal thought, and that promises are made to be broken. The John Birch Society believes that simple truth is the very core of morality; and that when we can persuade enough people to make truth the prerequisite to all statements and the accepted guide to all action, at least half of the world's problems will rapidly disappear.

- (5) The Communists operate in secrecy and darkness. We follow the preponderant custom, among all American voluntary associations, of not publishing the list of our members. With that exception, The John Birch Society has absolutely no secrets of any kind.

- (6) The Communists seek to break down all morality, all tradition, and to destroy the whole spiritual and esthetic sense of values which we have inherited. The Society believes that a reverent continuity in human affairs is of extreme importance; and that even the most desirable change should be made cautiously, in order to be sure that it constitutes improvement.

- (7) The Communists believe that man is just a material combination of atoms, with no other purpose than satisfaction of the desires of the physical entity thus assembled. The John Birch Society believes that a Divine Creator has endowed man with a purpose and an "upward reach" which are far superior to, and frequently prompt a willing sacrifice of, the desires and needs of the individual himself.

- (8) The Communists — Lenin, Lunacharsky, and many other leaders — openly preach that "men must learn to hate," and that only through spreading sufficient hatred can the Communists succeed in ruling the world. The John Birch Society hates nobody, not even the Communists, but only the evil which they do. The Society believes that love for one's neighbor and good will towards all men should be a fundamental motivation in all human relationships.

The Communists also pretend to believe — and some of them undoubtedly do believe — that Communism is "the wave of the future." We believe, instead, that the whole world is now tired of so much strife and bestiality, treason and immorality, cruelty and confusion, blasphemy and destructiveness, bitterness and fear, doubt and despair that always go hand in hand with Communism. We believe that mankind may be about ready to arise, shake off this Communist tyranny and terror, and move forward again towards a more enlightened and humane existence. We are doing everything in our power, by all honorable means, to create the understanding that will produce this result.

If you have what it takes, in character and courage, then by all means join us now in our epic-undertaking. With the added effort of people like yourself, and with God's help — when and because we have deserved it — we shall break up this immense criminal conspiracy, and return a world gone crazy to sanity once again.

PINCKNEY — Richard G. Pearce, of 10960 Stinchfield, Pinckney, was among the 1,173 students at Michigan State University who on Saturday, Dec. 11, received his degree, following completion of the fall term. Pearce received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Accounting.

Pirates Lose Home Games

PINCKNEY — The Pinckney Pirates lost the two home games played last week on Tuesday and on Friday.

In the first one the South Lyon Lions won by the score of 69-49.

The Pirates got off to a slow start, getting only four points in the first period to South Lyon's 16. Although the Lions only got five points in the last quarter to balance out Pinckney's slow start, they had a big third quarter, scoring 32 points. This pretty much clinched the game for them.

One of the things that decided the victory for the Lions was the 19 foul shots, they made out of 35 tries.

Mike Sepulveda was high scorer for the Pirates as he netted four field goals and hit on six of 10 free throws for 14 points.

Mark Doepker garnered 16 points to lead the Lions in scoring. Larry Brown got 12 points and Eric Leddel and Bruce Taylor each got 10 points.

The South Lyon Junior Varsity were also victors over the Pirate Jayvees.

Holly Loses To Brighton

Brighton Bulldog's branded the Holly Bronco's with a 80-64 victory Friday night, Dec. 10.

In the opening moments of the ball game, Brighton scored the first two points, then going on to lead in the first period 13 to 9. In the first half the Bulldogs had an 8 point lead, but then got lazy on defense and their 8 point lead was caught within two. But once again the Bulldog's played some good ball and at half time it was Brighton 31, Holly 27.

Through both halves, fouls plagued both teams. This was due to a very strict official, Lee M. King Jr., who watched the game from all angles and called 30 fouls on Brighton and 29 on Holly. Though he called almost every foul, all of the players respected his decisions and some would even like him to officiate all of the rest of the games for the Bulldogs.

During the third and fourth quarters Lolly was within 6 or 8 points several times but couldn't quite catch up with the rapid Bulldog's. Even though, during the last few minutes, Brighton knew they had the game they continued to pour it on and proceeded to walk away from them.

No one person starred for the Bulldog's as four of the starters hit in double figures. Quotes by Coach Mark's, "It wasn't just a few individuals that wanted the game it was a whole team effort and everyone wanted it."

The Pirates played host to the Williamston Hornets on Friday. The Hornets hardly treated the Pirates like hosts, however as the Ingham County League, Co-champs beat the Pirates, 91-46.

The red hot Williamston team hit on a high percentage of their field goal attempts in the game. Although the Pirates were not hitting too well on their shots and once again got off to a slow start, any team in the league would have had to go some to beat the Hornets on that particular Friday evening.

The Hornets scored 25 points in the first quarter and 54 by the first half. The Pirates slowed them down to 17 points in the fourth period, for a total of 37 in the second half.

Mike Stevenson was the lone man in double figures for the Pirates as he garnered 11 points, eight on field goals and three on free throws.

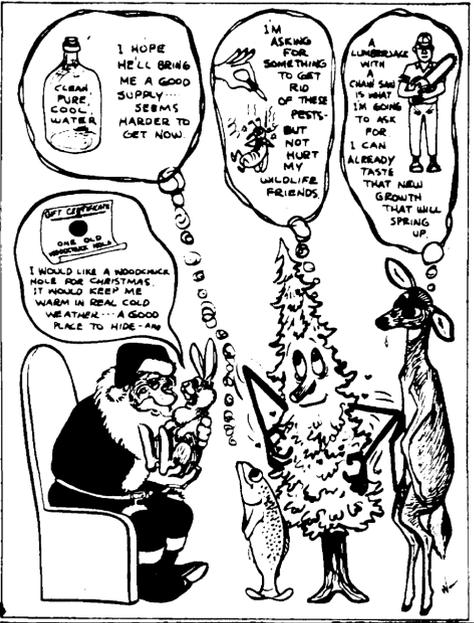

The Hornets had five men in double figures lead by H. Shear who had 15 points. S. Duncke and A. Daingnault had 13 and 12 points, respectively, while R. Pierie and R. Koss had 10 points each.

One Friday, Dec. 17, the Pirates go to Fowlerville and the following Monday they will go to play the Ypsilanti Roughriders.

Millers Sweep Cribbage Play

PINCKNEY — The "Miller Boys" came through with a one two punch, to prove their ability to cribbage players in the Hell Chamber of Commerce sponsored Cribbage League and Tournament held in Pinckney.

After Norm Miller had taken down the hardware in regular league play, Brother Cliff, took over in Tourney Play and had but a single loss to Bob Charboneau, winning handily from all other finalists.

To add to the occasion, the third Miller Entry, Mildred, finished in a 3 way tie for second place with Francis King and Russ Clark.

The "Friendly Callers" under the leadership of Mrs. Stanley Tarrant met for training and calling in the community on Tuesday, Dec. 7. The group meets monthly for this mission to the community, and will come together again on Tuesday, Jan. 11, at 7:15 p.m.

The "Get-Together Club" had a delightful Christmas party in the fellowship hall of the First Methodist Church with fellowship and the singing of Christmas carols. This is a growing group open to all people in the Brighton area.

The Single Young Adults met at the home of the William McCulloch's on Wednesday, Dec. 8, and learned from an interesting discussion of how to translate the Bible into daily living. The group also considered the various translations of the Bible, comparing many passages, and found the Phillips translation a favorite. The young people will meet again on Wednesday, Jan. 12, at 8 p.m. at the McCulloch's.

The Methodist Youth Fellowship met in the fellowship hall on Sunday evening, Dec. 12. Don Eikhoff and Don Carney led the devotions. For the program, the group read a play entitled "The Challenge of the Cross." Because of the Church School Christmas party, the MYF will not meet on Sunday, Dec. 19. Sue Hood and Lyn McCulloch will take charge of the coffee hour on Sunday, Dec. 19, and Scot and Randy Fisher on the 26th. Sheri Fisher will read scripture for the Christmas Eve service representing the MYF. The MYF will go caroling on Sunday, Dec. 19, meeting at church at 4 p.m., then returning for hot cocoa around 5 p.m. The MYF Cabinet meets that same day, Dec. 19, at 8 p.m., to discuss programs for the new year. The meeting will take place in the upstairs Church School room.

The MYF has decided to furnish baby sitting service for those who desire it during the Christmas Eve Service, and Dennis Holmberg, along with Scot and Randy Fisher, will help with this service to parents. The children will be staying in the fellowship hall. The next MYF meeting will take place at Stuart and Barb Leach's on Sunday, Dec. 26, at 6:30 p.m. Those who need a ride can meet at the church at 6:25 p.m.

The youth decided to stage the play "The Challenge of the Cross" for the "Church at Work in the World" series to be held during January of 1966. The play will take place on Jan. 9 with rehearsals on Dec. 26, Jan. 8 and 9. The MYF voted to give the church $25 to help with the apportionments, especially the MYF Fund to serve youth around the world.

The membership training class for 7th and 8th graders met on Sunday, Dec. 13, from 3 to 4:30 p.m. The Woman's Society of Christian Service general meeting took place on Monday, Dec. 13, and Bernice Hyne told Christmas stories. The Carol Choir will rehearse on Wednesday, Dec. 15, at 6:30 p.m., and the Adult Choir at 7:30 p.m., and all members are encouraged to be sure to be present to help with the Christmas music.

The official board Christmas dinner will be held on Wednesday, Dec. 15, at 7 p.m., in the fellowship hall. Thanks are extended to the Leslie Oliver's for furnishing and preparing the turkey. Board members plus their husbands and wives are invited, and participants are asked to bring with them their Christmas gift to the church.

The Couple's Club will sponsor a Christmas party at the home of Ellen and Robert Brubaker on Saturday, Dec. 18, at 8 p.m. Participants are asked to bring gifts to be given to underprivileged children. Dr. and Mrs. Verne Hoshal will be coming from Fort Devens, Mass., and their friends will be glad to greet them.

Membership training class 6 for adults will be conducted at the parsonage on Sunday, Dec. 19. All those who wish to join the church will be welcome to do so on Dec. 19 during the second service of worship. Those who are unable to attend can come in on Dec. 26.

The annual Church School Christmas party will be held in the sanctuary on Sunday, Dec. 26, at 7 p.m. Following the brief program, parents and friends are welcome to visit the teachers and see their displays in the fellowship hall. Refreshments will also be served.

The Christmas Eve Service will be held in the sanctuary on Friday, Dec. 24, at 9 p.m. Nursery service will be provided by the MYF.

A special Advent Candle Service has been a part of the Sunday morning worship services during Advent. Mrs. Robert Nauss has provided an attractive Advent wreath and candles to make this service possible.

This coming Sunday, Dec. 19, the Rev. Robert Brubaker will be preaching on "The Dog and the Shepherds."

Dietary Interne

MARY LOU STRACHAN HOWELL — Miss Mary Lou Strachan of Humboldt, Iowa, has been serving her two-week experience as a dietary interne at the McPherson Community Health Center. Miss Strachan is the second student from the present class at the University Hospital to study the dietary program at the Health Center under the preceptorship of Mrs. Evelyn Warne, Dietitian.

Miss Strachan said, "I now have an insight into the total operation of a small hospital in contrast to one the size of the University Hospital insofar as the responsibilities of the dietitian are concerned."

REPORT from LANSING
State Representative
Thomas G. Sharpe

1965 LEGISLATIVE REVIEW— EDUCATION (Part III)

In addition to approving the largest single increase in history for state school aid (elementary and secondary education) and authorizing record-setting general operating and capital outlay appropriations for higher education, the 1965 Democrat-controlled Michigan Legislature also enacted a host of other measures affecting education. Some of these have already been covered in previous reports, such as:

Labor legislation giving teachers the right to bargain collectively;

Senior citizen legislation establishing, under the auspices of the University of Michigan and Wayne State University, an Institute of Gerontology for the scientific study of old age;

Public health legislation requiring tuberculin testing of children entering school for the first time and school instruction on the harmful effects of tobacco;

Elections legislation allowing third class school districts to reschedule their elections for the same time as City or village elections in 1966 and thereafter and extending present board member terms until successors are elected and qualified; validating dual membership on intermediate and local boards of education; and reducing the minimum number of signatures on nominating petitions from 50 to 20 for school board candidates in registration school districts;

Regulatory legislation placing the licensing and regulation of boarding schools under the Superintendent of Public Instruction; authorizing the State Board of Nursing to approve study programs for foreign graduate nurses; and boosting educational requirements, etc., for prospective barbers.

Other laws, not yet covered, include:

Authorizing school districts lying entirely within a city to receive the tax millage normally allocated to townships;

Allowing the State Board of Education to appoint a hearing officer to hear appeals on alterations of school district boundaries in order to relieve the backlog of appeals pending;

Permitting the State Board of Education and State Library Board to accept anti-poverty funds for basic education of adult illiterates on a 90-10 federal-local matching program (no state funds involved);

Providing for the election of a president by the State Board of Education and setting his salary at $70 per day and other members at $60; plus travel and other expenses incidental to their work;

Clarifying the duties of the Superintendent of Public Instruction with regard to teachers' institutes;

Authorizing a local school superintendent or his designee to sign teacher contracts if so directed by the local school board;

Authorizing first and second class school districts boards to lease property;

Allowing school districts to bond for all things necessary for a total school program, including athletic stadiums.

Providing for the establishment of two or more separate tax limitation millage rates for school districts lying entirely within a county.

Authorizing the State Board of Education to accept federal funds under the elementary and secondary education act of 1965 and the federal cooperative research act.

Permitting the Detroit School District (Michigan's only first class district) to bond up to 2% of the district's state-qualified valuation without voter approval — the same as other districts.

Amending the School Code to provide that 5% of the school electors may request questions submitted to school electors at the annual election, to reduce the time a teacher must serve before being eligible as an exchange student with salary paid by the local board from 5 to 3 years; to authorize equipment purchases from district operating funds and payment of tuition and transportation to another district even though the sending district maintains the same grades; and to allow students in or starting the 12th grade when school boundaries are changed to continue attending the same school without the payment of tuition;

Increasing the time from 5 to 7 years in which increased state aid is paid to a school district when another district is attached (in whole or part) by an intermediate district board of education and increasing the percentages paid;

Extending to non-public schools any auxiliary services (remedial reading, special education, school crossing guards,

A little damp, are you? Take heart — the snow cannot be too far behind! Surely all this hustle and bustle to get the cards mailed, shopping done, decorations up, will be hint enough for our King Winter to cooperate a little by fluffing up the scenery a bit!

One brave purple hyacinth and a speck of creeping phlox put out a bloom last week — thinking spring certainly was early this year!

Another car grew terribly weary of being tortured by cold morning starts, late hours, and took things into its own hands. He put down his head and, with a great roar, peeled right off of the Chilson-Brighton road and into a truck — ka room! He is spending the holidays and eternity in the happy-driving-grounds where all old cars go. Happily, the young neighborhood lad at the wheel came out without a scratch.

Three adventurous young men, Rick Glowacki, Curt and Ernie Botke, wandered into the wrong section of the woodland and spent the rest of the week doctoring their sumac poisoning. We're happy they're well for Christmas.

Ernest A. Botke, Jr., supervisor of the Brighton Recreation Area, attended the annual Supervisor's Training Session at Higgins Lake all of last week.

Miss Joyce Cocconawer was home for the weekend. She is a student in the nurses' training school at Ford Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Schroeder were Lansing visitors Friday afternoon. They broke in their new Bronco on the trip.

Robin Glowacki was one of the Michigan residents who saw the "fire-ball" last week. She wasn't feeling very well and was gazing out of the window while resting on the davenport. She called her mother's attention to it — and marvelled at the size of the falling star. Later, they heard about it in the news reports.

Have you noticed how the traffic lights blend right into the Christmas decorations in Howell and Fowlerville? A stranger would never see them. Perhaps they should be "sparkling" for the holiday season.

If you want to see — and hear — something interesting and beautiful, drop around M-36 and see the live Nativity scene in front of St. Paul's Lutheran Church. The Youth Group will put on the pantomime on Wednesday and Thursday nights, Dec. 22 and 23. The music and narration will be on tape. You won't want to miss this bit of the true Christmas.

County Focal Point of Winter Sportsmen

BRIGHTON — Honeycombed by lakes, hills and winter recreation spots of all kind, Livingston county, with its proximity to centers of great population, is rapidly becoming the focal point for winter sports. Contributing largely to the lure of outdoors during winter has been the clothing and footwear manufacturer who has developed articles of wear that alleviate the discomforts of bitter cold days.

Winter now is more than the time for skiers and ice boaters, ice skaters and tobogganers.

Outdoorsmen have discarded the notion that winter is a time for sitting around the fireplace, repairing equipment and dreaming of summer.

The county has become a leader in ice fishing, scuba diving through the ice, rallying on snow vehicles, and cross-country trail hiking on snowshoes.

Great advances in winter equipment, much of it originally designed for the armed forces, has contributed to the growth of winter outdoor sport.

No longer is the winter outdoorsman wrapped in several layers of heavy clothing restricting his movement. No longer does the winter traveler clomp into camp on two chunks of ice that once were feet.

Lightweight, weather-proof clothing utilizing synthetic materials allows the winter sportsman nearly as much freedom of movement as spring or autumn garb while keeping him warm and dry.

The last point is an important one for the winter outdoorsman. The heavy clothing favored by those who had to be outdoors in winter in years past did not allow body moisture to evaporate in a natural manner. Walking any distance through heavy snow often caused overheating, an initial discomfort compounded when the sportsman took off some of the clothing allowing icy wind to turn perspiration-soaked inner garments into a frozen cocoon.

The new materials allow outer garments to "breathe" while resisting moisture from the outside.

The same problem in a slightly altered form made winter footwear hazardous in the past. Rubber was the answer for many years with the famed shoe-pac, a boot with leather uppers and a rubber foot, the favored gear for winter sportsmen.

New materials offer waterproof footwear which also allows the foot to "breathe" and thermal type socks offer additional warmth and comfort. Leathers which can be made nearly totally waterproof have created a major breakthrough.

WINTER TIME IS ACCIDENT TIME

Home fires. Falls. Sports accidents. All increase shockingly during the winter months.

Much of this suffering and loss isn't necessary, say our Junior Fire Marshals. They're at work on the little causes of big trouble — frayed electrical cords, toys on the steps, carelessness at play.

As local sponsors of the Junior Fire Marshal program, we urge you to take a tip from these youngsters. Their efforts plus yours can help make this a safer and happier winter season.

Tri-Lake News

PHYLLIS SHELTERS

Here we go again, only one more week left before Xmas. Who wants or has to be reminded, eye?

Mary Richmond is now a working girl again. She is working at the Dime store until Xmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pope and their daughter, Denise spent last weekend in Detroit at their other daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Miller and family. On Sunday they went over to their sons for dinner the occasion being Johnny Pope's 3rd birthday.

Mrs. Lorraine Riley took her little grandson, Ricky Shosey to Detroit last Thursday to visit with Santa. Rick really knew what he wanted and he told Santa too.

There were two Fonda Lake women with exhibits at the Livingston County Art Show in Howell Dec. 11th and 12th. Mrs. Linda Davis had on display an oil, water colors and eggs. Mrs. Mary Jane Coble had stuffed animals on display.

Visiting over the week-end at the Kent Davis home was Mrs. Jo Ann Middleitch and 3 children from Flint. They came down to attend the Art show with Mrs. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. John Pinchock, brother and sister-in-law of Mrs. Davis came down Sunday to attend the Art show. The Green Oak Township Constables attended School last Saturday and Sunday Dec. 4th and 5th in Lansing. Attending were Stu Leach, Orville DeHate and John Shosey. Donald Wrenn was unable to attend because he was in the hospital. We wish you a speedy recovery Don.

With summer over with the Green Oak Township constables now have the time to concentrate on cleaning up all the old unusable junk cars sitting around the township. It all takes time, but things are beginning to look a lot better already. With a little co-operation things could and would move along much faster. Co-operate with your constable he's only doing his job!

It must be everyone is out shopping this week I couldn't find very many people home.

Mrs. Frans Geers would like to place a complaint with me. A week ago Sunday Dec. 5th a car pulled up on Kenrich drive window stuck a gun out and fired twice at the geese in the water on the lake. Mrs. Geers children were all playing down by the water at the time.

Mrs. Geers called the State Police right away but got the same answer all of us have gotten, sorry there is nothing we can do about anyone shooting at the geese on a public lake. But this time Mrs. Geers had them. The man was shooting from his car which the State Police handles, and second he was hunting on Sunday in Green Oak, which your conservation takes care of. They were unable to catch the man doing the hunting because Geers' couldn't see the make of the car or the license plates. It's really a shame something can't be done about shooting the geese in such a populated area such as Fonda, Island and Briggs Lakes. You can write to Gerald R. Dunn your State Senator and let your feelings be known. I'm sure if enough people took the time to write, someone would do something about it.

All Don Shosey wants for Xmas are two barrels of STEEL WOOL so he can knit himself a new VOLTSWAGON.

Sharon Potysch and I were talking about what we wanted for Xmas and she said, "did you see that modern davenport in the newspaper last week?" Well I'm not getting it! I can have anything under $20.

Seeing that Christmas is so near I thought you would get a kick out of hearing what some of the little guys wanted for Xmas this year.

It really started out by accident. I called the little neighbor boy to see what he wanted for Xmas and he said, MaMa its Mrs. Santa Claus. So, from then on I told the mothers it was Mrs. Santa Claus calling from the North Pole. You should have heard some of the mothers they were worse than the kids. I only wish everyone could have heard the little guys. It was really cute.

Lorrie Furst 4 years old, Hello! who is this? Mommie its

Mrs. Santa Claus! Yes I know you have a big book. I will only tell you one thing I really want for Xmas, okay? I would like a banjo and I would also like a doll that I can change. I have a little brother Michael Charles you could bring him a little toy cause he's little.

Marie Marow 3 years old, Hello! Oh hello Mrs. Santa. I would like a soda fountain, cash register, typewriter and a little school bus. Sandy Felter 2, Hello Santa - I want a buggy, doll and doll clothes. Dave Felter 5, Hello Mrs. Claus, I want a truck, tractor, bow n' arrow, wrecker truck and a sled.

Marilyn Spare 3, I want a doll and something to go in my kitchen. Gary Spare 5, I want building blocks, and G. I. Joe equipment. Tim Spare 7, I want a walkee talker, cowboy jeans and G. I. Joe equipment. Lynn Spare 6, A doll, something to go in my kitchen and a tea pot. Use your imagination, all this time I was talking to one three more were yelling let me talk!

Drew Gyr 5, I want a new trike and this time I won't let my big brothers ride it.

Kurt Potysch 5, I want a new bike, truck, car, wagon, boat, six fingers and I really think he would still be talking if I hadn't said okay goodby. Tim Shosey 3, Toys! a truck, red wagon and a G.I. Joe. Mark Decker 5, I only want two things a game and a cattle truck. Bobbie Coble 5, I want 6 fingers. By now 6 fingers was bugging me so I said what 6 fingers? Bobbie replied, "It shoots!"

Geoffry Coble 3, I want a sleigh! And I want a present, goodby! Kaj Gyr 8, I haven't really thought of it yet, yet me look in the catalog and call you back Well - do you think a 50 cent motorized car from Uber's would be too much?

Steve Potysch 3, Toys. Just Toys! I want 6 fingers! Then his brother in the background yells into the phone, he doesn't even know what it is! But that's really okay neither do I.

Eric Bufford 8, I want a toy gun, a Johnny Eagle machine gun and a red fire engine. When I want to call Timmy Shosey I got the wrong little boy the first time I got little Clarence. He said he wanted a Ski Sled, new sports coat and a new 35mm camera. I hope Santa reading the paper this week little Clarence.

I hope everyone enjoyed reading what all the little guys had to say to Mrs. Santa. I really had fun doing it.

It seems there are vandals in the neighborhood again! This week Jack Michealsan and Wolf Potysch had the air let out of two of their tires and the Gyr boys said their dad had salt or sugar put in his scooter gas tank. Its really to bad there has to be one person in the neighborhood to make a nuisance out of themselves.

Well I guess that all for this week, call me if you have any news. Don't forget the Xmas program at Hawkins school Dec. 21, and the program at the roller rink Dec. 19th.

Stores See Huge Christmas Sales

BRIGHTON — Merchants in Brighton, Howell, Ann Arbor and all surrounding areas expect the largest Christmas business in their history, based on the predictions of economists that the pace of progress quickens as the country heads into the second half of the 60's.

There is almost total agreement that we are heading into a sixth year of unprecedented prosperity based on national figures.

This section of Michigan is already suffering from labor shortages, necessitating higher wages to bring more workers into this area.

Kiplinger reports from Washington there is less concern over a possible drop in business than at any time in the past 15 years.

Looking at what this will mean to the individual possible results are:

Taxes will be up. At least you'll pay more — despite lower levies on income this year. Social security tax is the culprit. Even employees and self-employed in the lower income brackets will feel the higher taxes, though in lesser amounts.

Price boosts can be expected and mortgage interest rates which are pushing upward could increase a half per cent in a few months.

Christmas trade is expected to inflate credit to a level "far above anything in the past" and the biggest source of credit expansion is the automobile. The American people owe almost $2 billion dollars for the purchase of new cars alone, and there's no sign of a slow-down.

Michigan ranks as one of the nation's largest producers of Christmas trees. The state accounts for nearly 10 per cent of the total U.S. output.

Farmers' Week At MSU Jan.31

Fifty years and still going strong. After five decades, the annual Farmers' Week at Michigan State University still draws an attendance of more than 20,000 each year, many from Livingston County. Over the half-century span more than a million have attended the campus sessions in East Lansing.

The program will shift from a backward glance to a look at the future. Last year, was the Fiftieth Anniversary of Farmers' Week. In 1966, the theme will be "Agriculture Now and In 1980." Focus for much of the program will be a look at modern farming 15 years ahead as a final chapter in MSU's "Project '80." The project has been a two-year study of the future of rural Michigan.

The program will open on Monday, January 31 and conclude February 4. Nearly 200 educational sessions are planned for farmers, homemakers and youth.

Among the special speakers for the week will be Carl Rowan, former head of the U.S. Information Agency who will speak on, "Our Image Abroad." The annual farm management banquet, one of the week's events, will have Director David Bell, head of the Agency for International Development - Aid, as speaker.

Lime Poor Soil Cuts Farm Crops

EAST LANSING — Livingston county farmers are applying only about one-third of the lime they could profitably use on their acid-soil cropland" says a Michigan State University soil scientist.

Arthur R. Wolcott points out that sales of lime in the state have remained below 500,000 tons each year for the last decade. During the same period the use of nitrogen fertilizers in Michigan has tripled. In 1964, 66,000 tons more nitrogen were sold than in 1954.

"The residual soil acidity produced by this greater use of nitrogen would have required at least 132,000 tons more lime in 1964 than 1954," says Wolcott. "As it was, lime sales in the two years were about the same."

He notes that many farmers stop giving attention to lime when they stop growing alfalfa. "This is a mistake! It is normal for soils to become more acid with use."

"Unless controlled by lime, increasing soil acidity (a decreasing pH) leads to unbalanced nutrient uptake and reduced yields," comments Wolcott.

"With lime-loving crops such as alfalfa, yield reductions occur below pH 6.5 to 6.8 with corn, below 5.5."

It is good soil management" he says, to use lime as needed and to avoid excessive applications. And this means that soil testing is a necessary guide to proper applications of both fertilizer and lime.
